August 13, 2021

(originally published in Sept. of 2014) Shadows shifting Moon beams drifting, woven dark This light shorn day Time is passing Swift away... swift away Silver coins Cross stainless skies Voiceless tide Caught in their lies Time is passing Swift away... swift away Light Eternal Midnight Cry One is tethered, the other flies Time is passing swift away... swift away So, gather courage Against the tide, For He is coming to take His Bride Time is passing Swift away... swift away Swiftly coming is the day....
