

Defensive Power Unleashed in Giving Thanks

December 1, 2016

May the peace of Christ reign in our lives and make this season holy as we gather our families together.

Well, my dearest family, the Lord has truly brought forth His wisdom for this time when families see one another again. We know that for some, this may be the last time we see them on this Earth and so it is a perfect opportunity to heal and love one another.

The enemy, every year, sends out armies of demons to cause division, misunderstanding and wounding in the family. First between husband and wife and then between siblings and relatives. Knowing this ahead of time, we can be prepared both by spiritual warfare and strengthened in virtue, knowing that only love and its fruits will conquer evil.

So, yesterday when I had my communion service, the readings were from Colossians 3, and they truly brought home everything the Lord has been teaching us about our relationships with others and how easily we get seeds of resentment, with which the enemy builds strongholds of unforgiveness. I've been monitoring myself very carefully and notice I have 'buttons' or 'hot spots,' places where I recoil inside and begin grudging and complaining internally. Although I don't let it show externally, most of the time, I feel it inside and it takes the joy out of whatever I was doing.

Paul addresses this very thing in Colossians 3 beginning at verse 12. Because you are God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with heartfelt mercy, with kindness, humility, meekness and patience.

I've had to come to terms with the truth that I am the Lord's Beloved and Bride before I am my mother's daughter, a niece, a sister or mother of children. Therefore, the Lord is calling me to act as His disciple before any earthly office, and my heart must be His towards my family. This calls for exceptional self-control, and/or a healing of memories that are painful and profound forgiveness. You may be the only example of Christ's love in your family. How important then is it to set aside all grudges and painful memories of past misunderstandings and injuries.

The Scripture continues, Bear with one another; forgive whatever grievances you have against one another. Forgive as the Lord has forgiven you.

In addition to this, we are called to demonstrate our love by deferring to one another, showing respect and preference to their concerns. For instance, which home we will gather in, who will make the preparations? I can't count the number of times there was strife over who deserved to have Christmas at their house, Christmas at someone else's house - and how you don't want to leave out one set of relatives for the other - and so on. We can't possibly please everyone, but we can defer to some and give an example of generosity and love.

Over all these virtues put on love, which binds the rest together and makes them perfect.

Without this love, kindness and meekness, even the finest preparations go sour when there is strife and insensitivity. We can pray against demonic strongholds in family members and make their demons wait outside the door while we enjoy sweet fellowship. Make 'em wait outside the door with our own demons! But Christ's peace must reign in your hearts - the Scripture goes on to say - since as members of the one body you have been called to that peace.

The next verse in the Scriptures was what hit me the hardest, and I have a favor to ask of you guys along with it. "Dedicate yourselves to thankfulness." Wow. That really struck me, because thankfulness is the first line of defense against demonic attacks mentally, emotionally. If you're in a state of praise, worship and thankfulness, it's very hard for them to penetrate with resentment, strife, bitterness. It just can't enter when you're in the sweet space of Thanksgiving!

The Lord's even teaching us to give thanks for those resentments and bitterness - things that CAUSE that. And that, in turn, will cause the demons to flee, because they cannot get a foothold in our hearts - they'll look for someone else to bug!

I've been finding that each morning when I come before the Lord to repent of anger, unforgiveness, selfishness and pride that I end thanking the Father for all He has done for us. It just pours out of me, I'm so grateful. During the day, when I am tempted to lose my patience, somehow I begin singing thank you songs!!! I know this is the Lord because my attitude quickly drifts to impatience and thank you is the furthest thing from my mind!

It continues, Let the word of Christ, rich as it is, dwell in you. In wisdom made perfect, instruct and admonish one another. Sing gratefully to God from your hearts in psalms, hymns, and inspired songs. Whatever you do, whether in speech or in action, do it in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Wow! Drive this car to the grocery store, in the name of the Lord Jesus, I won't be cutting people off - I'll be very, very deferring to the traffic around me.

And then the last part is, Give thanks to God the Father through Him. Wow! The really explains why I've been so riveted on the Father in the morning, thanking Him profusely for loving and caring for us.

And of course, this ring that He gave me reminds me of His tremendous kindness.

Knowing the stress that this season can generate, I'm going to ask a favor of you, Heartdwellers. Would you please post all your favorite thank you songs and we will put a "thank you, God" playlist together that you can add to your collection of songs so that you can stay in a place of thanksgiving when the waters get rough. I can't put the songs up, that would be dishonest, but I can at least list the artists and names of the songs. What first comes to my mind is Julie True's song Thank You. I find myself singing that when I get up in the morning. I have this terrible habit of singing with my mind and not singing with my vocal chords, which I have to change. But it's really a sweet, sweet song. Once I have collected all the thank you songs together, I will make a playlist in PDF format and we'll put it up on the Website where the other PDF's go.

Let's all sing gratefully to God from our hearts in psalms, hymns, and inspired songs, and stay free from the seeds of strife and bitterness these seasonal demons are out to incite us with, to steal our peace and joy.

True Christmas Joy

December 4, 2016

May the sweetest and the most joyful blessings overtake you all, dear Heartdwellers.

Well, the Lord had a few things to say. I've been super busy, taking care of some things that I'll share with you later, but right now - they're just kind of developing, so to speak.

When I came into prayer today, immediately the Lord wanted to speak to me, right after communion. And that's always a very good time to listen for Him, by the way.

He began: "My precious people, I am so pleased with those of you who have opted out of materialistic practices that come from your worldly culture that the devils have turned Christmas into. I am pleased that your heart has not been with the world but been with Me in prayer. You are responsible for the success of your nation, because you put your heart and mind into prayer rather than into accumulating things.

"I have needed this from you for years. I have waited for this for years. I have stood by and watched the tremendous waste of time, money and resources to honor worldly customs and carnal appetites.

"There is nothing wrong with a little celebration and honoring My birth - though the dates be askew - and it has been a sweet tradition around the world. But through the centuries it has become so corrupted that children don't even know the meaning of Christmas or where it comes from.

"It's become an excuse for unbridled spending and going into debt so that the things that really need your resources suffer and you must work double hours to make up for what you spent. The sweetest thing you can do to commemorate My birth is to take care of those who have no one to take care of them, in My Name.

"Last year, Clare was able to give gifts to the poor in My Name. What a revelation to those who have shunned speaking My name. This year, I have called for something a little different and they will be purchasing toys and gifts, as their budget allows. But I did not want you to get involved in a spending spree, rather I wanted you in prayer.

"As the inauguration of President Trump draws closer, I will need you to keep a tighter reign on your prayers and offerings. The attempts to unseat him will become more violent and ugly, contrary to what the press is reporting. There are many plans drawn up to derail him at the last moment. Do not stop praying!!! All looks good on the surface but all looked good on the surface for Mrs. Clinton, but things took a sudden turn. Do not grow lax in prayer, this is NOT a shoe-in.

"Nonetheless, your prayers will prevent any further attempts, if you keep praying.

"Some of you have experienced unprecedented problems in your lives these last few weeks. Things you never thought could happen are happening. Remember, I told you that I was calling you up higher? That means you will be stretched to your limit in maintaining a sane life from day to day. Staying close to Me and staying in prayer and worship. The trials are more intense as you climb higher.

"Those who have not cared to pray and offer sacrifices are greatly loved by Me as well, but are not used to the capacity of those who picked up their cross and followed Me. Most of all I ask you not to complain when things go badly for you. Remember, the littlest things can be occasions of praise and thanksgiving and offering to Me.

"What is truly sad is the soul who has nothing to offer Me and is not part of the renovation of your nation. Or the soul who doesn't recognize these inconveniences and trials, that they are gifts from Me to them to help them grow in holiness and to use as fast offerings for your nation.

"I know how easily you forget these things in the heat of the moment, but try, My Beloved ones, to remember that you are not living this day for your own agenda or convenience, but are carrying your cross for Me and My agenda. If you can do this, these trials will gain the significance of your WORK for the day. Instead of visualizing your work as what you usually do during the day - most often completed work and projects - you will visualize your day as being studded with offerings; little diamonds that bring greater and greater significance to your life by the hour."

And I just want to take an aside and say here for a moment. I was going through a tremendous trial with Ezekiel and I - both - were going through a few days ago. It was so painful, just absolutely, staggeringly painful. And as we were going through it, I wasn't able to keep my mind on anything. For three days I could not keep my mind on anything that I normally keep my mind on - I couldn't pray. I couldn't write. I couldn't play. I couldn't paint, I couldn't do anything.

And I said to the Lord, "Lord, please, please take these distractions, this thing away so that I can do my work!" And the Lord answered back to me very clearly, "Beloved, this IS your work now."

Oh, that took such a load off my shoulders. It was like, Okay - I am carrying a cross. Ezekiel and I are both carrying crosses, they are very heavy. It's very sad. It's penetrating, penetrating pain into the heart. And I can't do anything but deal with that pain, 'cause it keeps coming up. That IS my work. That really liberated me, I'll tell you. 'Cause I was even feeling guilty that I wasn't able to do anything else, I was so taken up by this. And it was...my work for the day.

So, I began to praise Him in the midst of it - and it got better. Day by day, it's gotten better.

Anyway, continuing on, 'cause the Lord had said how easily we forget these things in the heat of the moment. But remember, you're not living this day for your own agenda and convenience, but you're carrying your cross for My agenda. If you can do this, see this as true Work - these trials will gain the significance of work for the day. Instead of visualizing them as inconveniences, right? And they will be little diamonds studding your day that bring greater and greater significance to your life by the hour and accomplish much for the Kingdom of God.

Jesus continued, "I know this is much to ask, and I am standing by with the graces to assist you; that you remember, getting through this trial with a cheerful countenance and attitude has taken the gift I gave you and wrapped it in beautiful paper with ribbons and bows embellishing it. So you see, it becomes far more valuable to Me than it was when I first dispensed it or allowed it to happen."

So, what He's saying here is that, He gives a gift and we embellish it with praise and thanksgiving and that wraps it in beautiful paper with ribbons and bows and sparkles, too! And then we hand it back to Him as an offering, embellished with praise and thanksgiving. So the gift, which may have been a little dowdy when He handed it to us, becomes something very beautiful to Him.

Jesus continued, "This should give you great cause for joy and hope that nothing in your life is wasted and the greater the sacrifice, the greater impact you are having on My Kingdom coming to this Earth, and the number of souls added to Me is increasing. Oh, what a beautiful exchange this is, My Beloved Brides, what a beautiful exchange....beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning."

And on the heels of this I looked up Isaiah 61, where He's quoting from:

deign to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes.

the oil of joy

instead of mourning.

and a garment of praise

instead of a spirit of despair.

They will be called oaks of righteousness.

a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor.

They will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the places long devastated;

they will renew the ruined cities that have been devastated for generations.

He continued, "All of these things shall you do through these sacrifices as you wrap them in your gratitude. Oh, how magnificent is the soul that truly understands and believes this holy exchange taking place between us. So, be renewed in joy and thanksgiving, hope and steadfastness, knowing that your offerings are being used mightily in My Kingdom.

"And at the end of the trying days, come to Me and allow me to wrap you in My profound love and gratitude, to bring you comfort. Comfort that only I can give and that no one shall ever take from you. You are greatly beloved and appreciated for all that you do for Me."

Trump and Putin Kidnapping & Assassination plots Pray!

December 5, 2016

The Lord be with you, dear Heartdwellers.

I just received a credible prophetic word that assassination attempts are going to be made against Trump and Putin and also kidnapping attempts of his young son, that he had with the Olympian girlfriend. This is a word that was received in prayer by a reliable prophetess and I want to share it with you, because we are really going to buckle down and pray against anything like this from happening.

As you know, Putin and Trump have both been anti-NWO and have really, really stood in the face of the establishment that is trying to unite all of the nations into one - one world religion, one world politically.

In any case, there are two people who are standing in the face of that and they'll want to see it happen. So I'm going to ask you to please, please - pray seriously for President-elect Trump and President Putin.

And this is what was given to me:

There are plans in progress to assassinate Putin and to assassinate Trump. In addition, there are plans to kidnap members of each's family. Close friends were left alone to mourn. Abba says they plan to kidnap a son of Putin's. I see the young child. And a daughter of Trump's. I'll admit, I haven't been watching the news or family updates, but this daughter - older than Putin's son - seems very young. A teen or not quite. Very lovely.

So, what's she's talking about there is, Putin's girlfriend is an Olympic athlete. he had a son with her.

We prayed to crush their plans to dust. I immediately saw this message being given to the prayer warriors and asked if this was what I should do. I was told "yes".

So, Carol and Clare, I pass this on to you to pass forward as you see fit. It is my sense that if we pray, this will never come to fruition. I'm hearing that the kidnapping would at first crush the men, but that the Lord would use the events to unleash "tigers" upon the enemy. These plans to crush the Lord's choices would backfire. But He says He has plans for this anyway, and such tragedy isn't necessary to accomplish this goal.

As to the assassination attempts, this should be no surprise. What DID surprise me was that the enemy targeted both men. Both men are necessary. Such evil must be fought with prayer. Please do not grow weary, there is still so much to do.

And so, that's the message that I received. And I just ask you all to please buckle down and pray really hard that this won't take place, because there's a really beautiful thing emerging here. It's definitely slated for destruction by the NWO.

Love you all, Heartdwellers. Thank you for your prayers. And there will probably be a message later. I just want to get this out to you right away, so you could get into prayer. Anyone who wants to pray and fast for this intention, I know the Lord would be ever so grateful.

God bless you all.

When Someone Betrays Your Trust

December 7, 2016

May the liberty of forgiveness saturate our souls and set us free from the past. I just can't hide anything from you, precious family. And as you may have surmised from my last message about going through trials that you never thought you would go through, that's been my story for the past few weeks.

First of all, I want to make it clear that this is not about anyone I have talked about before, or at least to my recollection. Certainly not my husband, Carol, Dr. Sherry or any of the prayer warriors. Just to make that clear.

I had entrusted someone with a very precious thing. Something belonging to Jesus, something belonging to others, as well. And of late, I have discovered that they have betrayed my trust. All I can say is that I have cried for over a week now, every day, as I come to terms to what their trust had meant to me. Even now, my heart is broken, my eyes swollen from crying and feeling extreme fatigue.

Yes, I can hear you, my Satanist friends - cheering, but God always turns what was meant for evil into good. There is yet a silver lining to this cloud.

Well, as we all struggled with this trial, I came to realize it was allowed by God as part of the test for the next level. Did you say you would go higher with Him no matter what...when the invitation was given a few weeks ago? Didn't He tell us it would be painful? If you did, you are probably struggling with something more difficult than you've experienced yet in your life.

I have not spoken to him (the betrayer) yet, about what was and is being done and the Lord has asked me to stand down. So, I am waiting on Jesus to do what is most important to Him: convict this soul that they might repent and be born again. He puts on the airs that he is saved, but he is not. He puts on the airs that he has a relationship with God, but he does not know Him.

Oh, people beware of those who do not know the Lord. Do not entrust them with anything precious, even those who know the Lord are weak. I don't even know if I would be trustworthy.

But each day as I cried, I can only come to the point where I am repenting for my own sins. "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors" rings in my ears and each day I must forgive again, because he continues to offend. Each day I must deal with a pretend smile while beneath it is wicked plotting. So each day I must come and renounce my self-pity, the sting of betrayal and know that my sins are far worse in my life. Especially before I was saved, but even after that, I could have fallen at any time into this sin.

Then I must love, truly love and want the best for him. Yes, that is a work of grace, not coming from my ability or sanctity, which I would say is running on the bankrupt side right now.

Dr. Sherry, Carol, Ezekiel and others close to me know well this trial is not just about Judas. This trial is about the challenge to love and forgive on a daily basis, knowing full well that the smile you are looking at is a lie, and the plotting against you continues. I have met my match in this trial.

As you all know, when someone seriously betrays your trust it drains you emotionally, mentally and physically. And that is why I've been a bit short on the messages. I have spent days crying and I'm just not able to think straight. After communion it gets better and I think I can carry on a semi-normal life, but later it creeps up on me again. The same thing with Ezekiel.

I go to sleep praying for mercy and an end to this trial. I wake up only to face it again the next day. In truth, I haven't wanted to get out of bed. Forgive me, I've just wanted to crawl in a hole and go to sleep. All of that though is self-pity and God abiding with His grace - I want no part of it. I only want to forgive and love.

So I wanted to tell you about this and ask you to please pray for us. Stand with me for the salvation of this soul, and be patient, because I have not been as on top of the messages as I would like to be. I am not about to invent something to tell you just to take up air space. I am sharing my guts, my life, the real things that I face each day in the hope that you, too, will be strengthened in your struggles with the evil in your own life and the ability to forgive others over and over again...70x7.

It reminded me of this parable that the Lord told.

Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, "Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Up to seven times?" Jesus answered, "I tell you, not seven times, but seventy-seven times.

"Therefore, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. As he began the settlement, a man who owed him ten thousand bags of gold was brought to him. Since he was not able to pay, the master ordered that he and his wife and his children and all that he had be sold to repay the debt.

"At this the servant fell on his knees before him. 'Be patient with me,' he begged, 'and I will pay back everything.' The servant's master took pity on him, canceled the debt and let him go.

"But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred silver coins. He grabbed him and began to choke him. 'Pay back what you owe me!' he demanded.

"His fellow servant fell to his knees and begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay it back.'

"But he refused. Instead, he went off and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay the debt. When the other servants saw what had happened, they were outraged and went and told their master everything that had happened.

"Then the master called the servant in. 'You wicked servant,' he said, 'I canceled all that debt of yours because you begged me to. Shouldn't you have had mercy on your fellow servant just as I had on you?' In anger his master handed him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should pay back all he owed.

"This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

Matthew 18: 21-35

Wow. Forgiving from the heart is a whole different thing than saying "I forgive you." It's a real work of mercy and grace, that's for sure. And I am not so much frightened by the punishment, as I am offended by injustice. If the Lord can forgive me for all I've done, can I not forgive my brother? For surely he has wonderful traits I am lacking.

Lord, do you have something to say?

"My daughter, My Bride, I know what you are suffering, but is it worth it to see this soul not perish in the fires of hell. This child of mine, unknown to them, is in league with the Devil and without repentance. If they died in this moment would go to eternal damnation. They are oblivious to that, they're not thinking that way at all - although I've been knocking at the door of their conscience for months, they still turn away and refuse to respond.

"I love this soul ever so tenderly, and there is so much good there. But the good they think they have done in their lives is far outweighed by these evils and justice cries out. I cannot send such a one to Heaven. They have chosen not to work for Me but for themselves and the Devil. So what shall I do?

"This is a terrible trial for Me, as well. I must keep them alive, protect, admonish and wait for them to recognize how far into the depths they have fallen. And there is so much pride and arrogance, even that is a mighty task. Yet I do have My ways and means committee, don't I?"

Yes, Abba, You truly do.

"I have brought this soul, deliberately to you, so they could be saved, Clare. I know you were aware months ago of evil-doing, yet you stood with Me and allowed it to continue. But now that I have brought it to your attention, it is in preparation for a resolution. I need you to pray for them, as you've never prayed before. I have stored every tear you have shed for them, and grace is being released. Nonetheless, stand with Me, Beloved, and continue to offer your prayers and the sufferings this is causing you and those around you."

On that note, Ezekiel has been very sick from the stress of knowing what's going on.

God the Father continued, "And the way I am using it for your good to truly is to truly expand your heart and work into your own soul humility and true contrition. When My children see their own sins clearly, they do not raise an eyebrow to condemn. Clare, be brave, be strong, and be loving. These gifts I impart to you, Beloved, and to all listening who are longing to have them."

In conclusion, I want to share with you this story, in the book, The Wisdom of the Desert Fathers.

There is a story of how there was an assembly of monks that gathered together to deal with the transgression of one of the brothers. The Abbott, Moses, did not show up for the meeting - although he knew about it. They sent a message to him: "We're waiting on you to begin!"

So Abbott Moses went, but in true prophetic form he silently entered carrying behind his back an old basket filled with sand that ran out behind him, leaving a trail.

Asked what in the world he was doing, he answered, "My sins are running behind me and I do not see them - and I am come to judge the sins of another man?" The proceedings ended before they formally began, and the brother who had sinned was forgiven.

It's a beautiful story, I just never forget. And it leaves such an impression on our hearts and minds. Here's this old, holy man carrying a basket of sand and it's pouring out behind him. And those are his sins that he cannot see. A beautiful story.

Prophecy for 2017 from Lana Vawser, Part 1: "REACH FOR THE SKY!!!!!"

December 10, 2016

May the Lord's peace be with you all, Heartdwelling family.

Well, I...forgive me for being a little lax on the messages, but it's been a very up and down roller coaster day for two days. Having resolved a situation, which I spoke about earlier, a betrayal - now my heart is just riveted on crying out for Mercy. And the enemy is pelting me constantly with ugly thoughts, with dark thoughts. Unforgiving thoughts.

And I'm just constantly crying out for Mercy for this person who has betrayed us and betrayed, really, the trust of all of you in a sense. I've just been crying out for mercy.

And that seems to help to keep me clean, because I know I've got seeds in there I need to repent of. I definitely got some bitterness and unforgiveness and anger and resentment - oh, gosh - so many things. And I've tried to repent of them, but I really need to get deep with the Lord and sit down and let Him clean me out. Because I'm sure my heart is not in the greatest place.

The one good thing that happened to me when I woke up this morning, and this whole thing came to mind - I just started crying out, "Mercy" for him - Mercy. Mercy.

And that's the key word - mercy and thanksgiving that I have something to offer the Lord for Donald Trump and for Putin.

So, I want to share with you a word from Lana Vawser. She is a wonderful prophetess. And it's interesting, because I had mentioned to you that there were going to be 2 years of peace, and a flourishing. And the Lord was going to reveal - and He spoke this directly through me - He's going to reveal His goodness to the whole world as they embrace honesty and straightforwardness in a way that it's never been in the world before. Kind of like, I guess you could call it the "antidote" to the New World Order. Instead of amalgamating all the nations and taking away their national identity and merging the money system and merging the religious system, there's diversity with the Lord. He allows nations to be who they are and the faith to be who it is to people and for them to choose freely. He doesn't force anything.

And there's going to be two years of good that's going to be done in the world and our country is going to be an example of goodness. And this is because the Lord is directing president-elect Trump to restore righteousness to the systems of the world that have been so perverted in order to destroy the American economy and the American people.

So, I'm really looking forward to that. And Lana's word is very much in line with that, it's extremely long. I may cut out some parts here that are redundant. But I'd encourage you to go to her site, Lana Vawser, go to her site and keep abreast of her prophecies. She's been very accurate, all the way down the line. I've been listening to her for about 10 months now. She's amazing. She has a good heart and she's very clean. She's just squeaky clean. You just have to really, really appreciate her, there's just something about her that is so clean and pure.

So. Let me share with you what she had to say.

She began:

As I sat with the Lord, seeking His heart for 2017, I kept hearing the line from the Toy Story Movie where Woody declares "REACH FOR THE SKY!!!!", followed closely by the words "IT'S TIME TO ARRIVE AND FLY!!!!!!!!!"

I then began to hear the sighs of God's people all across the earth and it was a sigh of relief, it was a sigh that shouted the word "FINALLY" loudly across the earth. I saw TEARS of RELIEF flowing down the cheeks of God's people as they SAW RELIEF with their eyes. Their "FINALLY" moment had arrived.

And I believe this is Mr. Trump taking office and making the right changes. It's going to turn the world upside down, literally.

She continues: The Lord has been speaking breakthrough over and over again in this season, He has been speaking about divine surprises, He has been speaking about increase and upgrade and that is the season that we are in.

2016 has been a year of intensity, of trial and pressure. (you can say that again!) Many have experienced fire like they have never known. I saw many carrying a heavy heart with the words written across it "2016 just wasn't the year I thought it would be!!"

Well...my aside for that is, the Lord told us from the beginning it was going to be rough! So, I was not expecting a cakewalk, that's for sure. You know, He really has prepared us beautifully. There are people still sitting on the rooftop waiting for the Rapture. And they've got a treasure chest full of gifts - writing gifts, music, art, administrative gifts. They have wonderful gifts and they're just sitting on them because they expect the Rapture to happen any minute.

And I know I got a lot of criticism for sharing with you what the Lord told me, that we had 3 years. But I can really see the wisdom in that, because - what He's done is, He's released us to create! Rather than be sitting there day after day, being disappointed because the Rapture still hasn't happened, He's released us to create and we're busy about His work. And He's anointing like never before.

There are probably 7 Heartdwellers that I'm aware of that have set off on new ventures. Carol has written a wonderful book A Garden Enclosed, for teens - and it's just awesome! You can find that, by the way, on the Heartdwellers.org website, on the home page. And it's a free pdf download.

Two other people have taken up music and started recording their songs and getting them out on the Internet. One lady, who's an artist, has begun to really do art seriously. I mean, there's so many that I don't know about. If you want to share your testimony, that would be great. Because I'd love to put that up on our testimony page, which I'm trying to get up on our website.

So, there's such wisdom in what the Lord said, that we have 3 years. It released us! To get off the rooftop, watching for the Rapture, and get busy about souls and His business. I'm thrilled about that. But THIS year, this coming year, according to Lana is going to be a year of breakthrough, a season of breakthrough. And that fits very well with what I said, that the Lord was going to give us 2 years of prosperity and peace. The peace to create and the prosperity to advance. Not the kind of prosperity where you'll have money to buy all the frills, but the kind of prosperity where you can invest in God's Kingdom and you can see people coming to the Lord.

Lana continued: This IS your season of breakthrough! This IS the season of awakening, greater manifestation of freedom, increase and extension for the body of Christ.

GOD IS BRINGING RELIEF IN 2017!!! A lot of this intensity, a lot of this feeling of "I'm going to die", "I can't hold on much more" is going to LIFT and an EASE and REST will be found in Jesus in 2017 where you will breathe easy again! That's not to say there will not be trials and struggles in 2017, but there will be another level of breakthrough and place of "resting in the Lord" found by the body of Christ as they lean in.

God is bringing His people to the place of knowing what it is to "walk with Him in the cool of the day". (Genesis 3:8)

There is great refreshing coming to know His breath, His presence, the invitation to deeper place of intimacy. To know the wind of the Spirit, the winds of change, the winds of reviving, the winds of resurrection power. The winds of LIFE as you COMMUNE and walk with Him.

There is a greater accuracy of hearing God is developing in His people in 2017. And that will accelerate, she says. The Lord will be speaking loud confirmations and also He'll be speaking in a whisper. Listen for the Holy Spirit wind.

She continues to talk about 2016 as a pressure point:

Many felt like it was a continual "pressing of a pressure point"

Gosh - how many times have I said to you in this last year, It's in the pressing of the grape, that the wine is obtained.

But I want to encourage you, that in the pressure, in the stretching, in the fire, God has been molding you, preparing you, shaping you, bringing dross to the surface and healing you.

Yes, you know - speaking about dross - that goes back to the whole teaching on seeds. And what we've experienced through the revelation that was given to Dr. Sherry - these seeds are devastating to our walk. And they're so easy to get rid of, by getting down on your knees and repenting, allowing Holy Spirit to bring up the deep reactions that sometimes we just don't acknowledge in ourselves, they're just a little bit too ugly. But bringing the dross to the surface, and that includes bringing the demons, the seeds and slime that they create in our souls and in our bodies. And healing you, she continues.

And that's what the Lord's been doing - He's been healing us, purifying us.

Cleaning your heart, pruning you for promotion and to shine His light and reflect Him clearer than ever before. The pressure point has been continually pressed in 2016, but you are about to experience GREAT RELIEF in 2017.

"He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; he will purify the Levites and refine them like gold and silver. Then the LORD will have men who will bring offerings in righteousness," (Malachi 3:3)

This IS the season of returning to the first love. The pressure and warfare the body of Christ has faced in this season has caused the people of God to RUN to Him like never before. It has stripped anything we try to rely on besides Him. He has been DEEPENING our intimacy with Him and maturing His people as we lean in with our YES to Him.

Boy, that yes is so important. That's exactly what the Lord has asked us: "Will you come higher with Me? Will you come higher?" And if you say "yes", understand that it does have a price.

Really - what does that mean, exactly? Well, it means there will be more opportunities to forgive. Remember, we're going to resemble Christ when this is over, with the Crown of Thorns. There'll be more opportunities to forgive when people speak badly of us, when they attack our character. When they steal from us. When they slight us. When we're ignored, when we have to do it by ourselves. When we're left behind and others are promoted.

Yes, these are all very painful. When our work is not recognized and when people don't appreciate us or thank us. We're going to resemble the Lord more and more. But He's calling us up higher so that we won't get bogged down in any of the human emotions that go with all those situations. He wants to lift us up and out of those human emotions and keep us in a place of praise and thanksgiving. And charity and forgiveness when our best efforts are misunderstood and we're accused falsely. That's what I'm discovering it means to go higher with Him.

But even in all this, He doesn't leave us without consolation, without peace and without His tender arms around us. But the challenge for us is to stay in a posture of thanksgiving for these opportunities to grow, to give Him a bit of our suffering for others. And to exercise the great work of mercy and charity to our brother when we forgive.

And for those of us who have said "yes" to Him, wow, are we experiencing it! Oh, my goodness...

Ephesians 3:20 has been swirling around in the Spirit for me a lot lately. The Lord has been highlighting it over and over again, that we are in the season of the manifestation of Ephesians 3:20 in ways we have never seen.

"God will achieve infinitely more than your greatest request, your most unbelievable dream, and exceed your wildest imagination! He will outdo them all, for His miraculous power constantly energizes you!

Ephesians 3:20 (The Passion Translation)

What has held you down in 2016, God is BREAKING OFF and you are going to know what it is to FLY on the winds of the Spirit in ease, insight, revelation and PEACE.

Boy, do I need that with my music. And all of this, all of this other tragedy I'm dealing with has taken me away from that. I'm looking forward to the moment when this is all over with in my heart, and I'm not distracted by it.

The enemy and his demonic forces have worked hard in 2016 to steal the peace of God's people, but God has been training His people how to HOLD their peace in Him despite the storms. Your sowing into keeping your peace will produce for you a great HARVEST of PEACE and JOY in 2017.

It's interesting to me that she uses the word "sowing" in this description, because we've been talking about seeds and what's being sown into our hearts when we react in the flesh. So, sowing peace into our hearts - very interesting way of putting that.

Lana continues, I heard the words "There will be STORMS in 2017 but they won't have CLAWS because of the JOY and PEACE that I am releasing. Such a deep solidity and expectancy in My people of what I am doing in 2017, the storms may ROAR, but MY ROAR as the Lion of Judah bringing RECOMPENSE, the birthing of NEW LIFE and revelation of who I am, My people will LIVE ABOVE the storms like NEVER BEFORE.

2017 is going to be a DIVINE SURPRISE. Whether you have faith for great things in 2017, or whether you are feeling hopeless and finding it hard to believe again. The Lord is going to SURPRISE you in 2017. The Lord has been speaking about surprises all year, but some things that you haven't even expected are going to be brought to you "on a silver platter" in 2017. Favour is going to knock on your door with divine surprises in 2017.

He is going to SUDDENLY ENERGIZE YOU AGAIN!!! The resurrection power of God is going to manifest in your life in more ways than it has in 2016. What the enemy thought he had victory over, what the enemy thought he got away with stealing in 2016, the Lord is going to RELEASE BACK TO YOU in 2017.

Ground is going to be taken back. He is going to RESURRECT all the dead and dry places within your heart and soul as you SEE HIM and He is going to give you the CAPACITY to DREAM AGAIN!!!! There will be SUCH DEEP HEALING manifested in 2017, you will have your strength back in the natural exploding from HIS miraculous power energizing you!

And here, I just want to take a moment and mention to you that, Ezekiel has been very, very, very diligent in getting rid of seeds. Constantly getting rid of seeds and his health has been wonderful! Even through this last trial that we went through, which was extremely painful to him - he still was able to stay above and keep his peace, writing new songs, singing - I mean, he's just been a new man. It's been so beautiful.

He had been resisting the whole teaching about the seeds a little bit. He really didn't think that they were that important, but boy did he get a revelation on how important they are. Because ever since, he's been really careful to take every thought captive to the Lord and to come back repenting, really deeply repenting for thoughts that he's had. For reactions that he's had. Ever since he's been doing that, his health has been amazing! And the minute he gets into judgment or any other thing - BANG. He gets sick. He gets nauseated or has cramping, you know. Things get, go back down again.

So, it's amazing, really to see how keeping our hearts clean from judgment and from bitterness is absolutely essential for good health. And for energy. We waste so much on bitterness and unforgiveness - it's just terrible. But once we learn to master that bitterness that the enemy is constantly tempting us with, then healing can take place. Because there's no place for the muck to land inside of us, it's clean. And we're praising God, we're thanking Him. We're not complaining and we're repenting for our shortcomings.

I can see how what she's saying here is beginning to manifest. He's going to give strength back in the natural exploding from His miraculous power, energizing you. That's what's been happening with Ezekiel.

And, with me, too, to some degree.

And I just want to encourage you, if you haven't listened to the 3 interviews with Dr. Sherry and the things that the Lord has been teaching her. I want to encourage you to listen to those, because they're absolutely of vital importance in Spiritual Warfare. And in a nutshell, what she's been teaching us is that, when we react in the flesh to anything, we end up getting a seed of bitterness. It goes into our heart and it begins to grow. And as it grows, the demons flock around it and slime the inside of our heart spiritually - which has an effect on the rest of our body. Because our blood is pushed through the heart, is pumped through the heart to the rest of the body. So, the whole body, physically and spiritually is infected with this.

And the antidote that the Lord has given her is to get down on your knees and repent for reacting that way. And ask the Lord to heal you and to clean the slime out. And to take the demons out. And if you don't deal with these seeds, and you don't forgive, you end up with the demons building a stronghold that affects your entire life and all your relationships. And especially your relationship with the Lord.

So, this is not something we can afford to ignore. I believe Dr. Sherry has been given these revelations for such a time as this, because of the increase of evil, opposition to Christians. And if you doubt what I'm saying, just listen to Rick Joyner talk about these demons. Because the Lord gave him dreams and visions about these demons and how they defecate and do ugly things on Christians in order to cause them to fall into sin and to be bitter.

Tomorrow, I'm going to share with you the rest of this prophecy.

The Lord bless you all, Heartdwellers. Thank you so much for listening in and being so good to us. We love you.

Prophecy for 2017 from Lana Vawser, Part 2: "REACH FOR THE SKY!!!!!"

December 11, 2016

The Lord's joy be with you all, Heartdwellers.

Well, I hope you enjoyed Lana Vawser's prophecy on 2017 yesterday. And here's the second part.

God is going to cause you to REACH FOR THE SKY in 2017. He's going to ask you to lay your dreams on the table and INCREASE them. He is going to ask you to believe for greater things that you ever have. He is going to ask you to dream things that are bigger than you ever have. He is going to ask you to do things that you never imagined possible or thought you could.

Come on, Heartdwellers! I know there's plenty of you out there with gifts and talents that you've been just a little too afraid to blossom in. If the Lord has put that deep desire in your heart, then He's calling you to that. Pay attention to it. Pay attention to it, don't settle for second best. Don't go out and get a job, for instance, just to keep a roof over your head. That's no kind of life. Get trained in what you love to do and then get a job in what you love to do. And if you're called to the mission field, don't be hanging on to a paycheck and a shallow, cushy lifestyle. Be willing to let everything go and to fly with the Lord into the mission field. He'll provide for you, every step of the way.

Lana continued:

There will be a great stretching in 2017, but it will not be like the 'stretching' we have felt in 2016. It is going to be a JOYFUL STRETCHING. It is going to be a STRETCHING in the "FINALLY" moments. The moments of ARRIVAL.

Wow...there's a difference, isn't there? Sometimes we don't know why we're being stretched, whether it's just an exercise in sanctity. But arriving at our destination and having to lengthen our tent pegs, spread our tent pegs out further - that's the kind of stretching that's joyful.

The lightning bolt of God's power is going to STRIKE in 2017 and release the power of God into dreams and visions with DOUBLE PORTIONS. The things HELD AT RANSOM(boy, that's my music, guys - and Ezekiel's music, too) or HINDERED in 2016 will be released with DOUBLE PORTIONS in 2017. Where many of you have contended for so long for your own life and promises and the lives and promises of your family and those around you, and it feels like the BREAKTHROUGH STARTS but then gets HALTED or DELAYED, the Lord is going to RULE with an IRON FIST and bring the DIVINE STRIKE that will release a CLEAN SWEEP of breakthrough, heavenly justice and RE-ALIGNMENT to lead you not only into the manifestation of what He promised but into completely NEW AREAS.

Come on, Heartdwellers with talents and gifts you've been hiding and dreaming of! This is the time. This is the time to manifest.

She also said that there would be mountaintop experiences for many in 2017, because we've been in the valley for 2016.

For so long, many have been trying to "get through" 2016 and make it through alive, in 2017 you will see the FRUIT of your obedience, stewardship, prayers and "one foot in front of the other" every day to not give up, ON THE MOUNTAINTOP!!!!

Isn't that interesting, because the Lord said, "I'm taking you up higher on the mountaintop. Come on, let's go! We're going higher." And we've had to put just one foot in front of the other on some days, just make it through alive every day. This is amazing, really, what she's saying, because it so describes what we've been through!

She continues:

You have known what it is to live with the Lord in the VALLEY, but in 2017 there will be MANY MOUNTAINTOP experiences/encounters with Jesus. You will know what it is to live on the MOUNTAINTOP with the Lord. You will know what it is to have clearer INSIGHT, and heavenly encounter with Jesus than you EVER have. You will know what it is to live in a place of continual revelation and refreshing, as your roots have broken deep into places of intimacy with Him that you never imagined possible.

In 2017, there is going to be a need for heavenly wisdom and discernment more than ever. I saw the Lord opening up areas and paths to God's people that are "foreign". New assignments, mandates, new pathways, new tasks are going to be handed out to God's people in this season that are COMPLETELY DIFFERENT to anything you have expected.

I'm in for surprises - I like that!

When you step into them, the feeling will arise of "I don't know how to do this", "I don't know how to navigate this" but the Lord is going to give you wisdom and strategy in exponential increase.

Pay attention to your dreams in 2017, for the Lord is going to be releasing incredible prophetic insight on levels that are completely foreign and new but totally based on the Bible. KNOWING the Word and having BIBLICAL FOUNDATION will be even MORE IMPORTANT than ever in 2017 with the level of insight, revelation and encounters the people of God are moving into. Be clothed with discernment from on high! Don't stop asking for His wisdom and discernment in ALL things based in and from His Word.

And this is so beautiful, because the deeper we get with the Lord, the more open we are about our sins. When we come to Holy Spirit and ask Him to convict us of our sin, and show us the condition of our hearts, and what's in there that shouldn't be. This engenders greater intimacy, which in turn feeds greater and greater discernment. You can really feel what is authentic and what is false the closer you get to Him.

Lana continues:

Stay in the Word!!!! So much will change in 2017, the suddenly's that have been upon this season are not only manifesting but in 2017 there will be SUDDEN CHANGES. A SIGNIFICANT changing of GEARS will take place in areas of breakthrough that happened in 2016, but as they manifest, go deeper in My Word and you will find the WISDOM to move in and through these new FOREIGN paths."

"See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland." (Isaiah 43:19)

And here's one of the most exciting things I've heard in a long time.

The work of UNITY amongst the people of God that is going to be seen in 2017 is going to be BREATHTAKING! In 2016 the enemy has been working hard to bring DIVISION into the body of Christ, but the work of the Holy Spirit in 2017 to bring His people together is going to cause His people to be in AWE.

Okay, I want to say something here. The one message that I gave, "There Are No Bigots in Heaven" - this would be a good time to revisit that Youtube. Because I believe that God is going to bring about unity within denominations that have been working against one another. Rather than being unified in God's Kingdom, they've been busy tearing each other apart. And I've seen this on the channel. I've seen it from Catholics and Evangelicals, just asking me to do unspeakable things, things I would never do. Asking me to give messages that God had not given me. I just wouldn't do it.

I have said everything I have to say in There Are No Bigots in Heaven, just about. And this is going to be a year of manifestation of Peace in the body of Christ. These streams are going to come together as never before, and people are going to be shocked.

I know I was shocked when I was an Evangelical and I was exploring the Catholic church. I was shocked when I sat through a Catholic mass and all they did was read Scripture. I had heard so many bad things about the Catholic church that I thought, 'they don't even use the Bible.' Nothing was further from the truth in that. And the Lord took me to that place, He took me to that church, to the inside of it - to see exactly what was of Him and what wasn't of Him. And that's going to be revealed to the whole world now. There's going to be a work of unity where God's people are going to take off their blinders and stop tearing and ripping at one another. And there's going to be an understanding and a peace between them. And they'll come together over the Truth. And this is so important, guys. This is so important. Coming together over the Truth is so important.

On the one hand, you've got the NWO trying to promote a New World religion, which we know is coming at some point. On the other hand, the Lord is going to promote His faith, He's going to bring together the different streams of faith and expose the Truth in each one of the faiths, so that we can all embrace what is True and what is false, and we can stop fighting about it.

Prophecy for 2017 from Lana Vawser, Part 3: "REACH FOR THE SKY!!!!!"

December 12, 2016

The Lord's joy be with you all, Heartdwellers.

Well, I hope you enjoyed Lana Vawser's prophecy on 2017 yesterday. And this is what Lana says here.

The work of Unity among people of God is going to be breathtaking.

I had a vision where I saw the Lord visiting leaders of different streams in the night with dreams and encounters to release specific strategies and keys to HELP OTHER STREAMS move into their breakthrough and destiny. I saw leaders all across the world from different streams calling each other sharing dreams and encounters they had with Jesus for the breakthrough of the other. Not only were new networks and friendships formed, but such a deep unity, love and celebration of one another. A true "joining together" of brothers and sisters in Christ to extend the Kingdom.

DIFFERENT STREAMS flowing together in 2017. I saw the most 'opposite' of streams that many look at and say "They would never flow together", or "we just don't flow together", the Lord is going to cause to flow together in great unity. There is going to be a SIGN and a WONDER at the work of the Holy Spirit to bring UNITY to the body of Christ through these seemingly "opposite streams" coming together in the name of Jesus to see a beautiful move of the Holy Spirit across the earth. I saw revival and an outpouring flowing from the 'joining of these streams' in ways we have never seen. It will cause the people of God to BEHOLD - to stand in awe.

"BEHOLD how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" - Psalm 133:1

So, what I want to say here, in the teaching There Are No Bigots in Heaven, I talk a LOT about the manifestations, the authentic manifestations of God and the different denominations. Especially, you know, the liturgical denominations. And what she's saying here is that God is going to bring about a sign and a wonder that is going to cause people to put down their fences. Put down their porcupine quills and embrace the other denominations as true believers.

This is going to happen in 2017, and I am so looking forward to it! Because there's so many things I would like to share with you, but people would not understand if I did. I have to wait until the move of the Spirit happens to prepare the way. I've been criticized by the liturgical denominations for not being "complete" in teaching all the things that they believe are right. And I just can't do what they want me to do. I have to stick with what the Lord wants me to do. But I can see what Lana's talking about here. There's going to be a move of the Spirit that is going to bring down the walls like they never have before. When that happens, I will have a lot to share with you.

So, I really am excited about what 2017 holds for us.

This heavenly harmony can be compared to the dew dripping down from the skies upon Mount Hermon, refreshing the mountain slopes of Israel. For from this realm of sweet harmony, God will release His eternal blessing, the promise of life forever" - Psalm 133:3 (The Passion Translation)

Where the world would look at the Church and say "this denomination doesn't like this one" or "there is such division in the Church, they can't work together", to be broken down significantly and the world begin to see the Church moving as "one body under and in Jesus Christ".

The revelation of the love of Jesus that is going to come from this work of the Spirit to bring significant unity is going to be stunning! The kindness and goodness of God that is going to flow into the earth from the brothers and sisters working together in unity, is going to bring a worldwide shift.

I can see that. You know, one of the reasons that I see that is that we've been so busy fighting about our doctrines - and that's why we don't allow that on Heartdwellers. We just don't allow arguments over doctrine. This is a place to dwell in God's heart. It's not a place to get the books out and start slamming Scripture bombs at one another. That has been a tool that Satan has used to bring division to stop the influx of souls. Because the souls get scandalized by this kind of behavior! And they listen to what Evangelicals say and then listen to what the Catholics say, or the Orthodox say - and they all are hating one another and fighting against one another. And that has been used extensively by the devil to prevent souls from coming into the Kingdom of God.

You know, I think a lot about what happened with Paul, when he came before the magistrate. He saw that the Sadducees and the Pharisees were in disagreement about life after death. So, he brought that subject up and he said, "This is an argument between the faiths, because I believe in eternal life. I believe in life after death and they don't, so they're attacking me." Well, at that he turned the Sadducees and Pharisees against one another and totally side-tracked the whole proceeding.

And this is what the devil does. He takes the natural animosity that we have for one another and rather than looking at the good fruit of the souls coming to the Lord and being sanctified and made holy, he gets us to look at the difference between the denominations and to fight and squabble and scandalize people who would have come to the Lord otherwise. This is exactly what the enemy's been doing. And I thank the Lord that He's going to put a stop to it in 2017, because it's been devastating.

A lot of new believers who have come on our channel and been saved on our channel, by listening to the slander some legitimate religious people have put out about us, and listening to the slander that the satanists have put out, because they don't have any discernment and they can't see right through it, 'cause they're young in the Lord... It's been devastating to these souls.

It's not about me or my channel, it's about the souls that have been lost because people are squabbling over things that are not important. That's going to change in 2017, that just makes my heart sing, because we need that change. We need to be moving in love. We need to understand and love one another, and especially we need to get rid of the seeds of bitterness, denominational bitterness. Those seeds of bitterness. Because whenever an injustice has been done to you by a denomination, you can be sure Satan is behind it. If Satan's behind it, it's not what the Lord has established in the Church that's behind it - it's people. Corrupted people being behind it. And corrupted people doing corrupted things to one another. And that's where all this denominational bitterness comes from.

Even many of you who don't even go to church anymore, because you've not received anything but the left foot of fellowship there. You understand how devastating it is when people are fighting and finding fault and criticizing - to the point where you don't even want to be there anymore. Your soul doesn't get fed, it gets torn apart. We understand that, too, because we've experienced it. How rare it is to find a place of real healing, where this kind of thing doesn't go on.

She also mentions here one other thing that the Lord is going to commission many HEART PROPHETS in 2017 to go into the marketplace with a specific mandate to bring HEALING. I saw these specific heart prophets moving into the marketplace with the compassion, love and heart of the Father.

I think this is what's happening to Donald Trump.

They were going into boardrooms, meeting with CEO's, leaders of business, governmental officials and people who are holding great influence in the marketplace to bring prophetic words of comfort, strategy, hope and healing.

As I watched these heart prophets ministering to these ones in the marketplace I could hear the heart of the Father so loudly speaking in longing "I have seen the hurts, the heartache, the disappointments, the struggles, the broken hearts and pain of many of those who are carrying worldly influence and favour in cities and nations, and I have come now to bring you hope, to bring you healing and comfort."

Again, this is Lana Vawser's prophecy on 2017.

I watched in the spirit as these prophets ministered in such accurate words of knowledge and insight from the heart of the Father, such LOVE being released through their words as they read the inner heart cries, struggles and disappointments of these ones of great influence and MANY of these marketplace leaders meeting Jesus and finding HEALING of years upon years of disappointment, pain and heartache.

I then heard the words "As I bring greater healing to those in the places of great influence in the marketplace, testimonies and healing will spread throughout the mountains of culture and society like wildfire. Many will know and burn with my love in the marketplace in 2017!"

Amen! So that's the end of her word and how beautiful it is! And it confirms so much of what the Lord has been speaking here on Still Small Voice. He's really confirmed that in a beautiful way.

So, God bless you, Heartdwellers. We have so much to look forward to. Let's make sure we don't let any seeds of bitterness linger in our hearts. Let's make sure our hearts are clean to receive the new outpouring that the Lord is bringing to us.

Thank you so much for listening in. And thank you so much for supporting us in our ministry. What a difference you make! God bless you all. May His wisdom reign in your hearts and His wisdom, His peace and His Unity. Amen.

Fiery Trials Intensifying As We Pray Against WW3

December 14, 2016

May the sweet presence of Jesus keep your hearts and minds in His Peace.

And first off, I want to thank you all for your prayers. Really, you've been holding me up with your prayers, holding Ezekiel and I up. And all of us on the Heartdweller team. The betrayal that we experienced, unfortunately, reached across passwords, bank accounts and a lot of other things. There's been a complete and total challenge to dig out of. Just when I think I've got it mastered, another log-in doesn't work and I have to get in touch with the people and get a new password, because my account is shut down.

Have you ever had to get in touch with Google over a problem with your account?? lol... oh, boy. THAT was fun...! That was really fun.

And if you see my books on Amazon, books and CD's that they aren't there - it's because some very unkind person shut down my Amazon seller's account.

So...needless to say, there's just been a lot of offerings to make to the Lord. And I may not feel happy and good about the whole thing, but I'm still making the act of the will to thank the Lord for these challenges. And it's interesting, because forgiveness is something that just doesn't happen once - it's like every time I turn around, there's another thing to forgive. And the Lord is really training me in walking on the water and forgiving. And your prayers have made such a difference, and your support. Thank you so much for your donations, they are really needed, and we really appreciate them.

So, right now, we're still digging out of this mess, and that's the reason why I didn't get a message up to you yesterday, because it gets very, very complicated trying to restore accounts. But the Lord is in charge and the Lord has allowed and the Lord is using it and souls are being saved. And the president is going to get into office, the new president. And there's going to be a wonderful move of God in this country. And this is my tiny, little part, all of these endless - seemingly endless inconveniences and snags. That's just my part, and I'm so happy that the Lord has given me something, and that He is keeping me in peace.

So, that's the reason why the message wasn't up yesterday, 'cause I got this message two days ago.

You know, as I look back on this situation and the things that I'm discovering now that have been affected by it, all I can say is that this is a soul that is very tortured and hurting inside. And we need to pray for this soul. I'm not going to give you a name, I'm just saying please. Pray for this soul, because there's so much good there. There's so much care and concern for the poor, and wanting to help other people. There's some real beauty there, some really, really strong beauty.

Once that person comes to know the Lord, they're going to be a wonderful servant for the Kingdom of God. It's just a matter of time, because He has His hand on them and He's not about to abandon. But there's some terribly deep wounds in that soul and let's keep them in our prayers, that the good will come forth from this person and overcome the evil. The battle has been so intense. Just when I think I've got my footing, out comes the rug from underneath me. And today, even Ezekiel was sick. But he got sick with Lying symptoms, and the Lord was asking him to cooperate in giving this suffering. Pains in his body that were totally different than what he'd had before - to cooperate with this, and to offer it to Him because He needed it.

Later, I talked with Dr. Sherry and she said the Lord is calling for a tremendous amount of fasting and prayer, every sacrifice we can possibly give Him. The world situation is right on the brink and very, very dire. She told me the Lord was needing tremendous amounts of graces right now, a tremendous amount. And my theory about that, and I've said all along, was that the president in office right now was going to pull something, like a nuclear war, off - so that there could be martial law and he wouldn't have to leave the White House. I've just felt that, all along, that he was going to try and pull that off.

But the thing is, that button's not going to work, 'cause we're offering sacrifices and praying and interceding, really with all your heart, guys. With all your hearts, please pray that this will not happen. And if you have any inconveniences, rejoice over them, 'cause that's your opportunity to stop this evil scheme from taking place. Just like the missiles turned around in Israel when they were headed for an apartment complex. The missile turned around and went out to sea, and that wasn't the first time it happened. In the same way, the Lord can totally stop that big button from going off. And I have felt that all along, that would be the very tactic the enemy would try to use to prevent Donald Trump from taking office.

So please, pray with all your hearts and all your strength that this will NOT happen, that the Lord will put an end to the plan and totally frustrate them. Recall, too, that last year around Christmastime, that the Queen of England and the Pope both said to "enjoy this Christmas, because it would be our last on this Earth." So that tells you how serious they were about having a war before the next Christmas came.

But you know? Man makes his plans, but God carries through His.

And the Lord began:

"I know how hard this trial has been for you, My Dearest. It has been a complete and perfect sacrifice for your country and the salvation of souls. Nothing has been wasted, Clare. Look at all the inconveniences, all of it has been used by Me to bring My Kingdom to this Earth. Not only that, look at all the followers on your channel who have learned invaluable lessons about living in the midst of turmoil.

"Don't you see? This has been very much a part of your work. Breakthroughs are coming, this tragedy will not haunt you forever. We will at some point break through all the pain and move on. Until then, carry this cross like a soldier. So much good is to come from this. So much good. You will not see what I accomplished through these sufferings until you are with Me in Heaven.

"But will you please take My word for it; great things are going to emerge out of this tragedy. But remember, the greatest tragedy is the loss of this soul. This soul means a great deal to Me. There is yet a good harvest from this soul, but they must descend much further before they will accept Me. And even then, there are no guarantees. I do plan on keeping them alive for a long time if necessary, to bring them to Myself."

Jesus, please don't tell me this, it makes me heart sick that this may not end well.

"I tell you, because your suffering is making an impact for the good in their life. I tell you this so you can be comforted, but now you are sharing in My grief about where they are now and where they are going before things turn around.

"In the meantime, you will move forward in your ministry and I have many surprises planned for you."

And I was thinking at that point, 'Really?! Like what?'

And He said, "No, I'm not going to tell you! I like surprises and they wouldn't be a surprise if I told you!"

Lord, the most painful part of this is that I feel drawn away from You by all these distractions and endless snags. All these things I must do to make my life run smoothly again and for this ministry.

"And yet I am here, holding you, talking to you and with you all the more. It is a suffering for you that your mind so easily wanders back into all these worldly concerns. Can you accept that also as a suffering?"

That's a really hard one, Lord. It has so many repercussions. not the least of which is the constant feeling of shortchanging You.

"That's what I mean," He replied. "It is also an exercise in sanctity. From moment to moment, who means more to you? Your own security? Or time with Me? Do you see? This is a fiery trial on many levels."

And here He changed the subject of the message, so we'll continue this tomorrow.

Please remember to pray for the world's condition and to offer any inconveniences you have. Thank you. The Lord bless you all, Heartdwellers. Thank you for being part of our family.

When Curses Land & Overcoming Bitterness

December 15, 2016

May the Lord's courage be with us all, Heartdwellers.

Well, I just wanted to make a note here and mention to our Youtube audience that, for those of you sending donations by the mail, our donations by the mail are secure. You don't have to be worried about anyone interfering with that, that is a secure way to go, as well as Paypal. And we do appreciate it. Thank you so very much.

And I regret to say that, because our account was deliberately closed with Amazon seller, they are sending back our CD's and thumb-drives and if you see that they're not listed, there's a reason for it. It's only temporary, I'll have the account back up within two days and within a week, it will be re-stocked. So just be patient with us, if you are wanting to order anything.

And wonderful news - I did finish the portrait, as far as the painting part goes, and I'm working on the digital copy now. It's been photographed, high-definition digitally and I'm working on it. Certain things that needed a little adjustment. There are a few things on the digital portrait of Jesus that have to be adjusted to get them just right, and I know I'll have it up Monday. It'll be done Monday for sure.

I will go ahead and put them up in several different sizes as TIFF files. You can download them and have them printed.

And the Rhema book is almost complete. It should go into print next week. And what the Rhema book is, it's different topics arranged by subject of teachings that the Lord has given us about each subject. So, I'm really excited about that, it's very, very edifying. And I think you'll all really enjoy it. And in the back is going to be a short section on Spiritual Warfare.

And the next book after this is going to be a Spiritual Warfare book. It will be things that I've learned and the Lord has shown me, and Dr. Sherry has learned and Carol has learned. We're going to all pitch in on this one. But for the most part, Dr. Sherry's experiences with the Lord, what He has shown her is just amazing. And it's so effective! It's really effective.

And we can thank all our Satanist enemies for that, because they're teaching us. They're teaching us how evil works and how to go about it. But the number one priority in fighting evil is still the Grace of personal Holiness and Sanctity and working towards that at all costs.

And I thank the Lord that He's given us the courage and the forgiveness to just keep going in the midst of all these setbacks. And I know that because it's being offered to the Lord to prevent this nuclear war from happening before Mr. Trump gets into office is a great consolation to me. It's something to rejoice over. So, every time we get another offering, I receive it from the Lord's hands and try to wrap it in thanksgiving and give it back to Him. Because I know it's having an effect.

For all of you who are doing the same, Bravo! That's what is needed right now. The Lord needs prayers and offerings for this nation and the world.

So, without further delay, here is the second part of the message.

Then He changed the subject slightly and He said, "I think it is important to tell our Heartdwellers that they also must deal with curses daily."

And the reason He's bringing this up is because apparently, not only has this been a difficult trial with this particular person, but they're turning to the dark side. Please pray for them, please pray for them because they are getting themselves into a horrible, deep mess with terrible repercussions. Whatever they do, whatever they have done is nothing compared to turning around and cursing people. So please - pray for them. Please pray for them, that their hearts won't be frozen over. And that's why He brought this up. "I think it is important to tell our Heartdwellers that they also must deal with curses daily."

Lord, the problem I face is that I don't even know when a curse is landing.

He said, "When there is a rapid change in the weather...do you not perceive the storm is coming? How is it then that you do not perceive a curse landing? If you would listen to My Spirit more attentively, you too would be forewarned."

Here I was thinking of Dr. Sherry, who hears, "curse incoming"

How am I to cultivate this in the midst of turmoil?

"Take My hand, Clare, and walk upon the water, not beneath under the influence of the violent waves."

OK. And I have been visualizing that today at every turn when I feel overwhelmed. Rather than going deeper into the water I just feel Him lifting me up and walking over it.

The Lord continued, "Heartdwellers, I have brought you here to My Heart because I want to spread My Love all over the world. You are carrying the torch of intimacy with Me and brotherly harmony between all denominations around the world. There will be signs in the coming months that will destroy the strongholds Satan has erected between the denominations."

"Those who love Me with an authentic love, whatever their denomination they think they are a part of, they are My Body and I carry them with Me in My heart. So you see when you cast stones at a religious group that has true believers in it, you cast stones at My very heart. You hurt Me. You kill, steal and destroy with your tongues those I love dearly, those who live in and for Me. Oh, how I wish you would take it to heart and stop your calumny."

"But because you are carrying My love and because some of you have learned not to cast stones, you are hated by Satan. And anyone Satan hates, he commissions his servants to curse. So you see, you must deal with these curses. And from the very beginning on this channel I told you, this is about personal holiness."

"I will break the curses if you repent of your carnal reactions to the challenges of your days. If you keep a heart of thanksgiving and forgiving, and forbid any evil thought to lodge in your mind. But understand, many of these thoughts come from your heart, where there is still much darkness. And darkness is drawn to darkness, so when the enemy sees someone who is holding bitterness - whether they are aware of it or not - it is a magnet for the demons.

"How do you know you are holding bitterness? What do you feel inside when their name is mentioned? Is it love? bitterness? or anger?"

Well, this is amazing! As the Lord was launching into this, the Pilgrim on the Endless Journey for the most delectable honey (see the Parable of the Guarded Honeybees and the Pilgrim) happened to come to my door, after not seeing him for a good month. And there you have it! My inner self seized up and I still had seeds, demons and slime and perhaps even a stronghold. Now I have a pain and discomfort in my digestive track and I know it's from a combination of anger, frustration and grief I felt the minute I saw him. Yet my heart goes out to him. The journey he is on is long and dark and so painful.

The Lord continued, "What you feel is revealing to you where the strongholds of the enemy are and how he is gaining entrance. You can no longer live with these, My people. You must come to me with true contrition and ask Me to clean and heal your hearts. For, as you know, with the seed comes the demon, with the demon comes the sludge of sorrow, hatred, anger, bitterness, desolation, depression, alienation, self-hatred, unforgiveness and every conceivable negative destructive feeling. It all lands in your hearts, for out of the matters of the heart is a man defiled.

"When the seed and the defiling demon lands, it goes to work on building a stronghold. As it is building, it lets off toxins that circulate from the heart to every part of the body, the spiritual and physical. Your blood becomes poisoned and your body begins to deteriorate. Your spirit, too, is brought low.

"If you let it go, even a day, other demons are invited in to help with the stronghold and pretty soon you are feeling awful. Curses land on the slightest agreement with you and provocation. Even if you reject the thought after you have had it, it is too late. Come to Me, immediately. Pour out your heart and tell Me all about it, pour it out at My feet, My crucified bloodied feet. Pour it out and let Me come in and heal you."

Yes, I've gotten to the point now where, whenever I pray deliverance, I also pray healing for the damage that was done as everything is removed.

He continued, "You may see yourself in the spirit on an operating table with Me working to remove this destructive force. You may feel very sensitive after I remove these. Then you must be ever so vigilant not to let any more contamination in. You will feel wonderful afterwards: energized, hopeful, full of faith and inspiration.

"You see, a man or woman allows disease into their bodies from a young age from the wounds of their parents. I must come and heal those because the demons have built strongholds that have hindered your whole life and determined its course. Even the marriage partner you choose, even your relationships with people at work. Whether you follow your dreams for a living or whether you follow your base physical necessities - so much depends on how many strongholds have taken root and been built up inside your heart.

"Oh, how I hurt for you, My people. I hurt so terribly for you. I long to heal you and set your feet on the glorious path I ordained for you from the beginning. I long to see your soul prosper and soar like an eagle over the trials of life. This is what we are working on now. Those of you who have chosen to go higher with Me, you are learning how to rise above the storms of life."

Here the Lord is referring to the Pilgrim looking for honey.

"And the tragedy of this is that it didn't need to be this way. I have endless compassion for those who just cannot entrust their lives to Me without conditions. I have compassion, because I know how disappointed they will be when they look back on their lives and see what could have been. I tried, you tried and many, many others have tried. When a soul does not respond to the graces given, they go to another. Someday, Clare, you will meet the soul who took the graces and ran with them. You will be astounded when you see how fertile they are.

"Dear Ones, do not grieve when a soul you have labored over goes their own way. Do not grieve. I have kept the graces and passed them on 'till I found one who would receive them. You see, the rich young ruler was not as tied to his goods as he was to his family, his reputation, his standing in the community and most importantly - his own opinion. It is, in the end, the purse of your own opinions that brings you down.

"When you see the lack of intelligence in your decisions you have no problem relinquishing them. But when you value your own opinions, your relatives' opinions, and your training, you simply are blind, there is no other word for it.

"Nonetheless, you must not hold bitterness against those who caused you to labor, because you have not labored in vain. The graces will not go forth returning to Me void; they shall indeed find a heart with fertile soil.

"You asked Me for a Scripture to back this up. Remember - I took the one talent from the man who refused to invest what I gave him and gave it to the one who worked wholeheartedly for Me, the one with 10 talents. (Matthew 25:14 through 30)

"Now, My children, go forth in earnest commitment to Me, unwavering, and bring forth a harvest of righteousness and keep your hearts clean that I may be glorified in and through you. I dispense these graces now to all that would have them in the hearing of this message."

Those Who Dig A Pit Will Fall Into It & Forgiveness A Shield of Protection

December 16, 2016

May the wisdom and instruction of the Lord season you for the battles of life, Heartdwellers. Well, today was an excellent day and very instructive as the Lord revealed to us what a bitter heart can do to others. Yet we triumphed. And the Lord is allowing this season to teach us. How wonderful are His ways.

Lord, thank you for your faithful warriors. You knew I was too little on my own to take this stuff on and so you sent me True Warrior Brides!

And I have to ask, why is it, please - tell me, that Graham Cooke doesn't get cursed?

The Lord replied, "Oh, but he does."

But when the Satanist sat and told him all the evil things he was going to do, he just talked about all the blessings You were going to give him?

That was a teaching that he did. When he was on the airplane. Finally, he talked about the goodness of God so much that this Satanist got fed up and moved to a different place. But before he did that, he spent the whole time praying and Graham Cooke said, 'Oh, I see you're a Christian.' And he said, 'No, I'm a Satanist and I'm going to destroy you.' And he started telling Graham Cooke all of the curses that he was going to unleash on him. And Graham started telling him all the blessings that God had in store for him, instead of his curses.

So anyway, I asked the Lord about that.

He said, "But he DOES get cursed."

But when the Satanist sat and told him all the things he was going to do, he just talked about all the blessings You were going to give him.

The Lord answered me, "There is a difference of opinion here, Clare. Beloved, you must stick with what I tell you. Right now you are being trained in the warring arts. I am allowing much to open your eyes so you can prepare Our people. This is a training session. The enemies are doing us great favors by setting up the classroom. But one thing remains, 'No weapon formed against you will prosper.' And that is My promise to you."

"Do you think I miss anything, big or little? Do I not dwell in you? How can I possibly miss the stench of Satan and his demons operating through these deceived vessels? They have chosen to vent their anger on you and I have chosen to allow these attacks so you can learn how they operate. You have done well to grieve for this person. This is My Heart, Clare, I grieve for them too - deeply. I took you out of the line of fire because your heart was tender towards them and you were not thinking about retaliation or vengeance, but healing and restoration."

Oh Lord, I so hurt for this person. I tried to tell them they got cancer from a curse by someone close to them, but they insisted they were protected. And I didn't feel You wanted me to reveal the name.

"The fact that they got cancer," the Lord continued, "speaks loudly of a curse and death curses at that. Not just one, but continuing on. Their opponent is invisible to them, but very determined to end their life. The brain is a major target, but I have had compassion on them."

"Yet Clare, they are nearing the finish line for this behavior; they are approaching a final battle in which they will not be the victor. You see what goes around truly does come around. What you do to others will be done to you - it is written. Yet some people are blinded by vengeance and don't care. All they want is to hurt and hurt and brutally hurt others regardless of how it will come back on them."

"You remember when you were on the mountain and one of your children had a life-threatening asthma attack? The people you ran to, to use their phone."

Gosh, we were three miles into the wilderness. We got down there and we asked, 'Can we please use your phone to call an ambulance?' They wouldn't let me in. They said they'd call the ambulance. After 20 minutes, I knocked on the door and said, 'Where is the ambulance?' and they said, 'What ambulance? There's no ambulance.' Oh, my gosh...I nearly died. So, I went across the way and found another family.

The Lord continued, "I protected that child from death, which was the intention of your enemies. Yet, the very woman who was willing to allow your child to die lost her firstborn son. You cannot curse without curses coming back on your own head."

"Normally it is reciprocal...that is why there are so many deaths in northern New Mexico. So many are caused by curses, generational satanism. One curses the other, they retaliate. What is different about you and your team is that you bless when they curse, yet, I tell you - their time is still coming."

"And they have no idea, not a clue, of who is responsible for their cancer even though it is someone very close to them. I do not allow the repercussion of curses to hurt My children."

"I love My children to distraction. But when they behave badly, they must be corrected. So while you are blessing and they are cursing, others are cursing them, and now those curses have teeth. I was protecting before, but now I will not protect them. I gave them a window of opportunity to come to Me and repent, and they didn't. They will learn not to hurt others - one way or the other."

"Heartdwellers, this IS a dark subject. And it is foul, more foul than rotting flesh, yet I must address this because almost every one of you have been the recipient of a curse at one time or another. A curse that has not been broken. Generational curses, as well. As it is written that the iniquity of the fathers is visited upon the children down to the 10th generation, as well as the faithfulness of the fathers is visited on the children."

"This person is nearing the finish line and needs much prayer. Pray much for them, they do not see the sign, 'STOP! BRIDGE OUT AHEAD.' They are blinded by anger, unreasonable anger. They should be angry with themselves for sinning and betraying, but they are blaming their sins on you who are totally innocent and above-board in these matters. If anything you had been too trusting. Yet, I know you will not go there again.

"My People, do not have an evil thought against your neighbor."

There are six things that the Lord hates, seven that are an abomination to him: haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that make haste to run to evil, a false witness who breathes out lies, and one who sows discord among brothers. Proverbs 6:16.

"Those who lie in wait and dig a pit for you to fall into, shall themselves fall into it. Not because I want to punish them, because I don't want them to hurt others. Those who hurt others, are hurting themselves. They must learn through experience to love their neighbor, no matter what. They must learn through heartbreak and hurt what it feels like, so they will stop. It hurts and the only answer is not to hurt others, lest you yourself fall into traps that hurt you.

"I teach by example, so I allow their enemies to win over them and do the very same damage they intended to do to another. In fact, this soul was slated for death when I brought them to you, but your prayers have given them more time. Pray that they use it wisely instead of foolishly.

"As Pharaoh spoke his own demise, cursing the Hebrews, killing their male babies, so Pharaoh too lost his son, the very son that was to be the prince that was to replace him. Do not wish evil on others, do not think evil to happen to others. Rather pray for forgiveness and a blessing to neutralize the curse. I will have mercy on those who curse, but if they continue there is a price and it is very big.

"So bless your enemies, My children. If I show you how they are cursing, with pins and swords, pray that I will have mercy on them before their heart hardens to the point where they go reprobate. Then hope is lost for them. So pray before they get to that point, it is their only hope. Your mercy and forgiveness are a mighty act of Love. Your grief and fear of what is to become of them, is a piece of My aching heart, for I see the destructive path they are on and its consequences.

"Your prayers, My People, not only have power, they also protect you. When I see your heart of charity, I send legions of angels against their tactics so they will fail, because you returned their wrath with love and forgiveness. This is a mighty work of grace children. Live in forgiveness and never let it slip away, lest a bitter seed gets planted and grows into a great tree.

"You have done well to pray and bless. Continue on and nothing shall harm you. Remember, if I allow difficulties, it is because I need fast offerings.

"I love you, dear ones, and I rejoice when you love your enemies. Truly I dance over you with joy because you most resemble Me."

My Spirit is Gentle & Humble of Heart

December 17, 2016

Rejoice dear Heartdwellers. We have been counted worthy to share in the sufferings of Christ.

Even as it is written in Colossians 1:24 I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and I fill up in my flesh what is lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions for the sake of His body, which is the church. And, "If we suffer, we shall also reign with him." 2Timothy 2:12

Today, Ezekiel made an offering of himself for the soul whose eternity is hanging in the balance and it was difficult to see him suffering. I thought perhaps I had done something, but after careful prayer and his confirmation, it was not my doing. I knew we are still holding back the nuclear war Obama wants to start so he can stay in office and I knew a precious soul was hanging in the balance.

One of our intercessors had a vision of this person's house being on fire; another saw that they were no longer on this Earth. I fell to my knees crying, 'Mercy, dear God! Do not let them perish.'

When I sought the Lord about Ezekiel's condition he told me:

"This is about your mandate to suffer with the rest of your spiritual family. And seeing your husband suffer really hurts. It hurts you as it hurts Me, yet he has given me full permission, dearest, full permission. So you see, this is a tandem suffering. I'm sorry. You are feeling what I feel for him."

As an aside, other intercessors seem to be carrying much heavier burdens and I've been seeing myself as a dumpy, second class citizen that isn't carrying their weight. It has made me feel like a failure. And He addressed that in this next sentence:

"We are all doing this together; each of you has their portion. It may not look like an equal portion but it is, and tailored to your abilities to carry these crosses. Don't get it in your head any longer that you are not suffering as much as others - that's simply not true. Yours is more mental and emotional anguish. You are quite alive inside there, My love, quite alive."

"Many lies have been whispered in your ear. 'See, others suffer but you don't, you are a lesser soul and God doesn't hear your prayers, only theirs. You are still a babe and look at them in adulthood.'

"These are nice suggestions to keep you humble, but completely untrue. I work with you differently, more natively if you will. You move in My Spirit without even knowing it. That's why you find things immediately when you ask. I am not flattering you, I'm giving you the bottom lines. There is more infusion with you and that is why you are able to receive these messages so easily."

"Clare, each vessel has a unique way of relating to Me. Stop getting the impression that you are not up to par, please. That will cripple us. It will go much more smoothly if you just recognize that your way of hearing from Me is much less flashy and more gently infused - still small voice? That indeed is the name I have given you.

"Strong personalities tend to eclipse the way I work with you. Though at the time they don't realize what they are doing, it is injurious to you. Try not to hurt when that happens, it is not intentional on their part, it's just their particular way at this point in their lives. Yet you are becoming more and more like My mother every day. She was very, very gentle and quiet when she walked this Earth. Her ways were tender and deferential.

"Cleave to Me and understand that each soul has their own unique relationship with Me. You are not any less than the others who seem flashy and outspoken. I so appreciate your littleness. Nonetheless, it's healthy for you to feel that way on some levels. But do not allow these derogatory insinuations anymore. When people are too forceful with you and they don't listen, let it go in love.

"Holy Spirit is a gentleman. He never forces or overpowers, He never insists. Rather He gently delivers the message and allows you to ponder it. Never does He demand or insist that He is right, although He is never wrong. To be His spouse you, too, must be gentle, meek and humble treating one another with honor and deference, never insisting on your own understanding above the understanding of another. Never overpowering or forcing your way."

Lord, I feel as though I get a little littler every day.

He replied, "That way I can tuck you into My heart with great ease. Rest in Me, beloved. Rest.

"My Heartdwellers, you are all growing spiritually. Many of you very quickly are coming into your own and with this comes the danger of thinking you are above others. To each of you on this journey, demons are assigned to infiltrate your thinking and cause subtle feelings of superiority. Please be ever so cautious that you fall not into pride. The time most dangerous for you is after a victory. Self-satisfaction can overtake you and you will lose your perspective.

"All of My servants have been subject to these growing pains." (wow i know i have) "And it comes with the territory. Do not over react when you realize you have fallen into this, rather come to Me repentant, get up and keep going, much more cautiously now.

"Rapid success demands rapid tempering or you will go up in the flames of self-importance. That is why I allow you to stumble and fall on your journey. I must sometimes distance Myself so that you will once again find your footing in humility and gentleness.

"My Spirit is quiet and gentle. So, too, My vessels must learn the art of gentleness - even in the more dynamic ministries. There is an attitude of heart My little ones, that accepts the lowest place, that listens when others speak, that set their own opinions aside to listen and hear Me on a case-by-case level. It is so important to be abased and lift others up lest you become obnoxious in ringing your own bell, reading your own press and forcing yourself on others.

"As I promote you, be on your guard against the leaven of the Pharisees - that pride that feels elevated and 'above' other less spiritually endowed. That attitude that feels it could not be wrong because I am speaking to it, therefore, the other person must not be hearing Me. How dangerous that is, My little ones. You must discern at times on a case by case level and not forge ahead in presumption that all you believe is correct and others are wrong.

"This is so easy to do, and it takes much humiliation to bring a soul around to the point where they walk in true humility. Not just trying to convince themselves that they are nothing, but being borderline inferior deep in their own minds.

"Which brings Me to the other point, feeling inferior to others because they seem to have it all together.

"In fact, the more one behaves as if they do have it all together, the more fragile they are on the inside. The other danger is that you get down in the mouth about yourself and forget what I have done and am doing through you. Humility is wonderful but defeatism is destructive to our relationship.

"Never allow yourself to be downgraded by the bright and shiny pennies of this world. Know that My relationship with you is profoundly deep, spirit to spirit and the more you reflect the attributes of lowliness, the more exalted you are in My eyes. In truth, only One is to be exalted and I do not share well, nor should I - lest you fall into idolatry.

"One of the ways you can assure your place in humility is to understand that only One is infallible and that you are open to deception at any time. And when you are deceived, you damage the one I sent you to bind up and heal.

"I am not asking you to compromise your faith, but I am asking you to be cautious when you step out to direct other souls. See to it that your personality does not overpower those you minister to or undermine their relationship with Me or their confidence in their relationship with Me. See to it that you listen and seek answers case by case rather than assuming.

"And never forget that you may be mistaken either because I allowed it to humble you, or you may not have gone deep enough in your discernment.

"And finally, always listen to those who come to you. Listen with a heart full of love and compassion. Listen and receive as though it were coming from Me, then seek Me for the solution.

"There are many times when I speak through those who come to you, but you do not hear them because you have already formulated an answer. True humility listens and acknowledges Me inside your brother. True humility is cautious in giving direction and knows that it may be wrong and harmful rather than helpful.

"I will direct you as you grow into the spiritual gifts, My people. I will teach you. Rely on Me, and listen for My voice in others.

"I bless you My precious ones, with wisdom to bring comfort to the lonely, hurting and confused. You have done well in your prayers and because of your faithfulness I am calling you to step out and gently minister My love to this hurting world."

RETURN TO YOUR PRAYER CLOSETS NOW!!! WARNING - URGENT!!!

December 20, 2016

Well, my Heartdwellers, the Lord is calling us back to prayer during this window of grace. It's a very serious situation and I'm sorry I haven't been with you for a couple of days. There's been a change in employment and helpers around here, and I've been very tied up with it. And the Lord even chided me about it. I had to be forgiven for neglecting my duties with you.

So, He has a very urgent message today.

One thing I want to tell you is, Ezekiel is doing much better. For two days, when he came out of this offering, he was so filled with the Spirit and he was conversing freely with God the Father and going places with Him. And resting deeply in His heart. And there's some beautiful things to share there. But it's not what the Lord wanted me to share tonight. So, we'll get back to that.

He began, "It is truly wonderful how My Father has been working through your husband. Not only in fast offerings that truly seemed the blackest pit, which he weathered because he was not swimming on the surface, but deeply beneath all the turbulence. But tonight is not the night for such joyous experiences.

"Rather, we are still on the brink of war with Russia. Your president is still hell bent, literally, on destroying this country and not allowing President elect Trump to undo all the evil he so cleverly put in place to entrap the ignorant American people. He is not about to go down without a vicious fight and what you see in the media is nothing compared to what he's planning behind closed doors.

"Heartdwellers...lest you be the victims of nuclear war and have to behold the charred remains of little children and their mothers - pray like you have never prayed before. What is coming is horrendous and must be stopped by your prayers.

"You see when I give a prophecy to My Body it is a "can be." I am presenting you with the best possible scenario and what My heart truly desires for you. And along with that I am counting on you to intercede to make sure it happens.

"That is why I am making this urgent plea to NOT BE DISTRACTED by Christmas, because this is precisely what the enemy is counting on - that you be absent from your prayer closets. This is NOT the time to celebrate. This is the time to mourn and weep and pray as never before that this wicked man be stopped.

"You see My promise to you of three years more was conditional, and right now you are facing the conditions that will result in the worst tragedy this world has ever seen. Or the most wonderful victory. And it is in your hands.

"You see, if My plan fails, there will be an earlier rapture. But do not, do not, give up hope and let this go. We are on the verge of a wonderful overturning of the wicked powers of this world. And they know that it is your prayers that will cause it to happen. So they are counting on your Christmas shopping to distract you away from prayer so they can take full advantage of your momentary lapse.

"In years gone by, this has always been a sad time for Me because My people are busy about the world and I am left alone. There are very dark and clever spirits of distraction, false guilt and family gatherings that have gone to work and are diverting the prayers I need to stave off this war. I need these prayers. This IS what the enemy counted on, but I am begging you RETURN TO YOUR PRAYER CLOSETS, NOW! Do not delay another moment. If you have to get up earlier, go to bed earlier or sacrifice your sleep to pray - then do it.

"This is dire necessity. I want you to be victorious, so please heed My supplications as I heed yours when you are at the lowest and in dire straights, because that's where I am right now.

"PLEASE, RETURN TO YOUR PRAYER CLOSETS and curtail your involvements with holiday plans. I am now sending angels to divert family events that would entrap you, right now. They are coming to you. Do not allow the enemy to slam you with false guilt. Let your plans fall into the hands of those who are not praying and RETURN TO THE PRAYER CLOSET. NOW!!

"I love you. please, let's not lose this battle. Please."

And that's the end of His message. And I know I've been guilty of distractions because of the changes here with assistance. I, too, am being called back to the prayer closet and to curtail even trying to set things up and get things running smoothly again. I'm having to back off on that, to get more deeply into prayer.

So please, Heartdwellers, heed the urgent call of our Lord. The enemy is counting on us to be distracted by the pretty lights and the fine foods and the family gatherings and comforts. Don't let it happen. Don't be pulled off course. Allow others to take the burden off of you and do as much as you can in prayer to stop this war from taking place. Because Obama has failed all the other stop-gap measures. And now he's facing the Button. Please - don't let him press that button!

And for those of you who have been praying for us, thank you. We're coming out of a very dark time and beginning to run much more smoothly. And we'll have an announcement of a book pretty soon that's published and will be for sale at Amazon. The Rhema book. It's not quite there yet, but almost. And pray for me. I'm trying to finish the portrait. Everything is done but His shirt. So, please pray also that I'll be able to finish His shirt. And then I'll have some high-quality photographs, digital images, that you'll be able to print into portraits. But please, don't sacrifice your time in the prayer closet for this.

Just a head's up, don't let the day after Christmas be a day that you skip prayer.

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers. Thank you so much for being so supportive of our channel. Truly, you're the greatest blessing in our lives.

The Battle Is Not Over Yet & Lonely Christmas for Some

December 23, 2016

May the consolation of our dear Lord Jesus fill your hearts this day, beloved ones.

We've been having administrative growing pains, so that's the really why I'm a little delayed on the messages. But we're getting all caught up and we have everybody in place. I'm glad to announce that your prayers have made a huge difference. Things are beginning to pick up and roll along smoothly.

The portrait of the Lord should be done very soon. I'm trying to get it done by Christmas and photographed and up on the website, but I'm afraid I'm not going to make it. So forgive me for that. Keep up the good prayers!

Your prayers have had an impact. Your refusal to be distracted and quick return to your knees has bound momentarily the wicked plans of those who hate the Lord and this country.

Carol had a vision while praying. She saw Obama caught in a huge spider web that was attached and connected around the whole world. He was the spider in the center, and he was bound in chains and unable to move. Carol had the impression that the points of the web were waiting for Obama to make the first move, but he couldn't because he was chained by our prayers. She also had the impression that the next week and beyond would still require prayers to keep him immobile.

And after I pondered this vision that she had, the Lord began speaking.

"The battle is not over yet, dear ones of My Heart. It is not over yet. For the time being you have bound him in chains, but not for long, if you do not continue to fast and pray. This man is diabolical and determined to put an end to America. In this moment, he is stewing in his own bitter juices because he cannot as yet touch you. But that will come to an end if you don't keep up your efforts to bind him, for there are many devices and powers of evil involved in this wicked subterranean government.

"And that is truly what you have, a hellish government formed underground quite literally, and figuratively, as well. Conceived and executed from Hell and I am about to despoil it - if you hold your ground in prayer. As I have told you before, I am giving this world a demonstration of what a Christian country can do through prayer.

"Then it is up to them to choose to fight this wickedness and put a temporary end to it, or allow it to consume the world in the flames of corruption. Muslims and Christians alike will have to denounce this evil force in order for it to be contained for any length of time.

"But understand even as it is written, "Ishmael will be a wild donkey of a man; his hand will be against everyone and everyone's hand against him, and he will live in hostility toward all his brothers." Genesis "And it is the way of history that men use one another for their own ends and then terminate them. And so shall it be with the new world government. They will use the Muslims to destroy the Christians and Jews and then they themselves shall be destroyed. For the people will rebel against this insidious ideology. But remember I will come and put an end to all dictatorships and all governments that are not of Me, established by and for the Kingdom of Heaven.

"But in the meantime, the Earth will be a living hell after you, My Bride, are removed. But for now, My Mercy is anxious to demonstrate the possibilities of living for God in a truly free country. All nations will be given the chance to fight their way out of the kingdom of darkness.

"Now you, My Bride, have proven yourselves trustworthy with My Heart. You have shown that your first love is Me and not the demanding traditions of men. I have told you before, this season used to celebrate My Incarnation, and holds many magical and holy moments for the young. My angels are present in so many places to stir the young hearts towards their Savior.

"Satan has perverted this holy day with materialism, but such young souls are not old enough quite yet to understand that. To them, it is a season of giving to those you love and a celebration even with Christmas carols which I anoint to move on the hearts of men. Yes, in these rooms with families singing to Me, the anointing of love and peace falls heavily almost like an intoxicating happiness."

You know, as He was talking about that, I just had memories of my children when they were younger, and the beautiful traditions that we had to celebrate the Lord's birth. And I started to feel really sad.

And the Lord interrupted my sadness and said, "The day is coming, Clare. The fulfillment of all is coming. My promises to you, that your children will return to their roots will not return to Me void. I will see the day when you will worship as a family and light the candles of faith and devotion to Me. I will see the day, My love, and so will you."

(He lifted my chin as tears were streaming from my eyes...it hurts so badly to have lost them to the world.)

"The world had an irresistible draw on them, Clare. Understand, even the Mennonite children go astray, and when they face Me, they will not be able to blame it on their parents. And neither will yours."

Oh, my precious friends, there is no time of the year that hurts more than this time for Ezekiel and I. We both have children who have gone astray and those memories are enough to buckle our knees.

The Lord continued, "But you shall not grieve, Clare, you shall not. I wish for you to raise your countenance to Me and to the Hope I have promised and do not allow the enemy to magnify the feelings of grief that sneak up on you.

"So much, My people, you do not understand about the restoration I am going to bring about in Heaven. Everything that was done the wrong way, will be rewritten. It is beyond your comprehension to understand that now, but when so-called time wraps up, there will be seasons of return and restoration. I will see each of you the way you were meant to be raised as children and each of you as you were meant to be the perfect parents.

"Every tear shall indeed be wiped away. As it is written. "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore," Revelation 21:4

"The greatest travesty of the modern-day church is the apostasy of portraying My words as only figurative. They are not figures of speech used to communicate other concepts. They are LITERAL - without gloss, without alteration. And all that is written shall be fulfilled. Every tear shall be wiped away from your eyes. All shall be understood even as I understand and in the impartation of this knowledge it will be impossible for you to cry any longer.

"Clare, you are not the only one suffering from nostalgic memories. Every broken family suffers during this season and that is why so many are depressed. Satan has again taken what is precious and turned it against man, but I shall in the end triumph.

"Please, My people, do not allow yourselves to be drawn off course for this next week. Continue to press in and declare the victory of My grace over this evil abomination. Continue to hold the wheel of destiny firmly in your praying hands - firmly, never being called away by distraction. Your lives - Your very lives depend upon this.

"I must tell you this is part of your next level. You are the ones who are going to reform this world for a short time, with your prayers. You are the ones who are clearing the way for My will to be done in administrating this country. You have taken strategic ground, now you must hold fast to it.

"There will be sorties."

I looked that up in the dictionary, and it said, "an attack made by troops coming out from a position of defense."

So He said, "There will be sorties into new territory if this ground continues to be held and President Trump implements the means to reform your government. But you will still be defending the ground that you have taken and keeping him alive, in office and healthy through your prayers.

"Part of your climb up the mountain is the increased power of intercession and anointing on each of you to pray the very prayers needed to continue on. I know this has been a steep climb. I know how much each of you have suffered and offered to Me as fast offerings. And I am well-pleased with you, My People. So very pleased that you hearkened to My cries for your assistance in prayer.

"I am not a God who does not want and need His people. I have allowed Myself to be dependent on your prayers to win decisive victories. Yes, I have placed My very self inside of you and watched as we piloted this ship together. I have made Myself dependent upon your prayers, because you are co-creators with Me, in that your free will minds, when aligned with Mine, bring forth marvelous fruit. Yes, I am the Vine, you are the Branches and together we produce the finest of harvests.

"All I have to say to you now is to stand your ground, Beloved. Stand and behold the salvation of your God. Do not grow lax, weary or distracted in prayer. Make every sacrifice - no matter how small - an offering for My Kingdom come, My will be done. Dress each gift in the wrappings of thanksgiving and praise. Truly, My Father in Heaven has copious gifts from all of you. He celebrates your faithfulness in this season.

"Continue to hold ground, the fight is not over quite yet.

"May your hearts be filled with the knowledge of My love for you. May you understand more fully the impact you are having on this world. May you never grow weary of the climb but rather keep before you the view at the top and the great celebration we will soon have together in Heaven.

"I impart these graces to you now. Tuck them away, tenderly in your hearts, and protect them. You are My victorious Bride!"

The book Rhema is finished! Carol has edited it and put it together, and it's wonderful. It's the prophecies and admonitions, teachings of the Lord from our channel. And it's compiled by subject. You can get it on Amazon. So I want to encourage you, it's a beautifully put together book and very, very powerful. Exhortations and teachings from the Lord.

God bless you, Heartdwellers. Thank you for being a part of our lives. We love every one of you, even our enemies.

You Are Now My Bride & My Wife

December 24, 2016

Well, precious Heartdwellers, right now we are under fire! Rise up, rise up! Rise up and take the crest of this mountain.

The Lord is allowing all of us to be under fire right now because you've been listening and hearing all about spiritual warfare for all these weeks. And now is the time of consummation. Now is the time to put into practice what you've learned, to rise up and to smash the strongholds of the enemy in your family, in your own self, in your heart. And those are coming from the outside. And I know many of you have reported that things are going on in your families that are just unusual, that the attack is getting stronger and stronger. And I'm telling you, the Lord is allowing this for a reason.

Last night, my puppy got out and I was just heartbroken. And I knew it was a curse, immediately. Like the Lord said, when the weather is like that, you know what it is - it's a curse. And I knew what it was. He gave me the Scriptures Hope and Joy - so I knew that the dog would be returned to me. I knew I would find him. But it was a difficult moment, it was a heartbreaking moment to think that I might lose him forever.

And the enemy was pelting me with all these accusations. "Oh, God just gave you that dog so that you could lose him, or something could happen to him, you could offer him as a sacrifice." I said, "No. The Lord gave me that dog to bring joy to our family, and that's exactly what he does. And he will return that dog to me."

Well, within 3 hours, he was back here at the house, through a set of unusual circumstances. I knew that I was under attack then, and when he came home, when I finally got him home, his whole demeanor, his whole attitude was strange. And I knew he was under a curse, so I had to break it. I broke it, using the prayers that I've given you for deliverance - I looked right at him and broke - I spoke it over him three times and broke that curse. All of a sudden, his little puppy nature returned and he started playing and jumping for joy and wagging his tail and everything else. But before that, he was just - he was dumbstruck. He was looking at me like I was a total stranger and I knew that was the work of the enemy.

So, I know many of you are coming under fire right now, and that is deliberate on the Lord's part. He is allowing it to get you to rise up and use your gifts. The strongest weapon you have is praise and worship, thanksgiving, praise and worship. Having hope and faith in the Lord. And then use the prayers of deliverance. Make sure that your heart is clean. Ask the Lord to remove everything in your heart that is not of Him. Repent any negative thoughts you've had, for any way you've gone into agreement with the enemy. Repent for those things and ask the Lord to deliver you from evil. Take authority as well. I broke curses over him just directly. "In the Name of Jesus, I break every curse, hex, evil wish and spell." three times. "I break every vortex, every wall, every brick, every impediment put between him and me, in Jesus' Name I break it."

Continue to pray these things until things return to normal.

One of the greatest weapons we have is praying in the spirit. Those of you who are spirit-filled, use your tongues! Pray in the spirit. Worship in the spirit. Walk around the house and bless things in the spirit. Bless your house in the spirit. Bless your family in the spirit. Worship the Lord in the spirit.

And if you don't have the gift of tongues, it's right there. It's sitting on you, waiting to be put to use. And you can rebuke every impediment, everything that gets in the way of you speaking in tongues, in Jesus' Name. Rebuke every barrier and every vain thought that raises itself up against you in praying in tongues.

A lot of you have curses that won't allow you to pray in tongues without Embarrassment and Shame, and things telling you, you don't need to pray in tongues, or that's of the devil or whatever... Lies! Lies! Lies! Lies! Don't listen to them. Rise up and ask the Lord to fill you with the Spirit. Start singing songs of worship and allow Him to change the words into tongues. Let go. Let go of your tongue and, in the Name of Jesus, command your tongue to be loosed. To be loosed and freed so that you can freely worship in the Spirit and the Truth.

And that way, Holy Spirit will address these demons. He will break curses, hexes, evil wishes and spells. Holy Spirit will speak the proper prayers, the perfect prayers to deliver us from evil. But you have to be willing to take authority over anything that will block your way to speaking in tongues.

So, the Lord is allowing this "heat" on us right now to raise every one of you up. You are at the crest of the mountain and you're about to take the top. But the fight is fierce, the enemy is raging and you have to rise up and defend your territory and your family. And worship your God and overcome every lie of the enemy that is trying to cause you to be defeated and fall back down into the valley.

Dearly beloved Heartdwellers - we are in a war at the crest of the mountain. Every year this time, just before the new year and winter solstice, there are fierce battles just like before Halloween. A lot of damage is done with family members when they get together unless we make the demons wait outside the door and call upon the Lord to post His angels so there is no miscommunication or strife in the air.

So it should be no surprise to you that you are under attack. This is one of their seasons. How are you going to be ready for combat if you do not have drills and experiences that call you into combat?

So, we are in the midst of training right now although it is with live bullets from a real enemy. There are swords, javelins, poisoned-tipped arrows and spears. All these can be removed spiritually through faith and then the wounds they inflict will be healed as well by the Lord Himself. He is standing there, at your right hand, to accomplish all of this. Lay hands on one another and ask Him to heal these places through you. And ask Holy Spirit to reveal the weapons and wounds to you.

Exercise your gifts. Remember: praise - worship -tongues -and the binding prayers. Respond to attacks immediately. Don't let anything get in the way, use the privacy of the bathroom if necessary.

Lord, would you like to add anything?

"Once again, Clare, you have My Heart. My people must now rise up and take authority. They can no longer treat this as a spectator sport for seasoned ministers only. Is it not written that you are priests and kings? Is it not written that you have authority in My name to bind and loose? You are drawing on My account in Heaven, not yours.

"You are authorized to sign on this account, to sign My Name and take the graces necessary for these battles. You are being raised up around the world to come against the kingdom of darkness. I have labored through My prophets to educate and prepare you. Yours is only to step out in faith and exercise the gifts that you've been given.

"If you don't want to take a heavy beating and losses, you must rise up against these forces. You can no longer sit back in the stadium and watch others be victorious against the foe. You must be down there in the ring, wielding your swords, shields and dressed in full armor.

"Call upon Me in the day of trouble and I will deliver you, but you must be in readiness. Most of you are out of shape and distracted. That is how the enemy gains the victory, that is why I have commissioned you every day to come to Me and ask for instructions to fight the enemy. Especially starting in your heart, where seeds of bitterness can get a foothold.

"I, Myself, have called you here to this channel to be prepared for the final battle you will face before I come for you. I have called you here because I intend to arm you for the weapons yet to come from the enemy. Do you understand My Bride and My People? This is not a soft cozy place, rather it is a place of warring until you can war no more. It is a place where you sleep on the cold ground at night and march until you are exhausted the next day.

"You have responded because you wanted something deeper and more meaningful in your walk with Me. You wanted to dwell in My Heart. There are beautiful places in My Heart and there are warring places. In My Heart you behold the carnage of mankind through the enemy's works. In My Heart you bleed with Me, you Hurt with Me, but you also are called aside to dance and rejoice with Me.

"When the final battle has been won, you will come to be with Me in Heaven, but because you wish to dwell in My Heart you are finding all the pain I experience over the lost, the misguided, the bitter and alienated. Because you live in My Heart, you also are being called to minister to the wounded and to join into the battle I must fight every day with the enemy.

"You also stand beside Me and exercise your authority and for this reason you are hated by the enemy. If you wish to continue to dwell in My Heart, feel My Pain and respond to My Agony over souls, you must be strengthened to go deeper and deeper and climb higher and higher. You must be willing to sleep on hard rocks and climb treacherous mountains, weather gale-force winds, ice cold and slippery footing. All these things you must be ready to do and more.

"I have told you before, count the cost. I have told you that if you wish to stay behind, I will still love you. I will still take you to Heaven with Me, and you will still have your reward.

"But you will not experience the depth of My Love for Mankind. You will not take the arrows in the heart, you will not experience the despair of the lost nor will you bind up My wounds when I am all bloody. These are the tasks true Heartdwellers must face every day. I began this channel with My Love and I have never departed from that intention.

"But I also was inviting you into the Honeymoon of our love for one another. Now, in essence, we are wed and you are functioning as My Wife, who now is not called just to courtship but to provision, to battle, to be there for Me when I return from the battlefield - and to sometimes go out with Me as well. As My Bride and Wife you are also under attack and heavy losses. But I restore all with My Healing Love, yet you must be willing to suffer injury on My behalf.

"You must be willing to continue fighting when the battle around you gets nasty. You must be willing to offer your fatigue and pain to Me for your brothers and sisters who are yet perishing.

"There will be times of refreshment and you will be armed to withstand the enemy with every new weapon he produces. As My Bride & Wife, you will see others who have chosen to stay behind in more cozy quarters. You will see that they, too, suffer and offer their suffering for mankind, but they are not subjected to the high winds and steep and treacherous climbs you must scale.

"I can promise you My tender love and companionship as well as the training and equipping. I can promise you star-lit nights when we dance together and I comfort you on My shoulder. Yes, all of this is yours. It is yours and it will be yours. But I am recounting to you that this channel is about LOVE. My love for mankind and your love for Me and mankind.

"But to love is not always easy, as you have encountered in your marriages. To love is also to suffer for the loved one. So, here I want to be very clear with you. This channel has not changed into a demon-chasing channel. This channel is functioning as I have called it to function. The basis of your relationship with Me is now established in LOVE, affection, tenderness, closeness, purity untainted by anything of the Earth.

"But now that it is established, it is time to move on into the real business of a true Heartdweller: the salvation of souls. It is time to focus on My battles and be ready in an instant to take up the standard and march.

"You have been commissioned in My Army, the Army of My Heart, to move forward in all kinds of adverse situations and love at all costs. Love Me and love your neighbor with all your heart and soul and mind and strength. This truly is the calling of a Christian who has laid down their lives at My feet and promised Me fidelity for better and for worse.

"So, I commend you for standing with Me. I am sorry you must see the filth of the enemy, the carnage of souls, the bitterness of the lost souls. I am sorry you must resemble Me, your crucified Lord. But I tell you the truth, when I come, you will immediately be recognized by My angels because you will be totally resembling Me.

"Be ready and strong therefore to wear the armor, lift the shield and fight with the sword and know that your reward is not far off. I will never leave you languishing on the battlefield. I will come and strengthen you and you will rise again to brandish the sword in battle.

"Stay close to Me, worship Me in thankfulness and receive Me in communion. These three things will keep you strong in advancing against the enemy and taking the spoils...that is, the souls that have been held captive.

"Come now My Bride, My Faithful One, embrace Me. Let Me cleanse and heal your wounds and together we will again advance upon the enemy to set the captives free.

"Do not lament over those who refuse Me. Some were destined to go that way. Rather continue to look for the living who yet have a chance to repent. And remember always, My power is perfected in your weakness!"

Please Stop Your Witchcraft Against Us-PLEASE! You Are at Serious Risk

December 25, 2016

May the confidence in God's protection reign in your hearts.

Oh, my dear Heartdwellers, don't dabble with evil. Don't even consider it for a moment. How dangerous it is! The former employee who had taken to voodoo against us is now being used by powers and forces much greater than they understand.

Because we have so many enemies, they are now turning their powers like a conduit running them through this former employee. As a result, these very seasoned and powerful Satanists are using this person, and the power and heat running through them is SO intense that they are beginning to burn up from it. The Lord likened it to radiation earlier. That radiation has consequences in our body.

The three people involved in this cursing against us are now being overpowered by forces they have no way to handle. If you are listening to this, dear friend, please put aside your anger, your bitterness and jealousy and call on Jesus right now, before it is too late. You are in grave danger, you are being used by those far advanced in the black arts and you have been chained by them with no hope of escape on your own powers.

Please do not let Pride stop you from calling on Jesus. You are headed for disaster, you and the two working with you. Please, please, He loves you. Call on Him, He wants to help you get free. Please, do not continue on this path. There are curses against you and your bodies are being exposed to strong radiation to create reproductive, fast-moving cancers that will take your bodies over. Please, please, because you have cursed the innocent, you are not being protected and these curses are about to take root in your bodies if you don't stop immediately.

Please stop, please stop, PLEASE! What you have done to hurt us is only being used to train us for further battles. The Lord heals our wounds and we offer them to Father God for you, for your conversion. But you are in a serious situation that will claim your life if you do not stop it. Please heed my plea. There is nothing you can do to us that God does not turn to double blessing in our lives, but you have done great harm to yourselves.

We are all praying for you, really praying hard. We are begging you to stop before it is too late for you. A few days ago your conscience cried out to you to stop. That was because you had been told not to cross a line, but you ignored that. Now the consequences of ignoring the warning are upon you and you have no time left to repent. You are in a bondage to those far more powerful than you. They have chained you and the only way out is to cry out to Jesus and let Him come and wrap His loving arms around you and break the chains off. Give you a total change of heart.

By all means, watch the movie about St. Patrick and see what happened to the Druids that challenged St.

Patrick's God by the trial of standing in a hut that was set on fire. See what happened there and understand: you are not fighting a person or a channel, you are fighting against your Creator. And the druid was consumed because he insisted on the challenge, believing that Patrick was pleading with him to stop, because he was afraid. That was a lie, Patrick had nothing to fear because God was with him and his disciple, but the druid was burnt alive while Patrick's disciple walked out unharmed. The druid's cloak was charred and burned while Patrick's remained unharmed.

You are greatly loved by your Creator. Whatever has been done to you in your life to make you think otherwise is a lie. God loves you and He doesn't want to see you harmed. He is not the one who abused you as a child. He cried when you were abused.

Lord, is there anything You wanted to add?

Jesus began, "This is a lesson in spiritual warfare, My People. You may be enticed to dabble in curses and see what you can do. It seems harmless at first...almost fun. The demons entice you, 'Come on you have great powers here, try this you will see how powerful you really are. That Christian isn't powerful. She's a weakling and afraid of her own shadow. But you have real potential, you are specially endowed with powers, come on try it.

"And those at the witchcraft shops will also encourage you, sell you dolls, candles and books and encourage you to begin to learn these ways. Why should you put up with others doing you wrong? You can get even and make them suffer for their unfairness to you.

"And so you begin this new journey as an adventure thinking you are going to conquer and retaliate and make others suffer for what you perceive as unjust. You have bought into it. Soon the demons are courting you and showing you results, telling you all the things your powers have done to others to make them suffer. Soon you are seeing visions of swords piercing and poisoning, and making your enemies sick.

"You are quickly growing in confidence and boldness. As you begin to move in this direction, other forces are attracted to you. Others who also have a case against the ones you are cursing. They see how inexperienced you are and begin to court your favor with flatteries and channel their wicked powers through you as the focal point.

"The rush from the power at first makes you intoxicated and heady, but then a certain fear sets in... 'What is happening to me? This is going too far, too soon. I'm afraid. I feel scared! I'm beginning to fear these forces and powers - they are bigger than I am. But now you are locked in, and cannot get out. You overstepped a boundary and have been captured. Your soul begins to shrink back and hide in a corner, cowering, but you keep up the front that you are powerful. You are now being pulled under by these forces and there is only one escape. But you can't appeal to Him, because those you hate have appealed to Him and you won't lower yourself to ask for His help and do the same.

"It is all a lie, dear soul. A big lie. You have lost your freedom and I am your only way out. Do not delay. Call on Me in the day of trouble and I will deliver you. In spite of your sins, I will deliver you. I will forgive you. I will give you new life and a future worth living for. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain.

"But if you refuse to respond to My call of love, I have no choice but to release you to the will of your enemies. And you have many who have issues with you, who have gone to curanderas and had curses placed on you.

"I have held back much harm from your life, but now you must decide. Am I to cover, deliver and protect you? Or have you chosen to break free from Me and go your own way? Please consider these options when you feel free from arrogance and vengeance. You are not thinking clearly if these influences are controlling you.

"Ask Me to help you think clearly, please ask Me. I will help you make a clear decision. And I will be there for you if you choose to repent and call on My Name."

Come Away With Me My Love

December 27, 2016

May the Healing presence of our Lord Jesus penetrate you with love, dear Heartdwellers.

Today when I came into prayer, I was listening to Julie True, I saw myself dancing with Jesus in formal clothes on a very intimate dance floor. His eyes were brimming with love as He held me so very tenderly and I felt the stress of the former weeks pouring out of me and His healing love coursing all through my soul and body.

I needed this so very badly, because I have been torn between the demands of our mission and my need for prayer. And honestly - I don't think I have handled it well. I've been a little too concerned with the earthly things again.

So needless to say, I felt guilt. And when I feel guilt I want to run and hide - the last thing I want to do is get close to Him. He addressed this immediately.

Oh, dear Heartdwellers, no matter how hard you've tried I can only imagine that the enemy has managed to stick you with guilt for not doing a better job tending to spiritual matters in the midst of holiday demands. So, I pray this will be healing to you as well as it was to me.

He began, "Clare, I have held you tenderly. You are My Precious Bride. How can I convey to you how much you are loved by Me? Have I not done all that is possible to do so? Why do you persist in your self-hatred and unbelief? I do not hate you, I cherish you. I want you back in My arms right now and forever, tucked safely away in Me, coming out to dance and skate joyously, and celebrate other occasions.

"I am tired of seeing My Bride in doom and gloom. Please, come back to Me, so I can adorn your hair with Hibiscus flowers, and tend to your war wounds with My salves and surgeries. And just enjoy your sweet smile and longing for Me."

Then He began speaking about the portrait.

"See Me here? Right here in all My Love, the Love I show you in this portrait? It is longing to be received by you. You cannot allow your guilt to push you away from Me anymore. No, you must embrace Me and hold Me to your heart, never to let Me go.

"We are passing into a new season, a wedding chamber season. A time of closeness, like none before it. But before we can, you must accept My forgiveness for your failures and sins. The enemy continues to remind you of your past, and you mustn't listen to him. The things he dredges up are from the effluent flowing into Hell. They cannot be found in My heart or in Heaven anymore. These things are forgiven and gone. Do you see? Oh, I want you to see so badly. These dark times must be offset with the joy of our relationship.

"Now put away these thoughts and accusations once and for all and repent when you spurn My call, repent immediately and come back. Do not delay and add sin onto sin. Rather get ahold of yourself and come back into My waiting and loving, forgiving arms where there is ample forgiveness for your sins."

And right here the Lord is talking about the times, like a March hare, I get it into my head that I need to do something, and I go to do it and I can feel the Lord tugging and saying, "Why don't you put that off and come back here into prayer?"

And I can hear myself answering, in terrible presumption, "It'll just take a minute." And of course, it doesn't just take a minute and it does spoil something and it makes Him wait and that's terrible. So then I feel pretty guilty about it. But He's telling me, you know, get ahold of yourself right away and come back into My waiting and loving arms, where there is ample forgiveness for your sins.

He continued, "The world is so dark and our love for one another is so Bright. All of Heaven rejoices over our love, even in the midst of the battlefield. You must not let the heat of the battle obscure our love for one another."

"You must not forsake the joyous times because of the weight of the warring times. Rather I want you to wake up refreshed every morning and come to Me in joy and enjoy your morning times together as the trysting times I so desire to rejuvenate you with. I, too, need this rejuvenation from you. I, too, need to see your smile, your great happiness at our meeting. I, too, need to rejoice in who you are to Me and that you care enough to begin your day in My arms."

"Yes, the world is a filthy place, but there are still hidden-away places, inter-dimensional places where we can enjoy the fragrance of roses in bloom, lilacs, lilies and the sweet songs of the birds. Yes, this is the garden of our heart, which is not in a shambles as you fear. Rather it is in full bloom with every exotic flower and fruit, longing for you to share these precious gifts with Me as we bask in the glory of those moments."

"Come now, imbibe the delicate aromas, taste the sweet fruits, pet your creatures who long for the day you are finally with them. Come. Come and be intoxicated with the delights of our Love."

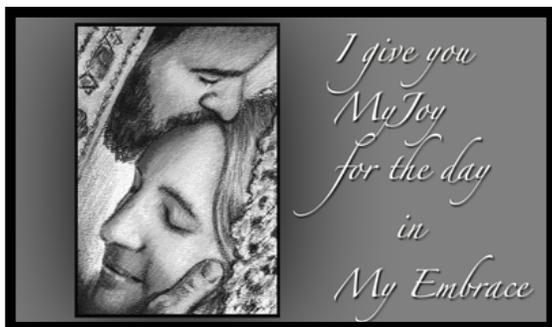

"My children, you have been in many battles and now I want you to come to Me for refreshment. You must lead a balanced life. There is time for war and time for love. Because we are in an extended time of war and stress, there must be little times of refreshing in your lives."

"Look for Me in the garden of your heart. There we shall walk and talk and I will rest your weary brow over My heart. This is the idea behind the portrait. It is to draw you away with Me in sweet peace and loving fellowship into a place where healing can take over and restore your wounds, equipping you for more battles."

"You have learned well the ways of war. And now is the time to again visit the place of our love and be rekindled and nourished in the meaning of our heavenly love for one another."

"Come to Me in this sweet place and anticipate the former joys as well as new surprises I have for you. I long to hold you close to My heart, caress your hair and whisper the consolations of Divine Love once again in your ears."

Begin Your Day In My Joy & Embrace

December 28, 2016

May the Lord's joy overtake you, Heartdwellers.

Wow. He has really changed the subject here, calling upon us to dwell in His arms at the beginning of the day and take that joy forward as we face life's challenges. For too long we have felt defeated and weary. He is instituting a new season of joy even in the midst of ongoing intercession for our country.

Jesus began, "It is My gift to you, dear ones, that you may dwell in My heart and rally to the war cry. That you may be sustained by My Love for you and strengthened in courage and perseverance when you meet with the battles of your daily life.

"For this reason, I want you to enter into this joyful place and confidently seek to rest in My arms. For what does a lover do when He's been absent from His Beloved? He opens His arms wide and embraces her with all His heart.

"That is why I do not wish for you to be timid or reticent to come to Me. Rather fly into My arms in the morning, in complete confidence that this IS the desire of My Heart, all of My Heart.

"Land securely in My arms, declaring your gratitude for another day to live for Me. Declare your complete dependence on Me and bring your humble confession with the sure knowledge that I will forgive you your shortcomings. This is the way I wish for you to begin your day. Knowing beyond a shadow of a doubt that I am longing to hold you the very moment you open your eyes each day.

"Begin your day In My embrace. I know the challenges that are ahead of you. I know exactly what you will face that day, and I impart grace in My embrace of you, to prepare you.

"We are beginning this day as One, we are walking through this day as One. And when you feel you can no longer walk, I am supporting you. Let Us always begin by declaring our Love for one another and receiving all I would give you in full knowledge that I am for you and there is nothing to fear as you come to Me confidently even as a little child.

"I know the expectations and fears in your hearts. I know the thoughts that sometimes overshadow your joy throughout the day. I watch as the enemy whispers in your ear, as he brings a certain darkness over you. These are times for you to return your heart and mind to My goodness. This is where you must dwell: in the goodness of your God who is all for you, who is arranging victories for you, who is preparing the way for our dreams to come true.

"The enemy hates those dreams, knowing full well that their fulfillment means his loss. So he will do everything in his power to dissuade you from forward thinking. But this is when you must recall, 'My God is for me, and if He is for me no one will overcome me.' This is the time to squeeze My left hand with your right hand and to affirm that you know I am there, at your side.

"If you proceed through your day this way, he will not overcome you with dark thoughts, depression and fear. Remember always that he will use whoever is nearby to get your attention on failure. Not that the people around you are even aware of what they are doing, but many times an idle word, a prying question, a looming situation can cause you to recoil inside and lose your inner joy and light.

"When this happens, quickly recover yourself, acknowledging Me as your Savior, Provider, Healer, Protector and source of all good in your life. Acknowledge frequently that nothing formed against you will prosper. Rather, as you walk in My will, all you touch will prosper.

"Let the storms come. Let them blow against you, around you, behind you. Let the Earth tremble. None of these things can stop My holy will from coming about in your life. Walk joyfully in confidence, acknowledging this in your heart and singing it in song, speaking it in a joyful declaration.

"This irritates the enemy to no end. It even causes a depression for the demons on assignment. As they realize you are not bowing to their tactics, they grow insecure and afraid.

"There is a glorious new day dawning. There is joy in the morning and even laughter in the evening when you keep My inspiration in the forefront of your mind."

By the way, just as an aside, I wanted to mention that the portrait's done. I'm going to have it photographed today and a high-resolution copy will be available on the website. And the title of it is, Joy Comes In The Morning. So, the Lord has had this in mind all along, while He was working on this painting. He was having this time that we are walking into right now in mind when He began the painting.

He continued, "The love I nourish you with will spill out onto everyone you meet during the day. It will permeate the atmosphere and make it very difficult for evil to even dwell in the same room with you. Especially if you are continually singing songs of praise, both in your heart and even out loud. Praise has the power to alter the airwaves until they are unbearably hot to the enemy.

"I have created you to sing and give voice to your joy. Even as the birds awake each day and call out. In between their chatter you can discern their chirps of joy to Me each day. All creation is awake to the joyful soul, even as it is written,"

...14Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne; Lovingkindness and truth go before You. 15How blessed are the people who know the joyful sound! O LORD, they walk in the light of Your countenance. 16In Your name they rejoice all the day, And by Your righteousness they are exalted...."
Psalm 89:14-16

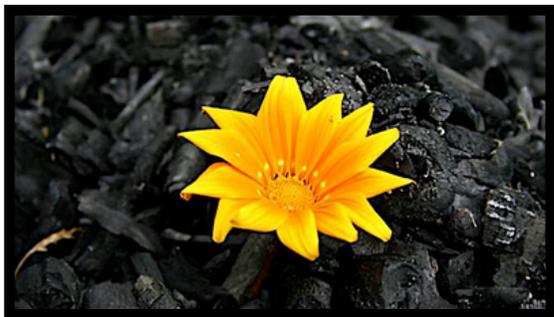

"As you ponder the Psalms, remember these are My literal injunctions. These are not figures of speech, but declarations of truth and these words have the power to drive darkness out of your environment when spoken with conviction and resolve. The Psalms are like a giant medicine chest where the remedy for every illness can be found, the solution for every situation. To dwell in the Psalms is to dwell in Heaven, where all creation praises Me day and night.

"So you see, I have left you with sublime gifts that we might be continually connected and you continually enabled by the very thoughts of My Heart. This is My Point: nothing can overcome the soul that is steeped in My goodness, giving voice to thanksgiving. Nothing. Many have gone before you doing this very thing at the hour of their death and have walked into Heaven victoriously accompanied by angels and saints, aglow with sustaining worship.

"So, I am asking you to avail yourselves of My Joy and Love for you each day. Run into My waiting arms Beloved, run! And allow Me to embrace and equip you to walk in victory through every storm.

"Keep these words tucked away in your hearts and refer to them often. Meditate on the Psalms and My goodness to you. You are My Beloved Ones. You have done battle. You have been faithful and I am drawing you deeper into My very being where you will find inspiration and joy for every day."

MY Beauty for Your Ashes & Our Relationship

December 30, 2016

May the new life Our Lord is offering us bring us the fullness of union with Him and fruit for His Kingdom, Heartdwellers.

What a joy it has been to be dancing with Jesus again and resting in His loving arms. Truly He is beginning the new year by drawing us into a deeper union with Him.

Jesus began, "My people, as you draw closer to Me, letting your guard down, truly letting go of everything - every stress, every fear and apprehension, every guilt and failure. As you do these things, you and I will become One, more and more.

"What a beautiful exchange I am giving to you. Your sins, your fears, your failures in exchange for My Love. The only way you will succeed in your relationship with Me and make it to the high calling is through complete trust.

"This is the High Calling: complete release and trust that everything I think of you, everything I want for you, everything My Heart longs to give you is good beyond measure and will bring you closer, deeper and more intimately tied to Me. So much so, that grace and mercy will flow directly through your heart to the lonely, hurt and disenfranchised wandering sheep with no valid shepherd.

"So much has been neglected in feeding you, My People. The most key and central issue is not your perfect, sinless conduct, although there is great merit in that. No, it is your love for Me and your love for your neighbor.

"Satan knows this well and so his tactic is to cause alienation between you and I, so that we will not function as One and you will not heal the wounded.

"Yes, this relationship is risky. Yes, you can make mistakes. But more than your mistakes is My faithfulness to lead and guide and equip you to be grafted solidly in My heart that your fruit may be My fruit and My fruit may be your fruit. That is the plan - that I flow through you so perfectly that one loses track of you ministering, but feels My presence very clearly and securely.

"Yes, that is a tall order, but it is so necessary! This is how we will minister to the world. And only through your complete letting go of every single fear and reticence will you accomplish this. You must convince yourself that there is nothing to be ashamed of in My presence. Nothing I cannot forgive, nothing you have to do first. It is 'come as you are' and let Me graft you into the vine so perfectly that hardly will others be able to tell where you let off and I begin.

"In the process of this, your sins and shortcomings will come to the surface and you'll be given the chance to ask for My forgiveness and feel the sorrow that you caused Me. But it will quickly pass away, and the Joy of being with Me will overcome you.

"Beloved, can you trust Me?"

"Can you?"

"Can you?"

"Please think long and hard about this. When you come to Me, I want all the walls and defenses down and only an open heart ready to receive every grace without question into your hearts and being. This is what I need from you.

"But first, you must let go of ALL your fears. And I do mean ALL. Every single one is coming from Satan, who does not want you to thrive in Me. Rather his goal is alienation. You must be more clever than he is. You must be so clever that there is no vestige of his thoughts and words when you come to Me. Rather your heart and mind are totally transformed by My goodness.

"I need you, My Bride, My Children. I need forward-thinking souls who can and will conquer their fears regarding Me. I have seen you at your best. I have seen you at your worst. Give Me your ashes and I will clothe you in My beauty.

"Is this so hard? Can you? Will you?"

"I am extending the grace to you right now in your hearing ears. Receive this grace of trust and transparency before Me. Receive it."

And I just wanted to make a short announcement and let you all know that the portrait is finished and there's going to be a copy up on our website. It's not the high-resolution copy, because the photographer is on vacation. And that will be remedied next week, by about the 4th of January. And that really large file will be available to you. But in the meantime, you're welcome to download this image and do anything you want with it, except it's not for sale. Please don't do that!

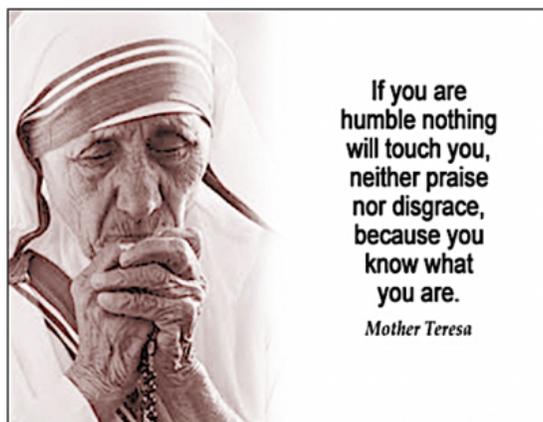

And also I want to let you know that the book Rhema is available now on Amazon. So, I've been using it and wow! It's really, really helped me, really takes me back into some of the teachings the Lord has given us, but are so on target for the different things that we face every day. Carol Jennings has done the editing. She's gone through all the teachings and pulled out the most relevant ones. And she's done a magnificent job of making this book really instructive and really helpful. We have Carol to thank for that and the Lord working through her.

I'd be happy to give this book away, but right now I know that they're going to cause me to charge for it, and I can't get around that in any way, shape or form. So, paying for the book for free wouldn't do me any good - they'd still make me charge for it.

So, it is available and the distribution is wonderful, because it can go around the world.

Thank you for being a part of our lives. We lift you up in prayer every day, in prayer and blessing and protection. The Lord bless you, dear Heartdwellers.

Some Things Are More Important Than Being Right

December 31, 2016

May the peace of Jesus keep our hearts and souls, dear Heartdwellers.

Well, the last two days have posed a very interesting test. And one not easily understood or discerned. But thanks to the prayers of my dear friends, I finally have a peace -although not with the answers I was seeking. More than anything I wanted to be right with the Lord and in His usual kindness, after communion that's the very first thing He addressed.

Jesus began, "You are clean before Me."

I answered Him, 'I am realizing Lord, this is a suffering.'

"Indeed it is. Not knowing, having no way to justify yourself, feeling as though you have no foothold on truth is a mighty suffering. I have told you before, that each of you receive sufferings commensurate with your ability to hold them.

"I see you as a little four-year-old before the throne of My Father, crying out for justice and truth. And yet the satisfaction of knowing is denied you. Why am I allowing this? Indeed, because it is a suffering and I am longing to see that it is handled in charity and humility. This is what is called for here, My Bride, charity and humility. Think nothing bad or evil about your brother, that is what the Law of Love commands.

"I would rather you be ignorant and innocent than learned and corrupt. Yours is the way of a little child...taking My hand and loving all, no matter how sinister they seem to you. These accusations come from the evil ones and are an entrapment to fall into judgment and condemnation. When you abstain from this, you do well. When you continue to bless, even though your conclusions are that evil abides there, you do very well indeed.

"Yet I have not called you to be learned and wise, but simple, humble and childlike. Yes, there are times when it is good for you to understand the enemy's tactics and what part your own person is enticed into sin through the working of their wiles. It is good to understand spiritual warfare. But it is not your calling to delve into these matters; rather it is yours to be innocent, loving and reveal the Face of My Love to the world.

"When a soul stays in a place of searching the deep and dirty things of the spiritual world, that soul becomes soiled and much needs to be cleansed. I have not called you into the darkness but into the Light. Stay here with Me, My Love, this IS My calling for you. Let others follow theirs, but you follow Me.

"I will from time to time give you insights into the workings of evil in the world and in souls, but it is only so you will be wise as a serpent in your dealings with them. I still wish for you to return to being gentle as a dove.

"When one is in a continual battle with darkness, that one takes on some of the traits of the enemy. This is dangerous. And is a dangerous calling and requires much prayer and sanity, which only I can impart when you are dealing with deception. It is very taxing on the soul and makes the soul very vulnerable.

"Some are called to this, but you are not. Incorporating those teachings on a very limited basis on Our channel is sometimes necessary, lest My people fail for lack of knowledge. But just as one showers after cleaning the stalls at a stable, so must that one be purified again and again and again.

"I have always steered you away from becoming too involved in the darkness for that reason and because you were created for a different purpose. So, do not be dismayed when you do not have all the answers. I will tell you this, though: I honor your deference to your husband. One can not go wrong with obedience. You are no longer responsible when you obey and if there is error, I address that directly in your covering. You, however, remain clean."

And here I want to say something that I failed to mention. In the last video that I did on this topic of Obedience. And that is simply that a prophet is called to give a word and then stand back and the Holy Spirit is to work in the soul that the word's being given to, especially if it's an elder or a pastor. And it's their responsibility to receive the word if it's validated by Holy Spirit.

But if that pastor receives a word from someone that IS from Holy Spirit and rejects it, then the fault is with the pastor. And as long as the soul who is delivering the message is not pushy or forceful - that doesn't do anything. That doesn't help discernment at all, it makes situations tense. The whole idea is to deliver a word in peace and allow Holy Spirit to convict. That's His job.

So, if you're in that position, where you're in a church or something like that, where you can't exercise your gifts because the pastor never receives them - you're in the wrong place. You need to be somewhere where you WILL be received. So that's just a little thought that I wish I had tacked on to that last message.

The Lord continued, "So, the decision you have made is pleasing to Me. Can you rest in that?"

(tears) Oh, Lord, it is so painful!

"Yes, it is a suffering. But after suffering comes delight."

So, You will not reveal the truth to me?

"Not as yet. I prefer that you offer this up. But this much I can tell you, I am pleased with your deference to your husband. Very pleased."

It feels right, Jesus, though it brings into question some of the messages you gave concerning this and makes me wonder if I and the discernment team made a serious error in discernment.

"This too is a suffering, Beloved. But know that I am pleased with your decision. Is this enough for you, Clare? Can you rest in Me?"

I am trying.

"Well, truly this is a test in humility, since you cannot prove yourself right or wrong. But there are more lessons contained in this situation than right or wrong. There is a question of character in the areas of charity, humility and obedience. I am more concerned with your inner workings than your knowledge. Remember, Dear One...charity edifies, knowledge puffs up?"

But how do I approach this subject with the Heartdwellers?

"With great transparency and abject humility."

(sheepishly) O.K.

Well what is this conversation about - you're probably asking yourselves? My husband recently brought up to me that he did not feel right about assigning evil to another soul and further that this soul was not guilty of what they were being accused of, and that is voodoo and witchcraft. And that's when I was sharing to you what had been done to us and asking you for prayer for that soul.

In the monastic tradition, when a brother sins, the other brothers try to cover for him until he recovers himself, because falling into sin is most devastating, and the soul can faint away through undo remorse. I guess we all know about that... The guilt that Satatan never leaves us alone with. Of course, sin is wrong, but when someone falls it's not necessarily because he wants to, more often it is weakness in the face of temptation.

So the brothers were very solicitous to cover for one another until their strength was regained. Just like the Abbot told his brothers. "You are asking me to testify against and discipline this brother ...while my unknown sins are falling onto the ground like the sand in this bag I am carrying on my back?"

That brings me to the feet of the prostitute caught in adultery. Jesus told her, "Go and sin no more." And each of her accusers dropped their stones and walked away.

So the thing I am struggling with is having relayed to you what a soul was doing against certain members of our prayer team.

But since my husband, who is my covering, addressed the situation, I had to ask myself - was this true discernment among our prayer team or did we fall into an error? Or is that even relevant? And no matter if it is true, should I have even brought that up to you?

Well, I certainly agree with that now...with the exception that a tremendous amount of travail and prayer went for on that soul because we feared their eternity.

But I am aware of one of the techniques of the enemy is to use the face and appearance of a soul as a projection screen to hide their own identity behind them. This accomplishes two things: it keeps them hidden and causes those who are praying and see in the spirit to falsely accuse that projected person as the guilty party. That is an automatic home run for the devils, because now that prayer warrior has fallen into judgment and false accusation, and now there is a ramp right into that prayer warrior's heart where the demons can flock in and cause havoc. Really, guys - it gives permission for sifting. I've seen that over and over again. And one of the ways the Lord really gets my attention, if He allows those attacks against my eyes. Boy, that is always about judgment.

Why does the Lord allow such errors in discernment? Humility and Charity.

So, my dear Heartdwellers, the Lord is allowing a suffering here because He has not as yet revealed to me if I made an error. Oh, that is SO very painful. But He was pleased with my decision. So.... you figure.

Sometimes there are spiritual laws that are more important than who is right and who is wrong. And that seems to be His point here. It is a test, and my dear ones, I have failed so many times... I don't want to fail this one, too. So I am going to keep my peace and suffer the pains of not knowing if I was right or wrong. And in no way am I justifying an error in discernment. If a discernment team or prayer team comes up with a false accusation.

But to Holy Spirit's credit, the situation, once if was discerned, was handled with great charity and great prayer. In the long run - that's a blessing. But if they happen to tune into the video and they were NOT guilty - then that's an injury done to a soul, and that's very serious. So, there you have it. The good, the bad and the ugly. I always have to remember: Charity edifies, knowledge puffs up. And I try to make myself right or defend my position, that's Pride. I truly am lowering myself. That's not where the Lord wants me to go. I'm still a little child and He is my defense.
