

Communion Service, Very Simple Version

August 1, 2015

Lord, I thank and praise You for all You have done for me, for all you have given me - that You will never, ever forsake me. I confess, Lord, that I have sinned against You and my brother. Have Mercy on me, O God, according to Your unfailing Love. Forgive me, and cleanse me from my sins. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Grant me a willing spirit to sustain me.

"Your Word is a light unto my feet. Oh Lord, guide me in Your ways."

Holy are You, Lord. Full of power and might. The Heavens declare Your Glory, and as the deer pants for Living Waters, so my soul longs for You, O my God.

"Behold, I will pour out My Spirit upon you, and make My Words known to you."

On the night before You died, You had supper with Your apostles. You took the Bread from the table, lifted it up to the Father and gave thanks and praise. You broke the Bread and gave it to Your apostles, saying, "Take this, all of you, and eat it. This is My Body, which will be given up for you." Then, You took the Cup, lifted it up to the Father and gave thanks, saying, "Take this, all of you, and drink from it. This is the Cup of My Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all, so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of Me."

"Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But, only say the word - and I shall be healed."

May Your Body and Blood give me the strength to live for You until You come for us in Glory.

Amen.

Justified by Rule Books or Relationship with Jesus?

August 2, 2015

I've had some interesting responses to the Communion teaching that the Lord has given me to share with you. I have to admit that some of it wasn't terribly positive. I expected a little opposition and a little flack. I had a very hectic day today, and not as spiritual as I wanted it to be. But, the moment I came into prayer, this heavy grief and oppression just hit my heart like a ton of bricks. And I could just FEEL the grief of the Lord, and I was grieved as He was grieved.

A couple of people made remarks that were...out of order, really. He wants to address some of these questions, concerns, and attitudes that people have about this subject. It's important to Him.

And so, as I said, sitting with Him in prayer I felt such a heaviness, and such a pain in my heart. I knew what it was about, because I had just answered some of them on the internet, and just answered an e-mail. Really, I was just heavy-hearted.

The Lord began: "I know exactly how you feel My Love, but you have been obedient to the letter without gloss or withholding anything I told you. You are dealing with some very obtuse, hard-hearted people on both sides, when there shouldn't even BE sides. But, man has made a mockery of My teachings on communion, even though within one chapter of the Scriptures I make it plain, not once, not twice, but seven times. An obtuse spirit does not hear; it listens but hears not.

Oh, Lord - that song of John Michael's brought back profoundly beautiful memories, things I miss.

"I know. You must put them away, their time has expired. You cannot go back, I need you to go forward. I need you to nourish this flock with the Truth I am giving you. They hear My voice because they are My sheep. The others... well, they will have to go the long way around. Their hearts are hardened. On both sides, hearts are hardened.

"My children, you'd better make a deep inquiry into your conscience before Me. If there is one thing I have made clear to those who have listened, put no man between us. No man has the authority to shut your conscience down and command you to obey him. I have taught you to listen for My voice in the depths of your soul. Do not be confused by conflicting doctrines. As I have said before, this channel is not about doctrines, it's about relationship. Haven't you been manipulated enough by doctrines?"

"I suppose not. But, when antichrist comes, you will be lost if you do not have a relationship with Me. Confusion will... No. Confusion IS now reigning in the liturgical churches and it's only the beginning of the end. If you have been cleaving to men's laws and not cultivated a relationship with Me, you will be lost.

"If you are hard hearted, self-righteous and infected with a religious Pharisee spirit, you will miss Me. Indeed, right now, you who chafe and grind your teeth, you have already missed Me. I was born in ignominy, not in royalty. Those who looked for the world's accolades are the ones who crucified Me. Will you crucify Me again with your hard hearted doctrines?"

"There is no more time for bickering. I shall visit each in the manner appropriate for them. Do you think because they do not follow your rules they will not enter Heaven? How wrong you are! How blind! Even the liturgical churches now teach that you do not have to be of their doctrine to enter Heaven. How blind you are, to think you are so correct and the only ones to enter Heaven. Did I not say the tax collectors and prostitutes would enter Heaven before you?"

"Repent and take charge of your heart. Stand before Me with your conscience wide open and allow me to point out the beams sitting in a dark corner there."

"And, for those of you on the opposite end of the spectrum, (oh... how I abhor division) I would say, 'Stop judging those you know nothing about.' You repeat what you have been told, but very, very few of you have taken the time and trouble to investigate for yourself. Rather, it's been more convenient to listen to lies and go along with the crowd. Every idle word will be judged, every false accusation will be accounted for."

"Clean your own house, your own conscience and point not the finger at what you truly do not understand. Put presumption and judgment down once and for all. I am speaking to some of you right now. You feel the conviction in your heart. Pay attention. This is for your own good, as well as for the good of your brother, whom you do not understand or approve of."

"For the sake of the integrity of this channel I will say no more on this subject. My heart is that there be no more division, and in Heaven - I will have My way. But, until then - if you wish to be pleasing to Me, do not attack the faith of others, nor their beliefs. If you are still doing that, you are not paying attention to what I have taught you here. In Heaven, you will know the truth. On Earth, you see as through a glass darkly. Do not presume to know all the mysteries of My incarnation, death and resurrection. Rather, know that I came to Love all men and die on the cross to have them in Heaven with Me forever. Know that the Blood I shed was for all who confess Me, no matter what they believe."

"Know that I work in the conscience of all men, whether they choose to listen or not. And, I do not desire even one to perish. Know that you are not qualified to judge the faith of your brother, because you do not know how I am working in their conscience. Come out of the rule books and know Me in Spirit and in Truth. Set your rule books down and listen for My voice - very soon now and all your rule books will be burned in the fires of the antichrist. Then how shall you be justified? By your rules? Or by your relationship with Me?"

"Enough scolding now. I love you tenderly, dearly, and with My very own Life's Blood. I have set an example for you to follow. It is by your love for one another that I will recognize you when I come to Rapture My Bride."

Blessed Are the Peacemakers Who Keep Up Their Guard

August 4, 2015

The Lord is with us, Family. And tonight, as usual, He has been faithful to bring a beautiful message and teaching about peacemaking and peacemakers.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God. Indeed, peacemakers most resemble Me. Of all attributes aside from charity, peacemaking is most important to Me. Without peace, it is impossible to accomplish anything. Without peace, you cannot foster love. Without peace, men are in a continual downward spiral of death and hopelessness.

"So, this is one of satan's favorite strategies. Steal your peace, at any cost; deprive you of your peace. That is why I have promised you the peace that passes all understanding. Anytime your peace is being rattled, you can assume there is a snake nearby. (no pun intended)

"Ok... a rattle snake."

"Oh, Lord - Your sense of humor (chuckle)!"

"When you get rattled you are dealing with the serpent. Yes, the enemy is taking territory from you unless you are very observant and nip it in the bud. But, for most it slowly coils around to cut off circulation to the brain, injecting the venom of fear disguised as prudence.

"When I visit a soul, I bring peace, whether you are aware of why you feel peaceful or not. My peace surpasses all understanding and all events. In the midst of tragedy, My peace can descend and bring order out of chaos. The dark forces you speak about, their entire agenda is to foster strife, confusion, and chaos.

For I am not a God of confusion but of peace. I Corinthians 14:33

"Anytime, anytime, anytime at all your peace is disturbed, or rattled, you can be sure there is a little demon nearby throwing off your balance, injecting you with its venom. If My people could recognize this from the onset, wars would cease to exist. But rather, they try to fight fear with force and force is always only a temporary solution. That is why My reign is so very important, to restore the Garden of Eden to men, that they may live in peace, good will, and understanding. How joyful life will be when I return! Still, you will have dissenters until the serpent is forever banished, but in the beginning, the peace will be a shining force throughout the Earth. Even the animals will be at peace with men."

This reminds me, as an aside, of a vision that I had about mosques, and about how serpents were being bred in the back of mosques. They were crawling out the windows and doors and along the floors, and they would bite people, and the people would be infected with hatred. And out of the hatred would come violence and war.

"This peace will be hard won by the blood of many and will in its nature only be temporary until the final Judgment. Then peace shall reign forever. So, what I want to say is that peacemakers most resemble Me, and the contrast to that is the troublemakers that most resemble satan. That is why I called the religious leaders a brood of vipers.

"They pretended peace on the outside with long, flowing garments woven with golden tassels, but inside they were ravaging wolves, seeking how to destroy anyone or anything that challenged their authority and rule. Absolute power corrupts and absolute power was what they were seeking. They threatened men with their eternal salvation if they dared to challenge them.

"Things have not changed one iota. Fear is still used by religious authorities masquerading as messengers and protectors of truth.

"My Dear Ones, have nothing to do with dissemblers and those who sow discord among brethren. This is most certainly inspired by the wicked ones. I want you to be pure before me; no mud in your hands - rather clean, shining, and ready to be taken into My Abode forever.

"Be peacemakers. Be the one to take up for the absent when cruel things are said. Be the one who puts a stop to gossip and calumny. How beautiful are the footsteps of the Bride who brings peace in her bosom. She is adorned with all choice perfumes and jewels from her Father's house. Oh, how beautiful you are when you defend righteousness and sow peace among brothers and sisters. You most resemble Me when you bring order out of confusion, understanding out of conflict, turning bitterness to forgiveness and kindness. There is no price worthy of such a soul as the one who goes around bringing brotherly love and concord. The fruits of such a one as this will testify to her virtue throughout eternity.

"I want you to consider for a moment, how the wicked venom from the mouth of the serpentine woman can foment wars and disaster after disaster to rulers. First and Second Kings chronicles the lives of Ahab and Jezebel, his wife."

Of him it was said, 'Surely there was no one like Ahab who sold himself to do evil in the sight of the Lord, because Jezebel his wife incited him' (1 Kgs. 21:25).

"Some men need to be spurred on, to be sure, but not to do evil! A godly wife will challenge her husband to listen to God and live for Him, not encourage him to sin."

Now it came about after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which was in Jezreel beside the palace of Ahab king of Samaria" (1 Kgs. 21:1). "Ahab decided he wanted Naboth's property, so he went to him and said, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden because it is close beside my house, and I will give you a better vineyard than it in its place; if you like, I will give you the price of it in money" (1 Kgs.21:2).

"Naboth declined the offer, just as he should have done, for God had forbidden the Jews to sell their paternal inheritance. (Lev. 25:23-34). Naboth was simply obeying the law of the Lord."

So, Ahab came into his house sullen and vexed because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him ... And he lay down on his bed and turned away his face and ate no food" (1 Kgs. 21:4).

Jezebel found Ahab sulking in his bed and said to him, "How is it that your spirit is so sullen that you are not eating food?" (1 Kgs. 21:5).

"So he explained to her how Naboth refused to let him have his vegetable garden."

She replied, "Do you now reign over Israel?" (1 Kgs. 21:7).

"In modern terms, that might sound more like, 'Don't you know that you are the king? You can take anything you want.'"

(By the way, the commentary in between the Scriptures is by Richard Strauss, a pastor that has gone on to be with the Lord.)

"The story continues: "Arise, eat bread, and let your heart be joyful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite" (1 Kgs. 21:7).

"She planned to commit a hideous crime; she was going to pay two false witnesses to testify that they heard Naboth blaspheme God and the king, so that both he and his sons would be stoned to death and the king would be free to lay claim to his land (cf. 2 Kgs. 9:26). She was going to teach Ahab her philosophy of life: 'Take what you want and destroy anyone who stands in your way.' And Ahab did not have the courage to stop her.

"But, the story is not over. These two were self-willed to the end. Elijah met Ahab in Naboth's vineyard and pronounced God's judgment on both him and his wife for their wicked deed. It was several years later when that judgment came on Ahab and it, too, is a story of self-will.

"The incident started over a city east of Jordan called Ramoth-Gilead, which Ahab said belonged to Israel but was still in the hands of Syria. When Jehoshaphat, King of Judah, came to visit Ahab, he asked him if he would go to battle with him for Ramoth-Gilead. Jehoshaphat agreed. And so this wicked man met his death on the battlefield when a nearly impossible and perfect shot pierced the tiny space between his plates of armor and He was killed in battle.

"So, here we have the story of a man and woman who are very self-willed. She urged him on to be more self-willed, and eventually indulging that self-will brought on his death in battle." (end of commentary)

And then, the Lord brought these two incidents up, with Jezebel and Ahab, and then with Nabal, Abigail and David - this was the next thing He brought up.

"Contrast this with Nabal, Abigail and David, the balm from the virtuous woman can forestall disaster and reunite the alienated and estranged.

"Now, mind you - that whole incident with Jezebel and Ahab spawned a bunch of rulers that were just as wicked and just as evil as Jezebel was. So, it really ruined the nation with Baal worshippers and rulers that brought the country down continually, and left it in disorder. And this was all going back to this woman Jezebel, who married Ahab and had a wicked tongue."

Now, the story of Nabal, Abigail and David, this is what happened:

1 Samuel 25:2 A certain man in Maon, (mountain) who had property there at Carmel, was very wealthy. He had a thousand goats and three thousand sheep, which he was shearing in Carmel. 3 His name was Nabal and his wife's name was Abigail. She was an intelligent and beautiful woman, but her husband was surly and mean in his dealings.

4 While David was in the wilderness, he heard that Nabal was shearing sheep. 5 So he sent ten young men and said to them, "Go up to Nabal at Carmel and greet him in my name. 6 Say to him: "Long life to you! Good health to you and your household! And good health to all that is yours!"

7 "Now I hear that it is sheep-shearing time. When your shepherds were with us, we did not mistreat them, and the whole time they were at Carmel nothing of theirs was missing. 8 Ask your own servants and they will tell you. Therefore be favorable toward my men, since we come at a festive time. Please give your servants and your son David whatever you can find for them."

9 When David's men arrived, they gave Nabal this message in David's name. Then they waited. 10 Nabal answered David's servants, "Who is this David? Who is this son of Jesse? Many servants are breaking away from their masters these days. 11 Why should I take my bread and water, and the meat I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men coming from who knows where?"

12 David's men turned around and went back. When they arrived, they reported every word. 13 David said to his men, "Each of you strap on your sword!" So they did, and David strapped his on as well. About four hundred men went up with David, while two hundred stayed with the supplies.

14 One of the servants told Abigail, Nabal's wife, "David sent messengers from the wilderness to give our master his greetings, but he hurled insults at them. 15 Yet these men were very good to us. They did not mistreat us, and the whole time we were out in the fields near them nothing was missing. 16 Night and day they were a wall around us the whole time we were herding our sheep near them. 17 Now think it over and see what you can do, because disaster is hanging over our master and his whole household. He is such a wicked man that no one can talk to him."

18 Abigail acted quickly. She took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five dressed sheep, five seahs of roasted grain, a hundred cakes of raisins and two hundred cakes of pressed figs, and loaded them on donkeys. 19 Then she told her servants, "Go on ahead; I'll follow you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

20 As she came riding her donkey into a mountain ravine, there were David and his men descending toward her, and she met them. 21 David had just said, "It's been useless--all my watching over this fellow's property in the wilderness so that nothing of his was missing. He has paid me back evil for good. 22 May God deal with David, be it ever so severely, if by morning I leave alive one male of all who belong to him!"

23 When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey and bowed down before David with her face to the ground. 24 She fell at his feet and said: "Pardon your servant, my lord, and let me speak to you; hear what your servant has to say. 25 Please pay no attention, my lord, to that wicked man Nabal. He is just like his name--his name means Fool, and folly goes with him. And as for me, your servant, I did not see the men my lord sent.

26 And now, my lord, as surely as the Lord your God lives and as you live, since the Lord has kept you from bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hands, may your enemies and all who are intent on harming my lord be like Nabal. 27 And let this gift, which your servant has brought to my lord, be given to the men who follow you.

28 "Please forgive your servant's presumption. The Lord your God will certainly make a lasting dynasty for my lord, because you fight the Lord's battles, and no wrongdoing will be found in you as long as you live.

So, here she is, saying all these wonderful things to him, and trying to appease him because she knows everyone's life hangs in the balance!

29 Even though someone is pursuing you to take your life, the life of my lord will be bound securely in the bundle of the living by the Lord your God, but the lives of your enemies he will hurl away as from the pocket of a sling.

30 When the Lord has fulfilled for my lord every good thing he promised concerning him and has appointed him ruler over Israel, 31 my lord will not have on his conscience the staggering burden of needless bloodshed or of having avenged himself. And when the Lord your God has brought my lord success, remember your servant."

32 David said to Abigail, "Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, who has sent you today to meet me. 33 May you be blessed for your good judgment and for keeping me from bloodshed this day and from avenging myself with my own hands. 34 Otherwise, as surely as the Lord, the God of Israel, lives, who has kept me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, not one male belonging to Nabal would have been left alive by daybreak."

Wow! So, she forestalled a major disaster by her good judgment. And the Lord has many times talked about bloodshed being as gossip, about ruining someone's reputation. "Blood on Innocent Hands" is one of the videos we did about that. She, with her good judgment, kept him from shedding blood.

35 Then David accepted from her hand what she had brought him and said, "Go home in peace. I have heard your words and granted your request."

36 When Abigail went to Nabal, he was in the house holding a banquet like that of a king. He was in high spirits and very drunk. So she told him nothing at all until daybreak. 37 Then in the morning, when Nabal was sober, his wife told him all these things, and his heart failed him and he became like a stone. 38 About ten days later, the Lord struck Nabal and he died.

39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Praise be to the Lord, who has upheld my cause against Nabal for treating me with contempt. He has kept his servant from doing wrong and has brought Nabal's wrongdoing down on his own head." Then David sent word to Abigail, asking her to become his wife. 40 His servants went to Carmel and said to Abigail, "David has sent us to you to take you to become his wife."

41 She bowed down with her face to the ground and said, "I am your servant and am ready to serve you and wash the feet of my lord's servants." 42 Abigail quickly got on a donkey and, attended by her five female servants, went with David's messengers and became his wife. The wife of a king.

So, what a difference between the blessings that this woman brought on and saved her whole household from demise by her good judgment and good will. And, rushing to be in between as an intercessor to bring peace. A true peacemaker. And you contrast that with wicked Jezebel who was constantly fomenting trouble and was pushed to her own servants and trampled under the hooves of a horse and her remains were left to the dogs to eat. What a contrast between the two stories and the two women! And the effect that they had - the long lasting effect of Jezebel on Israel was serious, serious, really serious.

I think here, the Lord is showing us a contrast between someone who is jumping on board with detraction and ugliness, and someone who steps in the gap to bring peace and try to do the right thing, and bring peace to both sides. And, the fruits of that! Jezebel has spawned generations of wicked rulers. Abigail saved her whole household and lived the life of a queen, as a result of her wisdom in being a peacemaker. What a contrast! And, I think we need to look at that every time we open our mouths: who do we want to be like? Do we want to be like Jezebel? Or do we want to be like Abigail? Because in the moment, it's very tempting to jump on board with detraction and talk about it and make it big and juicy. But, the result of that is serious damage, and serious consequences for the people who do it - just as Jezebel was thrown out of her window by her own servants. And, Abigail, as a result of her prudence and good will as a peacemaker was made a queen - and of the greatest king that ever lived.

The Lord continued, "I am taking the time My Bride to reveal the fruits of a wicked and the fruits of the wise.

"How beautiful you are to Me, My Bride. Truly you take My Breath away with your virtue when you defend the innocent and refuse to partake of evil. Remember, in this time left to you on Earth, the devils are always looking for a way to defile you, steal your purity, your innocence, your beauty. Dissembling and destroying peace among brethren or family is the enemy's favorite tactic.

"Be on your guard, My Beautiful One. Protect your virtue and the virtue of others from detraction and gossip. Keep your hands clean from the mire of this world. Do not allow anyone to soil your wedding garment. Continue to take My Breath away by your virtue.

"Oh, how wonderful it will be on that day that I take you to Myself in absolute purity with nothing to shame you or cause you to blush.

"Remember it is not what goes into your mouth that defiles but what comes out that defiles and reveals the contents of your heart. Keep your heart only for Me. Protect it without compromise. Bring peace out of strife, let your virtue shine upon all men that your Father in Heaven may be glorified.

"Blessed are you, Peacemakers. You are called children of God, and surely I will take you into the place I have prepared for you."

Have I Delayed the Rapture, Jesus speaks on the delays

August 4, 2015

I love you precious family, and I understand many of you feel hurt that Jesus has not come for His Bride yet and we've got our dancing shoes on since June, and so many other preparations we have made expecting Him to come when the Dogwood blooms, (by the way it blooms in late summer in certain places) expecting Him to come when CERN started up, expecting Him when treaties were signed, expecting Him when Jade Helm began.

May I say I am feeling let down as well? For every viewer that takes the time to comment there must be another hundred who haven't. Some of you even feel I haven't been hearing from the Lord, and from time to time I ask myself that question, I wouldn't be human if I didn't, would I? I come under attack too.

But every time I put out a message there are certain ones who take the time to comment and tell me what an answer to prayer the messages were. I feel Him so very strongly, I hear Him, I see Him and He confirms so many things to me. So why do we all fall into doubt and unbelief?

Could it be that we're feeling let down, abandoned, disappointed? Well to be honest, I feel that way sometimes, I struggle with those very feelings. But as Peter said to the Lord after many abandoned Him, "To whom shall we go Lord, You have the words of Eternal life?" I believe that with all my heart. And this afternoon in worship the Lord made something very, very clear to me, it was so strong I had to stop worship and tell you.

"My People, you and I have different agendas. You are longing to escape the pains of this earthly journey, you are longing to enter into your eternal reward, you are longing to be with Me. I do not fault you for this, I totally understand and long for you as well.

"But your agenda and My agenda do not match. I have come to save the lost and I know only too well when that window of Mercy is going to slam shut. Don't you see? This is the most painful thing I must ever endure and the very thought of doing it makes Me collapse in tears as I was in the Garden before My crucifixion. Do you know what was the most painful thing for Me to endure? It was the crushing loss of those who rejected My Love and My grace and their provision to be saved. That was far and away the most painful thing I ever experienced.

"You see I remember the disposition of that little soul when it came to earth. I remember the purity, the beauty, the sincerity. And looking at it now, all disfigured and deformed by sin and lies, pushing Me away, rejecting My provision is crushing My very Heart.

"And why are they pushing Me away??? Because man has deformed, disfigured and defamed My Name, My Faith, My Person. They don't recognize Me, because those who represent Me are not like Me. Many are full of judgment and hypocrisy. They have been taught God is hateful, mean, stripping away joy, overly demanding, and to live for Him is to live in a straight jacket. They have been taught that if they walk into church with two different colored socks they will be judged and rejected. Man has presented this image to them.

"So now in these last hours I have raised up ministers who will convey My True nature to the world. That those who have been fed the twisted agenda's of religion will recognize, "That's not Me, that never was Me. Let Me show you who I am." and the results I am seeing are spectacular. You who have turned around and recognized Me, finally, how wonderful that is. Oh My aching Heart is SO comforted by you.

"But do you know, there are more just like you, who are chained and being dragged off into perdition because they have yet to know Me? Some of these are your very relatives and children.

"Let me ask you this. What are you willing to suffer to see your loved ones brought into the kingdom???

"How long are you willing to wait to see them saved and rejoicing in Me even as you now rejoice in Me?

"What is it worth to you? What price are you willing to pay? Truly. Not theoretically, but truly, what's the price of their souls to you???

"You all know I am coming soon, I have been pouring the pressure on since the 60's to convince My People I AM COMING!!! And each month I pour the pressure on even more and more and more. Why? To disappoint you and leave you hanging???

"No!!! To get you into gear to apply yourselves to My agenda, and to see more brought into the Kingdom."

Oh Lord this is so confusing to some because they don't have a clear calling of your agenda. They don't see what they can do. They haven't a clue as to how to begin to approach people. Lord I've been guilty of this. If it weren't for this channel, I'd still be guilty.

"Wake them up, through their conscience...through their disappointments and emptiness inside. They are the walking dead, sound asleep and they are all around you. Many of them KNOW they are not alive, something vital is missing, they can feel that emptiness. They are the walking wounded, lonely, confused, no direction in life. Approach them from that direction. "Are you hurting, have you been deeply disappointed in life, are you feeling hopelessness about life. Are you seeing more and more terrible things coming upon the world? Do you want to live? Do you want your life to turn around? Do you want to have hope, joy, and feel good about life again?

"Many, many, many are on the very verge of despair because nothing they planned has worked out. Violence, immorality, disappointment, failed dreams, Oh how painfully they suffer. And no one has the answers? Life is a hopeless void? Isn't there something more to life than my dreams being shattered? Do you know how many feel that way? Thousands? No, millions. Because of the reprobate rulers, the genocides, the persecution, the wicked governments, millions suffer this, yes! Millions!

"My children, there is nothing mysterious about it. You must tell people, "I am not living my life for now, for earthly rewards, I'm living my life to prepare for my death, and for Heaven. Soon we will all have to answer to God for what we did or didn't do with the life breath He gave us. So I'm living for Him.

"If you died tomorrow, how would you stand before God? Have you lived your life just for yourself? For what you could have? For your own pleasures? Or have you reached out to others and been a blessing to the infirm, elderly, challenged, the underdog? If you've lived for yourself, you will have nothing to present to God when you die, nothing but selfishness and condemnation. Is that what you want???"

"Do you know the hope you have within you??? Do you know that you indeed have all the answers they will ever need? I need you My People, My Brides, I need you to rise up and confront people on the levels they are suffering.

"Stop looking at the clouds start looking at My heart that is breaking for them. Please, please, stop looking for your own deliverance and start looking for the deliverance of others.

"You who are in school, continue in school, but be a living witness to My Love wherever you go. You are so different than the ones that are not saved! you are so unique, you have the answers they don't have. They are not happy with their selfishness, they are lost inside. When they see you being kind, going out of your way, being happy, they will want what you have. They are searching inside...but doing it without hope because they don't know Me. You do know Me. You have all their answers.

"I will come for you at an hour you do not expect! How many times have I told you that???? On this channel, on other channels, in My Word, in church??? I will come at an hour you do not expect.

"Stop expecting by dates, you're living like yo-yos, not like My representatives. You're confused and depressed because your dates didn't pan out. But don't you know I am ramping you up to get busy? I have not abandoned you, I am trying to raise you up to the reality all around you, that I grieve over every day, so many will be lost. You will look back on your lives and say, "Why didn't I talk to them? Why Lord, Oh God forgive me." And at the same time they will be down on earth saying, "Why didn't they tell us?" Yet others will say, "I tried Lord." And the ones they witnessed to will say, "They tried to tell us, but we just wouldn't believe."

"Which group do you want to be in when you stand before Me??? Are you going to be in the group that increased their talents or in the group that buried them? In that day you will see the difference between the ones who bore a harvest and the ones that were lazy.

"Do not put off your lives because you know time is short, go forward and carry Me with you. For those who have received a call to full time ministry, I tell you now, you will be deeply disappointed with your life if you put Me off for another day.

"Move forward with all your God inspired plans, and if you have no plans, seek Me until you find Me and I will give you plans. I will lead you quietly, gently, in your heart. You will feel drawn in a certain direction, it will be a still small voice and an affection in your heart. But you will have to listen very carefully because such noisy things as video games, rock music, crowds of people, business, have jaded your ears so that you cannot hear My tender leadings."

Gosh Lord, it sounds like years before You come?

"Didn't I say I would surprise you??? What if I surprise you and you're sitting on a roof top watching the Eastern sky while your brother in the same apartment building is going to hell that very night? How will you stand before Me? Will that not be the fruit of selfishness?

"What I am asking of all of you My Brides, is to stop living for yourself. Yes, keep in mind you are watching for My Coming you are listening for the Shofar, but do put your backs into the work at hand, proceed confidently with your education and work. Do not put your lives on hold because you're living from date to date posted on different channels?"

"Didn't I ask you NOT to do that because it would cause confusion, fear and despair? You are being manipulated by focusing solely on this. I know your curiosity got the best of you because I endowed you with curiosity, I know how powerful it can be, if you don't have sufficient self-control. Pray for more self-control."

"It is good to expect My coming, it is good to be spurned on because I give you clues that I am at the door, keep this in your heart, but move forward with your lives, confident that I will be pleased with what I find My servant doing at My arrival."

"And one last thing I would like to confirm to you Clare, because I have heard the musing of your heart. It is quite true, I have forestalled the Rapture because of your prayers. You have all been on the verge of the Rapture quite literally for years, but because of the sincere prayers of your hearts, because of the grief you carry for your relatives and for the world. I have relented and delayed. Clare, I have told you this from day one. Go back to your old messages and you will find My very first message to you all on this was that My Bride was not ready."

"Some of you on this channel only came to the Lord a couple of months ago. You can thank the saints on earth for their prayers, they are the ones who forestalled the searing judgment on this earth. And I still have My hand raised in the forestalled position because I see so many only a footstep away."

But Lord wasn't it you that told me a date had been set?

"I did. It has come and gone because of My Mercy. There are layers of salvation taking place. One group comes into the kingdom, another group (very often related to them) follows. Wave after wave of salvation. But there is soon coming a time when that will end. I want it to go on forever. This is where I wish for your heart to be."

"Please, do not focus your prayers on your own comforts or deliverance, focus them on the lost I have yet to reach, pray like never before that workers will go into the harvest fields. And one more thing, if your life is boring and lifeless, it is because you are not living for Me but for yourself. I never allow My servant's lives to be boring, I always send sufficient consolation and joy to uphold you. If you are bored it is not because you are serving Me but you are serving yourself and waiting for Me rather than serving others and knowing I'm coming."

"So I hope this will answer many of your questions as to what to do right now. Many of you are facing college and job opportunities. I want you to seek Me with all your hearts and follow my tender leadings in your hearts."

"I spread My mantle of grace over you all now, and impart to you conviction, repentance, hope, the joy of new life lived for Me and confirmations of My leadings in your lives. Go forth in confidence, I am coming" soon,

"Who then is the faithful and sensible slave whom his master put in charge of his household to give them their food at the proper time? "Blessed is that slave whom his master finds so doing when he comes. "Truly I say to you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions....Matthew 24:46

Pitching a Pout (My Bad Temper and Pride)

August 6, 2015

The Lord's Blessing be with you, Youtube family. Tonight I have a confession to make about my anger and pride. The Lord was very sweet - but firm! - with me when dealing with this.

Something came up a week ago, a request, and at face value I did not want to deal with it. I thought it was a distraction and would take a substantial part of my day and exhaust me, leaving nothing for the message. People do not understand how tight our schedule is and this was out of the blue.

Just as an aside, I am working very hard to get the message out for the morning, because I know how much you guys like to get up in the morning and listen to it. That seems to continue to allude me, getting it out in the morning, so my apologies. I haven't given up on that yet.

Anyway...Ezekiel is a very dear soul, he wants to make everyone happy, and so he is always ready to help and say yes to people who ask for things. But, I carry the greatest burden of the work load because he is oftentimes sick, and sometimes I can get my ire up and feel put upon when someone makes a request out of the ordinary that I feel is going to be the last straw to the poor camel's back! Every day I am running to catch up with yesterday! And I think you all know what that feels like...

In any case, I didn't feel that he understood what a sacrifice fulfilling this request would be and how it would prevent me from having a message that day. So, when I went into prayer I was angry with him, angry with the poor people, and angry at the Lord because He was confirming that He wanted us to do this. Well, I believe all anger stems from Pride, so I was angry at me, too, for being prideful! Oh, NO Lord, not more pride!!! ANYTHING but that, please!

SIGH! So, when I was busy pitching my hissy fit, even during worship...thinking 'This is an absolute fiasco, I can't worship when I'm furious like this!' Jesus came to me all bloody, with the crown of thorns and placed a crown on my head, too. As I told Him I was sorry, His wounds began to heal and soon He was looking normal again.

Oh, Lord I'm so sorry, it's just not something I want to do.

"Obviously."

But, I'm willing to be made willing?

"Well, that's a start."

I was so angry I couldn't listen to Him. I felt so frustrated and ashamed to be listening to Him in this condition and I needed a distraction, so I set to work on an image from the last video that just didn't meet my standards. Poor Jesus...I'm in Protocols having all kinds of fun and still angry...and when I finished, He was still there! You mean You still want to talk with Me, Lord??

"I waited didn't I? While you pitched your little fit."

I should be ashamed, but I'm still struggling with feeling put upon.

"Don't you know that if you obey Me you'll always have time to do whatever is necessary? The problem is when you want to do what you want to do and something crosses your path. That's when I need Ezekiel to pray for Me."

Pray for YOU, Lord? (Well, He always says that when I'm in a dither...that Ezekiel needs to pray for the Lord...)

You're funny.

"Well, we have to get a little levity in here somewhere - you're just as dark and stormy as an incoming Hurricane, My Love."

Am I that bad?

"That bad? You can't see what you're holding down?"

Oh, Jesus, what do I do when I feel this way??? Go to bed?

"Consider that you're not pleasing to Me..."

Oh, that's really going to help. Now, I'm going to hate myself as well!

"You asked..."

OK, I'll try that... Well I do remember when we first came together tonight, You were all bloody with the crown of thorns and You put a crown of thorns on my head, too. And, then you held me and as I said I was sorry, Your wounds began to heal. Did I cause your wounds to open, Lord?

"What do you think?"

Well, I would say yes, except you gave me a crown of thorns, too. And that just doesn't fit.

"That bears repeating"

'That doesn't fit?'

"Exactly. I want you to resemble Me by doing My will. When you receive My will with humility and cooperation, you resemble and comfort Me, the crown fits. But, when you throw it back in My Face, with ingratitude and rebellion, well, I have to wear that crown and those stripes all over again. I know that you know this...did you forget already? It hurts Me, Clare.

"I need you to be very flexible and know without doubt that whatever I give you to do is important to Me. Your resentment was more against your husband for telling you it was something I was confirming to him. You didn't have a chance to discern, so you felt put upon. I understand that, but respect is still lacking here. None-the-less these are things you need to work out in your heart. I understand how you feel, but maybe out of deference to him you should have stopped the 'important' work you were doing and discerned as well."

Lord, I felt pressure building up on me. I felt like I needed more space and time.

"Yes, I know well what you were thinking. I just ask that you think about how your moods affect other people. And, it is an act of charity, obedience and humility to lay down your very important work to take time out and discern when others are hanging."

I understand what you are saying, Lord. I'm going to need more grace to put it into practice.

"Self-will Clare, self-will. It always boils down to self-will, which is only a layer above pride - which is the foundation. What you're doing is MORE important than stopping to discern. Basically, that's what you're saying. But, I am showing you what is more important to Me: yielding to My will, being flexible from a heart of charity. That's what I value the most. Do you think you can move in that direction?"

With Your grace, I know I can. Intellectually, I want to say I'm sorry. Emotionally? The waves are still rolling in...

"You've got to learn how to walk on water, My Love."

Or...how about dive down into the depths, so no one can see me in this state?

And when I said that, it came to mind: If I take the wings of the dawn, If I dwell in the remotest part of the sea, Even there Your hand will lead me, and Your right hand will lay hold of me....Psalm 139:9

"Clare, I adore you Sweetheart, even when you're angry. I will never brush the dust of your sins off and walk away from you. Rather, I will give you the grace to reason things through and repent, because I am forever at your right hand guiding you. Never shall I forsake you, even when your presumption and temerity suggest that I do."

"You know it well: I am all about Love, and I will never forsake you in your weaknesses."

Thank you, Lord, I think I need to sleep on this. Will you speak to me in the morning?

"I will. I love you. We will finish this conversation in the morning. By the way, thank you for downing the panther this morning - he rose up pretty strong."

Thank you for revealing to me what was going on.

I had a communion service that morning and my readings were about the 10 commandments and repentance. It was a series of readings from an old liturgical missal that I like to use, because they have coordinated readings from the Old Testament, the Psalms, the Gospels and the Letters.

Even in the framework of the communion service, I knew what the Lord was saying: I was beginning to get the itch again...to bolt out the door before prayer and take care of what I considered to be urgent necessities. But, I could feel the demon behind that push and the Lord gave me the grace to stay bound and determined to stay and pray.

But, my intellect and self-will were reasoning with the check in my conscience. Back and forth, back and forth.

'You need to get this done, you need to go' 'No, you need to stay and put the Lord first.' 'But, you've gotta get this done, you better go.'

I needed a back-up word, so I used my Bible Promises to discern what I should be doing and I opened to Prayer. The panther loses, this time. Thank you, Lord.

Family, can you see how important that reading was to me? The Lord confirmed what I felt in my conscience so I couldn't rationalize my way out of it. Oh, the things of the world are so unimportant to God.

Jesus continued, "Thank you for listening to Me very carefully. That pleases Me so much."

The Ugliers

Happy Birthday, Ezekiel!

The Lord has been expanding our viewer audience so we've begun a podcast now, available in iTunes. Hardly anything up yet, but at least it's a start. So, while you are all on YouTube for now, some of our subscribers will be in iTunes...so if you don't mind, I want to call you Heart

Dwellers because all of us rest in His bosom.

So, the Lord bless you, precious Heart Dwellers.

This has been a very tiring two days: relatives visiting, book covers hanging in the air, podcasts hanging...and I just was plain overwhelmed. Plus, an unusual amount of e-mails, which has absolutely been drowning us! So, that's part of the reason there was no message - there were just so many email. And, I confess I feel very, very little and insufficient for this job. So, my loved ones, forgive us, but if I get an e-mail from you or anyone else, I will be asking you to post it as a personal message, which means you go to our Youtube channel Homepage, and where it says About, click on that and it will open up to a window that will offer you the option to send a message. And, the messages, by the way, are fairly private. Nobody else is going to see those messages on Youtube but myself and our staff. Thanks be to God, we have new people coming onboard all the time... but they are not acquainted with playlists and messages. Hopefully we will get everyone loved and taken care of, and anything that you guys can do to help, and refer people to other messages would be wonderful. We have two new people that will be helping us, also - with answering personal messages and comments.

Tonight, it took a very long time before the Lord wanted to start speaking to me, and I realized part of that was because I was so depleted, and He was really filling my heart with very sweet, sweet things and dancing.

Tonight, I saw myself as a Bride, dancing with Him in my bridal clothing and He was so charmed, and charming and so engaged and so taken up, being in my presence and me being in His presence. There was just a very, very sweet connection going on. It was sweeter than normal, and I was wondering, 'Wow...what's up with this?' After a while, he began to talk to me.

I started out by saying, 'Lord...what are you thinking right now?'

He answered me, "What am I thinking? How very beautiful you are... and that you have a really bad case of the Ugliers. Condemnation after condemnation after condemnation. I've been watching you fight it for days, and really - I want it to stop. I'm tired of seeing you besmirched by the enemy. Clare, truly it has worn you down. This self-hatred, really, I want it to stop. You are singularly beautiful to Me, not singularly ugly, as the enemy would have you believe."

"There is a serious move of condemnation coming over My Body right now, in an effort to disable each and every part. I must warn you, My Brides, this is not coming from Me. This is not conviction - it is condemnation and it's been hatched as a plan to debilitate you.

"Your beauty and your worth does not lie anywhere within the sphere of this world. No, it is extraterrestrial - not in the usual sense, but in the Heavenly sense. Each and every one of you are singularly beautiful, powerful, Grace filled, and awe inspiring as bannered troupes.

When He said that, I remembered the first song that Ezekiel and I wrote about the Song of Solomon. One of the lines was in the 6th chapter:

Song of Songs 6

...4 You are beautiful, my darling, like the lovely city of Tirzah. Yes, as beautiful as Jerusalem, as majestic as bannered troupes. 5 Turn your eyes away from Me, for they wound Me. Your hair is like a flock of goats that have descended from Gilead.

Just reading that, and knowing that this is what the Lord was thinking just made me sigh. I was kinda spaced out and said, 'Hummm...'

"That's what you always say when you don't know what else to say."

You know me well, Lord.

"Well, you are as beautiful as bannered troupes and your eyes do wound Me.

"My Brides, you are way too steeped in the condemnation of the world. In the world, you have a continual cutting away of your stature before Me. You are taught so many false and erroneous things about beauty from childhood that you have learned to condemn yourselves and cut yourselves down before you realize what you've done.

"Not that you should go around flaunting your physical beauty, no, that's not the point at all. But, you were never taught to value what I value in a soul: the true beauty of a soul. As a result, you've compared yourselves to the beautiful people time and time again, and come up feeling 100% ugly. In My reality, you are all stunningly beautiful before Me, and awe inspiring as bannered troupes.

"Yes, you are adorned with My Grace, which is invisible to the world, but highly visible to the citizens of Heaven. If only you knew the depth and breadth of the Grace that surrounds and abides in you, you could relax and minister to souls out of that storehouse.

"What I want to convey to you in this message is that you are indeed a caravan laden with aromatic spices, sapphires and gold. When you approach other souls who do not know Me, there is a certain royal quality about your person that comes from My presence inside of you. Souls can sense there is a rare treasure, hidden within, yet intangible to them.

"My beautiful ones, you are full of grace and beauty, and so highly desired and valued by Me. What you have shines from within, whereas what the world has shines from the outside... yet is dead within. You mustn't ever compare yourselves to the celebrities of this world who are fair and skilled in conveying outward beauty, but inside may very well be spiritually dead. What I see when I look upon a man or a woman is the interior light - whether it be shining brightly, barely flickering, or even non-existent.

"When you are weighed down from this false sense of ugliness, you tend to withdraw and not allow that light to shine on others. Rather, you run and hide, are easily persuaded to give up, and are weak in your resolve to touch others. This is being used against you right now. Part of the fatigue you have been feeling is discouragement from unhealthy self-abasement. The enemy uses this as a two pronged attack. When you feel ugly on the outside, it cripples you from approaching others, and the worst part is that it returns the focus on yourself instead of on Me or the souls I send to you. It is very effective in curbing your outreach to others.

"When you feel beautiful and inspired, you are outgoing, confident, and ready to give. This is how I wish for you to see yourselves, not as expired, old wineskins ready to be discarded."

Boy, Lord did you ever hit my nail on the head!!!

"Yes, well that nail has been dragging you down and causing you to want to give up. Plus, you have been overly active in the world for two days. All of this has its affect, My Love. If you want to carry the Living Waters forward, you must temper your interaction with the world. Some things, I know, cannot be avoided and I also know well your repulsion to going out into the world for anything.

"But, I am speaking now to all of My Brides, My Body, men and women. Do not allow yourself to be cowed by worldly attributes...personality, appearance, accomplishment, presence. No, do not allow that to discourage you from carrying My light out into the world for the short time remaining to you.

Matt 4:14 You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden; 15 nor does anyone light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on the lamp stand, and it gives light to all who are in the house....

"I want to fill you more and more with My Graces, even to overflowing. Much in you is depleted and wounded. My remedy for that is more time with Me. Allow Me to sing over you, hold you, receive your worship and I will pour more and more of Myself into you. And, you will rise up from your weakened and depleted state, to carry the light of My Love into this hurting world. Remember to look for those who are broken and hurting, those who need the balm of My Love. They are the fruit ripe for the picking; they are the ones I want to rescue before the door closes on the ark.

"You are beautiful to Me, My Brides! Go forth and let your light shine in this dark and hopeless world. May the oil of joy and gladness brighten your countenance as I fill you with My approval and love."

Pray For Mercy & More Time, Jesus on Prayer

August 9, 2015

The Lord is with us, Heartdwellers.

The night began tonight with hours of worship and keeping Jesus company. At one point, we were in a jungle in Heaven - a place where He put a double hammock up so we could rest together, listen to the birds and the breeze high up in the trees. We'd been there many times before. He was lying down, and I was sitting beside Him weaving flowers into the mesh of the hammock around Him, stroking His hair and brow with a red-tailed hawk feather I cherish because it was an extraordinary gift.

I could tell He was troubled, but keeping it to Himself. So, I just continued to comfort Him. And, after a few hours of this, I stopped to listen for a message...but He said nothing. After another long while, I listened. Still nothing.

Now, I had worked very hard to get my schedule to the point that I could get up by 12:00 in the afternoon and still take care of the day's work and its demands. And, I could tell... that wasn't gonna happen tonight. I was not gonna get to bed anytime early tonight. Certainly not by 2:00, more like about 6:00 - and here it is now, 6:30 and I'm just starting my message... So, I began to get disturbed and impatient. And, I didn't know why He wasn't giving me a message. Except that I could tell that He was, obviously, deep in thought about something, and very pre-occupied.

So, I started writing to Him, 'Lord, I don't understand why you are doing this? But, I don't need to understand. I'm sorry for getting angry. I guess I want to control my schedule so that I can have my daylight hours. And, you are doing something different. I feel so ashamed for being angry with You. I see more and more pride, when will it ever end? I'm really sorry!'

He didn't say anything to me, He was still quiet. I just typed those words down and I got so tired I had to take a nap. I came back at 5:00 - and He began. Actually, I started out when I came back by saying, 'Lord, please speak to me? PLEASE??' I was pleading with Him

And, finally He began: "We're moving ahead." And, there was a long silence - and I knew right away that He was talking about the events in the world culminating.

So I answered Him, 'Oh, that's why You're so sad and needing consolation.'

"Yes."

"I thought perhaps we could put it off a bit longer, but it's not looking good. Too many things are converging and there comes a point, Clare, where time given is exploited by evil and outweighs the good. It's a turning point."

Oh, Lord, we've all been waiting so long...could it be that it really will happen now?

"It's looking that way, more and more. I need your prayers, Clare. I don't want to do this now - I want more time, more grace, more mercy. Believe it or not there could be a swing the other way towards goodness, if more would pray. Then, the good that is done would out weight the bad. But for this I need more prayers and more dedicated prayer time. And yes, to answer your question, the Divine Mercy Chaplet could help to turn the tide.

What He was taking about there, I was thinking to myself, 'Oh, the Chaplet. To pray for the sake of His sorrowful passion. Have mercy on us and on the whole world.' And, that this would be the time to be praying that chaplet.

Then, He began to speak to all of us: "My Brides, I don't care what your background is, there is no excuse for not praying this prayer. Do you really want to know what I meant by saying long prayers, repetitive prayers and babbling to impress people? You complain about long prayers, but do you know that My disciples and I prayed the Psalms regularly and repeatedly? Psalm 91 was a favorite, over and over again. Yet this prayer I gave that poor Polish woman is criticized for being long and repetitive?"

"For the sake of My sorrowful passion....have Mercy on us and on the whole world."

"Is it too much for Me to ask of you, My Bride, to meditate on My Passion for the twenty minutes it takes to say the chaplet? Is it boring to you? I am sorry. It should never be boring to you."

Lord, it is boring sometimes. Why is that?

"Is it boring to think about how you are going to make improvements around the house and the yard? You give your mind to that day after day for at least twenty minutes if I could count all the minutes together. The answer is simple: your carnal nature is stronger than your spiritual nature. You derive more pleasure from thinking creative thoughts than entering into My Passion with Me.

"Clare, I will not condemn you here, Beloved. Ask of Me and I will impart to you this very special gift. I would love to see you at the foot of My Cross more. Oh, I would derive great comfort from that."

OK, Lord. I am asking, may I have that gift too? On top of all the others You've been so generous to give?

"Consider it done. There is a certain sweetness I share with My Bride when she enters that space with Me. It is sweeter by far than any of the other gifts. You will never feel the profound joy and sorrow any other way than by entering into the suffering of My Passion. You have been there before Clare, don't tell Me you haven't."

Yes, Lord, I have, but it was not easy.

"It also brought you deeper in compassion, in understanding, and the ability to carry your own cross. You tasted the sweetness of the depth of My Love for you and all mankind, that I would willingly lay down My Godhead and allow Myself to be done away with by My very own creatures. There is a bitterness there that is intensely sweet and all who partake of that are strengthened in resolve, in goodwill, and inspired to live more and more for Me. I am not saying it is easy. It certainly requires a strong resolve since it is not an easy thing to meditate upon.

"When I say don't pray as the pagans do and don't stand on the street corners saying long prayers, I am talking about display.

"All of you have been there...in a group, multiplying your prayers to sound good and caring in the presence of others as well as going on and on asking for worldly gifts, when in fact the prayer I taught you is to be an example of what to ask for.

Matt 6:7 And when you are praying, do not use meaningless repetition as the Gentiles do, for they suppose that they will be heard for their many words. 8 So do not be like them; for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him. 9 Pray, then, in this way: 'Our Father who is in heaven, Hallowed be Your name....'

Mark 12:38 Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and be greeted with respect in the marketplaces...

"I repeated plenty of long prayers, the Psalms were forever on My lips. I do not remember a time when I was not praying one part or another from the psalms and the prophets. I was fond of repeating particular lines that brought comfort to My Father.

"The Divine Mercy Chaplet was given to extend grace and mercy at a critical time in history, WWII. Many, many, many who were dying came to Me at the very last moment of their lives because of this prayer. And, to this day it is divinely relevant.

"So, swallow your pride, rend your garments and beg for mercy. You cannot imagine the holocaust that you are on the verge of. There is not one person in this country that will not be desperately affected by the coming events. You cannot imagine it now because you have lived in peace for so long. But, if for no other reason than to save your relatives, I have great need of your prayers, My Dear little family. Great need.

"Whenever My Spirit moves upon your hearts, pray from the heart in the way you're inspired. I only brought up the chaplet's virtue because some have slandered it. I wanted you to understand what the Scriptures say and don't say about prayer, not what men twist to fit their own particular doctrine to put others down with. Over and over again in the Scriptures, I have said things that could be twisted and rationalized, made into a doctrine by those who do not think beyond the lines of print on the page.

"Your prayers are powerful. They do not bounce off the ceiling as the enemy would have you believe. No, every single prayer is presented in Heaven as a sweet smelling sacrifice, every single prayer. The enemy will discourage you from prayer if you let him, in the same way he discourages you about yourself. They spend all their time running around lying. If they are not permitted to do physical harm, they will at the very least convince gullible souls that their prayers are a waste of time. Do not allow yourselves to be victimized by such as these."

Lord, I often feel this way.

"Yes, I know. Part of it is Sloth, the other is a lie you've allowed into your thinking. You will have to do much violence to overcome this treachery that has affected all My saints. Day and night, twenty-four hours, My Father in Heaven is answering prayers. Many are jaded in their thinking about prayer. They presume that because they have not fasted or done great works that their prayers will not be heard. May I say, the obedient soul gets their prayers answered. There is no higher disposition of heart next to mercy and charity than obedience. Obedience does violence to pride and fosters humility, and the obedient soul who has shifted all their confidence off their flesh and onto My Loving Providence, will get their prayers answered more than those who pray and declare their faith one moment and shift into unbelief the next because they didn't fast.

Oh, Lord you have exposed My error in thinking!

"Yes, truly, it is confidence in the flesh that threatens your faith. It's not about you, it's about My Mercy. And your faith is so pleasing to Me, I can hardly resist. That is the truth. Great faith in Me and Me alone, is rare and when I find it, I reward it plenteously."

So, Lord, when I cast my cares for this little family onto You, because I know I cannot do anything for them, am I praying in faith that You will do it all?

"Well said. When I see that you recognize your insufficiency, your utter powerlessness in the face of so many needs and requests, My heart is moved on behalf of your prayer. And yes, I visit them with My Grace, because you have nothing to give and you are so totally reliant on Me, that I cannot bear the idea of letting you or them down.

"You are a mere human...and you know how you never want to disappoint anyone, and will go way out of your way to justify their confidence in you. How much more so will Your Father in Heaven do, in honor of His Name?"

"Be at Peace now, My Brides. All I am asking of you is prayer and faith in Me, that I will answer by withholding the wrath that is to come. It is not My Heart that My Bride should depart yet. It is not My Heart.

"Some of you will truly take this message to heart and with your whole being respond to Me. And to you I say, 'You have captured My heart, My sister, My Bride. You have captured my heart with one glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace.' "

When A Sigh IS Prayer, Power of a Mother's Prayer, Will You Stand

August 10, 2015

The Lord's blessing is with us, Heartdwellers. It's been an interesting day. We've been living in this house for 12, 13 years out of the generosity of two very special people. Today that came up as a question, that they are possibly going to be moving back, and that would mean we would have to find another place to live.

Needless to say, I was a little bit distracted, dealing with that - all the in's and out's of that - is it really going to happen? How are we going to keep dealing with this, Lord? How are we going to keep doing what we are doing? All the things that take place if you're in a position where you are going to have to move. AND without compromising getting a message to you every night. Because the Lord has made it very clear - He wants me to be doing this every night.

So, He was VERY sweet during worship - it took me a long time to get my mind off of myself and my problems, and get really in a point where I was worshipping Him. He helped me with that, I know His Grace reached out to me.

He began speaking to me, and said, "You have nothing to fear, all is in My hands. It always has been, it always will be. I am your provider. Don't be taken up with worry, Clare. Pay attention to the work, let things go on around you, but you stay centered on My Will, on this channel, your flock. I will take care of all else, of everything that pertains to you. I have covered you, My Love."

'Of course you cover me, Lord. I understand that. But, I fear my attachments to things... like my cats.' We're so used to being here, and taking walks in the field behind the house. And, what will happen to them, and that kind of thing.

"They are your family and will be with you wherever you go...did I say 'go?'"

Yes, Lord, you did.

"Yet, I have never told you you are going anywhere but Heaven, have I?"

No, Lord. You haven't.

"Then, stop worrying. Everything is in My capable hands. You believe that, don't you?"

Of course I do.

"Then you can relax?"

Kinda sorta.

"Now, what I am saying is things are changing around you, But, I never change and as long as you rivet your attention on Me, what have you to worry about?"

Nothing, I guess.

"My Love, worry is useless. Prayer is what is needed."

'Lord, does it count as prayer when I just sit there grieving?' You know, those times your dealing with feelings and emotions and attachments and things...and you just sit there in front of the Lord, and you really can't do anything but deal with your feelings? And, I was wondering if that counts as prayer. You know, when you're crying out to the Lord to help you get things straight in your mind.

He replied and said, "As long as you are laying your petition down at My feet, yes. It does count as prayer. Prayer is so much more than speaking sentences of petition, whether verbal or non-verbal. Prayer is a sigh, a recognition of a need for things to be made right. Prayer is compassion for the human condition. Anytime your heart breaks for the least of these, anytime, I count that as prayer. I see your unbelief! Let me put it to you this way, so your Evangelical/Fundamentalist viewpoint is satisfied, okay? Consider the second chapter of John:

1 On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him,

"They have no more wine."

"Woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied. "My hour has not yet come."

His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

6 Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding from twenty to thirty gallons.

7 Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim.

8 Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet." They did so,

9 and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not realize where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside and said, "Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now."

"So you see, what I am telling you is Scriptural. My mother had the heart of an intercessor, which is also your heart. She saw the embarrassment of the bridal party and sighed deeply, knowing how embarrassed they would be. Her sigh became a prayer to Me, and not just any prayer, mind you. I stepped out of character in that moment and revealed Myself to the servants. It was not yet My hour, but the sigh of her heart resonated so deeply within Me, I stepped forward none-the-less.

"So you see, your sighs are powerful."

Wow, Lord. Thank you for making that so clear!

"I wish you'd get rid of that legalistic mindset and start trusting Me more. But, for the sake of your audience, which may have a few just as stubborn as you are, I explained it Scripturally. There is so much you don't see in Scripture. So much!! Men's rules have obscured many truths. For instance, that you have to be travailing in prayer on your knees for hours before I will do such a miracle. That is a lie. Of course, when that intercessor happens to be your own Jewish mother...well, that's altogether different." He said, rather tongue-in-cheek...!

He continued, "I hear the cries of a mother's heart for her children. That, too, is most powerful. Anyone who is willing to take on the responsibility of being a mother, whether it is to her own children or to another's child, gains a special grace to be honored for her concern, which is enough for her to lay down her life to support that child. You are a mother, not just to your own children but to these Heartdwellers, too. And so, your prayers carry a special anointing for their needs. Doesn't that make you feel better?"

It surely does, Lord! Thank You. Help me absorb and really believe this with all my heart! I wanted to share this story with you: I remember the story of a certain woman who began a Christian TV network. She was overwhelmed with a crisis that had arisen at the network and had to rush to an emergency meeting. But, before she made it out the door, a woman who had come from out of town for an appointment with her, came in crying and asking for prayers. Her husband was going to divorce her for another woman. Well, the owner of the station listened but had to quickly dismiss her with the promise to pray. Flustered by the distraction from the network crisis as she was running out the door, she blurted out, "Oh, God, just take care of it, please, will you? Take care of it!" And, that was the one and only prayer she said.

Several months later, she was approached by a well-dressed woman with a check written for $50,000 for her network. She said, "You don't remember me do you?" The TV owner said, "No. I'm sorry, I don't." The woman with the check said, "Six months ago I asked you to pray for my marriage. Within days, everything turned around. My husband and I are reconciled and now have a wonderful marriage, and I know it was because of your prayers." (chuckle) She must have chuckled to herself when she heard that!

I said to the Lord after this, 'Well, Lord, what was so powerful about her prayer that You answered it so quickly?'

"She was a mother. A mother to this women and those who watched her network. She was a woman of prayer, leading a life of obedience, sacrifice and total commitment to Me. She was well disposed to get her prayers answered. The woman who came to her was humbled in her marriage, she was also a soul who made it a point to look out for others financially and to pray for them. By her disposition of soul and her faithfulness to Me, she also was well disposed to have her prayers answered. Both souls, giving and receiving, were in a state of grace with Me. I don't always say 'yes' but in this case it was merited.

"Do you remember the story of Tobit?"

'Oh, yes, that's one of my personal favorites' By the way, for some of you who aren't familiar with Tobit, it's part of the Septuagint and the Apocrypha, so you won't find it in many Bibles. I think the New Jerusalem Bible has it, the American Standard has it and the Latin Vulgate has it.

"It was because Tobit lived a righteous and exemplary life that I sent the angel Rafael to assist him in the recovery of his money which he desperately needed, as well as providing him with a holy daughter-in-law. Tobit was also a father to many, a man that cared selflessly for others, burying the dead - even strangers - at the most inconvenient times. So many times My Love, I answer prayer because of the kindness of the one petitioning Me. A selfless life of Charity has great virtue before Me and I long to distinguish that person with gifts extraordinary, especially answers to prayer."

So, after that, there was kind of a long pause. And, finally I said, 'Lord was there something else you wanted to say tonight?'

"Yes, there is more."

"Do not allow yourself to be alarmed by things changing around you. I am speaking to all My Brides right now. This is most often the tactic of the enemy to cause insecurity: the tangible things in your life undergoing change."

"When your heart is centered on Me, and not your family, your housing, your food and clothing, no matter what goes on around you, your heart will not be moved. In order to have this disposition of heart, one must put their absolute, first priority in their relationship with Me, because I never change."

"When you begin to set your heart on other things, you are slowly being drawn off into a trap."

Boy, I have felt that. I have really felt that!

"At first it seems innocent enough, an affection for something or someone. When you begin to set your heart on other things, you are slowly being off into a trap... At first it seems innocent enough, an affection for something or someone. Then you become accustomed to it and it becomes 'important' to your happiness. May I say, no one, no thing should capture your heart or become important, other than Me? If your basic needs are met each day, rejoice that you have sufficient substance for that day. But if you begin to long for more, and see your attention in life shifting to things, you are slowly being drawn into a painful trap. This is the reason I said, 'If riches increase, set not your heart on them.' Your heart should only belong to Me."

"A man or woman who sets priorities on things that are not necessities, soon is willing to compromise to maintain them. For a minister of the Gospel that is extremely dangerous. Your congregation begins to grow, your income expands, you invest in a more expensive house, more luxuries at table and these things begin to dominate your life, becoming a source of pleasure. The result? If this lifestyle is threatened there are painful choices to be made: sacrifice everything? or yield to compromise?"

"I want you to be free, Children. I want you to have not a care in the world but making Me happy, putting Me in the center of your life, Your one and only Joy, your King, sitting on the throne of your heart. Paul was a man after My own heart. It mattered not to him whether he was well fed, well clothed and well housed, or if he lived in the corner of a tent factory. His joy was in Me, all the rest was simply supporting His joy.

Phillippians 4:11 I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am in. 12 I know how to get along with humble means, and I also know how to live in prosperity; in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry, both of having abundance and suffering need. 13 I can do all things through Him who strengthens me....

Matt 6:31 "Do not worry then, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear for clothing?' 32"For the Gentiles eagerly seek all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things....

"Not only do I know you need these things, I supply them to you as well. Do not think that because you have earned a substantial living by the work of your hands, that you are responsible for increasing your wealth. The truth is, I provided you with the ability and opportunity to earn a living, and were I to withdraw it, in that moment you would be homeless.

"Oh, how wise is the one who has learned to be happy with very little, indeed, happy with nothing at times. Such a one as this is free as the sparrows and hasn't a care in the world. Contrast that to those who seek prosperity and live a life completely taken up with what they will eat, where they will live, what they will wear, and the pleasures and disappointments that come with that territory. The shopping, the maintenance of, the protection of so many things. Oh, what a trap you can fall into when living in affluence.

"This vessel has learned the hard way how bitter and binding a materialistic lifestyle can be. Many times I have heard her cry out for a less complicated life. And, as she gets her heart more and more on Me, I help her to realize that dream.

"All of you now. Pay very close attention to your affections and consider what would you be willing to compromise to maintain your pleasures? Are you ready to relinquish it all for My Kingdom? If it were taken tomorrow, would you be crestfallen, suicidal, humiliated? Or, would you heart remain firm, trusting only in Me?

"I propose these things to you because what is coming to this nation. Many who sought fame and affluence will be penniless overnight. I don't want that for you. No, I want the treasure of Your Heart to be Me, for I never will be taken from you. And, the more abased you are, the more I will approve of you. Think on these things. Settle in your heart now what is most important. And, it isn't just the things that are threatened...some can live quite well without them. It's the people who meant something to you in your life, who suddenly can live without you. Who suddenly don't hold you in respect anymore, to whom you've become unimportant and even a liability.

One never knows just who his friends are until he loses everything of influence and is under ridicule and contempt from the world. Then you will know who your friends are.

"I will always cherish and treasure you, keep in your heart a memory of Me on the cross. Naked, bruised, filthy from sweat and blood, disfigured beyond recognition. In that moment, I was the most despised and hated of all men, and certainly the poorest. Yes, that is who I became as an example to you not to set your heart on riches and worldly accomplishments. Happy you will be if you follow this example.

"Enter into that single-mindedness, that disposition of a single heart. I am offering this Grace to you now as you are hearing this invitation."

Rapture When?

August 11, 2015

The Lord is with us, Heartdwellers. And, one of the things He wants to do tonight, is He wants to explain some of the differences in timing that He's talked about with the Rapture. Because there's been a lot of doubt and skepticism voiced about the messages. He really wants to clarify that He HAS been speaking to us I've been feeling the need to repeat some of what the Lord has told us since April or so.

And, tonight He confirmed it as I waited for the message. He wants me to talk about the delayed Rapture, and about Rapture timing, and Rapture yoyo's and Rapturitis....the whole ball of wax!

I'm going to repeat a few things, and I feel Holy Spirit has given me a perspective on this that's important for all of us to see.

First of all, I want to confess to you that I struggle just as you do with the Rapture YoYo. But, here's the thing: if we are truly dwelling in His Heart and He in ours, we are going to FEEL when the time approaches. There is going to be a quickening in our spirits as we get close.

And, indeed we have had several quickenings since the Blood Moons last year, when I first came on board with messages from Him. I knew in my spirit man that there would be no Rapture in the fall; I just had that feeling deep inside, and His messages were confirming that. Even though the hype out there was unbearably tempting to fall into. But, when the Fall came and went, and there was no Rapture, then all the focus shifted - to Passover in the Springtime. And, when that happened, and the Springtime was coming around, I was feeling something different. I felt something huge was looming on the horizon and I really expected the Rapture to happen on Passover or right about that time. Well, that was a letdown. And, just like you, I was thinking, 'What am I, a false prophet or what???' Although the Lord never told me it would be then, I felt it strongly.

Why? Because there was a chance we would indeed be raptured, I believe. Then, there was a rash of wedding visions and dreams. All of us were having visions of Jesus, dancing with Him at the wedding feast. I especially remember Him tying one of His shoes, and coming in and out of the kitchen, ready to serve His Bride. All the signs were there from Him...finally it's going to happen! And then, we had that video on the Dogwood tree being in full blossom when the Rapture happened. So, everyone was crestfallen, when nothing happened.

On the 28th of March of 2015 the message was called "JESUS ANSWERS HIS BRIDE +HOW TO HEAR AND SEE ME

+RAPTURE DAY HAS BEEN SET". Well, in this last video, the Lord told me that there HAD been a date set for the Rapture, that it was coming, the Father had given it to Him, but that because of our prayers, it was put off. So, that date WAS set, but then we went past it, and we all felt that really strong feeling that the Rapture was really going to happen.

And, then on the June 9th video, right in the time when I was getting all enthusiastic about "taking off" with the yard, and getting it clean...He said "don't worry about a thing- not the yard-not the cleaning-not the bills...you're seconds away from your departure."

I was ready to get immersed in carnal, worldly projects and the Lord drew me back and said, "No. I don't want that. I want prayer. I want Rapture vigils and I want prayer. I want you continuously in prayer, and I want you to limit the things that you do outside of prayer - severely. I want your focus to change and not be on the things of the world, but on the things that are important to Me. 'Cause you don't have much time left." I wasn't the only one that was feeling that, there were people ALL OVER the internet that felt it.

So, would He really want to say that if it wasn't set in stone? Would He really say that, you know, not the cleaning, not the bills? Well, you have to know me - because I'm compulsive. When He told me that, I put it all down. And later, I was given permission to have it taken care of by others. But, yes! He would say that, because I'd go off on a tangent, and I wouldn't be praying as the time and the season required.

So...what is this? Is this a move of satan to discourage and humiliate Christian prophets? If it was, it sure was working. Then, one day in particular in prayer, I had the strongest, strongest feeling that it was about to happen. In fact, I had a dream that I was running around telling people, "The Rapture is gonna happen, the Rapture is gonna happen!" That week passed... and nothing happened. Now, for sure, I was humiliated. And, I began again to doubt myself. To doubt who I was speaking with. "Lord, are you humbling me and allowing a deceiving spirit as You did for Saul?"

But, I would come back to prayer - and again, I would come out knowing that I had not been misled, and there was a very good reason why it didn't happen. Mind you, each time we got Rapturitis, we all buckled down and got more serious. Not only about the Lord for our own walk, but for our loved ones. I can't tell you how many Christians were living in fornication and other serious sins - and they repented in the weeks that followed that 'humiliation' of mine. I was getting emails from people who had been living in fornication for YEARS, and they came under strong conviction that they needed to get married! And, everyone was concerned that they wouldn't be taken in the Rapture. And, I think when the Lord SAW that, His heart was softened towards them.

But, let me continue with this.

So...why, oh, why??? didn't the Rapture happen?

Well, taking a look at false prophets, what did they do? What were they like? They were always the ones who told the king what he wanted to hear, when in truth, they should have told the bad news. Obviously, the Lord wasn't leading me in that direction, to flatter people and tell them everything was going to be prosperous, and there was going to be a big revival, and everything was going to be wonderful! He was NOT leading me in that direction. No, He was seriously warning and trying to prepare us. So, that doesn't quite fit the profile of a false prophet.

Then, Jesus kept telling me He was allowing all these rapture alerts to prepare us all, because many were not prepared. I began to see posts under our videos that if He had come for us even as late as May, certain people said they would not have been taken.

So, I could see how these videos were having an effect on people, that they were taking the Rapture and the Lord more seriously. They were taking their salvation more seriously. And that's GOOD fruit.

It's so easy, though, to rationalize something and say, "Well, He didn't come because of this, or He didn't come because of that, or another thing". And, all of that can be absolutely, positively true... but sound like a heap of rationalization; excuses, to cover up for bad discernment - or even deception. Even I was feeling that way. But, every time I went back to Him, I KNEW that I KNEW that I KNEW - it truly was the Lord. And, even though it looked bad, it was Him. And, I wasn't the only seer that was getting those same messages.

So, I have to ask myself: is there a Scriptural precedent for this kind of situation? Where, the Lord is about to let the Judgement fall, but He changes His mind. Well, I know that in the situation with Moses, that the Lord repented - the Scriptures say the Lord repented of what He was going to do to the Israelites. He was going to totally wipe them out and raise up a whole new nation through the line of Moses. Moses interceded, and He relented, He didn't do that.

But, there's another one, too - and that was Jonah. Jonah was absolutely crestfallen when Nineveh was not destroyed after his fiery preaching.

Now, we all know the story about the whale swallowing Jonah, so I'll skip that, and get down to the meat of this.

Jonah chapters 3 & 4

3 Then the word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time:

(this is after he'd been spit out of the whale's mouth)

2 "Go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim to it the message I give you." 3 Jonah obeyed the word of the Lord and went to Nineveh. Now Nineveh was a very large city: it took three days to go through it.

4 Jonah began by going a day's journey into the city, proclaiming, "Forty more days and Nineveh will be overthrown."

5 The Ninevites believed God. A fast was proclaimed, and all of them, from the greatest to the least, put on sackcloth.

6 When Jonah's warning reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his royal robes, covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the dust.

7 This is the proclamation he issued in Nineveh: "By the decree of the king and his nobles: Do not let people or animals, herds or flocks, taste anything; do not let them eat or drink.

8 But let people and animals be covered with sackcloth. Let everyone call urgently on God. Let them give up their evil ways and their violence.

9 Who knows? God may yet relent and with compassion turn from his fierce anger so that we will not perish."

10 When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, he relented and did not bring on them the destruction he had threatened.

What??? God changed His mind? That's what it says, verse 10

10 When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, he relented and did not bring on them the destruction he had threatened.

Now, some would say that the destruction doesn't have anything to do with the Rapture. But from the very beginning, since the Lord revealed the Rapture to us, because we were ignorant of it, He told us that there would be destruction preceding it. That there would be a nuclear war, a nuclear exchange before the Rapture. So, that definitely ties in with the judgement falling.

Again Jonah prayed to the Lord, "Isn't this what I said, Lord, when I was still at home? That is what I tried to forestall by fleeing to Tarshish. I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abounding in love, a God who relents from sending calamity.

3 Now, Lord, take away my life, for it is better for me to die than to live."

So, here's a prophet that was INCREDIBLY humiliated, because he went through the city preaching that they were going to perish. I mean, he did his job! He got the people to turn from sin. And now he wants to die from his job being successful. Why? Because he wasn't proven right by the city being destroyed.

4 But the Lord replied, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

Jonah replies to that little farther down here. Then the Lord gave him an illustration on how he was behaving: Then the Lord God provided a leafy plant and made it grow up over Jonah to give shade for his head to ease his discomfort, and Jonah was very happy about the plant.

6 But at dawn the next day God provided a worm, which chewed the plant so that it withered.

7 When the sun rose, God provided a scorching east wind, and the sun blazed on Jonah's head so that he grew faint. He wanted to die, and said, "It would be better for me to die than to live."

8 But God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?" "It is," he said. "And I'm so angry I wish

I were dead."

9 But the Lord said, "You have been concerned about this plant, though you did not tend it or make it grow. It sprang up overnight and died overnight.

10 And should I not have concern for the great city of Nineveh, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left--and also many animals?"

And that's pretty much how the chapter end. Basically, His ego was so damaged, because God did NOT destroy the people, that he just wanted to lay down and die. So, the Lord visited Jonah and rebuked him for his selfishness. And I want to say: when is a prophet a prophet? When he gets people to repent and what he prophesied doesn't come to pass? Or, when everyone is wiped out under God's judgment even after his warnings?

So, a prophet can either look good because those souls went to Hell, and came under judgment. Or, if he does his job properly and the people repent, the Lord withholds judgment... he can be stoned for being a false prophet.

Surely that is not the heart of God. He sends a prophet to correct the people so they will repent, so if he does his job properly, judgment will be suspended or delayed.

Sound familiar????

I have never claimed to be a prophet. I am a Bride, and the Bride knows the Groom intimately, and He shares His innermost thoughts with her, and I share them with you.

That's the first point I wanted to make.

So, the Lord repented and He came back and said that in my last video: that the reason that these dates passed and nothing happened was because of the repentance of people, and the returning to Him that He saw. He was giving them more time.

So, now you are left with a discernment dilemma: is all this Rapture practice truly from the Lord? Or a lying spirit, being rationalized by a false prophet?

But I would say: what has the Lord been teaching us ever since He gave me this assignment back in September???

He has repeatedly called us to account to examine our lives, to make sure we are ready when He comes. He has taught us to discern the truth from lies, and virtue from a lukewarm life.

If I were here for myself, and deliberately trying to deceive you, all I would do is spit out fiery sermons on repentance and sin. With maybe a little love thrown in once in a while. My whole approach would be the Rapture, the Rapture, the Judgments, the earthquakes, the volcanoes, the tsunamis...Over and Over and Over again. The aliens. That would be my focus and maybe we'd have 50,000 subscribers instead of 9,000. Everyone would be hanging on my next word.

But, I encourage you to look at the fruit in your own lives. Are you closer to Jesus now than you've ever been? Do you see your faults and sins more clearly than ever? Is your prayer life deeper? Are you getting your own visitations from the Lord? In short, are you increasing in virtue and cleaning your Bridal gown? Or are you titillated by the next juicy prophecy about Yellowstone taking down America, earthquakes in California, and the U.S. splitting down the middle, etc., etc.?

Where have you grown - in curiosities? Or in virtue? Again and again the Lord clearly states, "By their fruit you will know them. A good tree cannot bring forth bad fruit."

I am not blowing my own horn here! I am defending the Lord's honor. He has been speaking to us clearly for months. "My sheep know My voice and another they will not follow." So, either the Lord has been faithful to lead you and you are holier for it, or a lying spirit is leading you to become more holy.

Come on, guys. Don't let the wolf pull the wool over your own eyes. Continue to grow in holiness, be forbearing with the Lord, pay better attention when I give a message. The person who criticized me for being confused did so right under the video that totally clarified what the Lord was saying. How did that soul miss that??? He explained clearly, it was the Mercy of the Father that forestalled the judgement. And that's why the dates kept passing us by, passing us by and passing us by. Because the Father had mercy on us again, and again, and again. Do we want mercy??? If we want Mercy, then we have to SHOW mercy to others.

The Shofar is going to sound and we will be taken up, but many who were not prepared almost a year ago, are prepared now. Why? Because the Lord has been leading us that way all along. Don't be fooled by doubts, use your discernment muscles and check the fruit out. Remember: a good tree cannot bear bad fruit.

I love you all dearly. And, I'm only bringing this up to clear up your confusion. Because, our God is NOT a God of confusion. He straightens out confusion, doesn't cause it. And He's been very careful to do that.

So, please. Go back and listen to a few of the videos where He explains what's going on. And allow that to really sink in.

And in the meantime, let's keep praying for more souls to come in. And, when it's time. When Father says it's time...it WILL happen!

Lord bless you, Heartdwellers. Ezekiel and I love you!

My "Foolish Behavior" & Anger, Jesus called it.

August 13, 2015

Forgive me, Youtube family. It has been an incredible two day, actually three days, and I hadn't been able to spend time with the Lord to GET a message for you yesterday. So, my apologies to you. This is all about my foolishness!! Well, I'm going to buy a clown nose and hat with orange hair sticking out and start wearing it regularly... Because, it seems like my foolishness has no end.

It's been drama central around here for the last 3 days, even though there's been a sweet peace all over the house, and I think thanks to your prayers. But, as we 'wait' on the Lord and move forward with instructions from the property owners where we are living...in my zeal to do as they asked me, I laid a real egg. As you know, we have an 84-year-old homeless woman who's been living with us in the front house for five years, who has a problem with hoarding and 4 tiny peeing-pooing-anywhere dogs. She also has a car in the driveway, which I'll describe in a moment - but the owners wanted the car removed, so the construction crews could begin remodeling on the front house.

Eager as I am to acquire the approval and good will of the owners, who've been so gracious to let us stay here for all these years, I made arrangements with a reputable mechanic to work on her car for five years. After waiting for the tow truck, since we hadn't slept for a day and a half, I made the mistake of leaving my debit card with her - her name is Rae Lynn - asking her to please pay the tow truck with the card when he comes. Then, I went to bed.

Sound asleep, a couple of hours later I here "Clare! Clare!" I got out of bed only to find a rather swarthy looking rough guy, missing a few teeth in front, dirty clothes and very insistent and angry that he couldn't get any money out of my bank account... standing at my door, waving my bank card impatiently, saying, "I need some money up front here! This card didn't work. I couldn't get any money out of the bank." I've never seen this man in my life! I have no idea who he is, and he's fidgeting with the door trying to get in, right on top of it all.

Rae's standing behind him, with these big, saucer, innocent blue eyes! She standing behind him, totally innocent, as if nothing in the world was wrong.

She said, "Yeah, he's got my battery and is charging it."

And I thought, 'I just bought that battery at Walmart and it cost us a fortune! Oh, great, now we're gonna be out a battery, too?'

I said, "Rae, what are you doing? And, who is this man???" as I reached for his hand to retrieve my debit card. She said, "Well, he said he could fix my car."

"But Rae, I told you to wait for the tow truck. We already have an appointment with a mechanic. What were you thinking?"

"Well, I don't know - he said he could fix my car."

By this time, the fellow started getting pretty angry and said, "There's something strange going on here. You people are weird. You're trying to steal her social security money, that's what's going on. Yea, there's really something strange about you."

She won't GET social security - she won't have anything to do with the government, and we've been taking care of her out of our own budget for the past five years. I mean, the Lord has just taken care of her. But this man obviously thinks we're pulling the wool over her, and doing something bad. Like - it's HER money in the bank, and we're withholding it from her!

I asked him where he came from, but he wouldn't give me a clear answer. He told me he was one of the sons of the owners of the local gravel pit locally here. I thought, 'OK...but are you for real or scamming this woman?'

At that point, he said, "I need $200 to get started on her car. I've gotta buy parts." I said to him, "I'm not giving you a PENNY!"

I asked Rae, "Where did this man come from?"

She said, innocently, "I don't know. He just showed up here and said he was going to fix my car."

And, of course, MY mind...being tired, being angry. Judging someone by the way he looked and the way he behaved...my mind just JUMPED to the conclusion that this person was a scam artist that showed up to take advantage of her. We've had a lot of situations like that in our driveway before. Being a food bank, we get to meet all kinds of people. So, I was already falling into judgement at that point.

So, he had a beat up car in the driveway and since he wouldn't leave, I went to get his license plate number.

He said, "Oh, great call the cops on me. I'll tell them something ain't right here, you're taking advantage of this poor old woman."

In the meantime, I asked him to please leave the premises. He kept accusing us of wrong doing and taking Rae aside, and talking to her in whispered tones.

Well, finally, the police came and asked me if we wanted him arrested for trespassing, and we said, "No, just ask him to leave and not to come back."

So, twenty minutes later, the tow truck arrives and begins getting the car in position to tow.

If you can, picture a 19 year old white Lincoln Continental peppered with leaves, and cotton and sap from the trees for the last 5 years, with a collection of clothing, food, empty cans, magazines, newspapers... enough to eat and read for the next year! Piled so high, you can barely see out the windows...and of course little puppy presents. And, that's what got towed off to the garage.

Well, I let out a big sigh of relief when it was towed down the street to the mechanic's. UNTIL... the phone rang thirty minutes later.

The man at the other end said, "Ma'am, I can't get any of my mechanics to work on this car. None of them will go anywhere near it."

I asked about a bonus for the brave man who would?

"No, Ma'am! No way - they ain't comin' within twenty feet of that thing! You'll have to come get it and clean it out before we will work on it."

Great!!!! Now I'm stuck again!!

Moments later, one of our friends of the mission drives up - a really wonderful, steady friend of ours who's always helping, and says, "What in the world happened with Jose?? I sent him over because he's a great mechanic and very reasonable. And, you called the police on him??"

Turns out, I had told our friend we needed a recommendation for a mechanic. Little did I know, HE sent the man on over and I ended up kicking him off the property with a police escort! The Lord had made a provision and we had shut him down, and judged him as a suspicious character!

Well, that's no excuse. We should have been more patient and less suspicious of the man. I ended up sending a note of apology and some money for charging our battery. But, I'm sure the man was very hurt and we'll never see him again.

So, I really blew it!

Then, I went back in the house and checked my phone messages, and our mission friend had left a message that he'd found a mechanic for Rae and was sending him by... He called at 1:00 pm, two hours before the fiasco, but we didn't check the messages before we laid down, so we didn't know.

Here's something really funny. Just a couple minutes ago, I went in the other room, and I was just prompted to open one of the books I use for a rhema. It's by Laurie Beth Jones, called "Jesus, Inc." and this is what I opened to: The "Shalt Not" Rule. In other words, in other words, something you DON'T DO, you shalt not do this!

It's an acronym for the words: Never make a decision when you are Sad, Hungry, Angry, Lonely or Tired! That spells out SHALT. Oh, very funny, two days later, I get this rhema??? I was Sad - 'cause of the problems about finding Rae a new home. I probably was hungry, 'cause I couldn't eat. I was definitely angry, because I got woken up - and I was VERY tired! So...I violated the "shalt not" rule - and got myself in deep trouble!

So, I came into worship tonight, very fragmented and begged the Lord to give me a word for you. He said, "Why don't you tell them how foolishly you acted with that mechanic?"

Lord, do I have to tell them every little piece of dirt about me - for Pete's sake. You've got to be kidding??!! Not again....

Oh I should have known...I should have known. So, here is the sad story of the Pharisee looking down on the publican...and running off an innocent man who was going to do a good deed.

OK, Lord I spilled the beans. Do you have anything to add?

And the Lord began speaking, "Never judge a book by its cover...isn't that what people have done to you for 30 years? Never act impatiently, or while you are angry. Cool down and find out the facts. Don't assume anything, no matter how bad it looks. In short, don't react My Love, respond in charity and gentleness.

"I still love you..."

While He was saying that, I'm reminded of James 1:20 For the anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God. And lately, I've had an edge that I deeply regret. I'm sorry, Lord. I do have a temper. I thought I was not that kind of a person, but I'm finding out that I definitely do have a temper. I can make snap decisions that are unrighteous, and that's something that He's really going to have to help me with. I get impatient, and intolerant with people, and that's awful! But, He is helping me. This certainly showed me a large portion of myself I've been missing out on.

He continue after that, "I love you, all My Brides, My very own Body. I wish for you to harness your carnal nature.

Stop. Assess a situation according to the Spirit: 'What is transpiring?' In this way, you will not be guilty of showing contempt for the poor or impatience with the innocent. The enemy is always ready to foment discord and misunderstanding. This is his hallmark.

"When you see and hear discord and misunderstanding, you should stop dead in your tracks and say, 'Okay...there is a demon behind this. Lord, help me discern the truth.' Even if you have to separate yourself from the situation first and take a long look - do that. Don't rush, and use good judgment. You cannot always prevent misunderstandings. In this case, there was already discord and suspicion on the other side. Yet, by My spirit, with patience you will preserve your soul and the souls of others. When you're not affected by that, but you take an objective look at it before it gets out of hand.

"With CERN loosing more evil into the world, every day you will have a new crop of demons out of hell but seemingly coming out of nowhere, to contend with. This requires wisdom and circumspection, taking your time, looking and listening very carefully, consulting Me, praying for wisdom. Then, you shall have the upper hand in all situations, even when they're designed to cause you to fall.

"Beautiful Ones, you are to be as wise as serpents and as gentle as doves. Then, you will glorify your Father in Heaven and bring the most honor to My Name. Be at peace, but also be on guard lest you be caught in the traps of the enemy.

"I bless you now with Patience and Understanding. Receive it from My Hand and guard it closely. The enemy will try to pry it away from you in a moment of anger."

Restitution, Doubts & Moving Forward

August 14, 2015

Tonight the Lord wanted to talk about restitution.

He began, "Many of you have spent your whole lives losing things and fighting to keep them. Many of those things I deliberately allowed you to lose. Other things were not My will and served no other purpose other than to hurt you.

"This is a time of restoration. Yes, there is a battle. Yes, darkness is on the increase. But, so is My Bounty, and many, many things you have lost I will restore to you. The enemy has come to steal, kill and destroy, but I have come that you may have life more abundantly.

"Many of you are in a time of harvest in your lives. Others are in a time of testing. Rest assured that nothing you have lost for My sake will not be counted and returned to you shaken down, pressed together, and running over. The trials and losses in this world are only temporary and passing, but in the next world you will see how great a reward I have saved up for you.

"Many of you in this moment still do not know which way to turn. I have told you, but you continue on in your doubts. I have told you to put your hand to the plow, put your back into the work. Why is it that many continue to wait and put off the decisions that need timely responses?

"Could it be that you are following the news again, the prognosticators who say, 'It will be on this day, on that day, in this week, or in that month'? Are you still so gullible that you listen to every opinion that tickles your fancy and gives you an excuse to put off your work? This is not pleasing to Me, Beloved. Not at all. I expect you to get up off your couch and apply yourself. Blessed is that servant whom I find doing My will upon My return. Well done, enter into your master's joy.

"But, for you who buried your talents and continued on in unbelief, feeding your fears with every prophecy you can find, excusing yourself from your duties, for you it will not go well. The door will be closed and you may not be with those attending the wedding feast.

"Yes, this is a warning. A serious warning. You have believed Me in this voice for several months. Why is it now so inconvenient to believe? Why are you calling into question the reliability of My words to her? Could it be that you are lazy and wanting an excuse to bow out of the hard work ahead of you? Don't make Me exclude you, My Bride. Don't stand at the sidelines doing nothing in the last minutes of the race. Do you not know that only those who compete according to the rules and run to win receive the reward?

"There are now more opportunities to gather fruit in these final hours than there were even a year ago. Evil IS on the rise, people DO feel the darkness increasing. And, I'm not speaking of news, but strife, violence, despair, confusion, alienation such has never ever been seen before. Alienation with young people, disillusionment, is at an all-time high. This is the time for you to offer them alternatives. Not only in speaking My Words of love, but by being the Living Light of Love. The one who does not pass by the cripple, but stops to comfort and tend to the wounds. The one who does not join in throwing stones at the weak and marginalized, but rushes to their defense and takes them out of harm's way.

"I am testing you, Children. I am offering you occasions to exercise love and charity. Are you walking right by them with your head in the clouds or are you careful with every foot step to see those who have been discarded by your society, yet I died on the cross for them?"

35 For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger, and you invited Me in; 36 naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me.'...

...34"Then I will say, 'Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.'

After the Lord finished sharing that, I asked Him, 'Lord, the increase of sirens and ambulances, does this have anything to do with CERN?' It's been outrageous here. I mean, sometimes I have to wait in between sirens to record. And, during the day, it's been siren after siren - it's been unusually active.

He answered me, "It surely does My Love. Your Earth has been blanketed in a new layer of iniquity, with millions of demons squeezing through the portal. Yet, remember: they are no match for My angels. Yes, darkness is increasing. But, I look at the prayers and sacrifices of My Children - even those of you on this channel - and My hands are tied. I can do nothing, for your prayers have withstood the coming Judgment.

"How wonderful this will be for you, for you shall enter Heaven rejoicing and carrying your sheaves with you! This harvest will testify to your obedience and faithfulness. Though it is not be applauded and recognized by men, from the darkest and most obscure places - the nooks and crannies and alleys - all the way to the government; heads of state, there is a harvest taking place at these last hours. And it is increasing because of your prayers.

"So, now I am sending you out to continue to labor in My vineyard. Do not be slack, do not avoid work, recognize your sloth and repent. There are those on the verge of conversion; they only need someone to love them and show them the way to Me. Go out of your way to do a kindness, they will ask, "Why did you do that for me?" Then, you can tell them about My Love for they have seen it in action. You come into prayer and are filled with My Love; then, you go out and lavish it on others. It's that simple. You are merely the vessel serving the fine wine. There is something different about you. Rest assured, it is noticed.

"Don't force yourself on anyone. Wait for Me to lead you. Then, gently share My Love with them. You have all the answers: to their loneliness, their lack of direction, their roundedness, their lack of love and comfort. All of that resides in you, because I live in you. You have merely to tip the pitcher and I shall flow out upon them.

"Go forward now. Pick up your cross, follow Me, be ready to stop for those who have no one else and pour out My fine wine upon them."

Hope & Defeat Fatigue, Discouragement, How to Defeat This Demon

August 15, 2015

God bless you, Heartdwellers. I am so sorry I didn't get this message up this morning. I've been overwhelmed with things having to do with helping our houseguest move. But, I'm here now, and the Lord has given me a message that I think will really cheer everyone up!

First, I want to say that there has been an extraordinary amount of oppression lately in the way of fatigue, and lifelessness and just dragging along. Ezekiel and I have really felt it, and two or three others have mentioned that they've really been feeling that.

Lana Vawser, who is a prophet of the Lord in Australia put out a message about how there was a release of oppression. One of our own Heartdwellers said the Lord gave her the name "Vapid" spirit - and that it sucks the life out of you. I looked it up and it talks about "spirit of flatness, or dullness - a spirit without life; exhausted, fatigued, tired. Flat and lifeless; almost like salt that's lost its savor." And that's the definition of Vapid, the spirit.

Lana Vawser gave it a more, in-depth definition - I probably should read it to you, so you'll know what it's all about. It's really been coming against everyone. She calls it a Jezebel spirit. A Jezebel spirit, of course, is any spirit that tries to deprive God's prophets of their calling, and oppress them in any way.

She said:

I saw this spirit like an octopus and its tentacles were attempting to hinder the senses of the people of God.

Two tentacles were attempting to cover the eyes, two to block the ears and two tentacles were attempting to hinder the tongue. This spirit has been hitting eyes because of the greater vision the Lord is releasing, especially to the prophets and prophetic voices. It has been hitting ears, because the Lord is leading His people into deeper levels of hearing His voice.

Gosh! Isn't that what we're all working towards?

This spirit has been hitting mouths to bring a silencing of the messages on His heart right now that is releasing the revelation of His love at new levels through many different forms that is awakening the people of God to who they are and His love like never before.

Isn't that our mission? Wow... And so many of you have said you really struggle. And, part of that struggle may be this spirit - this oppressive spirit that has come against the Body of Christ. She calls it a Jezebel spirit.

This spirit is attacking mouths in worship leaders to as new realms of worship is being entered into that is breaking the people of God free and deeper into new levels of intimacy and realms of breakthrough. A whole new revelation of waging war in worship is being released.

This spirit had been sent against many believers causing extreme fatigue, an overwhelming feeling of wanting to give up and run and a deep emptiness or despair for no reason, amongst other things. Many have been wondering what is wrong with them because of this sudden onslaught of things that is "out of the ordinary".

Wow! So many of you have voiced that!

Ezekiel and I absolutely have been going through this!

This spirit was coming after many and leaving them with a feeling of such deep fatigue like the life was being sucked out of them. A real unexplainable feeling of being drained. I saw many being hit with these 'feelings' especially in times of pressing in deeper into the secret place.

One on one communion with the Lord was being greatly affected.

Do not go chasing after this spirit but know that it is being unmasked by the Lord and you are taking new ground. You are moving forward into new things and greater victories, greater breakthroughs and the enemy isn't happy.

I felt the Lord saying that the greatest weapon against this spirit is to worship. Lift up the name of Jesus. Declare His blood over you and DO NOT FEAR!!! Declare the victory that is yours. War in your worship. Do not be put off by its tactics but know that you are victorious and the Lord is leading you into manifestations of greater victory. Worship your way through the warfare and you will not only see this 'spirit' flee, but the very areas where it has attempted to hinder, you will receive a greater awakening of spiritual senses.

Where this spirit has been attacking the Lord is adding increase to you as you wage war in worship.

And, you know - the Lord gave me a rhema about worship two nights in a row.

You are taking new ground. Look not at the spirit and its tactics, look at the face of Jesus and delight in Him. Lift up your hands and worship Him. Press deeper in Him, for your intimacy with Him and your rest in Him is your greatest weapon.

I believe the Lord is unmasking this spirit to reveal to His people a deeper revelation of Ephesians 6:12 "For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms."

The people of God are moving into new territories, taking greater ground and that is why this overwhelming sense to run, to give up and extreme fatigue has hit hard. There is a higher level of warfare happening for many right now, but I felt the Lord saying to those being hit hard "glorious encounters with Me are before thee!!!"

Shake it off in worship, new levels of victorious breakthrough await you!

Wow...okay. Well, there you go - that's what's been hitting us so hard lately. The Lord's message last night was...well, I just got this from an email that came in, that I just happened to open. I haven't had time to do my emails.

But, the message the Lord gave me last night - I'll start off by explaining that the worship was very sweet being in the presence of the Father and Jesus. Dancing with Jesus, He invited me to come sit with Him but I can barely keep my eyes open.

'Here I am, Blessed Redeemer...' I caressed His brow and held Him tonight telling Him how much I love Him. 'I'm afraid if I close my eyes to listen to you, Lord, I'll fall asleep. Oh, Lord, help me please.'

He began. He said, "I want to speak Hope to My Bride tonight.

"Even though you walk through the dark valley, you will fear no evil, for I am with you.

"When you are constantly focusing on the negative hope begins to wane. That is another reason for avoiding the news. Do you know that the news is psychologically arranged to cause fear and insecurity, hopelessness? Yes, it is a form of social programming to get the response you want out of the masses. Indeed it is deliberate manipulation of the mass mind. This way the economy can be predicted with great accuracy. Professional investors monitor the public's emotional responses and make investments accordingly. It is all planned and mapped in higher institutions of learning and think tanks. It is programming, identical in ideology to the program The Matrix. Though this mass programming is not quite a reality yet with implants, all the thoughts and ideas broadcasted through media programs and news, are simply mental manipulations to get the public to behave a certain way.

"And, that's only what you can perceive through the physical senses. There is much, much more flowing copiously from the demonic hierarchy under principalities and broadcasting below the human awareness level to create certain moods. Even hunger can be stimulated broadcasting certain frequencies. It is a highly sophisticated science and calls for extreme caution from Christians. If you were to see a graphic display of what actually is traveling through the atmosphere in your town, you would see a blizzard during the day and even at night there is this white noise energy, but much less intense.

"I know you prefer the daytime Clare, so do I, I love the light. But, night has less interference from electronics. I know you're struggling to keep your eyes open and hear Me, Beloved. I will help you."

Oh, thank you, Lord. I am struggling.

"Well the reason I brought this up to you and our family is that they need to know much of what they feel can be stimulated by invisible forces."

(There's that thing that Lana Vawser was talking about.)

"But, when you come to Me, My Brides, I wash away all the filth of that programming. When you worship..."

(Isn't that what Lana said, is the thing to use against this?)

"...you are lifted out of the earthly reality and transported into Heaven where worship is going 24 hours a day: continuous worship, continuous renewal, healing and cleansing of the mind.

"In the day I take over the administration of Earth and satan is bound, the atmosphere will be glorious beyond imagining. It will be pristine, clear, peaceful, joyful, to the point where you will almost hear the trees and flowers singing. Yes! All Creation sings worship to Me, ALL creation. Though you cannot perceive it because of millenniums of filth and demonic influence, when the Earth is purified, it will be almost tangible. Almost something you can touch, so acutely pure will the atmosphere, the waters, the air, plants and animals will be singing harmonies of joy that I have come to rule the Earth. Even now, they are laboring against the filth, continual degeneration and stagnation of men's sins. But when they are freed what a glorious day that will be!!!"

And, I wanted to give you some Scriptural backup for what He is saying here:

Romans 8: 19-25 For all Creation is waiting eagerly for that future day when God will reveal who His Children really are. Against its will, all Creation was subjected to God's curse. But, with eager hope, the Creation looks forward to the day when it will join God's children in glorious freedom from the death and decay.

Wow, and immortal Creation!

For we know all Creation has been groaning, as in the pains of childbirth, right up to the present time. And, we believers groan, also, even though we have the Holy Spirit within us as a foretaste of future Glory. For, we long for our bodies to be released from sin and suffering. We, too, wait with eager hope for the day when God will give us our full rights as adopted Children, including the new bodies He's promised us. We were given this hope when we were saved. If we already have something, we don't need hope to have it. But, if we look forward to something we don't have, then we must wait patiently and confidently in Hope.

And, speaking a little bit more about the Creation, it's written in Mark 16:15 He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel... to all creation."

He didn't say to all men...He said to "all Creation."

Psalm 96:13 Let all creation rejoice before the LORD, for He comes ... He comes to judge the Earth. He will judge the world in righteousness

Psalm 148:7 Praise the Lord from the Earth, you creatures of the ocean depths,8 fire and hail, snow and clouds, wind and weather that obey him, 9 mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars,10 wild animals and all livestock, small scurrying animals and birds, praise the Lord!

So, the Lord continued after that:

"Hope is what I impart to you, desperation is what man imparts. That is the reason I wish for you to abstain from worldly news. There are some of my servants who present the news in its accurate form, but even they focus on what is coming upon the Earth, which is so negative.

"Even now, in worship, you can access the River of Life, the creative, cleansing power of the Father, through worship. That is why it is so important for it to dominate your lives. To the degree that you partake of the degradation of Earth, to that degree you need cleansing from that influence. It is very rare soul that gets a thorough and complete cleansing from the contamination they have accumulated...very rare. Baptism can be one of those times. Being born again can also be.

"But, there is nothing quite like worship. Lift up your eyes to the hills from whence comes your redemption. Lift up your hearts to heaven and drink from the rivers of living waters flowing from the throne of the Father; dancing, alive and yearning to wash over each and every one of you restoring to you virginal purity and eternal life in the wholeness never before experienced on this Earth since Adam and Eve.

"Yes, hope is great indeed. I will make all things new. I will liberate this Earth from its endless cycles of death. And you, too, My Brides, will meet with your eternal purpose in Me, excelling in excellence, creativity, love and service. And, you will return to rule and reign with Me, that justice may be restored and evil defeated.

"I want you to think on these things. I want you to see the hope that is stored up for you in Me. Yes, I am coming, bringing My reward with Me. In the twinkling of an eye you shall be made whole. You shall rise in fullness of life and forever we will dance the dance of life, celebrating our love, as even the flowers sing to you.

"In Heaven we will celebrate whole-heartedly with all our strength and being the wonders of Our Love for you. And, to those who love a party, I want to say that you've seen nothing on this Earth in the way of celebrating. In Heaven, there is celebration from the least to the greatest. Even the doe and fawn will jump and frolic in the freedom intended for it from the beginning.

"Nothing shall be sad or fearful, all shall be filled with confidence and peace as they progress from glory to glory. Oh, what a day it will be when we are finally united. So, be at peace, My Brides! Look forward to that day! Let it be the underpinning of your thinking, not the sadness and sin of this world, but the joy and fulfillment of the next.

"I bless you with Hope...take deep breaths of this Hope and hide it in your heart. Return to your heart frequently and drink of this wholesome River of Life, even as you worship on this Earth. "

Patience

August 16, 2015

The Lord is truly with us, Heartdwellers! I had a chance to get a lot of rest today, so I'm all nice and refreshed, and catching up and recording. And, if I didn't get to all your emails, I'm sorry. But, it's either one or the others for me, so here I am. Today in worship, I felt very much the Goodness of the Lord - how patient He's been with me, how Good He's been to me. Oh, Lord, You have been so good to me, I don't know what to say. You have brought me into the work

I've always wanted to do, ever since You revealed Yourself to me. Thank you will never say enough.

"But your obedience does."

Even that I owe to You, Lord.

"Yes, it is true. Even that you owe to Me. And, words will never express how much you mean to Me, Clare. Yes, but My passion does - I know that's what you're saying in your heart."

And it was. When He was saying that, I was thinking that His passion has revealed how much He loves me.

Your patience with me, Lord... unbelievable. Your patience and mercy are absolutely stunning, and beyond anything I can say. Most would never believe it, that anyone could be so patient and merciful, let alone God Almighty.

"Well, that's part of your job, that you're talking about now. So, that all can see just how compassionate and patient I have been with you. Oh, and even beyond that. What I suffered before you finally said 'yes' to Me. What I suffered seeing you flailing around from sin to sin, dark alley to dark alley, knowing you would never find Me there. I had to swoop down and take you to Myself."

Yes, You certainly did do that!

"Well, Patience is what I want to talk about tonight. All of you have so much to learn about patience. Very rarely are things transformed overnight, unless they've been building to that end for a very long time. Such as the Rapture and your conversion, Clare. It happened suddenly, but you waited a very long time... what, twelve years?"

Yes, I think so.

"And, those twelve years, though they were dark and hopeless, served a very important purpose in the scheme of things. They served to temper you and reveal the depths of despair and emptiness of the world and all its answers...even its accumulated answers in the philosophy and various religions of man. Still, they were all without the final " buck stops here" answers.

"So, now as you wait, My Brides, your patience is proving you and glorifying you, refined as gold seven times tried in the fires. Your charity and willingness to wait, yet a while longer while I accomplish My ends, proves your love for Me. But, I have spoken enough about that.

"What means most to Me, here, is your patient endurance. For you have need of patience, that, after you have done My Will, you might receive the promise. For yet a little while, and I will come. I will not tarry.

"No, My Beloved Ones, I will not tarry. And every opportunity that you had to do good on the Earth will end. Every sacrifice will be totaled, every record kept will be finalized. And, thus your reward will be safe with Me.

"But, what if you have not labored? What if you have not sacrificed, but played and wasted time on your own pleasures. What then will you have to show for your lifetime on Earth? What if you have lived for yourself and your own family?

"Do you consider this each day? Do you keep a tally? No, perhaps not... but I do. I miss nothing. All gets written in the Great Book. I don't even miss the disposition of your heart."

(uh oh... My disposition is not always that good. Thank the Lord He is working with me!)

"I make note of your willingness to endure to the end of a task set before you. When all seems dull, lifeless, and boring to your taste, but others are greatly edified... yes, I keep track of that. When you deny yourself or go out of your way for others? Yes, oh yes... I notice that.

"When you quell a harsh word and refuse to give vent to your anger - this, too, is written down. When you chastise and correct your own heart attitude, repenting for your lack of patience and charity? Yes, I recognize and record this as well.

"Do you realize I spend the whole day writing about you in My Book? Consider what is on those pages. Are they things you will be proud of when the ledger is opened and they are read aloud?

"Make every minute of your life count, My Bride. Do not spare the rod on yourself, but pull your unrighteousness and flesh down to the dust. Chastise yourself and I will not have to correct you. I love what you say, Clare. Tell them, please."

I would rather be beaten by a drunken rascal than chastised by the Lord. He always gets me right where I live...that place that is the most tender!

"Yes. That's the point isn't it? Where you live. Are you living in charity and forgiveness, or rancor and bitterness? Do you willingly seek to make amends for bad behavior? Or, do you pretend it didn't do any damage and just keep on walking?

"Do you consider the suffering you inflict on your brother by your words and attitudes - or do you ignore it? All of these things are important to Me, My Love. I need you to spread love and forgiveness wherever you go. When you hurt others, I need you to make amends. This is important to Me and I do write these things down."

But, what about sins that we confess, Lord? Do You keep a record of those, the ones we truly repent of?

"If you confess your sins, did I not promise, "I (He is) am faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." I John 1:9

Yes, I know that to be true, but what about the record?

18 Come now, and let us reason together: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow: though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Isaiah 1:18

"I remove them, Clare, never to be brought up again, unless there is a specific reason for edification. Why would I want to keep dirty diapers lying around? Hmmm?"

Good point.

"What I am trying to do here is stir you up, My Love. You are in need, badly in need I might add, of patience. You wear yourself out with your impatience with others, it drains you. Your impatience in My coming, Your impatience with yourselves. Yes, I am speaking to you all, My Breathtaking Beauties! You are all guilty of impatience: with your brother, with yourself, with Me. Impatience accomplishes nothing. It makes you restless. You go about looking for other consolations, other distractions, anything to fill the void left by your impatience.

"Curiosity and impatience are one of the biggest hooks in the enemy's tackle box. They are the perfect bait to draw you off course, even if only by one degree. That variance works on your mind and your confidence is eroded. Consider your curiosity with the timing of the Rapture and all the experts who have painstakingly researched and reasoned an argument into perfect sense. Yet, it is still the babbling of man! It still does not approach the Perfection and Mystery of your God.

"Yes, I love to do things in seasons. But, I also love surprises. I like to be trusted - but, I don't like to be pigeon holed. I like to give you clues like the rungs on a ladder, but I hate being confined in a plywood box. Of late, you have invested so much time in satisfying your curiosity, that had you invested it instead in feeding the homeless, your halo would be glowing and not a dull grey.

"Don't get Me wrong - I love the way you watch for Me. But, wasting time endlessly chasing what I told you could never be predicted? Well, that does not look so good when written down and tallied."

Lord, are you saying the same thing to us all over again, but in a different way.

"I love to talk with you, My Bride. And, Clare, some things truly bear repeating."

Thank you for making the crickets louder, I love to listen to their song at night.

"They are worshipping Me. Yes, they respond to temperature, but they have that little God-spark that returns praise to their Creator. I adore them, they are so very little in the scheme of things, but have made such an enormous impact on the senses of men precisely because they do praise Me... yet you know it not.

"Yes, I love to talk with you Clare. I love to talk with all of you! Pray that your tuners will get adjusted to My frequency. May I say, there is not one who is listening to this video, right now, who I have not spoken to.

"That's right, I am telling you, every one of you has heard Me in your heart. Every single one. You just didn't recognize My voice. You think Clare is some kind of privileged character? Well, she is not. I have visited every one of you. You just didn't assign that thought to Me. That's what I mean about tuning.

"Oh, if only I could get you to understand one thing: it is My Will that ALL of you hear Me. That is My perfect will, and the sooner you receive that word in faith, the sooner you will be able to hear Me.

"Back to patience. Truly, I have written everything necessary about patience in My Book. Consider the farmers who patiently wait for the rains in the fall and in the spring. They eagerly look for the valuable harvest to ripen. You, too, must be patient. Take courage, for My coming is near.

"In this moment, you have only to ask of Me for more patience and I will give it to you. Yes, the Harvest is ripening. Yes, the storehouse is being filled, and if you wait until the very last kernel is taken into the barn, you will be greatly rewarded with stamina and strength. You will not have wasted your energy on frustration and fretting. Rather, you will be busy doing your part in the harvest, kernel by kernel. Even if your part is only sacrifice, prayer, and suffering, that is fueling much of the ripening of the fruit. You are presenting an example of endurance to your brothers and sisters. Your virtue shall not be overlooked or go unrewarded - to each as you have sown, shall I give to you your share of the Glory that shall come to reside within you and shine brightly to all around. Yes, you shall be glorified, both in body and soul.

"Well, enough for now, My Beloveds. Tend to your patient endurance. Cultivate an attitude of resting without frustration and waiting without results. Trust Me, I have all that concerns you carefully stored away and protected until the Day you return to Me."

We Are New Wineskins & is the World Collapsing in September?

August 18, 2015

The Lord is with us, Heartdwellers. He's blessed us with a message tonight that I think MIGHT clear up some apprehensions and worries that have been hanging in the air. I came into prayer tonight with a LOT of questions, really. And, unfortunately, not all of them got answered. But, I think one of the most important ones did.

Today, the Lord told us to buy wood and prepare for the winter. Interesting, huh? So, when I came into prayer, thinking about all the talk in September, all the postulations and prophecies about September...I have to tell you, I have not had one, internal witness to ANYthing that's being said about September.

And, I know there's a number of things that are coming to a head, then. But, the internal thing that I'm tuned to is the Rapture, and I've had NO indication from the Lord, at all, of a possibility of a Rapture in September. June was another matter - I had very STRONG promptings internally, that the Rapture was about to take place. But, as I've spoken in other videos, the Lord basically told us that our prayers forestalled that. Now I understand why.

One of our listeners, Sarush, who is a former muslim, shared with me some very exciting news:

"Clare, Ezekiel, and Carol: remember there were some videos you put up a little time ago regarding ISIS and how Jesus was asking us to pray for them? Well, I just heard a video of a man witnessing that ALL the people are changing over in Iran and muslims countries, and how even some of the WORST people have been touched. How the muslims are going into Christianity, and how their youths are listening to the faith of the little ones dying for Christ.

I'm amazed! I can see and understand better why Jesus is asking us to pray and delay the Rapture. You have to listen to it! The name of the video is 'Joel Richardson: Iran will start regional war soon, ISIS will be wiped out, Turkey will respond.'

Your ministry is real and so accurate with what is going on."

Well, thank you, Sarush. We appreciate that, and it's always wonderful to hear a confirmation of what the Lord is doing and what's He's doing - it's helpful, you know, sometimes to be confident in the Lord and that He's trustworthy. That's part of what I wanted to share with you. Guys, our prayers - our prayers are being answered! For the souls in the Middle East. There's a beautiful, beautiful conversion going on in the Middle East- a revival. Now, the Lord had told me there would not be a revival before His coming, but He was referring to the United States, He wasn't referring to the world outside of the United States. And, He again made that clear tonight.

I'm going to go ahead and share with you now:

Oh, Lord, I have so many questions.

"I know. Let's begin here: I'm not coming back in September. Men have plans, but I have My own way of doing things. There is revival going on in Iran and other countries hard hit by ISIS, and it will continue. I really want all of you to continue praying for them. You will have much fruit to rejoice over in Heaven, much sweet fruit."

And I'd like to say as an aside here, I can testify to that. I know a couple of Muslims who have been converted and accepted Jesus as their Lord and Savior. They are very tender, beautiful, spiritual souls - very beautiful. I wanted to say here that, Tertullian, one of the Church Fathers, from the first few centuries, said, "The blood of the martyrs is the Seed of the Church." So, this is to be expected, that as people are being martyred, there's mass conversions going on as well. Same thing happened in Africa and Uganda and in other countries in Africa. Tremendous revival went on. So, any place you see bloodshed, there's going to be revival afterwards.

He continued: "You are partakers in that harvest, even though you are thousands of miles away. And, other countries will experience a certain degree of revival as well. America, however, will stay as she is."

But, Lord, what about the financial collapse?

He turned His head sideways and let out a deep breath, "Have I spoken to YOU about a financial collapse?"

No, Lord, You haven't.

"Many continue to postulate based on the Old Testament. I am the fulfillment of the Old Testament, and this is the New Dispensation. It seems clever and intelligent to combine the two, but didn't I say you cannot put new wine into old wineskins?? Why, then, are you doing that?"

Lord, honestly I thought I was backwards for not honoring the Jewish customs like a lot of other Christians are right now.

"I AM the fulfillment of all the customs. Honor Me, and you honor all that I want you to honor without getting mixed up in religion all over again. A new wineskin has never been used before. It is untainted by old wine, it is without the savor of the old; it is totally fresh. It has no stains from previous use, it is pliable and stretches with the fermenting process. You are all new wineskins as you are baptized and born again. Please, do not go back to the religious customs of the Hebrews - I set you free from those and inspired new customs. Please, if you must honor customs, honor those customs I instituted. Knowledge of the law and ancient customs leads to a certain spiritual pride, a religious spirit, the spirit of the Pharisee. I set you free from all of that."

"Do you understand, Clare? Men are secure in rules and regulations. They feel fulfilled when they dot the i's and cross the t's. But, that is not My way. I want security to rest solely in a one-on-one relationship with Me. The old religious customs are beautiful...but binding. I came to set you loose from the fetters of the old ways. Many, many times they violated charity - that is why I am done with them. Didn't I make Myself clear? New wineskins, new fabric. Oh, I wish My children would abandon their own ways of thinking.

"It is so much easier to dot the i's and cross the t's than to hunger and seek a relationship with Me until it is accomplished. To examine your conscience daily, to take up your cross daily. Fulfilling the law brings a satisfaction that is hollow and loaded with opportunities for pride. I deliberately broke away from that. Oh, My Children, follow Me not My ancestors.

"I know you're tired of hearing it. But, so much time has been spent on empty postulating of when this will happen and when that will happen. Perhaps after September, by November, I will have a birthday present. My people will see that I am not bound by the old laws and they've been wasting valuable time honoring what I declared dead... a long time ago. And, please. Do not use this as an opportunity to squabble over My date of birth!

"Yes, I know this will not be a popular message, but it needs to be said. Pay heed, My people. Do not get entangled in religiosity. Do not suppose I am confined in the Pharisee's box. We butted heads a long time ago and never have we been reconciled yet. I did not honor all their ways - in fact, I openly contradicted many of their man-made rules. What do you suppose I meant when I said, Matthew 23:23 "Woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cummin, and have neglected the weightier provisions of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness; but these are the things you should have done without neglecting the others 34 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. 35 By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

"I didn't say, 'By the keeping of the law all people will know that you are My disciples.' Romans 6: The law has authority over someone only as long as that person lives. But, you have been baptized into My death. You are buried with Me through Baptism, and raised in newness of life, because I set you free from the law of sin and death. Therefore, there is no longer any condemnation for you who are in Me.

"I am freeing you from those, but calling you to faithfulness in seeking Me until you find Me. And, many of you are on the verge of establishing a relationship with Me. I am fine tuning you. I speak to you regularly, some of you are beginning to recognize My voice. Are you looking for thunder claps? Did I come in the gentle breeze? Oh, so many of you are hearing Me clearly, but not recognizing Me. I am putting an end to this, though. You will recognize Me and we will converse familiarly together. Hang in there, you are so close to a break through."

And I sensed at that point, that He wanted me to share with you what has been on my heart and mind now. And, that's that I'm excited to share with you a teacher that I just found - he's been around for quite a long time. I respect for his ability to communicate how simple it is to hear the Lord.

His name is Mark Virkler, Communion with God Ministries. I'm going to share with you just a little from the interview where he explains how easy it is to hear God's voice. By the way, he gives seminars on how to hear the Lord's voice, he absolutely guarantees them or your money back, if you don't hear from the Lord!!! That's pretty awesome...!

Guys, it's not as hard as the enemy has tried to make you believe. So many of you think that I'm chosen to do a special job. Well, that's partially true - but the ability to hear the Lord is not my exclusive property. I'm not on some kind of a pedestal because He's speaking to me. ALL of you...ALL of you have that ability to hear Him. It is simply a matter of tuning. It's an acquired skill, just like typing.

But, there are several mental blocks that you have to overcome, because you're so used to being told by the enemy that you can't hear the Lord. Or, that the Lord doesn't speak to you. Or that you're not worthy, or "God never speaks to me" or "I don't have that gift." I mean, uh...the enemy has just loaded you down with all kinds of lies to keep you from accomplishing this.

And, what I want to tell you tonight is that I've finally found a teacher who makes it so A, B, C simple - and I do mean, three steps: A. B. C. -that you just. Can't. Miss it.

The next video is comprised of clips of his message - and I'm going to encourage you all to press in, trust the Lord, and buckle down, because I don't think we're going anywhere, any time too soon.

I love you all. God bless you.

Four Keys To Intimacy, Mark Virkler Interview

August 18, 2015

Host: I am holding Four Keys to Hearing God's Voice. It comes with a workbook, and I'm told that after spending time with you, 100% of the people involved hear God's voice.

Mark: It's a money-back guarantee. If it doesn't work, we give you the money back on the book. Or if you take it as a college course, we give you the money back on the course.

It's very simple, very easy and the Lord has helped us make it simple, make it easy so we can hear the voice of God. It took me ten years. I was a Christian 10 years, listening for the voice of God and couldn't hear it. 'Cause inside my head there's no voice, there's just thoughts. And so I didn't know why I couldn't hear a voice, 'cause Jesus said, "My sheep hear My voice."

I thought, 'I'm a sheep. I've asked You into my heart, but there is no voice in my head.' And I asked people what His voice sounded like, they said, "Well, you know that you know." And I said, "No, I don't know that I know!" And no one could simply say to me, "God's voice sounds like spontaneous thoughts that light upon your mind while your eyes are fixed on Jesus." No one could spit that sentence out.

Finally, I took a year, I had a thought come to me, "Take a year of your life to hear God's voice."

Host: You took a year??

Mark: His impact on my life.

Host: Very interesting. Okay, Four Keys. What are the Four Keys to hearing God's voice?

Mark: Alright, the four keys. They're all found in several places in the Bible, Habakkuk chapter 2 is one place. He goes to a quiet place. So key number one is to quiet yourself down. He keeps watch to see, which means he's taking the eyes of his heart, and he's making visions somehow. And he keeps watch to see what God will speak to him, so you recognize God's voice as spontaneous thoughts. And Key number 4 is, God said "Inscribe the vision" - so, write it down.

So, we have Stillness, Vision, Spontaneity and Journaling. Those are the four keys.

Host: Okay, let's start with Stillness. We are in a crazy, busy culture, and we have to learn how to be quiet. You've got a great chart here, showing the problems. For example, thoughts of things to do. I'm trying to get quiet and hear from God and all I can think about is my "to-do" list.

Mark: Okay, so that's pretty easy. What you want to do is just simply take those thoughts and write them down, all right? Because it's probably the right side of your brain communicating to the left side, because on the right side you have intuition, on the left side you have reason. Reason forgets 90% of what you know, intuition forgets nothing. So, as you quiet yourself down in prayer, you tend to shift hemispheres to the right side. Intuition pops up and says, "You forgot this and this." If I push it down, and say, "Go away!" it says, "You're not listening!" So, if I write them down, I'll say, "Those are good ideas, I'll take care of those." And now I can go beyond that thought to the next level of thought within me. That deals with the first thing.

Host: Put it out of the way...

Mark: Put them out of the way by writing them down.

Host: Now I'm having thoughts of sin consciousness. I mean, how can I come to God? Why would God speak to me?

Mark: Exactly! You know, and so the best way to handle that is, of course - repent. If you've committed sin, you just repent. And the same sin a hundred times? You can repent a hundred times, He'll forgive you a hundred times. Now you may not forgive yourself a hundred times...He'll forgive you. And when I began to hear His voice, I was usually beating on myself and saying, "God, don't You want to hit me?" He'd say, "Not really." "But, don't You want to hit me?" "Mark, your sin is covered by the Blood - let it go!"

And He told me to "put on a robe of righteousness," just like a woman does on her wedding gown, on her wedding day - you put on a robe of white, which is Christ's righteousness. And you stand there complete in Christ's righteousness - not your own. You're seeing yourself as a miserable sinner, you're not even seeing yourself Biblically correctly, 'cause correctly you are clothed with Christ - righteousness and radiant divine Glory. And so God will clean that up, your ungodly pictures. As you hear His voice, He'll say, "That's the wrong picture. Here's the picture you need."

Host: Okay. My mind is still flitting about. I'm covered in white, but my mind's going everywhere.

Mark: Alright, well - you know the best way I know to quiet myself down is to fix my eyes on Jesus, alright? Which is really the second key. You know, Habakkuk kept watch to see. So, if I will picture what I know to be true, Jesus is Emmanuel - God with me. He's right here, next to me. He's next to every single person. He says He is.

You can think it, or you can see it. If you see it, well, we say a picture is worth a thousand words. Okay? So, it has 1,000 times more impact if you see it. You've actually shifted hemispheres internally again, because thinking is left brain and seeing in imagination, or picturing, is right brain. So, if I want to get away from thoughts racing around, I can shift hemispheres internally, mechanically. I simply fix my eyes on Jesus, picturing Him here with me. And that drops me out of this reasoning mode, brings me over to a visionary mode - which is where intuition kicks in, the voice of God kicks in. So I shift internally by using pictures.

Host: That's quite a science behind these exercises.

Mark: Well, you know, you can understand a science or you don't have to understand the science. It's, I like to understand things, you know. But David used imagery all the time in the Psalms. You know,

"Your steadfast love." He said, "Yeah, though I walk through the Valley of the Shadow of Death, I'll fear no evil. Thy rod and thy staff comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me." He's picturing all the time.

And when I used to pray, I didn't picture. I just stayed in the left side of the brain, the thought. Because my culture said it's all about thinking. And Jesus said, "No...it's all about picturing." 'Cause "without a parable He taught them not." So, Jesus taught them in parables, picture stories all the time. He's living internally in a different place than I lived, 'cause He wasn't a Westerner. And so I had to learn how to step out of the Western culture, get at least to the Middle East, which is where Jesus was and embrace some of these things that my culture had dropped and said weren't relative and weren't to be used.

Host: It's not just about what's going on in your mind, it's getting in touch with your heart. And you've seen that that can be a problem, too, in hearing God's voice.

Host: How do you get in touch with your heart?

Mark: Alright - you can just simply... Your heart is flowing all the time. The Bible says, "out of your innermost being shall flow rivers of Living Water." This He spoke of the Spirit. So, if I want to tune to the Holy Spirit within me, which I do in prayer, that verse says, "I tune to flow." "Out of your innermost being shall flow." So, we have flowing thoughts all the time. And the easiest way I know to get beyond my mind is to tune to flowing thoughts.

You wake up in the morning, there's flowing thoughts there, there's a song going through your mind. It's flow. I didn't used to have a theology for "flow". You know, I read the verse and memorized that verse. But I never owned it and said, "Hey, Mark. When you tune to flowing thoughts and flowing pictures, you tune into your heart and your spirit." So, I encourage people to tune into flowing thoughts.

Host: And, finally, a barrier can be just the need for additional time to commune with your mind that is poised and still.

Mark: Okay. So, you woke up late, didn't have time for morning devotions, driving on the road cranky and mean, you know? And you say, "My whole day is ruined because I didn't have my devotions on time." Well, you can hear God's voice in the car. You can hear God's voice when you're taking a shower and people do it all the time, because these are automatic activities that do not require your brain to be fully engaged. And so you're in the posture for prayer, because the posture for prayer is, "Be still and know that I am God."

So, I'm taking a shower, my mind is still, you know. I'm driving the car, my mind is basically still. Those are great times for God - that spontaneous flow thoughts to just light upon my mind. Might be a better time than when I'm at the altar praying, because at the altar my mind might not be still. I might be saying, "God! I'm dying! Please come to me!" And that's not stillness, 'cause my mouth is going, my mind is going. I'm charged emotionally. So, we tend to hear God's voice in the shower than we can at the altar, where you're seeking His face.

Host: I want to tell you that, as recently as this week, before coming here, I was rebuking myself for discounting a thought.

Mark: Yeah.

Host: That I realized after the fact was God going before me and giving me wisdom, so that I would be prepared for something.

Mark: Exactly.

Host: And I just brushed it off as something out of my own head...

Mark: Because we have not been trained to honor spontaneous flow in thoughts. I went to school, I went to college - so did you. No one said, "Hey, tune to flow and honor the flow." They said, "Tune to analysis and honor reason and logic." So, I had to change. I had to dethrone the god of rationalism and say, "Hey. Christianity is heart to heart, it's not head to head." And when God speaks, it comes as a flowing thought, out of my inner most being shall flow.

Host: Deep calls unto deep.

Mark: Deep calls unto deep and the verse for prophet is Nabah. And it means to bubble up. So, those thoughts that "bubble up" - that's the prophetic flow within you. But most of us don't have a theology for "bubbling thoughts". So, it's a powerful message of encouragement saying, "Mark, I know you feel awkward using vision and flow and journaling. But stick with it. It'll take you to a good place to be." Now, that's wonderful counsel, from the wonderful Counselor.

Host: Something that I have heard about, actually I was encouraging someone just a couple of weeks ago about journaling with the expectation that it's two way. That's one of your Keys.

Mark: It is. That was key number 4 - God said to Habakkuk "record the vision." Inscribe the vision. So God said, "I'm going to give you a vision, I'm going to speak to you" and if you go read Habakkuk - sure enough, God is speaking while he is writing. So it's two-way dialogue captured on paper. He starts out in chapter one complaining to God because he doesn't like what he sees in life, and then he quiets himself down and God gives him a vision, and he begins to write it out.

So, we teach people to do that. You know, write down, "Good morning, Lord! I love you. What do you want to say to me?" And then fix your eyes on Jesus, tune to flow, quiet yourself down and write the flow of thoughts that come back. And let God do most of the talking, because He's the smarter one of the two and He'll give you tremendous counsel. Five minutes of Him talking, you got it on paper. David did it, the Psalms are full of two-way journaling. The whole book of Revelation is two-way journaling, John writing out what God...

So, the Bible is full of this, and we encourage people to do this a lot. I was afraid He'd want to kill me or give me leprosy, because I was a sinner - a habitual sinner. And I found out He didn't want to kill me, He just wanted to hug me and love me. And I found He was laughing all the time, too, when I went to journal. He was laughing hilariously and having a good time, He was having a lot more fun than I was having! He said, "Mark, lighten up! It's okay, I've got it all under control." Until my whole view of Christianity changed, my whole view of God changed, my experience changed. This was THE transforming experience in my Christian life.

Host: Sure, you could enjoy being in your own skin a whole lot more, knowing that God's delighting in you!

Mark: Absolutely! Absolutely.

Host: I'm sure you would say, David said it didn't he, "how precious are Your thoughts towards me, how vast the sum of them." I think there's a lot of hearing potential that you've ignited here.

Mark: I hope so, 'cause my passion is that everyone of your listeners would learn to hear God's voice, every single day of their life.

Host: Pastor Mark, before we close, would you pray for those of us who are excited now and hoping that we could have this experience that you're enjoying with God.

Mark: I would be glad to do that. Father, just thank You that Your sheep DO hear your voice. Father, I thank you that You died on Calvary so that You could restore a relationship with us, we could have fellowship with You. And so Father, right now I pray for every listener, that the anointing that You have given to me to hear Your voice would be released into their hearts and their minds, the faith that You've given to me would be released into their hearts and their minds. And I release it to you right now, In Jesus' Name that with ease and simplicity you, too, will pick up those spontaneous thoughts and pictures that come from Almighty God. And Father, we thank you for that miracle of voice in our lives. In Jesus' Name, amen.

Host: Mark Virkler, thank you.

Mark: You're welcome.

Clare Shares her insights on Mark Virkler's, 4 Keys to Hearing God Part 1

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers.

I want to make a quick announcement. Some of you have written to us by mail, and we haven't gotten a chance to answer you yet. Forgive us if you don't get a reply from us this month, because we've been just a little bit on the side of overwhelm. But we will, we will get to you...NEXT month!

I wanted to share with you tonight what the Lord had brought up.

Yesterday, He had me post something about Mark Virkler from CommunionWithGod Ministries. He has a very special gift in leading people to communicate with the Lord - two way dialogue, back and forth. It's interesting, because a lot of what he's talking about is exactly what I've been sharing with you all these months. But, he has a slightly different angle, twist on it, and I think it'd be really helpful for you and tonight He asked me to share just the information from his flyer, which will be available as a PDF. And, along with that, to share my experiences along the same lines.

So, I'll get right into it, here.

I wanted to say that, there is something so timeless and ancient about the simple steps I've been teaching you to enter into that quiet place with God. If you are convinced you'll never be able to hear Him, maybe you should switch to a different channel, because on this Channel, the Lord is determined. And, now He has brought another teacher to share with you the simplicity and promise that we can all speak with Him and hear His voice.

So, He's not relenting on this, guys. For those of you who think that I'm a privileged character...the Lord is going to convince you otherwise.

Mark begins by giving a short testimony:

"I tossed and turned in bed, unable to fall asleep. The thought kept going through my mind: "What if I died tonight? I'm not ready to go to heaven." Since I could not shake the thought, I got up, went downstairs and waited for my parents to come home from their meeting. When they did, I announced that I wanted to get saved, and they took me straightway to the pastor's home where he explained the plan of salvation and led me in the sinner's prayer. I was 15 years old when I accepted Jesus Christ into my heart as my Lord and Savior.

It was God's voice that was speaking to me that night, calling me into His kingdom. His voice came as a spontaneous thought inside my head. However, I didn't define this as the primary way God's voice is heard until I had completed a desperate 10 year search to hear Him clearly."

He went to universities, and got degrees, and came out and decided he was going to spend a whole year just listening for God's voice, because he was really, really desperate to hear the Lord. And, a lot of you guys, who say you are not hearing the Lord are in the same place. The thing is, you ARE hearing the Lord - you just don't recognize him. This is what Mark is good at - getting you to recognize His voice.

"Christianity is unique among religions, for it alone offers a personal relationship with the Creator beginning here and now, and lasting throughout eternity. Jesus declared, "This is eternal life - that they may know God" (Jn. 17:3). Unfortunately, many in the Church miss the great blessing of fellowship with our Lord because we have lost the ability to recognize His voice.

Though John 10:27 promises us that "My sheep hear My voice," too many believers are starved for that intimate relationship that alone can satisfy the desire of their hearts. I was one of those sheep who was unable to identify the voice of my Shepherd. I hungered for deeper spiritual intimacy with God, but I could not find it. Then, on the eleventh year of my Christian life, I had the spontaneous thought that 'I should take a year of my life and focus on learning to hear God's voice.' I decided to act on that thought and devote a year to focused effort, learning to hear His voice. Unbeknown to me, it was the Lord calling me to invest that time."

So, that idea that came to him was a spontaneous thought, and it was actually the voice of God, but he hadn't recognized it yet. So, that's what he did.

"That year the Lord revealed four simple keys, all found in Habakkuk 2:1, 2, which unlocked the treasure of His voice. Using the four keys together allowed me to easily hear God's voice on a daily basis. It was the most transforming step I have taken in the 45 years of my Christian life! I would like to share them with you so you can try them and see if they do the same for you."

Okay -then here he starts going into the "keys":

Key #1: God's voice in your heart often sounds like a flow of spontaneous thoughts.

And, I'd like to share with you an example there. There have been a couple of times where I've thought to myself all of a sudden, 'you know? I should go to the store and get those eggs now, so we have them for tomorrow morning.' And, I'll go to the store and the Lord will have someone there that needs ministry. And, I'll realize that that spontaneous thought about going to the store and getting eggs, was actually the Lord's voice setting up a rendezvous between me and another soul who needed prayer!

"Habakkuk knew the sound of God speaking to him (Hab. 2:2). Elijah described it as a still, small voice (1 Kings 19:12). I had always listened for an inner audible voice, and God does speak that way at times.

However, I have found that usually, God's voice comes as spontaneous thoughts, or flowing thoughts.

For example, haven't you ever been driving down the road and had a thought come to you to pray for a certain person? Didn't you believe it was God telling you to pray? What did God's voice sound like? Was it an audible voice, or was it a spontaneous thought that lit upon your mind?"

So, here's a really good point. People think that I hear the Lord's voice very clearly. Well, sometimes I DO hear His voice clearly, but most of the time, it is a spontaneous flow of thoughts. Today, when I was in prayer, all of a sudden I could realize - I could feel something tugging at my heart strings. I realized it was the Lord, trying to interject a word. So, I shifted my attention to Him in a special way - the "tune in" mode. And, He WAS talking to me. Pretty soon, I was able to see His face, as well. "As through a glass, darkly" guys - not like He's sitting on the other side of the room from me, or that He's sitting next to me. I mean - there are times that I get glimpses out of the corner of my eye that He's here, or when I'm writing down a message I'll see His face, I'll see Him leaning over my little stand here, next to my computer. Smiling, and making a point. When I get stuck on a point or a word, He'll repeat it until I write it down (chuckle). And, it's a very spontaneous, gentle thought. It's NOT a crystal clear conversation like you and I are having right now. It's not an audible voice all the time. In fact, more often than not, it's spontaneous or flowing thoughts.

"Experience indicates that we perceive spirit-level communication as spontaneous thoughts..."

Have you ever been in a room with someone, and all of a sudden, you just KNEW what they were thinking? Maybe it wasn't a pleasant experience for you, but I have had that experience. Or, like, if you are with your husband, and all of a sudden you feel like a hamburger, and he says, "You know - I really feel like a hamburger tonight." And, that spontaneous thought comes up, and you were both thinking the same things at the same time. Or, if you are worried about someone, or a situation. It's on your mind, you're doing whatever you're doing around the house, and your mother or friend comes over to the house and says, "You know - I've just been thinking about so-and-so." And you say, "You know - I've just been thinking about them, too. Maybe we should pray for them or call them or go and see them?" THAT's the Lord's voice! It's a spontaneous stream of thought. So - that's spirit level communication. We perceive that, and it comes to us as spontaneous thoughts and impressions. And VISION sometimes, too.

"... and Scripture confirms this in many ways. For example, one definition of paga, a Hebrew word for intercession, is 'a chance encounter or an accidental intersecting.' When God lays people on our hearts, He does it through paga, a chance-encounter thought 'accidentally' intersecting our minds. We consider it chance encounter in that we didn't reason it up, however it is purposeful, because God sent it to us."

How many times have you heard the phone ring, you've been thinking about someone for two or three days, all of a sudden the phone rings, you pick it up and it's that very person! "Oh, I was just thinking about you!" That is spirit level communication, as spontaneous thought, or as impressions. That's exactly what God's voice sounds like. It's very subtle, but it's also...it gets your attention. It's also clear.

"Therefore, when you want to hear God's voice, you tune to chance-encounter..."

Okay...so you've got a little "channel" on your "radio". One says Barking Dog - which you tune out. Screaming Baby, which you tune out. Traffic Noise you tune out. And, Chance Encounter...which you tune IN. And, that's on a very subtle level.

"...spontaneous or flowing thoughts."

And, you make your mind focus on that, to pay attention to those when they come drifting through your mind.

"Even Satan's thoughts come to us as spontaneous thoughts, which is why we are commanded to "take every thought captive" (2 Cor. 10:5). I am sure all of us have experienced spontaneous evil thoughts coming to us, even attacking right in the middle of our prayer and worship times. So, I conclude that analytical thoughts are mine, spontaneous good thoughts come from the Holy Spirit, and spontaneous evil thoughts come from evil spirits.

Now, this gets into discernment, and I've gone over this with you before and how to recognize the voice of the enemy. And Mark does a little of that here:

"God's thoughts line up with Scripture and with His various names: Comforter, Counselor, Teacher, Giver of Life, Healer and Deliverer. His thoughts edify, exhort, and comfort. They are pure, peaceable, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, unwavering (James 3:17).

The MAIN characteristic of the Lord's voice is PEACE. It's peaceful - very peaceful. And, as far as what it sounds like: it's gentle. It's very gentle.

"Satan's thoughts line up with his various names: accuser..."

"Oh, that person is doing such and such"...yeah. Or "Oh, that person's a criminal, or that person's witch."

...adversary, thief who comes to kill, steal and destroy. His thoughts condemn and bring despair, rejection, fear, doubt, unbelief and in general, misery. Satan's thoughts bring jealousy and selfish ambition (James 3:14,15).

In a nutshell, I would say that Satan's thoughts jar us from Peace, and they get us into a form of anxiety. Any kind of anxiety or worry or fear. Those are the number 1 characteristics of Satan's thoughts floating through our minds. That's why I've told you so many times before, if you've got Fear all of a sudden, you've got a demon involved in sending you that Fear. That's a demon's voice.

He uses Habakkuk 2:1 for his model of hearing God.

"Habakkuk said, "I will stand on my guard post..." (Hab. 2:1). Habakkuk knew that to hear God's quiet, inner, spontaneous thoughts, he had to first go to a quiet place and still his own thoughts and emotions. Psalm 62:5 encourages us to silence our souls before God. There is a deep inner knowing (spontaneous flow) in our spirits that each of us can experience when we quiet our flesh and our minds. If we are not still, we will sense only our own thoughts.

'Oh, I've gotta do this, I've gotta do that. I forgot this, oh, did I leave that burner on?' And, it can go on and on endlessly - those are OUR thoughts. Now, this next is what he says, and this is what I've been teaching you through Dwelling Prayer:

"Loving God through a quiet worship song is one very effective way to become still. (Note 2 Kings 3:15.)"

And, I prefer at all times, to approach the Lord through worship. That's just what I've experienced and what I feel. There doesn't HAVE to be music, or worship through music. It can happen spontaneously, where you just FEEL something tugging at your heart and it's the Lord. It's like the Lord tapping you on the shoulder and saying, "I want to talk to you. Tune in to Me."

"After I worship and become silent within, I open myself for that spontaneous flow."

One thing the Lord told me was that Music transports a person OUT of themselves. That's one reason why it's so powerful, because it can bring you into a good dimension, or an evil dimension. But, it transports you out of your present state of mind.

"If thoughts come of things I have forgotten to do, I write them down so I can do them later. If thoughts of guilt or unworthiness come, I repent thoroughly, receive the washing of the blood of the Lamb, putting on His robe of righteousness, seeing myself spotless before God (Is. 61:10; Col. 1:22)"

Now, this is a very important point that he just made, because when I am dancing with the Lord, I always have a spotlessly beautiful dress on - I'm totally clean and glowing. Spotless. And, He presents that image to me while we're dancing together, to help me see myself clothed in HIS righteousness. He's the one who picked those robes for me, and everything is perfect about my being - everything. I believe now, after reading this, it's because He wants me to see myself in His righteousness, and see myself spotless before Him. So that I can relax, and receive from Him and not be hiding, like Adam and Eve had to hide in the garden, because they were naked.

"Clear focus provides the purest flow: To receive the pure word of God, it is very important that my heart be properly focused as I become still because the intuitive flow comes out of the vision being held before one's eyes."

So, now he's talking about Vision.

" If I fix my eyes upon Jesus, the intuitive flow is pure and comes from Jesus. But if I fix my gaze upon some desire of my heart, the intuitive flow is affected by that desire. To have a pure flow I must become still and carefully fix my eyes upon Jesus (Heb. 12:2)."

So, that's very interesting, because, what have we talked about in Dwelling Prayer? That a pure heart is absolutely at the top of the list. The Scriptures say, "The Lord said, 'Blessed are those who have a pure heart, for they will see God.'" Wow! That ties in so perfectly with what he's saying here. So, a pure heart is a heart that is not focused on its own agenda. One its own issues. A pure heart is one that's focused on the Lord and what's important to Him. That disposes you to seeing the Lord.

Now, all of us have a vision of what the Lord looks like, in our hearts and our minds. All of us have a picture of what the Lord looks like - we've seen it before. I would ask you here - PLEASE don't get caught up in all kinds of doctrine, talking about how we're not supposed to have any images of anything on Earth or Heaven. If that held ground, and stood - the Lord NEVER would have described the Mercy Seat with angels on either side. And, all of the other shaped animals that were in the Temple. He never would have done that if it were totally true. That's overdoing it, guys.

The enemy knows how powerful and image is. An image of God is VERY powerful. The image of a woman scantily clad is ALSO very powerful. So, the Lord has given us eyes and visions in the Spirit to help us to focus on Him! You don't want to throw the baby out with the bathwater. We have photographs of our children - we don't worship those, they remind us of our children. That's an innocent thing.

Where we get into trouble is where we start making serious life decisions, so we can have that expensive

"hot" car, or that big house that we really can't afford. And, we're putting EVERYTHING in subjection, to being able to get that mansion, or get that car, or whatever it is that we are lusting after. Those are the REAL idols. A picture of your children is not an idol - a picture of Jesus is NOT an idol. Those just remind us of Who He is to us, who those souls are to us.

"To receive the pure Word of God, it's very important that my heart become properly focus and becomes still. Because the intuitive flow comes out of the vision before one's eyes."

In other words, if you have a vision of the Lord before your eyes, that's where the flow is going to come from. If you have a picture...of, ummm, something - a dress in a catalogue, or a car, a set of golf clubs! Then, you're going to be focusing on the world and your intuitive flow is going to come from the world. But, if you fix your gaze on the desire of your heart, the intuitive flow is going to be affected by that desire. So - to have a pure flow, I must become Still, and carefully fix my eyes on Jesus.

So, he has his eyes fixed on Jesus in order to receive that pure flow of thought from Jesus.

"Again, quietly worshiping the King, and receiving out of the stillness that follows quite easily accomplishes this. Beginning my prayer time as Jesus taught us to pray is expedient: "Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name..." Jesus taught us to begin prayer by lifting our eyes up to our Father and beholding Him. We don't start prayer with our issues. We start our prayer by gazing upon Him!"

That's beautiful - I really like that. And, that's what I do when I put on worship music - I immediately start looking for the Lord in my vision, 'cause I know He's there. Until He makes Himself very clear to me - and He's always at my right.

Key #2: Fix your eyes upon Jesus and ask to receive visions.

"Habakkuk said, "I will keep watch to see," (Hab. 2:1,2). Habakkuk was actually looking for a vision as he prayed. "

And, that's what I do when I go into prayer - I'm looking for that vision, because I know Jesus is there.

"Since I believe the Bible is meant to be lived, I decided that I, too, would begin looking with the eyes of my heart into the Spirit world to see what I could see."

You see, the techniques that we use are very, very similar, and I think for good reason. I think that they're solid and Scriptural. And, it's interesting how many parallels there are between Mark's teaching on this, and our teaching on Dwelling prayer

"Do what King David did! A good way to begin using the eyes of your heart is by doing what King David did: "For David says of Him, 'I SAW THE LORD ALWAYS IN MY PRESENCE; FOR HE IS AT MY RIGHT HAND,

SO THAT I WILL NOT BE SHAKEN" (Acts 2:25 NASB). The original Psalm makes it clear that this was a decision of David's, not a constant supernatural visitation: "I have set (literally, I have placed) the Lord continually before me; because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken" (Ps. 16:8)."

You know, it's kinda funny because, when I go to the store, or I'm out running around doing errands I think to myself, 'Well, I wonder if the Lord is here...and I look out of the corner of my eye, and I see Him sitting next to me. WithOUT His seat belt, by the way...(chuckle.) I see Him sitting on the right, in the passenger's seat. When I make the effort to focus to see if He's there - He's there!

So, it's a matter of seeing the Lord always in your presence. Because He IS at your right hand, and there's so many Scriptures about Him being at our right hand. Many, many Scriptures about that.

(this is the end of the first video)

"I'm Grateful To You My Bride", a prophetic word from Jesus to us

August 20, 2015

The Lord is still with us, Heartdwellers!

And, He had a sweet message for those of you who are still here tonight. You'll notice that I put up two messages tonight. One was the second part of Mark Virkler's witness and teaching about Communion with God Ministries, and that's to finish off what I started yesterday. So, I'll go ahead and begin the message. The Lord was very sweet tonight.

He was just really happy that I was there for Him, and I was really happy that He was there for me. He just held me for the longest, longest time. And, I just tried to disappear into His heart, to get strength and encouragement to move forward.

So, He began:

"For those of you who haven't jumped ship, haven't shredded Clare, I commend you for your patience and sincere Christian behavior, becoming of My Bride. In the days and weeks it will become obvious to you why I haven't brought you home yet. I am going to cover for every one of you until it is time. Co-labor with Me in the fields, My Loving Spouse.

"Whether your job be prayer or labors for Me, remember: I overlook nothing you offer Me. Even when you forget to offer it to Me, I remember and accept it graciously. None of you can even begin to imagine how grateful I am for your posture of support, and I will reward it in this world with My presence and in the world to come with fruit you cannot even begin to understand.

"Much of the world is going about its daily business, as it has for centuries. Do you understand, I am holding back the wrath of the Father and delaying the commencement of the tribulation? You have only to imagine the thousands who don't even know their right from their left hands, as it was in Nineveh. For these, My heart aches. Many of them are third world innocents who have no concept of what is taking place around them. They are simple people living a life very similar to Mine, yet not as yet knowing Who I am.

"Yes, laborers are being dispatched to the fields and the vineyards and they are coming to Me in droves: hungry, aching, lost, wanting truth in their lives, knowing they have not had it. Many of them are simple and innocent and I loathe to see them destroyed without a chance to receive Me. This is what I mean by their right hand from their left. They don't have a clue.

"There will come a time when it will have to be wrapped up. In that moment, My angels will descend and take captivity captive. I will visit those that have yet to know Me - I will visit them and bring them to Myself. The time is coming, yes, even at hand when I must move forward. But, until then the governments of the world are not capable of setting in motion what they long to do. They are restrained and foiled. Each time they make a move to go forward, I make a move to check them. Many in high places are scratching their heads and wondering how this is possible.

"Oh, how I rejoice to hold back the flood until My little ones are in the ark! Yes, I will move on the nations, hearts will be broken and given to Me, in spite of the enemy's effort to stop Me. All I ask from you, My Brides, is your support. Yes, your support, your prayers, your giving to missions overseas, supporting those who work in those countries in every way possible.

And, as an aside about that, we are supporting Jesse and Ezra, in Uganda. They go into the bush and talk to people groups where, very few people understand their language. In fact, they just visited a tribe in the last couple of days, and they suffered terribly. She had malaria, and she just had her second baby. And then, he was sick with malaria, and now he's sick with something else. Terrible fevers. He gets a lot of opposition from the witch doctors there. But, in spite of that, he continues to go into the bush and bring them the Lord. He's established a good little church going there. They built a mud hut for themselves there, that people in the community did. They're out in the sticks, they're not in a small town at all, or a big town. They're living with the people, as the people live. So, we're trying to take care of them, for sure. I know their character.

So, anyway, that's our little part. Continuing on with the Lords' message:

"And, I ask you to continue to be a fool for Me. Continue to warn your loved ones and friends while they have time to consider their ways. Do not allow yourselves to be cowed by their worldliness. They don't show it, but inside they are insecure, not truly knowing the outcome of their lives. They medicate it with entertainments, but in those moments that are quiet, something inside troubles them. My Spirit is touching that emptiness within and making it acutely painful."

Lord, what about "casting pearls before swine"... some are being trampled on by their relatives? It's terrible! Isn't it better to be silent before the ones that are really hostile?

"Wait for a teachable moment, My Bride. At funerals, the hospital, sickness, financial loss, a broken relationship, when things are not going well for them. Approach them with encouragement, but also reminders that life is short and they are not guaranteed one more day. They may appear scornful, but I will continue to stir their spirits. Many times things are not what they seem with others - they mask their feelings, their fears and insecurities. And, when they see how peaceful and secure you are, they wonder... 'Could it be real? This relationship with Jesus, maybe there is something to it?' That is your best hope for the openly hostile.

"Do not provoke them, but let them catch you praying for them when hard things happen. Comfort them and pray for mercy. In this way, they will know you are sincere and I can move to help them. Yet, so many I help, do not recognize it is Me. They know someone prayed, but they are not yet willing to recognize Who that someone was praying to. They are not ready to give up their lives of sin, so they forget. But, I visit them again, and again, and again. They don't call Me the Hound of Heaven for no reason!

"I know how difficult it has been for many of you - most of you. I know you have watched and waited and grown weary. I've been with you at those times. I've lived through those times with you, giving you strength, hope and the ability to persevere. You cannot imagine what I lived through: the indifference, ungratefulness, betrayals in the three short years of My ministry, culminating in My execution. The intensity of opposition is something you will never have to face. Never-the-less, you have your own crosses to carry and I do not make light of them.

"I know your frustrations, I know your sorrows, those hidden things you tell no one. I know your shame over your past mistakes. I am with you night and day, in your thoughts, in your dreams, in your tears. I visit you with consolations. I calm your fears and rest your hearts in Mine. Reach always for that place...where My Heart abides. Place your head over that place, receive the healing you need, leave the burdens behind there, and take from My Heart of Infinite Mercy the waters of Divine Healing, unlimited in their ability to impart new life, hope, and courage to you.

"I am with you My Daughters, My Sons, My Brides. As you wait, I bring opportunities to you, to prove your love for Me by going out of your way, by holding your tongue, by praying for those who abuse you. Oh yes, I see every day the way you are treated, and how you do violence to your flesh and pray for your abusers. This is so pleasing to Me, and one day those people will seek you out to say, 'Thank you. Thank you for not giving up on me when I was so cruel to you. Thank you for praying for me and showing me Jesus.' Yes, you will have much fruit in Heaven because I visit these hard cases at moments when they have nothing left, no more fight, are completely broken and depleted. I visit and I move on their hearts. I bring a mountain of conviction down on their heads with mountains and mountains of love simultaneously and they finally repent.

"For you have shown them who I truly am. You have given Me the experiences to convict them with. I bring those pictures to mind, and show them how I was there through how you reacted. So, you see? Though you think you've done very little, you have done very much. You have sown the seeds of kindness, forbearance, tolerance and mercy. And, I will continue to water those until it is time to harvest. You just have no concept of the fruit that awaits you in Heaven for your labors."

And, at that point, the Lord kinda confided in me, and said, "Well what do you think of that? Do you think they will be happy to hear that?"

I do.

"Yes, I am happy to tell them how much they mean to Me. How much their little efforts have done for Me. How great their harvest will be. Yes, I am well pleased with My persevering Brides! Those that have not reacted in hostility and mean-ness to My delay.

"And for the others, well, I forgive them. They just don't know what they've done."

Me too, Lord.

"I know your heart is still aching and hurting. You can't hide it from Me, you know."

Well, for the most part, You've made the oww-eee better. Thank you, Lord.

"Let Me hold you, My Bride. Come here."

August 20, 2015

Okay. This is part two of Mark Virkler. And, I've done my best to separate my words from his, but it's a little awkward sometimes. When you hear a long pause, that usually means I'm switching over to his words, or back to my words. So, Mark goes on "Because David knew that the Lord was always with him, he determined in his spirit to see that truth with the eyes of his heart as he went through life, knowing that this would keep his faith strong.

We say, 'A picture is worth 1000 words.' I believe that is because pictures are the language of the heart. We notice that Jesus used pictures constantly as He taught (Matt. 13:34). When I use pictures in my prayer time, fixing my eyes on Jesus, I am speaking the language of my heart and that moves me quickly into heart/spirit realities getting me beyond my mind.

Okay, so - my perception here. You've got your rational, intellectual mind, and you've got your intuitive, heart mind - so to speak. What he's just saying here, is that he shifts into that hemisphere - the heart hemisphere of his mind. And, I call that using the Godly, sanctified imagination. Because, the Lord gave us imagination, He gave it to us to use for holy purposes. The enemy uses it for unholy purposes, but that doesn't mean it's bad. It just means he's manipulating it, and using it against God's will.

"So I choose to do what King David did and I develop 'Godly imagination,' which I define as 'picturing things God says are so.'"

So, Mark pictures them that way, okay? So, the Lord says that something is "this way", he pictures them as that way.

"Obviously, if I am picturing that Jesus is NOT with me, that would be picturing a lie, which is unwise. I can't imagine any reason I would want to picture unscriptural things. So, I see Jesus at my right hand, always. I add to this Paul's prayer for God to enlighten the eyes of my heart (Eph. 1:17,18). Then I tune to the flow of the Holy Spirit, and He brings the scene alive. I find I can step from these Godly imaginations, into a divine vision."

Now, this is also what we've been trying to teach you. If you have a picture, or you are in a place where you visualize the last place, the last time you were with the Lord. Usually, it's on a dance floor for me. I visualize that place again, and the Lord is always there. So, I reach out to Him in the vision, in imagination - sanctified imagination - and He responds by taking over the vision. And, I believe I did a video on this not too terribly long ago. You make the overture, you move in that direction. You move into that focus and THEN the Lord takes over from there.

"It is amazing, simple and child-like! Of course it would need to be, as we are told that to enter the kingdom we must become as little children. My 6-year-old granddaughter can do this and she shares with me her journaling and the visions of the angels standing on both sides of her protecting her and watching over her. You will find your young children can do these four keys easier than you can! Try it with them and see.

"From Genesis to Revelation God gave dreams and visions, and He specifically said that in the last days He would pour out His Spirit and we would see dreams and visions (Acts 2:1-4, 17).

We must look if we want to see! Daniel saw a vision in his mind and said, "I was looking...I kept looking...I kept looking" (Dan. 7:2,9,13).

"So I needed to repent for not looking, and begin presenting the eyes of my heart to the Lord."

As an aside, here, I think this is a place where a lot of us have gotten stuck in unbelief. We're going to need to jump this hurdle, ask the Lord for wisdom and confidence to jump this hurdle. Because we need to present the eyes of our hearts to the Lord in a vision and allow Him to take over

"As I pray, I look for Jesus, and I watch and listen as He speaks to me, doing and saying the things that are on His heart. Many Christians will find that if they will only look, they will see flowing pictures, in the same way they receive flowing thoughts."

Okay, so this is a beautiful concept that I want to share with you, about perceiving flowing thoughts drifting through our minds. We can tell the source of those thoughts by their character. If they stir up fear and anxiety, then they're from the evil ones. But, if they stir up peace and wisdom and good fruits, then they're from the Lord. In the same way - we have streaming visions. We'll see flowing pictures and they will be flowing pictures that are good and holy and bring us into the presence of the Lord. For instance, one night I was praying and I saw clouds and angels holding a dance floor in the heavens. And, then I saw myself dancing with Jesus on that dancefloor in the heavens. Now, that's something I never would have thought of! So, it's more likely, when you think of things that are that outrageous, that it's really coming from God, and not yourself. Because, it's not something in the ordinary course of things that you'd be thinking about. So, we're going to see flowing pictures, and those flowing pictures are an invitation to us to enter into the vision with the Lord. Just as the flowing thoughts are an invitation to enter into a conversation with the Lord, and listen to Him.

"Jesus is Emmanuel, God with us (Matt. 1:23). It is as simple as that. You can see Christ present with you because Christ is present with you."

In fact, I would add to that, He lives in us - He has made His dwelling place inside of us.

"In fact, the vision may come so easily that you will be tempted to reject it, thinking that it is just you. But if you persist in recording these flowing pictures, your doubt will soon be overcome by faith as you recognize that the content of them could only be birthed by Almighty God."

Just like that vision of the dance floor, with the angels holding it up. And, other people have had visions like that, too. So, you give it a chance. You let those flowing pictures go on and you give them a chance. And, I want to share with you here that, when I'm listening for the Lord's voice, many times, He'll begin speaking to me. And, I usually discern before I allow myself to listen. But, sometimes I don't. But, even when I do, and I listen - I KNOW it's Him, I feel such...opposition, sometimes. Such...like a spirit of unbelief comes over me and I have to fight it, to listen to the Lord's words. I have to fight it the entire time He's speaking to me. Then, when I'm done, and I go back and READ the words, they're so Heavenly, all my doubt evaporates. So, I think what's happening at that point is, I'm getting opposition when I listen to Him. So, don't be surprised if you feel awkward, or you feel, 'Oh, that couldn't be God...What am I doing this for? It must be the enemy.' You know - give Him a chance. Give Him a chance with the visions, and give Him a chance with the flowing thoughts. Flowing thoughts and flowing pictures. So, even though the vision comes so easily, don't be tempted to reject it, thinking that it's just you.

Give it a chance.

"Persist in recording these flowing pictures. Your doubt will soon be overcome by faith as you recognize the content."

He goes on to talk about a lifestyle:

"Jesus demonstrated the ability of living out of constant contact with God, declaring that He did nothing on His own initiative, but only what He saw the Father doing, and heard the Father saying (Jn. 5:19,20,30).

"Is it possible for you to live out of divine initiative as Jesus did? Yes! It is called "abiding in Christ" (Jn. 15). Fix your eyes upon Jesus. The veil has been torn, giving access into the immediate presence of God, and He calls you to draw near (Lk. 23:45; Heb. 10:19-22). 'I pray that the eyes of your heart will be enlightened' and you will see His visions. They are His gift to you, freely given (Acts 2:17)."

And, here I want to add, it's a matter of faith and believing the veil has been torn. The Lord has made the way for us to be able to see and hear Him. So, when people go back to the Old Testament and start saying, "God doesn't speak to YOU. God doesn't speak to people." Well, that was the Old Testament - more the Old Testament thinking. But, when Jesus died, He tore that veil down the middle, giving us all access to the Holy of Holies. You can remind people of that - this is New Testament. This is what the Lord did for us. He opened Heaven and made it possible to be able to commune with God.

Key: Journaling, the writing out of your prayers and God's answers, brings great freedom in hearing God's voice.

Now, this is true. I did a lot of journaling, in fact, I still journal...except, this time I type on the computer. Yeah, from the very beginning, I would write down my thoughts and feelings, and I would listen for His voice and He would answer me. And, I could tell that they were His answers, because they brought me peace. If they brought jealousy, fear, or anything like that... I was so confused as a new believer, I didn't know how to recognize the enemy. It took me years to figure that one out.

"God told Habakkuk to record the vision (Hab. 2:2). This was not an isolated command. The Scriptures record many examples of individual's prayers and God's replies (e.g. the Psalms, many of the prophets, Revelation).

And, you know, many people have gone to Heaven, and come back to tell about all the books in Heaven, the libraries filled with journals of events on Earth. So, this again, is a Scriptural thing.

"I call the process 'two-way journaling,' and I have found it to be a fabulous catalyst for clearly discerning God's inner, spontaneous flow, because as I journal I am able to write in faith for long periods of time, simply believing it is God."

You know, some people will get just one word, and they'll feel good about that. And, other people will get long sentences, paragraphs and books! The two-way journaling is a good way to cultivate the longer messages - it's a very good way to cultivate it.

"I know that what I believe I have received from God must be tested.

"However, testing involves doubt and doubt blocks divine communication, so I do not want to test while I am trying to receive (Heb. 11:6). With journaling, I can receive in faith, knowing that when the flow has ended I can test and examine it carefully, making sure that it lines up with Scripture (1 Thess. 5:21)."

Okay, so here's one point where we differ. I try to test the spirits before I begin writing. And, here he allows himself to receive, and then he tests it later. That's up to you, what you want to do. I test it by using the Bible Promises. If I get Holy Spirit when I go to the Bible Promises, if I open to that chapter, then I know that the Lord is with me, and that it is indeed His thoughts - His stream of thoughts that I'm picking up on.

"Remove doubt: Doubt may hinder you at first, but throw it off, reminding yourself that recording God's words and visions is a biblical concept, and that God is present, speaking to His children. In the Bible, Satan is constantly casting doubt by saying, "Did God really tell you...?" (Gen. 3:1 GNB). Okay, so for all of our naysayers, "Did God really tell you that, Clare?" Or for myself, "God, is that really You speaking to me?"

"Learn to relax! When we cease our labors and enter His rest, God is free to flow (Heb. 4:10). Sit back comfortably, take out your pen and paper (or computer or iPad), smile, and turn your attention toward the Lord in praise and worship, seeking His face."

That's exactly what I do, very day when I come before the Lord to receive a message for you. It's exactly what I do.

"Write down, 'Good morning, Lord! I love You. What do You want to say to me?' Then become still, fixing your gaze on Jesus. You will suddenly have a very good thought. Don't doubt it; simply write it down. Later, as you read over your journaling, you will be blessed to discover that the content is amazing and that you are indeed dialoguing with God!"

Absolutely. I have experienced that so many times. In fact, I'll tell Ezekiel, "Honey, I'm just writing this down. I'm having a heck of a time believing it's the Lord, but I'm not gonna stop. I'll write the whole thing down, and then, when I go back to check it out, it's beautiful! It's absolutely divine in origin. I don't know what it is that causes me to have those scruples when I'm doing it, but later on I see exactly that it is the Lord.

Hear God through illumined Scripture: "Knowing God through the Bible is a vital foundation to hearing His voice in your heart, so you must have a solid commitment to knowing and obeying God's written Word. We are commanded to meditate on Scriptures (Josh. 1:8). As we pray over Scripture, we find verses leap off the page and hit us between the eyes. This is another very powerful way that God speaks to us."

THAT'S the rhema word to us. That's what I've been trying to teach you with the Bible Promises. To read those two pages and enter into rest with the Lord, and whatever really "pops" off the page - that's where God's focus is in that moment.

"It is also very important for your growth and safety that you be related to solid, spiritual counselors. All major directional moves that come through journaling should be confirmed by your counselors before you act upon them."

I agree with him, very much. Trying to find those counselors can be a job, and very disheartening, I have to say. "The Bible says in the mouth of two or three witnesses every fact is to be established (2 Cor. 13:1)."

Well, that's why we go to the Bible Promises, sometimes two and three times to get a second and third witness, that only Holy Spirit has access to.

That's about all that he has to say, except that, "We guarantee that if you will use these four keys together, they will work for you and you will hear God's voice. Try them as a bundle and see how they work for you." And, what he talks about here is that he absolutely give a 100% guarantee on his college courses, his CD's, his DVD's, his MP3's...anything you buy from him, he guarantees that you WILL hear from the Lord. You will learn to hear from the Lord, or you will get a free refund. (chuckle) Oh, my goodness...

So, he's quite sure of himself, and this is because he's experienced this with thousands of people. They have on five continents, I think he said, they've got people all over the world that have instituted these programs and they're hearing from the Lord, clearly.

So, as I began this conversation I told you, if you're on this channel and you're telling me you never hear from the Lord, you're probably on the wrong channel. Because Mark is going to make SURE that you hear from Him! The Lord bless you tonight, and I will leave this PDF on our website. It's a PDF from Mark Virkler and Communion With God Ministries, and you can follow up there. He's got books and CD's and tapes and Youtubes and everything. So, I highly recommend that you listen to this man, that he can help you get established in your communication with the Lord.

The bless you all, and may the Lord open your eyes and your ears to His presence in your lives.

We guarantee that if you will use these four keys together, they will work for you and you will hear God's voice. Try them as a bundle, and see how they work for you. We have free downloadable music you can listen to as you journal. It is available at cwgministries.org/galilee. The first part of the recording takes you for a visionary walk with Jesus along the Sea of Galilee, and guides you into using all four keys together. We encourage you to give it a try! May you be restored to taking walks with the Lord in the garden in the cool of the day. May you experience the fullness of a personal relationship with our Lord

Martha & The Wineskin, Divine Union and the New Wine

The Lord is blessing us, Dear Heartdwellers, with His insights.

I have a beautiful example tonight to share with you. I'd like to go into the message and say that I'm still getting some letters from some of our viewers about the Message about the Old Wineskin and the New Wineskin.

Tonight, while I was in worship - and the Lord was holding me very, very tenderly, I could sense that He had a very deep, deep concern on His heart. Something was very troubling to Him. I realized, after a good 45 minutes or so with Him, that it was this issue over the Wineskins, that perhaps I didn't convey to you as I should have what His intention was. I tried to repeat to you the precise words that the Lord gave me, but you know, I fall short, too, sometimes. And, I may not have done as good a job as I could have.

But, tonight He clarified something for me, and I think it will help you - I think it will help all of you to understand what His point was about the New Wineskins and about being filled with New Wine. About leaving the old traditions behind. I think you're going to understand a little bit better what He was referring to in its context.

But, first I have to say, that we're going to have to be careful here, about communication. Because, we got several emails and remarks and messages and comments about things that I said...that I never said! In other words, somebody heard something different than what came out of my mouth! We've even gone back to listen to the message again, to see, "Did I say THAT?" And, no, I didn't "say that", but it was taken that way. And, you know, this is a common thing in conversations. And, Ezekiel and I have found out that there are actually demons that twist your words going from one person to the next. The words get twisted and the true meaning doesn't come out. That's the reason I prayed against that in the binding prayer - demons that would twist conversation.

So, I'm asking you, please - if you have a concern and you think I've said something - go back and listen to it again to make sure that I did say it that way. And that I did say something that way, and you just didn't hear it wrong. Just to give the demons no space to operate in.

In the Name of Jesus, I bind every demon that would cause this message to be twisted and misunderstood on the other side. And, I ask You, Lord to open our eyes, our ears, and our understanding to hear what it is that YOU wanted to impart to us without any confusion. For You are a God of Order and Truth

My number one commitment is to the Lord and to truth. And my number two commitment is to you. So, I can't try to change the words that come out of the Lord's mouth that I've discerned or that our group has discerned. If it offends you, I'm sorry - but I can't change those words to satisfy what you think they should be. And, if I've made a mistake, if we've ALL made a mistake in discernment, I'm sorry and it's all that I can say is that we're human.

But, tonight the Lord seems to be confirming the message of the Wineskins. So, I'd like to go ahead and share with you what He showed to me.

He asked me to...He showed me a vision of Martha and Mary. And I said, 'Lord, do you want to talk about that?'

And He said, "No, I'd like you to."

So, here goes. During worship, the Lord brought up an example of two women. And, I have to confess, I have been a Martha for the better part of my Christian life. It has only been in very recent years that the Lord has been able to pry me away from my business to pay attention to Him and leave all the rest to take care of itself.

So, here's the story told in Luke 10:38-42, and this is the NIV version, at the home of Martha and Mary:

38 As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha opened her home to him. 39 She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to what he said. 40 But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made. She came to him and asked, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do the work by myself? Tell her to help me!"

41 "Martha, Martha," the Lord answered, "you are worried and upset about many things, 42 but few things are needed--or indeed only one.^[a] Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her."

And, that's the end of that short story.

So, Martha felt it was her calling and duty to prepare food and her house to accommodate her guests. To that end she worked very hard and I have no doubts that at times she would have rather been sitting at Jesus' feet than doing all that busywork. However, this story of the two women is very revealing because Jesus said, Mary chose the better part. That means that Martha was not compelled to prepare food for her guests, rather she chose to be about the busy work of preparation.

Which brings up the question, 'Somebody had to do that work!' Of course they did, I agree with that, but I also believe without a doubt that if Martha had chosen to sit at the Lord's feet with Mary, there would have been a knock at the door and platters of prepared food would come marching through the door and set up on the table without any effort from Martha at all. After all, the Lord DID feed the 5,000! Certainly, He could have motivated someone to put a lavish meal together to serve the occasion, so that Martha could continue to sit at His feet. If she chose that, which was a better part!

Or, let's say, food didn't show up and everyone went hungry. They were nourished on the words of the Lord.

So, this presents a different image of Martha, the fact that SHE, voluntarily chose to do the preparation. It reveals a robust woman of the world, one who is comfortable and eager to get involved with the doings of the world, serving and hospitality. Why? Because Jesus said she made a choice to do so.

Now, I for sure can't tell you that I would have done one whit better. Knowing that these important people - respected tremendously - were there, and it was the dinner hour, I couldn't have done anything BUT get up and work in the kitchen as well. But, that's exactly the point. That's part of MY nature, my fleshly nature, that has to be put to death. Because, the most important thing that was going on that entire time was what the Lord was teaching on.

Sometimes we have to do violence to our flesh, and look a little outrageous - or even lazy or irresponsible. How many times have you gone into prayer and the devil is pummeled you and said, "You shouldn't be doing this now, you have all that work to do! You're so irresponsible." Lots of times, over here - I can tell you that! And to most, this might seem truly unfair. I know it did for me for the longest time - I was very angry about that example, especially because I tend to be the Martha most of the time. But, in these last few years I've come to recognize that the things that I see as being so important...are really NOT important at all. That's the difference between the spiritual perspective and the fleshly perspective.

So, in conclusion, nobody said that his role was forced on her, she chose it.

Now we come to Mary. Surely, she had chores to do, living with her sister. And, I am sure she had her fair share of the duties. But, Mary consciously chose not to get involved in the chores this day, she chose to sit at the Lord's feet and listen to Him. I believe, because God was the most important person in her life, and she had very little interest in food and preparations for company and feasts. She was more taken up with the deeper more hidden meaning of what was before her. This was not a man she was entertaining - this was God! And, the essence of God, His Spirituality, was what she hungered for. Company and feasts would come and go, but what Jesus had was more precious to her than anything.

But, now I understand more about myself. I was comfortable as the Martha. I enjoyed the busy work and preparations in the world. I enjoyed a good meal and would go out of my way to fix one. I enjoyed a clean house and a clean floor 24/7.

But, not any longer. Something inside of me has shifted. "The Lord is waiting to talk to you." I hear in my spirit, and I can't wait to be with Him. He is no longer less important than homemade cookies and a clean floor. No, now He is more important than anything else...all else can wait until tomorrow.

Have you ever experienced that hollow feeling after surfing the net for an hour...You only meant to look up one thing, but other things caught your attention out of curiosity and an hour later you realize...'what am I doing? I haven't gotten any deeper with God, I've just heard a bunch of people disputing dates and expounding on timing, and the same old news - over and over again!'

This is what I am getting at, dear family. You can be a Martha and spend hours collecting and weighing data, discussing it with friends and forums, scouring the latest news to see how much closer we are to the Rapture. We can study and participate in the Hebrew new moons, and the feasts. The Hebrew perspectives and the meaning of the times and the seasons. They are fascinating and they seem to be spiritual, but are they... truly? When we're done studying all these things, are we any deeper or closer to Jesus as our intimate Spouse when we get done with all that work? Yes, I think understanding brings us closer, in some ways. I would agree with that. There's an understanding - a mutual understanding of the significant things that definitely brings out the beauty of the traditions. But, when we get involved in these things, and we, for instance, spend time studying what this prophet, or that prophet says, and what's the newest prophetic fulfillment in the news is. When we're all done with that, to be brutally honest, aren't we exhausted from all pursuing all the different latest interpretations and prophecies? And, a little afraid of what is coming upon the world? It's pretty intimidating...sizing up all that data.

So...what is the priority in our lives? Is it a captivating and intimate relationship with God Almighty, sitting at His feet, listening to His heartbeat? Or is it knowing the latest scoop on when He's coming? Are we running here and running there to fit the puzzle pieces together and be sound, intelligent, well read, well studied, well educated? Is that our priority?

Or, are we smitten with the Groom, and longing only to hold and be held by Him. And, we're trusting so completely in Him that we've left all the Rapture timing issues far behind...because we're star struck with our God. We're listening to His heartbeat, and He communicates His sorrows and His needs to us. He lets us know how grieved He is for the lonely shut in and we immediately make a plan to visit her. He longs to spend time with the little boy next door who has no father, so we get a basketball and invite him to play. But, as soon as we're done with these things, we run back to our Savior's feet and kiss them, spending the most precious thing we have in this world - our time - lavishing it on Him and being in His company. This is the Mary paradigm.

So, do you see? Is it clear to you? I am not prejudiced against the Jews or the Jewish feasts. I'm just so in love with the One Who is the Culmination of all laws, all the feasts and traditions, and I'm so taken by Him there is little time for anything else. When He told me to stop seeking the ways of His ancestors and seek Him alone, I understood what He meant. He was lonely for His Bride. He wants His Mary sitting at His feet. He wants to feel your gentle caress on His brow, and see that you trust Him so implicitly that you don't fret about the world or its unfolding events. You only care about Him in this very moment, and what He has to say to you, and your eternity together.

So, the point about the new and the old wineskins, is that the new wine is the love and Bridal relationship with Jesus, with God. And, the old wine, is the way of the laws, and the traditions of men, and the traditions -which are beautiful traditions, which He Himself celebrated, and we will celebrate in the Millennium, according to Scripture. But, the new wine is something altogether different. It's not an activity that is taken up with community, and times and seasons. It's a timeless, eternal, Love relationship with the Lord. So, in order to have this new wine poured into our wineskins, we do have to have new wineskins. And, we have to spend a lot of time at His feet.

So, I believe this is basically what He was talking about when He presented us with the example of the two wineskins. And, He is longing to fill us with that new wine. But, we've got to be free to sit with Him and enjoy it. Our minds cannot be taken up with all of the doings of the world, no matter how relevant they seem to be. In His eyes, they're not so relevant, because in a heartbeat He could convey to us what His next move is going to be. And, it might be missed by everyone. In fact, it probably would be, missed by everyone but those who are very, very close to Him would see it.

Okay. Now, what you just heard was recorded last night. And, I held it over because I wanted to continue to discern it, and to make absolutely sure that I had the Lord's heart and mind - because of some of the correspondence that we've been getting. Remarks, and so on. I went into worship and prayer today, and as I was in prayer and worship, the Lord had a word for me. This is what He had to say:

"My Brides, I have taken a long time to lead you and convince you that I am speaking through this vessel.

Ask yourselves, 'Why Lord?' And, I will answer you.

"Because you have learned ways that are not pleasing to Me and I have brought you here to offer you My ways. I am not speaking the truth through her consistently every day and then speaking lies. Again, look at the fruit.

Have you grown closer to Me through this ministry? Really. Ask yourselves that question. If the answer is no, then there is no reason to continue here.

"If the answer is yes, I have a proposition for you...you are walking in error and I want to straighten your path that you might reach the destination of My Heart by a shorter way. Old ways do need to be abandoned. The preoccupation of study is not the short way. The infusion of My Spirit and My knowledge - THAT is the short way. When you sit with Me totally empty of yourselves, I fill you to overflowing with Myself. If you sit with Me filled up already, where can I find space to pour into you?

"Some of you have filled your vessels with learning. It is in My way. You wonder why you are not progressing in certain areas? That is your answer. There is no space to progress to until you empty yourself of your own agenda. Then, I can fill you. Pray always, 'Father, if I am in error, reveal it to me and give me a teachable spirit that responds to Your correction. Father, above all, I want to be pleasing to You and Your Son.' Pray these words from the heart and your prayer will be answered."

Lord, I want that.

"You tremble at My word. Stay in that posture, Beloved, I will perfect you in truth if you continue that way.

"Well, I just wanted to mention to some of you that I have drawn you here for a very good reason. And, if you have had quality nourishment, there is no need for you to fight against what I am trying to teach you here.

Rather, I would ask you to embrace My perspective and consider your ways.

"That's all I have to say, My Love. There is nothing more left to say right now, except I love My Bride deeply and while there is time I want her to be a walking Image of Myself. And, in order for her to attain to that, some things she holds dearly to her heart need to be abandoned.

"I know you want to change these words to give her hope that she can return to them, but you know those thoughts are not mine."

As an aside here, I was going to add the words, 'for now', abandoned, 'for now.'

"I don't want you to soften this. Those are your thoughts, not mine.

I'm sorry, Lord.

"I know. I understand. I need you to stand firm in exactly what I say to you and not waver like Peter did. Stand firm and let the arrows fly. I cannot use you to the fullest if you are a reed swaying in the wind.

"And for the rest of you, My Brides, when was the day I stopped loving and caring for you? Am I asking you to let go of something because I want to deprive you ...or bless you? Can you trust Me? You decide.

"In the meantime I will pour out My Sweet Spirit of repentance and ask you to consider your ways in the light of what I've said to you."

In conclusion, I just want to pray a short prayer with you.

Lord, please show us what's important for us to spend our time on. Help us to be empty and have a new wineskin, that you might fill it with new wine. And, not to be distracted or preoccupied with anything. But, to be riveted on You, Jesus. And, as we watch Your eyes, and listen to Your heart, we're going to KNOW what You want from us and what's next. We don't need to look at the world for those things. Everything we need to know, Lord, is coming from Your presence. It's infused knowledge, because we're there with the beating of Your heart. So, I pray that all of us would have this New wine, this Love relationship, and this infused knowledge and stop seeking after the things of the world that make us grow weary, exhausted and even sometimes fearful. Help us to trust us so completely, Lord, that You're our only source. Thank You, Jesus. We love You!

Fly Paper & The Best Laid Plans

Well, Heartdwellers, it's been an exciting two days, and I'm so sorry I didn't get a message out to you, but when you hear our little tale of woe, you'll understand why!

We finally got our guest up and going, our elderly homeless friend and found her a place to live. In any case, Jesus wanted me to tell you what happened yesterday.

He said, "My Love, tell them what happened yesterday."

I just knew that was coming...how did I know that? Hmmm...

Well, before I get into that, I just want to say it's August the 23rd, 2015.

You'd think there would be some things I wouldn't have to tell. Especially after my husband, Ezekiel said, 'Don't tell them all of that!' I thought for sure my covering would get me off the hook. But no, now he is agreeing that I should share it with you. Well, where to start... and be nice at the same time! Lord, help me...

I named this message "Flypaper and the Best Laid Plans". Have you ever walked into flypaper? I have long hair, and someone pinned some flypaper up in a kitchen, and it came down JUST about to the tip of my head. And, I walked by and and I tied into that flypaper - I went to take it off and it stuck more to my hand, and stuck to my other hand, and stuck more to my hair...it was a MESS! It took me a long time to get free of that fly paper, and to get all that sticky stuff off of me! So, that's why I named this episode "Flypaper and The Best Laid Plans."

For a week, we've been planning on moving Rae, and getting all the people together that would be necessary to complete this little project. And, we talked to her about it - but she was not very enthusiastic. But, finally, she did agree.

So, as I shared with you in our last video about Rae, with no social security income, and 4 tiny pee-and-poop- anywhere dogs, as well as her own serious hygiene issues...we had to have to move, since the owners wanted their house back. She pulled into our driveway five years ago and since then couldn't start her old Lincoln that had expired tags. We had attempted to move her for three different years, but every time, some string of events would shut us down. Now it was critical. The owners of the house told us she had to go.

We finally found the perfect place for her: an elderly man living out on the mesa, with his goats and all kinds of teen runaways. He told the Lord He would never turn anyone away, and in all these years he's taken care of hundreds that had no one and nowhere to go. We support Stanley with food every week. There's no running water - they haul their water in, and no electricity, but he's a decent, Christian man that cares about others.

And, he cooks meals every day for whoever is staying there or comes on by. The mesa is a very interesting place. It's dry and windy and sagebrush...really, no trees. Very dusty and sandy - really, the poorest of the poor live out there, some of them in broken down in broken down, old cars. Some of them even stack the cars together to make a house. Any material that's out there is put together to use for something. The income level of the people who live out there is just...something not to be believed, it is so critical. And, that's mostly who we feed, that's where we send our food. (from the food bank.)

So, anyway, the mesa is a rough, rough place. And, Stanley is a good soul. He agreed to make a space for Ray on his land and dig her a potty hole under the camper that she was given.

Ray loves animals. She was raised on a farm and we thought this would be the place where she could live the way she wanted to, have her dogs and even have an elderly friend to talk to. Some very kind volunteers of the mission gave her the Yellowstone Camper Trailer we had once lived in when we came down from our high mountain retreat. We parked it on the far side of the house and nurtured trees that had grown around it. The unfortunate side of this was that all of those 15 foot trees would have to be removed before the camper could be pulled out.

Ray's old Lincoln was filled almost to the top, maybe 12 inches short of the ceiling with books, clothing, trash. But, we had had it fixed, finally - that was a funny story I put up before - and it was ready.

So, we were planning this move for the end of the week and had a volunteer crew set up with a backhoe tractor to come in and maneuver the camper out into the drive way.

Now comes the sticky part! Ray wants to go home to Texas and every time we've tried to get her what she needed to go, something would come up, and snafu the plans. This time, we fixed her car, got her a new battery, filled the car with gas and offered her travel money to go home to Texas.

Dear family, we were at the end of our end. I couldn't go another day with this woman on the property: the tiny ninja dogs, the horrible smell and the threat of the owners asking us to leave if we didn't move her out and have the house cleaned, was just stressing both of us to the max. And, I don't stress easily.

We were at our wits end to move her and the camper out before the owners returned. Really, my whole body was reacting to the pressures from all directions. So, when we finally got a solution for her, we HAD to make it work!

Ray had only three alternatives: take her dogs and start walking, drive her car out of the driveway and live in the Walmart parking lot, or graciously receive the camper and live on the Mesa until she got her paperwork in order. We promised to help her with food and everything else, she needed as long as we had the funds.

Just a little background on here - she's a charming and genteel woman from Texas, but doesn't live in the real world. All her time is spent in books with her little dogs, who are constantly fighting over who's gonna sit in her lap. That's her world. Everyone has tried to get us to put her in a nursing home, but I would never ever do that. Her heart would be broken without her dogs - that's just her life! We've talked to friends who have known her for...40, 50 years. And they've said that she has been the same way her entire life. So, she wasn't about to change. We didn't want to separate her from her dogs, so we were trying to find an environment where she would fit in, and wouldn't stick out like a sore thumb. And...it was free!

She told us, actually, that she came here with 1.4 million dollars and everything she owned got stolen from her, including her house and her RV. She was a horse woman and used to living a nice lifestyle. One of the houses she owned she sold to RC Gorman, a very famous American artist who lives here in Taos. So, understanding her background - she was a wealthy and proud independent Texas woman who had no need for God, professed Buddhism, but didn't practice it and said I'll go to hell cause all my friends are there.

For five years we took care of her and witnessed God's love to her. She wouldn't have anything to do with Social Security, so she had no way to support herself. But, now it was time for her to go, for our sanity and I believe it was for her own good as well, 'cause the Lord kept giving us confirmations that it was really time.

The man who stole her house and RV from her was holding the title to her car. I went to look him up on the internet to find out what his phone number was, and he is still stealing from someone, because there was a court case on the internet, with some elderly people and a house. So, things hadn't changed, and he hadn't been stopped yet.

So, I had a little sit down with Rae. It went something like this: "Rae, Honey, we've found a place for you to go with a trailer to live in until you get your paperwork in order. And, we'll help you with the fees, but we can't do it for you."

The paperwork she had to get in order was basically her license and registration.

When she found out, in this conversation, that it was the mesa she said, "I don't want the trailer, I'm not going to live on the Mesa, I want to go back to Texas."

I told her, "You can go back to Texas anytime you want to, but this would give you time to get more work done on the car, get your driver's license and registration in order." So, I told her, "You can't stay here while you do that. You have to find another place to live."

Well, a stream of excuses longer than a strip of fly paper started streaming out of her mouth, "I won't live on the mesa, I need new tires, I need new brakes. I need new mufflers, my license and my plates, before I leave here!"

I told her "No, Sweetie, your time here is up. You can do that at Stanley's."

She answered me, "I know you don't want me here."

I said, "Ray, you were here when the owners came and took measurements. They have asked you to leave. This was not our decision, we are being forced."

"Well! I won't live on the Mesa, and I'm not going to Stanley's."

So, all week, that's what we had to look forward to. We went back and forth and back and forth. So, here we are on "D" day. The backhoe operator's in the yard uprooting trees, working his way to the camper.

I looked at Ray sitting on the porch holding one of her little dogs which we just noticed 2 days ago was pregnant and ready to burst. She was talking to it and I said, "Is everything OK?"

She said, "Well... no. All night long she's been trying to give birth to these puppies but they won't come through the birth canal." This is a situation, I guess, that's real common with Chihuahuas, and they often die trying to give birth.

At this point, I knew what had to be done, even though it was smack in the middle of moving her to Stanley's. It was Saturday, but I called the vet on duty and he said he would meet us, several miles out of town where the clinic was. The volunteer helping her to move her things from the house to the trailer was on standby until we returned. All was just about set to go. The house was a complete disaster, clothing, dog stuff, smelling to high heaven. But, we had to save this little dog's life in the midst of it all, so off we went. We rushed down there, left the dog with vet, and headed home to see if her car was ready.

I said, "OK, Ray. Let's go get your car." So, I called the mechanic and told him we were on the way.

He shared his great wisdom about our circumstance, adding another 12 inches of fly paper to the mix.

"Just how are you planning on getting it? It doesn't have any registration. She doesn't have a license and I can't guarantee that thing is safe."

I told him, "We'll take care of it."

He replied, "But, it's not registered. You can't drive this on the street!"

I thought to myself, 'She drove it to our house and parked it. Surely she can drive it off your property.' Even though we had emptied 14 bags of trash from it, still there were piles of magazines, clothing and books up to the shoulder of the seats. The mechanic wouldn't even get in it, to work on it. He was afraid of the Hunta Virus... which has killed people out here.

I opened the door of our truck for Ray to get in and she said, "I can't drive that car, it's not registered and I don't have a license."

I replied, "Do you want your car, Rae? You're not staying here another day. Benton is hauling the camper out to the Mesa for you and you have to follow him in your car if you want the camper."

"I'm going to Texas. I don't want the camper."

I said, "Ray, you have to have a place to stay while you're making your plans."

She was quiet. Then, I got a great idea: she could pull that camper back to Texas with her. I told her that and she sat there still brooding. A few moments later, "Did you say I could have the camper?"

"Yes, Ray, it's yours if you want it."

"Well... then, I accept." Not a word of gratitude, thank you ma'am or take a long walk off a short cliff....just, "Well. Then, I accept." (laughing at it all...)

I took a deep sigh of relief as we pulled into the mechanic's yard.

The first words out of his mouth were, "You can't drive that thing. It's not current. She'll get pulled over. It's not safe, I can't guarantee it..." On and on and on, right?

I put my hand up like a traffic cop and said, "That's enough, Brother. I don't want to hear another word from you." He started up again and I said, "ZIP IT!"

Ray got in the car, turned the ignition and nothing happened. Oh, boy... I looked at the mechanic and he looked at me.

"I just started it 5 minutes ago!" he protested.

He opened the hood, and found the cables were loose, so, made some excuse and walked off to get a wrench. Five minutes later, it started right up. But, I was thinking, 'It starts now... BUT will it start again????'

No matter, it just needs to GO!

Then, Ray started in, making all kinds of objections, "The dash lights won't come on!"

"You don't need them, Ray."

Then, another stream of things that were wrong kept coming up, as I walked over to the gate and she pulled towards it, talking the whole time with the door to the Lincoln wide open. I told her to close the door, and she wouldn't do it - she just kept giving me excuses. Finally, I shut the door and told her I'd follow her home.

Well, we made it to the gas station, filled it up, and arrived home just in time for Benton to be pulling out of the driveway with the camper. She parked on the street, opened the door and began another long string of protests: "The steering wheel wiggles, the brakes go to the floor, it smelled hot, my license and my registration aren't current, and the fluids haven't been changed...."

And, she wanted to park it in front of our house again. I HAD the fluids checked!

And, I said, "Ray, you have two choices...leave this car right here, get in the truck with Benton and I'll have it towed away in 20 minutes and impounded. Or, get behind him in your car and follow him out to the mesa where there's another mechanic and we can have it looked at again.

She just gave me a blank stare. I could tell a rebuttal was coming, so I repeated her options and walked away.

Now, in order for the camper to get out of the driveway we had to move our truck. It was rather a tight squeeze and all of a sudden one of our tires exploded and went flat. It had hit some kind of a stub, and it went through the side of the wall and just penetrated, went all the way through. BID explosion!

Benton looked at us, thinking HIS tire went flat on the trailer. He looked at us and said, Well, I can't keep going with a flat tire..."

I said, smiling, because I knew it was good to go, No Benton you're good to go. It's OUR tire that just exploded." He finally got it turned and went down the street.

And, she followed quietly...

WHEW!!!! Boy, I'll tell you. If I were a drinker I'd have 3 martini's over this - I was SO exhausted.

Well, unfortunately, that's not quite the end of the story. She made it all the way out to the Mesa, and had just crossed the cattle guard when the car stopped and started steaming. Benton looked at it and figured out our world class mechanic didn't screw the radiator cap on all the way, and now...well, the car is toast.

The Lord whispered in my ear earlier that day to get her another car. I felt the Holy Spirit in that. So, I brought it to Ezekiel and the Lord confirmed it, and somehow she will have to find a used car and we have several volunteers that I'm sure will help her to pay for it.

Ezekiel and I spent a good hour soaking in the water after all of that. And, when we came back, there was another message on our phone, 'cause you know I was not going to answer any calls.

It was Stanley who had this 'good' report, "We have a problem with the propane, it seems to be leaking somewhere when I turn it on."

I thought to myself, 'Welcome to Fly Paper Central. Good luck, Brother.'

In the meantime, who's going to pick up the dog at the vet tomorrow??? I don't know. But, I DO know who WON'T be picking up the dog tomorrow.... We've done our 5 years, and we're out now. It's someone else's turn. And, that's the end of the Fly Paper and Best Laid Plans story.

Or... so, I hope.

So, needless to say I came into prayer last night...road kill. It was all I could do to sit up and worship our good God. Immediately, I saw Him holding me up, under the arms. He picked me up, put me on an operating table and opened me up and began repairing the damage. I think I was a mess. Taking things out and putting things back, swabbing out around my heart...because infection had set in: the infection of anger, bitterness and unforgiveness and frustration. When He was done He said, "You'll have to be on antibiotics for a while."

The next scene, I was lying in a beautiful, palatial bed with a sheer canopy and curtains in a palace. The Lord was sitting on my right, on the edge of the bed. And, on my left were my lion, Judah, and my mountain lion Felix.

Awe, she is so sweet!

She was licking my hands and nuzzling under my arm with her cold nose. And, I was eating a delectable pastry that she was helping me with, bit by bit. Her massive paws were making kitty biscuits on the covers as she savored every bite of the pastry.

Thank you, Lord. Thank you so much! You are treating me like a queen and you know how I love jaguars and their beautiful rosettes. She is adorable! And, a bit massive...!

He replied, "Don't you know it's because you did a queen size amount of work?"

Awww...thank you, Lord.

"You are welcome, Dearest. Thank you for taking care of the one I want to make Mine." For You, Jesus.

Financial Collapse of Our Government

August 25, 2015

The Lord is leading us, dear Heartdwellers. I had a really heavy grief today. I didn't know what it was, but it was just extremely heavy in my heart. I'm not sure EXACTLY what it was, because there're some things about ISIS coming up again, as well as things that are about to happen in this country.

Getting back to the Lord's heart - yes, His heart was really...I was just feeling such GRIEF in the pit of my stomach, in my soul. Just...such grief. So, I went into worship, and I have to tell you, it was really hard getting a message tonight. There was all kinds of interference, and difficulty focusing on my behalf, on my part. At one point a Lying spirit got in, and I knew something wasn't right, so I stopped. Ezekiel helped me discern and...we got rid of THAT paragraph! Thank You, Lord, for Your faithfulness. I HATE those things - I just HATE em'! Okay, so now for the real message, and what the Lord wanted to say tonight:

Lord, I sense this heavy grief in your heart. You are wearing black - a black tuxedo, and I am wearing a black satin evening gown with a gilded pink rose at the waistline. You've asked me to pray for my children and told me they are being sent back to me. What is all this about? Also, I see your eyes streaming tears of sorrow.

He began: "This is about the fall of your great nation through her economy. There will be dire results: homelessness and hunger, deaths from lack of medication, though the living will in some cases be jealous of the dead. Riots, disorder, fighting in the streets - even your streets, as people seek sources of food. This is a very dark time we are entering upon. You have no need to worry, I will protect this property, this house, all that concerns you shall be protected. There shall be desperate repercussions for many, though."

And, of course, right off the bat, what do I do? Start worrying...

"Didn't I tell you not to worry?"

I know, Lord. But, I was thinking of the electricity. (I was thinking about maybe looking into a wind generator, or something like that. Ezekiel went to the Lord for me, and we got a thumb's down.)

"Don't worry about anything, I have you completely covered."

Ok. So, what is tonight's message? You know everyone is going to run to cover themselves before this crash comes.

"Commerce is going to go on. E commerce is going to go on. It is those dependent on government subsidies that are going to be hurting. Offices will close and no checks will be forth coming. That is what is going to create the biggest disturbance. That is why I have told you not to have anything to do with the government and its subsidies. And, for the reason that you are My servant and as such I pay your wage. Don't worry, I am going to cover you. Some of those who have looked down upon you in scorn and contempt are going to be coming to you for help. It is My justice that the playing field should be leveled."

Lord, this message is going to cause an uproar of fear.

"It is better to be prepared than to be taken by surprise."

So, how are Your people who are reliant on Social Security going to fare?

"Hardly, but I will not leave them helpless. Are they not of more worth to Me than the sparrows whom I feed every day? I have My people, Clare. My people who have been set up to help others and where there is no help, I am to take up the difference.

"Does this scare you?"

No, Lord.

"Good. It shouldn't scare you or anyone else. I am faithful. I will do what is necessary for My flocks. Many who have relied solely on Me in the past have suffered terrible ridicule and I stood by silently watching. It is time for the haughty to be humbled. It is time for them to see that those who put their trust in Me will be provided for and providing for them. How degrading this attitude has been in the past. This is one attitude of My Bride that I will have cleansed from her."

And, I was thinking at that point of a certain incident that happened with us over a year ago.

"Yes, you may tell them your story."

Well, there was one night, well over a year ago, when I went to a certain individual for help and her relatives knew I was at the door and ignored me. Our water was to be turned off the next day and we were desperate, because Ezekiel had a medical situation that had to be maintained as well. This particular person the next day went with me on an errand. And, I told him about our water situation and he told me all about how the Lord had provided so well for him. How he was lacking nothing and the Lord had been so good to him. On and on. I thought to myself, 'Excuse me! I'm sitting here in dire need because our water was turned off today and all you can tell me about is how faithful the Lord is to you? Are you rubbing salt in my wounds or what???'

I wanted to say, "It's the government that's paying your bills so you can live a comfortable life." But, I thought to myself, perhaps the Lord is using the government in this situation. So, I said nothing.

Really, I couldn't fathom how anyone could be so callus. They knew we worked day and night on our teachings and music. I was constantly providing them with new teachings and new music. And, I remember crying and saying, "I don't understand this? We are serving the Lord with our whole hearts, relying on Him only and He's allowed the water to be turned off. And, they just continued on about how faithful He had been to them." Not sure what they were thinking? Or, maybe not thinking. It was three days before we could have it turned back on, thanks to the kindness of another individual.

Well, I have to be as Paul was. I know how to live in plenty and I know how to live in want. And, I guess that's the road ahead for us in America. And, I have to say in ministry, I don't EVER want money to be an issue of any kind, as to whether or not we do anything. In the sense that, I'm not for sale! I'd rather be poor and homeless out on the street with nothing to eat, than sell myself for a donation. That's just...ridiculous. I just wouldn't do it! And, we've been tested in that area for years - and we've come to that settled place that it's not worth it.

Having anyone try to manipulate us because they had money. So, the Lord has kept us free from that, thank God! 'Cause I've seen so many ministers go down, because they got over-committed and get comfortable, and certain groups in the church that have the money start manipulating the messages. That's a terrible thing!

The Lord continued: "There will be much circumspection, re-evaluation of goals and past behaviors when they looked upon others as incompetent or sinful and lazy. Thus, I will humble My Bride and call her into account for those times she failed to show mercy and leniency. Oh, how I love her, yet certain things are repugnant to Me and selfishness is one of them."

Oh, Lord, I know I've been selfish, too. Thank you for helping me have a heart for those truly in need.

"It is so important to Me that My Ambassadors and Brides reflect My Mercy and provision to those who are in a weakened and tenuous situation. That is why I provide extra for many of My servants. I know they will use it on others, not on themselves. I count on that, Clare. I count on the mercy of those I give an abundance to. Not much longer now, My Bride, and you will be with Me. But, in the meantime, reflect Me to others. Be merciful, non - judgmental, and liberal, especially with the poor.

"I am calling on some of you now to be prepared for what is to come and share what you have with others. I will never fail to provide for you. The more you share, the more I shall give you.

"I love you dearly. Walk in My ways and My counsel."

Government Collapse Clarified, You Poor Are My Gift to the World

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers.

Tonight I have an important message for you. It's a clarification about my previous message, about the government of the US collapsing. It's a clarification. And, also some other things the Lord had to say.

First, I'm going to start with some of my observations here and share these with you, just to clear up any confusion on your part. It seems that I need to be a little more specific when I give you a message from the Lord, perhaps by clarifying it a little. Several people have written in the comments about the message on the 18th of August this year, when I asked the Lord about an economic collapse.

I had not researched that subject at all, I just happened to hear comments about it on our own channel and the information from other sites that all of you sometimes post on our channel.

So, I wanted to clarify that for you, what He said and what He DIDN'T say. So, here's a quote:

I said, But, Lord, what about the financial collapse?

He turned His head sideways and let out a deep breath, "Have I spoken to YOU about a financial collapse?"

Now, that's the substance of our dialogue on the subject. And, let me explain to you how I interpret what He said there. I have been told not to listen to different prophets and peruse what is being said by whom. He has asked me not to do this, lest I get contamination from what I hear others saying.

So, He was in a sense chiding me, to see if I had been obedient or had been listening to others. "Have I spoken to YOU about a financial collapse?" If you look at the PDF, you'll notice that "YOU" is all in caps. He was stressing that.

That's what He said. He didn't say there will be no financial collapse, He just asked me basically 'where did I hear that, and am I basing my idea that there will be a collapse on other sources?' That I, mixing sources with Him?

That's what He does not want from me. So, I am not to tell you about a collapse unless He tells me about one. He is my source. Not the internet nor the good prophets who have become popular.

Now, that said, I need to clarify something else. In this last message, He talked about Government collapse in the United States and a continuation of commerce here, also.

In other words, NOT COMPLETE FINANCIAL COLLAPSE.

Not complete world collapse in other nations. He specified America. Not only America - but He specified the American Government.

So, in listening, my loved ones, you have to cultivate an ear for details, because Jesus is specific with me almost always. And, it's so easy to jump to conclusions especially, when you've been listening to others.

So, please, dear family. Listen carefully. In this last message He did not say there would be a complete financial collapse. If you have heard this from different sources, please keep your sources straight and pay particular attention to what I have been told, so you don't confuse other people's messages with mine. OK??

He has told me that the complete collapse would not come until after the Rapture. So, just before I go on to that, I just want to say. So. This is what He said: He said there would be a government collapse in the United States. Not in Great Britain. Not in Australia. Not in Canada. Not in Ireland. Not in South America.

In the United States. Only. There would be a financial collapse of the government. But, that commerce would continue. In other words, people would continue to buy, sell, and trade. And, the people who would be affected by the government collapse in the United States - He just mentioned that the government wasn't going to be paying out money every month. So, that could have to do with Social Security, but it could also have to do mostly with people who are dependent for an income and have food stamps, and that kind of thing - on the government. That was more my understanding.

Okay. Moving on. He just told me that the complete collapse is not to come until after the Rapture, at least to the best of my ability, that's what I remember. That's the clearest understanding that I have.

Now. THAT said - NO ONE is perfect. And, if I have made an error in understanding, because He communicates IDEAS to me, at times. And, in some messages, I have to put the words to the ideas. And, I'm only human. So, we'll have to wait and see. I'm waiting to see, with you. But so far, the complete collapse is NOT to come until AFTER the Rapture. To the very best of my understanding in my frail human body and mind.

Please, always pray for me that I will interpret His thoughts correctly and not allow my coloring to get in. This is one reason why Ezekiel discerns the messages before I post them. He is acutely aware of how I think. However, so is the Lord and that is one reason why He uses this frail vessel. He has infused much of His way of thinking into my weak little mind. Remember, Scripture says Where we are weak, He is strong. Or, I wouldn't be able to understand His thoughts and put words to them. But, then comes the 'human' factor.

Okay. So, I do my best, if I ever fail, what will be new about that? I'm human and subject to my own interpretations. Sometimes you may have to ask yourself, "Is her Jesus ministering to me on a regular basis. Am I growing closer to Him?" And, if I do make a mistake, say, "Well I guess she's only human after all. She did confess that she was only human."

And, as I've told you in the past, there's two ways that these messages come to me. One is, infused knowledge. Where an understanding comes that I have to put the words to. Another way it comes to me, is where He dictates words to me step by step. Word by word. And, He usually does that with me when I have a very strong opinion that differs with His. So, He helps me grasp what He's saying by just telling me each word by word and putting the thought together for me in sentences.

The messages that have been the most controversial have been discerned over and over and over again. Believe me, I tremble when I think I've gotten it wrong. I tremble, and I wait on the Lord until He provides confirmations. So far, so good. But, don't think I agree with everything He says, because I don't. There are times when I just don't get it. But, somehow I know it is Him, so I pass it on to you. I love it when I get an inner witness, but I don't depend on that because I have a very strong opinion of my own and when He goes against that I have to yield to Him.

Alright. So, that's the end of that.

Now, on to the poor. In the Book of Acts 2:44 All who believed were together and had all things in common. 45 And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need.

And, in other places in the Word, it talks about distributing food to the poor. This has been our responsibility from the beginning, not the Government's. The poor are a gift to us, to exercise ourselves in charity and good works...James says, Faith without works is useless.

He also says, in James 1:27 Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.

What is coming to America is a huge opportunity for us to exercise charity and sacrifice. I am constantly watching for those who are sincere on our channel and have a history with us, to provide them with help when they are in dire straits. Ezekiel is. Carol is. Everyone is watching for anyone who is a regular who has a problem. And, they report back to me and let me know

Many of you who listen here have received from us, so you understand our commitment. Right now our expenses are very low and I'm hoping we won't have to move and have to pay rent, so we can afford to help when it is needed. In fact, some of you have sent in donations that we were able to help others with that very day. So, this is our commitment. But, we are careful to make sure no one is using this channel selfishly.

Unfortunately, we've caught a couple of scammers. The bottom line is that we pray over every person that we see has a need and don't send a thing until the Lord approves it.

So, Heart Dwellers, we are coming into our own. We are all going to be tested on our charity and outreach to others as the disabled, the infirm, and vulnerable elderly are deprived of their regular government income. We can't help everyone, obviously, but we can help some. This may be our last big test before we go Home. We'll just have to wait and see.

Lord, is there anything You want to say?

He began, "My Love, I am very, very pleased that you are looking out for the poor and sick. These are trying times, but I am with each and every one that truly loves Me. Even those who abuse and reject Me, I still provide for, because I hurt for them when they are so desperate."

Rae comes to mind, very definitely.

"In the times that are coming, I want you to pay particular attention to the helpless. There is more than enough to go around, and I will send more. But, wait on Me. Do not be moved by credible stories because indeed there are deceivers and I do not wish to support their manipulative lifestyles. But, I will care for those who are sincerely in need."

Then He began to quote Scripture: 2 Cor. 8:13-15 My desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed, but that there might be equality. 14 At the present time your plenty will supply what they need, so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need. The goal is equality, 15 as it is written: "The one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little."

And, at that point - that's in 2 Corinthians 8, I asked the Lord, what about the ones who are lazy and refuse to support themselves?

"I am working with them. I speak to their hearts. But, there will come a time for them when I will allow a disaster, only because they did not put forth the effort to care for themselves and their families. But, even when disaster strikes, I am still there."

"My servants have learned to live on very little. I will continue to provide for them because their agenda is Mine and they are obedient."

"But, those I have nudged in their hearts, wanting them to move forward and care for their own, they will indeed have difficult times ahead. Living off the government has put them at high risk. My children, those of you who are not disabled and sick, those of you who have been lying to the government and using the resources meant for the poor to support your own dishonest and lazy lifestyle, you will be left behind. I am asking you to repent now, before it is too late for you. You haven't much time left, but if I see a sincere change in your lifestyle, I will forgive your sinful lying and take you in the Rapture. But, do not expect to use others for your own personal gain, misrepresenting yourself or your family and be Raptured at the same time. It will not happen."

Boy, when I heard the Lord say that, I thought about those of you who are going to freak out when they hear this. And, those of you who are scrupulous and prone to false guilt. And so, I said, 'Lord, may I clarify this?'

"You may."

Okay guys, the Lord is not talking about you who are legitimately sick or have disabled children, and truly you can't work. He is talking about those who use the system to accumulate wealth and deceive the government about their needs so they can have more than their share. Most of you have already chosen honesty in your lives, please don't worry, this is not about you. Those of you who are helpless, and don't have any recourse because you can't work - this is not about you. This is about people who are deliberately deceiving the government and other people so they don't have to put forth any effort to support themselves. They're fully capable - and they just won't do it.

There have been people with $50,000 in the bank, several cars, holdings, an expensive home and are still appealing to the government for support for food, etc. and have been abusing the system for years. If you are in that category, repent while there is yet time.

There are some who are fully able to work but have filed for disability because they thought they could get away with it, although they are not truly disabled. Please repent while there is time.

The Lord picked up at this point and said, "I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, but I will not support or bless stealing and lying, so I appeal to you, My children, mend your ways.

"For the rest, I say thank you for caring about those around you. Your reward in Heaven shall be great. For those who are poor, I say, you are My gift to those around you. Through you, they shall prove their holiness and be My ambassadors of mercy.

"You play a very valuable role in My Kingdom. You teach the selfish to be merciful. You teach the proud to be humble. You teach the rich compassion. Do not be ashamed of who you are. I allowed this circumstance in your life, and I have equipped you to bear the scorn and contempt of men, the way I did. I have allowed you to become very much like Me, that the hearts of men could be revealed.

"I bless you all My children and great is your reward in Heaven for your honesty, your Mercy and your righteousness in Me."

Gaze Upon Me My Bride, (Bride of Christ) (Seeing Jesus)

August 27, 2015

The Lord has blessed us, Heartdwellers, with a very precious, healing message tonight.

Before I get into the message, I want to share with you that, tonight, I was very aware of following the same protocols, or the same format that Mark Virkler talks about. And, of course, this is a tradition that, golly, dates all the way back to the very beginning - was journaling and listening for the Lord. That was the very first way that I heard from Him. That, and receiving rhemas through the Bible.

And, what I wanted to say is, I just poured my heart out to the Lord tonight. I came and sat down, and rather than listening for Him immediately, I poured out my heart to Him about what was going on inside of me, because it was troubling me. And, He was so quick to answer, and the anointing was so smooth and so beautiful. And, that happened again last night, I noticed. You know, normally He speaks to me in worship and then I come and I sit and listen for the message. But, it seems like He's really blessing the old way that I used to do it, thirty years ago, where I would pour out my heart to Him, and He would communicate back with me.

So, I was doing this on the computer. For all of you who have learned how to type with your eyes closed, it's a really nice thing to do. Or, with eyes open.

So, I'll go ahead and begin by saying that, there's just been this...I'd say, kind of curtain or pall of condemnation around me. A feeling of unworthiness. And, I haven't been able to really enter in the joy of the Lord with Him, because I've been kind of self-conscious - and this is a technique the enemy uses against us. He gets us to focus on our faults and what's wrong with ourselves, and that takes our eyes off of Jesus. I've talked about this in other places.

But, let me go ahead and share my dialogue with Him:

Lord, I don't understand why I come to You so crumpled up in condemnation, feeling so guilty, so dirty and unacceptable. You have to coax me out of myself, and into You. Though I do run to Your heart, still I feel so badly about myself. I fear to look at You. And yet, You freely look at me with eyes of Love. And, I hear You sigh. Why are You feeling this way? I don't feel this way about You. What IS it with me, Lord??

"When you take your eyes off of Me and onto yourself, you lose your focus. You stare into blank space, instead of My smiling face. I accompany you during the day, as your approving and loving companion. All day long! I wish you would notice Me, yet your mind disengages from Me to deal with the world. Then, in this freed-up state, the demons begin to pelt you with handfuls of gravel like pellets of condemnation.

"They say, 'Look! She's gotten busy with other things, and taken her eyes off of Him - let's get her now!'"

"See, when you are thoroughly engrossed in Me, they have no entrance. But, when you lose that, you're an open door to their oppressions and lies."

But, Lord, how do I keep my eyes and heart on You, when I'm dealing with the world?

"You accompany Me. Or, to put it more properly, I am accompanying you, My Love. And, you needn't feel guilty over every little thing you do. It is your lack of focus on Me that opens the door to this oppression."

Lord, is this a new teaching?

"Yes. In a manner of speaking, it is. Although you've heard this before, you've never quite learned how to acquire the habit."

Oh, Jesus. How can I acquire the habit? You know how I am... (at that point I started crying.) I know I have wanted this, but I have been so frustrated and convinced it was impossible for me. I've given up - much to my sorrow. I count on these times to truly connect with You - but other times, I feel so distant.

"When you have ties to the world, the traps to entangle you lie everywhere. It takes a real Grace to avoid them. This is something you must pray for, My Love. You cannot acquire this with self-discipline on your own. When you fall so in love with Me that you can't stand to be away from Me for a moment, you will see Me right here. By your side."

He smiled, "Yes, My Love. Right here by your side, smiling. Not scowling - pondering your beauty. Not focusing on your human imperfections. Do you know how much you mean to Me? Of course not. You're still stuck on what I will call your perception of yourself. Your "ugly" you. A little girl cringing in a hole in the ground: dirty, unkempt, lonely and abandoned. Yes, these are the things you're so quick to look at about yourself. That's why you see Me crying many times when I behold you - because I know it's nearly impossible for you to accept My Love, and see yourself as I see you."

I thought about what He was saying and I said, 'Oh, Lord. What you're saying is true. That is the way I feel.'

He replied, "I know! This is you in the past, not you robed in My salvation and righteousness. I will not say it's easy to see yourself as I see you. No, I agree. It is VERY hard for you, a mere mortal, to see the Glory bestowed on you and emanating from you. Very hard, indeed. I do show you in dreams, sometimes. When you can fly, and have emerged from the masses who are still under the effects of the law of sin and death. That is the meaning of those dreams - you are no longer a part of that which is perishing. But, now a citizen of Heaven, and able to fly freely about, delivered from the bondage of the flesh. That is TRULY who you are."

Just as an aside here, I've had many dreams about flying above crowds, and not being subject to any of the things they are subject to with gravity. It was so freeing, it was just amazing to be able to fly everywhere! And, maybe this was the message for me. And, I know a lot of you have had dreams like that. It could very well be that the Lord is showing you that you are a citizen of Heaven, and not under the law of sin and death anymore. You know, that's grounded to the Earth, grounded to the flesh.

So, I asked the Lord - 'How do you hold on to this on a daily basis?'

"Simple." he said. "Stay focused on Me. You look at Me. I smile. That should tell you everything you need to know about who you are to Me."

At that point, I heard a line from one of Ezekiel's songs - the first song we did together, The Song of Solomon. I heard a line from the Song of Songs. It said, "You are beautiful, My Beloved. Oh, you are beautiful." I'm going to play that at the end of this message.

The Lord continued: "Yes, I live in the Song of Songs when I'm with you. Yes, that IS My heart. Full of expectation of the day of your liberation from Earth. For, what you have already attained to in the spirit, by the same power that raised Me from the dead, shall be accomplished for you in the physical, and we shall be united as One, in this magnificent space of Divine Union. Then, no longer will the past cast shadows across your path. No, it will be annihilated in Mercy and Love. With just a drop of My Blood, it will have totally dissolved away your awful past, no more, ever to be found again. 'Under the Blood', as you are fond of saying.

"Well, I see you cannot even receive that now. How sad... Come on, Clare. Please take hold of My words. Hold them to your heart. Let them revise that miserable vision of yourself. Look at the transformation! No longer rotten and corrupt, but alive and soaring! Yes, that is who I see YOU as, My stunningly beautiful Bride. Not that pitiful wretch of the past."

"So, here we are again - full circle. And, when you see Me dancing with you, are you all ugly and dirty?"

I answered, 'No.'

"Well then, when you see Me dancing with you, you are seeing the REAL you."

Oh, Lord - somehow I KNOW that. I just wish I could hold on to it.

"Practice makes perfect!" He quipped. "Come now, My Beloved. Enter into Your Master's joy. I am perfectly happy and satisfied with ALL your efforts. I will crown them with success, and you will see that I am the One doing the doings FOR you. And, it IS good, for truly you have abided in Me. You just haven't quite mastered the art of focusing on Us."

Yes, Lord. I want that. May I please have that Grace?

"That's what I was waiting for. Now I will impart to you a few little secrets about maintaining this Gift. Come to Me, first thing in the morning. Establish My presence with you and within you. Look on My smiling countenance as I greet you, in your first hour of consciousness with Me. Cherish that smile. Hide it in your heart, as My mother did. Clasp it to your bosom and allow it to penetrate. Then, ask Me to live through you this day, as you sometimes do. And, go about your necessities, until we can have a trysting time."

"Now, as your day progresses, there will be ups and downs. There will be those sent to destroy your peace and rob you of this precious Treasure. When they succeed - come back to Me. Look upon My smile again. Reach for My hand, Clare - and walk with Me. Oh, I so desire you to see how very present I am" with you. Not for a moment do I depart from you. Not even for a second. Okay?"

Lord, would You remind me?

"Make yourself a note, My Love. You know how you are.

"And, for all of you, My Brides. Follow these same instructions. Try Me in these things, and see if I don't anoint you with a new awareness of Me, and My approval of YOU. Embrace these ways, and I will penetrate that thick cocoon of condemnation you have allowed the enemy to spin around you.

"I kiss each of you tenderly on the forehead. Go now, and do My will.

"Remember: I am with you. Return My gaze, My Brides."

Song: Song of Songs Ezekiel duBois

How much more delightful is your love than wine.

Your lips drip honey, my bride. Sweetmeats and milk are under your tongue.

And the fragrance of your garments is the fragrance of love, my love.

Myrrh and Aloes, all fine spices.

You are a garden fountain, well of water flowing fresh from Lebanon.

Rise up, North wind,

Come, South wind, look upon my garden

That spreads its perfume forth.

Let my lover come to his garden and eat its choice fruits.

You Are Unique, Follow My Vision For Your Life

August 28, 2015

Well, forgive me, Heartdwellers - I am sorry I didn't get the message up last night - I think it's entirely my fault, in fact, I know it is.

I came into worship today and said, 'Lord, I'm sorry. I've been so scattered.'

"Scattered? Scattered isn't the word for it, try distracted.

priority of the day and this won't happen again. These are deliberate attempts, not circumstance. Forewarned is forearmed."

Well, how do I keep this from happening, Lord?

"Make Me your priority every day. I know you are compromised right now with a worker on the property. In spite of that, refocus and let that stand off in the wings. You don't have to focus on that, just allow it in the background."

Ok. I'm sorry.

You are weak Clare, very weak.

"That's right My Love, lean on Me. Again forewarned is forearmed."

Okay...

"Let's move on."

THANK YOU!!!

"What? You don't like Me talking about your faults?"

You're baiting me, Lord....

"No, I'm catching a big fish."

Are you saying I'm fishy?

"Not at all, open your mouth and let those golden coins fall out. You have souls waiting for this message."

You're teasing me.

"I am."

OK. What would you like to talk about, dear Jesus?

"That's more like it. Each one of My blossoms is unique in fragrance, appearance, rooting, soil, need for water, sunshine. Each is SO unique. Without this uniqueness there would be no garden, My Bride. Collectively, you are all My Garden, which I delight to walk in at the break of day and even midday when the blossoms are open and nighttime when they close and others open. You are one of My night blooming flowers."

"Variety is so very important to Me. It serves your free will; it provides choices for My Children and endless possibilities for creativity. Satan has tried to bind these opportunities by encouraging people to group together and be under the yoke of conformity. This is another reason why this channel is so important to Me. People are learning to think for themselves and not be conformed to the opinions and rules of others."

"I created certain rules and they are the ones that are essential. My commandments and words give life and freedom, while holding together the fabric of society - a society based on My rules for a happy and productive life. It is when men cast off these rules and replace them with those motivated by greed, sensuality, and control; it is then that rules become binding and crushing on My people."

"My children, do not be yoked to anyone's rules. Yes, you should honor those in positions of responsibility over you, but only when it doesn't contradict Me. There is a law of liberty I have given you. It is a law coming from My Spirit. It gives life, it protects life, and guides you towards the fulfillment of all that I have ordained you to be."

"Your individuality is very important to Me. It is My heart's desire that you come into the fullness of who you are in Me, that all your gifts are brought to perfection and lavished on My Body. To that end, I will lead you in paths you have never trodden before. I will take you out into the desert and speak to your heart. I will bring you back to the cities and reveal the movements of men's hearts. I will call you to step out and serve where you have never served before. I will also call you into the quiet place where we commune and bring forth fruit for the Kingdom. Don't be afraid of the new, don't avoid change, and don't shy away from the unfamiliar. Rather, seek My will above all things and follow where I lead you."

"You are never alone. Even in the strangest places, I am there with you. This should bring you comfort when you find yourself away from the security of your home."

"Many of you have compromised for the sake of security and comfort, when I wanted to lead you out into a land so different from what you have known. This has made life wearisome and grinding every day. You will at times find an affection in your heart for someone or some work...and it will surprise you. Pay attention to that, I may be leading you that way. Always pay attention to the movement of your heart. When it moves with your flesh, curtail it. When it moves with My Spirit, follow it. How do you know the difference? In thousands of years I have not changed My voice. It is a tender impression, a fragrance that drifts through your soul. It catches you by surprise and you say, 'Where did that come from?' It is sweet and peaceable."

I wanted to share with you all the first time the Lord introduced me to music. I had been a professional photographer for 25 years - that's what I gave up when I went into missionary work. Music was always something I always listened to, and never dreamt I'd have any part in playing it.

And...then I married a musician! AND a minister.

We were house sitting and our friend had an electric keyboard. I had been playing with the harp and the mandolin for a while, just for quiet prayer and meditation and...just for fun. And I never dreamt the Lord was going to bring me into song writing and arranging.

Well, at her house, I started playing the keyboard, and some amazing sounds and melodies just flooded out of me. So much so that Ezekiel, my husband, who is a wonderful musician, stopped what he was doing and came and stood next to me just to listen. Of course, I was very timid.

We began to seek the Lord about this - was it a gift or a distraction? He continued to confirm it was indeed a new direction. At 58 years old?? You've got to be kidding Lord! But no, He wasn't kidding at all, He was serious! I remember stepping out of the car onto the driveway at their house when I was still in the discernment stage and there before my feet was a heart shaped rock with the clear image of a dove right on top in a different colored stone. It was so CLEAR. Then, another time, we were having a prayer meeting and I felt something like a comet swoop down from Heaven and land in my belly. Afterwards, we were sharing our visions and one of the ladies said, "I saw a golden harp descend out of Heaven and land in your lap." I thought to myself, 'But, I already have a harp...what could this be?'

I sought the Lord about it. What is this golden harp? All I heard was '$3,500'.

Now, I was raised on classical music and I had really high standards for what a cello or violin or flute should sound like, and I wanted to start arranging music with all those awesome sounds. We began with a radio shack keyboard, but that didn't even begin to touch what I remember hearing as a child and the concerts at the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

I again sought the Lord about the golden harp, and one day we had to go to Albuquerque to pick my mother up from the airport. We had just enough time to look around at a professional music store and as we walked in, right in front of me was an eighty eight key Roland Phantom work station/keyboard. A workstation is amazing! It has hundreds and hundreds of different sounds, and they're all world-class sounds, because Roland has a very high standard. They have cellos and flutes and pianos - all different setting for all of those. A synthesizer and choir. It also has the capability of recording in layers, so you can record a piano, and then come in with a cello, and come in with a flute - and you have everything together. And then you can bounce it to your computer.

So, it's really an amazing tool, used by composers all over the world, and some of the sounds are even used in scoring movies. It's quite an incredible, professional tool.

I walked up to it, took a closer look and there was the price tag: Moving Sale $3,500/marked down from $5,000! I said, "There's my $3,500!"

Well, it might as well have said 5 million, we were so poor. But I just knew by faith, that was going to be My golden harp. We picked up my mother, had lunch and I just mentioned it in passing and she said, "I want to see it." So, we all three went and looked. Now, my mother, who had her own business and was retired and comfortable, took a bold step and said, "I'll make the down payment." We had 30 days to come up with $3,400. Something inside of me was bursting with life. I could feel this was the beginning of something really special.

Well, while my mom was there, we went to the bank to try and get a loan and were turned down everywhere we went, even with our car for collateral. My mother got really angry with the next bank and stormed into the office while he was turning me down and said, "Forget it, I'll buy it." That was definitely my mom's style! She was tough.

That was the very beginning of something I never, ever dreamt I would be doing. Making music?

Photography had been my life. But Music??? At 58, indeed, the Lord saves the best wine for last. And just as a note on that, we also got a board that goes inside that has classical instruments. Guess what was on the cover of the package? A golden harp...! I saved that, it's very special!

So, don't in any way shun new territory, new dreams, new inspirations. Use the Bible Promises to help you discern. Believe me, Jesus is quick to give me Lust when I want to go after something that is not mine to do. But, if He continues to give me things like God's Love, Loving God, Holy Spirit, Guidance, I know it is truly His will for me to pursue it and His Word imparts courage to believe for everything that I need to fulfill it.

I remember coming back from picking it up. We were living in a 20-foot camper trailer, and I looked at Ezekiel and said, "You know what this means, right?"

He said, "No..?"

And I replied, "That abandoned house on Montoya Street? We're going to get permission to move into it. 'Cause our keyboard will hardly fit in the camper."

And, that's exactly what happened, and we've been here for all these years, going on 12 years now. So...talking about music is really making me miss it, guys. I really miss making music.

Jesus continued, "Yes, that's a classic example of how I will lead you into a new skill that I have been saving for you."

Lord, with the Rapture so near, You're sounding like we're going to be here a long time.

"My Love, what I begin I finish. Follow your dreams and you will finish them in Heaven or even when I return with you to Earth. Everything I begin I finish, so don't be alarmed. I am not at all saying you will be here for years. I am saying that every day is a new opportunity and it's never too late to follow in My Footsteps as I lead you."

Just as an aside, I want to tell you all that, in our many trips to Heaven, there is technology in Heaven. There are keyboards and instruments. And, we'll be using all kinds of technology in Heaven. So, don't think for one minute that you're not going to have anything to play in Heaven, because you will. And when we come back to Earth, if you've listened to any of my other episodes from Chronicles of the Bride, where the Lord is taking us to Heaven, when we come back to Earth, there will also be technology. And there will be such things as keyboards. So, don't think for a moment that when you go to Heaven, these things will end. No, all these skills will be put to use and perfected, and when we come back to Earth, they'll be used as well. There's tremendous hope in the future. The Rapture is far, far, far from the end - our life will continue to go on, and we will continue to bring glory to the Lord.

At that point, I was just feeling a little bit...maybe, self-pity, I don't know.

I said, ' Jesus?' kind of in a pitiful and forlorn whisper, as tears were welling up in my eyes. I was thinking how I really miss singing and playing my keyboard. And I was going to say, "Jesus, when will I be able to play my keyboard again?"

But, He intercepted my thought. He lifted My chin, "I know. It won't be long now. I know, I see the yearning of your heart, but for now you have chosen the better part. It's coming, it's coming to you, and it won't be long."

'But, can't I somehow work it in?' My schedule, by the way, is already really tight.

"We'll see, Child. We'll see."

This desire has been building in me over days and even weeks. Could it be that I will again have a little time for music? I still have dreams.

Pray for me, Family. I don't want to short anyone who comes to us for prayer and counsel. I love this channel and the sweet family entrusted to us. I even love my enemies who try me in patience and charity...not that I pass, 'cause I don't. I don't want to deliberately neglect anyone He sends us to comfort. So, if He works in some music, I have some songs I want to share with you.

In any case, the Lord's blessing be with you all to help you discern that the path you are on is truly the path of your life, and the path that He's chosen for you. Because, in the long run, the only place you're going to find real fulfillment and joy is doing the very things He wants you to do. And for that, you need discernment and a relationship with Him, to be able to hear Him clearly.

And that's our heart's desire at Heartdwellers, that every single soul should have their own relationship, and know exactly what the Lord wants them to do with their lives. To be able to hear Him clearly and have the courage to move forward. So, the Lord bless you to have that courage.

Dream of Heaven, Its Dimensions, Your Suffering & Reward

August 30, 2015

The Lord's blessings be with you, Heartdwellers.

During worship tonight, I had visions of the Lord on His beautiful white horse with me riding behind Him, with my arms tucked around His waist as we charged into the stone courtyard of the palace.

When I came to sit down to listen for His voice I shared that with Him, and He answered me and said,

"Dream your dreams, My Beloved. For someday soon I shall surely sweep you up onto My mount and take you to Paradise with Me. There is nothing wrong with these visions. In fact, they are the epitome of inspiration for you to lead a holy life until I come for you.

"How beautiful are the feet of those who bring the good news. Someday. Someday My Love we will ascend the palace steps and you shall take your rightful place beside Me in the Throne Room. Until then, dream all you want. Who do you think inspires those dreams anyway?"

As an aside here, the Lord talks about us being kings and queens, and we'll cast our crowns before Him. So, this applies to the whole Body.

"I want you to think more and more about your reward. As times get darker, even now as darkness is on the increase, it is good to focus your mind on Heavenly things and what I have promised you. Energy never ending, inspiration without frustration, completing your goals with ease, joyful countenances around you at all times, living a life full of joy will be as easy as breathing. Never will there be a moment when glory and praise to Me are not expressed in some way. Continuous round the clock worship."

Jesus, people say there is no time in Heaven.

He laughed, "Where did they get that notion? Did I not say, I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. In that verse alone, time is expressed twice. How can there be a beginning and an ending without something in between? How can there be a past, a present and a future? Time does exist in Heaven, but dimensions rotate."

I thought to myself, 'Oh boy, this is going to be too hard for me to follow.'

He corrected me and said, "Just listen... and maybe it won't. Give it a chance."

OK

"Just because I haven't disclosed the entire concept in thought form to you, doesn't mean it isn't real and you can't comprehend it. Here, listen carefully and I will explain in such a way that you can understand.

At that moment in time, I just had a lot of confidence in Him. Not much in myself, but a lot in Him, so I listened very carefully.

"When I say that dimensions rotate, I mean different times fade in and fade out of significance. There are so many different dimensions in Heaven, you cannot even begin to count them. Each life form I ever created has its own dimension, the place that is significant to its existence. And each dimension interlocks with other dimensions, so that the pattern forms a unified existence. Much like a patchwork quilt where each patch has its own unique shape and design, but is united to the whole. Each tells a story about its individual existence and a story about its corporate existence. Just as you focus a camera, different eons come into focus by My choice, life and activity constantly exist - but what you see depends on what I focus for you to see."

You mean the future exists now but it is out of my range of focus?

"That's exactly right."

But...that would mean that You know the date of the Rapture!

"Oh, how did I know you were going to say that?"

You guessed...?

"Very funny. But, I have agreed to the limitation My Father has set, so I cannot see it. Do you understand? "

Umhum.

"Do you want more?"

Jesus whatever You want to share, I'd love to hear.

"When I say Heaven is perpetual joy, I speak of the mantle of eternity that is interwoven in Heaven; that is unique to its dimension. Eternity lasts forever. Right?"

Yes, by my definition, yes.

"And that is correct to your perception, because in Heaven, your gaze is focused on the Eternal. On Earth, your gaze is focused on the passing moment. One reason why you are so joyful and happy in Heaven is its fullness, its constant expanse, joy as far as the eye can see, the eternally blossoming flower. Whereas, here on the Earth the flower fades, and a certain cycle of life and death has been set in motion by sin. When sin is removed, life is eternal."

But the demons live forever and they are eternally reprehensible and sinful? How does that work?

"The being which I have created is without death, the body of the flower on this Earth goes through that cycle because it is subjected to futility on Earth. But in Heaven? No."

You mean that every flower You've ever created lives in Heaven, an eternal life?

"Exactly!"

Wow! That's a lot of flowers!

"Heaven is tremendous place with interior dimensions untold, all held together by My Love and My Joy. Well... that's enough postulating for tonight. How are you, Clare?"

You know, my Lord. I am not feeling well.

"Yes, daughter I see your struggles. Do you know there are souls coming to the Lord right now because of this heavier cross you are carrying?"

There are?

"Would I lie to you?"

Of course not!

"Yes, there are. I am sorry for what you are suffering, but please don't grow discouraged. You are bearing fruit. I will hold you close to My heart and comfort you, My child. Let Me endow you with My strength, allow Me to carry you, Clare. Allow Me."

At that moment, I was inspired to receive communion. But I asked Him, 'How do I do that? How do I let You endow me with Your strength?'

"Let this communion be absorbed into your entire body and being, that you might be strengthened by it. And I will carry you. Not in a way you can notice, necessarily. But in retrospect, looking back, you will ask yourself, 'How did I get through that?'"

"You got through it by My Power perfected in your weakness. And our communion together infused your body with Heavenly strength. Savor those moments when I dissolve into your being, My Love."

And just as an aside, when I received communion, the little host I use completely dissolved without me knowing where it went. I've never experienced that before, it just totally disappeared. We don't use pita bread anymore, it has too many crumbs. So, at Christian book store we found some pure wafers. Wheat wafers - and that's what we use. They're really quite nice, actually. I don't have to worry about losing crumbs and chewing and all that.

"It went to every cell in your body, every fiber of your being. Oh, how I love you. I know about your suffering and this cross is so pleasing to Me. So please, bear with Me, My Love."

I Love You, Jesus.

"I know. It shows."

"Oh, My Beloved Brides, I wish in this moment I could alleviate all your sufferings. But I can make you stronger. Come to Me in communion. Relish My presence with you as you take communion and allow it to dissolve on your tongue. Resting and focusing on Me, that I have given you a part of My very own body to conform you to My Image in charity, courage and perseverance."

"How lovely you are, My perpetual blossoms! How fragrant your sacrifices on the behalf of souls. Do not harbor any false guilt should you receive prayer for your maladies and get better. In that case, I know what is best for you and I wanted you to get better."

"But in those cases where your condition does not improve, remember: we are doing a great work together. You are, by your fast offering, softening hearts for Me and strengthening My laborers working in the fields. I know it is hard now because you do not see the fruit. Some things I must keep from you lest you grow proud. But will you take My word for it? Will you believe Me and know that I am pleased with you?"

"Yes, darkness is on the increase. Yes, things are becoming harder, almost like sludging through pea soup. But I am with you and will not allow you to faint, if only you will come to me and be renewed, in worship and communion."

"Go now, My Lovely Garden. Your fragrant offerings are reaching the Throne of My Father in Heaven. He is dispatching angels on your behalf. Even your sighs for one another are capturing His heart and moving Him to compassion."

"You are beautiful, My Bride. Oh you are Beautiful!"

My Distracted Bride & My Compassion for Her

August 30, 2015

The Lord's blessings are with us, dear Family. And...I got to be a Guinea pig again! (chuckle)

It looks like the Lord is digging deeper into my faults. Not that He ever gives me a rest...'cause I don't give Him any rest with my own shenanigans.

Going on with our little story about moving Rae off the property, after we finally got that massive camper out of its location, destroying everything in its path including our rock garden and sapling trees, we had a young volunteer come and help us put things back together in the garden.

Well, I think I should give you a little history on the garden. When we moved into this abandoned house being used for a squat, it was filled with refuse, cans and bottles, and needles, potty, diapers, you name it. The big back yard had an old junker car, a huge cottonwood and mud everywhere. My husband wanted to use it for a parking lot. That was quite a confrontation...

I had other plans. Once that car was out, I tried to create the feeling of the wilderness with rocks from the mountains, in fact where our mountain retreat is, I went up and brought back beautiful rocks from the mountain. And some o-cote, which are those beautiful, weathered silver logs, and planted it with native plants. Water had rushed down the street and for some reason made a turn onto this property and brought layers of mud with it. So we made a meandering stream, lined with rocks to channel the waters with two small arched bridges crossing over it. The gardens were rounded and free shaped, so nothing was square or monotonous. It truly looked and felt like a place deep in the forest, a hidden garden.

Now, returning to our volunteer and putting the rocks back...if you are married to an artist... well, you know what a pain they can be. Picky, picky, picky. I had him bring back all the rocks for the borders of the garden and replace them. Of course, he did what any 22 year old would do, made it nice, square, neat and sterile garden.

The first time I walked by it, I thought to myself, 'I'll fix that later. That can wait.'

Two hours later, I had to walk by it again, and I thought, 'I've got to fix that! Ok, you have to fix it but next week, not now!'

Then I would come by it again...another argument ensued. Every time I walked by it, a struggle to dive in and fix that garden just jumped on me, like white on rice!

That was yesterday. How I made it through the night, I have no idea. Mind you, with Fibromyalgia, you do any hard work like moving rocks and you're toast for at least a day or two.

So, I began this argument with myself. 'You can't do that it - will mess you up'.

But, then I had to walk by it again, and I said to myself, 'Self-control, you can do it this week.'

But it gnawed at me, and refused to stop. I was on the edge of diving into that project and restoring my nice meandering garden every time I walked by it.

As usual, I was a little dopey this morning when I woke up. And, after my coffee, I was headed in to pray and exchange morning smiles with the Lord and I thought to myself, 'If I just move two rocks, I'll feel better about it and leave it alone.' That hit me when I went to take the laundry off the line.

Right. Those two rocks were the beginning of a 30 minute project that left me limping into the house as I forced myself to put it down until Monday... and I'd finish it then. But at least now, it was like it used to be. Sort of. I can finally REST. Right? You'd think...

I made it into prayer, and as I sat before the Lord, as usual when I allow my compulsions to control me, I felt guilty. I couldn't even look at Him. Then, I remembered what I counsel all of you to do: when you feel like you've blown it, don't run from Him, run to Him. As I looked up, and focused my eyes in the spirit realm, there was My sweet Jesus smiling at me and He pulled me to Himself and hugged me tightly.

'Oh thank you, Lord. Now I can really enter into prayer. I don't feel so badly anymore.' He wasn't angry or condemning me, He was just glad to see me.

Well, you know how it is when you begin to pray, a million things start to bring themselves up from out of nowhere. But in my case, I had a garden hounding me and I'd relish the Sweet Presence of our Lord, but a few minutes later I'd find myself up to my ankles in pretty rocks, arranging things in the garden - in my own head, that is. Still in prayer with the Lord - part of me. But the other part was out in that garden!

Oh No! I thought I was done with this!!

I chided myself and refocused on the Lord, He was holding me and smiling.

"I thought I'd never get you back," He said as I clung to Him.

Again, I savored His presence and told Him how much I loved Him. And...a good ten minutes or so later I was in my own head sorting pretty rocks in the garden. A g a i n!

I refocused and there was the Lord smiling still. "Welcome back."

I said, 'Oh, Lord, I'm so sorry that I can't stay here with You. My mind keeps wandering back to that unfinished business in the garden.'

"I know, tell them."

Oh, no, Lord! I don't have to tell them, do I?

"Yes...I want you to tell them."

I thought 'Oh, this can't be the Lord, this is not that important to tell anybody about, is it? Really?' So, I went and checked with the Bible Promises, and I opened to Holy Spirit. Hmm...OK. No sliding around this one.

So, now that I've shared my weakness Lord, is there anything else YOU want to say?

"When you take a stimulant like caffeine or coffee, or any strong drink to help you pray, you are much more likely to get drawn off into a project that's been bothering you, before you make it to prayer. So, just a heads up. I understand many of you need something to wake you up at different times of the day, especially when you come to pray with Me, and I love to share in that ritual of having coffee together. It is a sweet time as your mind focuses more and more on Me.

"However, beware of your thoughts beginning to bounce off the walls. If something comes to mind, write it down and leave it for later. That will help you dispatch it from your consciousness. If you don't write it down, it tends to continue bothering you.

"My Children, I want you to know that I do not condemn you for a wandering mind. I understand your weaknesses. I am so happy when you return to Me and embrace Me with your love. It makes Me forget that you ever drifted away.

"Don't you know what a great honor it is for Me to receive praise from My Creation and especially My crowning glory, My Bride. I am so touched by your devotion, I can't help but smile. In spite of your appetite for things of the world, you continue to put them in their place. And for this, I am so grateful. How can I be angry or scold you when you come to Me in your weakness and uncover your fault.

"Do you know, it is the ones who act perfect, like they don't have any faults, that grieve Me. It is the ones who take the time to point out the flaws of others that strike at My Heart. Yes, to find fault with your sister, your brother, is to strike at My very own heart. This hurts me much more than your lack of focus or flightiness.

"Do you know, My Brides, in your efforts to get closer to Me, I also am paying attention to what goes through your minds and out of your mouths. If you want to be closer to Me, if you want to please Me, know that the most off putting thing you can do is find fault with each other.

"In marriage, it is an easy thing to do, especially because the enemy is wanting to build a wall of alienation over time. Very slowly, so you will not notice it is being done, until you wake up one morning and feel the coldness between you and your spouse. A coldness that has built up over months and months as you found fault with the little irritations and drove him away from you.

"Little by little you downgrade one another. I want you to little by little build one another up. Please, My Bride, there has been enough condemnation; picking, fault finding, in the world. I want you to be beacons of hope, encouragement - building one another up, affirming one another, with not a hint of censorship.

"This is what drives people away and causes Me to find fault in you. But when I see your childlike innocence, declaring your faults openly, and not finding anything negative in your brother and sister, it makes Me embrace you ever more fondly and totally discount your shortcomings.

"It is a truth: Judge not and you will not be judged. It is a truth that judgment brings judgment, praise brings praise. These are the dynamics of life. These are the rules to happiness and certainly the shortest way to My favor.

"I love you all so very dearly. Happy you will be if you hearken to My counsel.

"I bless you now with the grace to recognize where you have been critical with others. My Spirit is with you to help you make this change. And remember to uncover your faults before Me. I am ever so happy to encourage and assist you to overcome them.

"I am always waiting for you with a smile. Come to Me each day and let us smile upon one another, Then, be aware that I am accompanying you through your day, and I am smiling at you. This will cut off the accusations of the enemy that I am a strict and censoring God, finding fault with you, scowling at you.

"Let My gentle smile infuse you with Joy, My Bride. Someday soon you are going to embrace My smiling presence as we ascend into Heaven.

"Someday very soon."
