

The Parable of The Guarded Honeybees and the Pilgrim

November 2, 2016

Well, my beloved Heartdwellers. The Lord is so rich in wisdom, and He's continually showing me new things. There is nothing boring about the Christian life!

And I want to share a parable with you today. The Parable of the Guarded Honeybees and the Pilgrim

Once there was a dear soul who had become restless with the dreary life she was living and longed to travel and find a way of living that was different from what she had known. The deep forests attracted her sense of adventure, but she was fascinated with the varieties of honeys from the bees all around the world. So she made it a point to visit the their hives in her journeys.

The pilgrimage proved long and little sustenance could be found along the way. When she came across a hive in the forest, desiring to be nourished on the sweet nectar, she devised many ways to get to the honey. She learned about smoking the bees out, speaking to them kindly, or calling them out with sweet strains from the flute. She even waited for the bears to despoil the hive so she could come and eat from the leftovers.

There were a few successes in obtaining the nectar...but it would always end in disappointment, when she would get stung several times and her encounter would end with sadness and bitterness, though the honey was at first sweet.

This caused her to have a great fear of the hives though the Lord had put a deep desire in her for the nectar.

So she went from forest to forest, far and wide through the mountains and plain and even found a hive in the remains of an elk. But as always, it ended in painful stings, and she began to have a great fear of hives.

One day, she met a fellow traveler who was more experienced and wiser than she and he told her of a faraway mountain where the bees were kept by the Master, who taught them to share their honey and keep very careful watch over the hive, so only the choicest pure honey from Heaven would be made.

Still, the bees had their own struggles, but they had learned that only the flowers the Master provided produced fine honey, not contaminated by molds and toxic fumes from the world.

So, she set off to this place and finally arriving there, found that it was very heavily guarded. Of course, the Master had seen many who came to steal the hives or destroy them, and they had all experienced heavy losses from careless people who came to take and not consider the needs of the bees. It had taken many years for them to recover from these losses, so the Master kept a close watch over the hives.

Well she, by this time, was quite afraid of beehives, because she had never visited a hive that would not end up hurting her. So, she assumed this hive was just like them all. She judged that this hive might have great honey, but no hive could be trusted. When she was allowed to enter the gates, she carried with her the fear of the bees, because in her mind they were just like all the others.

She tried to fight these feelings as she camped nearby, but one night after she had tasted some extraordinary honey, she became afraid that the Master would control her, too - so she purposed in her mind to leave quietly without anyone noticing.

Her fear had mastered her. Her desire for the honey the Master had made was great, but she wasn't in control of her own desire; rather the fear of being stung was in control.

So she left without getting a jar of the precious amber honey the Master had prepared just for her.

She continued to go from hive to hive on her pilgrimage, but she always balked when she got close to the honey, because the choicest, pure honeys from Heaven were guarded and that intimidated her. She might lose control...cause that's how she got stung before.

So she wandered the Earth, growing more hungry and frail with predators following her. And she went without the nourishment and protection of the guarded pure honeys for the rest of her days.

So, what is the moral of this story?

When we have a fear of anything, it's usually a survival instinct because we've been hurt before. So we cover up and protect ourselves. We avoid all situations where we could be hurt because we don't want to be controlled by anyone or anything. We don't trust anyone.

This is how Satan gets direction of our lives; this is how HE controls us. Because of our fear, he knows what to make us think so we will avoid something or some place. So when the soul gets close to something that is guarded, authentic and healthy - the enemy insinuates, "They will control you. You don't want to be controlled do you?" And they're scared away.

But in reality, Satan knows what he stands to lose where the honey is guarded. He knows that there is wisdom and nourishment in the ways of those guarded honeybees. And if that soul begins to trust and truly listen they will be armed against the assaults he wants to make on them until they are thoroughly despoiled of their gifts.

Satan has determined who could be a threat to his kingdom and so he teaches them the way of fear, so fear will easily steer them away from what could have saved them. He also has vowed to isolate them so they will have no further wisdom than their own. He plays on their pride and tells them, "You have no need to listen to them, you already know this. You know what's important. If you listen to them - they will control you."

When the soul is convinced of all those things, they are already full; there is no empty space to receive fresh, sweet, pure honey - though they languish for it. So they go on undernourished, making the same mistakes over and over again. Manipulated by fear, they avoid the guarded honey and any wisdom they might share, lest they be controlled by them.

Further, the enemy falsely accuses the innocent guarded bees and if the soul listens, she has opened yet another door for his workers of iniquity to weaken them.

Yet, the irony of it for the soul who is dreadfully afraid of being controlled, is that they are no longer in control of their own lives. All their actions are controlled by the fear of being controlled. And who inspires fear?

Satan.

There is good and bad everywhere. There is pure honey from Heaven and contaminated honey with mold from the world. There are nasty stinging bees, killer bees. And bees raised by the Master who swarm in a heart shape while you taste their honey.

The only remedy I see for a soul caught in such a pit is humility, which the devils have already destroyed by telling them they don't need to know anything further.

And a teachable spirit is needed as well. What is a teachable spirit? Some have said it means submitting to headship. That's a perversion meant to control people by yet another form of fear.

Obedience does not mean obeying something in your heart, that you don't feel is right. That's not obedience! If it violates the way the Lord has led you, and it violates your conscience, then you better not do it. And don't allow anyone to accuse you of being disobedient, because that's not the kind of obedience the Lord wants from us. The Lord wants us to be obedient to the Holy Spirit and to Him, and to the known will of God. That's obedience.

But there are times when we fall into error, and we don't always know which voice is the Lord and which voice is the enemy. Because many, many masquerade in the form of Jesus.

A teachable spirit is quick to listen, and slow to speak. A teachable spirit doesn't constantly defend their ideas. Rather, they listen and compare in silence and allow Holy Spirit to sort out truth from error. A teachable spirit looks for people wiser than themselves and is eager to learn from them. A teachable spirit is hungry for truth, and that hunger will lead them to abandon any way in their lives they discover is false. The truth and only the truth is their standard.

That's how I came to the Lord from the New Age. I explored all the "ism's" and none of them rang true, until Jesus met me in my darkness and revealed who He was in His brilliant light. Then I had to abandon all my New Age practices. I had to sort through truth and error. That took me YEARS. Years of humble failures and errors, and having to re-learn things that were not the right way.

When I was added to the church I had to sort out men's ways from God's ways. But I had been so humbled when the Lord saved me, I was eager to know the difference.

There is no such thing as a soul who cannot learn. There is only the soul who WILL not learn, because they are convinced they know it all. That's the saddest state a soul can be in. That's the state I was in in the New Age. That's why I missed Christianity. The Lord had to reveal Himself to me in a brilliant, life-changing event. Much like Saul of Tarsus experienced on the way to Damascus.

Not even in thousands of years will I know all the ways of God. My wisdom is like a grain of sand on the beach. God's wisdom is like the beaches and the stars of the universe. Woe to me if I ever think I know. God save me from my Pride! And He has - many times. But I still fall into it. I'm a work under construction.

I do not know, and everyday I learn that I know less and less. And that's the only safe place to be.

What I share with you on this channel and with those I correspond with, is simply what God has proven and taught to me. I know nothing independent of what He has shown me. And if I should have the misfortune of having a familiar spirit masquerading as a spirit of prophecy and truth, like was sent to Saul - when God deliberately sent lying spirits into the mouths of his prophets so he would be killed on the battlefield. Oh God, have mercy on my soul and do not turn me over to lying spirits and masquerading demons pretending to be Jesus.

It has happened before, it can happen again. But what saves me is a teachable spirit and the sure knowledge that I do not have the whole truth. And if God chooses to humble me, He can and will, so that I will once again see myself as nothing and Him as everything.

And here I thank Him for He has surrounded me with protection from true, proven, humble, genuinely loving, prophetic people that help me overcome my errors. And God reveals my errors and my faults to them. But without a teachable spirit, they would do me know good at all. Even if Elijah should appear to me, if I have not the retractable grace of humility and a teachable spirit, I would not listen to him but go my own way.

I say retractable grace of humility, because without the Lord's guarded intervention to keep us humble, I would quickly fall into a worse state of pride than I am presently in. God save us from that!!!

Lord, I appeal to Your mercy. We are all afraid of error and of being controlled. Help us to be humble and teachable, and to know the difference between truth and error. And especially to be willing to submit ourselves to Holy Spirit. Because our wisdom is useless. We need Your wisdom and Your mind every moment of the day, Lord.

So, reveal in us any false way. And help us to receive the Grace to listen to wisdom when it's brought to us, and sent to us from above.

Amen.

Spiritual Warfare: 15 - Pride & One Speck of Anger Equals a Stronghold of Rage

November 5, 2016

May our Precious Lord be the whole meaning of life for us, dear Heartdwellers.

Just a quick note, you would have heard from me yesterday, but an unexpected event occurred. We had to pack up and move our chapel all of a sudden the moment I woke up. That was quite an event, but God was SO faithful. Out of His blue, He sent three wonderful helpers and what seemed like a disaster in the making was just an exhausting day of non-stop work! So, that's why you didn't get a message yesterday. And I appreciate those of you who were moved to pray for us, 'cause I'll tell you what, we needed it!

This lesson is coming out of that experience.

I want to talk about Pride. It's a demon we all struggle with, and today in prayer the Lord reminded me of the insight He had given me into the source of my pride. Those who have a low self-opinion are, I believe, more vulnerable to pride. They always have to prove their worth.

If the soul is not grounded in God, having all it's worth from the way God sees it and loves it, it will fall into pride with the need to justify itself in the eyes of others; to increase self-worth, to defend oneself, to prove oneself in order to feel worthy in the eyes of others. That leaves us treacherously dependent on the opinions of others.

But if the soul is grounded in the Lord, all its justification is in Jesus. All its worth is in Jesus, all its defense is in Jesus and there's no need to talk and influence people to gain self-worth or to prove who we are. All our worth is tied up in how Jesus sees and loves us and ultimately, the price He paid for us is what gives us worth.

In this way, the richest, the most brilliant, the poorest, the most ignorant--are all of the same worth. Nothing we can do in our lives gives us more worth than the sacrifice God made of His only begotten Son, to atone for our sins. Nothing. Therefore, we are all, from the littlest to the biggest, stamped with the same price tag. And that's our worth, nothing more, nothing less.

So, coming from that standpoint, it's easier to get over Pride.

When we are in the Lord, we are empty and ready to learn. We are quiet and open to instruction. The wisdom of others is not threatening or belittling, rather it feeds the soul. We can take what we need from it or be confirmed in what we already knew and there is peace.

But the soul who is insecure and has not found all their worth in Jesus, must constantly be on the lookout to defend themselves, to prove themselves, to build themselves up in the eyes of others. So it is constantly in a state of turmoil, looking for ways to increase its worth, its knowledge, its intellectual strength, its spirituality. It cannot be silent, but must always be in defensive mode, lest it is judged inferior.

I lived this way for most of my adult life. It wore me out! Whether it was a photography client, or a spiritual gathering, I always had to look good.

But when I began to be steeped in the Love of Jesus, especially dwelling/soaking prayer, I began to feel deeply loved and valued. I lost the taste for proving myself or having to look good. I was safe inside my Savior's arms; loved, honored and of inestimable worth to Him.

The soul who has found its worth in Jesus is at rest, is at peace, has little need to talk unless there is something they are morally bound to talk about. Otherwise, it is peaceful, like a weaned child on its mother's knee.

These times we are in right now have been saturated with demonic creatures, assigned to belittle and pull us down in every possible way. This, unlike any time previously in history, is more fraught with danger to our spirit, soul and body than ever before.

I am learning that the very first thing in the morning I need to do is repent. Did I have one tiny, little, judgmental thought about someone? If I did, did I immediately repent? Chances are I ignored my conscience, said I was sorry and just went on. In the past I could afford to do that, but now? Well, let me explain.

When I was called out of bed to immediately pack up the chapel, I started having resentful thoughts. Let's be honest here, who wouldn't? My eyes are barely open, and all of a sudden I've got to do something, a huge project without any helpers! I thought of a hundred things I wanted to say, but I immediately said, "NO. You're not going there. You are not going to feed your anger and resentment. NO."

Well...but do you think that was enough repenting--even when I refused to complain??? Well, here's a dynamic that we all need to watch out for: a seed of bitterness and anger got dropped into my heart, the minutes I felt that. Why? Because I felt resentful. I didn't entertain it, I put myself down, and I refused to feed my anger. I just quietly asked God to help me and we got the job done in about 7 grueling hours. But all the time, resentment and anger were knocking at my door, trying to get me to really lose it.

What had happened is that curses of miscommunication, anger and rage had been sent to all parties concerned. The demons assigned in that curse were just hovering, waiting for an opening. The very moment I felt anger, that very moment, I opened my soul up to receiving seeds of bitterness, demons of anger and resentment, and from that point on, they were going to build a stronghold in me. At that moment, they got a foothold on Ezekiel and I both. Even though I refused to nurse a grudge, the seed had already gained entrance and the demons were already at work trying to build a stronghold of rage.

Even though I continually, throughout the ordeal of the day, continued to reject anger and bitterness, the seeds were there, the demons had a foothold in both of us. After they had build the foothold, they were working on a stronghold and had almost completed it in our hearts.

A stronghold is like a fortress where demons have continual access to cause anger, rage, resentment and bitterness.

We believe that a stronghold can only be broken by prayer AND fasting. Well, it just so happened someone was fasting and they caught it--just in time. But we were warned-- they will be back to try it again. And I have to confess to you, brothers and sisters, I have no confidence that I will pass the next test, either. I have seen a stronghold of anger and rage at work. I have seen it tear a family to shreds and send them all scattering in different directions to get away from its ugliness, never to be reunited.

So, we are being very, very careful not to allow this to enter our hearts again.

Do you see why humility and gratitude are so important? No matter what happens, the humble soul sees the hand of God and receives the burden with gratitude.

I knew this was to be an offering for the election, I knew it was a suffering. That's why I was able to conquer my tendency towards anger. But it was too late. I had already opened the door by feeling the anger. Yes, I know, you can't control anger.

But you can control thanksgiving and a life of praise and gratitude. Then you don't have any space at all for bitterness--you have filled yourself with gratitude. It's like a meltdown--you go in to clean up with protective gear, you don't just walk into the midst of it. The protective gear is knowing God gave you this situation for a reason, thanking Him profusely and being already in a posture of worship and thanksgiving. Then you have the space to reason.

But if you're part of the meltdown, it's too late.

Do NOT allow yourself to get angry, guys! If it hits you--renounce it, and thank God for the opportunity to learn from the lesson. Medicine is bitter, but necessary. If we take it with gratitude, we will be healed. If we fight, fuss, argue and nurse resentments, we make ourselves very, very sick--body, soul and spirit.

So, this is what we are finding out. The very second you feel anger--REPENT, do not allow the demons to build a stronghold. Every morning when you get up, before anything else ask, "Holy Spirit, please show me my sins and what has gained entry to my soul. Please show me, so I can repent."

Then on your knees is a good place to ask forgiveness and really stir your heart to serious repentance. Then as you repent, ask the Lord to please remove the seeds, the door, the excrement, the demons that entered and to please repair any damage that was done in your heart.

Beloved, there is no longer any room for these things. The demons are thick as smog in our atmosphere and all they need is your consent to land.

And I don't mean consent like, "Sure, come on in." No, I mean one sinful, negative thought and they are in. Lord, save us!

The Election: Jesus calls for "War Spiritually"

November 6, 2016

May our King Jesus give us the strength and the weapons of spiritual warfare sufficient to win this election.

The Lord began, "You are now facing the biggest political turn around since the Iron Curtain fell. It is time for this country to overcome the obstacles of the past and make the best of the mess left by the Masons. Dear ones, remember this country was founded on occult principals, not Christian ones.

"There is a fight and a war going on in the heavens and on the Earth for control of the Earth. The only way to wage this war is spiritually, and of course, taking action and casting your votes. But I need My Church in prayer for the next three days as the battle comes to a conclusion.

"The enemy is giving this everything he's got to keep control, which I must say isn't much by My standards. But it is enough if people do not pray and fast and spiritually war against the forces I want to thrust out of power. Many of My prophets and apostles have gone into seclusion to fast and pray against these powers. For you, My Dear ones, I ask you to be led by My Spirit and give all you can to this battle.

"Nothing is too small. Children who offer prayers are far more powerful than many adults, because of the purity of their souls. So, I am asking you parents to bring your children into your prayer circles and explain to them as best you can, exactly what is at stake.

"Tell them that Satan has been working secretly in this country to destroy it. The forests, lakes, rivers and oceans. He and his minions have been responsible for the earthquakes and weather changes, beached animals and fish. Aborted babies. The poisoning of the Earth so babies come out deformed. Use discretion, but make it clear to them that their future depends on this election - whether or not there will be freedom in this country. Whether or not ISIS will take over this country and murder Christians.

"Of course their minds are tender, but they should know how very serious this is without causing them damaging distress. Just enough to get them to pray in earnest. The Divine Mercy Chaplet is powerful. Tears are powerful, vigils are powerful. Supplication with loud cries to Heaven are powerful. Denying yourselves food is powerful, fasting for those who can fast is powerful. Offering sacrifices, television, dessert, shopping, every form of self-denial will have an impact on this election.

"This is not just for the sake of denying yourselves pleasure. No, this is for sharpening your spiritual vision and being united to Me as I, too, enter into the sufferings and the warfare of My people to turn this country and the world around.

"You who are blessed with the cross of sickness, which you carry knowingly, are among the most powerful of My intercessors, because you have offered your own bodies as a living holocaust to bring

Heaven to Earth. I am with you and will multiply graces released on your behalf.

"Those of you who are suffering morally: wrongfully accused, unjustly incarcerated, discriminated against, beaten and imprisoned for your faith, experiencing persecution from relatives for your faith, losses of homes and goods through unusual weather conditions. All these sufferings, every single one can be offered to My Father for this election.

"Nothing is too small to be regarded as an offering. Nothing. The loss of a beloved pet, altercations at school, toothaches. All of these things, when offered together, all through this nation are tremendously powerful.

"And as My Father looks upon your sacrifices and offerings, His heart is moved to pity and more angels are dispatched, more graces, more protection for the candidates. Everything is increased with the tears of My People.

"Do not allow yourselves to be distracted or thrown off course. There is nothing you can do for the next three days, that will more impact your life and the future, for the better, than prayers and sacrifice and your vote for this nation.

"Those who receive communion daily, offer your communion for Donald Trump's victory in the election and for the safety of him and his family.

"Right now, in this hour, much is being planned and protected and those who are attempting to destroy the sovereignty of this country, and all countries around the world, are running into obstacle after obstacle after obstacle. This is the power of prayer in action. Things have been put into action that could hold back the tide of evil for a decade. That's how much prayer and martyrdom and sacrifice has gone forth to reverse the direction of Satan and his minions.

"This has nothing to do with the Rapture, and everything to do with individual freedoms in this nation and around the world.

"My Body has been immensely powerful in opposing the schemes of the enemy, now that they have been exposed for the people of the world to see. That does not mean we have the victory, it means only that prayer is working and needs to be applied more at this critical hour in the world.

"So, My Beloved ones, continue to pray. Continue to hope. Continue to have faith and stir others to action for these decisive days.

"I am with you in your prayers, and no sacrifice goes unnoticed. All ascends to the Father as incense, fragrant and moving Him to arise against your foes."

Election Day - "The Decisive Hour" Jesus said

---

November 8, 2016

May the Lord bless America on this critical day.

Well, Heartdwellers, today is a very important day. And tonight is a critical night. And the Lord began His message immediately.

He began, "Tonight IS a critical night. There is a stillness in Heaven. Those who have shouldered this burden and prayed - I commend you. You are truly carrying My Cross for the world. Those of you who have longed for the day when righteousness would be established in your country, it will never be so until I come. But steps could be taken to at least move in that direction. The first being to put a total end to abortion.

"Just as the man of sin began his reign in America by allowing babies to be cut into pieces in their mother's wombs, the first act of righteousness would totally ban the practice and begin the steps to ban abortion in America forever. What heavy judgments would be removed from this country were that to take place. What peace could be established at her borders. Can I bless and protect a nation that slaughters innocent children? Surely I cannot. But an end to this practice would lift the severe judgment on this land.

"There is still a hidden monster to be dealt with, it continues to expand under the soil like the infamous Blob monsters of the 60's."

Just as an aside here, that is the image He gave me. I remember as a teenager - I wasn't a Christian - and I used to watch movies about the Blob. That's what I saw when He was speaking this to me.

He continued, "One only has to dig a couple of feet to see it. It is that nefarious force that will eventually arise from the ground and swallow everything in its grasp. These are the hidden agendas, the black ops, the place where tremendous amounts of tax dollars go to destabilize governments and establish cooperative leaders through terror, butchery and intrigue. This is also the force behind ISIS and the planned Muslim takeover of America, resulting in the slaughter and beheading of Christians and Jews.

"This is another force that must be curtailed in this country. It brings curse after curse upon the citizens of the land because they are spreading injustice through their money.

"Clare, there is more than enough resource in this country to bring continents like Africa totally out of poverty and establish the land in sustainable living. But because the resources are being used for selfish ambition and genocide, the poor of the world continue to suffer.

"I will put an end to this when I come. No longer will one man have an over abundance and another, nothing but dirt to fill his stomach with. No longer will babies be born dead. No longer will women and children be conscripted as slaves. No more will rape be common. No longer will children go without opportunity to do something meaningful with their lives. I will supply everyone equally, there will no longer be injustice.

"But until that day you must make do with what you have and the obstacles you encounter in living a just life and extending My love and care to those around you. Until the time comes for Me to purify the Earth and bring you home.

"So what am I saying here? Do your very best to share and provide for those around you even as My Father in Heaven rains upon the just and unjust alike. Share with those around you and it will go well with you when I establish My reign on the Earth.

"Do not support injustice, do not turn a deaf ear or a blind eye to those in need. Reach out and cover them with your own provision, then you will have done unto your neighbor as I have done unto you.

"Do not call evil, good and good, evil. Do not be ignorant of the scheming of the devils to deprive widows of their support and the elderly of what they have invested for their latter years. Yes it is true, the help of man is vain, but I do uphold those who are honest and crooked behavior I abhor.

"But above all, labor to bring the lost into My Kingdom, because when they come to know Me and My ways, they will no longer cheat, steal and be unjust. The heart must be converted, not just the laws. Once the heart belongs to Me, then the laws will follow. The highest calling you can have on this Earth is to bring Me to souls and teach them how to follow Me.

"Yes, following is so very important. I will lead those who will be led. I will prove My power through the lowly, meek and humble. These are those who follow the instructions I put in their hearts. They are not busy for themselves, but busy for those who have no one to comfort them, those who walk in utter darkness, those who truly do not know Me.

"But I tell you a truth: unless you know Me, truly know ME and not just about Me, you will fail in your attempts to bring souls to Me in the ways of love, not legalisms. It is one thing to know Me through the Scriptures and quite another to listen to My heartbeat and carry out daily the desires of My heart for you - even from moment to moment.

"It is one thing to know all about holiness; quite another to live it because you value the smile on My face more than all the laurels and accomplishments of the world - even the religious world.

"Your knowledge of Me must be intimate, your love for Me authentic. Not born of fear, but born of head-over-heels love. If you do not have this love ask Me for it and I will not deny you.

"To have this love, you must be willing to follow Me anywhere. You must spend substantial time in silent adoration and prayer. Worship in spirit and truth from the heart in such a way that you are intimately bonded to Me in purity, and your heart beats in unison with Mine.

"To have this you must put away the rushing around the world offers you daily, and still your soul until you find yourself sitting on Daddy's lap, hugging His neck and resting upon His shoulder. Yes! This is the intimacy I long for, this is the intimacy you must have to bring others into My Kingdom.

"You can no longer just love Me. You must be in love with Me. When you are in love with Me nothing is too much to do for Me. You have no limits because love has overtaken you and nothing and no one but Me matters to you any longer.

"This kind of love comes only with intimacy, with gazing into My eyes, resting on My shoulder and longing to be in My presence. When you are in love, you will do anything for Me. I am calling you all to take another look inside.

"Do you love Me because I am powerful? Wise? Majestic and the King of all Kings? Because I healed you? Because I made you wealthy? Because you have been successful? Because I am God and it is your duty?

"Or do you love Me because you have known Me and gazed into My eyes and will never be the same again? Do you love Me to distraction, or are you continually distracted by yourself?

"To be My disciple, to spread My truth, you must have more than head knowledge. Please, at this decisive hour in history, look within, are you head-over-heels in love with Me as I am with you, Beloved?"

President Elect Trump

November 9, 2016

The Lord has done it again. Against the odds and the opposition, He's managed to put His man in office as President of the United States. And He began speaking to me tonight by saying,

"My Mercy for this country will be felt tonight. The prayers of My servants have been heard - for they have humbled themselves and sought Me. Shall I not grant them the respite they so desire?"

"Yet there is cause for concern, do not imagine that any man will follow perfectly My will, but this man, I have anointed, for better and for worse.

"Yet the challenges he is facing in the coming months are beyond human comprehension. But I comprehend them and he has opened his mind to listen to My wisdom, though he rarely recognizes it is Me talking to him.

"Nonetheless, he is anointed, because his heart is right. No matter that he is blustery and proud, he is more shrewd than what appears on the surface. As long as that submits to My wisdom, it is a good kind of shrewd.

"He will be a world leader that everyone respects - whether they like him or not, they will respect him. He will set some major issues in America back on the right track.

"But Clare, this is the world and what can be expected? Nonetheless, he will do a good job with what is ahead of him.

"How can 60 years of corruption at the highest levels be righted overnight? Only by My coming can that happen.

"But for now, America has another chance to drop her compulsions with materialism and begin to take responsibility for the policies in this nation. People have been led around by a golden ring in their noses, enjoying the fat of the land. This in turn produced a blind generation, all taken up with material comforts and education, thoughtless about the true nature of those she elected.

"Nonetheless, I am with this man, and I will reorder things through him. This nation has made a wise choice and now I can work with it."

And I asked Him at that point, "But Lord, how will he escape assassination? That seems impossible to me."

The Lord replied, "With God...."

And I finished the sentence, "...Nothing is impossible." Lord, how will this happen?

"Clare, I have given My angels watch over him, nothing escapes their notice. Your job is to lift him up over the altar every day, Mine is to protect him and his family. I have chosen him, I will not abandon him to the will of his enemies, as long as you continue to pray for him. There will be new hurtles, but together we will overcome them, one by one.

"Whatever your thoughts about this man, those who call yourselves by My Name, he is now your president and has authority over your country. Pray for him, he will do well. Grow lax, and he will be replaced with a dictator. Do not grow lax, strengthen him with your prayers and fast offerings when called for.

"This is a new day for America. Be faithful to pray, I will be faithful to guide and protect him and his family."

All glory and honor and praise to You, Lord Jesus! What a wonderful thing You've done for this country today. Thank You, Lord. Thank You so very much. For You indeed have done great things.

And thanks to all of you, Heartdwellers, who've really applied your hearts, your tears and your prayers to make this possible.

Trump Wins - The Battle Begins

November 10, 2016

May the Lord's joy be with you all, Heartdwellers.

What a tremendous victory! I heard from one source that the day he is sworn in he will be 70 years 7 days and 7 hours old! Amazing!

Jesus began, "My arm has never been short. I will accomplish what I have set out to do, but it will require the prayers of My People. Dear ones, the fight is only just beginning. The tentacles reach deep beneath American soil and it will be a long, hard battle to restore America and set her upright on her feet.

"The brainwashing of the young has had a significant affect in causing division and will continue until the truth is exposed about those who have won their hearts. Personality is everything. Women's rights, immigration policies, all figure strongly in the aftermath.

"My dear ones, though this man seems a blustering fool on the surface, he did not come about his fortune being ignorant of men's ways. He cares deeply about his country, and has My vision for restoration. Though some of the measures seem harsh to foreigners, this country is so fragmented and infiltrated by the Muslims that these measures are very necessary. Yet the tentacles run deep.

"What I need from all of you is daily prayer that he will make the decisions I want him to make and that he will walk softly with his big stick. He has much PR work to do to reunite the nation. Rest assured that those that pose as affirming friends are deadly enemies and will stoop to do anything to cause chaos in this country.

"Just as you prayed for peace at the convention, I need you to pray the very same way for this transfer of authority and all the organized demonstrations. Yes, they are organized and deliberately fomenting division and separation. This can be defeated by prayer. I am asking you to pray.

"My beautiful Bride, the future of this nation hangs in the balance until President elect Trump has been in office for two years. So, please be vigilant to pray for peace in this nation every day.

"My heart for you all is to prosper in your love and giftings that all men may come to know Me. If each of you will shoulder your cross and responsibilities to your calling, you will be rewarded beyond your wildest dreams.

"A nation needs to live in peace for it to prosper, and you have seen the devastating affects of ignoring those who have led this country. Many of you suffer from the sins of this nation, which I have allowed because of her abominations to third world countries and the training of radical mercenaries on this soil, as well as abortion and world population control through manipulating the natural rhythms of the Earth, which I created so all men could be nourished from the land.

"As America goes, so goes the world. There is a great chance of reversing the tide of evil that could have made possible the predictions in Daniel, the AntiChrist's one world government, coming to pass much sooner."

And here I want to make an aside. Here, He's not saying that Daniel's not going to come to pass. He's saying it IS going to come to pass, but it's being delayed because of our prayers.

Jesus continued, "As you pray, I dismantle key situations making it impossible for them to be carried out. You do not see what I am doing behind the scenes but you do see the affects - such as Donald Trump being voted into office, and America succeeding in even having elections when there was a plan underway to stop that from happening. But because of your prayers, it didn't succeed."

"This is My power, dear ones. Believe firmly in My ability and watch Me make the impossible happen consistently. I am doing this so you may move forward, serving and bringing souls to Me."

"And one last word of caution, do not get drawn into these fomenting political demonstrations which will be used to divide the country and cause civil war."

"This may seem far-fetched to you, but you are not looking at what is behind the scenes of these demonstrations. You are seeing them as only a surface manifestation of people's discontent. Taking a closer look, there are plans to disrupt the country's stability, even giving an excuse for martial law, as the evil one capitalizes on people's emotions."

"Do not take part in these. Rather go to your knees and pray that I will disarm them."

"I wish to hold you tenderly, dear ones. I wish to comfort and encourage you. I am so very sorry that you must deal with these situations in order to bring souls to Me, but this is part of your responsibility as My Bride."

"Understand that although My disciples did not get involved in political issues, these times are different. You are living in a democracy, and what you cast a vote for impacts your life. When you support those who condone abortion, you are placing a great weight on your own personal shoulders and on your family - as well as guaranteeing judgment on your nation."

At that point, the Lord began to quote the Scriptures:

First of all, then, I urge that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be offered on behalf of all men for kings and all those in authority, so that we may lead tranquil and quiet lives in all godliness and dignity. This is good and pleasing in the sight of God our Savior... I Timothy 2:1-3

"Now I bless you, My dear ones, and commend you for your efforts and prayers. Together, we have truly made the difference in this nation and the world. You have done well and even greater graces shall be given you for your faithfulness."

A Taste of World Peace

November 12, 2016

The Lord be with you, precious Heartdwellers!

Well, this was quite an unexpected message tonight, I have to say. So let me get right into it.

The Lord began, "Because you have taken these things to heart you shall live and not die.' says the Lord your God.

"Because you have prayed for this nation, for My will to be done, despite your personal opinions, you shall prosper both in soul and body. You will prosper in a healthy way and your enemies shall be defeated before you.

"Because you have taken it to heart to cover this nation and president with prayer, and spread the truth, for these reasons will My choicest blessings be upon you and this nation.

"There is a long winding road ahead of us, My People, a very long road with many twists and turns. But if you continue to pray and offer sacrifices as you have, it will lead to a spiritual renaissance where there will be an unusual degree of international peace between nations. There will be a taste of My government on this Earth - short lived as it may be. Still, the world will know the difference between My Peace and the contrived, staged peace of the elite.

"I am going to give them a taste of what the world can be like when I govern. All will see and know the difference between Satan's government and Mine. This is an extraordinary opportunity to convert those who are misled and participating in a dark government posing as the light.

"There are many, among the youth especially - generation 'X' - that have good hearts and want the right things, but are grossly deceived by the NWO's agenda."

And while He was speaking, I saw the nations of the world exchanging goods, ideas, governing peoples, providing for a healthy country, especially in Europe. I saw that America would lead the way, because President Trump would do the right thing by his citizens. And in establishing justice, other nations would follow the example and begin to do things they never thought possible.

I sense that the world trade agreements have hamstrung this planet to the point where nothing works anymore, it's being choked out by outdated partisan rules and counter rules. I saw the Lord taking scissors and cutting these bands, releasing prosperity where it had been suppressed and making honest agreements that benefit all rather than the corrupted and outdated system.

Jesus continued, "No longer will nations tend to self-interest at the cost of other nations. Rather, there will be an unprecedented spirit of cooperation as they see that doing the right thing brings prosperity and equity to all. This spirit will be infectious and touch even the littlest and most vulnerable sovereignties."

At this point, I saw literally, each nation extending a helping hand to lift its neighbor up out of dire straights. Someone rose up and stretched out their arm and their hand and pulled another country up out of a mire.

The Lord continued, "Heads of state will see that war is counter-productive to prosperity and more good is accomplished through peace and cooperation, rather than force."

"A taste. I am giving a taste of what My Kingdom will be when I come and it bears no resemblance to what the enemy has been trying to establish for the so called 'good' of the people. The young will respond to this and be amazed that something like this could succeed."

"It will be short lived, but it will be unmistakable world unity without force and intrigue."

"I am telling you these things because I want you to pray for this. Pray for honest world unity, where freedoms are maintained but a spirit of cooperation inhibits leaders from doing evil to others."

I asked the Lord at that point, 'But what about Revelation being fulfilled?'

And He answered me, "It is being fulfilled, even now. But prayer changes things. Prayer defers disasters and wars. Prayer engenders a spirit of cooperation and life rather than oppression and death."

"There are some who will never recognize this Peace and will insist on violence against all the other peoples of the earth even as it is written, "The angel of the Lord also said to her: "You are now pregnant and you will give birth to a son. You shall name him Ishmael, for the Lord has heard of your misery. He will be a wild donkey of a man; his hand will be against everyone and everyone's hand against him, and he will live in hostility toward all his brothers." Genesis 16:11-12 Speaking about Hagar.

The Lord continued, "Because of what is written here, there shall be no peace among the Ishmaelites, nor will they tolerate the rule of peace. And this will be the undoing of the period of peace."

"Clare, the evil powers will lay low during this period, waiting for the opportunity to return the world to chaos, but there will be a taste of peace, and it will be sweet."

Lord, how long will this last?

He answered, "Two years. Pray for this, My People. It is the opportunity you have been waiting for to bring your adult children back to Me. It is a brief taste of My Kingdom.

"Well, that is enough for now. I want you all to know what we are doing together. Yes, together we are doing this, your repentance, your prayers and sacrifices are giving birth to a taste of peace. What men said would never work, will work better than anything they have contrived using force and intrigue."

As concerns the man the world has laughed at, all will see that all their intelligence pales before the wisdom I give him."

"So, for all of you My dear ones, you have done well. Please continue your prayers and offerings. You will be blessed beyond your understanding by what we accomplish together."

"I believe in you, My people. I believe in you."

What I Have Said, That Will I Do / Don't Let Holidays Take You Off Prayer!

November 13, 2016

May the Love of the Lord Jesus keep you dear Heartdwellers and may Our Nation be transformed by the faith of Gideon's 300 with the Lord at the helm.

Well, there must be some naysayers out there for the last message, because the Lord launched off immediately after prayers this morning. And I'm gonna share what He had to say.

The Lord Jesus began, "We live by faith, not by sight. What I have said, that will I do and nothing short of that. Those among you who think My arm is short and cannot accomplish what I want it to do, are thinking as man thinks, not God. Put on the mind of Christ, My people. Do not throw your lot in with the naysayers. As long as you continue to pray and offer sacrifices, My will shall be done in your nation, not at some future date - but now.

"Yes, I say the time is NOW. I will do wonders among people, especially the blind who have been so deep in a lethargic sleep, they cannot conceive of change. But I will change those things I have targeted that are not right. Yes, I will change them.

"But I am looking for Gideon's 300. The rest of you can stay home. Those of you who know Me - stand by Me and be a force to be reckoned with. Man cannot withstand Me. Satan cannot withstand Me, for there is no power on Earth or in the heavens that can withstand their Creator. I have dominion over all.

"What I have said, I will surely do.

"Now, that clarified - I need you to stand with Me in prayer. This is the season when Satan looses avarice and greed to draw you away from Me and the true meaning of this tradition. I charge you, My Gideon force, do not be taken by distraction. It is a rule of engagement: distract the enemy and you can defeat them. Distractions are coming. Family, holidays, celebrations - all of that must be kept to a minimum as you fight the good fight in prayer.

"I am not saying you cannot gather with your family, but do not allow yourselves to be carried away by the spirit of Materialism, Gluttony, Acquisition and Greed. These are the demons loosed to bring you down My People. I have named them for you, take authority and renounce and bind these things from hindering you.

"Do you understand? The enemy is planning to use this against you, to defeat you and ultimately put in grave danger your loved ones. Surely, if he succeeds, evil will overtake this country.

"That is what has been planned for you, America. Staged riots and outbreaks of violence are being planned and even occurring as we speak. Yes, the enemy is hell-bent on destroying this administration before it takes office.

"There is only one way this is going to happen, and that is if you get distracted and stop praying, pouring your heart out to Me, crying out to Me to save you. If you stop praying - you lose.

"Do not allow the enemy to do this through sentimentality and greed. Every year I lose My Bride to these forces as she chases shopping malls and internet stores. Every year I must sit alone, waiting for My Bride while she shops and wraps presents. Every year.

"Will you abandon Me now too? This is My warning to you, heavy spirits of compulsion are going to be loosed on you to draw you away from the battlefield. If you fall, call on Me immediately and I will rescue and reinstate you.

"Every man counts in this battle. I only want My Gideons 300 - the ones who truly believe that I can do what I set out to do. And every single one of you count. Your lives, your faith, your family - indeed your future - lie in your praying hands. Do not be defeated by your own flesh.

"The current administration is fighting to keep the power. With your prayers they will be unseated and My servant will be the Victor. But it will not be done without your prayers and sacrifices.

"And again, I remind you, every little suffering can be offered to the Father for this battle. Someone took your parking place? Now you have to walk further? Offer it up. Someone treated you rudely? Offer it up. You awoke with a headache, you lost something? Offer it up. For truly, I say to you, NOTHING is too small to offer Me. You are in a battle and every shot fired counts.

"I will arrange circumstances that are frustrating to you, you don't have to go looking for them.

"Remember, nothing happens without My consent. No matter what it is, it has value, sometimes a little and sometimes a lot. It all matters, and your demeanor matters as well. Are you suffering and grumbling and complaining? Or are you rejoicing that another bullet has taken the enemy down? For surely, these sacrifices are like shots fired that go straight to the target, bringing it down. Guiding the offerings to their mark is My part of the job.

"Go now in faith, My beloved Bride, believing that what I have said I will do, because you are faithful to pray. And do not allow the enemy to distract you.

"I am with you in a powerful way and we are doing this together."

Your Heart is Far From Me & Satan's Plan To Stop Trump 1 of 2

November 15, 2016

The Lord bless you, dear Heartdwellers.

Well, I have a confession to make. I want to say first of all, that there is so much hope for you who feel the most unworthy of the Lord. I say that because when you see who I truly am, with my real character flaws, you know you can do better.

So, I fell by focusing on outer beauty rather than the inner beauty of my relationship with Jesus. And in those situations, I always lose.

I gave in to the temptation to spend time and energy on a piece of clothing, and any time I focus on externals, I feed that internal monster of acquisition which never has enough. You feed it what it wants and demands more. It takes up your heart, your thoughts, your time. And you lose that time with Jesus. What sweetness could have been mine if only He was in my heart - rather than all these other things, covering Him up.

I'm gonna explain this more in part 2.

So, I came in to prayer very discouraged because Jesus had convicted me of Avarice again, and Pride.

The Lord began, "Clare, do not give up this fight. We can conquer this and translate your heart totally over to Me. You are not without hope. As you imagine."

Lord, it seems like a struggle that will never end, like the dream I had about the panther. I never knew if he was totally dead or not - because he kept coming up, even after a long period of time.

Jesus continued, "It is a life-long challenge. The sooner you conquer it, the freer you will be."

But Lord, I love beauty and beautiful things.

"And that's your downfall."

Forgive me, Lord, but didn't you make beauty for us to enjoy?

"Yes, but when it distracts you away from Me, it becomes an idol."

"To you, looking for the right color of a piece of clothing is more exciting than coming to Heaven with Me and that's the honest truth, or you would come more often."

Oh, wow. He's really right! How can I change that, Lord?

"Don't let your flesh win. Re-channel that desire into Heavenly things. Ask to experience and feel Heavenly things and continue choosing Heaven over the carnal things."

But the beauty of this Earth reminds me of Heavenly things. (How does He put up with me?!)

Jesus answered, "But the things of this Earth are so short lived. Recognize it right there and then when you see it, give it its proper place. But keep going back to what is truly important."

"Most people, stop to explore the fragrances of their new found flowers, but not for you. You need to trust that someday you will be enjoying that fragrance, but until then deny yourself and refocus on those who are perishing and what you can do to stop them or call them into My bosom."

"It's not hopeless, as you think. You make progress, then you fall behind. There is so much more I want to give you but you keep clinging to worthless things."

Lord, that's what seems so hopeless to me. I'm trying to be careful, very careful and I still miss the mark. I still fall.

"And that is humiliating, isn't it?"

It is consummately discouraging. True, I sometimes want something in this physical world that I know is not a necessity, but a want.

He continued, "And sometimes I allow you those wants. When it is safer, when you will not abuse the privilege and go overboard. But most of the time your wants are frivolous in the light of saving souls, in the light of what will not pale in eternity."

"Oh, that I could completely circumcise your desire nature, your need for external beauty."

It doesn't seem fair, Lord. You made colors and beauty for us to respond in gladness, but our gloomy time on this Earth is sometimes - many times - cheered by the sight of these things. And I suppose I transfer too much value to those things when life gets dark and hard.

How do I reconcile this?

He continued, "If you have a taste for earthly consolations, you will draw those to yourself. But if you have a taste only for Heavenly ones, you will cease desiring the beautiful things of the Earth, because they do not satisfy. You know they fade, Clare. They grow old, rip, are eaten by the moths, are lost or damaged...in the process of everyday living."

Yes, You're right Lord. But when that happens I want to replace them. Yet there are times...when my will overcomes their seducing powers....

"There are many times. I see you struggle, My dearest. I am not about to abandon you or stop the work I have given you to do. I just need more cognizant effort on your part."

"Like the butterfly. When you see a cute little child running in the field with a butterfly net - run for your life - or should I say fly! And flee for your life. Turn your eyes away from 'her' seductive beauty, or you will be caught and pinned in her collection.

"That's all I am asking of you, Clare. Flee for your life, because a soldier must never get entangled in civilian affairs.

"Do not think you are alone in your struggles. You see, even generals in the army are attracted to beauty, sent by the enemy to ensnare them.

"I have many more gifts for you, but you must empty your heart of these things. I want you to see yourself differently. You are not that 17-year-old in Chicago coming from a materialistic background.

"You have been translated into the Kingdom of Light and you no longer belong to that world, nor does it belong to you. All things are yours through Me - but all things are not profitable. Your fascination with beauty and order are not profitable, they are dangerous."

So, what do I do?

"When you see that net coming - fly My little butterfly! Flee for your life! The connection you've made with the object is already dangerous."

I know I can do that sometimes, but all the time? Especially when the enemy targets me, and I have no confidence that I will escape. When I'm tired or feeling depressed. It seems like I've lost my self-control.

"That is why I am telling you. I will of course give you a way out. But you can't be bull-headed and ignore Me. Having a determined mind is good as long as it is determined to be true to Me. But when you are determined to get your own way, that is when you fall.

"Oh, I know, all this sounds so familiar. A lifelong struggle. And yet, you have had victories. Let's have more and more victories and less and less defeats.

"Do you want it to be said of you, by the citizens of Heaven, 'She honors Him with her mouth, but her heart is far from Him?'"

Oh, Lord, that crushes me, just to think of it.

"And yet, in some areas, it is true. You must overcome those - you must. But you are not doing this alone. I am with you. I am with you, My darling. I will uphold you in this battle as long as your will is firmly committed to Me."

Lord, this is what I want. I want to be free, no longer in bondage to these things, yet I can feel the corruption in my heart tugging at me. Jesus, I am weak, but you can make me stronger.

"I see the resolve. Even though it is a bit shaky, it is there. Reach out and take My hand and allow Me to navigate you around these deadly reefs.

"And to all of you, My dear Brides, I say: everything good on Earth is to be enjoyed, but not all things are profitable for your souls. It is when a people become decadent, wanting more and more luxuries and beauty, that they fall away from Me into sin.

"Some of you have been raised in this environment but have no attachment to it. You can live with make-do clothing and equipment.

"But those of you who have grown accustomed to nice things and have scorn and contempt for second best, if you do not master your lust for things, it will be your undoing. How many times do you want to circle that mountain in the desert?

"This is the season Satan uses to draw you away from Me and into the shopping malls and internet stores. These demons that have been loosed are powerful and know your weaknesses. They know your buttons, your likes and your dislikes. And they know just how to push them. Every time you give in to the impulse, you grow weaker and they grow stronger in their influence and control over you.

"There is only so much room in your hearts, My people. You can fill it with beautiful things from the world or fill it with Me. Ultimately, this decision is yours and I will inspire and aid you in avoiding these traps if you will be diligent in calling for My help when you are most tempted. Just give Me a few moments. Call for help and give Me ten minutes and see if I don't route the enemy from tempting you.

"You will find out that if you give in to this, when you bring whatever you bought home, you will begin to feel compunction and the object will seem almost worthless to you. Or you will grow bored with it and say to yourself, 'This isn't what I really wanted. What was such a big deal when I just had to have it?'"

"I'll answer that for you/ You were torched and inflamed with a demon of LUST for that item. All these attributes of the object you so desired were inflamed by this demon so you just had to have it or something just like it. The color, the texture, its usefulness, the fragrance, the shape and size, the price, how rare it is - everything you admire about the item is torched into you just as surely as if someone had taken a blow torch to you. And so you wanted it.

"You wanted it really badly. You found all kinds of rationalizations about why you had to have it. All the while the demon is smiling and agreeing with you while he turns up the heat until you get it. Then after you get it, you think to yourself, 'This is so perfect for me, I should just get another one or maybe two or three more, before they are all gone.'

"Then you get home and after a few minutes or a few days, all those things you were feeling are gone. 'What happened? But I wanted it so badly!' you ask yourself.

"My People, I am revealing to you the tactics of the enemy and how your money vaporizes around this time of the year. I am telling you, dear ones, the demons are so thick and so hell bent on getting their way with you, you will fight with this lust every day of your lives until you finally say, 'No more.' And put your foot down.

"Until you value My company over anything you could ever want from this world, you will be demon fodder.

"It's up to you now. Forewarned is forearmed. And you may think I am exaggerating or that Clare is taking poetic license but she is not. I am giving it to you straight - you are in an all out war to deprive you of the sweet intimacy of My company, to cause such guilt in you that you can't face Me, because you know you overspent. Or to cause you to have to give up precious time in order to get a job to pay for what you bought. And then you are so preoccupied with the pleasures and things of this world that you lose your taste for intimacy with Me, in favor of your new toys.

"I am not condemning you for getting what you absolutely need. I am warning you of the trap that lies before you every Christmas season.

"And I am telling you - this country is hanging on your prayers. The establishment is planning outrageous false flags to keep Donald Trump from office. And if you indulge your Christmas shopping, you will be too busy and too tired to pray.

"Please, My children, don't do this to yourselves, to Me or to your families. It is critical that you not allow this to happen this year. It will be a fight all the way to the White House and you will defeat the enemy with your prayers. And I will keep you from self-indulgence, if you are vigilant.

"Please share with them, Clare, what happened to you yesterday."

Well, it's pretty long, so I'm going to share it with you in part two, which will be up tomorrow.

The Lord bless you all. And please - let's keep our focus on praying for our President elect, and not allow the enemy to keep us busy in the world, and steal the time. 'Cause that is what he's up to. And the Lord has made it plain to us, and revealed to us that he's going to be put in office because we prayed. But if we don't pray, there are no guarantees.

So, let's be vigilant!

Spiritual Warfare: 16 - The Power of True Contrition & Your Heart is Far From Me 2 of 2

Well, I'm the Guinea again. This is part 2, the second part of yesterday's message. And this is what happened.

All of a sudden I got hit with the desire to look a little more cheerful around the house than navy blue turtlenecks, and clothing from two years ago that is showing signs of wear with fuzzy balls of cotton and faded colors. I looked online for a light-weight crocheted top to add a little cheerful color to wear over the dingy stuff. I didn't want to spend money on something new, 'cause it was frivolous.

Well, I had such a garment but it was the wrong color...olive...my least favorite. So, I decided instead to pull the color from it and dye it. That took a small bite of time even though I did it in between making dinner.

The point was I WANTED it. And I indulged myself.

Not long after that I realized I had indulged my lust for beauty and things, again. It's like a monster. You give it what it wants, and there's no end to what else it wants next, you starve it and it dies. I have been trying to starve it, but this time I gave in.

Well, I wasn't quite convicted until last night when Ezekiel wasn't feeling well and he admonished me not to get on the Net to watch 60 minutes with Donald Trump. I retorted, "I haven't done anything, you aren't feeling unwell because I sinned." I said this because it is true - sometimes he carries a burden for me, because I'm getting side-tracked and the Lord needs his intercession to get my attention.

Then I went to the Bible Promises to see if I could watch the program. After all, it isn't news - rather it is an interview with a man I know nothing about, really, other than what God has told me, and I really wanted to listen to him.

The first reading I got from the Bible Promises was Self Righteousness. Ouch...I hate that one. That's the one that says "I am pure and without sin. I am not guilty, and there is no sin in me." Job 33:9

That Scripture heading in the Bible Promises stings just like PRIDE. That's another heading that really, really is painful to see. I knew right away, I was not in a good place with the Lord - even though my morning prayers were deep and strong and I felt very connected to the Lord's heart.

Then Ezekiel went to the Bible Promises and got a heading LUST which is always about my desires for things and Money and the World. Then Repentance. So, I came before the Lord wanting to figure out what I had done wrong. Because at that time, I really wasn't aware of it. I was really asking myself, "What have I done?" And when I finally got to the point of asking Him that, I got the heading called Humility - and I knew it was about my pride again.

And here I want to share with you, that I am only just learning to look. Really look and see what's inside of me that shouldn't be there. We are finding that demons come with seeds and they inhabit that other dimension which our bodies occupy in this dimension, but they can plant seeds. So, they can be lodged in our gut, our minds or any body part for that matter and begin a stronghold by planting an evil seed.

And to be effective in prayer, we need to be clean before the Lord.

So, I came and knelt by my prayer place and asked Holy Spirit to reveal to me my sins. At first I felt restless, but I waited on Him and He truly started showing me what I needed to repent of. And wonder of wonders, there was a spirit of compunction and grief for having offended our Lord.

After about ten minutes of confessing that, "I am a sinner. Still a sinner and please show me what I've done," He started to feel present to me, tangibly, then He began to show me all kinds of things. I don't list them all here, but Judgement, Disrespect, Self-indulgence, Unforgiveness...and last but not least, Pride, Avarice, and Acquisition. My black panther. The thing that stalks me and gets me when I'm not thinking right.

But I still wanted my way, so I dyed it.

I realized dying that piece of cloth was just as bad as buying it new, in the sense that I got what I wanted. And if I keep feeding my 'I wants' it's going to be a monster to deal with and there will be no end to what I want next.

No wonder my prayers for Ezekiel's pain level didn't work. I was unclean from the inside and needed to repent.

Heartdwellers, it's been my experience that, if I haven't really looked honestly within at my sins, my prayers are weak. That's why, before I do anything else in prayer, I come kneeling before the Lord asking to be shown my sins so I can repent. I want those demons out of my space!

I don't want to lay hands on or talk to anyone if I'm not clean, because we are also finding out these demons can be transferred through the internet and phone. Yes, they are contagious! Just like the flu. In fact, any form of communication can infect a person without their knowing it. That's why we shouldn't have newspapers or magazines around, because they are filled with suggestions to lust after sex and the desire to acquire things.

So, I wanted to also admonish you in this message to make sure you wait on Holy Spirit to convict you of your sins and wait until you've truly repented and are sorry for offending God before you assume you're clean.

It calls for true contrition, and that means sorrow for offending God. Not sorrow for getting caught, not sorrow for not getting your way, not sorrow because now you can't get more. Sorrow for having offended our Tender Jesus with idolatrous behavior.

Friends, I am only just beginning this journey of getting really deep and asking to see the hidden things

I've done wrong. I try every day to repent, but I'm finding, I haven't gone deep enough. I've glossed over some things saying, "Oh, that wasn't important."

I haven't waited for Holy Spirit to convict me. I've been sloppy and lazy.

,"Ok. I said I was sorry, let's get into the day!" That's not an attitude fitting the Lord's spouse. That's shallow and cheap. Besides, there's no true contrition there, or no recognition of sin. And sin is serious! I don't care what form it's in. It has consequences, and it opens doors to the demonic realm for all kinds of oppression.

It's the same as if you were cheating on Him. We come together in prayer, but something doesn't feel quite right. I feel a little disconnected from Him. I know that I've been drawn away by other lovers - the beautiful things I want. I don't want only Him, I want the world, too. It is the same as adultery in marriage. I have chosen another behind His back. But am pretending to be only His.

And here is the most hurtful thing He has ever said to me, and He gave it to me in the communion reading yesterday, "You honor Me with your lips, but your heart is far from Me."

Oh, I was so downcast after hearing that, I didn't want to get up. I just wanted to find a hole, crawl in it and disappear. But He began this message and I'm feeling a little better. But I really, really don't want my heart to be far from Him. I want it to be His alone.

Pray for me.

At this point, the Lord began to speak again.

"My daughter, My Bride, I have forgiven you. I know you are very weak. I know you struggle with pride, and I have allowed the enemy to sift you to humble you, Clare. There is nothing in Heaven more noxious than pride, that is why I allowed this.

"But now you are seeing your lowly estate. You are seeing that you are truly nothing. You are seeing that your passions can easily overrun you. Truly, Clare, you are pitiable. Truly I love you all the more.

"Come now, My precious Bride, shake off the dust of this world and come back into My tender embrace - much more diminutive, much more humbled. Little, little, little. And again I admonish you, Clare, stay little.

"Truly, without My intervention, you would be lying in a sewer, but My love for you has caused Me to lift you up and out and cleanse you to be My vessel unto honor and to speak My very own words to a thirsty people twisted and confused by religious spirits.

"In this world you will struggle with your flesh and the world, but take courage. I have overcome them both for you, and if you are faithful to remember your true stature before the Heavenly Court, I will always deliver you.

"Go in peace, now, My tender Bride. Go in Peace. You are forgiven."

Jesus Admonishes on Darkness & Warfare Introduction

November 17, 2016

May the wisdom and courage of Jesus be yours, dear Heartdwellers. Well, I am sure you have noticed, we've gone from a flowery season of joyful expectation for the Wedding Feast of the Lamb, waiting for the Rapture, into dark and uncertain and hostile landscape where the enemy has played with people's faith that the Rapture would never happen and that they are deceived. Or, the enemy has them right on the edge of their seat every day that the Rapture's gonna happen any minute. Either way, he's gotten their attention off-track.

Ezekiel and I have had concerns that the messages are too heavy, too dark lately - too different from the almost daily loving messages of our Lord. But I have been faithful to say what I'm told, dear ones. These are not my manufactured messages, but as clearly as I can communicate them, they are His thoughts right now.

So, I came into prayer with this heart...Lord, am I missing you? Why are these messages more often more difficult? Is it me Lord?

Well, here is His answer.

Jesus began, "Clare, there are seasons. Just as in the natural world there is fall and winter then spring and summer, so it is in the Supernatural world. As below, so above. That's why I've told you, whatever you bind on Earth will be bound in Heaven. Your concerns are legitimate, and I am not dismissing them, but you would not be serving Me or the interests of My flock if you did not follow My seasons and My instructions.

"This is not a time of drawing souls into the wedding chamber, although, I never lose My longing and affection for My Bride. Never. It is a continuous pain in My heart that we are separated and I so long for the day we are united.

"But you are all in a war zone right now. Everyone of your followers are under attack, sometimes continuous - although I do give respite. And while it seems so dark and heavy, it is quite necessary to the survival of souls and to the fruit we will harvest together.

"I loathe the demonic realm and talking about it sickens Me. But far too many of My Christians have no idea what they are dealing with. This is a season of preparation and strengthening and without it they will falter and feel abandoned by Me.

"You have done well to accept sufferings on My behalf and for the world, but there is another suffering that is not necessary - and that is suffering from your own sins. Open doors bring in a world of hurt. I am teaching you all how to keep the doors closed to the demonic realm.

"Not everyone is called to be a deliverance minister, but all of you are called to keep yourselves clean and unspotted from the world. Even as is written in the book of James.

"As you experienced today and yesterday, (here He's speaking to me) an abundance of possessions means an abundance of washing, folding, storing, finding room for everything and all the hassles that go with repairing things. It was a teachable moment in which you could reconsider your involvement with the world, Clare. It was also one of those opportunities I talked about a few days ago, something to offer me for the progress of your country.

"I'm sorry this time seems so dark and dreary to you, but it is necessary if you want to grow spiritually. Even as I preached from the very beginning, if you follow the teachings in the Beatitudes, and My teachings about loving your brother and being separated from the world and its desire nature, you could much more easily live this life without a need for deliverance.

"But My words are not taken seriously, Clare. If you knew the import of what I have taught you in the Scriptures, you would live it to the "T", even though it is quite difficult. You could not afford to allow yourself the liberty of wandering or even looking over the safety of the sheepfold, or involving yourself in any negativity or bad attitudes.

"It is a mighty task to overcome your flesh and live a holy life. That's the true enemy that you need to vanquish every day of your life. A mighty task that you are not prepared for from childhood. Much too much rancor is commonplace in the home environment. Children learn by example and parents pass on their resentments to their offspring.

"What I am saying, Beloved, is that I acknowledge this is not pleasant, nor necessarily uplifting, except when you take repentance as seriously as I am asking you to. There is holy peace and holy joy and very holy fruit.

"My dear ones, I long to see an end to your sufferings, but you have chosen Me over the world and now the worldly ways that entrap you to Satan must be deliberately worked out of your behavior. I don't love you one iota less. If anything has changed, it is more and more compassion and love for you, because you care enough to change, and really work hard at changing.

"Many of you ask why the sad things happen to you and I am attempting to teach you why. Why the health problems, why the inconveniences, why emotional ups and downs. I want to see an end to these things more than you do, and that is why I am teaching you how your heart gets defiled, how sickness enters into your body, how plans you would like to make are blocked - the very substance of the opposition in your lives.

"I am teaching you this and I am teaching you how to free yourselves as well. I'm sorry this is not a pretty and flowery endeavor, but in the end it will yield perfectly beautiful fruit and a deeper relationship with Me, My Spirit and My Father. You will find greater and greater joy in My company as you choose to separate yourselves from worldly attitudes that are destroying you from the inside out.

"Once you learn these things, greatly blessed are you when you practice them and I will be able to advance you into ministries you have only dreamt of. Yes, you will be able to carry the weight and not fall, your hearts will be prepared and you will not be blind to your own interior and what you are carrying around.

"Many of you are on this channel because you want to grow in spiritual depth. If I fed you wedding gowns and fairy tale trips through Heaven, you would never address the things that must be clean before you can live in Heaven.

"Nevertheless, trips to Heaven will increase among you, to encourage you in this long and difficult journey. I will console you, even now when you are having the most difficulty, many of you see Me holding you and looking at you with so much compassion. (It's true. That's what He does for me.) That is My heart. What husband does not suffer when his spouse suffers? So yes, I suffer with you. And because of that I wish for you to know and understand how these doors of suffering get opened and how to keep them from opening.

"Your enemy has come to kill, steal and destroy. To defile and make soiled our sweet relationship, so you must learn how he operates to protect yourself and your loved ones. Ignorance is not bliss, it is disaster. So please, be patient with Me as I reveal how the demonic realm is arrayed against you and when you fall, how to raise yourself back up immediately before the fall turns into a stronghold.

"I am your loving and faithful Savior, I adore each and everyone of you and if this were not vital to our happiness, I would never bring it to you for your consideration.

"Please, be patient and honor Me in this. Learn everyday to come to Me and My Spirit and allow yourselves to see any bit of corruption in your hearts.

"You will be so much healthier and happier."

And that's the end of His message.

Well, thank you, Lord, that explains it all perfectly. And I wanted to let you guys know the next three messages are going to be an intense instruction on how we all go astray every day and how to correct it before the enemy gets a stronghold or a foothold in our lives. 'Cause strongholds are hard to get out. They require prayer and fasting.

So please, understand, I am being guided by Him and everything I put up on this channel is done with His blessing and His instruction behind it.

So, in the next series of messages I am going to be interviewing Dr. Sherry Steinhoff from NYC. She's a retired physician who had her own practice in NYC in radiology and urology. She also worked as an emergency room doctor at Sloan Kettering Hospital in NYC. For medical reasons, she took an early retirement, but in actuality, the Lord was setting her up for the real work that she was to do.

She has an incredible gift for diagnostics as well. Which gives her the opportunity, in working with the Lord, to see things that very few people would understand. She always, always submits her opinion to the Lord. In fact, she's quick to put herself down and leave the field open for what the Lord has to say. Very often, in the spirit, the Lord will work with her on different bodies, and we have felt the difference. Seriously felt the difference. This is the real deal. And it's quite amazing. It has been working regularly and outstandingly for the last month, so I would say it's tried and true.

Please, understand, this is Jesus' instruction to Dr. Sherry, not her own thing. And He gave it to her for all of us, because we really need it right now.

So, you can be looking forward to that. That'll be up tomorrow, the first in a series of three messages.

Love you all dearly. Thank you for your patience with me. Sometimes messages take a little bit of time to put together, because situations have to be resolved and then a lesson comes out of that.

So, if you don't hear from me, you know that that's what's going on.

I want to take a moment to thank those of you who've been donating to our channel on a regular basis, and keeping us afloat. Thank you so much. We're able to do so much for you, so much more because of your regular help. We also still have a Christmas list up on Amazon, but I want to reiterate what Jesus said, that He does not want this to be a materialistic Christmas. He doesn't want us shopping and getting drawn off course.

He needs us to be backing Mr. Trump as he heads towards the Oval Office. So, I'm asking all of you, please. If you want to send just one little thing, that would be wonderful. We'll make sure that it's distributed to the community, like we did last year. And that will keep you from the shopping malls and getting carried away. 'Cause He really, really does not want our focus on that.

But this is a work of mercy for children who can't afford to have toys, new toys and new things. This is a work of mercy for them. So, a little bit goes a long way.

But please, be faithful to Him and don't get all entangled in shopping and food preparation and all the things that normally just eat your time up. And then you're too tired for prayer.

And I wanted to mention, too, that thanks to your regular donations, we are able to put together food cards at the local grocery store, so families that we've discovered don't have any provision for Thanksgiving are going to have a turkey and all the fixings. So, this is a blessing from you to Jesus. And we're going to distribute those here in the community, as well.

Love you all dearly, Heartdwellers. And I'm so blessed that you're here with us, and that you're growing spiritually. I pray for you seriously every single day.

The Lord bless you and give you His courage and wisdom.

Amen.

Spiritual Warfare: 17 - How Demons Work - Interview w/Dr. Sherry 1 of 3

---

November 19, 2016

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers.

Well, I'm praying for tremendous wisdom right now. We have situations, spiritually, all over the world where CERN has opened certain doors. And because of the shortness of time, Satan's angry and he's released a LOT of demons.

And in response to the attacks that we've gotten on the Channel, the Lord has brought us several intercessors who are knowledgeable about these things and who He is training presently, that have fresh knowledge, fresh understanding.

And I wanted to share with you tonight an interview that was done with Dr. Sherry Steinhoff, from NYC. She's worked for Sloan Kettering, other hospitals in NYC. She had her own private practice. She was an Emergency Room doctor, Radiologist. Has done so many different things. And has a real gift for diagnostics - just knows something, or she'd remember something from medical school. And even at that time, she believes that Holy Spirit was working through her.

She's Jewish, a completed Jew. She received the Lord as her Savior, as a matter of fact, on this Channel. And I've been in touch with her ever since. And the Lord graced her with some tremendous gifts. She has such a hunger for God, like I've never seen before. And He does amazing things with her! As an intercessor, she'll come down with a case of leukemia and she KNOWS what it is - she knows exactly what it is, knows all the symptoms. And she'll carry that for a week or two or three weeks, or four weeks - and then all of a sudden, it'll leave. Or she'll have strokes and all of a sudden she'll be healed. And she'll have heart attacks, and then she'll be healed. And the Lord speaks to her very clearly.

She struggles against familiar spirits. There's NO one who communicates the Lord that doesn't get plagued with familiar spirits - she's learned some very good techniques for recognizing the Lord and what isn't the Lord. But Holy Spirit taught her so much, Jesus and the Father have taught her so much.

And I wanted to share with you an interview I had this evening. It's very important to us, guys, because we've got seeds of bitterness, all of us do. And every single time we lose our temper, we get these things. And they lodge in our bodies, they have an impact on our health.

We've known for a long time that temperamental issues affect our health - that's kind of a no-brainer. But understanding the actual dynamics of it, where it comes from, how it's utilized by the enemy and how to rid ourselves of it. These are the things I didn't know. And thanks to what the Lord is teaching Sherry, we've learned some amazing things about the dynamics of these seeds of bitterness, about curses, hexes, spells - seeing life-long oppressions lifting from people's lives and them going on with their lives.

Amazing, just amazing! A much greater understanding of what these things are. And I've seen some miracles. I've seen some incredible miracles physically - myself and other people that were just extraordinary. And they were done strictly through spiritual warfare. And I've seen and experienced personally how the Father Abba and Holy Spirit and Jesus all work together to heal the body, mind and the heart.

So, I wanted to share this with you tonight, because before anything happens, we have to repent before the Lord. If we're praying for healing, we need to repent. If we're praying spiritual warfare for deliverance, we need to repent. We have to go in clean. And "Show me, oh God, my secret sins or the sins that I'm not aware of. Show them to me." And that's what I spend time with every morning, and it's having a wonderful effect on my spiritual life, even though it's rough! It's rough seeing those things sometimes, but they have to come out!

And physically I feel better, because of it. I have more energy and sleep better, so I want to share that with you, what she told me this evening. We talked about it and I said, "I better record this for our Heartdwellers, because this is SO important. And you can say it better than I can."

I'll share with you now my interview with Dr. Sherry Steinhoff.

I wanted to mention to you that we are using an alias similar to her own name in order to protect her privacy.

C: You started out by saying that not everyone can speak in tongues, and you said that these seeds of frustration and anger - that you don't have to do anything but feel just a little bit of that, and then BANG - you've got one.

And you said that because they don't have the Baptism of Holy Spirit, they can't pray them out? How does that work?

S: Well, they can't pray in tongues (to get them out.) Because Holy Spirit has the ability, and knows exactly what to do. So, those of us who are ignorant, maybe feeling faulty about our intention, we're not sure what to do - He just knows how to do everything, He just goes and does it. So, I learned by watching Him, and I certainly wouldn't have known until the Lord gave me the gift of tongues and I could understand what was being said. You know, I could get the picture, but I - it's not like I understood what was being said.

So, now I realize that this same process is repeated, actually now, over everyone we pray. We begin at the heart. Everybody, no matter what their problem, He begins with their heart first. And you know how many times I have to clean myself up just because it's inappropriate to be a vessel that's filled with bitterness. And all it takes is, for example - they were having difficulty processing credit cards, because the order for the homeless was too big. And they didn't know what to do with such a big order. And I was thinking, "Oh, help me, Lord!" and I simply said, "You know? Lord - that's ridiculous, 'cause if You want me to have this, You're gonna give it to me, and I'm just a mess!" So, I felt much better, but I had that moment of panic or concern that it wasn't going to happen, and got seeds, got spirits of Irritation, Frustration, Fear, Agitation. All from a 10 minute phone call with an online store.

So, it takes very little to get these things. And I clean myself 5 or 6 times a day because of prayer (over others). He has suggested that everybody, minimum, morning and evening. And for those who really struggle with this, if they have a moment where they feel irritation or frustration for a second - RIGHT THEN AND THERE, if you repent - this seed is not imbedded in your heart. It has tiny, microscopic spines that grow into thorns, and it imbeds into the lining of the heart. But in the beginning, for a couple of hours, it hasn't done that. You can repent and He somehow gets it from the heart, into the trachea and you can cough it out. Somehow it enters the airway and you can cough it out.

C: And I burp it out.

S: Right. Some people sneeze it, some people do other things. Whatever your way of - and some people do nothing. Those people who do nothing, I actually had an image of Him taking a spirit out of somebody's nose. They were just breathing, and He sucked it out the nose. It's not common, but I saw it.

C: Were they aware of it? Did they feel it?

S: No, I don't think they, how they - nothing really happened. So, I'm thinking, "Well, this seems to be how it's happening!"

C: I have a question. If you were in surgery, would these things, would you be able to find them? Are they in the physical realm or are they only in the spiritual realm?

S: In the spiritual realm.

C: But they do affect your health.

S: Oh, significantly. Since last night He said it's a poison, a toxin. Something is making it worse. Whether it's the environment is more demonic because of the election and the upcoming who-knows-what... It's working faster. I used to have more time before I had to repent and still cough it out. Now? Not three hours and that thing's in there and gotta be taken out. And when He takes them out of me, my heart hurts for a minute, I actually felt them getting taken out. It's terrible, but I certainly know He's there.

So, for whatever reason, it's poisoning not just the physical bodies, but our minds. It's easier, He said, "the soil is fertile for evil. It's despoiled." He keeps using that word, "it's despoiled soil." Any kind of demon of Infection and Sickness, Evil Thoughts, Depression, Frustration, Anger - they just love this environment, it fosters their growth. It's also like a calling card to them. They can stay more easily. They enter more easily, because we are somehow fundamentally changed during that time enough so that a demon can enter with less permission. It's easier for them.

So, if we let it go for a while, it gets worse. And the health problems get significantly worse. Sometimes, it's different things. In some folks it's been very immediate, depending on how many seeds they have. And for some it's a chronic situation that's just chronically much worse than it should be. But He accepts it, because what He's telling us - "please clean out your seeds. If you do, it'll be better!" And, too, He's been needing every offering, He's been taking every offering He can get. And certainly up until the Election and even after for a few of us.

C: So, how do we get rid of these seeds now? You said this is not a casual prayer. Every morning...every evening.

S: It's not a prayer in passing, yeah.

C: Yeah, okay.

S: For those that speak in tongues it's very simple. I say, "Holy Spirit, please help me pray to repent and remove these seeds." And I hear myself saying in tongues, "Please, Father, hear my pleas, hear my cry. Please help me to remove any spirits of Irritation or Anger or whatever You feel is in there, along with the seeds of Bitterness I've acquired. Please remove them all from my heart." And I hear in answer, "I am here, My Daughter. I am here and I will help you, I will cleanse you, I will cleanse your heart."

So, I can say that I hear that's what's happening. But I would say to somebody that starts speaking in tongues - after you requested that, and when you're finished, He's done. But many don't speak in tongues and this was an issue, because they would say, "Please, Lord remove all the spirits, of all that stuff, and the Bitterness and please get it out of my heart." And that didn't work.

It's a prayer on the knees, it's a plea to Him where we're requesting assistance, so we should be in an appropriate position. And He told me to ask to have this person I was speaking about, to envision the process as I saw it, while he was praying. And the Lord will come and open the chest - He's just opening it, so, run your hand over, it opens, closes - no scars. Then run His hand over the heart - it opens. And even takes all the spirits, whether they be Irritation, Apprehension, Frustration, Anger, Bitterness - always there. And it's a bitter tasting spirit. When I cough that out, I - really, my face contorts and I have to spit. It's really bitter. That's running around in your heart...not a good thing.

C: Right

S: Bitterness. Let's see, sometimes we've had Apprehension about health issues, Fear of the future - it could be anything. Doubt. This is where I would say, the usual ones are Irritation, Anger, Frustration, Bitterness. Ask Holy Spirit to direct you what else to have removed so that everything associated with these seeds is removed. You don't want any of this darkness in, I don't want any of this darkness in my heart, Lord. As He takes the spirits out, then, the inside of the heart looks kind of black. One seed can do damage and leave local blackness, but usually folks have more than one. And they're black, they leave the heart black, they're imbedded with these little spines into the lining of the heart.

And sometimes I've seen a few just picked out, and sometimes He just kind of waves His hand and they start lifting out, along with the black that has been covering the inside of the heart. You have to remember that stuff will get pumped, it poisons the blood and the circulatory system, so it goes to your mind and into your body and into your soul and your spirit - they all get this stuff. So He's cleansing all that when He does this.

So, He's taken everything out and He speaks. He says, "I cleanse. I cleanse this heart, I cleanse this heart." And you see the lining start to pinken up and look normal. But after that, He puts in a sponge - always a sponge. Made of Yeshua's Blood, His tears - the tears of Jehovah, Yahweh, Abba, Holy Spirit - and occasionally the heart blood of Jesus, as well, goes in there, from when He was pierced.

So this is where I would say, "Please, create the sponge You feel is most appropriate for my circumstance, so that I can cleanse my heart. Please cleanse my heart, my Father." And the sponge goes in the heart, the heart is then closed - He waves His hand over the heart and chest and they're closed. He strengthens the pumping of the heart so that this cleansing Blood, this pure Blood of the Lamb will go throughout the body, will go to the mind, will go to the soul, will go to the spirit and will cleanse all the places, from the largest blood vessel to the tiniest capillary that was touched by this toxic, poisonous blood. That's what He calls it, it's toxic. It's a poison.

C: Scripture says that "Out of the heart, everything... uncleanness comes from the heart. Out of the heart of man comes uncleanness." It's not what you put in, but what comes out of your heart. So, that makes total sense. He's going right for the source.

S: Yes, that's exactly right.

Spiritual Warfare: 18 - How Demons Work - Interview w/Dr. Sherry 2 of 3

November 20, 2016

S: ...exactly right. And if there are organs that were already suffering from a demon associated with an illness, this toxic blood, it's fertile soil for that other demon to flourish, so problems get worse. And many folks, I'm realizing, don't know how much worse - because we've not been told until fairly recently, that this bitterness is really an issue. And it's getting worse. He has said, "Please, please My children, I implore you. Clean them at least twice a day. I implore you." There's things that He doesn't want to happen, I think by spiritual laws He must give in to happen when bitterness is allowed to persist.

There's only so much He can do with healing of other organs, you know - it takes longer. They get sicker. He say, "Please - I'm giving you the root, clean out those seeds, it'll be much better." So, this is what He does and then everything is closed up. Then I sit for a minute, and I guess I can say I feel a difference. Even when other things are going on, I just - I feel Holy Spirit tingles all over my body, just kind of like a caress that lets Him know I'm on the right track, I did well.

And He'll often say to you, "Well done. Well done, My daughter. Well done, My son." And you may hear that, or you may not. You may just feel it. Sometimes, I'll just smile out of the blue, I just start smiling like crazy and I know that's not me. Like right now, I'm just smiling like crazy! But that's what He wants us to do. And, of course, you know in the beginning if you're uncertain after you do this, someone who speaks in tongues can certainly check. Someone who speaks and understands tongues can definitely check, so that you can find out if your method is successful.

I guess...I'll have to ask what to do about that, 'cause I don't know how many have the gift of understanding or the gift of tongues. But tongues in general will do it, you just are uncertain of what part is what. It's just - in the end, it's done.

C: Let me ask you this. The thing is, repentance. You know. So you're gonna ask for these things to be removed, but do you need to connect emotionally or do you need to connect with the fact that you need to repent?

S: Yes. In the beginning, He wants you to envision this process while you're praying. All your repenting for what you did, at least you know about, and I ask Holy Spirit, "Tell me what I don't know about." For what you did. And many of these things, I can look back and say, "I know, I was irritated. I behaved well, much better than I was - but it was still there." We all know - it's all or nothing with the Lord. Little bit of irritation? That's it. He doesn't want us to feel that way.

C: If we can have a genuine heart of thanksgiving, 24/7, these things can't happen. Period. They just can't happen.

S: Yes. Funny you should say that, that's just what I was doing. Yeah - He's really been pointing it out to me, when things are not good, and I have to say, "Well, then - thank You that they're NOT GOOD, Lord! Thank You that they're not good. I can offer it all back to You. I wouldn't have had an offering, but now I have an offering! Thank You!" And when I do that, I actually start to feel thankful. I told you, when I got cursed - I actually got cursed in the middle of prayer, I feel the curse landing - only a couple of pings - and I started saying, "Thank you!" to the person who cursed me. "Thank you, you bring me closer to my Lord. Thank you, you've done a wonderful job, I can't believe you work for Lucifer. You've so deepened my relationship with my Lord. Thank you - I bless you!" Then I tell them about, please repent, we love you... But I genuinely mean it when I start speaking, He changes my heart so that I truly believe this. I don't want to lie!

C: right - or putting up a front. Yeah, it's not a play-acting thing, you're serious.

S: And you're absolutely right - if we have a heart of thanksgiving all the time, it literally changes the soil. They can't land. My problem is, as a human, is gonna be a second I don't have one (truly grateful heart). In that 24 hours, the mind's gonna slip and that one second is all its gonna take. If I get a little... it still feels planned - a little distraction, a little irritation, and the Lord will permit, because again, it's an offering and He wants to teach us how to avoid these things.

And you're absolutely right - a true, pure heart of gratitude and thanksgiving absolutely ruins it, in fact it stopped the curse completely - it could not alight. It got a couple of pings, it just died. It couldn't stay. It was wonderful! I just - the first time I ever experienced that. And it was only because I got cursed when I was praying and happened to hear, "curse landing" and I just said, "Thank you so much! This brings me so close to Him." And it does. It brings me close, because I just spent a lot of time with Him getting rid of the curses. It's absolute thanksgiving.

You spoke about that 100% right.

C: yeah...

S: He wants us to follow it. He doesn't want this time for many of us - some of us will still travail. But for others, who are having difficulty, not because He wants us to, but because the seeds are permitting other things to happen and by spiritual law, He can't protect you from that. You can ask Him to remove it all, but He's taking it as an offering and saying, "Please, please - My children. Please, I'm telling you, clean these seeds at least twice a day." And if you get irritated a lot more, do it right when you do it, as much as you can when you're irritated. Repent and say, "Please remove this." And usually it's a cough, a burb, a sneeze - that's it. They're nothing.

C: And I noticed that I tend to be quick, just - get it done. That kind of attitude. And I noticed that I felt like that wasn't going to work, and it was probably Holy Spirit letting me know that. And I was on my knees and I waited, probably waited a good ten minutes until I started to feel compunction for what I had done.

S: During that time, how did you feel? Did you feel a change during that 10 minutes?

C: Oh, yeah. Well, when I was done, yes. I finally came to realize, you know, He finally convicted me. It took a while for Him to convict me, because I tend to be...gloss things over, I move fast, you know. And it took a while. I had to force myself. You're like me that way, I had to force myself to be still and quiet and to wait on the Lord, because I knew there was things - but I didn't know precisely. Some of them I knew, some of them I didn't know. But I was waiting for conviction, and when the conviction came I was able to really repent and say that I was sorry for having offended the Lord. Because being sorry because you got a seed doesn't cut it. You know, you have to be...

S: Right, being sorry that you are now bittered up His house

C: Yeah, yeah. That doesn't cut it. What cuts it is that you hurt Him, you offended Him. You know. And His heart - I mean, He's God. His heart is delicate, it's not like...

S: It's so pure, we can't understand it.

C: Right, right. So, one little bit of irritation, He's looking at it in the sense, I get the feeling sometimes, He's saying, "All of this I've given you, and all these things are going well for you in your life - and you complain over a little frustration over a phone call? And you can't offer that up to Me without getting upset? That's an offense to Him! It's an ungrateful heart. That's the source of it. Ingratitude.

S: Yep.

C: And I think a real true saint doesn't become perturbed, you know. Like the saints that - you know, some of the saints, whose writings we have read - they - I don't think they. They got to the point where nothing bothered them any more. Everything - because they were in such a state of gratitude and love for the Lord. Those things just didn't bother them, they just flew off of them.

S: Well, the one thing that you mentioned the other day, about loving the Lord and being IN love with the Lord, turns out to be, I think, the crux of - it's certainly all my efforts, and all my existence. What it boils down to is - and I never thought I'd say this - but (before He came for me). But it comes down to I'm so in love with Him, I don't want Him to suffer because I erred.

I don't want Him to feel ungratefulness from me, because He's done so much for me. Including absolute miracles. I don't want to return that to Him. I feel terrible! I'm truly repentant that I did that - I start crying, a lot. I don't want self-pity. Self-pity is NOT, that's pride. True repentance, you know. And I ask Him to get rid of the self-pity, so I just truly repent with my heart. And He does - I cough it out, and I hear "self-pity, self-pity, self-pity".

C: Well, and you know we're gonna have to ask the Lord to show us our self-pity because a lot of people don't know the difference between self-pity and true contrition. Show us the difference between feeling sorry for ourselves and feeling sorry for offending God. Those are two different ball parks altogether.

But I wanted to mention that, when I had knelt for a while and allowed Holy Spirit to work in my heart and bring conviction - that I did end up burping. Well, I sighed, there were a few sighs, you know and there were a few burps. And then last night something happened that I got upset and I brought it to the Lord, and immediately repented - and I was burping for the next 15 minutes. Just out of nowhere, it was like - Wow! That's a lot of seeds!

S: He sometimes, also - He gives you gifts. He'll take other things that, for example, if you - you've mentioned your Fibromyalgia. He may lessen that a little. It's just a present for, yes, for "following My will, listening to My will." He's been hammering (on me) I actually texted someone else right now about a message, and He's saying that - you know. "Please, it's My will not thine. Don't worry about what you have planned, 'cause I'M the one you need to worry about and I will make sure it works out okay." And the one thing He pointed out was, man - if I get something that I did that He didn't want me to have, that is NOT gonna end well. So...

Never Presume & Plot to Kill Donald Trump

November 20, 2016

May Our Sweet Lord Jesus be ever so present to you, all dear Heartdwellers.

I've been somewhat plagued with distractions getting into prayer today, but finally I did.

And I just had to say to the Lord, "I'm so sorry, I can't resist these interruptions...dear God help me!" Because He's always asked me to put Him first on the schedule and you would not believe the things that come up that try and steal that away!

So, I've been trying to start earlier and earlier in the morning to get away from that. I'd like to hear from you guys and see how that's been working for you, as well.

In any case, the Lord has asked me to put this timely message up ahead of the third warfare message. And so I'm going to do that, even though it's short. Then, tomorrow the 3rd and final message in the interview with Dr. Sherry will be up.

Finally, when I got into prayer, I said, "I'm here, Lord."

And He said, "I am here, too. My arm is around you. I am with you intently because I love you and no one is taking My place in your life. You are to be there for each other but no one else is your Jesus - only Me. Others are there to encourage you but not take over My job. You already know much of what you've been told. I send others merely bring a confirmation. We do have our own relationship.

"No presumption My Children, assist one another but never INSist to one another. Allow Me to work in the soul, allow Me My space in their hearts and spirits. If you are not comfortable with a direction, you should never do it. Rather wait on Me to confirm it. If I do not confirm it, you will be saved from going in the wrong direction. If I do confirm it, you will be more solid in that direction.

"But you must never overstep your boundaries and take over My job in the heart of a soul. If a soul resists a direction, one of three things is occurring: that direction is incorrect. That soul is resisting Me and doesn't want to go in that direction, even though I long to confirm it to them. Even if I do, they won't recognize it, because it's against their will. And I never force My way on anyone. Or I have not confirmed to them that it is the right direction yet. And in this case, you are to wait, and they are to wait on Me. You may indeed be wrong - when you are sure you are right. This is where humility comes in. I am the only one who is infallible.

"Many elders in the church have overstepped their boundaries not understanding that their role is to confirm and instruct but not take over the responsibility of directing a soul to do this or that, and certainly never insisting that their way is right and the soul is wrong.

"It is My job to convict a soul to do or not do something. So be careful, dear ones, how you handle one another so you do not presume on My role in their life. Humility, gentleness and patience are always the virtues needed when one is in question about important issues in their lives.

"From the dawning of time, I have worked through the conscience of men, women and children. They need not be told what to do, they know it in their hearts. But you are there to help them discover that and get a confirmation from Me. Never insist that you alone have the answers. Pride is abhorrent to Me and much damage is done to tender souls when pressure is exerted inappropriately.

"One of the reasons, Clare, that you are gentle with souls in this area is that you have been presumed upon and underestimated so many, many times and you know well how hurtful, belittling and confusing that is. You are there as a shepherdess to guide and protect and teach others how to find their own way with Me, but never to replace Me."

And this is just an admonition that the Lord gave me on the heels of a situation that I was struggling with. So, it was nice to hear Him say that we have our own relationship, and we surely do!

Now, I had some visions during prayer that were concerning to me. And the Lord is addressing those now.

"Now about this blood thirsty group in the Middle east. As I have told you before, this is the seed of Ishmael. And your president-elect has every right to prevent them from establishing a hierarchy in the U.S. Unfortunately it is way too late for that. However, I will be with him as he cleans out the cells and places of worship from which cobras breed and spread their poison."

Here, by the way, He's referring to a vision that I had years ago of cobras breeding in the back of a mosque, then going out through the windows, going out into the people and biting them with hatred, venom and poison, hatred.

The Lord continued, "Hatred has never been My way, with the exception of idolatry - as when I overturned the money changer's tables. That was a righteous act, and so it is righteous that this evil be curtailed and banished.

"You will never be able to root out all the evil, however it will grow much more slowly once a definitive blow is initiated."

Lord, is this vision I keep having from You?

"Yes, it is and this must be prayed against. This not only is quite likely but is being planned."

And this is what I saw in prayer, guys. I saw a semi parked in an alley in NYC - there are many alleys in NYC. Some with very tall buildings on the sides and some with shorter buildings. In any case, this semi had pulled into the alley and the top opened and a missile began to emerge at an angle. First it was horizontal, and then swung into an angle and was vertical. And then it was fired directly at the top floors of Trump Tower.

The Lord continued here, "He is not safe in this location, rather he's a sitting duck. However, this thought has entered the minds of others as well, others close to him and it is a consideration. Measures are being taken."

And I wondered if I was really hearing Him clearly on that, and He repeated this three times: Measures are being taken.

He continued, "There could be no better ploy to destroy Mr. Trump than to blame it on the Muslims, the exact same way 911 was assigned to them, and the guilty ones would still look innocent to the public. However, I am with him, Clare, and even if I had to turn that missile around, I could do it. I am only asking you to pray, Beloved."

Oh, that word 'Beloved' rings so sweet in my ear, Lord.

"And well it should. You truly are My Beloved and I have missed you terribly and you have lost sight of our sweetest times together. We shall have more of these if you will but obey Me in all things."

He continued, "I know this is a short message but it is timely and necessary now. By the way, dear ones, I commend you for your prayers and offerings. They have been a substantial help in turning certain events away from happening."

"Please be encouraged and continue on. We aren't quite there yet. Every day, I strengthen you for the battle when you receive communion. Always know that My power is perfected in your weakness. I am truly with each of you."

"I bless you now with a grace to fine-tune My voice in your hearts, and know the difference between Me and your adversary."

Run to Me (Song by Ezekiel, Inspired by Anna Roundtree)

November 21, 2016

Run to Me

Do you not know yet, that I want ALL of You,
To want ALL of ME

Look to Me,

Open Your Heart Wider and Wider.

I want for you to be as the Prodigal Son's Father

Watching, Waiting, Perceiving

My Tangible Presence

Running Toward You From Afar

And I want for you to come running, always running

Passionately Pursuing Me

Look for Me Always and Everywhere

Stop, Look, Listen, Pursue

We will catch Each Other More Quickly

Spiritual Warfare: 19 - How Demons Work - Interview w/Dr. Sherry 3 of 3

November 22, 2016

S: ...It's not going to end well. All things go in His hands. Don't get frustrated if the answer is "no". Obviously, it wasn't going to be good for me for some reason, and He's given me a couple of things I've wanted. That was terrible. TERRIBLE!! I look back and that and I go, "Oh, yeah - I prayed, I wanted that - and BOY was that foolish!" Now, I just pray, "What's Your will for me? 'Cause Yours is better, I'll listen to You. I don't have any wisdom, I don't have any knowledge - I'm going with Your choice, whatever that is."

C: Right. Right - that's the safest way.

S: It is. Safe is fine for me right now, I need as little mess as possible. He's permitting plenty of little messes anyway, I don't need to add to them for offerings! But I think a lot of this - you're making me realize that I think a lot of this is about teaching us about how to handle the seeds. These little frustrations or irritations are not just offerings - they're the key to our getting all these seeds throughout the day, and He's telling us how to manage those moments and how to manage the seed moments, so that we're no longer letting our bodies get poisoned, including these things that we were either unaware of, or didn't think they were that important.

I know somebody - last night I was talking...I'll do it later, I'll do it later, he says. And it didn't end up happening, I don't remember what the issue was. But there was something health related that was complicated with him, too - and he didn't really notice because it was a chronic thing, it was a little better, a little worse, a little better. It's always worse when the seeds are there. And when we delay, He's kind of saying, "No, I said don't delay, because that's going to cause a problem. Please, My children, I'm telling you for your own good. You can do it, there's always free will. But there are consequences. So, it's ALWAYS our choice.

C: But I'm beginning to realize, when I'm getting rid of stuff, and I didn't at first. So I guess what I'm saying is, to be patient, you know - for people who haven't been initiated in this. And I'm just barely initiated in it. Be patient and pay attention and sensitive. This is one reason why the Lord doesn't want us in the media, because it's constantly desensitizing us to the point our communication bans, because it's so gross. It's so intense. It's so loud, fast moving and it trains your mind to gloss over a lot of things. But when you're quiet and still, and there's no TV going, no music going, no anything going on - you can really, you begin to slow down. Your mind slows down and you can tune in to the finer wavelengths. Which is where the Lord's voice is. The spiritual realm, you know. The spiritual realm. Which is made up of demons and angels, you know? That's where our discernment comes in.

S: I think I had 10 curses yesterday, I'm not exaggerating. They cursed me, like, 10 times a day. So, the Lord and I get to spend time together. He removes my curses, I do a lot of hacking..

C: Well, that was another thing I wanted to mention, and I wanted to ask you about. I was under the impression that the curses couldn't land unless there was an open door. Well, they hover and then...

S: My impression of this is, sometimes they land, some can land but they don't activate. They don't - they need like a primer switch. I'm not sure if they need it or they wait for it - Oh, I think that's it, 'cause Holy Spirit's confirming it. It waits for an opening that goes along with what they do, if you don't realize that you've been cursed, you just think that this is your response this day to something that made you upset. But to go rapidly from upset into utter desolation, despair and what knot.

But they take you through a series of emotions so that you just think, "Well, I'm upset about this, it's really getting to me today." You don't think, "I've been cursed and I have to go check into that." So they think they're safer, that you're not going to get rid of them. If we have, let's say it's a curse of infirmity, they wait until you hurt yourself - you bump your toe or something like that. Say it's a curse of desolation, despair, heartsickness and heartbreak. They start with a little sadness, you got some news. And then they quickly go with that and bring you along until, suddenly - you haven't really realized, over a day - you're crushed! You're heartbroken! You can't even move, you don't even care, you just are so bad. And it seems like it's over this thing - but they're very crafty, and they know us well, and they know what kinds of things hurt us.

We feel hurt in our hearts and they wait for those moments. So, it could be two days, could be three days - but when it happens, you're less likely to recognize that it's a curse, you're more likely to think, "Uh, well, maybe it's a demon of Sadness or whatever." But you don't get the whole thing, so you don't break the curse and you don't get rid of the demon that's attached to the curse. So, they'll just start again later. It's kind of like a warfare tactic. That's the impression that's been confirmed.

C: Well, that's kind of ...yeah, partially what I thought. I want to ask you real quick...

S: Well, the others can't alight. You're right, others can't alight at all. They wait for us to make an error that opens that possibility. And others, a lot of them, they just - they can land, we have done something, but they don't want to be found. So they wait patiently, 'cause there's always a moment when whatever feelings they're associated with most, whatever issue they're associated with most come up, and they can do it with more freedom without you realizing it's a curse - and perhaps not just a demon. If you get rid of a demon, the curse is still there.

C: So, demons come with curses.

S: Every demon has a curse. Every curse has a demon, every door has a demon, every energy block or barrier has a demon connected to it. So, the curse has to be broken and removed - and literally I hear the Lord saying, "And I break this." And He uses the word 'break'. And sometimes I hear a chain breaking, a clink. And then "And I take the demon connected with." And sometimes the demon is specific, I get a specific impression: it's the demon of Desolation, the demon of Infirmity. But sometimes I won't and it's just the demon in charge of that whole thing and keeping it going. Very much like a stronghold, and a strong man demon. These guys all have a demon attached, too. So everything has to go for it to go.

C: Wow... but the Lord takes care of that. yeah. Where did you say you were practicing medicine for, 'cause I've got to talk to my doctor tomorrow.

S: New York

C: Yeah, but where was - it was some kind of institute of something

S: I was in private practice. But before that, I was at Mt. Sinai and then Memorial Sloan Kettering.

C: Sloan Kettering - that's what I was...yeah. I'm going to tell him that. And the other doctor that Ezekiel is seeing. Because you had mentioned that hyperinsulinemia could be the reason why he starts to freak out. You know, he gets angry...

S: They send demons of hyperinsulinemia - too much insulin. So that when you banish the demon of low blood sugar, nothing really happens, 'cause.. The problem is - now he's making too much insulin. In terms of how active or noticeable that would be to a physician at any time, my guess is, that's what happened to me about something else.

Every time I went to get tested - and this is before the Lord came to me - the problem disappeared completely. Like right before the test - no problem. Everything was back to normal, I'd leave, within a day it would start again. It would just hide it from them. So, it was a little frustrating before I understood that everything I learned in medical school was really wrong... There was an entire realm of how this body, mind, soul, spirit, heart worked that we just missed the boat on completely - we didn't even address 2/3s of it.

We just don't understand.

C: Well, so that might be the case when we say that, you know when the patient's sick, the doctors not there, you know. You take your car in to the mechanic, there's no problem. You go back out and there's the problem again. So it's actually a demon causing the problem and they lay low...wow. They lay low when they're with the mechanic.

S: Right. I don't think it.. Most doctors could not remove it, but why give anybody any ideas about looking into it, because goodness. You know a Bible believing Christian could be somewhere and "we" don't need to be noticed. (speaking of the demons) Yeah, they hide. It's very annoying. Every time you go to the doctor, you feel fine five minutes before he walks in the door. You're absolutely right, 'cause how many years did I deal with it from both sides, as patient and physician. That happened all the time, unless something was really grossly changed in the flesh. And even - bleeding would stop, infection would suddenly look a little better. It was just...now it makes perfect sense. Thank you - you're absolutely right.

C: wow.

S: Very sneaky. Most physicians won't believe this. But you'll get a spiritual one, if not a religious one - but one who believes that at least more controlling the state of our emotional, spiritual, physical health, mental health, as well. Than just what little they know. Those are the ones who are humbler and at least, they think, the more I study, the less I know how anything works.

And then we have the other group that say, "I am God." Quite literally - I am God. I've heard some. A Neurosurgeon was the last one I heard. He said, "I am God." A heart surgeon said, "I held the heart in my hand. I was God at that moment." I'm thinking, "oh, well, God might have been in you, using your hands - but...no, you and He? I'm learning are really far apart..." but it is what it is. If they don't have eyes to see and ears to hear, it just goes through. But you never know...

C: Well, I think medical school - you're pretty much ostracized, from what I understand, I've never been to medical school. From what I understand, if you have any supernatural diagnostic bends in you, you're laughed to scorn and you won't get a license, you know?

S: What's interesting, I was known at the time for - being able to come up with the most obscure, strange diagnosis, I had a mind for the weird. I would look at something and say, "You know, I saw that picture 10 years ago. I think this is..... disease." And people would just drop. "How does she know that?" I have no idea, but I'm sure it was the Lord, because I'm not that smart. He gave me certain gifts in medicine. I used to get laughed at, as an intern.

I would walk around through the intensive care unit, and I would just hold the hands of the comatose patients. And I would talk to them, you know. I'd introduce myself. And they're just like, "oh... she's just...coo coo, this one." And they would say, "You can't - they can't even hear you!" And I said, "Well, you know, I had brain surgery a few years ago and I heard everything. I was too sick to move, but I remember talkin' about boyfriends over me, I mean, they talked all the time." I was awake, I was alert - I just couldn't talk.

So, you never know what anyone can hear. And I just wanted them to know that not every touch was a needle, and that I knew they weren't meat and a bandage. That there was a person there. And I think, He started working on me even then, 'cause I got laughed at a lot, but I still did it. He had something in store for me later. He's amazing.

Clare: - That concludes our interview with Dr. Sherry Steinhoff in NY.

Lord, help us to understand that You've given us these things to use and that we can do this. Help us to really absorb the wisdom that You've given Sherry to share with us and to put it to use and to practice every day.

And just to let you know, Heartdwellers. It takes a while to connect and really begin to sense Holy Spirit speaking to our hearts and drawing attention to those things that are in our heart. It is so worth the effort. If I had been taught this in my early Christianity it would have been amazing. Really amazing. Because I had NO idea why I was sabotaging myself every day, just by my thoughts.

You know, people talk about what you think and the power of words, but to understand the dynamic behind it and how it lets the enemy in - wow. That's just a really, really choice piece of information. And it's meant for us to put to work.

So, I ask You, Lord. Please help us to assimilate this, to start practicing it. Amen.

Living In God's Will & Destiny

---

November 25, 2016

May the will of God be your only desire.

Well, my sweet family of Heartdwellers, I have been about the Lord's business while you were listening to our interview with Dr. Sherry. I am almost done with the painting, I've written two new songs and am honing my skill on the keyboard and vocals, so that I can bring them to you really soon.

Each day I discover how thanksgiving plays such a central role in my life. How happy Father God is when He hears me thanking Him, how happy Jesus and Holy Spirit are, as well.

So, two out of three songs are about giving thanks. I'd really like to do a thank you album, so important is that attitude of heart!

One of the songs is very childlike and simple and I think I will finish that first. The other song has a marvelous melody and I'm still trying to work out the words - wondering if I am too compulsive about composing lyrics. I like to pack a lot of meaning into my songs, but I also like the simplicity of less lyrics. I've been very influenced by Julie True, 'cause she is so anointed. But she does her thing and I'm going to be doing mine. Still, she's had a good impact on me

But, maybe something much more simple would please the Lord. Please pray for clarity for me.

And for those of you who delight in snagging me with confusion and opposition, you are truly serving God's ends quite well by teaching me perseverance and spiritual warfare. This, in turn, I will share with our Heartdwellers. So, thank you for that!

Well, my dear family, I cannot stress enough to you how hindering seeds of resentment and bitterness are. And how easy they are to get! The Lord has sent out the invitation to come up higher, and with that He has warned...count the cost. How unfortunate for the soul who puts their hand to the plow and then turns back to the comfort of a mediocre life in the world. I will share that with you in this message Jesus gave me.

But what I want to stress here is that when you respond with rancor in any situation, you have just opened the door to a demon, a seed and the damage that demon will do, including - pardon the harsh words - vomiting and defecating on you, as well as blackening the inside of your heart. And from your heart, the blood pumps and takes this to the extremities and to every part of your body. And it does affect your health!

Rich Joyner was shown this very clearly in his dreams. And if you haven't read him, please do, he is truly a prophet of holiness.

So Ezekiel and I have been catching ourselves in this rancor and taking it immediately to the Lord. You know it's funny, how I'll quip about, "I'll open a window and he'll come behind me and close it." Well, guess what? I get seeds of resentment from that. And I am having to deal with that, because I want my heart to be a sweet place. So, there are just so many different ways that you can get these seeds.

As a result of catching myself in this and repenting immediately, the Lord Jesus is becoming clearer and clearer in our communications. I hear Him at will (and sometimes when I don't will...like abstaining from butter). It is amazing how clear and present His voice is 24/7. Much of that has to do with my decision to do whatever He tells me to do. No more holding onto a little portion of mine here or there. I have turned it all over to Him - God help me - and what clarity has resulted in this resolution, fueled by grace!

All I can say Heartdwellers, is the very moment you offend charity or Holy Spirit, retire to a private place, kneel and ask God to help you with repentance. Especially deeply heartfelt repentance. If kneeling is impossible for you, at least kneel in your heart. I can't tell you what marvelous breakthroughs I have had as a result of practicing this faithfully. I don't dare undertake anything until I've checked my heart for seeds and asked Holy Spirit to please show me what's there in my heart that shouldn't be.

So, that's what I wanted to share with you.

And now for the Lord's message.

Jesus began, "As you get closer and closer to Me, relying always on My wisdom and will from moment to moment, you will find that your life will straighten out and soar."

Wow, I can really see that. I'm so much more creative and released to create than I was before.

"These things that have held you back will no longer be an issue in your life. My dearest Clare. I want moment to moment obedience and deferring to Me in everything. This pleases Me more than you can possibly imagine. This makes you moldable, tractable. Someone I can easily steer. a vehicle that responds to the driver. In this way, I dodge many bullets, many traps of the enemy to swerve you off course. To live this way and be at peace - this is the pinnacle of the Christian walk, this is absolutely the most important place to be, next to charity.

"Many cannot hear Me because they are not willing to let go of their own agendas. When they begin to have success in hearing Me, I ask something of them that causes them to feel insecure and threatened. Well, all of a sudden they can't hear Me anymore or get confirmations.

"Of course, the enemy is well aware of this and being the opportunist that he is, takes full advantage of them, throwing more and more confusing demons into the mix, until they are thoroughly confused and resort to the counsel of their families, friends and even other spiritual people, counsel that will not threaten that security.

"You artfully dodged Me for years, Clare. Had you responded as Sherry has, there is no telling where you would be right now in My kingdom and ministry, and the happiness that would be yours. I am not chastising you, My precious love, I am merely stating the facts. But I never gave up on you, Clare. Aren't you glad?"

Oh dear God, yes! I have never been happier or felt more fulfilled than I do right now.

"Yes, and that is the fruit of obedience. I cannot take a soul down the road of their destiny, what I created them for, unless they turn over complete control to Me. So many rely on their social standing and are petrified of being stripped down to beggar status. But there is no one on this Earth or in Heaven that has more status before Me, than one who has become a beggar for Me.

"Yet the very thought of becoming a no-one from no-where, going no-where, is seriously threatening because their reality is the world and worldly security and status. What they are missing because of it is the most cherished state a human can aspire to, and that is to be My Beloved Spouse, one with Me, given up totally to Me.

"One who has this reality could care less how others look at them. They could care less if they missed a meal or were fed. They care not where they sleep. Their only care is not to lose Me. And because of that, I care for them and look out for all their needs supernaturally.

"But when one resorts to the comfort of their family, it's over."

As it is written: A man's enemies will be the members of his own household. Anyone who loves his father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me; and anyone who does not take up his cross and follow Me is not worthy of Me....anyone who does not take up his cross and follow Me is not worthy of Me." Matthew 10:36-37

"These are not just 'pretty' words, these are a rule of life. When you were contemplating entering a monastery, and giving up your children, I revealed to you that it was not My will, nor My plan for your life, and you continued to be their mother. Everything hinges on obedience.

"When the conscience of a soul is corrupted by the world, they must constantly have a failsafe net beneath them, and so they continue to belong to the world while on the outside pretending to belong to Me. Their life is a confused mess, because they are trying to serve two masters, God and Mammon...or the world and money.

"So, I work with them as closely as they will permit. Coming through for them time after time. But there comes a point where I must let them off the hook, so to speak, and allow them to go their own way without hindrance. I grieve over this because I see what could have been and the souls they could have brought back into My kingdom before it was too late for them.

"So, they go back into the world, being led again by their own ideas. For many, it is too late. For others, I will try again and again, but each time their heart grows harder. Their lives are entirely taken up with their own personal drama which they create in abundance - and that's what steers their life.

"Oh, how I wish I could have been at the helm, but they would not have it. I sent them the best of My counselors lest they sin by blaming Me, 'But I didn't know...' Is a common cry which condemns them as I show the many people I sent to guide. 'But how could I tell if they were right?' is always the next objection. And then I play the tape for them: the time I visited them in the spirit and confirmed solidly that direction, over and over again. I show them how they did indeed 'know' and chose their own way, nonetheless.

"Do you see, Clare? I spare nothing bringing the rebellious into My service, but when they refuse to have Me, there is nothing more for Me to do but find another vessel who truly loves Me enough to lay down their lives for Me, and give that assignment to them.

"Concerning the present situation, there was a stronghold of legalism in that town I was sending them. There were young people crying out for understanding and older people injured by the many false ways and rules of men. The fresh perspective and anointing I had given that vessel would have been very fruitful. But he did not trust Me to care for his needs. Rather, he ran to the comfort of his family and returned to the world.

"Perhaps there will come another opportunity, perhaps not. But with each successive attempt, the heart hardens, grace is lost. One becomes more set and comfortable in their own ways. Yet not only is it My nature to be merciful, but also to never give up but to send more vessels, fasting and praying, counseling and guiding. But as I told you from the very beginning of this situation, this one's heart does not belong to Me."

But the talk is holy, Lord?

"The mouth utters many things, but a man is proven by his fruits. And here there is nothing but disorder and confusion.

"My people, please do not sign up to be My vessel unless you are willing to be broken and ground into fine powder, then rehydrated by the living waters of My Spirit and reformed by My very own fingers.

"The making of a vessel unto honor is a messy business. The pot must be broken and every vestige of the old life must be given up and ground to a powder, if not given up in fact and in practice, at least given up by resolution and continued attempts in obedience.

"A potter must work the mass with his hands and slam the clay down on the slab to remove the hidden air bubbles - the Pride - which will cause the vessel to burst in the pressure and temperatures of the kiln. Unless that lump of clay is willing to be slammed down repeatedly, with great injury done to their pride, that clay is useless to Me. It will only explode under pressure, and pressure is what is necessary to bring that vessel to completion and into My service.

"So, I entreat you, if you are showing up and offering yourselves to serve Me, and are not prepared to sustain heavy losses. Losses of all you are, all you could be, all you have been in the world, if you are not willing to have the pride pounded out of you, please do not weary Me with a double mind. Rather stay in the world until you are fully sick to death of it and truly are willing to go through anything to serve Me.

"I will still love you, I will still hope for you, I will still be there for you, but we will not have a working relationship, nor the sweet fellowship I enjoy with My Bride. Nonetheless, I will love and provide for you. Nothing will change. I will still take you to Heaven. But your life will be lackluster, lukewarm and dull. There will be piercing remorse when you see others promoted and doing what you once dreamed of doing, you may even fall to envy and jealousy, which reflects a hidden desire in you that you were never willing to die to have.

"My people, many are called, few are chosen. And sadly, much to My dismay, even fewer respond."

Do You Love Me? Feed My Sheep

---

November 27, 2016

May the Lord strengthen you with His supernatural resolve in all the decisions you are facing today, dear Heartdwellers.

I wanted to share with you just a little of my time with Jesus today. I have been feeling strangely distant from Him and discovered that my 'friends'- so called friends - from the dark side have been messing with my mind and rewiring it into the world, while I for my part was struggling to connect with the Lord. Well, Jesus came in and rewired it back to where it was. When I first saw Him today, He was walking towards me from about 30 feet away and I saw that I was covered in black spider webs that were preventing my connection with the Lord.

When He stood right before me, one swipe of His hand and they were all gone, except for the ugly leftover tatters. He then blew on those and they erupted into flames and smoke and were gone. Then He gently took my hand and led me to that heavenly ballroom and we danced and danced having a wonderful time in worship to Terry MacAlmon's music.

From that time on He has been so clear and present, thank God. I just wanted to share that we still do dance together...but this is a season not to focus on dancing, but on other things.

This message tonight is for those of you facing a decision to serve the Lord or stay where you are in the world. It is a message we have all had to receive at one time or another when we decided to follow the Lord into the unknown and out from our security. And in particular, a dear brother who has been struggling to obey direction that has been confirmed to him by the Lord.

Jesus began, "I do not wish for any to die, but some must die to themselves, since they've been living a life of corruption in the world. Sometimes the breaking is very very hard; other times it comes on slowly and in manageable doses.

"I know what is best for this soul.

"Clare, I cannot soften this assignment."

I had asked the Lord to give this soul something more doable.

He said, "Clare, I cannot soften this assignment. I must bring him face to face with his fears so he can overcome everything...every phantom that has held him back. It isn't any easier for Me than it is for him. It is painful for both of us, yet it is what must be done. If he is going to move forward into his destiny, he must do this. There are no ways around it, no shortcuts, no bypasses. He must go through this.

"The question is this, (and here, He's addressing the person) Do you love Me? Feed My sheep. What more can I say? No shortcuts. Obedience.

Many do not realize that I allow circumstances in their lives because that is the next step on the road to sanctity. They are thinking, success, security, peace, happiness the way the world has these things.

"I am thinking, before you can truly have these things, the real things, authentic peace, security and success. You must conquer the untamed land of your own will and your own opinions. My ways are not your ways, dear ones, any more than your little two year old toddler's ways and choices are not your choices for him.

"If you let a child have their own way, do whatever they want, you will have a corpse lying before you in no time. That's why I gave you parents, little one, they know the way to true security.

"Growing up is not easy. You encounter many failures as you learn to walk, swim, do homework, take tests, go to the dentist, learn how to drive, get your first job, spend your first paycheck. Growing up is NOT easy.

"Nor is spiritual maturity easy. Learning how to deny yourself is only one leg of the journey; the other is following Me with your cross. You cannot follow Me unless you deny yourself. What seems like folly to the world is the very pinnacle of wisdom from Me. And stubbornly clinging to your old ways is the very bottom of the pit of foolishness. You will accomplish nothing you will be proud of when you die if you live in that pit. You will have very little to recommend you to a place in Heaven.

"And there are two levels of obedience. In one way, a man chooses what looks best to him, considering what he has learned from the Scriptures and the examples of others around him. This is the purse of his own opinions. I call this 'obedience' only because he is trying to be obedient to the examples around him and in the Scriptures.

"Then there is another level of obedience. This is when the soul comes to Me empty and destitute, and seeks Me out until He finds Me and says, "What do you want me to do, Lord?" This soul will avoid all the pits the first soul will undoubtedly fall into."

There is a way which seems right to a man, But its end is the way of death. Proverbs 14:12

"The one who releases control of their lives over to Me will not fall into these pits, but it requires death to self-will and personal opinion, or the opinion of any man, for that matter.

"I hate to see suffering in those who wish to serve Me. But unless they go the way of the Cross as I did, they cannot attain to or be trusted with the higher spiritual gifts, because they will corrupt them with self-will and teach that to others, as well. And so I must break the stronghold of self-will and self-intelligence first.

"If the soul is willing to look foolish to the world, but act out of faith in this world, then I can trust them with the greater gifts. They will reproduce their behavior in those who follow them. That is why those who are called to teach are admonished, 'Not many should aspire to teach, for they will be measured with a stricter rule.'"

Lord do you have a message for our general audience?

"Not really. Not as yet. Except, this is a season of tests, dear ones. Just as you apply for a job and are given tests to see if you are competent, I am handing out aptitude tests for the will in each soul, to see how deep their commitment goes.

"I will tell you, there is coming a time of blossoming in your assignments. But before I can move any deeper into your destinies, I must test your willingness to let go of the familiar and secure ground and your readiness to go into uncharted territory not knowing what to expect, but trusting that I know - and that's good enough.

"These will determine your placement and whether or not you can serve Me with your whole heart or if you will hold back certain areas from Me. The rewards are tremendous; but this is not the time for rewards, but for assessing strong points and weak points and if you are even trainable.

"I think the story of the team of horses that pulled the King's Carriage would be good to share here."

And I'll be sharing that with you in tomorrow's message.

And thank you so much for taking care of us every month. We're putting together a new book called Rhema, that you can pray and open to get direction for your life. And it will be taken from ALL of the messages, all 600 and whatever messages we have here.

That and some other projects. I think the portrait's gonna be done this week and we'll have it up in a large format for you to copy, if you want.

Thanks to your monthly support, we're able to help the people here in Taos, the single mothers especially and the elderly who are taking care of their grandchildren. And, begin these new projects and finish them too. So we're excited.

Carol has written a book for young teens and it's just awesome. Called A Garden Enclosed. And we're gonna have it up on PDF format on the Heartdwellers website. And she's also beginning a book on Spiritual Warfare that will have different teachings from Dr. Sherry's experiences and our experiences to help you combat the evil in this world, especially as it comes after you individually.

So, there are a lot of things that we're doing, thanks to you being a supportive family. Some of your comments on the pages make me cry, they're so sweet and kind. And the progress that some of you are making and that you share really encourages us.

Thank you again. The Lord bless you all, Heartdwellers. You all have become our very, very precious family. We adore you

The Harness of The Lord

November 28, 2016

May you find your joy in doing the Lord's will, Heartdwellers. And may He strengthen you to make the right decisions.

Well, as promised, I'm going to share the story with you that the Lord quoted. This story by Bill Britton was written in 1960 at a conference and was the result of a vision the Lord gave him during that conference.

On a dirt road in the middle of a wide field stood a beautiful carriage, something on the order of a stagecoach, but all edged in gold, and with beautiful carvings. It was pulled by six large chestnut horses, two in the lead, two in the middle and two in the rear. But they were not moving, they were not pulling the carriage, and I wondered why.

Then I saw the driver underneath the carriage, on the ground on his back, just behind the last two horses' heels, working on something between the front wheels of the carriage. I thought, "My, he is in a dangerous place; for if one of those horses kicked or stepped back, they could kill him, or if they decided to go forward, or got frightened somehow, they would pull the carriage right over him."

But he didn't seem afraid, for he knew that those horses were disciplined and would not move 'till he told them to move. The horses were not stamping their feet nor acting restless, and though there were bells on their feet, the bells were not tinkling. There were pom-poms on their harnesses and over their heads, but the pom-poms were not moving. They were simply standing quiet, still and waiting for the voice of the Master.

As I watched the harnessed horses, I noticed two young colts coming out of the open field, and they approached the carriage and seemed to say to the horses: "Come and play with us, we have many fine games, we will race with you, come catch us..." And with that the colts kicked up their heels, flicked their tails and raced across the open field. But when they looked back and saw the horses were not following, they were puzzled.

They knew nothing of harnesses, and could not understand why the horses did not want to play. So they called to them: "Why do you not race with us? Are you tired? Are you too weak? Do you not have strength to run? You are much too solemn; you need more joy in your life."

(Oh, ho - have I heard THAT one!)

But the horses answered not a word, nor did they stamp their feet or toss their heads. But they stood, quiet and still, waiting for the voice of the Master.

Again the colts called to them: "Why do you stand so still in the hot sun? Come over here in the shade of this nice tree. See how green the grass is? You must be hungry. Come and feed with us, it is so green and so good. You look thirsty; come drink of one of our many streams of cool clear water." But the horses answered them with not so much as a glance, but stood still, waiting for the command to go forward with the King.

And then the scene changed, and I saw lariat nooses fall around the necks of the two colts, and they were led off to the Master's corral for training and discipline. How sad they were as the lovely green fields disappeared, and they were put into the confinement of the Corral with its brown dirt and high fence. The colts ran from fence to fence, seeking freedom, but found that they were confined to this place of training.

And then the Trainer began to work on them, with his Whip and His Bridle. What a death for those horses who had been all their lives accustomed to such a freedom! They could not understand the reason for this torture, this terrible discipline. What great crime had they done to deserve this?

Little did they know of the responsibility that was to be theirs when they had submitted to the discipline, learned to perfectly obey the Master, and finished their training. All they knew was that this processing was the most horrible thing they had ever known.

One of the colts rebelled under the training, and said, "This is not for me. I like my freedom, my green hills, my flowing streams of fresh water. I will not take any more of this confinement, this terrible training."

So he found a way out, jumped the fence and ran happily back to the meadows of grass. And I was astonished that the Master let him go, and went not after him. But He devoted His attention to the remaining colt.

This colt, though he had the same opportunity to escape, decided to submit his own will, and learn the ways of the Master. And the training got harder than ever, but he was rapidly learning more and more how to obey the slightest wish of the Master, and to respond to even the quietness of His voice.

And I saw that had there been no training, no testing, there would have been neither submission nor rebellion from either of the colts. For in the field, they did not have the choice to rebel or submit, they were sinless in their innocence. But when brought to the place of testing and training and discipline, then was made manifest the obedience of one and the rebellion that lay hidden in the heart of the other. And though it seemed safer not to come to the place of discipline, because of the risk of being found rebellious, yet I saw that without this there could be no sharing of His glory, no Sonship.

Finally, this period of training was over. Was he now rewarded with his freedom, and sent back to the fields? Oh no. But a greater confinement than ever now took place, as a harness dropped about his shoulders. Now he found there was not even the freedom to run about the small corral, for in the harness he could only move where and when his Master spoke.

And unless the Master spoke, he stood still.

The scene changed, and I saw the other colt standing on the side of a hill, nibbling at some grass. Then across the fields, down the road came the King's carriage, drawn by six horses. With amazement, he saw that in the lead, on the right side, was his brother colt, now made strong and mature on the good corn in the Master's stable. He saw the lovely pom-poms shaking in the wind, noticed the glittering gold-bordered harness about his brother, heard the beautiful tinkling of the bells on his feet... and envy came into his heart.

Thus he complained to himself: "Why has my brother been so honored, and I am neglected? They have not put bells on my feet, nor pom-poms on my head. The Master has not given me the wonderful responsibility of pulling His carriage, nor put about me the golden harness. Why have they chosen my brother instead of me?"

And by the Spirit, the answer came back to me as I watched. "Because one submitted to the will and discipline of the Master, and one rebelled; thus has one been chosen and the other set aside."

Then I saw a great drought sweep across the countryside, and the green grass became dead, dry, brown and brittle. The little streams of water dried up, stopped flowing, and there was only a small muddy puddle here and there. I saw the little colt (I was amazed that it never seemed to grow or mature) as he ran here and there, across the fields looking for fresh streams and green pastures, finding none.

Still he ran, seemingly in circles, always looking for something to feed his famished spirit. But there was a famine in the land, and the rich green pastures and flowing streams of yesterday were not to be had.

And one day the colt stood on the hillside on weak and wobbly legs, wondering where to go next to find food, and how to get strength to go. Seemed like there was no use, for good food and flowing streams were a thing of the past, and all the efforts to find more only taxed his waning strength.

Suddenly he saw the King's carriage coming down the road, pulled by six great horses. And he saw his brother, fat and strong, muscles rippling, sleek and beautiful with much grooming. His heart was amazed and perplexed, and he cried out: "My brother, where do you find the food to keep you strong and fat in these days of famine? I have run everywhere in my freedom, searching for food, and I find none. Where do you, in your awful confinement, find food in this time of drought? Tell me, please, for I must know!"

And then the answer came back from a voice filled with victory and praise: "In my Master's House, there is a secret place in the confining limitations of His stables where He feeds me by His own hand, and His granaries never run empty, and His well never runs dry."

And with this, the Lord made me to know that in the day when people are weak and famished in their spirits in the time of spiritual famine; that those who have lost their own wills and have come into the secret place of the most High; into the utter confinement of His perfect will, shall have plenty of the corn of Heaven and a never ending flow of fresh streams of revelation by His Spirit.

And that was the end of the vision.

God Uses the Worst to Bring out the Best

November 28, 2016

May the peace and forgiveness of God reign in our hearts. I say that, Heartdwellers, because I certainly need that forgiveness to reign in my heart.

The Lord permitted a very dear and sincere Christian to show up on our doorstep - uninvited, seeking counsel. But the enemy, being a wicked opportunist, knows how to manipulate and use even the best of us to cause problems.

Looking back on my Christian life to times when I was a single mom with four children, and even after Ezekiel and I were married and were traveling as missionaries. I can remember times that we showed up at monasteries or different places like that and caused an awful lot of disorder, just by our presence. 'Cause it was out of the ordinary. So, this is something that can happen to all of us. I look back now and think to myself, how they were really patient with us. They set aside what they were doing to meet our needs. And in some cases, it really interrupted their ministry. Amazing charity and patience.

As a matter of course, we don't answer the door when people show up uninvited - unless the Lord puts His finger on something and asks us to do that. Which in this case - He did. So we couldn't wiggle out of it.

I knew this was going to be a trial, a test and an offering - a suffering for Donald Trump and that whole situation with our nation. And it lasted two months, and only now is coming to a conclusion.

I felt it the day it showed up and I fought against my flesh every day to love and bless, which was a mighty struggle. Especially because I was interrupted in giving you messages, and our prayer routine and everything else was turned pretty much upside down. So, if you wondered why there was a little lapse a couple of times in the last couple of months, now you'll understand why. We were really in the crucible with this challenge.

Not wanting to offend Charity, and do what we could, where we could - but also being faithful to the ministry the Lord has already established with us. I'll tell you - it was a hard fight, and the aftermath - wow. A lot of seeds that I have to deal with.

But I also wanted to say that we learned a great deal. And you may have noticed the tones of the messages, that there was obviously some encouragement there, for people who are being called to give their everything to the Lord. And this is how we work. Life situations come and work themselves out, and in the process of that, we learn new things. When we learn, we share it with you. So, that has been the tone of the messages for the last few weeks. And I know that there are many of you going through the same challenges right now, 'cause you've been writing to me and telling me. So, Holy Spirit works across a broad audience. These same messages that were given for this situation, particularly, also applied to you. It's amazing how He works that way.

So, we learned a great deal as well.

Really I thought we had maybe helped this soul, but then the thorns started coming, the accusations, the attacks and ingratitude.

You see, when you do your best for a soul and give them your very best time and discernment, if they don't want to hear it they turn and attack you and make you the villain. In other words, you aren't hearing from the Lord... "because I won't do what He is asking of me." One day the soul gets copious confirmations while others fast and sacrifice for him. Another day they weren't confirmations at all and you're a false prophet or at the least - deceived.

May I tell you the rule of discernment we have always operated by? Is that when you feel God calling you to something and your heart is inflamed with a desire to love Him more, to give Him more, you seek confirmations in prayer and fasting. It's best to keep a journal, either on your computer or hand-written. Then when you strike out on your journey in obedience to the Lord and you encounter every manner of opposition, you go back to your original discernment and hold fast to that. You don't change in midstream.

God hasn't changed His mind, and no one who puts their hand to the plow and turns back is worthy of the Kingdom. So DON'T TURN BACK.

The waters are getting rough, because Satan wants to take you down before you reach your destination. He hates you, you are a threat to his kingdom of darkness and he will throw up every barrier and discouragement to stop you. His major venue of attack will be Doubt. The Lord told me, "To every work of God there are assigned demons of Doubt, Fear and Scrutiny by the enemy."

We Christians are most vulnerable in discernment, because we Love God and want to do His will. So the enemy will try to convince us that what we are doing is NOT His will, that we didn't discern properly - and that's why we have so much opposition.

LIES! LIES! LIES!!!!

And if the character of the soul is weak and they didn't get proper confirmations before they undertook their work, and if there is any part of them that is not totally surrendered, this tactic of the enemy will work almost every time. And if God sends good prophets and servants to help the soul on their way by confirming those directions, the soul will turn against them and start to concoct all kinds of falsehoods to discredit them.

This soul I am talking about gave away everything they had, and they were well off and secure. They gave it away and then set out in their pickup to serve the Lord. That's how far they got with their commitment. But when the direction God gave and confirmed to them firsthand didn't seem doable to them, they turned around and went their own way. Now it is time for someone else to step in for the Lord to assist them; we are no longer of any use. The tragedy of this is, this soul had gone from community to community getting the best of counsel from many well-known and seasoned prophets and still chose their own way. So, we weren't the first.

Now in this message the Lord explains why He allowed this. It brought tremendous loss and suffering to our household and even to the channel when we had issues on our doorstep we never invited, that were distracting us.

But here is what the Lord had to say about this trial.

Jesus began, "It is always the ones who cause the most trouble who are doing you the most good. Man thinks, 'interruptions, loss of time, emotional pain, ingratitude, betrayal.' I think, 'My Bride you are beautiful, you are looking more like Me all the time.'

"You see, I am the one who chooses these vessels who sow disorder into the lives of others. Though the enemy uses them to cause loss of time and ministry, I use them to build character and charity.

"I told you from the beginning, this is your suffering. You saw it coming, I told you what it was. But I confirmed to you that I wanted you to deal with it and not turn it away.

"But in the heat of disappointment, confusion and betrayal, you lost sight of what I was doing: that something I was doing in you and Ezekiel. Yes, the offerings are powerful because of the deep pain they cause, but things are shifting in you. You asked to be compassionate and gentle, and so I sent you tests. Now you are bitter and complaining of what was lost in this trial? You are angry, resentful and disgusted?

"Do you know how many times I could have felt that way about you, but I didn't. Do you know how many times you let Me down, Clare? And why are you upset about what was lost, the sickness it caused, the pain the distraction? These were sent to temper your nature and cauterize your flesh.

"You should be thanking Me, not holding anger, which brings seeds of resentment and gives the enemy an opportunity to build a stronghold. Which, by the way, will crush every grace I've given you, if you allow it to continue. This is why I want you to thank Me for what I did through this vessel and look closely at areas that you resemble them.

"This is all for humility, My Love. I am not chastising you, I am teaching you. Thank Me for all the pain this has caused and forgive. Nothing is lost, Clare. So much is gained by shouldering this cross. But if you hold a bitter seed in your heart, it will spread and choke out the good life. So you must forgive and relinquish that anger, lay it down at the Cross, with all the other bitter crowns I wore, and you've worn. Yes, lay it beside My Crown of Scorns.

And tongue-in-cheek, He quipped, "Just think how lucky you are! If you had put an ad in the paper for someone to do all these things to you, you couldn't have hired a one!

"Really, this situation was My gift to you. Turn it into a blessing, because the enemy will turn it into a cursing if you don't. And I am not threatening you, My Beautiful Bride. I am merely stating a fact. You mustn't hold anger and unforgiveness in your heart. You must relinquish it and allow Me to clean it out.

"My people, I have sent you all many such 'gifts.' Now you know how you are to handle them. With the holidays coming up, there will be outstanding opportunities to forgive and lay that crown of scorns beside My own at the foot of the Cross.

"I am ripening the fruit on your vine. I am turning bitter grapes to sweet. I am harvesting grapes and putting them in My winepress. It is in the crushing of the grapes that the flavor is obtained. It is in the patient waiting through trials that the vintage ripens into a fine wine, worthy of the King's table.

"Yes, My vineyard, I am ripening you. Some I am harvesting and the wines are superlative. The grapes have survived the little foxes and ripened in the sun of My glory and worship. They have come to fulness of age through the storms that have swept the hillsides. And I am well pleased with those of you who know how to turn a curse into a blessing.

"Indeed, this is My work; what Satan curses, I bless and good comes forth from it. You are learning the fine arts of grace and how to flow with it. There is nothing the enemy can do to any of you that you cannot derive good from. I see to it. I want you to be examples and teach this principle to those around you.

"Many of you have begun new endeavors for Me: music, art, books and teachings. These are wonderful - and greatly threatening to the enemy, by the way. And so there will be assignments against you to rob you of your creative joy. The more impact your anointing will have, the more you will be attacked.

"You can rest assured, you will be attacked. But I am teaching you how to turn that attack into long-suffering and character forming grace - which will give forth the sweet odor of sanctity to your God.

"So rest assured, these trials are for your good and increasing your richness in mercy and grace.

"Go now, forgive, give and move on. Do not get bogged down. Once these lessons are learned, move forward. There is a time to let go. Pray and let go, allow Me to resume My work in these souls who seem to hinder all that is good."

And I just want to add to this, dear ones, that I know I've got some seeds in there, seeds of anger and resentment. So, I am going to go before the Lord and really ask Him to help me to repent on a deep level, that these things can be cleaned out. Because we don't want these in our hearts, and they do cause tremendous problems. The longer they linger, the worse it gets.

So, if you've got any bitter seeds from situations that God has allowed in your life, be sure to repent of those seeds and ask Him to clean your heart out. With the seeds, come demons, doors, defecation from the demons. And they leave a mess, they leave a slimy mess in your heart. If you doubt what I'm saying, you ought to read Rick Joyner's dreams about what the demons do to Christians, and what they say and how they say it - and what they leave behind.

So, you don't want that working in your soul. And it goes into your whole body, unfortunately - it actually effects your physical health.

So please - if you have any seeds in your heart, give them up to the Lord and ask Holy Spirit to show you. Allow Him to clean these things from within you.

And thank you so much for your continued support and your beautiful comments. We really appreciate them! They give us a lot of strength and hope. God bless you all.

Hear My Cry, Chronicle of the Bride

---

November 30, 2016

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers.

Well, today I have a short Chronicle for you from Ezekiel's Chronicles and experiences with the Lord. It's very sweet and very beautiful. And I wanted to share it with you.

We come up against all kinds of false accusation and condemnation, and the other night, Ezekiel really was hit hard with all kinds of accusations. When you lay in bed sick for so many days going from one sacrifice to another, and experiencing strange symptoms that keep changing, you can begin to feel guilty that you're not up and helping others. And that's what happened with Ezekiel.

And just to clarify, He sees his soul as the Bride of Christ in these encounters with the Lord, there is nothing effeminate about them. You can read many of these in the Chronicles of the Bride the book that we put out. The second half of the book is devoted to his chronicles.

He was in travail about something and he cried out:

O' My Lord, My God and My All, please hear my cry and rescue me! From the foes at my door, from the voices in my head, my Heart, Mind, & Spirit.

I am SO convicted and accused of being... well, let's call it what it IS: SLOTHFUL. O' My Jesus, I am pierced to the depths of my heart and soul, just hearing or reading that very word!

Lord, the horrible memories throughout life, the word curses... BUT MOST OF ALL, because I know that there is SOMETHING that is constantly holding me back.

And the Lord replied to him, "Stop, Beloved! Cast down these imaginations. They are attacks and lies from the devil. I CAME that you might have LIFE, and LIFE MORE ABUNDANTLY!! Where are the dances we used to dance?"

"I took you into My Loving Arms last night when you were feeling so badly, and we began to move to the rhythm of My Spirit, with His soft beautiful music as we always do. But then you pulled away suddenly, filled with such "Toxic Guilt."

"I was so disappointed, and for you as well, knowing just how very much your spirit & soul are strengthened by our sweet times of refreshing like this. As you walked away, I could hear the accusations falling hard upon you."

"What do you think you're doing!? You're supposed to STAY in that bed of suffering!! But instead, here you are, standing up in the kitchen and PRETENDING to dance with Jesus! - who's not there anyway!!!!"

"Oh yes, My Love, I heard every foul word. And knowing that you were weak and disoriented from being so ill, they simply came in like a pack of hyenas, dissuading you to the point that you simply gave up before we even had a chance to start. I know that you sincerely thought about staying with Me, regardless of the attack, and that you even put your arms out to Mine in an attempt to be close. But You were just too physically ill and mentally exhausted.

"I do NOT condemn you. Rather I am so deeply in Love with you everyday. And I know well the months and weeks, the days, hours and minutes that you lie there in terrible pain, offering yourself by My Grace, and in union with My suffering, death, and resurrection - for the Church, the World, and All Souls. I know the mental, emotional, and yes - even the spiritual sufferings that you endure for My sake, and the sake of the Kingdom.

"You have nothing to be ashamed of, My Beloved Spouse. Nothing. And No One is ever going to separate us. You are My Precious Treasure, and I long for the day when we can freely embrace, laugh, love, sing, and dance throughout Our Father's Kingdom, which He has already given to you.

"For now, let us work together to bring to completion and fulfillment the will of His Most loving and compassionate Heart - that all that will, may be brought safely into the Eternal Kingdom of His Marvelous Light & Life; The New Heaven, and the New Earth, where Our God will be both worshipped and adored unceasingly, where His Spirit will pervade all things, lavishing unspeakable Joy perpetually, upon both great and small alike - A Kingdom filled with Absolute Love, Profound Gratitude, and Everlasting Peace."

Amen.

59.
