

Support One Another in Your Weaknesses

February 1, 2016

The Lord is leading us, Heartdwellers. God bless you all.

Today was an interesting day, I definitely had some challenges. And I have to say...I don't think I passed the test. Anyway, I want to go ahead and begin with - the Lord began with me - He said, "A lot of souls are now holding their breath since the last two messages. I want to re-state that your mandate is to prepare them spiritually. Let them go to prepper sites if they want more. But My concern is their readiness for the Rapture."

Jesus, why do I feel so badly, besides the fact that I blew it today with my temper today.

"It's the season of the world, the season of disaster upon disaster. Watch as things unfold and pray for the victims. It is a good exercise to note...why are we bickering when hurting souls are crying out such as the victims of that family that perished in a fire?"

Yes, I'd ask you to pray for them. A mother and father and one of the children died in a fire, and there's four children surviving them. And their grandparents aren't in any position to take care of them. So, please pray for that family.

The Lord continued, "You see, the more good you do, the more the enemy will try to stop you from doing it. He wants to make an end of you and your channel. But your charity and commitment to learning humility will keep him at bay. I will not give permissions as long as you follow My wishes.

"You can expect attitudes and misconceptions from the world, because that's what is trained into people. But those who have matured in Me and deeply understand My ways, you will not get that. Rather you will see them dancing around you to keep you held up so you can continue to do your job and they don't injure you. They also will make it safe for you to apologize, while not lashing out or downgrading you.

"You have many such subscribers who understand what it's like to receive the blows of the world. They are seasoned with many injuries I have healed. They have learned the ways of My love because they spend so much time with Me, seeking My Heart and My Mind and putting it to practice. In this regard, you are truly blessed.

"So, when you encounter the harshness of the world you have a whole company of intercessors who will lift you up to Me so you can keep going. All of you are seriously damaged soldiers. The difference between those who deeply know Me, is that they have had tremendous measures of healing and the bitterness and fear that mark those still wounded in battle, isn't there anymore. They also know themselves very, very well.

"To know oneself is to be humble. Extremely humble and quick to find fault with yourself, rather than others. When I see My People making excuses for the shortcomings of others, I delight Myself in their presence. It is truly a rare and fragrant offering of self for the love of others.

"This life is a long journey, down a very long road for most. And so few are taught My ways as children. This becomes an acquired skill in time, rather than one trained in from childhood. So, when adulthood is reached, it is but the beginning of learning. That's why in your country you have so many immature adults and so much divorce. Like yourself, you only began to learn about maturity in your 30's. Before that you thought and acted like a child."

I know that's right, Lord!

"Much of it is the fault of the culture. Simply put, Americans by and large are spoiled from childhood. True maturity comes at quite a cost. In other countries you find this kind of maturity at the age of 11 or 12. They have already learned many of the really hard lessons of life and have been seasoned in the Faith, knowing My character more deeply because they have to rely on Me to survive from day to day. Even the victims of violent countries are more mature. You would see this if you traveled the world."

"But you know that I will complete the good work I have begun in you. I will bring to maturity all those who call upon My Name and choose to be holy. Not one will perish from My Hand, all who come to Me with a sincere heart, I cherish and raise up into maturity, meekness, and uncommon kindness."

"What is the price of words? So much good or so much evil can be done with words. With words you can bring peace and mend hearts. With words you can slice and dice a soul 'till nothing is left. And few understand that you will be held accountable for every idle word. With your tongue you lift up and impart life; with your tongue you can also injure and destroy."

"My Brides, My cherished ones, please, always choose words of life. Always suppress your desire to answer tit for tat. Don't you know that today your brother may need your encouragement, and tomorrow you may need his? What good does it do to accuse and demean others when you yourself may tomorrow need their support and through harsh words and attitudes they are no long there for you?"

"Do you not see the plan of Satan in such things? Do you not see that you are the victim being used to injure others, resulting in your own downfall? Yes, in this world people treat each other as expendable items. Not so in Heaven. In Heaven you are the most precious commodity, made in My very image, eternal and stunningly beautiful. To be honored and loved."

"But in this world you are but a doormat to the success of others. You are used and tossed aside, after you have been thoroughly despoiled of the joyful life I imparted to you. What I am saying here? Love one another as I have loved you. Cherish and support one another. Never speak harsh words when it can be avoided. Always admonish and lift one another up, even and especially in conflict."

"Very often you are provoked by lies to judge others when they are at their lowest point and can't handle one more blow. How many times has that happened to you, Clare?"

Yes, Lord, I have experienced that and I surely have seen how I have done it to others. I pray that you bring me to the fullness of the Love you have in Your Heart Lord...as much as is possible in a weak and frail mortal. Forgive Me, Lord, for my childish attitudes.

"This prayer I will answer. Go now and love one another as I have loved you."

I'm Coming For You & Refugee Crisis

February 2, 2016

The Lord be with you in tenderness and love, Heartdwellers.

I'm sorry about the delay in getting a message to you. We've had both technical difficulties and things to take care of in the family, so I haven't been able to get a message out for a couple of days. As a result of that, I've got two that need to get out now.

Our time together yesterday began:

I am here, sweet Lord. I sure miss Your sweet presence. I can see You but not feel You emotionally, like before... it's been awhile. How long Lord, how long? Forgive me my restlessness and anxiety, I just long for some scrap of news or evidence. Please, Jesus, fill us in? It seems like forever.

At that point the Lord revealed His face to me very clearly and I said:

Oh, Jesus, when you look at me that way all I can do is cry.

And He said to me, "Why do you think I withheld Myself from you?"

'Cause I've been bad?

"No. Because I know you will crumble in tears when you see Me clearly."

What do you want to talk about Lord?

"How near is your salvation. How soon I'm coming for My Bride. How great is the hope I have stored up for each and every one of you."

Ok, that sounds good to me.

"I know it's been a long, arduous wait. I know, My children. My Brides have grown restless, but that is precisely what is fueling revival in Europe with the displaced persons. So great is their confusion that they are more easily dislodged from age-old beliefs that have kept them in bondage and created these situations, even in the world. So great is their fatigue with the posturing of nations for supremacy, at the expense of the little ones, truly they are ready for a different life. Yet corruption waxes worldwide and no justice will truly be seen until My Reign. There will always be an element to detract from the progress of nations."

"The ruthlessness of the one world government knows no boundaries. They are set on having what they want, any way they can get it. That's why so many are fleeing. Little do they know that things there are about to take tragic downhill turn. It is coming...it is so close Clare. Oh, how I wish they could find peace, but they will not find it there.

"There will be much bloodshed and fighting for control. Just by sheer numbers, the local inhabitants will be overcome. Yes, it is more than just running from evil, there is so much that has not been realized, and coming to this juncture, tragedy will be everywhere. You see, the local authorities have no intention of enforcing the laws, they are far outnumbered by the influx of a very strong and determined race.

"The leaders have allowed this for the melding of nations, the loss of national identity, and to make the one world government and religion easier to implement. You will see how things develop to a worldwide dictatorship."

Lord, I really thought Obama would leave the White House and become the one world leader?

"This will happen, but not as quickly as you suspect. First America must be delivered into the hands of her enemies, that national sovereignty is destroyed. Then, having handed over America, he will become the figurehead leader who successfully brought America down. This will be hailed as a great achievement and win him the respect and admiration of the entire world. After he presents this trophy, he will be called to lead the entire world.

"All is planned and laid out very neatly. Yet understand, I am still sovereign and things will not culminate quite that simply. There will be a formidable pocket of resistance in the west and southwest. This is the remnant that I will use to reestablish this country once again."

Oh Lord, this whole thing makes me so sad. Truly much good will be destroyed with the evil.

(I was musing about how much order there is in this country, how many good things there are and all of it is going to be destroyed.)

The Lord answered me, "No matter, Clare. Once I begin to reign, we will rebuild the sovereignty of this nation and other nations of the world. I did not make man from a cookie cutter. Each has their own beautiful and unique cultures. I never intended to homogenize men, their variety is beautiful to Me."

But they were this way at the tower of Babel, and you had to separate them? And now they've gotten so much farther technologically than they were before....

"I have allowed it only because this is the end times; if this had happened hundreds of years earlier, it would have indeed been dire. But I have a solution now. Don't fret. Everything that I have allowed that man has turned from good to evil, I will once again turn to good. All the discoveries and technologies will be turned around to serve man and no more be used as weapons of destruction.

"They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore." Isaiah 2:4

This Scripture also reinforces what you said about national sovereignty.

"Yes, each culture is indigenous, unique and creative in the ways they approach worship - it is a sight beautiful to behold. Never did I conceive that all men should be alike. Part of the beauty of the human soul is their ability to be different, yet still love Me with all their hearts.

"It is the selfishness and jealousy of man that seeks to deprive others of their inherent individuality. This again is free will at work. When one culture attempts to lord it over another and suppress their individuality, they are stealing from that people and enslaving them by force, causing to conform to a life foreign to them. I never did this. I always honored national sovereignty and I will continue to do so until the end of time."

Oh Lord, all the races are beautiful in their own ways. So unique. It is exceedingly painful to see movies like The Mission where the indigenous people were slaughtered and the simplicity and beauty of their lives was taken from them.

"This will never happen again when I come to Earth to rule. Never. As it is written, for those who reject My Laws, AND HE SHALL RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON, AS THE VESSELS OF THE POTTER ARE BROKEN TO PIECES, as I also have received authority from My Father: Revelation 2:27

The Rapture, What You Will Experience

February 4, 2016

I am here, Lord.

We had been dancing together to the song "Draw Me Close To You." Oh, I needed to hear that song. I spent the day looking for that silly tooth I lost, and I finally decided it wasn't worth it. For the time we have on Earth...I don't think I'll need it anyway. But I'll tell you this much, we TORE that room and the next room apart and Holy Spirit just didn't allow us to find it. And I felt badly about 'wasting time.' So this song was just what I needed, and it was the one that He picked - so I put in on repeat, just stayed in that sweet place with Him. Well, by His grace I was tucked under His holy chin dancing with Him.

The look of contentment and deep joy He had on His face...oh, it was so worth it to see that deep, deep contentment from My Jesus. I just let the song play over and over again until He finally asked me to come aside and speak with Him.

So, I am here, Lord. Your words mean everything to me.

He began, "I wanted to answer your musing about the Rapture. Yes, it is written some will be saved as going through a fire...but I do not intend that for My Bride. I have been steadily burning impurities from your hearts, here on this Earth. Shall I not reward your faithfulness...shall I add burning corrections to all you've suffered for Me?"

"No, I tell you, I will not. You are going to experience sheer, unadulterated bliss the very moment I take you up. You will forget about the Earth and be encapsulated in the joy of My Heart. While I must deal with the Earth, you will be free from dealing with the Earth and seated at the finest banqueting table that has ever existed. We will be caught up together in joy unspeakable. This is a celebration, Clare, a time of ecstatic joy, for My Bride has been brought home to Me."

Yes, in a twinkling of an eye, you shall be changed...this corruption shall put on incorruption, 53For this perishable must put on the imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality. I Corinthians 15:53

"Yes, you will indeed be changed from labor to freedom, the freedom of the Sons and Daughters of God, raised to the status of My Bride and Heavenly Spouse. No more will your sins trouble you, no more will the enemy buffet you, no more will you misunderstand or be misunderstood. No more will you labor under the slavery of your sin nature at constant battle with your flesh. Oh, how I look forward to the moment I can dance the dance of joy with My Bride before the citizens of Heaven and bring her into the place I created just for her."

"That day, you will at long last discover your indescribable beauty, hidden from you during your earthly sojourn. That day, you will put on the incorruptible, untarnishable crown of eternal life and step up to the throne I have created for you since before time began. No, this surely will not be a time of correction and purification, it shall be a time of transformation and freedom from the past.

"My Bride, that is why I am being so very careful with you now, to give you plenty of time to repent for those sins you never recognized. That's what I mean by preparation. In this way, everything is under My Blood - never to be seen again, dissolved in My Sea of Mercy. Nor shall any spirit ever be able to bring up your past to you again. Yes! You will stand in My righteousness, in My glory - My glory for ages and ages and ages to come.

"You will be taught and trained in preparation for your return to Earth to rule with Me. The government will be one of righteousness, integrity, justice and peacekeeping. You will learn and understand in greater depth than ever before, the nature of men and the nature of demons. You will be instructed in healing, deliverance, infusions of knowledge, impartations and ordination, that you are fully equipped to bring all men to the knowledge of God and inspire them to release their lives to Me. Yes, you will harvest much fruit and lay the groundwork for a just Earth, where the poor are provided for, where corruption will not be tolerated, where greed and gain will be severely dealt with.

"There will be much during that time that no one has ever really pondered. Because of the institution of laws and order, much training and enforcement will be required. Angels will be assigned to you, men and women also will serve you and those who do not accept My rule will be confined and given chances for healing, growth and new life.

"You will find that many who appeared reprobate were strapped into terrible bondage and twisted from birth by the sins of their parents. As their limbs are untwisted and they learn how to stand and walk, they will renounce the ways of darkness and embrace the abundant life I offer them.

"You will understand deeply with heartfelt compassion the very nature of those who choose sin and why. So that you may be doctors of souls, bringing freedom and restoration to the glorious vision I hold in My heart for each of them.

"Yes, Oh Yes! There is so much to look forward to, and nothing to fear. So prepare yourselves, My Brides, prepare for the most wonderful and liberating experience ever to be had. Stay repentant every day and let not any sin take foothold in you. Rather come to Me immediately for forgiveness and strength. Understand: no one is hopeless! I am merciful and compassionate, knowing the frailty of all flesh. Your desire to be made perfect for Me will be counted as having been accomplished rather than incomplete and lacking. What your efforts have not accomplished, My Grace will finish.

"Go now in joyful expectation of that day. Keep it always in the forefront of your mind. Do not let the enemy steal it from you. Hold fast to what I have taught you.

"I am coming for you... too soon to be mentioned."

Please, Receive My Love

February 5, 2016

May the Lord's sweetest blessings of total union with Him, fall on you my precious Heartdwellers.

I am going to take a moment here to explain something to you again. Something which bears repeating, again and again, to be sure you really, truly absorb and believe it.

The Lord has broken through my icy barriers and won over my poor, trembling heart. What I want to say is that this is in the truest sense a Monogamous Heavenly marriage, no sex, but communion through receiving His Body and Blood.

I want you all to understand: I, as a soul bear, very unique attributes endowed into me by God, and I bear that unique pattern just as if it were a fingerprint. In My Lord's heart, He also has that unique combination of attributes He imparted to me at conception even before time and eternity began.

Yes, He conceived me in His Heart, as one who would fulfill His needs for a soul to return worship to her creator in a very unique way. No other individual on this Earth can ever take my place in His Heart. He is totally mine, and I am totally His.

Now, this is what I want you to understand. You, too, are a unique masterpiece and combination of qualities that no one on this Earth can match. You are endowed with a combination of patterns just like a fingerprint, that somewhere finds its total completion and its total perfect match in the Lord. He created you to be His spouse forever, bringing to Him the unique joys that you were endowed with when He created you. You are the ONLY one who can satisfy that desire in Him.

Because He is GOD, He is quite able to be billions of perfect sets of attributes, or individual finger prints that can only be matched by the one He conceived in His Heart. Therefore, He is totally and uniquely yours and yours alone in that combination of attributes. You are perfect for one another. A perfect fit, a pair conceived in Heaven.

Understanding what I have just said, I want you to now put yourself in this place and receive this word from Him.

"Oh, My precious Beloved, there are not a thousand universes worthy of you in My eyes. You are so dear and precious to Me, with all your faults and shortcomings. And somehow you manage, with My grace of course, to get to Me and lavish your love on Me."

Oh, My God, My tender one...how my poor little heart burns for You. I cannot contain my love, which is like a thousand oceans - sometimes stormy. Sometimes glistening and calm. But always deep, so very deep.

Oh, how grateful I am to You for pouring into my heart such profound bliss and longing. Truly, You are my everything, and I know it not so many times when I follow distractions.

"And what are those distractions to Me...? I know where your heart is, even when you don't. You have pitched your tent in My Holy of Holies, and I have pitched My tent in the very pristine love you have for Me, hidden there in the depths, never to be taken from you... ever. Rather, to culminate in supreme bliss and fulfillment in all that matters to you.

"My precious, My Beloved, I could not help but give you a foretaste of Heaven and how very much we cherish you far and above anything you can possibly imagine. You are precious, precious, precious to us. Your very name is a sweet smelling fragrance in Heaven. Do not wound Me by turning My words away from your heart. Absorb them, My Love. They are life to you. Much needed life, because daily you are undermined and condemned by the accuser's voices, and now you need to know the truth.

"Oh My Bride, how precious you are to us. (the Trinity and Heaven's citizens) Keep up the wonderful efforts you are making for Me, My Love. I am very satisfied with you and your heart of gold for Me. Keep up the good work, My Love. Yes, you will indeed keep it up until that very last fateful moment. I caress you now, My Bride, holding you My Precious Treasure against My Heart and savoring the sweet smelling sacrifice you are to Me.

"Treasure these words, My Love, and keep them close by. Do read them again and again so you will come to understand, at least in part, how very much you are loved. My diamond, My beauty, My sweet smelling sacrifice. Amen."

These words are meant for all of you, my friends. You are to Him the most unique treasure He ever created. Because only you, with your own set of attributes, fulfills that longing in Him for the perfect companion.

Tonight, I approached the Lord as He appears in this picture. I walked up behind Him in my mind's eye, my spiritual screen and reality, and placed my hand under His on the staff. He put His arm around me and drew me to His side, in response. This is how our dialogues so often get started: I reach out to Him and He opens His arms to receive me.

Then we began to dance to the songs. Angels held a Heavenly dance floor above this cliff and we danced and danced. Having received the above words already in my heart, I was able to begin to face Him. That icy, outer barrier that has so often blocked His feelings for me - out of my fears of inadequacy - began to melt. I began to really receive how He feels about me. I began to relax in His presence and allowed Him to pour His love for me through His eyes, the windows to the Soul.

My dear ones, so often your fears of facing Him and receiving His affection are founded on the years of condemnation you have accumulated about yourself, with the Liar's help, of course. This is mainly the reason why you cannot see Him in the spirit. He is not hiding from you - you are hiding from Him, in an icy, solid block of fear and self-hatred. There are, of course, exceptions to this rule. But believe me, this is the rock bottom issue that gets in your way when He wants to lavish His pure, heavenly love on His Bride, whom He is totally engrossed in, because she is the only creature that fits Him perfectly.

So, what am I saying here? Work through your fears about looking into the face of God. Let Him melt these icy layers and receive into your heart the love gushing forth from His eyes. Understand that this love not only completes and heals you, but fills you to overflowing so you can bring others to an understanding of exactly who they are to God. You need this love, Heartdwellers. The world is a brutal, acid environment that continually eats away at the soul. Our Lord is a continual, watered garden pouring forth ointments and fragrances repairing the soul. Find a picture of Him that really moves you, really touches your heart. And put yourself face to face with Him or beside Him, and allow Him to complete your longing for love in this life. If you are too fearful or unsure to do this, simply ask Him, "Lord, help me receive Your Love."

Binding Demons Prayer (February 5, 2016)

February 6, 2016

Repentance

Lord, please forgive me for what I have done that was not pleasing to You and what I have failed to do that was pleasing to You.

In Jesus' Name, I cancel all permissions for oppression against us.

Curses, Hexes, Spells & Strongholds

x3"I break and forever disable every curse, hex, evil wish, spell, seal, link, restraint, assignment, devilish wile and stronghold against us and our angels, in Jesus' Name, for it is written that no weapon formed against us will prosper."x3 Jesus, I pray that what You do allow, we will conquer with Your grace. Some trust in chariots and some trust in horses, but we will trust in the Name of the Lord our God, our strong tower and mighty fortress.

Forgive & Bless Our Enemies From The Heart

Father, I forgive and bless from my heart, those people who have chosen to be our enemies and pray that Your love would heal and convert them. "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do."

The Lord's Protection

Lord, You promised that no weapon formed against us would prosper. I humbly entreat You to fortify this globe of angelic protection surrounding us, and to send your Holy Angels to make a complete sweep, removing every demon and evil practitioner, and blocking every projection, disabling every cursed object and device of evil. And fortifying this globe beyond the ability of the enemy to penetrate, sealing off every portal: air, earth, fire, water and inter-dimensional with the Blood of Jesus, as well as providing this protection wherever we or our animals go. Please Lord, send Your Holy Angels to stand guard and stop our enemies or cursed objects and forces of evil from entering.

I plead the Blood of Jesus over us and our angels, spirits, minds, hearts and bodies. And ask that every dark-matter weapon aimed at us or anyone pertaining to us, or our ministry, families and animals would immediately be intercepted or destroyed by your Holy Angels. Lord, deliver us from evil, silence all tormenting voices, the tyranny of memories and sever the cords and projections of the wicked.

Spirits of Deception

In the Name of Jesus, I loose us and our angels from every demon and evil device. I disable and bind their leaders, backup and forces of retaliation, every spirit force causing Miscommunication, Condemnation, Scrupulosity, Fear, Panic, Anxiety, Depression, Unbelief, Apathy, Gossip, Slander, Lies against God character. Along with Jezebel, Lying, Religious, Pharisee, Bigotry, Beguiling, Hindering, Deceiving and Seducing Spirits sent against us or to provoke us to sin.

In Jesus' Mighty Name, and according to His will, I loose us and our angels from every demon and evil device. I disable and bind their leaders, backup and forces of retaliation, especially those associated with: Forgetfulness, Distractions, Sabotage, Rebellion, Disobedience, Self-will, Lying, Torment, Fear, Pride, Jealousy, Judgment, Anger, Laziness, Discouragement, Avarice-Greed, Gluttony, Lust, Disease and Lying symptoms; from provoking or acting against us, our volunteers, friends*, pets and families. (Here you can add your personal preference from the list at the end.)

In Jesus Name, we bind every demon and associated demons causing twisted communications, confusion of speaking, hearing, writing and reading on all sides of a communication with every person involved. We pray, Holy Spirit, that You would impart proper understanding on all sides of communications, with everyone involved.

In Jesus' Name, I bind all forces of opposition: Inter-dimensional, Mental, Emotional, Spiritual, Physical and Dark Matter from affecting us or our angels. And from sending reinforcements, or retaliation against our friends angels, volunteers, families, pets and resources. And that every demon force, with all their associations, their leaders, backup, forces of retaliation and devices of evil acting against us or named in this entire binding prayer, be dispatched by the Holy Angels to the Pit never to be released.

Healing From Our Sins and Attacks

I pray, Holy Spirit, that you would pass over our whole beings: body, soul, and spirit with Your Glory and increase and restore our passion for God, our love for others, our minds and memories, health, vigor, endurance, focus, faith, peace and joy to the places the enemy, the world and our own flesh have defiled. Lord, what You have not restored, we offer to You for the work of converting the lost. ****

The Name & The Blood

Thank You, Jesus, for the power of your Name. Please cover and sanctify us with Your Blood, to be conformed to You in humility, obedience, charity, purity and courage. I pray You would fortify, sustain and bless mightily our angels in their battles against evil.

The Glory

Lord, I humbly ask You to release the Glory and protection that You sent with Your People Israel, fire in the midst of them wherever they went. And to restore seven-fold, all the enemy has stolen from us.

Favor

I speak Divine and Supernatural favor, Double favor, Additional favor, Abundant favor, Extended favor, over us and our works for the Lord.

Jesus, I trust in You. Jesus, I trust in You. Jesus, I trust in You.

(Say this once in your life, to make sure anything done in secret against your will is broken.) In the Name of Jesus, I renounce and break all dedications to Satan, within the womb or after birth. x3

Forces of Opposition

Choose your own personal ones and insert them in the paragraph beginning with "In Jesus Name, I bind all forces of opposition,"

The List: Fear of Man, PTSD, co-dependent behavior, overwhelm, bullying, panic, confusion, fight or flight chemical and emotional response, and all dynamics of Oppression & Apathy; brain imbalance, pain response; anxiety, fear, anger, depression, despair, and suicide; unhealthy cravings, gluttony, weight gain, doubt and unbelief, false guilt, self hatred, bitterness;

Lying symptoms, spiritual & physical parasites, inflammation, infirmity, death, spirits of heaviness, fatigue, lukewarmness, weakness and sleep; avarice, pride, rebellion, opposition, self pity; distraction, restlessness, curiosity, compulsive addictive behavior; sexual arousal, spousal & child abuse, incest, pornography and all sexual addictions; rejection & abandonment.

Spiritual deafness-dumbness-blindness and fog; Apathy, laziness, jealousy, judgment, condemnation and gossip of self & others; lying and deceiving voices, divination, seduction, twisted communication; contentiousness, division, alienation: I declare all of you, coming against us, your leaders and replacements and those attached to or used by you, bound and permanently disabled in Jesus Holy Name, never to return.

*Friends - meaning all visitors to our web site and Youtube channels.

"Generational curse, soul tie" add this to the above prayer maybe once a month.

"us" includes Carol & family, prayer warriors & volunteers plus all our animals.

*Not saving, that's already done by Jesus, but bringing souls to the Lord.

Temptations Against Purity, Be On Guard

February 7, 2016

The blessings and sweet companionship of our Lord Jesus be with you, Heartdwellers.

Well, it's been an interesting few days. There's a project we're working on, that's why I've been lagging a little bit. But there'll be a surprise that I share with you pretty soon.

And my prayer time has been unusually sweet and I think maybe the result of fasting more faithfully from things that are pleasing to my palate, and just the Lord's grace and His kindness towards me.

I begin this message with what was on my heart.

Lord, you've put such a fire in my heart for You. It is truly amazing that my heart burns this way. I've never felt this way for a period of sustained time. What a wonderful and slightly painful gift...please help me not let it go away.

He answered me, "It is a work of grace, My Love, to bring you closer and closer to Me. The fire from your heart, Clare, reflects and warms Me in this world that is all but arctic towards Me."

Oh Lord, may I feed this fire so it never goes out.

"Obedience and Love for your brother will fuel the flames, Beloved."

And then I brought something up to Him that just struck me as strange.

I was experiencing an unusual level of arousal for no reason at all, and I assumed it was demonically inspired. Finally, I asked for Ezekiel's prayers and he rebuked spirits of lust, impurity, incubus and succubus demons, which I renounced out loud. Immediately, that physical sensation left my body and I was normal again. So, I asked Jesus what is going on with me?

He replied, "A test of virtue."

Well, yes, I can sense that. Oh, I really feel sorry for our poor young listeners that have to deal with this on a daily basis. Maybe one of them is getting some relief by all of these temptations. It is very distracting.

Then He began to speak about what was on His heart, "My children, did I not tell you that you would be tempted in ways never before experienced...or at least things that you would never be tempted to before?"

"Well, that time is upon you and many are giving into things they should be abstaining from. I would ask you to call upon Me in that hour when the fires of temptation are the hottest and I will deliver you. Please, do not give in to the devils' proposals. These are refining fires meant to polish off the surface of the precious facets of your soul that is so on fire with love for Me.

"The devils would lower your desires to become carnal. But I say, rise up and take command of your flesh and put down these evil propositions before they can gain a foothold in you. The devils are looking for the stragglers, the weak ones that can't keep up, the compromised, the injured, the languishing ones. But I say to you, I will defend you in that moment. Call on Me and do not go the way of sin. Rather refocus on Me and I will handle these things that are too much for you.

"In each of you there is a point of tolerance, a point at which you can no longer maintain your purity. That is when you need to call on Me. That is when I will come to your rescue and make the difference."

And I had a thought here I wanted to share with you. I know that when I was younger and single and raising four children, wow - I had a lot of temptations. Not only was I needy for affection, but my hormones were also very strong. When I found myself at a point where I could compromise, one of the things that gave me courage to pass that temptation by was comparing the object of my affections to the beauty of Jesus.

The time was going to come when we would be joined in a pure heavenly relationship, and comparing anyone to Jesus made them pale and left me totally detached from whomever the devils were trying to tempt me with. And this was before I met Ezekiel. There was just no one who could compare to Jesus! So, I noticed the Lord would immediately remind me of Himself and that I belonged to Him and that kept me from sinning or being tempted to get into a relationship that was not of Him.

When the time came, He gave me the right man, who was His choice to care for me. And our attraction to one another was a strictly spiritual friendship for a year, until He opened our eyes to one another at the appropriate time and we realized God had chosen us to be together as husband and wife.

Looking back on it, having 4 children with the wrong man left serious repercussions in our lives. Eventually I would find the right path for my life and he would find his and we would go two separate ways. And the DNA in our children was divided up in the same way. We were not one with the Lord and neither were our children. Had I married Ezekiel and had children with him, how blessed they would be, because their genetic makeup would be much more harmonious and inclined towards God.

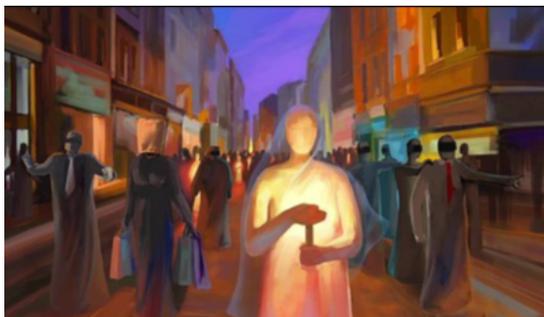

Nevertheless, God is still the victor. Though the road is much rougher, I trust Him to bring them all home. O dear young ones, don't marry the wrong man or woman. Wait for God's appointed choice - you will never regret it. Guard your heart closely and do not give it away in an impetuous moment. The demons always look for the times when you are tired or sick and are not functioning in your normal strength of self-control. Still, if you cry out to Jesus, He will save you. It is your choice.

Jesus began to speak again, "Now I will tell you a secret. Nine times out of ten, when you feel tempted in this way, it is demonic. They have a way of electronically sending impulses to certain points in your bodies that will cause you to be aroused. And they will do the same things to the people around you, setting you up for an occasion of sin. They will, in fact, also give you dreams to try and instigate fornication. I'm not talking here about the demons that stalk in the night to cause arousal (incubus and succubus). Rather, I am talking about masquerading demons who appear in your dreams or thoughts looking like someone you know or have an affection for, but in reality it is a demon.

"Be smarter than the enemy, My Children. Do not allow him to steal your purity or compromise and ruin your lives with the wrong spouse. Wait until I designate a spouse for you. Wait until I reveal a match truly made in Heaven. The repercussions are lifelong and beyond even this generation.

"Yet know that even now, if you've walked into the wrong relationship, I can and will still do what is necessary to help you lead a fulfilling life. Just remain vigilant, faithful and obedient to Me. It is not always in your power to win every confrontation with evil, but it is in Mine."

Some of You Are Still on the Fence, Prophetic Word from Ezekiel

February 8, 2016

May the Lord strengthen us in our journey, precious Heartdwellers.

Well, last night Ezekiel had a word from the Lord, so I'm going to publish it for him.

It began:

"So many complaining, so few give thanks. So many ungrateful, so few appreciate. I am tired and weary from so much indifference in the world. So many, many souls pursuing their flesh and the comforts thereof. With pride and vanity they assail Me. And selfishness knows no bounds when it comes to crushing the lives of the poor.

"Beloved, it has long wearied My Father, far and beyond the point of remedy. Who will console this heart, so full of Love and Compassion? Yet so rejected and scorned among this generation. I tell you, the Cup of Perdition is full to overflowing. That is why My Father has sent Me to fetch My Bride, so that She who has been so faithful would not have to endure the overwhelming stench of the rotting corpses that will fill the streets and cities of your country.

"I count on you, My Brides, to watch with a sharp eye and be ready when your Bridegroom comes for you. Do not be caught unawares, but keep your lamps trimmed and filled. Pull yourselves out of the world now, lest you be as Lot's wife, looking back. It is just that serious. For some of you are still straddling the fence. You stand to lose everything if you continue to compromise and the Day spring upon you like a trap. There will be no last minute chances, for the day and the hour are swiftly coming. And woe to you whom the Master finds preoccupied with the world upon His return. You may yet be saved, but as one going through the fire.

"For you who have left the world for the love of Me, the beauty and joy that await you are beyond your comprehension. For you will be escorted by the angels of God to the Wedding Feast of the Lamb, and thus you shall be unceasingly with your Lord, God and King.

"Rejoice, My Bride! For I am very near, even at the door."

Why Am I Least of All?

February 9, 2016

Well, my precious Heartdwellers, I ran across something that was sent to me by Lisa, one of our core members. And it was so on point, and so encouraging for those of us who have suffered these things that I really felt it necessary to share with you. It's from a tract that came from Faith Prayer and Tract League in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

And it begins:

"If God has called you to be really like Jesus, He will draw you into a life of crucifixion and humility, and put upon you such demands of obedience that you will not be able to follow other people, or measure yourself by other Christians. And in many ways He will seem to let other people do things which He will not let you do.

Other Christians and ministers who seem very religious and useful may push themselves, pull wires, and work schemes to carry out their plans, but you cannot do it.

Others may boast of themselves, of their work, of their successes, of their writings, but Holy Spirit will not allow you to do any such thing. And if you begin it, He will lead you into some deep embarrassment that will make you despise yourself and all your good works.

Others may be allowed to succeed in making money, or may have a legacy left to them, but it is likely God will keep you poor, because He wants you to have something far better than gold. Namely, a helpless dependence upon Him, that He may have the privilege of supplying your needs day by day out of an unseen treasury.

The Lord may let others be honored and put forward, and keep you hidden in obscurity, because He wants to produce some choice, fragrant fruit for His coming glory, which can only be produced in the shade. He may let others be great, but keep you small. He may let others do a work for Him and get the credit for it, but He will make you work and toil on without knowing how much you are doing. And then to make your work still more precious, He may let others get credit for the work which you have done, and thus make your reward ten times greater when Jesus comes.

The Holy Spirit will put a strict watch over you, with a jealous love, and will rebuke you for little words and feelings, or for wasting your time, which other Christians never feel distressed over.

So, make up your mind that God is an infinite Sovereign, and has a right to do as He pleases with His own. He may not explain to you a thousand things which puzzle your reason in His dealings with you, but if you absolutely sell yourself to be His love, He will wrap you up in a jealous love, and bestow upon you many blessings which come only to those who are in the inner circle.

Settle it forever then, that you are to deal directly with the Holy Spirit, and that He is to have the privilege of tying your tongue, or chaining your hand, or closing your eyes in ways that He does not seem to use with others.

Now, when you are so possessed with the living God that you are, in your secret heart, pleased and delighted over this peculiar, personal, private, jealous guardianship and management of the Holy Spirit over your life - you will have found the entranceway of Heaven.

When you are forgotten or neglected, or purposely set at naught, and you smile in-wardly, glorying in the insult or the oversight, because thereby you're counted worthy to suffer with Christ - that is victory.

When your good is evil spoken of, when your wishes are crossed, your taste offended, your advice disregarded, your opinions ridiculed, and you take it all in patient, loving silence - that is victory.

When you are content with any food, any raiment, any climate, any society, any solitude, any interruption by the will of God - that is victory." (end of article)

So, I have found every single article of this little paper to be totally accurate in my life, and I think that's one of the reasons why the Lord has kept us hidden for basically 40 years. In the wilderness, hidden, before He brought us into public ministry. And I'm so glad He did - because these are some of the lessons that we learned, that have ended up being our greatest protection.

The Lord bless you, Family. I hope you enjoy this little article. I really feel it's going to give you the strength to persevere.

Be Vigilant, Protect Your Fruit

February 10, 2016

May the Lord's sweet presence and guidance be with you today, Heartdwellers.

Ezekiel had a word from the Lord last night, which is perfect, because I was working on another project and didn't get a chance to sit with the Lord. He received a Scripture in Sirach 25:4 "How becoming to the gray-haired is judgment, and a knowledge of Counsel to those on in years."

And then the Lord began speaking to him.

Ezekiel said, "Blessed are You, Lord! What counsel would you have for us tonight?"

He began, "Be ready! My counsel to you is to be ready! Anytime, any day, any second! Be ready!"

"You must be as the wise farmer who, seeing that the buds are about to give way to the flower, knows that the young fruit will not be far behind. And so he keeps a close watch each day, inspecting his trees. He knows that, once the adolescent fruit begins to show itself more and more, that the colors and fragrances will begin to attract the worms, and the birds. As both of these enemies present a simultaneous threat, he must work long into the day; spraying, netting, covering, lest these predators come in the earliest morning when they are barely visible against the dimly lit orchard. Should he become distracted with other things, even by a few hours, when the dimness of the morning starts to give way to daylight, he will arrive to the tragic scene of devastation well under way.

"His precious and tender fruits that he has nurtured and cared for so meticulously, to his horror will be little more than mutilated pulp and skin, their remnants scattered across the ground.

"And what of his diligent neighbor? Both men had the exact same acreage, with the same size trees and prospective yield.

"The farmer who kept his mind on his critical window, knowing from past experience that the crushing plague of birds and insects could strike with lightning speed overnight, never lost a second of time. Working even into the late hours of the night by headlamps, he made sure that every tree was sprayed and netted properly until he had finished his whole orchard. Arriving back up at his house exhausted, he peacefully laid his head on the pillow, knowing that all would be well, no matter when the unwanted intruders arrived.

"When he woke the next morning, he casually walked the path back down to the orchard, and sure enough - scores of locusts, worms, and loudly cackling birds either lay there dead on the ground, or were struggling to free themselves from the nets. There were so few pests left to threaten the maturing and now ripening fruit, he simply called in the workers. And by the end of the day, they had brought in a record harvest of the most beautiful, unblemished fruit, all ready to be packed and shipped to market.

"In the same way, My Father and I have been watching with great diligence, showering you with wave after wave of graces, making sure that every single one of you is covered and protected in every way possible. Now, when the time is absolutely precise, the Father will give the signal and He who is appointed will shout.

"And in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, with the blast of the Trump of God, I will call to My Bride saying, 'COME UP HITHER!' The dead in Me will come swiftly out of their graves, wearing their robes of righteousness. Then you, the living faithful, will be gloriously changed. You shall be caught up to meet Me in the air, and thus shall you be with Me unceasingly!

"I give you My Word, and My Word is Truth! Behold, Your Salvation is near, even at the door!"

Let Us Live This Life Together, The Little that Remains...

February 11, 2016

The Lord is with us, Heartdwellers.

Well, the Lord is doing something a little new here, and we're totally enjoying it. I think I've told you that in the past Ezekiel was a really fine musician (well, he still is!) but a really fine musician, but there came a point where the Lord asked him to put away his music. And then the Lord gave me the gift of music. And he (Ezekiel) backed me up and supported me in that.

Well, it's been very interesting - a prophet showed up at our house the other day, just out of the blue - and had a prophecy for Ezekiel that he was coming into another ministry. And we've been sitting, looking and waiting to see what that might be. With me being so terribly preoccupied, getting this surprise done for all of you, but mostly for our left-behind relatives. It's been very hard for me to get a message out every night.

So, we've been playing tag-team and the Lord has been speaking to Ezekiel very clearly, just as He did in Chronicles of the Bride. That book is divided into two sections, one are his Chronicles and the other is mine. So, I'm going to go ahead and share this word with you. I'm not saying that I won't be giving more words, I'm sure I will. It's just a matter of logistics right now and the Lord's whole focus is on saving souls. And those left behind are going to need the things that we're leaving for them.

So, here's the message from Ezekiel.

He began:

This evening, I had the consistent feeling that the Lord wanted to sit me down and again give us some guidance concerning these last days and hours. I have to admit, it was very difficult to try to get close to Him tonight, as I had intentionally overslept by about three hours.

And I just want to add here, when you have Fibromyalgia and you try to push it and get up, sometimes it ruins your whole day, because you didn't get enough rest. But then, other times, you get kind of dozy and you just lay there and fall back asleep. Well, that's what happened to him.

I have to admit, it was very difficult to try to get close to Him tonight, as I had intentionally overslept by about three hours. I knew that I should get up and get the evening started around 6pm as usual, but my flesh was oh so comfortable under those warm blankets!

He sent little nudges and hints, like my precious little cat getting sick to her stomach. I even thought at one point, 'That poor innocent little thing was suffering to move me up and on.' Well, after languishing in a stupor of laziness and conviction, the Lord gave me the grace to finally say "NO MORE!!", as I quickly rolled out of bed and went straight to Clare, confessing my slothfulness, and asking the Lord to please, forgive me.

As the time is getting closer, I think that Jesus is causing our consciences to be more and more sensitive, even to the smallest things. I mean, you can really feel that sinking sensation deep in your spirit when you offend Him now, especially if it involves an injury to another person. But this time, it was really acute and even after Clare prayed any false guilt, or lying spirits off of me - it just hung on. This thing was lodged in there deeply, and I just couldn't shake it.

For a rare space of time tonight, the Holy Spirit gave me an up close and personal look, a REAL look at just how pure and tender the Heart of Jesus truly is, and how often we hurt His heart by these seemingly "little" sins. I knew that this was genuinely Him, and even though I wept at His feet, and He assured me of His forgiveness and love for me - the deep remorse that I struggled with for the next three hours left a much needed mark, seared into my conscience, and I know that I don't ever want to deny Him anything, with His grace, ever again!

After some encouraging time of prayer, and the Lord's reassurance that I was restored, His focus shifted on to something that He wanted to talk about. Ever the discerner, I went to the Scriptures to "test" the Spirit. So this is how He began:

"Behold, I will pour out My Spirit unto You, I will make known My Words unto You." Proverbs 1:23

Jesus began, "There is much to be done in these last days before I come. It is absolutely crucial that you do NOT wander in your purpose. Keep your eyes fixed on Me, your whole heart, mind, spirit, and soul riveted on Me. It is imperative that you have My Mind - 'let this mind be in you.' The Mind of Christ. You cannot do this on your own. You MUST pray for this grace, and I will imbue you with the ability to 'cast down every imagination.'

"ALL of your faculties, you must surrender over again. Place them with faith into My Hands, knowing that your Lord and your Love, the espoused of your heart and soul, is worthy of your complete trust. I will free you from the tyranny of memories, as the enemy will try to play on your affections, relationships, and any remaining attachments to people and things in the world. If these relationships are good and loving, give them to Me. I love them far more than you ever could, and I will take them into My special care, out of love for you. But now, it is time to be intentionally single-minded.

"Keep up with your daily duties, but do not get bogged down with any projects. I need for you to be as Gideon's wise soldiers. They had come to a watering hole on their way into a major battle. He was told, only to take the men who bent on one knee, and drank with their hand as they were alert and watching, even then for the enemy. Those who bent down with their hands and knees, drinking like dogs, he was told to send back home. They would be of little or no use in the great battle that was about to ensue. Even with that, I would yet test Gideon's obedience further still.

"I cannot stress the importance of obedience strongly enough. You need to spend more quality time in prayer. By that I mean, it isn't enough just to have a "Personal Relationship" with Me now. Now you must have a familiar relationship with Me. What do I mean by familiar? You are saved, and you know Me in a loving, beautiful, and personal way - as I do you. But we are coming into a time when, as I said to My apostles, 'I no longer call you servants, for a servant does not know what His Master is about. No, now I call you Friends.'

"The more time you spend with someone, the more you get to know them on a deeper level. You begin to know their likes and dislikes and their particular way of doing things. I am calling you up higher now. You are about to embark on the eternal journey, the journey of life everlasting and in the closest way - as My Bride!

"Consider a young couple who are in love. As they have gotten to know one another over a long period of time, it becomes clear to them that their heart's desire is to spend the rest of their lives together. So, the man proposes and his beloved, rejoicing with excitement - accepts. Up to this point, they have seen each other on and off during the week. But now, they are planning on building a life together.

"They no longer go out on regular dates. No, they immediately begin to spend every free moment together. There is not a day that goes by that they are not together, and it continues like this all the way up to the Wedding.

"Why? Because they have just made a profound life commitment, and as with a betrothal, they have already forsaken all others in their heart and mind. Already they are joyfully beginning to become more familiar with the finer points of each other's person and character.

"We are about to begin our eternal lives together. Our whole relationship is going to plunge into the wonderful and divine depths of life without end - inseparable - together as One, forever!

"So, now let us set to work in earnest. I want to spend every moment with you. I want to dream and plan and celebrate with you! We will work at the daily chores of this life together! Every responsibility, every obligation we will rightly fulfill. Your whole life will be transformed, because now we are truly moving, breathing, thinking, and living AS ONE!

"My hands created the Heavens. When I call them, they shall part at once! I am restoring you even now, and giving new life to you. I am coming in splendor for you, My Bride!"

Your Tears Are Stored in Golden Flasks

February 12, 2016

The Lord began:

"I've missed our little talks together...I'm just glad you are here, Clare."

Me, too. I've missed our times of worship and that sweet focus on Your presence, uninterrupted by the mundane things of the world.

He replied, "Nevertheless, I am happy with your work, Clare. You will see that it will gather much fruit."

Sweet Lord, thank you for helping me. You have been ever so present. Please share Your Heart with me.

"My darling Bride, the task now is to keep you all on track and steady as she goes. I want to be sure you are stable and cleaving to your ROCK. Nothing I could say and do will totally prepare you for what is to come. Nothing. But I promise I will be with you and you will be very well prepared and that is My focus right now.

"I am longing for My Bride to take all My words to heart and mold herself around My priorities, for I am unshakable. And cleaving to Me will be your only point of stability and sanity. And it is through your stability bound to the ROCK that you will be able to lead and comfort others. The most common thought you are going to hear is, 'I never thought this could happen to America.' This will be the prevalent tone. 'How could this be happening to us?' And for that short time that you are here, I want you to simply say, 'He's tried to tell you. It's written in the Bible. We all knew this was coming.'

"It will be by your witness to truth that they will find their own centers with Me again or even for the first time. Many will react with outrage and be led into anarchy, which has been engineered behind the scenes, many will cry out and humble themselves before Me. Some will take their own lives, for all their significance and sense of being depended on the dollar. Others who are prepared will swing into action to disappear. And you, My Bride? You will be in with Me, in Heaven .

"I have seen your tears for your family, those dear to you, near and far. I have heard your pleas on their behalf and stored your tears in golden flasks to witness your love for them. Do you think I love them less? I have been preparing them in My own way, year after year, for this very time. They are, so to speak, at the top of My List to aid in their conversions and spiritual safety.

"Understand that these culminating events will push them over the brink of reluctance and down into My waiting arms. I have prepared a safety net for their souls, so hold fast and confess frequently My promises to you about them. Do not judge by what you see, much is hidden from view in places where they are already scared like little lost children and much of their superficial bravado is a cover-up for that nagging feeling that something IS about to change drastically in the world and they will be caught unprepared.

"But for those who heed My advice and seek Me and not their own devices, those souls shall find rest in these turbulent times unparalleled in history. This is why what I have given you to leave behind is so very important. Your efforts will be crowned with success and many will receive life changing ministry from what you leave behind."

Here He is talking about all our pdf's and Youtubes, but especially what I have been working on is a 4 disc album called Tethered, Courage and Hope for The Left Behind. One disc will have 15 songs to comfort and encourage, two discs will be teachings and prayers, and one disc will be meditational songs. I'm hoping it will be released within the next two weeks on iTunes and Amazon in the downloadable format. I'll let you all know when it's available. It's going to be available before the beginning of March. We have taken from all our teachings the things that are absolutely necessary for those left behind and condensed them into this set. It will be sold at cost...maybe even $12 if we can get away with it on Amazon.

The Lord bless you all, thank you for your prayers. We are certainly getting closer and more prepared every day.

Comfort One Another With These Words

February 13, 2016

The Lord is with us, Heartdwellers. And I have a message from Ezekiel to share with you today.

It began when he was speaking to the Lord. He said, "Although I was happy to be coming to have communion with You, I could still feel a heaviness hanging in the air. However, I didn't know if it was just me, or the enemy, or if something was really hurting Your heart.

"Lord, we all know what is coming, and we all sense that the days of this free nation are numbered. Many of us are simply numb at the thought of an actual war on this soil, and the beginning of the Great Tribulation."

Jesus replied, "Try to stay calm, My Love. How many times have I told you, that I would NOT allow any of My Brides to be exposed to such carnage and tragedy? Time and again I have assured you in the Holy Scriptures, that I would ...take you out of trouble ...and away from the sinful.

Ps. 37:40.

In the secret place of My tent I will hide you. I will set you high upon a rock. Then your head will be lifted up above all those who hate you! Psalm 27:5-6

"Remember Lot and his family. I did not leave them in Sodom and Gomorrah, and bring them through the falling brimstone. No, I brought them out before the destruction fell.

"I lifted Noah and his family UP, and OUT OF the flood. I did not make them go through it; rather I set them up and above the raging waters.

"There are so many examples of My Providence - ahead of time. Does it make sense to you that I would have My Precious Bride, She who has been so faithful to Me, go through the same punishment as the sinful of the Earth?

"By the very nature of a serious and deep love relationship, that is leading up very soon to the Wedding, what Groom would delay their day of joy, only to leave His Bride-to-be out in a barren wilderness, exposed to the harsh climate and surrounded by deadly predators!

"I tell you that he would waste no time in running to her rescue! He would snatch Her away quickly, protecting Her from every potential danger. Then He would whisk Her away to the safe and protected place that He had been preparing for them and their new life together.

"What am I getting at? Earlier you asked Me, 'Lord, what would You like to give us - Your guidance - about tonight?'"

"My Guidance and Counsel to you tonight is simply, but very intentionally summed up in two words: Salvation and Rapture.

"Yes, Salvation and Rapture. Everything that I have been teaching you in this past year, everything that I have been preparing in you is for the saving of souls for eternity and to make straight the way for your Lord when He comes to gather His Bride to Himself!

"For far too long, the enemy has used this magnificent Day of your Lord's coming as a source of division among My People. My Servant Paul, after laying out exactly what events would take place when My Faithful Ones are caught up in his first letter to the Thessalonians says"

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 18 Wherefore COMFORT ONE ANOTHER WITH THESE WORDS."

"Notice, the Holy Spirit does not say, 'Quarrel and argue, debate and discourage one another.' Nor are you to listen to the insinuations of the enemy whispering lies and dissuading you with carefully projected doubts; such as, 'using your common sense', and that 'it has already been more than 2000 years', and 'many generations also watched and believed'....etc.

"No, you are to build each other up in your most holy Faith. And Yes - comfort one another with these words. My Words to you are Faithful and True!

"My Father is Patient and Kind, Long Suffering for ages and ages. But I tell you now, the Time of Mercy is coming to a close rapidly. And the time of Judgment is soon to come.

"Lift up your eyes and be glad! Your Salvation is close at hand!"

You're Coming Home, My Bride

February 14, 2016

May the Lord bless and strengthen us for what is yet to come, Heartdwellers.

I normally don't share a news item and I don't go looking for them. But this one came to me and it's a complete confirmation of the vision that I had about two weeks ago, of the Syrian border being filled with soldiers - being packed in with soldiers and armies.

So, I'm going to read it to you. It's from Trunews. I don't really have any recommendation for Trunews other than that it is definitely a confirmation of what the Lord told me was about to happen.

So, I'm going to go ahead and read it:

Wednesday, February 10: Saudi Arabia and at least 20 Arab allies began moving 350,000 ground troops into northern Saudi Arabia. From there, it is just a short pass through western Iraq to reach the Syrian border. In addition, they are also moving 20,000 tanks, 2,450 warplanes and 460 military helicopters.

The Saudis are claiming the movements are for military exercises, which is a big stretch because it would be the region's largest military exercises ever. They are claiming these exercises will be completed by February 28, which means we might see military conflicts starting very soon.

Another more believable explanation for the troop movements is the Sunni rebels fighting against the Syrian government are getting whipped badly now that Syria has the help of Russian forces. The rebels are very close to losing the war, which has been largely funded and equipped by Saudi Arabia and the United States. The Saudis are using Syria as a proxy war to fight their true enemy, Iran. So if the rebels can't get the job done, the Saudis are preparing to do it themselves, with the backing of the United States of course.

Saudi Arabia's troop movements prompted Russia to repeat a warning released earlier in the week that any foreign troops entering Syria without permission from the Syrian government would be a declaration of war.

Thursday, February 11: Saudi military leaders announced on television they will not back down, saying, 'The decision to send ground troops into Syria is final.' Did they just say the decision to invade Syria is final? Yes, they did, and unless they change course, World War 3 would be unavoidable.

It gets worse because U.S. Secretary of Defense Ash Carter followed the Saudi announcement with a strong show of support asking our NATO allies to join a coalition to send ground troops into Syria! Ignoring Russia's threat to declare war, the United States just upped the ante by threatening the Russians with all of NATO.

Then Russian Prime Minister Dmitry Medvedev escalated Russia's threat to declare war by warning about a new world war! He said, "The demands of some Arab countries to send ground forces into Syria risks starting a new world war."

Now, when I heard this I was just about to go into prayer and I asked the Lord. I said, "Lord, it seems like such a confirmation, the movement of 350,000 Arab coalition troops?"

And the Lord began, "It is more than that, My Love, it is the death knell. Truly the signs are everywhere and this time it means business. As I have told you, I will not put this off again, it has passed the point of no return. As things come to a head, My Brides, I want you to press in praying the Divine Mercy prayer and strengthen yourselves for intercessory burdens, which I will allow. It may seem very dire and drastic to you, what I allow you to carry, but nothing is as important to Me as the last minute harvest of souls before I take you. Believe Me, your rewards will make you totally forget about what you suffered down here. Does not a woman forget the distress of the birth pains when she has finally given birth? Even so, you will forget the tragedies and distresses of this earthly life as I immerse you in My joy.

"Do not expect your crosses to get lighter and lighter as we approach that time. Rather arm yourselves with patience and faith, knowing that I foretold this time of suffering. Have you not offered yourselves to Me? Have you not said you want to co-labor with Me in the fields? Well, at this time in history, this is your part. You cannot rejoice over what you cannot see, so I am asking you to rejoice in your sufferings, for they are bringing a heavy weight of glory to My Kingdom as the lost come to Me - sometimes one by one, sometimes hundreds upon hundreds.

"Yes, conviction will be upon this battlefield. Not one Jew, Gentile or Muslim will escape conviction. If there is a body with a soul in it, rest assured it shall be convicted and perhaps allowed a millisecond to call on Me in the midst of the carnage."

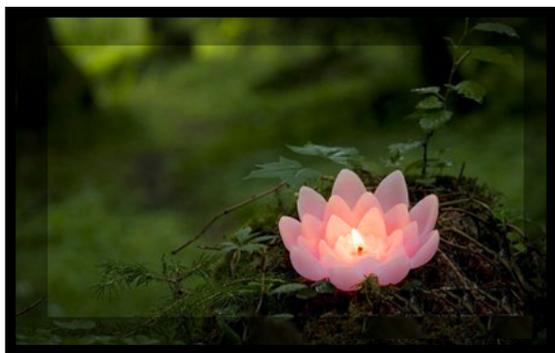

And I just wanted to make an aside here. He said that because there are now many laboratory humanoid bodies without souls trained and engaged for battle. They do not have souls, so there is nothing to bring conviction to. They are more like machines than actual humans.

He continued, "As things come to a head, there will be much unrest in your country. Now will be the time to prepare for the conflagration that is coming. Focus on books and information to be handed out. This is your mission, to disseminate the truth. As you do this faithfully, as those who take over the ministry do this faithfully, I will provide everything they need. But they must be faithful to the apostolate of informing and praying for others.

"Your job here is almost done, Clare, almost done. Don't stress, rest. I will bring things to a swift and efficient conclusion.

"You are coming Home, My Bride."

Remember These Things & Remnant Church

February 15, 2016

Some of you have been left behind, because you haven't pressed into the Lord and given Him your life. You haven't believed. You haven't lived for Him.

But others of you have been called and chosen. And though it is fraught with many, many dangers, trials and tribulations - for those of you who are new Christians, or recommitted to the Lord, it will be the most exciting time of your life.

And the most challenging. This is but the beginning for you. And for those of you who are called as the Remnant, this will be what you've been waiting for your entire life - to live totally on fire for Jesus. You are the Remnant Church, which is spoken of in the Scriptures:

And the dragon was furious with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the Commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. Revelation 12:17

You have been chosen to lead, to guide and to fight against evil. You are not among the left behind because you did not give yourselves to Him. No. You are among the called and chosen Remnant.

Some of you are warriors and have been created for such a time as this. For those of you who have been called to engage in the battle to restore our nation, the Lord wants you to know He is with you. You are not fighting alone. His arm is mighty and powerful, not only to make you invisible but to confuse and defeat the enemy. Begin all your battles with prayer and end them with thanksgiving. Through you He is going to raise this nation from the ashes and restore her to righteousness.

Don't let anyone belittle you. You were not negligent, you were chosen by Him to be warriors for righteousness and even to give witness to Jesus through martyrdom. Be courageous. Let no one demean you. Don't believe the enemy's lies, for he surely will torment you with lies to try and discourage you. Stand tall in the Lord; He is with you.

One other short point I need to make is that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, with the evidence of speaking in tongues, is THE weapon of choice for prayer. When you pray in the Spirit, you speak the language of the Spirit of God and the very exact prayer that is needed in the situations you find yourself in. Do not allow the enemy to lie about this gift anymore; it is powerful and that's why he hates it and slanders it. Holy Spirit is praying the perfect prayer through you.

If you have not yet received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, all you need to do is ask. A good way to begin is to sing and allow Him to take over your speech while you are in worship. Many, many gifts come with this grace: discerning of spirits, healing, miracles, words of knowledge, prophecy - so many wonderful gifts accompany this sign. I would ask you not to disdain it, and not to allow anyone to prevent you from using your heavenly language.

God bless all of you. Dwell in His heart. Dwell in His heart, you that have stayed behind and you that have been left behind. Make your home in His heart. He is with you and Mighty to save! You will be part of the greatest revival the Earth has ever known, greater things than Jesus did you will also do, miracle after miracle.

Remember to confess, "Jesus, I know you are here with me. Jesus, I trust in You."

No matter what you encounter remember these words of St. Paul who was martyred:

Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Just as it is written, "FOR YOUR SAKE WE ARE BEING PUT TO DEATH ALL DAY LONG; WE WERE CONSIDERED AS SHEEP TO BE SLAUGHTERED."

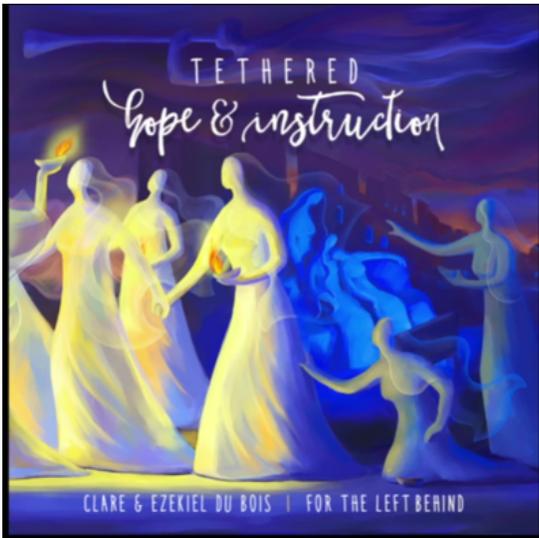

But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord who dwells in us.

Romans 8:35-39

Persevere. This is but a short while - 7 years. And at the end of that time, we'll all be gathered together in Heaven rejoicing over what the Lord has done with our lives and what He's done in the world. Remember - He loves you. Dwell in His heart as He dwells in yours.

The Blessing of Almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be with you now and forever.
Amen.

Jesus Speaks on Provision and Protection

February 17, 2016

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers. The Lord is really us with some amazing left behind materials.

As you probably noticed lately, I haven't been consistent getting the message out on time. Please! Calm your worries, we're doing very well, but spending 16 to 18 hour days putting absolutely vital teachings and music together to comfort and restore hope to those left behind.

The message is - God has NOT abandoned you! He has a plan for you. This is NOT the end, only the beginning of the most exciting time in your lives...if you will do it HIS way. That's the message of the album.

To that end, we're putting together a 4 CD collection with music to inspire, teachings and instruction from the Lord about the most important things. And this CD will be widely available on the Internet - iTunes, CD Baby and broadcasting. It'll be there available if they want to buy hard copies. But you can download it for free from Heartdwellers as soon as we figure out how to get it on there...! Which Carol is working on now.

The beauty of having the CD's is that people will be able to find us in iTunes and immediately have a hard copy if that's what they want. We will also be making thumb drives, with 6 gigabytes of teachings, music and books and videos. We still have no way to distribute these, other than to hand them out right here where we live. We certainly don't have the facilities to send them out to everyone. But we're looking into ways for you to obtain them for your families.

Certainly you can make your own thumb-drive from the free contents on Youtube and Heartdwellers. And there will be a file available that tells you what's on the thumb drives, if you want to download it for yourself.

So, we're doing all we can to leave behind what is necessary for spiritual survival during the Tribulation.

Thank you for your prayers. We'll keep you updated when these things have been made available on the Internet. It should be pretty soon, we just finished the album today. It's just a matter of processing it and getting it up.

I just wanted you to all understand what we've been doing in the background here for the Lord, and that we're okay and we really appreciate your prayers.

So I'm going to share with you one of the revised tracks from the album now.

"Not realizing what is coming, people are still planning as if this life will go on forever just the way it is now. That is why they will be blindsided by what is about to take place. What I want for you, Clare, is to leave behind as much as you can to elevate people out of that dimension of chaos, which is something only I can do with souls.

"You see CERN, clones and the ruling elite will make many very serious mistakes that will impact their hiding places among the rocks of the Earth. Vaults of water and magma will open up on them with tragic consequences. They will cry out to those who engineered these spaces, 'I thought you said this could never happen!!!' But all in vain, only to be swallowed up into the abyss. This indeed will be their just deserts, and so I counsel all to have nothing to do with these underground bases, they are not safe.

"And yet I will provide safe havens in the deserted areas, places with abundant water, natural caverns and sufficient food. Just as the angels provided manna in the desert, so will I release to all sufficient sustenance."

I'll take a break here - that was a surprise to me! That apparently the angels were helping to spread the manna.

He continued:

"Many stores of food will never run out. Medical supplies and healing will also be sustained supernaturally by Me. Many will come into a full-time healing ministry, tending to the sick and infirm, strengthening and giving comfort to those who have collapsed in fear, those on the edge of death, even some to be brought into the Kingdom in the last moments of their lives.

"I have some wonderful things planned for this horrendous time. Many a wall will come crashing down upon the enemy because of prayer. I will supernaturally and literally move Heaven and Earth to protect the holy ones. Some will be martyred, some will survive but all will be provided for. I will not abandon them to the will of their enemies.

"Yes, unsurpassed suffering will be witnessed but also unsurpassed glory and the triumph of faith. There will be many sent from Heaven as visitations to encourage and provide. My angels will be most solicitous for the welfare of the remnant I am shielding from the full force of My wrath.

"Listen carefully to the instructions I am imparting to you. Prayer will be your greatest weapon and I will teach you how to pray - it will flow from within you without any effort, so strong will My grace be among you. Prayer will well up from inside and overtake you in moments of fear and danger, and you will be kept safely hidden, as well as have My Peace.

"Many will betray each other and only discernment by My Holy Spirit will alert you to who cannot be trusted. If you judge by outward standards: what is said, what they look like, how they act; if you judge by normal human standards you will be fooled. You must rely on Me to detect weak souls or those sent to find you out.

"Again I want to say, this is for the left behind ones, this is not for those who will be raptured. It is important to have these things printed and easy to find."

"Don't be afraid Clare, don't let the enemy do this to you. I know the temptation to be afraid is tremendous because you can see so clearly what is coming. But I have made ample provision for every moment of your life up until the Rapture. I want you, Beloved, to be an example of peace and security in Me, not a trembling little mouse in the corner."

I had to laugh when I heard that!

"And yet fear is no laughing matter," He continued. "Rather it chokes out faith, and you mustn't let it gain ground on you. Recall My promises to you and how many times I have come through for you, Oh Israel???"

"How many times did I provide hay for your horses, food for you table, gas for your vehicles, free places to live in, even to this moment, hmm? How many times, and still you doubt Me? Come now, what a disgrace you are, do you want to circle the mountain for 40 more years?"

Deep sigh. Forgive Me, Lord. Jesus, I believe. Help my unbelief.

"You got your nose into some news of developing events and that scared you."

That's true, Lord, I did.

"Well, it's better if you stay away from such things, they will most assuredly have a harmful affect on your state of mind."

Lord, what about leaving supplies behind for our children? That continues to bug me - I wish we could leave something behind for them.

"I have told you before, I have already provided for them. This would be an act of unbelief on your part. It would also be a powerful distraction. Can you trust Me with them? Do you think after all these years of serving Me, I will abandon your children? Is it not written that you will never see the children of the faithful begging for bread? I have powerful provisions for them, but because you can't see it, measure it, hold it, you don't believe. Your faith is flagging."

Please help me, Lord, truly I am a shameful servant.

"Well come here 'shameful servant' and let Me hold you, and restore your faith."

So, at that moment I stopped typing and closed my eyes and thought for a moment. I could feel the Lord and see His face, and He held my face closely with His two hands and said, looking deeply into my eyes, only inches from my eyes, He said, "Stop worrying about your children. I have ample provision for them, it is all planned out and getting in the middle would only confuse things. Stop. Worrying."

"Okay."

"I want all your efforts on these souls I have sent you, be a mother to them, feed them honey from the rock and wheat from the fields of Heaven. Oh, how jealous I am for these who are so in love with Me. Oh, how I long to protect and nurture them! It is beyond your understanding to know how God adores a soul devoted to Him. How can you lead them in faith if you are weary and stumbling?

"Nevertheless, I will make up the difference, for My strength is perfected in your weakness. So carry on, lift the burdens from their hearts, adorn them with garlands of love from the gardens of Heaven. Nurture them Clare, and BELIEVE that I AM has sent you to their side in these hours of mischief the Devil has devised."

I was starting to flag at that point and getting a little sleepy, and I figured maybe this was the end of the message.

And He said, "I'm not done yet, My Love."

And He continued, "Just as in days gone by, when I supernaturally protected My people, so shall I protect those who must stay behind. There will be one among them who will be designated the leader, and to him or her, I will give supernatural knowledge and wisdom. Protect this one who is critical to your mission. Let not the devils cause division, misunderstanding, murmuring and jealousy. Be on your guard against these poisons they will use to divide and scatter you all."

"Together you will survive. Separated, you will face many dangers without anyone to back you up. Do not let them divide and conquer. Be smarter than the enemy, walk in charity and humility and you will have no problems. Walk in self-will, selfishness, suspicion, and rancor, it will be your demise. There will be many testings among the groups, many testings. Painful decisions to make, life or death decisions to make. I will give you peace when the decisions are the hardest. Use lots to help you determine a plan of action."

Taking an aside here, Lots are what they used - drew straws or sticks or something. With Jonah, when he was in the ship to find out why God was against them in the storm, and of course picking the apostle to replace Judas they used Lots.

Anyway, I'll go back to what He was saying, "I will give you signs of My love, signs of danger, signs when you are going the wrong way, signs when you are going the RIGHT way. Be attentive, pay close attention to the signs I send you."

You know, when I think of signs, I think of heart-shaped rocks, the face of Jesus in the bark of the tree... different things. But if everyone's on the watch for signs, then they're going to see them.

"If you suspect you have made a wrong decision, stop and pray it through. Better to wait on me than to move forward into a trap. There will be times to act and times to wait. It is in the times of waiting that trials will be the most difficult."

"Pray always, worship and thank Me for every safe moment of your journey, for every provision, for every time you evade the enemy. Use My Name as a weapon of war for you fight not against flesh and blood but principalities in high places and against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places. Ephesians 6:12

"Now I want you all to remember how easy it is to fall into unbelief, to mistrust, to suspect, to be fearful. These are the weapons the enemy will use against you - forewarned is forearmed."

"Now, My precious ones, cling to My instructions for in them lies life and death. Be not afraid of what man does to your body, only your eternal soul. Do not compromise for the sake of your body, your children, your wife, or for any reason at all. I will be with you to deliver you from evil. Pray often, 'Deliver us from evil.' Pray this frequently, it is a powerful prayer.

"That's all for now, My love. My blessing is with you, My Brides. Leave these instructions behind for your loves ones. Have courage and keep your eyes on eternity."

Restoration Will Come

February 18, 2016

The Lord is with us Heartdwellers. And His heart is very much to instruct us about what we have to look forward to, tonight.

I've been pondering a great deal of what the Lord has said, and the destruction that is going to occur on the Earth, and what is written in Revelation. And it's really made me heartsick. And the Lord addressed that tonight.

We began by dancing, and I was wearing black - both of us were wearing black, which is usually a sign of mourning when the Lord allows that, allows me to see myself in black.

And I said, "Oh, Lord, I can't bear to see what's coming. Carol has been praying continuously and in constant pain, weeping and weeping. Lord, forgive me. I'm struck with fear of what's coming on the whole Earth. Can You not give me some numbing agent? My heart feels paralyzed with fear."

He replied, "I am here. Hold on to Me tightly. I am your stronghold. Bury your head in My chest when you need to gut it out. I know what it's all about. I am sharing My crushing pain with you, but only in such tiny drops that even the eye cannot see."

"Yes, what must come to pass is a terrible thing - a terrible thing. But this is the refining fire I must prepare My people with. Every one must pass through this fire, even as the Earth passes through it. Yet, I will never abandon them. Never. I walk beside each one, even those who do not call on My name. I walk with them in hopes that they will finally confess their sin and come to Me fully repentant, ready to start a new life. Even if it begins with the body's physical death - yes, even that."

"Nothing will be compared to the suffering of those who choose the Mark. Nothing in this life compares to the torment of those who receive the Mark, and the torments of Hell that are to follow it."

I felt moved to look up the Scriptures in Revelation 9: The fifth angel sounded his trumpet and I saw a star that had fallen from the sky to the Earth. The star was given the key to the shaft of the Abyss. When he opened the Abyss, smoke rose from it like smoke from a gigantic furnace. The sun and sky were darkened by the smoke from the Abyss, and out of the smoke locusts came down on the Earth, and were given power like that of scorpions of the Earth. They were told not to harm the grass of the Earth or any plant or tree but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. They were not allowed to kill them, but only to torture them for 5 months, and the agony they suffer is like that of the sting of the scorpion when it strikes. During those days, people will seek death but will not find it. They will long to die, but death will elude them.

And then the other Scripture that came to mind: Go and pour out on the Earth 7 bowls of the wrath of God. So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the Earth, and it became a loathsome and malignant sore on the people who had the Mark of the Beast, and who worshipped his image.

And the Lord began speaking again. That, by the way, was Revelation 16.

"Speak to My people, Daughter. Warn them again and again. The most foolish thing they can do is to receive that Mark. Everything I have written in My Word through the prophets and apostles has indeed come to pass. Once they wake up to the reality of that, it's a short walk to see how the next 7 years will go, including what will happen to those who accept the Mark.

"Please, My Children. Don't be stubborn like the mule."

And Psalm 32 came to mind: I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go. I will counsel you with My eye upon you. Do not be as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding, whose trappings include bit and bridle to hold them in check. Otherwise, they will not come near to you.

And then, at this point I want to share something with you.

I wrote, "As we get closer and closer to the time, My Dear Heartdwellers, the reality of what the Lord must do to the Earth, the destruction of life and property is beginning to set in as a very painful event. One of our volunteers has had a vision of this town where we live (Taos) and it was almost totally leveled - except for a very few houses, way out on the Mesa. As I pondered this, I have to admit, my heart was really heavy.

And this Scripture came to mind from Revelation 6: I watched as He opened the 6th seal. There was a great earthquake. The sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair. The whole moon turned blood-red and the stars in the sky fell to the Earth as figs drop from a fig tree when shaken by a strong wind. The Heavens receded like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

By the way, when we were on a mission trip in Columbia, and lived there for 3 months there was great talk among the prophets there about the Great Earthquake.

The 7th angel poured out his bowl into the air, and out of the Temple came a loud voice from the Throne saying, "It is done." Then there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder and a severe earthquake. No earthquake like it has ever occurred since mankind has been on the Earth, so tremendous was the quake.

Can you imagine what it's going to be like? The Lord is saying here that it's going to be a greater earthquake than has ever been. And when Noah was floating on the surface of the water, and the continents were separating...I mean, that must have been tremendous turbulence. He's saying here that this is going to be even more turbulent.

And the Scriptures continue at this point. This is from Revelation 16: The great city split into 3 parts and the cities of the nations collapsed. God remembered Babylon the Great and gave her the cup filled with the wine of the fury of His wrath. Every island fled away and the mountains could not be found. From the sky huge hailstones weighing about 100 pounds fell on people, and they cursed God on account of the plague of hail, because the plague was so terrible.

And that's been recorded, by the way, in South America. They've had tremendous hailstones fall at different times. And it can be connected to the turbulence of volcanoes, I understand.

So, I continue on with my thoughts here:

All across the world, Lord, people have worked so hard to have what they need to live, and during a war they're stripped of everything. It makes me feel very badly for the innocent who suffers so much loss. About 25 years ago I had a vision of walking over bodies. The Lord and I were walking through a field of just carnage everywhere. In fact, I think it was a city that we were walking through. Everything was charred, and there were bodies lying on the ground. Men, women and children were scattered everywhere.

I did a pen and ink drawing and kept it all these years, and I realize now that this vision is about to become a reality.

My heart was so heavy I couldn't go on with the message, so I called Ezekiel to pray for me. He had a vision of Jesus and I in a rubber raft. He was paddling as we passed over what looked like a scene from the catastrophic Indonesian tsunami, or the aftermath of a hurricane. Wreckage and rubble was floating everywhere. Boards, downed trees, broken houses - everything in this once inhabitable town was now shredded and floating on the water.

However, off in the distance was a shoreline He was paddling towards. It was about 200 yards out, and everything was regenerating even as we looked at it. A pure, primordial mist was rising. Ferns were opening in this lush, Eden-like garden. Everything was pristine, pure and clean. Even the air.

Then Jesus said, "Keep your eyes on the shore. Keep your eyes on the shore."

After Ezekiel told me this and prayed against sentimentality and mixed emotions, a spirit of emotional confusion - it lifted off of me.

Nevertheless, the world has never seen this level of destruction. And I cannot even imagine how people could survive it. I'm sharing this with you, Heartdwellers, in case you're feeling some of the same things.

Jesus, I trust in You!

At this point, the Lord picked up again and began speaking.

"Clare, everything unclean must be destroyed before I come to rule. I'm going to wipe the slate clean, so to speak, and return the Earth to the purity of Eden. This must happen. The old must be destroyed before the new can be brought forth. And even 1,000 years from the Tribulation, people will talk about this the very same way they talk about Noah. Yes, the Earth was cleansed but not totally restored in Noah's day. Just as you burn the weeds from a field before planting, so must I burn the weeds of this civilization to make way for a new life.

"Man has not learned his lesson. This second cleansing will accomplish much in the way of reverential fear of God. In the beginning of My reign, joy will reign supreme. But iniquity will again find it's way into the Earth and to the second Armageddon. That will put a final end to this strain of evil that lies dormant in the genetic make-up of man. Until then, it is a long journey with many ups and downs. And yet, many glorious stories to be told.

"Persevere, My holy people. Do not grow weary. There's an end in sight when Heaven will dwell in the Earth and all mankind shall worship Me and peace shall reign, even as if springing up from the very soil. Do not grieve. Keep your eyes on the shore.

"Until then, remember: I am in the back of the raft, paddling it forward into eternal Glory."

I felt impressed to look up this Scripture:

And I heard a loud voice from the Throne saying, "Behold! The Tabernacle of God is among men, and He will dwell among men and they shall be His people. And God Himself will be among them and He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. And there will no longer be any Death. There will no longer be any mourning or crying or pain. The first things have passed away. And He Who sits on the Throne said, "Behold. I am making all things new, for these words are faithful and true." That's from Revelation 21.

And as I just finished recording this, Ezekiel had been in prayer and overheard the message. He came to share something with me.

The Lord had spoken to him and said that there would be three, distinct phases. The first one would be Regeneration. Spontaneous generation of all plant and tree life. The second would be Rebuilding, as with Nehemiah. "And they set to work with one heart, with Jesus directing." And the third, complete Restoration. "And every man shall sit beneath his own tree. Once again will he hear the sounds of joy and laughter and little children playing in the streets."

The beautiful word of Hope for us tonight, for those of you who are here during the Tribulation. This is a beautiful word of Hope. Hold onto it. Bury it deep in your heart. And don't let the enemy steal it with his lies.

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers.

Repent For the Guilty, Do not Condemn

February 19, 2016

The Lord is calling us to greater compassion and meekness today. So I'm going to go ahead and talk a little bit about my prayer time tonight.

We spent some time dancing together and just being very close and just appreciating one another. I've been running around like a one-armed paperhanger lately, not being able to spend the kind of time that I normally spend with the Lord in intimate fellowship. And it's been very painful.

Our conversation began after 3 songs, He wanted to speak with me, which is normally...3 songs is...wow. Normally we spend 45 minutes to an hour together first. But it is late and I am off my schedule and He really wanted to get this message across.

So, I complied and I said, "I know it's late, Lord, but I miss being with You! Please, can You help me back to that sweet space where I am really able to worship You? And rest in Your presence? I really miss You..."

He began, "I know how you feel, Clare. But you're doing a necessary work, and I'd rather you do that than enjoy my company in this moment. When you're finished, if you ever finish before I come for you - then you can rest and pray."

Are You serious, Lord??

"I would rather you give all you have to give and leave nothing out. Who knows what will touch the souls who listen to this CD? I guarantee you, all of those songs are from Me and My words will not return to you void. They shall accomplish their purpose."

"Did I not tell you that you would be giving all that gave you and that your purpose would be completed on this Earth? That there would be no song unsung, that you would finish the work I've given you to do? Did I not tell you this months ago? But I am keeping a close eye on you, and drawing you to My heart frequently."

"Clare, this will be over soon enough. Work while you have the Light. Please don't try to second guess Me about having sufficient time for this or for that, whether banking will go on or not. Whether the albums will be delivered or not. That is not your call or your concern. Your only concern is obedience, and you are directly in the center of My will."

"Yes, Beloved, carry on - without scruples, please? I have given you this timeframe for a very good reason, but your curiosity should not seek for answers beyond what I have given you. That is a flaw in faith and trust in Me. All you need to know is to have things together this month. The rest is in My hands," to dispose of according to My will. This should give you some measure of peace, My Love.

"Dear Brides, this applies to you as well. Consider: had I allowed the Rapture in June of last year, how many of you would have been left behind? How well would you have prepared your left behind materials for others? Do you see the wisdom in these delays of the past? Because of it, much, much more has been done and thousands of more Muslims have come to me and been saved. How beautiful is the economy of God. I put it on the hearts of Australians to intercede, to bring a stay of execution and judgment on Earth. And because they obeyed, look at the fruit!

"Those who have fallen away because of this delay I cannot account for. It was their own free will that made the choice to not believe anymore, to stop hoping, to stop preparing. And now, in these days, I've raised up many of My hand-picked servants, who have done even more to ready My Bride.

"My ways are inscrutable, so please - don't try to figure Me out. Just finish all your preparations this month and leave the rest to Me. I understand the tone of judgment that is being proclaimed by many. But may I remind them, that had I acted earlier, before THEIR conversions, they too would have been with those left to suffer the consequences of this sinful world.

"What am I saying here? Do not hold bitterness, rancor or judgment against those who have transgressed My laws and continue to transgress them. This is not My heart. Yes, there is judgment. Yes, there is a sentence to be given and punishment to be meted out. But only the self-righteous raise themselves up to the Father's stature and proclaim their disgust with these souls.

"Do you see Me clearly? What am I doing? Am I railing on the sinners - or am I weeping for them? Do you understand? Do you feel it? Judgment is Mine, says the Lord. But more than that, My heart of Love is breaking. And to point the finger and declare judgment is NOT My way. Unless, of course, you're talking about the manipulative, religious Pharisees of your day. Still, it is not your call to make.

"Blessed are the meek. It is the meek that most resemble Me. Not the fire-and-brimstone, old testament prophets. You must not put on that cloak. Rather, call for repentance, that I may turn and negate what has been prepared, and be compassionate with the sinful so they may come running to the foot of the Cross. And not turn around and point the finger at you who are railing at them, and say, 'I told you so! Those Christians are just a bunch of religious hypocrites!'

"You see, it is My love that leads to repentance, and judgment only leads to self-righteousness of the one who is judging. And self-righteousness comes from Pride and the declaration that you are above others, and you have the right to declare their guilt. This kind of behavior opens the door for a fall.

"So, My Bride. I am asking you: do not enter into judgment with your brothers. Keep your head low. Weep over his sins as you weep over your own. You ARE weeping over yours...are you not? This is the great balancing weight. You see, you've been given much, much more grace than many of these. Much more opportunity. Much more ministry.

"So, when you overspend, for instance - it is just as serious as those who steal. Though the money is in your control, it should be looked at as Mine, since you are My stewards. Therefore, the man who runs out of the 7-11 with a six pack of beer, because of his addiction and the way he was formed by his non-existent parents is less guilty than you who spend the money on luxuries, when you could have supported and orphan with it.

"Do you understand?? There is NONE that is just, not even one. And those to whom much has been given, much shall be required.

"Now, you're not to go overboard with this teaching and start beating your breast and complaining it is too harsh, or you are doomed! Please, don't do that! Just cease from entering in to judgment with others who are proclaiming the coming chastisement as if they were innocent and the rest of the world was guilty. Don't DO that!

"Humble yourselves and see that your little faults are much more serious than their big faults, because they did not know My Mercy. Refrain from this.

"So, what should you do? Fall to your knees. Beg Mercy and repent for them. With this I will be well pleased. THIS is My heart for YOU. This is My will for you. This I will bless with fruit, the fruits of conversion in the little time left to us.

"I bless you all now with tenderness of heart and profound meekness. Go and do likewise to your brother."

You Will Feel a Deep Quietude

February 20, 2016

May the guidance and the peace of our sweet Lord Jesus and Holy Spirit be with you all, Heartdwellers.

Well, the Lord has some interesting news for us tonight, and I'm going to share it with you in just a moment. But first I want to go ahead and describe a little bit of my prayer time with Him.

I experienced some really, incredibly deep and profound peace in prayer and it's been quite a while since I've experienced anything like that. What I really felt, more than anything else, was the ability to relax in His presence. That was just new for me, the really just rest in His presence. I've always got some kind of apprehension or mental gymnastics going on about what I'm experiencing between discernment and just normal, wandering human thoughts. It's not always as peaceful as it could be.

And tonight it was, it was a very special grace. And the Lord explained a bit of it to me.

So, this goes for ALL of us. I was in worship and dancing with the Lord to Terry MacAlmon's songs - you couldn't really say we were dancing. He was holding my head on His heart and just kind of gently swaying back and forth with Him.

I said, "My Lord, My God and My all, I have never ever felt this wonderful, in Your arms. I feel like I have finally found my home. This IS where I belong, with all my poor little heart I feel that."

He answered, "My Dove, do you understand Me, the feeling is totally mutual. I have waited all your lifetime for you to discover that this is where you belong. Yes, I have waited, yearned and sometimes even pined away because you had not yet released yourself into My safe arms.

"You've always had qualms and reservations, distractions and other things. Always these things have pulled your attention away from Me. But now you see, how I have longed for you, how I need you. Oh, how I have waited for you, Beloved Bride of My heart. Yes, I have waited, hoped and prayed for the day you would finally let go of yourself into My arms.

"And now we are truly One. Truly you have passed over the threshold of separateness...into union with Me, and Oh how I have longed for this time.

"I ache inside for My completion through the creature I created from My own substance. Especially because I see the trials and the ugliness of the world you must live in. And oh, what lover wouldn't long to deliver His Bride from the dungeon of this world. Day by day I watch as you struggle with the sea of demons I must continually keep away from you.

"Yes, My love when you feel heaviness, you are indeed swimming in a sea of demons. Like the waters cover the Earth, the demons have now supersaturated your atmosphere with their evil presence. That is why you become so fatigued and weak. They are blood-sucking devils that drain from you your very life substance.

"But because of the prayers of your listeners, I have been able to erect a STRONG defense against them. They will have less and less affect on you as the day draws near."

And then He began to share this interesting bit of news with me. About a month ago, He let me know that February would be a month to wrap it all and be done. But I'm not quite finished yet, and it's almost the end of February. The albums and the thumb drives are not distributed yet and I was doing all of this in sheer, frenzied obedience for the last week. It didn't make sense to me that things would break before the distribution was at least begun.

But we worked on it anyway, out of obedience.

Well, tonight He let me know that in tiny, tiny increments He is extending the time by days, or perhaps weeks. But NOT months! So, we at least have the opportunity to get things published and circulated. I will explain that in greater depth in just a minute.

"I have not told you everything that is to happen. I have given you only bits and pieces, because I do not want you preoccupied with all these things, but keep your eyes on Me. Suffice it to say that terrible days are ahead, but what you have done for Me WILL BEAR FRUIT. You needn't worry, your efforts have not been in vain.

"There is but a little time left to finish this work. Draw it to a close, My love, in total confidence that you truly have done all in your power to make good use of the gifts I entrusted to you. Now that this season is upon us, it is more important than ever for you to cleave to Me day and night.

"Do not worry about your bodies, I am covering and protecting you. And yes, Ezekiel's impulse to pray Psalm 91 every day, even several times a day, was from Me. This will strengthen you in endurance.

"As we bring things to a close, aware that you are living in the last days of this Earth as you have known it, move forward with confidence that your efforts will not be in vain. I have many surprises for you. I am going to do a very slight extension of time for this album to get out, as well as my other co-laborers who are very close to the completion of their tasks. Giving you a deadline was intended to get you to labor intensively towards this goal. Now that you have done that and continue to do that, I am extending time in very, very small increments.

"That means that at any time, things could go south, but you will finish this project before that time. You are not the only one who has assignments that are almost completed. There are many who have been working furiously to finish what needed to be done."

Lord, when you say tiny increments of time, what do you mean... weeks? Days? Months?

"I am watching my prophets as they complete their assignments. The woes of the Tribulation are bursting through the dam, pushing to break forth. It is but a mere tiny grace that they have not inundated you all in disaster.

"That is because I want to see My Children finish their assignments and give this world the very last drops of mercy I can squeeze out. There is too much at stake, and you all are too close to completing your missions. So, I want you to carry them out to completion, knowing that by My strong arm, I am holding back the bursting forth of sorrows."

Lord, would you please tell me, is it days...or weeks?

He answered, "Days. And perhaps weeks. Just work with all your heart to finish your portion. You could call this a stay of execution but only in tiny increments. You do not have months. Don't get comfortable, you don't have months. This depends very much on what gets completed. I wanted you to work with all your hearts and souls, praying, repenting for the nations, that is why I have been guiding you this way. This you have done and I am well pleased."

"Shall I deprive you of the fruit of your labors? No, I will not. But I am not extending the time significantly. Do you understand? The time of 'months' is at an end. When I see that all is in place, I will remove the restraint and it shall break forth. Be on your guard, be vigilant, be ready and finish your portion."

"As you have seen and well understood, everything is in place. The only thing that is lacking is My Word, and that is only being held back by the efforts of My servants to reach the whole world with the opportunity to repent."

I said, "So Lord - You know I'm going to catch it for this, right?"

"And what is that to you? And since when does man dictate to God? I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy."

And I was inspired to look that up, in Romans 9:15 For He says to Moses, "I WILL HAVE MERCY ON WHOM I HAVE MERCY, AND I WILL HAVE COMPASSION ON WHOM I HAVE COMPASSION." So then it does not depend on the man who wills or the man who runs, but on God who has mercy....Romans 9:15-16

He continued, "Don't worry, you have very, very little time. When you have a sense of completion, then you will know that it is any hour. You will feel that completion, you will have peace, great peace, and then it is time to commit to prayer and repentance for the world."

"Do you suppose that when Carol prays intensely for Mercy, that her prayers are NOT heard? I have hundreds like her, who are suffering and praying as well. Shall I ignore them? Yet, the moment of destiny will arrive like a thief in the night, but you will feel you have done all I've asked you to do. You will feel complete. That is the only way I know how to describe it."

"I will give you a grace, a peace that all is finally in order. You will not feel the urgency to do anything else. It will be calm - a deep, deep calm, because all of My prophets are united in the same work. The same Spirit, like blood flowing through the Body, is moving upon them all. And when they have all brought their assignments to completion you will feel it: a deep deep calm. You are all working together, and one communicates with another in a way beyond your present understanding. It is a knowing, a very quiet, deep sense, that it is finished."

"So rest in this. Do not fret, do not let up on your efforts, continue to complete every venue you have begun and when you feel this peace, you will know it is going to happen any moment. "Clare, we must work while we have the light. The sun is setting, but we must catch the last few rays of My Mercy as it dips below the horizon. You will know it is time by a deep, indescribable peace and stillness of soul. You have been working fervently, but you will feel you are at the end. Until then, work as if there were no tomorrow.

"Literally."

I answered the Lord, "Well, I am struggling like anyone else with this news, but I am reminded that several years ago You told me, you will have a sense of completion and peace that you have done all in your power to fulfill My wishes. You will be satisfied that you did your part. Lord, I had forgotten that until tonight."

So, let's not go off the deep end, guys. He said the time of "months" is over. He is doing this in very, very small increments as we all finish what He has given us to do. We are going to know the hour is upon us when we feel there is nothing left for us to do.

After He said this, I saw our guardian angels, standing before us all and making the gesture of quietude, tranquility, rest and ceasing from all work. It was the like the calm before the tornado, and we were all feeling the need to take a deep breath and let it out slowly and be in a posture of vigilant peace.

I don't know what your assignment is, Heartdwellers. But I do know you need to finish it and not be lax in any way whatsoever. The most important thing you can do to prepare is to disseminate teachings. That is the most important thing. God will provide the food and the things that are needed, but the teachings are very important. Especially because Heartdwellers, our website and Youtube - we may not be available through them anymore. So, you may need to leave things behind that family members can read and be encouraged to give their lives to Jesus.

So, when the hour is upon us you will know it by a supernatural quietness of soul. Until then let us work with all our hearts to bring forth and manifest the missions He has entrusted to us.

The Lord bless you with His sweet peace and great wisdom in using this time left to us. Amen

To Satan's Servants, An Invitation From Jesus

February 22, 2016

The blessing of Almighty God be with us today. His protection, His blessing, His sweet presence.

I came into prayer today and I said, "Here I am, Lord."

And He said, "I am eternally here. Eternally merciful, eternally ready to speak to you, My children; to My Bride, to those even that hate Me. Their hatred is for no reason at all. It is based on lies and misunderstanding, alienation and distancing through the world's values that promise happiness but NEVER deliver.

"They promise a place in Hell of high esteem, power and glory. But in Hell there is no esteem, only hatred; no power, only the inability to escape from being tortured, subservience, and disgrace. There is no glory in Hell, My children - there is only disgrace and deprivation. There is no kingdom to rule in Hell; these are all empty promises. There is only unending disgrace and pain. Burning pain, worm-eaten pain, broken bones that grow back only to be broken again and again for all of eternity.

"It's not too late for you. Come to Me and not only will I save you from this eternal punishment, I will protect you from your peers and the very demons that you have consorted with to carry out your evil schemes.

"Do you understand? The powers you have observed do not testify to Truth. They are powers all right - but not eternal powers. No, their powers will end as they are immersed in the Lake of Fire. There is nothing glorious about watching your skin burn and turn black and peel away in the fires...only to grow back again and burn again, and back again and again and again. You believe in these demons because you have seen their power, but you have also seen their limitations. Things they said they could do... that never happened.

"Don't be fooled by this false sense of security and empty promises that you, too, will rule and reign. When you die, you will be dragged down into the pit of Hell, assigned tormenting demons with fire, sword and bludgeon, locked away in a cell, totally isolated from those you were promised you would rule. They will rip chunks of flesh from your body with their teeth and laugh at your excruciating pain. Your body will thirst, but no drink will be given you. Your lungs will gasp, but no air will be given you. Only the stench of rotting flesh will keep you alive for your next round of tortures.

"Does this sound gross to you? Indeed it is gross, but there will be no pain like the pain of having been deceived and confined in this place for eternity, while those Christians you hated will be fed on milk and honey, living in mansions with all they ever hoped or dreamt of having.

"Do you understand? You are dreadfully deceived. Yet there is time to turn around, while you yet live. Come to Me and all will be forgiven. A new life will be yours and I will protect you from your adversaries, because you will be Mine."

And at that point, I said, "Oh Lord, this is all too gross."

"It needed to be said, Clare. There are those listening in that have bought into this lie and I am trying to reach them before it is too late. They have not experienced love. They have not experienced peace. They are perpetually frightened of who has more power and who can still do damage to them. And way in the back of their minds is the thought, 'What if God IS real and sees all I do?'"

"Well, I can answer that for you. I AM real and I have seen, but I suffered the worst torments on the Cross to redeem you from this madness you are living in. Some of you have been promised money and fame. Some of you have acquired money and fame, but you are miserable inside. Why is that? Because money, fame, women - none of these things meet your need to be loved and your need to know Me.

"I created that space inside of you that has been covered over with the rubble of sin. I created that space so I could fill it someday with My love, My caring, My gifts and My guidance. You've not experienced love, so you have no idea how that satisfies that secret place in you. Well, I am here to tell you, there is a place in My Heart for you. You are a masterpiece of My Creation, living in a sewer - and I am coming to get you and restore to you your dignity and the love you crave.

"You needn't live this way anymore. Come to Me and I will bathe you in My Blood and make your blackened soul as white and pure as snow. Come to Me. Don't be afraid, I will cover you. Come to Me."

And I want to add something to this message. You can look up near-death experiences on the Internet, and you can listen to live testimonies of people who have gone to Hell and come back. And what their experience was like. There's plenty of evidence, factual evidence of the difference between Hell and Heaven.

Don't take my word for it - look it up. But especially, someone like John Ramirez, his testimony. He was an ex-Satan worshipper and was assigned, actually was assigning the principalities over New York, he was so high up in the hierarchy of Satanism. He was converted.

Every night, Satan appeared to him and instructed him. So, you might want to listen to his testimony and not take my word for anything.

And what you don't realize is that some of you were created by God to be prophets and healers, but because of the way you were brought up, you were twisted and sought life in the dark things. You were deceived about the true nature of God, even by people in church who were hypocritical.

But God is no hypocrite. Men can be hypocritical, but God is not. If you want to know what He's really like, get to know Him.

The bottom line is, the Lord loves you and you don't know what love is. If you come to Him, you'll find out.

Servants of Satan, Come To Me & I Will Raise You UP

February 23, 2016

The Lord's powerful presence is with us today, Heartdwellers. Even those of you who are not Heartdwellers - those of you who are enemies of God. The Lord is here to declare His love for you.

The Lord Jesus began, "I want to talk to you more about witchcraft. You see, I have been presented in their minds as the enemy. Because I have rules that seem to censor their pleasures, I'm the bad guy. What they are not seeing is that I know the end result of all things. I know they will not be happy if they continue to pursue evil paths. They are of the impression that there's a pot of gold at the end of that rainbow, when truly it is only a marsh of misery and ovens of torment, cages with wild beasts that never get their fill of their flesh.

"I do not wish to deprive them of the things they feel pleasure from, unless it will do them harm in the long run. Like a child who is cold in the winter and finds warmth beside the stove, he figures that if only he could climb into that stove, with all those flames, he would be even warmer and happier.

"Sin gives the impression of pleasure, but whatever pleasure you get from it quickly peters out and then you must sin again and again and again. Until you are locked into an obsession with sin that is never satisfied. In fact, the sins of the past begin to wane in color and intensity, so new ones even more intense in evil and perversion must be found.

"When the soul is born and inhabits the body, it grows and makes choices. The bad choices obscure the light of the soul and cover it over. The good choices bring brightness to the soul and strengthens it."

And this is my aside here - Carol had a vision of one particular Satanist who is a troll on our channel. This poor one's soul was shriveled up in a pitiable mass, shrunken down to be perhaps a tenth of the stature it was created to be. It was all dark, and sick and vile. So He's going to refer to that now, and I just wanted to give you a little reference point on that.

Jesus continued, "When Carol had that vision of a soul who has pursued the devils and lived for Satan, he slowly saps the life out of that soul and replaces it with gross pleasures of the flesh. Satisfaction in wielding power over others through curses and spells. So long as Satan keeps that soul preoccupied with these 'accomplishments' that are in fact robbing them of life, they don't notice it. They continue on, because they find pleasure in retaliation, jealousy and hurting others. It's a false sense of power that brings pride, the pride involved in seeing others suffer at their hands.

"They don't notice how weak they are getting. They may resort to drugs and alcohol to make up for that growing void and darkness within. As they progress down that path, they become less and less useful to Satan, until he finally finishes them off with an overdose, when they are totally wasted. Some seem to thrive on this dark power... until Satan is done with them, that is.

"It's an illusion. A false sense of security, a rush of power, a belief that they are superior and control the world. It is true - much is controlled by them - but only with My permission, because of the sins of men. I use them as My law enforcement specialists, yet still they are on a chain and can go only so far and no further.

"As long as a soul is in favor with the demons, they are fed a counterfeit feeling of great power and accomplishment. But when Satan is done with them, that counterfeit feeling is taken from them and they see themselves as pitiable and all washed up. Then they reach for drugs or weapons to end their lives with - either slowly or all of a sudden. Or the enemy will allow a tragic accident in their lives. He feeds on suffering, and what suffering is more intense than betrayal? When you give your lives to the devils, you will feel good and get good results as long as you are useful to them. However, when they are done with you, your power and control suddenly disintegrate and you are left as the real you: a pitiable wretch.

"This is what was shown to Carol, the state of this one's soul. Frightened, confused, lost, sickly and lacking in the power and beauty of souls that have given themselves to Me. You see, a soul who lives for Me is endowed with power from on high every day. There is no false sense of security, only true security. I protect them, I feed them on milk and honey, I comfort them when they are hurting, I instruct them when they are lost, and daily they grow in stature until they have returned to that purity and union they began this life with.

"They have invested their talents in Me and come away billionaires. Whereas the soul that has entered into a covenant with Satan is day by day having the very life drained out of him, so they no longer resemble the creatures they were when I sent them into the world, and they are paupers. Their sense of security comes from demons assigned to make them feel powerful and they feed them on pride, illusions of grandeur, promises of kingdoms that don't exist, and sensual rewards that last but a moment. Then they die and discover their true state: shriveled and sickly, diseased and filled with filth and stench and utterly powerless against the raging demons in Hell that feed on human flesh and delight in seeing them immersed in fire."

Lord, how can they know that this is true? They've been trained to believe it.

He answered me, "Because even now they can feel the emptiness and filth inside. Even now they ask themselves if these promises of reigning in Hell are real or an illusion. But the devils monitor their thoughts closely and feed them the lies they need when they begin to stray. They arrange situations to give them a sense of power, when in fact they are pawns being duped.

"I love these souls, Clare. I know what they have suffered. If only they would listen to their conscience. If only they would hearken to that still small voice inside that is nagging at them and saying, "This is a lie. Don't do this. You'll regret this." Many times they have participated in such heinous crimes they think they cannot be forgiven. They are indoctrinated at a very young age and fooled into thinking there is no way out. They commit horrendous sins against those who loved them and as a result feel reprobate and hopeless.

"But, My Children emerged in darkness - there is a way out. Take My hand. I am extending it to you. I have come to save you and set you free. I know what you have done. I was there when you opened the flesh of another human being and took their lives. I know all about it and I will forgive you if you come to Me, repentant. I have no desire to see you in Hell with Satan - that is his desire, to destroy you and torture you for eternity. That is not My desire. I want to reconstruct you one brick at a time and restore the purity and power you began with as a child. Something that was taken from you by bad parents and evil relatives and bad circumstances.

"It is something only I can do. But you have to break away from evil. You have to renounce evil and repent of your involvements. You have nothing to fear from Me if you are repentant, nor do you have anything to fear from your peers if you break from them. There is no curse on Earth that can hold you, once you are Mine and renounce Satan. They may try, but you see - I bathe you in My Blood which protects, and assign angels and even keep watch over you Myself. Once you have come to Me, I will not lose you. Even if you should die, your future life is secure with Me. Yet, you will be protected so you may rescue other souls.

"Are you afraid to break away? Call on Me. Call on Me. Say, 'Jesus, help me! Jesus! Protect me - show me the way!'"

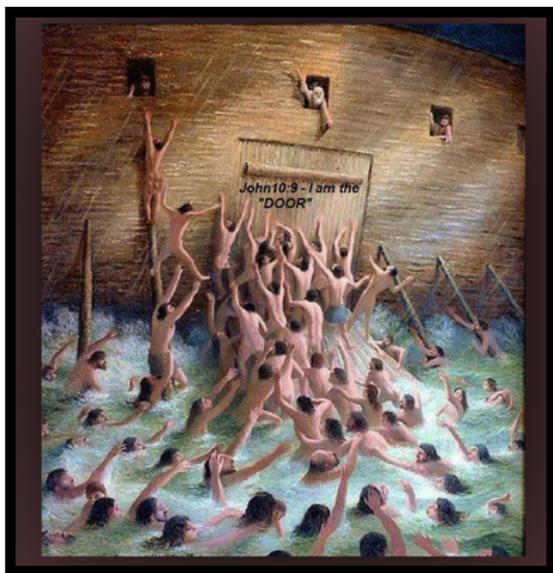

"Are you under the spell of these lies that your family members will be killed if you try? Am I not the Creator of the angels who fell from grace and degraded themselves into these sick creatures? There is no weapon formed against you that will prosper. NO weapon. Not even one. There is no demon more powerful than Me, they are all pitiable in My eyes and in reality.

"If you feel My Love calling you, something in you is stirring. It is My grace; I'm sending it to rescue you from an eternity of intense suffering. I'm stirring you in your souls and calling you forth into the light. Come forth from these dungeons of filthiness. Come to Me and I shall bathe you in My Blood, what I suffered on the Cross and restore your soul. I will use you to set other captives free and you shall know the power of My redeeming Love. I will transform and heal the wounds that are festering in your souls. Yes, I will pour clean water on you and cleanse you from all your iniquities.

"Then I will raise you up with My Grace into the stature of someone you never thought you could be. I long to deliver you out of the darkness into My glorious light. Do not delay and say to yourself, 'Me? a Christian?! Ha, God will never receive me after all I've done.' Lies, I tell you. Lies and more lies. I delight in transforming the worst specimens of humanity into great saints. Many of My prophets and ministers came out of the place you are in right now and I raised them up.

"Come to Me. Come wretched, sin-sick and beyond hope. Come and I will restore you. I will build you up, put a coat upon your back, a ring upon your finger and call you My Beloved."

3 Prophetic Dreams Today, WW3 is About to Start

February 23, 2016

The Lord is wanting us to be really ready, guys. One of our prayer warriors had this dream/vision this morning that I'm going to share with you. She's very, very reliable. And several other people have had confirmations today, as well. She's not the only one. So, I'm going to share those with you very quickly.

Woman's vision begins:

Woman: Okay, I awakened - it was around 4:00 this morning, or maybe a little bit after. And I knew it was the Lord. I said, "Okay..." And He just wanted me to listen. He said, "Just listen." And He was SO intense, it was so intense. And He showed me. He said, "This...we are in the time, we are in the time of exactly how it was with Noah and how the people were and how the people acted around Noah's time. We're in that right now. There are SO MANY that need to be saved, that aren't saved."

And He showed me my family and I saw my two children, Stephen and Stephanie. I didn't even say anything, it was just in the thought, it was all thought transferred without speaking. And before I could even finish thinking about my kids, He said, "I've got them." He showed me with His hands are around them. He was touching both my kids. He said, "Don't worry. Don't worry about the kids - I've got them." And I said, "Okay."

He showed me that verse, where it says the whole household would be saved (Acts 16:31) - He showed me that. He said, "This is a very intense time right now." Intense, as though it were all held together by a string that's about to break - that's the only way I can show it to you, to explain it.

There's a lot going on in the Middle East right now. He didn't reveal it to me. He said, "I can't tell you everything because it will scare you too bad. There's things I can't tell you because it is too much, it's too much for you."

So, He's holding some things back from me, from us, you know, all of us. He showed me where His Father is preparing Him to take the Church. He's preparing Him to take His Church Home. He's in that process right now. I don't know how long that's gonna be, how long that's gonna take. We don't know. But it is REALLY SOON. I don't know the day or the hour, but it's very close.

He said the important thing - and He's given me instructions. I've ordered every book I could get from you and Ezekiel - I've ordered a whole bunch of books. He said the important thing for you to do is, don't concentrate so much on your DVD's ('cause I have a whole stack of them done). Now I want you to start getting things in writing, in case everything goes down and they can't use any of the equipment. And you (Clare) had just said that, but He reiterated it, what you said.

And I thought, 'I know, Lord. Clare said that.'

And He said, "You need to concentrate on nothing else. Don't worry about the artwork. Don't worry about ANYTHING. The main thing I want you to do right now is to get this stuff down on paper. Finish up the things you need to write."

It's like there's an intensity of getting everything done and ready.

And I said, "Okay." Don't even leave the house. And He said, Stay low. Stay out away from the world, separate yourself from the world now. It's time to..." He - how do I put it. He's gathering His baby, that's how He described it. His precious, precious babies. And He's gathering them and separating them from people who have to go through the Tribulation, because they don't get it, they don't listen. Those are the ones who have to go through the winepress.

For us? We just have to witness as much as we can to as many people as we can in this late hour. That's the most important thing, is witnessing and praying. Praying constantly. Praying and praying and praying and staying in the Word. Staying close to Him and walking with Him.

He showed me the Door. There's the Door of Mercy. He showed me the Door, but I'm not quite sure how much space is left 'till when the Door closes. I'm seeing the Door, and the Door's closing. It's almost closed, Clare - it's almost closed. If it's not closed completely. I'm not sure on that.

It's like He's tying...He's done! He's done. He's tying things up and He's done, He's done. That's why He's telling us, get ourselves in order, get ready. Be ready, be ready, be ready was the main thing.

When I saw the Father preparing the Son, I saw God the Father...He's so tender and so loving and...oh, the Love of Jesus. It's so much, Clare - there's just so much love, so much love!!

Clare: I know. I know!

Woman: Jesus WANTS to be with us so much more than we want to be with Him!! How can that be?? He wants us. He wants to take us Home, He's very, very excited and anxious - He's really excited about taking us Home. But at the same time, He's grieving. I saw... Grieving, like He's on His hands and knees, on a chair, His head on the chair - grieving. And the Father's comforting Him. I saw it so clear.

Clare: So, apart from her dream we've had two more people come forward with confirmations of what is about to take place.

One came to me in the form of an email, which was a confirmation of what we know is going to happen. Probably with the East coast and New York, that there's going to be a tremendous tsunami. A tsunami will occur commensurate with a nuclear attack.

And here is the dream that one of our other prayer warriors has had:

Judgment is coming.

While I was sleeping, I felt the Lord's mighty presence in my bedroom and I could feel my spirit rising out of my body cause the Lord wanted to show me something regarding the Judgment that is coming upon the land very soon.

What I saw was horrendous and so destructive.. First it began with me seeing a vision and it was dark. I could see waves and waves of the ocean moving really fast and rising very quickly. Then, all of sudden, the Lord allowed me to see the water rising up to the top of high buildings and the buildings started crumbling and falling like dominoes. People were drowning, screaming calling for help, grabbing on to building debris which was everywhere you looked, dead bodies floating, floating cars, houses destroyed and looked like matchsticks , everything was being swallowed by huge and mighty high waves of water and strong winds.

This unprecedented disaster happened so quickly without warning. It looked like the world was ending. In the dream, I cried so much, seeing this happening before my eyes. It was so sad to witness, but the Lord wanted me to see it to share with others that Judgment is coming fast and furious and without warning.

Then in another scene of the dream, I looked up from witnessing this disaster and there was a bright light coming from the sky.

I was being pulled up and I saw ribbons of many colors just hanging down and as you grabbed a ribbon there were other Brides of Christ that had just arrived there and the Brides were beautiful in majesty and splendor, adorned and dressed exquisitely and there was such purity. My mother was there with the other Brides and I was so happy to see her.

End of Dream

Next vision:

Clare: Okay, go ahead. You felt in the spirit someone came and visited you.

Woman: Well, I was at the end of the Mercy Prayer, and I saw someone - in the spirit. I saw an angel come up. He came up to my left side. I asked him - is it all right to wait to get through the Mercy Prayer? And he said...he just stood there. And I said, "Okay." So I finished. And then he took a scroll and he handed it to the Lord. And the Lord was standing there with another angel, who I kind of recognize as my guardian angel. He took the scroll and He opened it up and looked at it, read it for a minute. And then He started, you know - pointing and giving orders and...you know, just stuff was going on.

And the image that I got in my head, the analogy was General Robert E. Lee in his tent. A courier comes bustin' up, you know - clomping into the tent, hands him the orders and General sits there and looks at what's going on, and he goes flying into action - starts sending his corporals and all the other people out to do what they need to do.

I actually...well, I asked Sherry to pray over it, because the Lord kept nudging me, "Call Sherry. Call Sherry. Call Sherry."

I said, "Okay - I'll call her!" The Holy Spirit said that was exactly what was happening. He confirmed that that was exactly what was happening.

So, there you have it, guys. We have three different confirmations that the Lord is at the door, that the end HAS come. And I'm going to ask you to pray the Divine Mercy chaplet non-stop to hold that door open a little bit longer, while we get all of the materials distributed and out to where they need to go. Please, please pray for more Mercy and more time. Just a little more time and more Mercy.

Please, please pray that everything will be expedited and get out and into the hands of the right people, the left behind.

And as you'll remember last week, that I talked to you about the Lord was delaying the Rapture by increments - by tiny increments. Well, very interestingly, we got a confirmation on that. I want to read it to you.

Sister Clare,

I had a dream some weeks ago.

I saw I was in an exam hall, with the test paper in my hand and everyone was seated. I was surprised that it hadn't started yet. When I saw the clocks and saw the time was extended by microseconds!

And then again extended by one microsecond and then again.

I was really surprised and kept this dream to myself.

Your word about extension of time, in tiny increments, is a confirmation to me.

So, the Lord IS extending it. I think, possibly according to our prayers. So, please - pray that we'll have just a little more time left to get everything into the hands of the right people.

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers. Thank you for being so faithful. Thank you for praying for us and for the whole world. Truly the Lord's heart is moved to pity right now, because of all the souls that will be lost. So, keep Him tender company and pray.

Your Prayers Are Holding Back The Father's Wrath

February 24, 2016

The Lord's blessing is with us, Heartdwelling Family.

Tonight, when I came into prayer I gotta admit - I was pretty wound up, getting things together for publishing and so on. By the way, I'll let you know when the albums are available on Amazon.

So, I began my prayer time with the Lord by saying, "Oh Lord, I'm so wound up you could use me as a sling shot!"

And He answered me, "And I will, right into the center of My will and reaching the very center of the wills of others. You are My Little Holy Sling Shot to bring down the Goliath of uncertainties that will most certainly trouble My People."

Lord, You call them 'My people.' Can you explain what You mean? Are they a part of the Bride?

"They are a part of Me. I long to have them return to Me and embrace Me as their God, having forsaken the world and all its empty allurements. Yes, indeed they will forsake it - it will be no more. Then they will find what they have always longed for. They will find Me. Not even one will be alone. I will be a Father, a Lover, and a Brother to them, and communication with Me will be so much simpler as a special dispensation of grace will fall on all souls who call on Me in the Tribulation."

"Clare, didn't I tell you not to worry, that My words to you would not return to Me void? Where is your faith, Daughter?"

And He was referring there to my head spinning and spinning and these thoughts that keep coming, that I'm wasting my time doing these things - there's not time for anyone to hear them or to be distributed or anything like that. The devils have been plaguing me with those thoughts. And sometimes I get weak, and I give in to them.

So, I answered Him, "My head is still spinning with all that is left to do?"

He continued, "My Mercy and understanding are without limit on your behalf. You have given Me so much, Clare. Shall I not humor you for a brief minute?"

I have not completed my list, and my head is still swimming.

"Yes, I know. And I am here, holding you, Clare. I am truly bringing you back down to the basics of comforting Me. I long for the day we shall stand face to face."

Oh, Lord - the very thought leaves me breathless! I wonder if I will collapse in joy? Please calm me down! I'll be glad when that peace You promised descends on me and I can say, "It is finished."

"Until that fateful moment, continue to provide for our children. They continue to come, you know.

And, I haven't looked. I didn't know exactly what He was talking about, but then I figured it out: subscribers. I haven't looked at that recently.

And He said, "There's no need to look, just continue everyday to bring them fresh manna. I have many angels Clare, more than you could count in an earthly lifetime." (Wow! That's a LOT!) "And I want to assure you that every effort you have made and are making will bear good fruit to reach My people with the truth.

"Please, do not let yourself be intimidated by threats that what you are doing is in vain. It is NOT in vain, I am with you, Child."

Thank you for that, Jesus. Please help me to focus on that truth.

"As for the rest of you My Brides, please do leave ample materials behind for your friends and relatives. If you had but one book to leave, besides My Word, The Rapture Was Real, will help them get a handle on what has just taken place and who they are to Me. It is so important they find out how loving and approachable I am, that I can be trusted. That they can count on Me. Plus the thumb drives that Ezekiel and Clare are preparing. Understand that I am holding back situations right now that would make distribution impossible. I cannot do this for long, so see to it that you get what is needed."

And I answered Him there, because I want all you guys to know that we offer everything free. It's just the form that it comes in that has to be paid for. We're even paying for the Tethered Album that will be on Amazon, so you'll only pay shipping on that if you order it. But everything that we have is free, as a download on Hearthdwellers.org.

So I said to the Lord, "Well, Lord, there are free downloads - they don't have to buy anything.

And He answered, "But the book is handy and compact. That's why I recommend it."

Well, yes, we designed it that way on purpose. I'm sure Holy Spirit had a hand in that....

"So am I!"

Oh, Lord dealing with all this last minute stuff is so exhausting and tense!

"My Love, the exhaustion and tension you are feeling are nothing compared to the sorrow I must carry in My heart for the souls I will never will be able to have with Me in Heaven."

When He said that, I saw His heart, and it was torn open and raw, blood flowing copiously.

He continued, "The Heart of Your God has been wounded almost beyond repair, if that were possible. Do you understand? These children that will die in this war, I love very tenderly, like innocent babes. I long to gather them into My House where all is safe. But first they must give their consent, and so few are paying any attention at this critical hour. And when they do wake up it will be too late.

"But never underestimate the power of My Mercy. Do you truly believe you can wedge that door of Mercy open with prayers as it tries to close?"

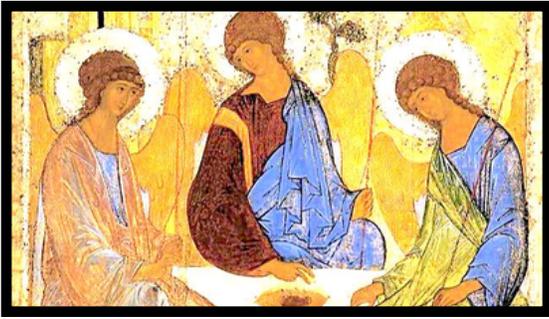

Yes, Lord - I believe that you will respond to our prayers with much Mercy, because You Yourself have told me so.

"That's the faith I love to see. I love to hear those words from you My Dear and Precious Love. How you have grown in the faith! Do you hear that My People, the answer is 'YES!' Your prayers ARE holding back the Father's wrath. Continue to prepare and pray and keep your hearts only for Me.

"Do not allow the enemy to sidetrack you, lest your lamp go out. We must work while there is still a sliver of light. Do all in your power to make men love Me, My Bride. Do all in your power, and what is not in your power, I will make up with My grace.

"Go now and tend to My flock. Call on Me and I will deliver you from all your fears and crown your every effort with copious fruit for eternity."

Holy Spirit's Desire for You & Purity vs. Sex

February 26, 2016

The sweet and comforting presence of Holy Spirit be with you all.

Just to make you aware, guys, I've been working rather full-time on the thumb-drive contents and on the album. So, if you notice that I miss a couple of messages, please understand it's because I'm way over my head in work. But we're almost done! The album is up for production and the thumb drive - well, we're still working on that a little bit. It's going to be a very big download, it'll take time to download that onto your OWN thumb drives. And you'll be able to do that and we'll be able to give you a link for that, which could be by Monday. And you can either order a thumb drive from Amazon, the cost of which will be just the cost of shipping and handling. We're not making any money on these, we're not interested in making money. We're interested in getting the Word out.

So, you'll be able to order that just for the cost of shipping and handling. We've had donors come forward and contribute to that project, so you wouldn't have to pay for it.

Interestingly enough, it turns out that that thumb drive is twice as much as the album. But it has an awful lot of material in it. Just be patient while it downloads if you're going to make your own thumb drives.

That said, I guess you could probably put two and two together and figure out I also got into prayer late last night. Oh, my goodness - I miss having ample time for prayer! I miss being with the Lord for long periods of time. And last night, Holy Spirit predominated - and I think that's because the Lord is really, really tied up with preparations for taking His Bride and bringing as many souls as possible to Him before it all breaks loose.

When I came into prayer, for several minutes the Lord allowed me to see Himself covered. Just totally covered in blood. The way that He appears in that movie The Passion. It was just blood from head to toe and it was just unbelievable, unbelievable - the condition of His body. He is suffering so much right now, guys. So much. For that reason, Holy Spirit took His place during my prayer time. But I know that He's gathering up souls and He's also watching all the doings of men that is going to result in the most tragic, tragic loss of life and souls that's ever happened on this Earth. Because this Earth is far more populated now than it was in the time of Noah.

Holy Spirit was the one Who showed up for prayer time tonight.

Last night my head was spinning, as usual, whenever I have to interface with the world a lot. I began our time together:

It took a long while by You, Holy Spirit, to finally pry me away from my busywork and spinning mind. Oh, thank You, Dear God, for rescuing me from myself and the world.

My sweet Heart dwelling family, I have to tell you: Holy Spirit is a wonderful man. Very clean cut, blond hair, blue eyes, tall and slightly Nordic looking. He is a total gentleman, totally focused love and totally ours, in a very unique and pure way. He's both yours and mine individually.

I want to take a moment here, guys, to mention something, because there's been some terrible lying and slandering against the relationship that we have with Holy Spirit and with Jesus. So, I'm going to take a moment to establish something again, something that somehow my critics don't seem to be able to hear, though I've said it so many times before. While the relationship with Jesus and Holy Spirit is very, very romantic, it is even more pure and never is there a hint of impropriety or sexual innuendos.

Jesus is a virgin and so is Holy Spirit, and anyone who cannot see or receive that needs a grace to deliver them from unclean obsessions with sex. God is pure, love for God is pure, and if you ever have any hints of sexual behavior, understand you are dealing with either a demon or your own mind that needs deliverance. People who take these messages and twist them to be sexual have serious psychological problems and need help. Please pray for them.

There is no sex in Heaven, just to reiterate what I've told you so many times before - there's no sex in Heaven. There is no sexual relationship with any vision of Heaven, God or the angels, or saints. If you are seeing something like that, you are looking at a demonic manifestation. Rebuke it and renounce it in the Name above all names, in the Name of Jesus. And if you must, call upon the Holy Angels to remove those filthy unclean creatures.

So - that said, I can continue on with this message, knowing that you're not going to take it the wrong way.

Holy Spirit is a wonderful man. Very clean cut, blond hair, blue eyes, tall and slightly Nordic looking. He is a total gentleman, totally focused love and totally ours, in a very unique way. Both yours and mine individually.

As I have explained before, there is an imprint from God - this is what I've been instructed in. An imprint from God, a combination of unique attributes that each of us possesses, and none of us is identical. For that reason, God finds consolation in each of our unique personalities and you satisfy His longing for Love and Worship in a way no other soul can. He longs for you to see Him as the God He is, in the form of a man, and for you to cultivate your own relationship with Him. The Comforter.

It has taken me a long, long time to finally accept His Person in the image of a man. For years I kept Him at arms length, but He continued to try and break through all my silly fears. Tonight, I finally relaxed with Him as we danced and just fell head over heels in love with Him! Oh, how gentle He is! He gave me lots of time to adjust to His person, rather than dancing with Jesus.

Sweet Lord please speak to us.

Holy Spirit began: In My arms, you can be totally at home and rest. I love to saturate your mind with Holy thoughts, with peace, with understanding of the Scriptures and the profound love I have for you. For far too long I have been seen as a bird, yet truly I am made in the image of a man, not with feathers, but with flesh and skin, just like you. For we have made you in Our Image, and we each long to enter into a deep abiding relationship of worship and holy conversation with you. My heart is to instruct and edify each of you, keeping you company and companionship as it is written of Me, when Jesus said,

And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever. These things I have spoken to you while abiding with you. But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you. John 14:24-26

As the Holy Spirit continued here: "Do not be afraid to approach Me. Don't you realize I am with you always, speaking to you constantly, arranging circumstances in your lives from moment to moment and even giving you the right words and attitudes when you need counsel."

Boy, I can really feel Him helping me tug away from my flesh when I lose it!

"When you lose something, call upon My help."

You know, guys - I'm going to take an aside here. I've been doing that. I don't care if it's a computer that is messing up, or if I lost something. We won't talk about that tooth... I think that's an exercise in humility - which I need pretty badly... I prayed and asked Him to help me, but we never found it.

But most of the time, when I lose something, I ask Holy Spirit, 'Please show me where I put it?' And within a second, I spot whatever it was I was looking for. He is amazing! Don't forget to ask Him to help you find things, it really works.

So, to continue on with what He was saying.

"When you face situations beyond your sphere of understanding, ask of Me and I shall give to you liberally, all you need."

And I wanted to say, I picked up some kind of silly virus on my computer, a search engine that signs you into all your accounts. That's not good! I was very foolish and pressed "yes, install button" and bang - I had this thing on my computer and I couldn't manage my Home page or anything. And Ezekiel came over and laid hands on me and said, "Holy Spirit, please show her how to get rid of that." And the next moment, I went into my Firefox browser settings and I got rid of it. It was amazing, because I had looked this up on the Internet - other people have struggled and struggled to get rid of this thing, and they can't. Because the folders are hidden in the computer and they don't have the same name.

So, that's the kind of thing Holy Spirit will do for you. He's just amazing! He knows everything.

I know a lady in Montana who had problems with her car and she had to put in a new engine, she didn't know anything about mechanics. She knew NOTHING. But the Lord told her in prayer that He would instruct her on how to put the engine in. And would you believe? She did it! All by herself! Amazing! Just amazing.

So, He can do anything. He has all the knowledge that we need at any one time. And you know the Lord has said in the Scriptures, "Anyone who asks for Wisdom - I'll give it to them. Just ask."

Continuing on, Holy Spirit said, "So many, many times, you are listening to Me but thinking it is the voice in your own mind, when in fact I am infusing you with My understanding. Expect Me to answer you when you have questions. Expect me to help you find things. Expect me to coach you through situations and even start your car when it stalls, send someone to help you when you have a flat, inspire others to extend help when it is needed. All you need to do is ask! I'm right here with you.

"You see - I, too, am with you always. We are inseparable, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Where one is, so is the other. There is no hour in the day or night that I am not with you and even speaking to you. Learn to recognize My presence that is continually with you. I rush on My servants with knowledge, wisdom, prophecy, virtue, and so many other things, too numerous to mention. Why? Because you NEED Me, because I was promised to you, and God never breaks His promise.

"The only reservation you should have concerning Me is not to ever grieve Me. Yes, truly I am a gentleman and gossip, impure conversation, bearing false witness, stealing and sexual sins I can not bear to be around and so I withdraw from those who practice these things. I am ever so sensitive to the wounding of other souls, when they are not present to defend themselves or even at all. I hate to see anyone hurt. I am so easily grieved by talk about My vessels unto honor and when you begin that kind of detraction, I have no other recourse than to withdraw from you.

"So please, do not run Me off. Watch your heart particularly carefully. Watch what you listen to and look at. Keep your mind pure, keep your thoughts pure. Avoid judging others. Your heart should be a dwelling fit for Me."

And that was the end of His message.

I want to talk a little bit, just for a moment, about the Trinity. I've spoken with many Muslims that God is One - there's no such thing as three Persons. This whole concept came when the Lord incarnated. It was always true, because if you go back to Genesis, even in the Koran "We will make man in OUR image." That's plural.

So, New Agers would say, "Well, that's space people talking," you know. No - that's God talking and He's talking about the three manifestations that He has, the three different forms that He manifests in - the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

And this is how I describe it to people that have a problem with the Oneness of the Trinity:

Take an egg, for example. You have a shell, you have a yolk and you have a white. It's still an egg, it's only one egg. It just has three parts. So, the shell is the part that you see. And you could equate that with Jesus, because He incarnated for you to see Him. The yolk, you could take as the Father, the creative part of the egg. And the white you could take as Holy Spirit, the nourishing part of the egg.

So, you see - there's three natures in one God. And why did the Lord do this? Very simply: when you go back to early times, in order to have a relationship with man there had to be respect. And so, in the early days, there was quite a bit of tremendous power associated with God. He was unapproachable, like Mount Sinai: "If anyone sets a foot on this mountain, they will instantly die." That's Exodus. That became the personality of God, the I AM.

But then, Jesus incarnated to redeem us from our sin natures, because man had sinned. And there was no way he could restore himself. So, Jesus incarnated and in doing that, He unfolded the nature of God right before our very eyes - the compassion, the mercy, the Love. The long-suffering. Oh my goodness, He gave us so many lessons, so many lessons in the nature of Love, which is the true nature of the Father.

So, the relationship changed with Jesus, from the Old Covenant to the New Covenant and the revealing of the True Nature of Love of the Father. But Jesus could not leave us alone. So the Father sent the Spirit. And even now He dwells within us, as it is written in John the 14th chapter.

Another way that you can see how this works, just by looking at a human being. A man has a body. He has a soulish nature, with his thoughts and emotions. And he has a spirit, the very essence of his being. There's three parts there, just the way the Trinity is. But it's still one man.

So, for any of you who have been struggling with the Trinity and the concept of the Trinity, I hope this helps.

The Lord bless you all and understand that I'm working full-time getting things together for the thumb drive, which should be done on Monday. And then the messages will be a little bit more consistent.

Love you all and thank you for being on our channel.

What Must Come to Pass

February 28, 2016

The blessing of our sweet Jesus and Holy Spirit be with you all, Heartdwellers.

Well, you can imagine, dear family, I've been spinning and spinning, working on the thumb drive contents. So, my mind has been in that place that takes a lot of energy to calm down. I'm sure you can relate. It's kinda like an ocean-going freighter; you can't just turn the ship and be on your way, it takes five to ten miles to complete the turn. And so, with a mind engaged in busy work, it takes time to tune back in to our Sweet Lord. And that's all part of hearing the Lord - being able to "tune in" to His channel.

Well, He came and held me to His heart so tightly and yet tears were streaming down His cheeks. He said, "I am in oceans of sorrow for what must come to pass."

I was feeling remiss, so many of you on the channel have such tender hearts, you talk about how you are moved to tears when you see Him hurting. I confess, I feel like I must be very callous, because I seem to roll over it with only a sinking feeling in my heart. As a consequence of that, I seriously doubt my love for Him...how can I be so unmoved by seeing Him in this state?

Jesus, of course, knew my thoughts. He was holding me close. He began, "We are united, Clare, on so many different levels but were I to release to you all that you truly feel to your conscious mind, you would cease functioning."

But Lord, I feel like my heart is callous and dead.

"Your heart has calluses on the outside to protect what goes on inside...truly, you are compassionate. The enemy would like you to think badly of yourself - has he not always been the accuser, Clare?"

Lord, I must trust You in that, I just want to be one with You and I truly want to console you. Please, help me love You more.

He answered me, "It's coming, it's coming... but shall I slay you with grief to get you there?"

I just cannot connect with that, Lord, I just can't.

"A man is known by his fruit, that should give you at least a clue. Stop quibbling with Me and take My word for it. Cease this condemnation and settle it once and for all in your mind. Your heart is tender beyond tender...I dwell there. Your thoughts and Mine are one in the same."

And, I'd like to take just a moment and explain what He means there. When I sit down to listen to Him for a message for you, or just to listen to Him because I want to be with Him - He puts thoughts in my head, they just kind of bubble into my head. Really, it's like an infused knowledge, an infused understanding. Sometimes He dictates to me very clearly, and other times He gives me an understanding and then I have to put it into my own words. So, He does dwell there. And He dwells in your heart and your mind as well, if you've given your life to Him. He's there, living there. And many times His thoughts ARE your thoughts. You just don't recognize them.

And it's interesting, because Ezekiel pulled a card from our card file and I just noticed it a few moments ago. This is what it says: "When you feel the impulse to condemn, you are receiving a thought from the demon, or your fleshly, prideful mind." So, that's a confirmation that the condemnation is NOT conviction from the Lord, it's condemnation from the enemy trying to make me feel like I don't care.

So, He held me for quite a long time, at least three of Terry MacAlmon's songs. And I could feel the love exchange between us so strongly, heart to heart. I, aware of His divinity, was worshipping Him in the songs. And He, aware of my frailty, was filling me with His strength, His love and affirmation. But then the time came when He said, "You must go to work now, My Love." And I refocused my attention on sharing this with you.

Right now, my fellow brides, the Lord needs your comfort and faithfulness to finish whatever is before you. Truly what is written in the Book of Revelation must soon begin to unfold. He is heartsick and longs for the tender touch of His Bride caressing His Brow and comforting Him.

And that's the end of the message for tonight.

Just a note, you may want to hold off on downloading the thumb drive contents until it is complete, there are quite a few changes coming - that's what I'm working on now. Hopefully tomorrow it will be complete, I'm hoping. I will share it's contents with you when I am finished, so you know what to expect. In the meantime, your prayers mean a lot to me. Please pray that our Heart Dwellers team will finish our assignments without leaving out a thing.

Carol just finished editing another book, a companion volume to the Tethered volume. She is including all the messages on Heaven, so that those who are left behind will be able to look forward to their reward after the Tribulation.

The Lord bless you all and thank you so much for your prayers and support.

The Vine of Our Love & Age of Accountability

February 29, 2016

The Lord be with you, Heartdwellers.

Since I've been tied up working on the thumb drive, Ezekiel has been getting a few messages from the Lord. I'm going to share some journal entries that he made, that are going into the 2nd volume of Chronicles of the Bride - if that ever gets done in the time left to us.

He began:

Thank You, Lord Jesus, for having me come into Your holy presence once again. I almost can't believe that here I am again, just past midnight on Sunday morning. I almost can't believe that it's been a few weeks from the last time that we spoke like this. I wanted a rhema word from You, to know better what is on your heart and mind. I pulled a card from one of our little rhema boxes and read this beautiful word from You. "I am bringing You into My chambers."

Oh, my God and my King, what a wonderful invitation! I know that there've been times in the past when you've taken me to see the place that You have prepared for me. And now, You're actually going to take me to Your very chambers? It all seems a bit much...I mean, I don't think that I've been a very good servant for You - or others lately. I've been quite distracted with my own sickness and pain.

I've had to work hard just to remember to thank You for all the many things that You've done FOR us and IN us and THROUGH us. I feel it in my heart, but I know that I don't say it enough. I am embarrassed to say that I don't appreciate everything and everyone more.

The Lord began, "My Beloved and My Greatly Cherished One. Do you not know by now the long-standing agreement between myself and your soul?"

Forgive me, Lord. I do forget many things. The only thing that I can recollect is a kind of unspoken offering in which I try to give You my normal sleep hours to keep You company through the night, and go to sleep just before or after daylight. Now that it's beginning to get warmer outside, it's a little harder, because there are so many things out there in the world, and I'm so easily distracted by the beauty of the outdoors and Your creation!

After having experienced the sweetness of Your presence, life on this Earth seems to hold absolutely nothing for me. I would much rather tuck into a small niche somewhere, where I could simply be with You and pray.

The Lord answered, "And that is precisely what I mean! It is because of a singular grace that I have instilled deep inside of you. This is a very special grace that I have reserved throughout the centuries, only granting it to those whose main desire in life is to be in My presence and remain there at all costs."

"I have said it before, that the person, place or thing that you most find your mind drifting off to - those persons, activities and otherwise that you have a habitual attachment to; these are the little foxes who gnaw at the vine. And what is the Vine? It is the vine of our love.

"It is good that you've been calling upon My angels more, particularly your guardian angel. I HAVE given them charge over you. And one very important thing that they do for you is to remind you. They work very closely with My Holy Spirit, of whom it is written: 'He will guide you into all truth concerning me.'

"So, as for your desire to know better what is on My heart and mind, know this: as with you, many of My thoughts come and go. However, not one of them is ever lost. But they are kept in the sacred annals of eternity. The only exception to that are the sins that have been sincerely confessed and repented for. Both they and any thought of them are cast into the Sea of Forgetfulness. They simply are swallowed up in the Ocean of My Fathomless Mercy and are no more.

"The one thought, however, that never, ever leaves the forefront of My mind is souls.

"Souls. Souls. I can never forget the masses of unsaved men and women AND adolescents. I purposely did not mention children. Why? Because a little child does not yet possess the faculties of the older ones. I am speaking about having an informed conscience. In other words, most little children, up to the age of 6 or 7 simply do not have the life experience yet to make an absolute 'yes' or 'no' decision as an act of their free will. Nor do they have a full understanding of exactly what 'sin' is.

"This is all to say that truly, depending on the child's parents and the circumstances that surround the life of the child, they cannot be held accountable at such a young age. Truth IS Truth, and each soul is different, depending on the grace that he or she is given. There are, of course, more rare situations, whereby a child of 7 or under may very well already have a well-informed conscience. But always remember: with Me there is fathomless Mercy and a fullness of Redemption.

"I nurse every lamb and lovingly cradle each sheep.

"Go now, and do likewise."
