A Nudge from Holy Spirit via Ezekiel

May 1, 2019

Jonathan McReynolds (song)
No Gray

Yeah, I wrote this song. And I pray that you listen to all the words. 'Cause, I feel like at some point in everybody's life. We feel like this.

Verse 1:
So, what do I do, I wanna be saved.
But I got to stay cool, too.
And no, I'm not a fool
I know eventually I'm gonna have to choose
And, really, I don't wanna lose
My ticket into Heaven
And a chance to be used by You
[Pre-Chorus]
And if it's God that I'm after I just can't serve two masters
And before something happens
I gotta turn it all around
Because I know
[Chorus]
I can't just have my cake and eat it too
'Cause it's real easy to stay on the fence and still do you
And it'd be cool if we could love the Lord and still go do our thing
But see, it doesn't work like that
You gotta be white or black
[Verse 2]
See, I've realized
When it comes to sin
You just don't compromise
See, it's a matter of death and life
Be weak and do wrong
Or be strong and do right
And I don't wanna keep going to church
Singing all about how much You're worth
And then continue doing my dirt
Living as if I didn't care if You're hurt
[Pre-Chorus]

'Cause if it's God that I'm after I just can't serve two masters
And before something happens
I gotta turn it all around
Because I know

Heart Dwellers
http://heartdwellers.org/
https://www.bitchute.com/channel/still-small-voice/