

How the Lord Delivered Me from a Religious Spirit and Bigotry

August 2, 2018

There Are No Bigots In Heaven

The Lord bless you, my wonderful Youtube family. Oh, this is a special night. There's some special testimony coming up that I'm going to share with you, because the Lord asked me to.

The Lord has asked me to share the path to Him that He's led us on. In other words, what experiences are behind the things that we're teaching, and how He writes straight with crooked lines! Oh boy! Does He EVER write straight with crooked lines!

The night began with several hours of worship. And tonight the Lord was not sad, although He was earlier in the evening. I spent several hours with Him and He was very, very sad. Then I took a break, a nap, and came back and He was dressed in His wedding attire and I had orchids in my hair. Oh, that was so sweet. I love orchids, they're so beautiful. And He was holding me and He was wearing white formal wedding attire and I was wearing my white dress. I kept being nudged by this thought: that I needed to share some of my past experiences with you in different churches. And I thought, 'No, no, no - this is a distraction.'

I stopped and prayed and Ezekiel prayed and we came to the conclusion that it truly was the Lord. I think it'll iron out some questions that some may have, especially since we posted the Divine Mercy Chaplet. But it may iron out some questions about where we're coming from. I want you to understand what our paths have been and what our mission is. So, I'm going to go ahead and begin:

My earliest memories involving religion go back to my high school years. (I don't have a really good memory of before High School.) I attended South Shore High School in Chicago, in the early 60's and was one of the few gentiles in a school dominated by Jewish students and teachers. I also happened to be one of the very few latchkey kids, because my mother worked full time as a make-up artist, having been divorced. I didn't have a father. I had no sisters, brothers or any relatives of any kind for that matter.

I'd come home from school and let myself in, and kind of fend for myself, sometimes until late at night when she had to work or went out with friends.

Well, it seemed everyone in the school was well off. Have you ever felt that way? And we were just below the middle class. But since mother was in the beauty business she always managed to dress me very well. A lot of the kids in the school had fairly well-to-do doctors, lawyers and professionals for parents, so they got to do a lot of things that I couldn't do, I wasn't able to do. It was definitely a class distinction there aside from being a gentile in a Jewish school.

My mother worked predominantly with upper middle class Jewish women and mafia wives.

That's an important point: she intensely disliked the Jewish women and looked down on Catholic mafia families and was totally disgusted with Pentecostals. Mom had strong opinions.

In other words, she had strong opinions and was basically a bigot.

Now, this word "bigot" came up very early tonight in my prayers - I kept hearing that word. So, I looked it up. I'm not going to give you the full definition now, but I'll give you part of it, 'cause I wondered: bigot. I always think of the South, the Ku Klux Klan and things like that. But, no. Bigot is a person who's intolerant towards those holding different opinions. A person who strongly and unfairly dislikes other people's ideas. That's the short version of what is Bigot.

So, Mom was a bigot.

Around thirteen or so, I started to have a very, very strong draw to knowing who God was. My mother went to a Congregationalist church at Christmas and Easter. She believed in God, but didn't know what happened to you when you died. I longed to have real answers to these real questions and ended up totally frustrated after talking to the Congregationalist pastor. I came out of the office thinking, "He doesn't know who God is, either. Maybe there is no God." And so, I became an agnostic.

I became best friends with a Russian Jewish girl whose family had been in the concentration camps. And she had a strong intellectual bent, so we talked about Ayn Rand, searching for answers to life. But it bothered me terribly that my mother thought when I died I just ceased to be. Something wasn't right with that. I mean, I felt it deep in my spirit, it shook me. Like, "Uh, uh - that's not RIGHT. That can't be. How can that be?"

Well, anyway. My friend Nina and I never talked about the faith. And looking back now, I wish we had. Even though she was Jewish, the Jewish people knew God, at least, and that would have helped me along the way. I don't think the neighborhood I lived in had any Pentecostal or non-denominational churches. In fact, I don't think those even existed back then.

After I dropped out of high school, totally frustrated with the environment, (I REALLY disliked it...) I decided to become a nature photographer and dove right into the hippy era - really glad for the freedom from all the social restraints my mother was bound by. But, I never became a hippy, just a countercultural agnostic. Since my searching for answers to spiritual questions was not satisfied, I ended up finally calling myself an atheist. Still, I was very much bothered by the existence of the supernatural. I had a very strong sensitivity to the supernatural.

I looked at my life, and the lives of others and said to myself, "There must be more to this than meets the eye. There MUST!" And so my journey into the New Age began.

I held strongly to my mother's bigoted opinions about organized religion and was intrigued with Buddhism and New Age teachings. When I moved to San Francisco in the 60's to begin my career as a photographer, I found the ideal atmosphere to explore the supernatural. I had a healthy fear of Satanism but delved into the iChing, Transcendental Meditation, Astrology, Palmistry, Native American Medicine Ways, Scientology and other New Age studies, including Numerology. And I was very serious in studying these things when I wasn't on a shoot, you know, taking photographs and editing and seeing clients. I spent a lot of time doing that. And finally my fascination with the spiritual overshadowed my photography career. And I went down that path.

As I explored these spiritual realms, I became more and more disenchanted following their rabbit trails and never ending circles, where I learned all kinds of things but still never knew really, "Who are You, God?" The last place I expected to find Him was in Christianity. My opinion of Christianity was, they were just a bunch of ostriches with their heads stuck in the sand, because they didn't see what impact the stars had, and the rising sign, your ruling planet, and blah, blah, blah, blah, blah. I didn't see any of that, so I thought, 'Well. Their heads were stuck in the sand.'

Well, God finally revealed Himself to me one night while I was meditating on the Mayan Tarot underneath a copper pyramid. As I was trying to connect with the meaning of one of the cards, my eyes were closed and I, of course, saw nothing but blackness... until a crack in the blackness happened. It got bigger and bigger and bigger and suddenly a dove on fire like lightning descended from Heaven and came to rest in my body, setting off a physical bliss like nothing I'd ever experienced, for a good 45 minutes. The heat was tremendous.

I knew nothing of the Holy Spirit but when my former husband, who was sitting with me said, "Your body is on fire! What's going on?" I answered him, "I'm having a visitation from the Holy Spirit." On the outside I looked like I was burning up, on the inside, I was being convicted of all my sins... and I had a lot of sins. But, at the same time I was being inundated in a love like I have never felt in my life. I knew I was a sinner for the first time. You know, in the New Age, being a sinner doesn't exist. I knew I was loved and forgiven. I knew, all of a sudden, Who God was and His nature. And He was nothing like the darkness I had been dabbling in.

You see, I was so proud, and such a bigot that I couldn't recognize God in Christianity. My opinions were so overpowering and based on falsehood. So the Lord did to me what He is doing to many Muslims today - He overpowered me.

Through this experience, I just knew I must conform my life to the Bible's standards. You know, I'd been studying all these other masters and teachers for years. They had a lot of beautiful things to say, but in that moment I was so illuminated as to the source of all Truth that all those things faded into the background and I realized that the Bible was the ONLY thing I needed to study. The illumination at that moment was tremendous. Just the difference between midnight and high noon, spiritually and mentally speaking. That was the beginning of my Christian journey.

I got rid of all my paraphernalia, I bought a Bible and began studying it. The Lord began to speak to me through the Scriptures. The three He gave me at my conversion were: Moses and the burning bush and how He spoke to Moses out of the burning bush. And that really, really described my salvation experience. The second one was Esther the Intercessor, and how she interceded for her people. And there were others things about Moses that came up, bringing them into the Promised Land And the call of Jeremiah was very strong. And I'll never forget those three Scriptures the Lord gave me. They're really the basis of my walk, even to this day.

At one point, I was delivered of 70 different demons from my illicit lifestyle before. I found a non-denominational church, I was baptized in water (one of those big tubs - immersion) and received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in tongues shortly after that. And I joined a women's intercessory prayer group, where prayer and tongues was extremely important. We saw a LOT of miracles. And that's when I began having visions of the Lord, too, of seeing Him. Was when I was speaking in tongues and worshipping Him in tongues. I began to see Him and He'd speak to me.

Well, I thought I had arrived home. Because I'd been on this long journey through the esoteric and occult, Eastern religions. And I thought, "This is it. I'm home now."

But what I was learning about Jesus was at times very different than this so-called, 'Christian' lifestyle. It troubled me that Jesus was meek and gentle and preachers were loud and powerful. It troubled me that I was vain and proud and I didn't see that being addressed in the church. In the end, I think we were there for three years. I'm not a person to hop around, I like to settle with something and in the end, we left that church because of a serious scandal and more importantly than the scandal, a lack of opportunity and support to grow in ministry. They just were not training people up and sending them out. In fact, a prophecy had been spoken about that church, that it "gave birth to souls but kept them babies." And I can testify that's what happened there.

So, we went on a search. We visited many other churches for seven years - we continued to look for our home in the Christian community. Nothing felt right. Same sins, every church we went to: materialism, vanity, pride and no resemblance to Jesus in the ministries. Very little. Every once in a while, there'd be one person. But as far as the church went, it was very hard to find a structured church that resembled the ministry of the first apostles and the Lord.

My husband at this same time kinda followed along with anything I did, but I was passionate and not finding the faith that mirrored Jesus, I was deeply troubled and frustrated. Eventually, he left me and our four children, because I was committed to a very different lifestyle in the end in all my searching. He really wanted the world and to be involved in things in the world and I couldn't do it. I just couldn't.

Right around that time, John Michael Talbot had become a popular Christian musician. He's a Catholic - a Franciscan Catholic and when I heard his music, deep called unto deep. So, I began to research the Catholic Church and the Franciscan order.

What I found... shocked me. The very first thing I discovered was that I was a religious bigot. Just like my mother, I had strong opinions based on hearsay and things that other people or bad examples of people who were living in the Catholic faith.

I discovered that almost everything I had heard about the great 'harlot' and how they practiced their religion was a lie, and totally unfounded in reality. I mean it blew me away when I went to the first service and it was all Scripture! It was very beautiful Scripture, and I walked out feeling like, 'I don't get it!' I discovered that the people most ignorant of their own faith were former Catholics. And I thought, 'What's up with that???'

It really perplexed me, until I realized the Illuminati, Masons and other Communists had infiltrated the church since the 1950's to destroy the faith that began with the apostles in Jerusalem. The people just were not being taught the real faith - they were being taught some kind of formalism without the intimacy with the Lord - at least, not in the general church. But we did discover that as we dug deeper. There was a Catholic Charismatic group and movement in the church that, believe it or not, there's millions world-wide of these people. That was very much on fire in the Church! We didn't discover that right away.

Looking back, I am personally convinced that the whole mess with Rome and Constantine in A.D. 300 was the Devils plan...He was thinking, "Can't kill them by opposing them, or martyring them - they just keep multiplying. Let's infiltrate, fill them with rules, regulations and courtly manners, money and influence and turn it into a political machine and destroy it from the inside out."

Well, that worked and now the institution is indeed the Harlot. But what about the roots? What about Jerusalem, the Apostles, the hermits and desert Fathers?

And that's what I discovered - that there was still a very pure strain of Christianity in the church... in monasteries. I won't go into doctrinal variances, but I will testify that Holy Spirit is at work, hidden away in very simple little Christian communities. Not necessarily gigantic monasteries, but in little enclaves and communities that live the same kind of lives the early apostles lived in the book of Acts.

Right around that time, (5 years after my husband had left me) the Lord brought Ezekiel into my life and through serious prayer and fasting, the Lord told us that we would be a sign of the unity of the Body of Christ. That we would go to the Catholic, Russian Orthodox, Greek Orthodox, Syrian Antiochian, Pentecostals, Charismatics, Church of God in Christ and so called 'non-denominational' churches. And we would find Holy Spirit at work in them all, and bring unity by stressing the Love of Jesus and the faith of the Apostles at work in them all!

In the liturgical churches, especially Russian Orthodox, angels would be seen and heard during the worship! Here, we had come to believe that the ONLY way to worship was the non-denominational way, and singing in tongues. But we were lifted right out of ourselves in ecstatic joy, and even the Lord and ministering angels in these different churches with worship that was so foreign to us and that Evangelicals had condemned as evil.

Wow, what a revelation!! I also learned that the form of that worship and what they called the Mass, or the Liturgy, originated in 50 A.D. and was written by James, the brother of the Lord. Wow! I mean, you can't get much more original than that! But it's the same form that it was in in 50 AD. So, these were all revelations and I thought, 'My goodness! Where have we been? We really had our heads stuck in the sand!'

And so for thirty years, the Lord Jesus led us to the leaders of many, many different monasteries and churches and we lingered there at each one long enough to get a deep and authentic sense of what the Lord was doing in their worship, their prayers, and teachings, springing very purely from apostolic roots. And the desert Fathers. I mean, that's really pure stuff!

We were totally amazed!

Before I mention that, I have to say that in every place there's sin, wherever there are people there's sin. There's sin in church, there's sin in monasteries. There's sin in Sunday School classes. There's sin EVERYWHERE. It just takes different forms. So, you can't point the finger at one particular place and say, "Well, they did this and they did that!" And stand there before the Lord knowing that the same things are being done at your church. There's sin EVERYWHERE. And we don't focus on the sin, we focus on what the Holy Spirit is doing.

So, we were totally amazed. Jesus would show up in many, many different places, and we observed so many totally dedicated to the Lord, with a sweet spirit and profound humility, a simple life. They'd had left behind mother, father, sister brother, all their worldly possessions. They didn't care about their hair, their makeup or their clothes. They let these things behind to be free to live only for Christ. To be free and have their attention on Him 24/7 and not to be shackled by society and how we're supposed to look. Getting dressed up for church on Sunday or whatever. And trying to impress people. Oh, that's such a bondage.

The Divine Mercy Chaplet was one of the sweet discoveries we made and we experienced the power of intercession with a formal prayer. We had NEVER prayed "formal" prayer before, it was always praying in tongues, praying in the spirit. And here we were, with a formal prayer - a chant, really. And the power of the intercession. Wow. The feeling that we had when we would finish with this was such profound peace. Like something really important had been accomplished.

And it's interesting, because it involves all the sense when you pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet. They normally do it on beads. And the physical sense is involved, the vocal - the voice is involved. The ears are involved and the mediation is involved, because we're meditating on the Passion of Christ. So, it's a thoroughly engaging prayer. For some people, it's not a very comfortable prayer because they get bored, but for others is very rich. As I said before, we'd only been praying in tongues or in loosely formed home groups, you know, where we'd each share prayers and so on.

In the Catholic Charismatic groups, you know, we'd be singing and praying in tongues. But the peace and joy that we felt in that prayer that was chanted - the Divine Mercy - was something totally foreign to us and just caught us off guard. It's like, Wow! Where did this come from? You can really feel the Holy Spirit in this. And it just seemed so different.

In the Catholic Charismatic groups we were able to minister in song, prayer, healing and in yet another dimension we had never experienced - and that was the profound closeness to Jesus as we meditated on His passion. We began to spend hours in worship and prayer, meditating on His life and the meaning of the things He did. On His mildness, meekness, profound tenderness with the most wretched of sinners and His complete disgust with the religious professionals - the Pharisees, Sadducees, religious bigots and hypocrites. The closer we got to the Lord, the more black and white it all became. We could really see why He was persecuted the way He was. And that we, too, were going to have this kind of persecution.

We began to recognize these characters in every single church we visited. Religious spirits who quenched the Spirit of God. Bigots who had strong opinions based on error and lack of personal experience and research. We found that we, too, were bigots, who had all kinds of obnoxious ideas that pushed people away from Jesus instead of drawing them tenderly to His bosom.

That is when we resolved that we would no longer allow those traits in our ministry. The Lord had taken us on an odyssey into different cultures and revealed to us that they sincerely worshipped God in Spirit and in Truth. We wanted to live on Earth as they do in Heaven - without bigotry and divisions, just loving and worshipping Jesus from the heart, as His Bride - in Spirit and in Truth.

So, this is all to say, if you sense different forms of Christianity in our teachings, you'll understand why. We went wherever we were led by Holy Spirit, and whatever He had sown in those churches that was consistent with Scripture, we embraced and made our own. Because we believe with all our hearts, this is the true atmosphere of Heaven.

We are not church dwellers, we are Heart Dwellers, dwelling in the heart of Jesus... a Heart that embraces all expressions of love and worship from His Creatures, whether they be Russian, Greek, black, white Anglo-Saxon protestants, holy rollers, or Catholic... whatever. If they love Him in Spirit and in Truth, He rejoices in their worship and receives it unto Himself with tremendous joy.

In conclusion, I would ask our family, please, Youtube family. Don't bring criticism of other Christian faiths into our channel. That really is more appropriate for apologetic and theological channels than it is for Heart Dwellers, for people who are so taken up with the love of the Lord that they don't notice the difference and ideas and opinions.

I felt the Lord tonight convicting me of religious bigotry in my past...and even the temptation to judge what I do not understand in the present. So, as I had told you, I have a longer definition for Bigotry:

1. A person who is intolerant toward those holding different opinions.
2. A person who strongly and unfairly dislikes other people's ideas,
3. A person who is utterly intolerant of any differing creed, belief, or opinion
4. 16th century ... a superstitious religious hypocrite. someone who relied on superstition and ideas and religion and they were hypocrites.
5. "sanctimonious person, religious hypocrite,"

I have seen this behavior in myself, my mother, and in every church I have ever set foot in. It just takes on different forms that seem less apparent. Bigotry and a religious spirit is a very, very subtle thing. It looks all squeaky clean and righteous on the outside, but in fact it separates, it divides and promotes pride and self-righteousness and quenches the Holy Spirit of God.

One can hardly live this kind of life and still expect to be taken in the Rapture. The Rapture is for those who are ready for Heaven. People who are still critical of others because they worship differently than they do, they are not ready for Heaven. Heaven is filled with those who worship in Spirit and in Truth, and in the ways Holy Spirit has led them.

What did Moses say..."Let them prophecy...I wish all of Israel would prophecy". What did Jesus say, "Leave them, they cannot do miracles in My Name and be against Me."

So, I really felt the Lord's agenda for tonight, sharing it with you. And I want to end it with a short prayer.

Lord, forgive us for judging others based on our own opinions and not Your opinion. You alone, Lord, are qualified to judge. You alone are Holy, Righteous and know all truth. By Your blood, cleanse us of religious spirits and deliver us from the evils of pride and self-righteousness. Amen

After I finished writing this, I heard the Lord's voice and He said, "I will work wonders in My Bride to bring her into agreement, that she may worship freely with all the hosts of Heaven in the days to come."

Wow. That sounds to me like the Rapture.

The Lord bless you, Youtube family. Thank you so much for your prayers and support. We really, really love you.

O Lord Our God, Album: Trust Me Child

August 3, 2018

You are faithful and good in all things
in providing for those... who have loved Your Name
You give strength to the weary of heart and the power that comes from your Mighty Hand
In the perils of the desert you have set your people free and brought them home
As the shepherd draws the flock
now bring us nearer to your kingdom
help us find our way back home.... Oh Lord Our God
As a hen who would gather her young you have called us to hide here beneath your wings
And on bread not alone shall we live but upon every word that comes from you
In the perils of the desert you have set your people free and brought them home
As the shepherd draws the flock
now bring us nearer to your kingdom
help us find our way back home, Oh Lord Our God
Lord Our God...
You are faithful and good in all things
in providing for those who have lost Your Name

The Lord Teaches on His Church

August 4, 2018

Lord Jesus, help us to take firm hold of Your hand and follow You, even through the brambles and briars of men's objections. We are too little. We need You to grasp us with Your loving hand to lead us. Amen.

My time of worship for the past few days has been so very sweet and peaceful and charming, as the Lord of my life danced with Me every morning, holding me tightly and securely in assurance of His love. To be honest with you, I couldn't see beyond His shoulders for the most part. Once in a while I would get glimpses of us on a dance floor. But I couldn't see beyond His shoulders and His beard and His eyes, because I was so riveted on being so tightly, tightly clasped in His arms. Just for the sense of security that that offers. I just clung to Him with all my might.

'I've been so hungry for You, Jesus. I've needed Your strength, Your wisdom, Your encouragement and the graces to pray faithfully for the Deep State and the corrupt world leaders. It has been such a struggle, not knowing when we will finally see justice.'

I pulled a Rhema card, "Put Your Trust in Me."

So, Jesus, I trust in You, and You said you wanted to speak to us every day. So, here I am. They have so many objections to my last message. Please lead me through this.

Jesus began, "Has anyone ever wondered what My Church would look like if Rome hadn't got involved?"

Isn't that the case with the Orthodox, Lord? Rome didn't get involved there.

"Clare, in every instance, politics co-opted the Church. When men see a good, authentic thing, it is their nature to grasp for control to make it bigger and better. In short, to make an institution out of it. I never intended that. I always intended that small groups would minister with those who lived nearby.

"Yes, there was need for organization and keeping the teachings true, but men always bring their baggage and self-importance into the equation, because there is an innate desire to control and protect. This is why it is necessary for Me to come to Earth again and dwell with My People; they will never get it right without Me.

"Yes, there must be overseers (Bishops) but not living in opulence, which breeds greed, rivalries, distraction and unbelief. Rather, they are to be men and women of humble stature, buildings of a common nature, not palaces and pretense. Never palaces and pretense.

"What happened to My Church? It was tragic but bound to happen. The one good thing it did do was to bring consistency. But without My influence it also brought money, position and fame, and that entered in and took control. It will take a great deal of studied care to resurrect what I have given, plus the action of the Holy Spirit through the ages, to restore the structure with total fidelity to My wishes.

"Evangelical poverty and simplicity are the absolute building blocks for the ministers of My Church and her restoration. Subtract the royalty and the wealthy forms, the ceremonies and rubrics of state from the Church--and you are back in Jerusalem during the first century. Simplicity exemplified.

"This is Me... by the way."

He always knows when I'm doubting, 'Is this really the voice of the Lord? I've gotta double-check this...'

"When you build extravagant buildings," He continued, "with luxurious trimmings, you invite in those whose lives are focused on such things, as well as stealing the widow's mite. When you keep everything little and humble, you invite in those who are more focused on Me and My sheep. Why do you think I am so strict with you? Why do you think your house is so little? Your clothing so few and poor? This is the example I want for all My shepherds. I want nothing of the world represented in My Church.

"When the Faith went to Rome, the political ways of state began to overpower the simplicity of My apostles. Women were rejected in ministry and homosexuality was rife."

It was?

"That's right, you heard Me, rife. It was tied into political power, as those wishing to remain in positions of power in the courts of the rulers gave a superficial show of conversion, but continued in their dark practices. They didn't want to lose their positions, so they feigned becoming Christians."

And what about Jerusalem, Lord? What happened there?

"The Church had flourished going from home to home, breaking bread, singing psalms, caring for the poor, continuing in teachings as the books of the New Testament were being written. When persecution arose, only the deeply devout and faithful remained. The sacred mysteries were kept from defilement and every day the apostles grew in the depth of understanding of what I had left behind for them to be strengthened.

"My Mother was a great consolation to them as she continued to share what I had imparted to her as I grew into manhood. And the stories and I grew up."

Well, what do you mean, Lord?

"She knew I was the Messiah, and not anything like what the religious people of the day were expecting. She knew I would be persecuted and put to death, Clare. Not only Simeon's words to her, but the knowledge of the sacred writings imparted to her in her youth at the Temple, was a bedrock foundation upon which she understood all these things to come, and that they would truly come to pass just as they were written.

"She was exceptional from a very early age and My Words went deep into her little soul, indelibly imprinted. These are great mysteries that very few understand.

"She was not just a woman like all others. She had been chosen from birth to bring Me into the world, and one of the preparations that accompanied her into this world was the privilege of unstained blood. In other words, by Divine Grace, she was granted the sacrament of baptism when she was conceived. It had to be so, or I could not have grown in her womb with the stain of sin in her body. Remember, she had Rahab the harlot in her ancestry.

"It is beyond the realm of everyday understanding to know what kind of woman was necessary in order for Me to inhabit her body and draw nourishment from it. The preparations were elaborate and life-long. It was not enough that she was granted these special privileges; she had to be faithful to them her entire life. An acute awareness of sin guided her actions as she spent her entire childhood focused on the glory and purity of God. This, too, was a miraculous grace. She had none of the impulses to sin that come with the Adam nature.

"Blood is very, very powerful, Clare. Your science has not even begun to understand its significance. The stain from sins down through the centuries had to be removed by an act of Grace for her to carry Me in the womb. And along with that came a painless childbirth, an event so sublime that even the angels were awestruck.

"Oh, so many things you, My people, do not know. So many things you assume and presume! But someday all will be revealed and made right in your minds.

"So, you see, her beginnings were much different than even the best Hollywood portrayals. Volumes and volumes could be written about her childhood and the maternity, in preparation for My incarnation. And My early years, as I was growing up.

"But returning to the way My Church was before it was handed over to the Romans. Everything was guided by My Hand and the Holy Spirit, as the apostles administered the Church. Things were done simply without pompous ceremonies. And in that respect, Hollywood got it right in portraying the Last Supper. We did sit on the floor on mats. The room was spacious, but without any hint of luxury.

"Clare, this is what I want My Church to return to. Not sitting on the floor, but utter simplicity. And if sitting on the floor is the custom in a certain region, then that is perfectly acceptable to Me. What I do not want is any hint of privilege or ostentatiousness."

Well, Lord, how can we prepare for the harvest of souls that will come from the church?

"Firstly, I would like to make it clear to all that this church is My Church from its inception. I did not introduce politics, power and money to My Church--that was man's invention and Satan's premeditated plan. He knew that power and prestige would sweep through the Church and transform it into a worldly institution, making room for every kind of evil.

"I chose the Apostles who would be the foundation. I introduced the helps or sacraments that would give strength to mankind to overcome sin. And it was My Holy Spirit that descended into the upper room on Pentecost. That was the empowerment from on high that launched 'The Way' or My Church, which went by many names. It was My Church that went to Rome and became entangled in the ways of men, which I am undoing now--never, ever, to be brought to life again.

"My Church is not in the halls of the great; it is in the hearts of the little who have received Me and live for Me. These are My living stones and they shall once again be the structure of My Church. And as I promised, the gates of Hell have not prevailed against these.

"My precious Heartdwellers, you must grasp and hold dear all the things that are of God, and reject all the things that are of men. Very few of you, including Clare, understand how great and far reaching is the action of My Spirit in those who have lived before, and how they have contributed to the spiritual edifice and working out of the Faith I taught.

"Most of you are in the dark, because you have been kept in the dark. Religiosity and Religious spirits have formed most misinformed minds. Departures from the Truth by many men seeking to start their own church have introduced error and misinformation into the churches they began. This has made most of, if not all of, the Christian faiths seriously lacking in the foundation I laid down in Jerusalem.

"And many of you are little misfits that have bounced around, sick of hypocrisy and rejection, confused, tormented and under-equipped to live in this age of Satan, these end-times. I would like to restore this to you, but I see that many come to this Channel to teach and correct. You are correcting others with error and you yourself have not the entire Truth.

"Neither does Clare. But I would like to use this Channel to straighten out some crippling misunderstandings about how I established My Church and what I imparted to the Apostles--and what Holy Spirit has continued in the living stones of My Church.

"But you will not learn anything if you are set on correcting and directing people on this Channel. In fact, you will leave embittered that you were not received as the anointed teacher. I would love to open your heart and mind to My truths, but they are slammed shut with the opinions of men. You will not find peace and understanding here unless you know My voice. Not the voice of your parents, your pastors or great theologians--but My voice. You are welcome to stay and learn, but you are not welcome to come and teach.

"There are those on this Channel that have hearts of pure gold, and they know My voice from the voice of men. You will be greatly enriched in the coming weeks, and together we will rise above personal obstacles to holiness that have stood in your way all your lives.

"Many of you who have longed for intimacy with Me will be given the tools to go far beyond what you hoped for. I am preparing a peculiar people for Myself. A people that lives in My Heart, knows My voice, and loves My sheep. A people who have meticulously routed out a Religious spirit out of their hearts and minds, and do not stand in the self-righteousness of the Pharisees who judge as man judges.

"And with this people I will restore My Church of Jerusalem 33 A.D. along with all My Spirit has done in the past 2,000 years.

"You will be laughed at, scorned, accused of heresy, and put out of the mainstream churches which so strictly adhere to the teachings and traditions of men. But you will resemble the ones who truly believed in Me, in spite of being ostracized by the religious officials of My day. You will be like the little ones who accompanied Me on My ministry trips. You will be like the men and women who went out into the desert to live a pure and undefiled life. And you will be happy, supremely happy, with the knowledge of your salvation living for Me and Me alone, as you tend to the wounded, the alienated and the lost of this world.

"My sheep hear My voice. Stay with Me. I have much to teach you."

Metaphor for America, Pharaoh's City

August 5, 2018

This is one track from the Exodus album on our music Channel: Peace of Heart Dwelling Songs. The Lord made me very aware that this music was about America and the World, in bondage to materialism and secular humanism, which is merely another, more acceptable name for the tenets of the Church of Satan. When the Lord is ready, I will finish the album.

My People, My Chosen Ones, I gather your tears from shadows darkened.

My Children, Forsaken Ones, your groaning and chains of bitter bondage.

Your cries pierce My heart, your prayers rend My heart. I weep over you.

Your cries pierce My heart, your prayers rend My heart. I weep over you.

Many your sufferings, torments and heartaches.

I gather your tears and sorrowful cries,

Laments of despair.

Your cries pierce My heart

Q - "If You See Something, Say Something" Prayer Alert!

August 5, 2018

Heartdwellers, this is a Prayer Alert. I just found out from Carol Jennings that the presidential office has said, "If you see something" (I'm assuming something out of the ordinary or unusual) Say something."

So, please keep your eyes open and pray against any kind of attack that might come against America. Pray the Divine Mercy chaplet - that's really powerful. Keep your eyes open.

I love you and I'm working on the next message. God bless you.

What Did the First Apostles Believe?

August 7, 2018

Thank you, Jesus, for opening to us the lives of the Early Church. May our hearts bear witness to Your words. Amen.

Well, dearest Heartdwellers, right on time--I was tempted with flowers yesterday. Looking around the room, (it was so devoid of color) I thought to myself, 'Gee, it would be nice if...' And then it happened. I bent over to do something and right in front of my face was a lovely purple flower. It was blooming on a plant I had planted many seeds to, but did not come up, much to my sadness. Only a few came up, like about 8.

And I thought, 'I really should do something about this.' And for two days in a row it haunted me. I think haunted is the exactly the right word, because I knew the demons were at it again, testing me and laughing their heads off. And here I was, trying to be brave and renouncing it.

In all reality, I should have been lopping their heads off, but like a fish waiting for just the right bait, I jumped at it and got caught. I wrote to the people who had sent the other seeds, telling them what happened and I ordered more, asking for a refund.

Well, part of me was satisfied, 'Oh, boy! It's gonna be purple in here soon!' The other part knew there would be consequences. So, I came into prayer with not a little trepidation, feeling hopeless about myself...

And you know, this happened at a low point. Something had been set off. I had sent the morning traveling in prayer, and when I do that, it kinda leaves you at a low point, when you've been crying a lot. And there are tears of compunction, and there are tears of self-pity. And I sure don't want to be caught in the self-pity! But I can't say, in all honesty, that I'm free of that. I am not free of that... But at least I'm getting to know the difference.

Well, I came into prayer. And I said, "Jesus, I am here. Please forgive me for giving in to my struggle with the purple flowers..."

Jesus answered me, and He said, "You have a long way to go to be freed from this. But first of all, I forgive you. Second of all, don't continue to beat yourself. Know that you are NOT perfect, by any means. And please, walk humbly, Clare. I really want to see that Pride of yours brought down to nothing.

"I allow you to be overcome for this reason. So, when someone says, 'It's blue!' And you think you know it is red? Well. Just be cordial and let it go. You don't have to fight it or justify yourself. Let it go, My Love. It is so easy to just let it go.

"Nothing of what man thinks of you matters, anyway. You don't have to be right--it's blown away by the wind like chaff from the threshing floor. But if you take exception and want to correct others? Well, then you become entangled in self-righteousness--which is a noxious odor to the angels and the saints."

I am sorry, Lord. Help me, please, I am really weak.

"Help is on the way." Jesus said. "I love you, Clare. Your goodness far overshadows those things you fail in. But nonetheless, be vigilant and resist the enemy. When you give in once, it weakens you. Then the next time you have less fortitude to resist--and then it becomes a cycle and soon a habit.

"It begins with the little things. Fight it at the onset, make a personal conviction to do that and you will grow stronger and brighter as time goes on. Because when you give in to the less perfect option, a darkness settles over you, because you know there was a better way and you didn't choose it... for love of Me. These are places, My Bride, where you can see you have opportunities to grow and show that your love for Me is greater than your love for yourself."

Yes, Lord, I get it. But I do have a complaint to file.

He smiled. "I heard your complaint...but for the sake of others you may share it."

Lord, why did you make that flower so delicate, so tender, such a perfect shade of lavender, so irresistible--and right in front of my nose so I wouldn't miss it?

Jesus answered, "Do you really want Me to answer that question--or are you just complaining to justify yourself?"

Lord, in Your eyes, no man is justified.

"That is true, in My eyes, none is justified. But My little Bride will never give up trying! Will you?"

Lord, we are all hungry to hear more about the Early Church. Please share with us. (I did that! I just...at that point I had to say, 'We've got to change the subject!')

Jesus continued, "Oh, there is SO much to share! And all of it is in the Scriptures, if you read VERY carefully. For instance, the mention I made yesterday of how My mother was conceived--when I told you about her dispensation from the stain of sin from Adam and the sin nature."

And then He quoted Scripture: To the woman he said, "I will make your pains in childbearing very severe; with painful labor you will give birth to children." Genesis 3:16

Jesus continued, "So you see? She was exempt from the curse of severe childbirth pain."

And again, in Isaiah, "Have you ever heard of a woman who gave birth to a child before having labor pains?" Isaiah 66:7 Contemporary English Version.

And another version says: "Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man-child." Darby Bible Translation

Before she was in labor, she gave birth; before she was in pain, she delivered a boy. Who has heard of such as this? Who has seen such things? Can a country be born in a day or a nation be delivered in an instant? Yet as soon as Zion was in labor, she gave birth to her children....Berean Study Bible Isaiah 66:7-8

Jesus continued, "Do you understand? The Christian Nation was born from her womb. Yes, there are other scholarly interpretations, just as in other facets of Scripture, there is more than one meaning from a passage.

"But also consider that I confirmed that honor of her being the Mother of Christians when I entrusted her to John as his own mother and entrusted John to her as her very own son. John was symbolic of the twelve apostles, thus the twelve stars on her crown as she has appeared to you and others.

"And why is there not a 13th star for Me? Because I live inside her heart.

"I very much appreciate the Orthodox tradition of her, Theotokis, 'God Bearer'. And the fact that they never depict her without Me in her arms or womb. This is an ancient tradition, way before Rome. The apostles had a very familial relationship with her and frequented her dwelling for instruction and the details of My incarnation.

"To them, she was surely their mother, too. Have I not said, "...Here are My mother and My brothers. For whoever does the will of My Father in Heaven is My brother and sister and mother." Matthew 12:49-50

"Some take this statement to mean that My mother was in the flesh, asking to see Me, but the other women present were in the spirit. This is a slander against her purity of heart. She was accompanied by those who needed an attitude adjustment, because they were in the flesh.

"But she never once doubted My mission. Rather, she confirmed it by offering the dearest thing in her life to My Father when I was crucified. And her heart was pierced by a sword, even as Simeon prophecies, when My body was pierced by the lance.

"This ties together, My people, that our hearts were one in the mission I was sent to Earth for. Yes, indeed, her heart was pierced by a sword, and from that day forth, she had heart trouble. It was the mark of anguish she suffered seeing her Messiah rejected, not just her Son."

Jesus continued, "And again, I did confirm this at the foot of the Cross when I said to John, 'Behold, your Mother.' Had the other apostles been there, I would have included them, as well. But it is sufficient that I confirmed it through John, as he represented them by his presence. And just to be clear: yes, John and My mother had a special relationship. But that never negated her motherly relationship with the rest of My apostles.

"This is why I say, unless you read very carefully, you will not catch the subtleties that describe and confirm her role in the Church. You will not recognize her in other passages, such as Revelation and Isaiah, unless your mind is open to the influence of My Holy Spirit, which guides you into all truth.

"If your mind is boxed in by a Religious spirit that has predefined the meaning of Scripture and its limitations, you will not recognize these references as they tie together. Nothing I did in Scripture. NOTHING. Was done for no reason at all, or left to coincidence. Everything ties in to a deeper meaning."

"And so many things have not been discovered yet. In Revelation "She gave birth to a son, a male child, who 'will rule all the nations with an iron scepter.' And her child was snatched up to God and to his throne."

That's Revelation 12:5.

But Lord, it also says earlier on, "A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head. She was pregnant and cried out in pain as she was about to give birth." Rev. 12:1-2

Jesus continued, "Clare, if you look at Genesis again, did it not say that I will greatly increase, severely increase your pains at childbirth? That infers that there was some pain, but not anything like what you or other women go through to bring forth your children. This is why I told you: you must read very carefully and not skim over the little details, because they will be keys to understanding the mysteries that are revealed in Scripture.

"I should like to move onto another subject in the next study of the Early Church. Namely--exactly what did I mean when I said, 'This is My Body given up for you. And this is the My Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting Covenant.' But the hour is late. So more will have to come tomorrow.

"I love you, My precious people. Ask My Spirit to sweep through your minds, to sweep out the cobwebs, the chains and limitations handed on to you by other men and deliver you from your own denominational traditions and limitations on Scripture. And if you are willing, He surely will."

Wow! That's amazing, Lord. I know I was willing. He sure did a number on my head and turned me around. And Sherry and Carol, also, have had some pretty amazing insights and experiences.

And this is an important study. I'm really looking forward to what else He'll have to say tomorrow. Pray that I can get it done tomorrow, okay?

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers. Thank you for tuning in. Pray for us? I pray for you.

The Body and Blood of Jesus 1 of 2

August 9, 2018

Dear Lord, forgive us for the ways in which we have wounded Your majesty. Thank you for bringing our minds around to the Truth. Amen.

Wow... Well, the Lord is certainly passionate about this topic, and it's a long one. So, I'm dividing it into two parts. And this is part one.

I confess to you, my dear Heartdwellers, I have undertaken this task only at the hand of Our Lord and His mandate. I know well the vicious accusations against this Channel and the ages-old slander between non-Catholics and the Catholic church. In the Church, they are called 'separated brethren,' because they have the sacrament of baptism. So, that makes them, automatically, a part of the Universal Church. So, the Church, in her wisdom, sees them as a part of the whole.

And as I've spoken to you before about the institution. We are NOT talking about the Roman Catholic Church institution. We are talking about the First Century Christians. The first three or four centuries. And what the Church Fathers taught, the successors to Peter. What did they teach? That's what we're exploring here.

Well, I initially began this teaching with the Lord, approaching it very circumspectly. But I soon ran out of words and inspiration, feeling very dry.

Then I began to worry, with tears and apprehensions, "Lord, You must be the One to show the way here. I am no theologian, but have committed to obeying You. Therefore, have pity on this empty vessel and give us to eat of Your wisdom."

With many tears, I pleaded with Him. And I have to tell you, there was definitely fear in my heart about how this would be received. And how I might hurt some of you. But I knew that I had to do it. So, I waited on the Lord.

Yesterday was a rough day, and at the end of it I could not resist the tiramisù that was available to me. One piece, and my body returned from screaming anxiety to normal--but my conscience plummeted... "What a glutton you are!"

Yes, I agreed. Lord, please deliver me from gluttony... but can I keep my tiramisù?

Moving right along... '

A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.' That was a rhema I received this morning, through a book that I picked up on Deliverance. And I thought, 'Oh, great... This is talking about me!' And then, when I came down to sit and pray, thankfully, someone brought to mind St. Paul. That I was in good company, 'cause he said that, too. He did what he did NOT wish to do, yet he didn't do what he wanted to do. So, there's hope for all of us.

Amen?

Seriously. I came in to prayer, and immediately the Lord's tender and understanding face was before me. On the left was His mother and on the right was St. Joseph. It was interesting that he was there, because he is considered the protector of the true teachings of the Christian doctrine.

Well, I wasted no words as I embraced them and cried. They already knew better than I the task I was facing.

Then when Ezekiel woke up, he told me that he had a vision of Jesus parting the Red Sea--and I was at the helm of a flagship, sailing right behind Him as He walked into the waters, before the waters, and parted them. What a vision! That gave me courage.

So, here is how I began the teaching yesterday. And the second part will be how the Lord ended the teachings today.

Lord, please speak to me. I have nothing of myself, but my heart aches for our flock. Please feed us with the choicest wine and bread.

Jesus began, "Well said, My precious Bride. So well said. These words did not come from you, but from My Spirit living within you and constantly whispering in your ear."

"Yes, you were thinking moments ago about the slander done to My Church, and equating it with the slander done to President Trump. In reality, there is no comparison. From the very day I brought My apostles together into a formation to administer My Church--from that very day--Satan had launched a campaign against her."

And I want to take an aside here. Somebody mentioned, "What?? No bishops and no structure?? No larger church--just people gathering in home groups?" Oh, no, no, no--that's not exactly what I meant at all! And the Lord made that clear. The government of the Church would not be straightened out until He was on Earth, because men always tend to corruption.

So, yes-- of course, home groups with a head of the home group being someone that's anointed or a minister, an ordained minister. Or, let's say, an ordained minister in the small town with two or three home groups. So, always, always someone to answer to for correct doctrine. Then THAT minister having to answer to a state-wide or a larger circle of ministers. And that one answering to Christ, the Head of the Church, when the Lord returns.

So, there is definitely a hierarchy to the Church that the Lord has for the future. What He objected to was the privilege, the opulence and the un-needed waste of riches on living conditions, on offices, and on Vaticans. And on all these different things where everything is just so posh. That's abhorrent to Him.

He wants the Church to return back to the first century and simplicity. But that does not exclude the government. And of course, Moses himself had his own governing body. So, I want to correct that misunderstanding right here and now, so it doesn't go any further. That was in the last message.

Okay. So, going on with the present.

Jesus said, "Yes, you were thinking moments ago about the slander done to My Church, and equating it with the slander done to President Trump. In reality, there is no comparison. From the very day I brought My apostles together into a formation to administer My Church--from that very day--Satan had launched a campaign against her."

"And as it always is, it is men who destroy credibility by their actions and sins. What was good was twisted and used for evil by individuals that caused the corporate Body to fall into disgrace. It is painful for Me to recount the injustices done by greedy men working from within the ranks of those who were sincere and good. But for now, I will leave that to another time."

Jesus continued, "The worst damage done to Me and My Church are the slanderous lies about My Body and Blood. I have been accused of alchemy and witchcraft, because I've made it plain that communion with Me would come by eating My Body and drinking My Blood. That sent the Pharisees and half the contingent of Believers running, never to return. But let us look closely at what I said, what was recounted in that passage of Scripture:

So they asked him, "What sign then will you give us that we may see it and believe you? (this is in John chapter 6) What will you do? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written: 'He gave them bread from Heaven to eat.' "

No doubt the person that spoke those words was inspired by the Holy Spirit, because that just opened the door WIDE for the Lord to step right in and talk about the Bread of Life.

Jesus said to them, "Very truly I tell you, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from Heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the True Bread from Heaven. For the bread of God is the bread that comes down from Heaven and gives life to the world."

"Sir," they said, "always give us this bread."

Then Jesus declared, "I am the Bread of Life. Whoever comes to Me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in Me will never be thirsty. But as I told you, you have seen Me and still you do not believe. All those the Father gives Me will come to Me, and whoever comes to Me, I will never drive away. For I have come down from Heaven, not to do My will, but to do the will of Him who sent Me. And this is the will of Him who sent Me: that I shall not lose any of those He has given Me, but raise them up at the last day. For my Father's will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in Him shall have eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day."

At this, the Jews there began to grumble about Him because He said, "I am the Bread that came down from Heaven." They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I came down from Heaven'?"

You know, guys? They should have done a little research about her early life, and compared that to the Scriptures. And realized that she was the Virgin that was prophesied. That would give birth to the Messiah.

"Stop grumbling among yourselves," Jesus answered. "No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws them, and I will raise them up at the last day." John 6:30-44

Now, when He said that, He slapped the Sadducees in the face. The Sadducees and the Pharisees were there, and He just really irritated the Sadducees, because they didn't believe. They were 'sad, you see' because they didn't believe in the resurrection of the dead!

Jesus continued to speak, (verse 45). "It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard the Father and learned from Him comes to Me. No one has seen the Father except the one who is from God; only He has seen the Father.

"Very truly I tell you, the one who believes has eternal life. I am the Bread of Life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, yet they died. But here is the bread that comes down from Heaven, which anyone may eat and not die. I am the Living Bread that came down from Heaven. Whoever eats this Bread will live forever. This Bread is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

Then the Jews began to argue sharply among themselves, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

Jesus said to them, "Very truly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day. For My flesh is real food and My blood is real drink. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood remains in Me, and I in them.

"Just as the living Father sent Me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on Me will live because of Me. This is the Bread that came down from Heaven. Your ancestors ate manna and died, but whoever feeds on this Bread will live forever." He said this while teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

On hearing it, many of His disciples said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can accept it?"

Aware that His disciples were grumbling about this, Jesus said to them, "Does this offend you? Then what if you see the Son of Man ascend to where He was before! The Spirit gives life; the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you--they are full of the Spirit and life. Yet there are some of you who do not believe."

For Jesus had known from the beginning which of them did not believe and who would betray Him. He went on to say, "This is why I told you that no one can come to Me unless the Father has enabled them."

And guys, I want to make an aside point here. When I pray for someone's conversion, I pray to the Father and I ask for Him to draw them to Jesus.

Okay, moving along.

From this time many of His disciples turned back and no longer followed Him.

"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve.

Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and to know that You are the Holy One of God." John 6:45-69

Well, after the Lord had given me these Scriptures to share with you, I asked Him, "Lord, what do you want to say? It seems like a four-year-old could understand them perfectly. Why are they so obscure to Your listeners?" (the words where He talks about the Body and Blood)

Jesus answered me, "Because they were thinking with their carnal minds and could not understand all that I was saying. They needed the Spirit to be able to accept them, though it still remained a mystery.

"Yes, this is where the saying originated, "The Sacred Mysteries." The ones present who were drawn to Me through curiosity or a free meal would not be able to receive this. The others would receive, but still did not comprehend the depth of its meaning.

"What is most discouraging to Me, Clare, in this present day and for centuries, is that men are nit-picky about the tiniest sayings in Scripture, but totally miss the point in something I repeated eight times in their hearing ears. They could not understand anything good coming from Nazareth. They could not understand a Messiah coming from a carpenter. They could not understand these things, because they did not have the Spirit, which came later at Pentecost. And while My apostles didn't grasp the true meaning, they knew by the Spirit that there was a reality there they would have to accept. That is why they answered Me, "To whom shall we go? You have the words of Eternal Life."

And I just want to throw in my conjecture that the Father knew who were His and who were listening to Him, in the Spirit. And they didn't have a problem recognizing the Lord. But it took a greater movement of God to get the other ones to pay attention.

Jesus continued, "Later, they would come to believe in the reality of the words during the Last Supper."

And here He outlined the four major words that refer to His Body and Blood, and the other four were to go along with it.

1. Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you.
2. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day.
3. For my flesh is real food and My blood is real drink.
4. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood remains in Me, and I in them.

Guys! This is all in just one paragraph, in John chapter 6. Three, four times He acknowledges, this is true flesh. True blood. And the other words that came along with this:

5. Here is the Bread that comes down from Heaven, which anyone may eat and not die.
6. I am the Living Bread that came down from Heaven. Whoever eats this Bread will live forever.

Actually, He's saying it twice again there.

7. This Bread is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

8. The one who feeds on Me will live because of Me.

So. There you have it. I can't tell you how many times He talks about this being the Bread that came down from Heaven, in addition to what I've just outlined, that's also in this passage of Scripture.

Jesus continued here, "Clare, where is the ambiguity in these words?"

I had to look it up, guys. I kinda knew what it meant, but I thought I'd share it with you.

Ambiguity: the quality of being open to more than one interpretation; inexactness.

"So, where is the ambiguity in these words?"

I answered Him, "The only ambiguity would be in my own confused mind, because it didn't make sense that you were teaching us to be cannibals."

"Yet if you knew Me by the Spirit, you would reconcile these words as only being True, because I was True and I would never mislead you. So, you would live with this difficult statement until I made it clear to you, would you not?"

Yes, Lord. I'd be holding my breath!

"Well, hold your breath no more. I have come to give you all life, and life abundantly. Do you think you can live in this world without supernatural provision? This is what the sacred mysteries, or sacraments, are--to the initiated. That is, those who have joined the Christian community and been baptized. They are the supernatural helps to bring you into the fulness of the Faith.

"Namely, Baptism. Which erases the curse of original sin. Confirmation, by which you enter into the Community of Faith by your will and understanding. Holy orders, or Ordination, which is your election to serve the Church. Matrimony, which transforms you from a selfish man or woman into a serving man or woman who gives their life for the good of one another and their children. The Sacrament of the Sick, which confers absolution and strength. The Sacrament of Confession and Reconciliation, which I ordained the apostles to serve sinners with, so they could be reconciled to Me."

And that reminded me of something from John 20:22-23

When He had said this, He breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you withhold forgiveness from anyone, it is withheld."

"And lastly, the last sacrament--Holy Communion; the Eucharist."

Eucharist, by the way, means 'Thanksgiving'.

Jesus continued, "All of these examples that I used have been recorded in the Scriptures, and are signs and symbols conferred to My ministers to care for My flock and make it stronger. To the uninitiated, or the Romans and Greeks, they were The Sacred Mysteries. To the initiated, they were the Seven Sacraments, My very special gifts to help you live a holy life, so you could be with Me in Heaven.

"The very dearest of these gifts, Clare, is My very own Body and Blood, by which My Bride becomes physically one with Me. Is it not My prerogative to give you these gifts? Am I not the God Who created you? Should I leave you as orphans--or unite Myself to you by these special means?"

"Do I have the right through My Word to bestow upon you these supernatural gifts? Does not My Holy Spirit work these miracles because of My Words spoken by you in faith? Do not My Words, when believed, possess supernatural powers?"

"Have I not told you that, 'by faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.' Hebrews 11.

"And 'Truly I tell you that if anyone says to this mountain, "Be lifted up and thrown in to the sea", and has no doubt in his heart but believes that it will happen, it will be done for him.' Mark 11:23

"All of you have seen the power of My words, mixed with faith, in your life. So, how is it now that My ministers of the altar are called occultists and alchemists? Is this not a defaming lie planted in your heads by Satan?"

And that concludes part one.

Things to think about... But you know, these are the very things that are being circulated against the beautiful sacrament of the Lord's Body and Blood. These are the very lies and slander that are being circulated against the Church. So, they are definitely words for thought.

Thank you, Lord, for bearing with us and our ignorance. And getting us to think of deeper things. Amen.

Pride... Again

August 12, 2018

Thank you, dear Jesus, for Your mercy and kindness in teaching and forgiving us when we go our own way. Please forgive me, Lord. Amen.

Dear Family, I could feel a distance between the Lord and I yesterday as I sat down to work on part 2 of the Body and Blood of Jesus message. I remembered something I needed in the kitchen. So, I got up to get it from my computer, caught my foot in a wire and came slamming down on the hard tile floor. Which is cement underneath the tile, right? And it hurt. And I mean it really hurt.

And I know, when the Lord sticks His proverbial foot out in the aisle, because I didn't get the whisper in the ear, nor the tap on the shoulder, nor the gentle push... He allows a nasty fall.

So, bingo! I knew I was missing something major. There were several injuries to nurse, and I felt almost like I'd been thrown out of a car window and had ice packs in 5 different areas of my body. 'Wow, this must be a really important lesson', I thought to myself.

I was so disoriented afterwards that I just couldn't connect. So, when I woke up this morning, I was still out of it, and getting in and out of hot water several times, just to be able to pray without crippling pain. I managed through a few hours of prayer.

Then I got a Rhema card about worshipping, and so I entered into worship. And the time was difficult at first, but then finally, I saw Jesus and I dancing together to a holy song. I was wearing a lovely, pale, pink-rose dress and He had on a white shirt and pants, and we were dancing ever so smoothly. At one point, I realized my cheek was resting against His chin and He had a look of such satisfaction on His face. He was so happy to have me there. It was a very sweet moment.

A little while later, when I came into prayer, I asked Him this question, "Lord, please. Where am I at with You right now? I felt You when we were dancing, and that was so sweet, and You felt so happy and satisfied. But right now, I feel alone again... Please do not leave me without the consolation of Your words and directions. Please?"

The Lord replied, "If you have time for Me, Clare, I have time for you."

And I... He was kind of reading my mind, because I was thinking of you guys, and thinking I needed to get that message up--the second part of The Body and Blood. Because it goes so perfectly with the first part. And it definitely clarifies some issues.

"I know there is a part of me that is chafing at the bit to get going, to get the message up, to play music. But when I feel empty and don't have You, Jesus, I can't do anything. So, I spend the whole day trying to reach You and then ...

"Please, Lord. I feel so lost. Tell me how I have offended You?"

And it was given to me something about Pride. And I thought, 'Okay. That's great--because I don't see it. I don't see that, you know, the exact thing. I know there's Pride, I can feel it sometimes. But I didn't see the particular thing that He was pointing to.

So, I told Him, "I don't see it, because I know I am blind. Sometimes I feel it...but then I'm not sure. Please break through, Jesus. This hurts too much..."

I thought for a moment about cooking caramel... I was desperate, and it is one of those small pleasures in the midst of very hard day--and on top of all that, I was dopey.

So, I thought, 'Okay. There's the caramel. There's the trip to the store for a present for someone that I didn't feel could be avoided. And then I felt like I shouldn't be IN that store. Umm... Oh yeah, there's the purple flowers that I got and put in pots. The seeds that I got and put in pots.'

So, there are a few things that it could possibly have hurt the Lord. And I think I shared with you... I know I shared with you a couple days ago, the big temptation that I had with the purple flowers. They are so beautiful. And I'd had failure with the other seeds that came in, so I tried to rationalize myself. 'Well, since they didn't grow, I think it's only fair that I should try and get some more.'

So, you can see. I am just like a little kid, trying to make excuses for their behavior and squirm out of things. I think it's one of the reasons why He's using me this way. I am loaded with flaws. All kinds of flaws.

So, I said, 'Please tell me how I've offended You?'

Jesus answered me, "I love you. "

I know You do, Lord.

"No. I really, really love you and am trying to stretch you out of yourself a bit. There are always consequences to indulging your flesh. Always."

And--well, we call it compulsiveness, because I think we're kind of past the point of having sexual sins around here, being as old as we are. But when we get Sexual Sins in the Bible Promises, it's about being Compulsive/Addicted and lusting after things. You know, like Lust. Lusting after having this, lusting after having that. He was recounting to me what He saw when I opened the Bible Promises: Sexual Sins and Compulsiveness.

"So, there you have it." He answered. "You build a wedge when you go off in your own direction, lusting after things. How can we do anything together when your mind is on the flesh?"

Lord, I am sick and weak. To trade a few purple flowers and some caramel for Your company is ridiculous.

"Yes, very." He answered. "And that is why I have to discipline you, to get it across to you, Clare, that you can't do these things. You have to choose the higher road, not the lower road. You always have to choose the higher way. They threw the bait at you with extra curses--and you took it."

Lord, I was too weak.

"And where have I told you these falls come from? This weakness? How do you get uncovered so that a fall will happen?"

Pride?

"Yes, Pride. Wanting your own way. Reasoning it out in your mind as the best way. Spending money when you knew you shouldn't have been in that store, even for the gift? I wanted you to leave that place, because it was dangerous for you, but you didn't listen to Me--and you fell."

I ended up getting some couple of pens for my Rhema cards that I could have lived without...

"You see, when you have a spate of doing things your way and not being sensitive to My counsel, that is Pride. You over-estimate your ability to stay out of trouble in places like that."

Oh, guys--this store is outrageous. It's called the Unicorn School Supplies store. They are just loaded with all kinds of stickers and goodies, just wonderful, wonderful, ingenious toys and art supplies. Things like that. And He's right. That is dangerous for me! Very dangerous.

So, He said, "You over-estimated your ability to stay out of trouble in that place. I know you were trying to buy a gift for someone, but not at the expense of sinning. Right?"

Yes, Lord, You are right.

Is there something wrong with the message, Lord? Is that why you stopped me before I had a chance to do it? (That's the Body and Blood message, the second part I was asking about.)

Jesus answered me, "There is nothing wrong with the message; it is long overdue. This is about personal sin, Clare. You went to buy one book and you ended up with 6? Don't I give you enough teachings that you don't have to go looking to others for theirs?"

Yeah--that was Praying Medic. I went and looked up some of his books. There was one that I wanted on Traveling in the Spirit, and I ended up getting the one on Healing and Communication and a couple of other little ones he had. I shouldn't have done that, and I felt kind of weird afterwards. I should have just cancelled it.

Jesus continued, "If you would ask Me about these things, rather than being drawn off into the workings of others, I would tell you."

"You didn't ask about even that one book, and that opened the door to you justifying yourself--and that was Pride. There is no justification for wrong-doing. You are not in a position where you can afford to make your own decisions. Not even in the little things. I want you to submit to Me in the little things, because you can be taken way off track when you do them without My permission.

"What if you ended up teaching Heartdwellers something you read from someone else's book? They are doing their own thing and we are doing our own thing--and I want you to keep it pure. And yes. You need to confess your fault to the Channel."

Oh, that's always hard!

"Oh, My people--little is not little! It's the little foxes that spoil the vine. 'Little' is Satan's way of introducing you into doing big things, because he uses your little lapses like rungs on a ladder going down into a hole--not up to Heaven. Every time you give in to your own judgment and flesh, you lower yourself and begin to separate yourself from the highest way. You lose fellowship with Me, because I must stop you in your tracks to get your attention. Stopping you is painful for you and painful for Me. And it takes time for you to realize exactly why something doesn't feel right between us.

"In the meantime, there is work to do, messages, music, etc. And you aren't equipped to do them, because you are under correction. Do you see, Clare, how important this is?"

I do, Lord. I just don't know where to start. I am feeling really 'lost.'

Jesus answered me, "Repentance is always a good place."

Lord, I need more strength. I need You to take over. I can't do this. Please, Lord, give me the strength. I am so sorry! I am also very weak. And I am willing to be made willing to forego these things, but I know I will need Your help in the moments when I am sorely tempted.

Jesus answered, "Clare, when you are not feeling well for one reason or another, you are very vulnerable. And I understand this. But if you want to avoid falling, do all you can to run the other way. I will help you, but you must really make the effort if you want the victory.

"Remember the reading you got on being double-minded? This is a universal problem. That's what I mean when I say that this is a work in progress. It is just very hurtful when it stops what I am doing on the Channel.

"Of course, your enemies plot and celebrate when these things happen. But then, through your error, even more learn the ways of Satan--and now understand how to fend him off.

"Clare, I love you. Let me hold you and set you back up on your feet. Let me comfort you.

"And to you who set up these falls for My vessels unto honor, I say: you, too, will have your turn to repent. And I will welcome you with open arms. But please consider: you may not get another chance. Take advantage of what I offer you, when I offer it. For the day of your dissolution may not be far away.

"It is My heart to forgive you, but take care. You have said "No!" to Me so many times, there may not come another. Your heart has grown callous and hard, and there comes a time when you no longer can repent.

"Take heed to yourselves, that you repent in good season.

"And for the rest of you, My sweet Heartdwellers. I love you all tenderly. It's not easy being in this world, and some of the trials have been hard lately. And some of you have sought relief in the physical world and the carnal world. And that relief is so temporary, it only weakens you.

"So, do your best to run from an occasion of sin. And I will be with you, because I love you."

Body and Blood of Jesus 2/2 (& THE SWORDS)

August 12, 2018

Lord Jesus, I pray that we may never offend the tenderness of Your Heart or the Heart of Your Father. We are only foolish humans. We need Your extraordinary grace to overcome the voices of the past and our own pet theories and opinions. But without Your grace, we will never understand Your ways. Be Merciful, Lord, and grant us our heart's request. Amen.

Wow. My dear Heartdwellers, I have been trying to get to this message, and I have to tell you, there've been - woo! Things coming out of... Roadblocks from Hell! Trying to stop me from getting the second part of this message up. But we finally got them, so here we are.

It's obvious that the enemy did not want this series up. He fought us tooth and nail yesterday--well, two days ago--from getting posted. I was concerned, because the message ended in the wrong place and could have confused some. We finally got it up, but not before a good 500 people heard it incompletely.

I have prayed and prayed for you all, calling on Holy Spirit to open closed hearts and seal the Truth within you. I have cried out for you, Heartdwellers, because many of you are stuck and floundering. And the very medicine you need has been denounced and stolen from you.

I wanted to share with you immediately a message from Ezekiel. He had a vision of Jesus, standing over all of the Heartdwellers, with His arms extended around the world. And swords were coming out from His arms. They were dropping down into the sheaf's that were on the backs of Heartdwellers. One on the left side and one on the right.

The sword that came down and dropped into the scabbard on the left shoulder, for ALL Heartdwellers, was the Sword of Truth and Discernment. And the sword that came down and landed in the right scabbard, on the right shoulder, was the Routing Sword. Routing and warfare sword. In the left scabbard is the Sword of Discernment and Truth. On the right shoulder, there is a Routing Sword. It is for Routing and Warfare. And ALL of you who listen to this Channel were given these swords.

Now, the way we use these swords, as they were given to us. We use them for Discernment and we use them when we are fighting spiritually. When there's a lot of demonic interference. Then, we also use them for healing. We cross the swords over the area of the body that needs healing, and pray for healing. We've seen quite a few with Ezekiel, using the swords this way.

So, this was the Lord's gift to you. And I imagine He gave this gift to you to make it easier for you to discern this message. I wanted to tell you, you now have new weapons to understand the Truth and to fight the enemy with. And we thank the Lord for these beautiful swords that have been granted to us.

And Ezekiel had a dream about the swords, just before he woke up. I was in a battle with the Routing sword. And there were demons everywhere. And I was fighting against them. Please share with me how you use it and how it works out for you. I'm going to want to hear that.

I gathered courage from (when) Father God appeared to me in dazzling white robes with a Host shining out from His heart, and reassured me that He had anointed me to bring this message to you. So, I'm placing all my trust in that, and not in the knowledge of my emptiness.

So, here's the second half of the message.

Dear ones, Jesus was weeping while He gave me this message; His face was red and contorted in pain. We have no idea how our God has been hurt by the slander against this magnificent Gift above all Gifts. So, this is where I left off yesterday:

Jesus continued, "Clare, I brought this Gift of All Gifts up to the people for one reason and one reason alone. But I knew it would serve to weed out the insincere ones--insincere in that they really did not have the inner witness as to who I AM. Some of them were spies with ill intent, some of them wanted to see miracles, others wanted free meals, still others tagged along because I was a popular topic.

"When I brought this subject up, all of those ran away. Now, you can expect that the same thing will happen here on your Channel, except My Spirit is here to convict them of Truth--and if you lose some, do not worry yourself. I will not worry Myself, either. This teaching, and in fact, all of these teachings I am giving you, are for those who want the fullness of what I left behind for them.

"They are not satisfied with what they have been fed so far. They know there is more, in their hearts, and they hunger and thirst for all of Me. How fortunate you are, dear ones, who truly value Truth above opinion and fellowship with others who refuse to look beyond their denominational guidelines.

And then, Jesus began crying. "I gave you the gift of My very Body and Blood, because I desired with all My heart to be with you, to live in you. Not only spiritually, but in the flesh. Even as if I'd never left Earth. Did I not say, 'I will not leave you orphans'? Yes, I gave you My Spirit, but I know very well the need you have to be touched physically with My love, with My very own DNA. That is why I gave a part of Myself to you, every day. To strengthen you with My very own Body and Blood.

"I wanted to give you this substance to comfort you in your hardships of this life and to help you make it through every crises. To truly be wed to you, My Bride, in a physical but non-sexual way; to be ONE with you. I saw the days that were coming of your trials and tribulations, and I wanted to be physically present with you in those times. To hold, comfort, strengthen and give you the means to stay wedded to Me, because nothing in this world hurts Me more than losing a soul.

"You were always to be My Bride. We always were to be one: Spirit, Soul and Body. And this is the most miraculous provision to see to it that We cleave to one another.

"I imparted this teaching to Paul that We, you and I, are One Body, just as surely as the man or woman that you marry becomes one body with you. This was part of what was referred to as the Great Mystery. Not only the changing of the bread and wine into the true flesh and blood of My very own body, while remaining in appearance as only bread and wine. But the extraordinary union of God and man--that you may fulfill the mandate of being sons and daughters of God.

"You are adopted into that status by the confession of your faith in Me. But the process of your sanctification is to bring you into the fullness of your stature. And My Body and Blood was to be the provision that feeds and nourishes the God-side of your nature to overcome the flesh side.

"This consecration of the bread and wine is from the Word of God spoken over the bread and over the wine, to which My Holy Spirit descends obediently to transform the elements into My living presence as My Body and My Blood.

"Do you understand, My most precious Spouse? Do you understand the tenderness and extreme love that is My motive in sharing My very own Body with you? This is the spiritual act of consummation, that replaces the carnal act of consummation in which a man and woman become one flesh.

"This is the purest form of My love for you; a very part of My flesh and blood which underwent flagellation and crucifixion and the most vile desecration of the Roman soldiers. This is that part of Me that resides in Glory with the Father. And this is that part of Me that must undergo the indignities and filth of the earthly life.

"Do you understand, now, why I ask you not to watch movies themed on violence and immorality? I, too, must endure this when your body sits before these things and drinks them in. Oh, they cost me so much on the Cross! And cost Me so much, even now, for those of you that I inhabit spiritually and physically."

At this point Heartdwellers, I want to share with you some historical facts, direct quotes from the writings of the early Church Fathers:

Beginning with Justin Martyr 66 A.D.:

"We call this food Eucharist, and no one else is permitted to partake of it, except one who believes our teaching to be true and who has been washed in the washing which is for the remission of sins and for regeneration [i.e., has received baptism] and is thereby living as Christ enjoined.

For not as common bread nor common drink do we receive these; but since Jesus Christ our Savior was made incarnate by the word of God, and had both flesh and blood for our salvation. So too, as we have been taught, the food which has been made into the Eucharist by the Eucharistic prayer set down by him, and by the change of which our blood and flesh is nurtured, is both the flesh and the blood of that incarnated Jesus"

And that was written in 66 A.D.

Hippolytus 170 AD speaks of 'the body and the blood' through which the Church is saved, and Tertullian regularly describes the bread as 'the Lord's body.' The converted pagan, he remarks, 'feeds on the richness of the Lord's body, that is, on the Eucharist.'

(By the way, Eucharist means thanksgiving.)

The realism of his theology comes to light in the argument, based on the intimate relation of body and soul, that just as in baptism the body is washed with water so that the soul may be cleansed, so in the Eucharist 'the flesh feeds upon Christ's body and blood so that the soul may be filled with God.' Clearly his assumption is that the Savior's body and blood are as real as the baptismal water.

(Let's see, when was that... That was 170 A.D. Hippolytus.)

And Irenaeus, A.D. 189:

"If the Lord were from other than the Father, how could he rightly take bread, which is of the same creation as our own, and confess it to be his body and affirm that the mixture in the cup is his blood?"
That's Against Heresies, A.D. 189

Theodore of Antioch A.D. 350-405 Bishop of Mop sues tia:

"When [Christ] gave the bread he did not say, 'This is the symbol of my body,' but, 'This is my body.' In the same way, when he gave the cup of his blood he did not say, 'This is the symbol of my blood,' but, 'This is my blood'; for he wanted us to look upon the [Eucharistic elements] after their reception of grace and the coming of the Holy Spirit not according to their nature, but receive them as they are, the body and blood of our Lord. We ought . . . not regard [the elements] merely as bread and cup, but as the body and blood of the Lord, into which they were transformed by the descent of the Holy Spirit"

And that's A.D.405, Theodore of Antioch.

This is just a very tiny selection of things written about the Eucharist, what was believed by the Early Church. This is before Martin Luther. This is before the Bible was written! This was when the Bible was being written, and letters were being circulated. This is what the Early Church believed, dear ones. This is what the Early Church believed! This has been stolen from us by the enemy, and we want to get it back. Because we NEED to be nourished on His Body and Blood.

So, please. Take to heart the Lord's tears and what He said about wanting to be united to us through His Body and Blood. There'll be another segment on His teaching, about how WE go about speaking the words of consecration. And how Holy Spirit transforms the bread and the wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus. And exactly who is qualified to do that.

That becomes a subject very much for the Lord's discretion. I can give you what I know is the bottom line on that, but this is something that you'll have to work out with the Lord in fear and trembling. And that will be coming up very soon.

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers. What a sublime and beautiful gift the Lord has given us. Let us truly take it to heart.

Come to Me (song by Clare)

August 13, 2018

Come to Me
Can't you see
Just how much I love you?
Here you're free
Just to be
All you've ever hoped for.
Now you're home
You're not alone
Your family adores you.
My Daughter, I welcome you Home.
Can you believe?
And just receive
Truly You're My Daughter.
Bride of Christ
His sacrifice
Has formed you in His glory
This is your home
No need to roam
For all your dreams are real here
My child you are finally Home
Now rest in Me
I've set you free
From fear and condemnation
Your shining heart's
Been set apart
For endless celebration.
In harmony
Our family
Will live life to its fullest
My Daughter, rejoice! You are Home.
It's time to rejoice now,
It's time to rejoice now
With angels we're singing,
With angels we're dancing

Heaven's rejoicing,

All Heaven's rejoicing
We're singing and dancing
Forever rejoicing, forever rejoicing
It's time to rejoice

Young Boy Dies Protecting Jesus in the Host

August 13, 2018

Thank you, Lord Jesus, for the courageous witness of this young boy, St. Tarcisius, who did not esteem his life more than Your precious presence in his arms.

I wanted to share this touching story of St. Tarcisius with you, dear Heartdwellers, to illustrate to you that in the third century, when Valerian was Emperor, the community of Christian believers celebrated the Eucharistic service, or Mass, in the Catacombs.

The first communion or the Lord's Supper service was written by St. James and became a norm for worship in Jerusalem during the middle of the first century. That's about 20 years after the Lord was crucified. There are many frescoes in the catacombs depicting the mass, or the Lord's Supper.

Those who met in the Catacombs had no doubts in their hearts that this was the true presence of Jesus under the appearance of bread and wine. And this young man's story illustrates that point so very well.

But before I share this with you, I want to review for just a minute the evidence that supports Peter being the head of the Church in Rome, and being martyred within the same time frame as Paul.

Now, in no way does that mean I'm endorsing the institution of the Roman Catholic Church. I'm not. I'm going back to the first century to show you what the order was like during that time.

By this time in history, the Church had an established hierarchy. Peter had been succeeded by Linus, Anacletus, and St. Clement. Of course, there is great dispute among evangelical scholars that claim Peter was never in Rome. That lasted until recently, when Peter's Tomb was discovered directly below the Vatican complex. Men were digging to lay wires for a sound system and broke through to underground crypts, and that's when Peter's remains were found, proving that he indeed was in Rome and buried there. St. Peter's tomb is near the west end of a complex of mausoleums that date between about AD 130 and AD 300.

Further historical writings from the Early Church by Eusebius of Caesarea relate that when Peter confronts Simon Magus at Judea (Acts 8), Simon Magus flees to Rome, where the Romans got to regard him as a god. According to Eusebius, his luck did not last long, since God sent Peter to Rome and Simon the magician was quenched and immediately destroyed.

In the Scriptures, 1 Peter 5:13, "The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus, my son." Now, it's not certain whether this refers to the actual Babylon or to Rome, for which Babylon was a common nickname at the time. Marcus, a very typical Roman name, strengthens the theory that Peter refers to Rome in his letter. In the preceding verse, 1 Peter 5:12, he also mentions Silvanus, another typical Roman name.

Irenaeus of Lyons wrote in the 2nd century that Peter and Paul had been the founders of the Church in Rome and had appointed Linus as succeeding bishop.

Clement of Alexandria A.D. 190, states that "Peter had preached the Word publicly at Rome.

And according to Jerome, "Peter went to Rome in the second year of Claudius to overthrow Simon Magus, and held the sacerdotal chair there for twenty-five years until his martyrdom, that is the fourteenth, year of Nero."

Sacerdotal chair--that means the chair of authority. Like the Lord talked about, the chairs of the scribes and the Pharisees. It's a position of authority. So, that was from Clement of Alexandria in A.D. 190.

Dionysius, bishop of Corinth, in his Epistle to the Roman Church under Pope Soter A.D. 165 declares that Peter and Paul founded the Church of Rome and the Church of Corinth, and they have lived in Corinth for some time and finally in Italy where they found death.

And this is a quote from that article:

"You have thus by such an admonition bound together the planting of Peter and of Paul at Rome and Corinth. For both of them planted and likewise taught us in our Corinth. And they taught together in like manner in Italy, and suffered martyrdom at the same time."

So that's the background on the early Christians in Rome. Here is the touching story of St. Tarcisius, a boy martyr of the Eucharist. And the link to this story is going to be available in the box below.

"Have you any idea what Rome was like at the beginning of the first century? The Romans were the most powerful people in the world because they conquered and ruled over many nations which, together, were known as the Roman Empire. The Roman rulers and their soldiers were very cruel, and they were very much feared both by their own people and the people of other nations.

"When Tarcisius was a young boy, the empire was ruled by Emperor Valerian. He hated Christians because of their love for Jesus and His teachings. They were thrown into dirty prisons where conditions were poor, and many of them were martyred--which means they were put to death for their beliefs.

"How were these Christians martyred? Some of them were beaten to death, others were burned--and most cruel of all--a number of them were thrown into a big arena called the Coliseum (which still exists today) and there they were eaten by lions. This was like a sport to the emperor and his friends who watched this horrible cruelty and enjoyed it. However, the Christians endured all of this, rather than give up their faith in Jesus.

"To avoid being captured, they had to meet secretly in their homes if they wanted to pray and to learn about their faith. When the situation became too dangerous, they built underground rooms and passages called catacombs, so that they could come together in safety. To enable them to celebrate Holy Mass in secret, they had to build large rooms below ground called crypts where they also buried their dead.

"The entrances to the catacombs were concealed and they were usually in isolated spots outside the city, known only to the Christians. These same catacombs still exist today and can be seen by visitors to Rome.

"It was there they gathered to pray, to study their faith and to hear Mass and receive Holy Communion. This was possible due to the courageous bishops and priests who risked their lives so that the people could receive the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Eucharist.

"No matter how careful the Christians were in protecting the knowledge of the entrances to the catacombs, sometimes the pagans did discover them. Hence, a great number of Christians were caught or put in prison, where, each day, they expected to be put to death. Despite their sufferings they continue to desire to receive Jesus in the Eucharist.

"One day, just as the Bishop was about to celebrate Holy Mass in one of the catacombs, he received a letter from the prisoners--among whom were some of his fellow bishops and priests--requesting him to please send Holy Communion to them. They knew that if Jesus was with them, they would be less fearful and would gladly accept a martyr's death for love of Him. This posed a problem, for the Bishop knew it was very dangerous to take the Holy Eucharist to prisoners and to the sick.

"Before beginning Holy Mass, the Bishop asked the people present to pray that he might choose the best person to carry Jesus in the Eucharist to the prisoners. As it was now too dangerous for priests to do so, it was important that some other good person be selected who would not arouse suspicion.

"As soon as Mass was over, the Bishop asked who would be willing to carry out this brave task. The young boy Tarcisius--an altar server--stood up and said, 'send me.' The Bishop thought the boy was too young and could be endangered, but Tarcisius convinced him that nobody would suspect him, simply because he was so young. All the Christians knew of the deep love Tarcisius had for Jesus in the Eucharist, so the bishop eventually accepted the boy's offer.

"Tarcisius was given some hosts carefully wrapped in a linen cloth and placed in a small case, which he wrapped in his tunic over his heart. The Bishop asked him to remember the heavenly treasures that were being entrusted to his care; to avoid the crowded streets and to faithfully and safely protect these sacred mysteries: Jesus in the Eucharist. Tarcisius replied that he would rather die than let go of them. Claspng his Sacred Treasure, he set off for the prison.

"Oh, how happy and proud Tarcisius felt as he carried Our Blessed Lord so close to his heart! (And this is the fleshing out of the story by a sister of Notre Dame.) He had no thoughts to spare for places or people that he passed. He thought only of Jesus, whom he carried.

"'Oh, dear Jesus, how I love you,' he whispered. 'How good You are to choose me as your little messenger. How willingly I would suffer and die for You, like these good people in prison. Perhaps one day, You will let me lay down my life for you, too.'

"Whispering words of love like these, he sped quickly on his way. He was out of the catacombs now and on the high road. There, he passed a group of his school comrades just about to start a game, but needing one more to complete the number to make up the team. Catching sight of Tarcisius they called him to stop and join them.

"'I am sorry,' he said, 'but I am on an important mission.' He hurried on, but the lads caught hold of him and would not let him go.

"What have you there?" said one, seeing how tightly Tarcisius held his hands to his breast. 'Let me see.'

'No, no,' cried Tarcisius, struggling to free himself. His anxiety made them all curious, and together they tried to pull away his hands.

"My Jesus, strengthen me,' whispered Tarcisius, almost under his breath. But one boy heard his words and cried out to the others: 'He is a Christian. He is hiding some Christian mystery there.'

"This made the boys still more curious. They determined to see for themselves, so they struck him, stoned him, and kicked him and did their best to pull away his hands, but they could not make him loosen his grip.

"A man passing by asked 'What's going on here?'

"He's a Christian, carrying some Christian mystery, and we're trying to get it from him,' cried one of the boys.

"A Christian, did you say?' said the man, and giving Tarcisius one cruel blow, threw him to the ground.

At this very moment, a soldier, hastening towards the group, scattered them to right and left, and stooping down, lifted Tarcisius in his arms.

"You cowards!" he said; 'all setting on one little lad.' And he strode quickly down the street and hurried off into a quiet lane.

"Tarcisius, lad,' he said, smoothing back the curls from his pale face. Tarcisius opened his eyes and recognized the soldier as a Christian whom he had often met in the catacombs.

"I am dying,' he said, 'but I have kept my God safe from them.' And he handed his precious treasure to the soldier, who placed it reverently inside his tunic. 'Carry Him to the prison for me,' said Tarcisius, and with a gentle sigh he fell back into the soldier's arms.

"His little soul was already with God, for whom he so willingly had given his life, for Jesus himself once said, 'Greater love than this no man has, than that a man lay down his life for his friend.'

Little Tarcisius gave his life for the Friend of friends, Jesus Christ.

Well, that's a beautiful story that really brings home exactly how much the people believed in the true presence of Jesus in the Body and Blood, under the appearance of bread and wine. It's a beautiful story, and just one of many.

And then, of course, there are eucharistic miracles, which I'll be bringing up, where the Host actually turns to a piece of heart tissue and bleeds. That's pretty crazy!

But it's amazing. It's an amazing testimony to the veracity of the Truth.

So, I want to take this moment, too, to thank you, Heartdwellers, for taking care of us and for your donations. It's really helped us stay afloat and keep moving on. And keep going.

And not too long from now we're gonna be having a book on Healing that's gonna come out. And I'll share that with you. It'll be a free download and free to anyone who wants to ask us for a copy - we'll send it out at no charge.

But I want to thank you very, very much for supporting us and being faithful. It means so much to us. God bless you all.

Pray, America & Do Not Sin Thru Gossip

August 15, 2018

Lord, help us to stay on Your side, praying that those who have been exposed would convert before it is too late for them. Amen.

Well, dear Heartdwellers. I don't know how you guys have been feeling. But I have had a ROUGH two weeks! All of us have, really. And I think we're feeling the effects of not just the weather, but the spiritual weather. The things that are going on in Washington and all over the world.

The Lord has shared with me that the dominoes are falling, and things are being exposed. The curtains are being rolled back--and it's not pretty. He needs as much prayer as we can give Him. Accompanied with as many fast offerings as we can give Him.

And I've been not good at giving fast offerings, I have to admit. Part of it's that I'm just feeling really, really sick. The Fibro has been off the charts. Plus a few other things that are going on. Ezekiel hasn't been feeling well. Carol hasn't been feeling well. Sherry hasn't been feeling well--and she's recovering from the loss of her little dog that died.

All of us are so acutely aware of the Lord's heart right now. The LORD is not feeling well. His heart is deeply, deeply grieved over the things that are going on, and what is going to be exposed.

And I think right now His focus... And it's a given that these things are going to be exposed. It's going to happen. Nothing's going to stop it. He's going to do it. But I think what He's really grieving over right now is the loss of lives and souls. Some that will commit suicide rather than having to face what they've done in their life. Face their family and friends with the activities they were involved in behind the scenes.

All of this is going to come to Light. And they're going to be some very hard questions to answer by family members. Double lives have been led for a very long time and they're coming to a crushing ending. And the Lord's heart is very seriously grieved, for not only what is being exposed, but also because He could lose these souls to suicide. Or they could run off and hide, and never repent. And He's praying and asking us to pray that they will repent.

So... Today, I was saying to the Lord, "When, when, when... Oh Lord, is this finally going to open up? When is this finally going to start happening with this??"

Well, they are happening. They're just happening on a very slow level--a very slow level. And the enemy would like nothing better than to start a war, cause all kinds of false flags to draw our attention away from the things that are taking place. But there are lists out now of people who are not going to be returning to Congress, or to the Senate. And it's obvious, these people were involved in something dark, and that's why they're not coming back.

So, it is beginning to happen. It's beginning to be disclosed. And I get... I have to admit my motives have been a bit selfish. I'm just tired of walking through thick soup, day after day after day, carrying this burden. Hoping that things would finally break open and we'd be set free from carrying this thing. Because we've really, really been suffering with the Lord's heart. Because we love Him. Because we're Heartdwellers--we feel what He feels. And we're so, so longing to have this whole thing over with!

You know, it's very difficult to do anything creative, like write or play music. Or even work on the painting of God the Father. It's very hard to do anything creative in this kind of emotional, physical and spiritual pain. All we can really do is offer it to the Lord for their conversion and pray. And that's basically where He's kept us.

When I came into prayer, Jesus began, "Yes, do pray for your country. (Ezekiel had just gotten that word: pray for the nation, pray for the nation.)"

"Things are beginning to break," Jesus continued. "and have an impact. Repercussions are coming down on those who have betrayed the nation and the dominoes are beginning to fall. It is making a deep impact and shaking foundations. You are praying against repercussions."

"Finally, Clare, things are coming apart, piece by wicked piece. But I still want you to remember to pray for the offenders, for some will take their lives and others will be murdered. This is a critical time in law enforcement, too, because so much evil is syndicated and tied in with legitimate law enforcement agencies."

"This giant will not fall gracefully. Much is being planned to draw attention away from the real news--false flag events, which the media hopes to make a grand point of focus to undermine what is being exposed."

"So, this is the time to be praying against retaliation..."

And... I'm taking a break here for a moment. After my correction the other day. I had planted, like... I don't know. Maybe 6 pots with these, these little things called corms, that flower into shamrock plants. I had planted about 6 of those. I meant giving one away and using the other ones in our garden room. And... I knew this. You know?

When I found out this really was NOT pleasing to the Lord. When I finally admitted that. When I finally looked at it. I thought to myself, 'He couldn't possibly be happy about me having those plants as they grow. He didn't want it in the first place. He's certainly isn't going to want it when they grow--and they're beautiful and very distracting.'

And the Lord cut in at this point, and He said, "As far as the plants go, would you consider giving them away for love of Me? I didn't want you to have them in the first place. In your heart, you know that, right?"

I do, Lord. I'm just so tired of feeling sick and listless. It was a distraction for me.

And no amount of distraction is going to remove that."

Boy--is THAT right. I mean, double medicine. Tylenol. More sleep. Hot tubs... Nothing. Nothing is working at all! That's when you know that you're in intercession. Nothing works the way it's supposed to.

He said, "You are suffering for the nation, Clare. And no amount of distraction is going to remove that. But for love of Me, would you? They are not good for you. They will be used to entrap you again and again--better to cut off the influence. Don't worry about the one on the pool with the two little lavender flowers. It is the others that I want to go.

"You have pleased Me by cooperating, Clare. You really have."

Jesus, I do love You more than these. And I know that they're dangerous for me.

"I know that you know that. And that is why we are working on this together, and I'm granting you the Grace to remain detached."

That's a little aside.

So, for the Love of the Lord, I'm going to give them away. In fact, they are out of the house already, thank God.

And you know? Sometimes I wonder who my friends and enemies are. Someone sent us...lol...right after I talked about this very same issue that I have, that keeps recurring every Spring. Someone sent us a gift certificate for $1,000 worth of plants! And I thought, 'Are you KIDDING ME???' Are you serious? WHOSE side are you on!

And of course, we had to send it back. But I thought, 'WOW. The Lord made me strong, just before that one hit.' If I had taken up on that, I really would have got entrapped.

And that's basically what it is, you know. You have an affection for something. And if that affection can stand in the way of your relationship with Jesus--that's an idol.

And I remember, I woke up yesterday morning with in mind, clear as a bell: I'm getting rid of those plants! I AM GETTING RID OF THEM! That was at 5:00 in the morning, right?

And then I got to the point where, around 11:00: Oh, they're so pretty! I don't... Is it okay, Lord? Can I keep them, please? And I had that kind of shadow in my conscience. You know, like 'You know better than that...'

So, I tried to rationalize it. And then I woke up THIS morning, and as I was going about getting ready for prayer, again. Six o'clock in the morning: Those plants are GOING. That's it. I'm NOT going to let anything distract me from the Lord! I can't do this. If He doesn't want me to have it, I can't keep it. They're going. They. Are. Gone. That's it!

Lol...and then by noon, it was a struggle again. 'Oh, Lord. Do You think I could maybe just keep a few?'' And finally, Sherry and I decided, 'Okay. Well... You'll pray for me and we'll see what the Lord says.' But I knew in my heart that He didn't want me to have them. So, they went out the door this afternoon--praise be to God!

At least I dodged a bullet for now. And I made the Lord happy.

Now. There's nothing. NOTHING in the world worth trading your relationship with the Lord for. He wants to go to higher places with me, and He can't do it if I'm still stuck on things that I like, and I refuse to give up!

"I'll do my job, Lord--but let me keep this, okay?" No, uh uh. It doesn't work that way. You either obey and do your job right. Or you compromise. And I've been compromising. So, later on today, I decided: no more compromise. I... I can't live with it. It's just so uncomfortable. You just feel that darkness in your heart when you compromise. And it really does build a wall, dark brick by dark brick, between you and the Lord. Until you're finally willing to let go of everything for Him.

So. Moving on to the message and what He was saying.

Jesus continued. He said, "Heartdwellers, your prayers are in the process of being answered, but it isn't pretty. In fact, it is foul beyond what you could ever imagine. Every filthy practice invented by Satan has been used to entrap your government officials. They have sunk to levels of depravity that Sodomites never dreamt of.

"These opportunities to engage in perversion are offered to all who hold office, as an escape and an entertainment on the surface. But beneath the surface, they are entrapments that can later be used to manipulate and control people with blackmail. But what they don't see, is that their souls have sunk down so deep into sin, that they no longer resemble a human on a spiritual level.

"Even the animals do not have the motive to do such things. This lowers their morality level so far down they are incapable of operating with any integrity at all in their elected and assigned offices."

And if they step one step to the right or to the left to follow something that opposes the people that know about these things, these files and photographs are brought up in their face, saying, 'You can't do that or we'll expose you'.

"And Satan has lured them into a spiritual death-trap that renders them void of a conscience. In this way, as they lead double lives, they are constantly tormented by demons. 'What if they find out? What if my daughter finds out? What will she think?? What if, what if, what if...' The demons make sport of them and feed off their fears and their double lives, torture them day and night.

"Pray for them, as many contemplate suicide and even going to a far worse place to escape punishment. There are many underground hiding places where they can escape justice. Underground cities have been prepared for such as these. Cities of refuge, where these without a conscience go to continue a life of depravity and sink deeper and deeper into it.

"The families of these men and women will be shocked into despair when they fully come to comprehend what the man or woman they called their father or mother has been involved in. And this is one point of entrance for Me, a place of profound humiliation that can open the door for their conversion.

"If they run or commit suicide, this will close the door. This is why I want you to pray for them; there is still a chance. Demons to incite suicide are at an all-time high, and this is the preferred method of Satan to end their days, before they have a chance to repent.

"I want you to know that I am greatly edified by your prayers for such as these. I want you to know that My Heart longs to see them repentant and saved--and your prayers do matter. There has been a tremendous campaign by Satan to render you prayer-less."

Boy, I've been feeling that. I have really felt that."

"There have been lies whispered into your ear day and night that your prayers are fruitless--It's too big for your prayer to make a difference. The line that: 'It's too big for your prayer to make any difference'; that 'you are not righteous enough to be heard by God.' 'Your prayers bounce off the walls--God doesn't listen to you, because you are still so subject to sin and flaws.'"

You know what, guys? I've heard that non-stop for these past two weeks. Well, and even longer than that. But especially more vigorously recently.

Jesus continued, "That is absolutely NOT TRUE! This is a lie from the enemy to get you to stop praying. In fact, if you feel so badly about yourself that you are saying, 'Oh, what's the use? God isn't going to hear me!' I can guarantee you that is a Lying spirit stealing your faith.

"Do not believe these lies! Righteousness does not always depend on your perfection, it depends on your commitment to be made holy and perfect before Me. Your commitment to get up when you fall, and to keep trying. I hear your prayers. My Father honors your prayers, even though you are still being formed into My image.

"Many of you are also feeling a dullness in prayer. That is another trap the enemy has sent out to separate and divert you from Me. Press in, and do not allow this cloak of dullness to deter you from prayer, worship, and holy reading. I am there, and this cloak is but a smoke screen to discourage you from praying and staying close to Me."

And at that moment I remembered that someone said something about trying to start war. The Deep State. To divert attention from this. I said, "Lord, are they going to try and start a war?"

Jesus continued, "They already have, Clare, but their efforts were thwarted. I will continue to block their efforts to throw the world into confusion and escape prosecution. They will be brought to justice. There will be conversions that will happen because you prayed.

"And it is important for you to know that praying for them will keep you from falling into judgment and opening the doors to be sifted. Prayer puts you on Our side (the holy Trinity side) and keeps you safe from Gossip and Calumny.

"It is bad enough that they are being exposed, but the enemy wants you to dive right in and judge--spreading lies, rumors and even things that are true, but are very dangerous to your soul to discuss. They are occasions of sin.

"So, please, My people. Stay alert. See that it is finally falling apart, but do not sin. Remember, they were once children. Pray for their conversion and repentance, because it breaks My Heart to lose even one. Even the vilest of all--it still breaks My Heart.

"Pray for them."

From the EXODUS Album: Burning Bush

August 16, 2018

"I have heard. I have seen.
I have heard your suffering
And I AM."

Descent from the EXODUS Album

August 16, 2018

Oh, come. Oh, come!
Our lives aren't the same,
They're darkened with pain.
Oh, come set us free in the morning.
Oh, come. Oh, come!
We're driven in chains
And bound by our sin.
Oh, come set us free in the morning.

How is Jesus Really Present, Body and Blood, in the Host?

August 18, 2018

Lord, how profoundly beautiful is Your Word. Thank you for revealing the power Your Words have when they are spoken in total faith.

Dear Heartdwellers, I came across a comment I wanted to expand upon and I think it will give all of us more understanding on how the bread and wine are transmuted into the Body and Blood of Christ.

One of our family remarked that he "could understand now, how this happens when one speaks the Word of God over the bread and wine. That Holy Spirit descends to change the elements into the Body and Blood. In truth, the Holy Spirit is honoring the very words of God spoken in faith."

Yes! That caught my attention, too, in the message that I had just put out. So, I want to share with you the words that are used to affect that change. Again, it is the Word of God that is spoken in faith that accomplishes the purpose for which He sent it forth--namely, turning the bread and wine into His very own Body and Blood to share with you and I.

I remember the first time--as an evangelical, Spirit-filled Christian--that I attended a Mass out in the boonies of Pennsylvania. I didn't know what I was expecting, but I had heard all kinds of rumors about idolatry of the bread used for communion, alchemy, turning it into blood and all kinds of rumors about what went on in a Catholic Mass. Imagine my shock--and I do mean shock! Because my mouth dropped open as the words of consecration and the Mass were spoken.

And here they are:

While they were at supper, He took bread and gave You thanks and praise (speaking to the Father). He broke the bread, gave it to His disciples, and said: "Take this all of you, and eat it: this is My Body which will be given up for you." At the end of the meal, knowing that He was to reconcile all things to Himself by the blood of His Cross, He took the cup, filled with wine.

Again, He gave You thanks, handed the cup to His friends, and said: "Take this, all of you, and drink from it: this is the cup of My Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all, so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of Me."

Now, this is taken word for word from the sixth chapter of John, in the New Testament. And I recognized the words. Imagine how very stupid I felt for listening to all these lies about the Mass? I was totally humiliated for having listened and agreed with people bashing this and calling it witchcraft.

As the Mass went on, more Scripture:

"Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again. Dying, You destroyed our death; rising, You restored our life. Lord Jesus come in glory. Lord, by Your Cross and resurrection You have set us free; You are the Savior of the world."

And on and on, more Scripture scattered all throughout the service. Not to mention the fact that the first half of the Mass, called the liturgy of the Word, had 3 Bible readings: plus Psalms. One from the Old Testament or the Letters and the Gospel reading. And all tied together by theme. Needless to say, whoever thought there was no Bible in a Catholic service was terribly misinformed, and obviously never checked that statement out in person.

So, this practice was taken directly from the very words of Jesus' mouth at the Last Supper, and carried forth and celebrated in this very same manner in the Early Church. And again, written into a service at Jerusalem, by James A.D.60 and carried forth faithfully through all the changes the Church has gone through, up until this very day.

The next question is, "Who is qualified to speak the words of consecration over the bread and wine? Can just anyone do this? Or did the Lord ordain certain ones to do this?"

Jesus, I could try and answer this from my limited knowledge, but I would rather You explain it to us, so I do not offend You and I don't teach error.

I waited for a couple of moments, and I heard:

"Clare, you will never offend Me by following in My footsteps, My example and what is written in the Scriptures.

"When the Apostles came together to discuss an article of faith, such as circumcision--which Paul disputed with Peter, it was necessary for all of them to come to an agreement.

"In this case, Peter was in error and courageous enough to admit it. Circumcision was not necessary for salvation. Paul was correct.

"In fact, what I had given to you, Clare, that baptism replaces circumcision as a sign of membership into the Christian community, and on the 8th day, as was the custom. Just as the child had no say in whether or not he would be circumcised, it is proper and right for the parents to baptize a child into the household of God without their say-so. Later in life, the decision can be made, through the tradition of Bar mitzvah or confirmation, that he or she wants to become a member and adhere to the teachings, living a holy life, as was set forth in the baptismal promises repeated by the parents at baptism.

"You see, Clare, someone had to have the final word, the last say about heresy. So many mutations of the Faith I handed on to the Apostles were occurring, as Satan was in a big hurry to distort and destroy the church, robbing it of the saving tenets of Truth I lived and passed on to the Apostles. At that point, there had to be a hierarchy; there had to be a final word.

"My intention was that Peter, along with the other Apostles, would have a unanimous agreement, because they were all led by My Spirit.

"But when man began to live according to the lusts of the flesh, for properties and riches, greed, ownership and political gain, those became the norm for making critical decisions. Money, lands, and jurisdiction never should have entered into it. Pride, greed, jealousy, and lording it over others took control of a process that was to be upheld with the purest motives; upheld and protecting the cherished Faith that I passed on to them.

"Nonetheless, I had established a hierarchy, and in some way it needed to be upheld. Tragedy struck when men saw the opportunity to control people, so they could not partake of the sacraments unless they paid tithes and other offerings. The whole doctrine of purification before Heaven was taken to slanderous extremes in order to milk the widows out of their sustenance and court the favor of the rich.

"How disgusting this was to Me!

"This is when Martin Luther brought revolution to the Church--quite naively, since he hadn't see what evil men would do, acting on behalf of Satan, to rob the Church of the most precious Gifts of Faith. All he could see was the abuse. Nonetheless, Clare, I had to maintain a hierarchy of some sort, and there were some honest and righteous men at the helm of the Church at that time.

"They detested the abuses as well, but the more powerful outnumbered them. The Church had seriously gone astray into politics and privilege, allowing kings and queens to dominate church policy for the good of their country. How evil this system was! Oh, how evil it was. Each man was in it for himself, rather than in it for Me or for the little ones I came to save."

You know, guys. When He was relating this to me I thought of The Mission (movie) and how tragic it was with Spain and France over that area of South America. The Mission, and how they slaughtered those children, those natives who had converted and become Christians. Oh, my gosh! That was the most tragic thing. And all of it was over politics and money and land.

The Lord continued, "I am reordering the Church. The order begins in My Heart, with heart-dwelling souls. People who know, love, and honor the desire of My Heart. People who spend hours in My presence, loving and appreciating Me for who I am, not for what they can get from Me.

"Still, I require a hierarchy to My Church. And for this reason, ordination is valid and kept alive.

"Do you understand when, at the Jordan, John said to me, 'It is you who should be baptizing me!'"

And here's the portion of Scripture He's referring to:

At that time Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. But John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me?"

Jesus replied, "Let it be so now. It is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness in this way." Then John permitted Him. Matthew 3:13-15

Okay, so I'm going to step out on the water here. And I'm gonna say that, here was John. Honoring the one that he knew was the Messiah--at least, I think that. Because they were cousins! And Elizabeth and Mary, they knew Who they were giving birth to. How could John NOT know that He was the Messiah?

Or perhaps, he believed that He was the Messiah--but he wasn't positive until he heard from the Lord, and the Lord told him, "The One who My Spirit descends upon is the One."

So, here Jesus comes up to John the Baptist. And I believe that John the Baptist, in his heart, recognized Him but was being very cautious.

In Isaiah 11:1-3 it says:

There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch from his roots shall bear fruit. And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him. (Now, Jesse was King David's father.) And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him. The Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD. And his delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide disputes by what his ears hear. Isaiah 11:1-3

And then, in Isaiah 42: Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations.

And at this point, I want to quote from a site called Models of Eschatology.com

"The Jewish people would be familiar with these promises of the Spirit being on the Messiah, so in order to accept Jesus as the Messiah, they have to know the Spirit of the Lord is upon him."

Interesting! That's the portion of Scripture that He read that day, in Nazareth, that got Him into so much trouble. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me."

Continuing with what this gentleman says:

"That is why all four gospels make a point to mention the Spirit of God descending upon Jesus at His Baptism.

"The Spirit of the Lord needs to come and rest on the Messiah to fulfill his prophecy. John explains the role of the baptism--God's spirit will come upon someone he baptizes--in this process, which tells us the true reason Jesus needs to be baptized. But pay close attention to John's testimony on this matter--even though he recognizes Jesus as someone special, he states twice that he doesn't know who the Messiah is until the Spirit reveals that person."

John 1:31-34 He said, " I myself did not know him, but for this purpose I came baptizing with water, that he might be revealed to Israel." And John bore witness: "I saw the Spirit descend from Heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God."

Jesus continued, "This explains it quite well. There was a certain order to be followed so the Holy Spirit could descend upon Me, bearing witness that I was the Messiah. If I had instead agreed with John and said, 'Of course, I am without sin. So, I will baptize you--there is no reason for Me to be baptized.' If I had done that, Scripture could not have been fulfilled, bearing witness to Me as the Messiah. So, you see, I humbled Myself so the order of Scripture would not be violated by My own human reasoning.

"There is an order to everything, My children. There is an order to My Church, which I honor, and wish for those who love Me to honor, as well. When I breathed upon the disciples, they become Apostles, to be empowered by the descent of The Holy Spirit on Pentecost.

"Now you have put the question to Me, 'Who is authorized to call down My Spirit upon the elements to be transmuted to My Body and My Blood under the appearance of bread and wine?'

"The answer is quite simple. Those who have been ordained, in apostolic succession, are authorized to do this."

Lord, are You saying that only Catholic priests can do this?

"No, I am not saying that. I am saying anyone who has been ordained by an overseer, who himself or herself has been ordained in Apostolic succession.

"There are hundreds of splinter groups, Clare, that have been ordained by those under apostolic succession. Hundreds. Mostly, they are those who have left the Institutions, because of corruption their consciences could no long bear to be under. They are still My priests and My bishops, and in actuality, My Church.

"But then the problem does arise: who has authority to protect doctrine? Until I return, Clare, that is a highly disputed. But I will say this much. Those who adhere to the Scriptures, without adding or subtracting, in My sight are honorable.

"That does not exclude present-day manifestations of My Spirit, since the Body is alive, growing, and animated by God-ordained movements to suit the times and conditions--which are always changing.

"However, My Word is never-changing. It is Eternal. And someday, ALL the fragments will be brought together in ONE Holy Bible.

"But for the matter at hand, about praying over the elements. Do you remember when you and Ezekiel were deceived into thinking that you had been spiritually ordained and were having services?"

Oh...do I! Shame faced... Twenty-two years ago. Yes, I remember.

Ezekiel had received a vision, in which we were told that ordination was confirmed upon Ezekiel in the Spirit. But then, one day after a Mass, the Blessed Mother appeared to Ezekiel and said, "What you are holding in your hand is NOT the true Presence of my Son. The true Presence is in that Church over there."

Wow! Was that a wake-up call for us, or what? So, we repented and mended our ways, going back to the church Mass to receive Jesus.

He continued, "And that event had great significance in your lives, Clare, because it prepared you to uphold the Truth about Ordination--now, in this day.

"I want a remnant, but I want them ordained. The Church would have been in shambles a long time ago if anyone claimed authority that was not conferred upon them through ordination into apostolic succession. As it is, there are many splinter groups, some of which still need correction.

"I am not talking about the Protestants. I am talking about Catholic and Orthodox splinter groups. Those who I have called out of the Hierarchy to preserve the Faith. You and Ezekiel are both of that company. You are both ordained and both bishops in My eyes.

"For the first 3 centuries, woman were ordained and also were the bishops. But then, in Rome, things became distorted and many homosexuals confessed to be converted, but were not. The object back then was to squeeze women out of positions of authority. And the homosexual cult went underground, but still had enormous power in Church politics.

"I am restoring women to their proper places of authority. When I return, I will reorder the Church the way I meant it to be--and the women had a leading role to play. Not usurping male authority, but with their own, delicate, motherly authority. Holy women are highly capable of managing the Church as a family, which is what I first intended.

"But in the meantime, I am making provision for My people to receive Me spiritually. This means that your desire for Me will be fulfilled, even though you do not have the faculties of ordination.

"Which, by the way, I am making available through Clare and Ezekiel."

Oh, Lord, please. Must I tell them that?

"It's about time, wouldn't you say? Mother Clare."

Dear ones, it was never my intention to bring up all these things. Let me explain to you.

I see how you flounder, and am acutely aware that you do not have the grace to get past some weighty habits and obstacles in your lives. I started to see this about 2 months ago, to the point where it was deeply painful. But I had to wait for the Lord to mandate this teaching in His own timing.

And now is His timing.

The two things that have helped me more than anything to overcome my vile and wretched humanity have been the Eucharist--the True Presence of Jesus, the Body and Blood. And intercession, with their example, of the saints. And particularly, Jesus' mothers, and her prayers. Her example of humility and intimate friendship with her Son has made all the difference in my life.

And I know it can do the very same for you, because it has for others.

You see, the Lord has called you to be a Family--not an institution. The very first thing I noted after learning about the Church is that Evangelicals and Protestants tend to have this great big desk between Jesus and the soul. One sitting on the other side. On this desk is THE WORD OF GOD, concordances, translations, all kinds of interpretations--and everything is to be done "by the book."

This, to me, is very off-putting and sterile.

The Early Church approach was a family affair. For one, there was no Bible--only the copies on scrolls of the Old Testament. But there was Jesus, and the men and women together, in a family setting with the disciples and apostles. The house church was the perfect expression of this familial church. And the focus was on love, charity, and obedience.

There was no table with the Scriptures on it, because they hadn't been written. There was authority, yes, but in more of a family setting than an institutional setting.

Thus, Mary played a major role while she was alive, in a mothering manner, sharing with Luke the details of Jesus' life and praying for this group of men. As Jesus by implication said, "Woman, behold your son." to John at the foot of the Cross, implying that she had a motherly role to play with all the Apostles whom John represented.

And her entire life was wrapped around serving the needs of the apostles in prayer and imparting to them what was necessary for them to know about the Lord's life as they wrote the Scriptures. Historically, Luke spent a great deal of time with Mary at Ephesus, as he wrote the gospel of Luke.

I came to realize then that I was not a member of a single-parent family. I have a Father in Heaven--and a Mother, chosen and created by the Father to complete this Heavenly family, as well. My Mother's interest is in seeing me united to Jesus forever, living for Him, victorious over my flesh and pride.

To this end, she is only an intercessor and instructor, in the sense that when you consider her meekness, perseverance, faith, and willingness to give her Son to us to atone for our sins--she made the ultimate sacrifice. Why? Because her heart was perfect towards God the Father, and she only wanted what He wanted.

When you think about it, how could it be any other way? How could the mother of the Messiah be any less of a woman than she is?

Well, at the wedding in Cana, Jesus established her as the intercessor who could sway her Son's heart by just one sigh. At the foot of the Cross, He again designated her as Mother of the Early Church and ratified it by recording in Scripture her presence at crucial events, such as Pentecost.

So, I wanted you to have these gifts, these tools, these helps to holiness--but I had to wait on God's timing to share what I had learned about her role in the Early Church, and the Eucharist's power to transform with Christ's very own DNA.

What I believe the Lord doesn't want for you, is to be under a corrupted, institutional government--that as a matter of fact has now been taken over by Satan. Since the 30's, Communists have infiltrated the Catholic Church at every level. They have dictated certain policies, they have persecuted the saints, they have written educational text books and determined Catholic university curriculum. How serious is that??

And now they are at the point of dissolution--but that is not the Remnant Church. The Lord said, "The gates of Hell shall not prevail against My Church."

We are that remnant--the people who live in God's heart and desire only Truth. We have gone underground, so to speak, to carry forward the beloved Gifts Jesus gave His Church.

And you know, I've struggled with that whole attitude of the Catholic Church, supposedly being the Church that Jesus founded. Until someone sat me down and started reading to me the dates, and the founders of other Churches. Like Martin Luther. Calvin and all these different people who started churches.

They started a church on a certain date and a certain place. But only ONE person started a Church in Jerusalem, A.D. 30. And that was Jesus. So, I understood at that point. Well, that's right. It is His Church - that's true. No matter how bad it looks now. I have to say that the way that Jesus was beaten and scourged is the way His Church looks right now. It's a mess.

A few years after the false priesthood fiasco with Ezekiel, we found a place where he could be ordained in apostolic succession. Now, the night before he was ordained, Ezekiel had a dream. In it was Pope John Paul II in a small underground church, wearing a red-and-black checkered flannel shirt and jeans--along with many Cardinals and other candidates in the room. He was handing out the Missal and the priestly garments. Ezekiel was handed a set of these things. But a cardinal objected, "But he has no training!" And the Pope responded, "We don't have time for training; we have to move now!" That was the end of the dream.

And it's interesting, 'cause Ezekiel had several experiences with the Pope in dreams, that would go on for hours, where they sat and talked and it was really very special.

The next day, a Bishop from the Utrecht Holland lineage, that dates all the way back to Peter at Antioch, came to our house for the ordination. We served in rural areas, where there were many shut-ins and very poor families in New Mexico, that couldn't even make it to Mass.

Of course, the institutional church black-balled us for going independent, but we knew the Lord was in this, so we kept on going. Then, after a few years of service, Ezekiel was made a Bishop and transferred to an Independent Russian Orthodox Bishop, since our Bishop was retiring.

But by this time, we were operating outside the legitimate Roman Institution, and we were what you would call Independent. Several years after his appointment, the Lord spoke to him, to Ezekiel, to ordain me into the priesthood as a "mother" of souls, and also install me as a Bishop.

So, the Lord called us out and back to the Early Church. That was to be our model--the way that Jesus set it up from the beginning. Those first three centuries in the Church were our model for how Jesus wanted to bring the Church out of corruption and into the original purity that He had chosen for her.

My dear ones, I share all of this with you, so you will understand our journey. It's been a LONG one. We are NOT a part of the Roman Catholic institution. We are little nobodies...and more than happy to stay that way. But as far as you and the Eucharist go, let's continue with what Jesus explained to us.

Well I know from past experience that the Catholic and Orthodox teach the ordained priest is the only one who has the anointing to consecrate, because this is the way Jesus ordained the apostles, breathing on them and conferring authority. (see John 20:23)

And in this day and age, there is another requirement: he must truly believe in the transubstantiation in order for it to happen. It has been noted that some of the modern priests do not believe in the Real Presence, in which case Holy Spirit does not transform the elements. Faith must be authentic.

But I want to give you a word here. And I want to say, don't freak out and start questioning if you're priest really believes, because the Lord is making up the difference. Don't fall into that trap. That's a big trap. And it only causes insecurity and division.

So, to confirm that this truly does happen--the transmuting of the bread and the wine--there've been 100's of phenomena where the host begins to bleed real human blood. Other times the host will have another gift...such as an image on it, or a raised area shaped like a heart. We have seen four Eucharistic miracles to date.

Now, I have never seen a miracle of the Eucharist at the hands of a lay person. But I have heard rumor that Heidi Baker, when she prayed over the bread, experienced a miracle where it bled. I was not there and I don't know any of the details. It was told to me, but I have not been able to verify it.

And in other churches, people are accustomed to saying, "I took communion." Or, "I received communion." But when you truly understand what Jesus is imparting to us in the Real Presence, we say, "I received Jesus." What a difference!

But until I see a miracle like that from the words of one not ordained, I would be very cautious to believe that you actually have the True Body and Blood of Jesus.

You remember in previous teachings, in preparation for the Rapture and those who would be left behind without any way to obtain the Body and Blood of Jesus, the Lord gave me a teaching for those who were left behind.

Jesus, I really cannot go any further without You at this point.

He began to speak again, "And My Love, I have explained this before, and nothing that I said then has changed. I am with each and every one of you who wish to enter into the sweetness of communion with Me. This is a time like no other in history. Some of those who are ordained and say they are priests lead double lives and do not believe in My Real Presence--so there can be no transubstantiation. The bread remains bread, and the wine remains wine. How do you know? If you are sensitive to My Presence, you can feel when I am there and when I am not."

I remember back to that time in the Catholic church when I knelt I heard, "I am here." And I knew that Jesus was truly present in the host that was reserved in the tabernacle at the front of that church.

Jesus continued, "Because you were genuinely searching for the Truth, Clare, I revealed My Presence to you. Now you are teaching that Presence to others. But as I said before, these are times like no other. You must know one another and know Me, by the Spirit. You cannot rely on ordination."

"My precious people, how I love you! How I have grieved for you in having lost these gifts I imparted to you throughout My life, and especially at the Last Supper."

"Now you have a decision to make. Do you trust this vessel to tell you the Truth without coloration? Do you trust that I am speaking through her? Trust takes time, and if you have been here for a time, perhaps you have come to trust her.

"But one thing you may undeniably trust is My Word. The Scriptures do not lie, and if you can see the Truth in the Bread of Life discourse and the Last Supper, then you have all the evidence you need.

"But conviction comes from the heart. And I will convict those of you who seek only the Truth. I will convict you, so that you will know I AM with you in the Eucharist. When you receive Me into your body we become One Flesh. When you receive Me, you receive my DNA, and so much more: courage, faith, love, and strength to persevere.

"But when you come to receive Me, please come in utter honesty. Confess to Me your faults and sins and ask to be forgiven and healed. Confess that you believe I AM present, and receive Me, expecting to receive all you need to carry on. Ask it. Draw from Me. Expect Me in faith to equip you. Make demands on My Body and Blood, in faith, to be made whole.

"Please My children. Expect to be healed, expect to find peace, expect to be empowered. I long to give you those gifts, but do not receive Me without faith that you are made whole by My indwelling in you.

"In those moments after communion, linger with Me and expect to hear My voice, see My face, feel My touch. It is at those moments that we are closest in our union with one another. You will receive many breakthroughs and confirmations at that time."

But Lord, what do they do if they don't have a priest to give them communion? Are You telling them to go to the Catholic Church?

Jesus continued, "Children, if you have nowhere to go to receive Me, I am still with you and I honor your desire to receive Me. Graces will be imparted to you according to your faith, if you will receive Me in absolute trust that I am present to you. That does not mean that transubstantiation has taken place; it means that My heart is so enlarged and in love with you, that I wish to give you all the graces you seek, especially the most important--being united with Me.

"If you long with all your heart to be united with Me, I will unite Myself to you in a very special way without the Real Presence. In this time of history, I am giving Myself with abundance for the needs of My people who have been stolen from, and cheated the very substance of Life. Expect Me to be present and to impart graces to you, nonetheless. Receive Me in faith. Say, 'Jesus, I know You are here. I am so deeply in need of You. Please be present to me as I receive communion.'

"I will most surely act on the pure desires of your heart. I promise you that.

"I bless you, My Precious ones. There is so much I have for you, and even in this moment, I am imparting graces of Faith and Discernment to you. Seek Me daily in the communion service, or at Mass, and I will come to you--imparting the graces most needed for the health of your soul."

I Will Make You Fishers of Men

August 20, 2018

Thank You, Jesus, for Your kindness, Your patience and the privilege of being given knowledge of what Your plans for Your Church are in the future. How humbling it is to know Your heart. Please, Lord, give us the grace to follow You with pure hearts--in courage. Amen.

Well, I certainly didn't expect this message! It really came as a surprise. I'll go into it in just a minute, but I was expecting to have to re-define things over and over again for people. But the Lord doesn't have that in mind at all!

Rather than re-defining the last two messages, He's keeping on going. He's just moving along. So... I'm following! That's all I can say.

Jesus began, "Clare, put off your robes of mourning and know that this is a new and a good day, a day with much hope and joy coming to both of you. I know what it looks like, Clare, but you are not to live by sight--but by Faith. What I have told you I will do--and it still stands. I am Faithful, Beloved. I am so faithful.

"Please, believe in Me. Trust Me and walk forward. You have many who are for you on the Channel, and of course, the enemy will attack the little ones, the weak ones. But they are to turn to Me for strength.

"My precious children, what more of Myself can I give you? I have promised you that I am with you in all seasons and circumstances, and I have kept that promise. I am making it simple and easy for you to obtain the graces you so long for.

"I know that some of you took the last message very hard and feel heart-broken, yet this is a misconception of what that message meant. I want you to have the fullness of the Faith. And you are among those who are being prepared to be the foundation of what is to come when I return with you to establish My Kingdom on Earth. You are being trained and prepared for what is to come in the future. In fact, you are beginning to live what will be for all of My people around the world.

"Your foundation is intimacy with Me, and keen discernment about the ways of the enemy. Each one of you have been chosen to remain here with Me, if you so choose, and receive instruction that will ultimately be the renewal of My Church in a way that is simple, pure, and without ulterior motives. Your littleness and desire for Me is what qualifies you."

And just want to take an aside here. When He said, "Each of you have been chosen to remain here with Me." He's not talking about the Rapture! He's talking about the Channel. Okay?

Jesus continued, "I have taken much time to prepare you and Clare for this calling, and I have laid a foundation in your spiritual lives. It is now time to build Truth on that foundation and bring you into the fullness of the Faith I have always intended you to have.

"You may choose to stay or leave, but I have held you in My bosom and fed you with the finest wheat. I have taken particular care to point out to you how the enemy works, so you would be equipped to hold the precious Treasure of Truth in your vessels without losing any of it.

"The enemy is now taking the opportunity to divide you and cause controversy. I have been totally consistent with you, so that you have the tools to discern the lies that he is trying to pry you apart with.

"I promised I would be with you in all situations and supply for your every need. To this end, I taught you to receive communion daily and promised My anointing upon that time.

"I have not in any way let you down; I have been faithful to My Word.

"But I cannot water down My Truth. I must stand on what I have said and what is written to bring the fullness of Faith to you. And I am asking you to be patient with Clare, who has cried many tears that you would understand and be open to what I am bringing you.

"From the very beginning she wanted to share these things with you, but I was not ready. And she had to wait. Which has been very painful for her, because she wanted you to have everything you needed to grow into the fullness of your callings.

"So, now here we stand on this great journey. I have broken the ice and torn the veil. I am showing you the mysteries of your Faith, but I ask you to purify your hearts and let no vestiges of Religious spirits lodge there, causing you to reject what is written. The enemy will attempt to do with you what he did with Martin Luther, and drive you away. But I have prayed for you that your sight would be clear and anointed, that you would discern Truth from lies, that you would be courageous and fend off nay-sayers around you.

"The world thrives on gossip and lies, so I have asked you to avoid worldly news. There is a certain pleasure derived from finding fault with others. It feeds something inside that is seeking to feel more secure in life, stronger and better than others.

"But I have taught you that is poison, and unfortunately My Church has been loaded with poison that has obscured much of the good given her.

"So, now you have a choice: allow the poison to linger in your minds, or reject it and go back to the very beginning, when the Faith was pure and martyrs were common. When people renounced wealth and power to belong to Me. When My Apostles met in modest circumstances and believers flourished in home groups.

"None of My Apostles were learned men, except for the one who betrayed Me. That should tell you something about those I saw as fit and qualified to follow Me and carry the Faith forward. The men I anointed to lead, and chose to be ministers and overseers, did not receive extensive training and seminary educations. None of that was necessary, because the Faith was SIMPLE. Simple enough that a fisherman had no trouble understanding its depths.

"Man is the one who took it upon himself to require education and degrees before one could be ordained. But I trained My Apostles in lessons of love, purity, forgiveness, and simplicity to be foot washers--not prelates sitting on a throne being waited on.

"The requirements I had for ordination were very, very simple. Love Me with all your heart, your strength and mind, and love your neighbor as yourself. Be willing to give up all for Me. Be willing to die for Me. Be willing to go without for Me. And handle the ewes and lambs with great tenderness and reverence--for in truth, I live inside of them, and you are touching My very own Body.

"I taught you to beware of marks of honor, long flowing robes, and elaborate vestments that was the norm of the day for religious leaders. I taught you by My life, from birth in a manger--to death on a cross, to be stripped of all earthly significance in order to care for the flock.

"This is what I intended My priests to be. Not worldly, lettered men driven by greed and power. This is where we are going if you are willing to come with Me. There is no glory in it whatsoever... Nor do I ever wish for it to be that way again.

"So, you see... many of you, both men and women, are well qualified to feed the sheep, tend to the ewes and lambs and set the example of simplicity for others to follow. If you hear My voice today, do not harden your hearts, but respond as My mother did, 'Be it unto me according to Your will.'

"And please do not enter into arguments with anyone who wishes to debate. Your lives are based on intimacy with Me. You know My heart, My voice. And for those who wish to argue--it is fruitless and a waste of precious time. No good can come from it. Let them dispute and criticize and dissect.

"But you--love and follow Me in simplicity and I will make you fishers of men."

The Swords Given to Heart Dwellers

August 22, 2018

Thank You, Jesus, for these powerful weapons entrusted to us. Please teach us how to do battle with them.

Heartdwellers, the Lord wants you to have more information on the swords. They got lost in the middle of the other messages, so I wanted to take a moment with them. I've had some feedback on other people trying them, and they're very powerful.

Lord, please help us to understand these swords and how to use them.

Jesus began, "Well, since you asked, they are very powerful weapons against your powerful enemies. I have made it no secret to you that if you are on this Channel, you are getting cursed for being here. Satan hates Christians, but he particularly hates those who teach on knowing Me intimately, knowing and dwelling in My Heart, and My Bride."

"Dear ones, you cannot afford to be lax in spiritual warfare. Clare hates it, but it must be done."

Boy - I really do!

"You must protect your gifts, your family, and all your rights. I have taught you that first and foremost comes personal holiness, and that is your greatest protection."

And I just want to take an aside here and mention. Not only that, but also giving charity. Taking care of others. Donating your time or your resources is HUGE with the Lord. And there are so many Scriptures that talk about those who take care of others. Those who are generous. Look after the poor. That those will be protected sovereignly by the Lord. And He is continually reminding me of that.

Jesus continued, "But you must also fight the good fight. Because of the increase in persecution and attacks on this Channel, I have given you new graces, new weapons, and an increase in power to wield them."

"Now, I want you to understand that these swords will accomplish a great deal. The first is a Routing sword. Used to deliver you from demonic infestations, it is a warfare sword and resides on your right shoulder. Use this to behead and cut to pieces all demons coming after you. It is a very powerful weapon, but it must be used with conviction and resolve. In other words, believe I have given you a powerful weapon and use it strong and steadfast in that belief. It will do tremendous damage to the enemy."

"The other sword, which stays on your left shoulder when you are not using it, is for Discernment and Truth."

And I had seen these swords in scabbards, on the left and right shoulder. Ezekiel has been using these for a very long time. And then they were given to me. And then the Lord gave them to all the Heartdwellers, because we really are under attack, and we need all the help we can get!

"Bless your Bibles," Jesus continued, "and books with this before you go for a Rhema."

So, take your Discernment and Truth sword, and bless your Bible, your books, and even before you click for a Rhema on the Internet, bless your computer.

He continued, "Bless your computer and the Rhema page before you click on it. When discerning a situation, brandish your sword in a circle around your head and say, 'In the name of Jesus the Christ, every unclean spirit LEAVE and do not return.' This will help with the enemy's tricks."

And I want to mention here, that I wasn't too clear on exactly how He wanted you to say it. I think that I got that right, but I'm in the habit of doing that. I used to say, "In the Name of Jesus." But it came into my head that there are many people named Jesus. And... I thought, I really... I would feel a lot more secure if I could clarify this, and tell them WHICH Jesus. "Every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord."

So, forgive me for putting my own spin on this. I'm just not really sure how He said it. And part of it, for me, is habit. And He'll give me an idea. He'll give me the idea and then He'll allow me to use my own words to explain it to you. So, sometimes it's very difficult to discern what HE is saying, exactly. And what I would normally say, if I had that thought.

Okay. Lord, should they bless their computers in the name of the Trinity: the Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

"Yes, this is a very good practice. But say it with conviction, meditating upon us. Do not say it hastily or without conviction. When you invoke Our Names, We Are Present to you, right there. But it must be done with conviction. Mindfully."

Dear ones, I have seen many things change using this Triune Blessing. St. Antony of the Desert, Father of Monasticism, going aside to live in the wilderness to be alone with the Lord. St. Antony used the Triune blessing. And that's how he got rid of demons. Just simply making the sign of the Cross and saying it mindfully.

Also, St. Francis of Assisi got rid of demons in the exact same way. So, it is a very powerful weapon. But it needs to be done mindfully, with conviction. Ezekiel has blessed my computer and equipment, and it comes back online and does what it's supposed to do. I've seen cars start that had refused to start for hours. I've seen wind stops, floods stop, computers start to function correctly. Or something pops into my mind on what I'm doing wrong, why my computer isn't functioning the right way...all kinds of amazing things happen. It is a powerful habit to get into, especially when you suspect demonic interference.

And the way things have been lately? I just assume that that's where it's coming from. And of course, if it responds to a blessing and leaves, then you know for sure that was the source.

Jesus continued, "My children, I want you to use these swords every single day. Why? Because every single day there are assignments on you, there are seals on you, and coverings that you must rip off and take authority.

"Some of the curses you have been suffering with are in the form of blocks, seals, energy curtains between you and I. Yes, they cover you with their weapons in the form of energy fields and make it harder for you to connect with Me.

"They feed you lies 24/7 about how unworthy you are to hear and see Me. Be assured that if you wield the swords correctly, those will be broken and ripped off.

"Do it with conviction and disgust, for these things are disgusting to Me.

"The third dynamic you may use with these swords is to cross them over an area of the body that needs healing. 'In the Name of Jesus Christ, Spirit of Infirmity, leave this body now and do not return.' You may also pray against them sending in reinforcements.

"There is no one formula that works every time. Demons are like a virus; they continue to mutate to get around these prayers. You must be alert and aware of what they are trying to do.

"For instance, if they try to come back, you have to forbid them. Many of you have lost healings by receiving lying symptoms back into your bodies after I have cleansed it and delivered you. Lying symptoms, if you go into agreement with them, open the door for disease to return. RESIST them with solid conviction and the sword.

"Much of the power of these swords depends upon YOU using them correctly, with conviction. Ask Holy Spirit to instruct you, to open your eyes. Take your time, and rest, so that your head can be cleared to see what is going on in the spirit. Ask for these graces, My children, you need them. Ask for them. And keep on asking. Ask until you are satisfied and moving in the fullness of what I have given you.

"Pray also in the Spirit. Pray much in the Spirit. If you are blocked in speaking in tongues, use the Routing sword. Press in, do not give up.

"I am releasing great healing gifts for a Revival--but so much depends on your faith and perseverance. Will you persevere? Will you continue to contend? Will you, with all your heart, believe that I have given you these swords--and their power is limited only by your belief in Me, My faithfulness, My Almighty power to overcome all the powers of darkness?

"Invest yourself in these swords. Put the demand on them. I love to see your faith stretch. I love to see you contend and not settle for second-best or nothing at all. Ask Me to help your courage and faith, and will.

"And always, it is good to pull away from earthly consolations, like foods you love, or eating so much you feel heavy. Eat a little less at each meal--that is a sacrifice that I will gladly honor. To pull away from carnal pleasures is to draw nearer to the spiritual realities. I AM with you.

"Be courageous and take these pitiful creatures down. Many times what you see, or think you see, is nothing more than an inflated balloon. Behind it is a filthy stick figure no bigger than a monkey. You have the anointing and the power. Use it!!!"

Wow. We have seen some amazing things with these swords, Family. I encourage you to really invest yourself in using them and expect results. Sometimes we have to repeat an action to finish it off, so don't give up. The more you insist, the greater force is aimed at these creatures and the more damage done to them.

I see the swords in the spirit. They are hot with flames coming off both edges. I hear the crackling of electricity and the buzz of a wire shorting out. But this is NOTHING like a wire shorting out! It's more like...a HUGE conduit of electricity shorting out. Buzzing. LOUD! Powerful. A deep sound.

I see the energy flowing off the tips like a laser stick. At first, I thought the blades were stainless steel, and then the Lord said the blades are silver. Solid silver. And the fire is golden.

When it strikes its target, I hear the same kind of sound you hear with a bug zapper--except more of a low drone, and a very powerful sound that burns up anything it gets near.

We have known for quite a while that the demon-aliens have an electronic power that they use against people, and even their own kind. This is the same kind of power, but much more concentrated, in order to overcome them. No one or no thing wants to be touched by these. This power ignites the moment you remove them from your scabbard. The Lord is showing me right now that they naturally gravitate to evil, just like a dowsing rod gravitates to water.

Jesus said, "Use them, and come back here to report how on they worked for you. I am investing graces in you now, as you hear this message, Heartdwellers. Graces to help you fight. I am tired of seeing you beat up and stolen from. You have every right to go for the enemy, do him in, and put him on the run.

"Let the Mother and Father inside you rise up and defend your rights, your territory, your loved ones, your teachers and friends. Rise up!!"

Ohh! Well, that's quite a message!

And I want to take the time to mention that I spent quite a bit of time answering questions on the communion messages, and the last three messages. So, if you still have questions, you might want to look at the answers on that page. There's quite a bit of information in them.

And I also want to thank those of you who have been faithful to contribute to the mission. You really keep us going! I know many of you have children and had to buy new clothing and school supplies this last month. And we had poor families that we were able to help out.

Also. One of our Heartdwellers is in the hospital with blood poisoning. Actually, it's a condition where bile is pouring into her body. Very serious, and she's very, very sick. Her husband works for the sanitation department. And we were very concerned for him--he's been out of work for two weeks, taking care of her. Going back and forth to the hospital, which is about 70 miles from here. So, we were able to help him out, because he didn't get a paycheck for those weeks, and he no way to pay his bills.

That kind of thing is so common here. I want to tell you, it's something we talk about a lot. But I wanted you to know that, whenever we have covered our salaries, we use the rest of that money to help people. And the Lord is constantly on me to be looking for people that need help.

I also want to make a note that we are very, very low on donations right now. So, any of you who are able to help us, it would be greatly appreciated and needed. You took VERY good care of us during the Summer. And I can't thank you enough. And we've been hearing reports back about people coming into shelters for the trafficked women. One mother and child that was being used for trafficking/child pornography got away and got into the shelter. And she's getting a vocation. She's being taught living skills. She's getting medical treatment for teeth and her little boy. It's amazing, really, how these people are, that take care of them. And we want to do as much as we can to support them.

So, that's where anything over what you give us. That's where it goes. And also to Nicaragua. We're very concerned for the handicapped poor in Nicaragua that have absolutely no-one to turn to.

So, I hate being without anything to share, and we're down to it right now. Thank you again for your faithfulness. And know that your gifts are shared with the poor. And we deeply appreciate your support. I couldn't do what I'm doing now if it weren't for your generosity.

The Lord bless you, Heartdwellers. Use your swords! And come back and tell us about it. Amen.

Have You Felt Stripped and Fruitless?

August 25, 2018

Jesus, we thank you for giving us a history of holy men and women who, living in the Cloud now, are cheering us on as we discover their saintly examples. Thank you so much, Lord, for this beautiful gift.

Well, dear ones, in the thick of difficulties and heavy intercessory burdens, I wondered: 'What possible good could come from the many losses some have been suffering?'

I looked at my husband, who was up and about working on music, and felt badly for all the weight he had lost. Even though he is now gaining weight, he also lost a lot of hair and has aged a good 10-15 years. I wondered, 'Lord, he looks so weak and beaten down. Will he ever have glowing health again?'

And of course, not knowing what kind of mountains were being moved for our President, I wondered: 'Is there any fruit from all this suffering?' And I struggled, growing very weary of insurmountable difficulties every day, making it impossible for me to get to the keyboard or sing.

I'm sure you guys can relate.

It was about three days ago that I picked up one of my ancient rhema cards...something I had written on an index card over 20 years ago. It was on the mountain in the wilderness with us for six years, and wherever we went, we took our Rhema cards.

And that day the Lord brought it forth--three days ago. But before I tell you what it said, I want to share this little story from the life of St. Francis of Assisi.

Francis traveled to Rieti to bring the Gospel to the people. And as he approached the city, a great multitude of people came forth to meet him, so that he was not able to enter. So, he went to a church that was two miles from town, instead.

When the citizens heard that he was at the church, they ran to catch up with him in such numbers that the vineyard of the church was utterly despoiled and all the grapes were plucked. When the priest saw that, he was sorely grieved in his heart, and repented that he had received St. Francis in his church.

Now, as he was thinking these things, his thoughts were being revealed by God to St. Francis, who called him aside and said, "Dearest father. How many measure of wine does this yield in a year when the yield is at its highest?"

The priest answered, "Twelve measures."

St Francis replied, "Please, father, suffer me patiently to come here for a few days, for I find much rest here; and for the love of God and of me--poor little one, let every man gather grapes from your vineyard and I promise you, in the Name of My Lord Jesus Christ, that every year your vineyard shall yield twenty measures of wine."

And St. Francis tarried there, because of the great harvest of souls gathered from the folk that came to see him. Many departed inebriated with divine love and forsook the world.

The priest had faith in the promise of St. Francis, and surrendered the vineyard freely to those who came, and it was all wasted and stripped so that barely a bunch of grapes remained.

Marvelous to tell, the vintage season came, and the priest gathered the few bunches that were left and cast them into the wine press and treaded them. And according to the promise of St. Francis, he harvested twenty measures of excellent wine. Christian folk, barren of virtue through sin, repented and abounded in good fruit, through the teaching of St. Francis.

And that's the end of the story.

So, on this day when I was feeling stripped and fruitless--three days ago--I was inspired to pull that rhema card from a little box in the corner. And this is what it said, "The stripped vineyard." Omnibus of Sources, page 1355.

Well, I didn't have to look it up to know what it meant--it just hit me. Immediately, I understood the Lord to be saying He will gather much fruit from these offerings, and what I thought would be my loss will instead be an abundance.

So, that's a beautiful way that the Lord is encouraging us to allow our vineyards to be stripped, you know? Seeing my husband, sick as he was. That's a very stripping experience. And knowing that he had to build his health back up very slowly. It's just difficult.

And time that's been lost. You know, when I haven't been able to get to music as I should. Part of it's my fault, and part of it's just circumstances. And those times are very frustrating and hard for me. But they were a suffering! And I feel and believe in my heart that the Lord is saying, 'Just be patient. Your time's coming. It's coming. And there's going to be abundance!'

Well, as if that weren't enough of a wonderful word, I was inspired to pick up Love Letters To My Bride and open at random. Here is the wonderful message He followed up with. I remember hearing a question on the Channel: How do you lose grace?

Well, it was also explained in this message, so I thought I'd post that, as well.

It comes from the message: Jesus' Perceptible and Manifest Presence is With You, April 27th, 2015

It begins: I had been nervous all day that I wouldn't get a message today, and I was dead-dog tired and I thought, 'Oh, my gosh, how's the Lord going to get anything to me in this state? But He was very sweet and accommodating, as He always is.

As soon as I saw Him tonight in prayer, while I was worshipping, He said: "Clare, not for one moment have I left you. You have done nothing to deserve that. The enemy is lying to you. Besides, didn't I tell you, it's not based on your performance but on My faithfulness to keep My word? Hmm?"

Well, You're here talking with me, Lord...and that's wonderful.

"I am.

"My very small and fragile child, don't you know you have no righteousness of your own, but all has been given to you? And if you contain it, you will grow in holiness?"

"You see, I visit each of My Brides with graces. And most receive them, but very few continue to contain them or multiply them. I visit with grace and I visit with adversity. It is usually during adversity that graces are lost."

But what about those times of victory when the devils sift us and try to take away what we've had?

"That, too, is an opportunity to lose grace. It can go either way. One way to lose is immediately following a victory. The other is during adversity. When My Bride does not receive the challenges and tests that I give her, she loses grace. When she becomes self-assured after a victory, she can lose grace.

"It is a matter of clinging to Me or wandering off on your own, in your own will.

"This is why I am so very strict with you to stay in My will at all times. I want you to contain the treasure I give you, so that you may lavish it on souls. But if the living waters leak out before you get to them, then your pitcher is empty. You know what that feels like, when that pitcher is empty, don't you?"

Oh, yes, Lord. It is very sad. It's hard to see others suffering and not having any way to help them. Even lately, Lord, people come to me with questions for You and I don't feel competent to answer them, or to ask You.

"You have asked Me for this competency, and it is on the way. But your role in the Body is more important than answering questions. I don't ever want you bogged down doing that. I want you to teach them how to get their own answers, Clare. This is far more important and vital to Me.

Jesus continued, "Oh, Dear ones, do not burden her with your questions! Seek Me and I will answer your questions. All of you who have been following Me closely through this vessel, are so close to breakthroughs in hearing and seeing Me.

"Persevere! Don't grow weary and don't give in to unbelief or discouragement. Those are your worst enemies. May I say laziness is part of the problem? You must press in. Those who seek Me with their whole hearts, they shall find Me. Seek Me and live the life that I promised you--the abundant life of communion with Me, righteousness, peace and joy. The fruits of fellowship with Me. Confidence, courage, growth in charity, and humility. These are the sweet flavors of the grapes that abide in the vine.

"Bitterness, rancor, flatness--those are the grapes that are produced without the nourishment of the True Vine. As I live in you and you live in Me, the grapes we produce together are bursting with nourishment and flavor. It is a cooperative venture: My hands work through your hands. My feet walk through your feet. My heart beats through your heart and all that is Godly and seems impossible to you comes into fruition. All that has previously been out of your reach is now a natural fact, flowing out to other souls who are hungry and thirsty for Me.

"When you begin to see these rewards: the cultivation of new ground, the planting of new seed, the harvesting of new fruit--rejoice greatly, for great is your reward in Heaven.

"I have longed for cooperative ventures with My Body, but so few have the faith and stamina to continue to believe even when the ground seems hard and barren."

Yeah... Like the American political scene.

"That is why perseverance is so very necessary. When you labor with Me, you will not always see results immediately, but you will feel a deep satisfaction that together we have plowed and planted, and by faith there will be a harvest."

Okay, now He is addressing my present state of mind.

"Each day is a new opportunity to co-labor with Me. It is your unflagging Love for Me that keeps you coming back, day after day, to apply the fertilizer, cultivate the ground. Expect the harvest, knowing that nothing you do for Me is in vain; all will bring forth fruit in its season.

"So, don't grow weary. Even at this late hour, expect the joyful harvest, expect the plump grapes and fine Wine. All these are coming if you continue in your appointed jobs and do not grow weary with the tasks at hand."

And that's where that part of the message stopped.

Well, I especially want to thank all of you who were able to donate to the Channel. You gave us much needed relief to cover salaries and even donate to Nicaragua. So, thank you so much, Dear ones, for your faithfulness and great kindness in caring for us sweet. You're a precious Family.

It must not be by coincidence that I have felt the prompting to ask you to pray for our music. I have some songs already to produce, but again, I am stretched for time. Would you please pray that I can set aside time to work on these songs, and also for Ezekiel, to regain his strength and momentum in music?

In prayer, he is wonderful. He has plenty of prayer time, and some of it is flat on his back! But, you know, he seems to be coming out of a season of heavy intercession, right now. But we really need your prayers. His voice has gotten very hoarse. I think it's probably from all the crying out he did during those painful times, and he is still a bit shaky and weak. He is exercising though, and resolute about getting back up.

For me, I need help with the keyboard, to get my fingers back and sing with a heart full of love for Our Jesus. And since I was going to ask for your prayers, this just happened to be in the same message. What an amazing message! Three different things addressed, and all three of them have been on my heart and mind!

Jesus began, "One more thing I would like My Brides to know. I have honored your prayers for Clare. I have laid up for you a storehouse of rewards for lifting her up so she could keep going. Whenever you pray for a minister, in Heaven you will reap that minister's rewards. You will say to Me, 'Where did that come from, I didn't do that?' And I will say to you, 'You prayed for that servant, and therefore you share in the reward.'

"It is a mystery, but not one thought, not one intention goes unrewarded before Me. I see the hidden things of the heart. I see the love and the care. And I reward you for what I see.

"I bless you, My Brides, with the abundant life of My presence, My perceptible presence in your midst. It is My joy to be with you and even a greater joy when you recognize My workings in your midst. We are as One."

Wow. That's a really sweet message. And you know, one of the songs that I want to work on and start singing is all about our recognizing His presence in prayer. And recognizing His voice.

So, pray for us, please? And I'm going to expect great graces to be coming our way, so we can really get on our way with music. Because that is to play a major role in our lives in the near future.

Thank you, Heartdwellers. I love you all very dearly.

And I bless our enemies, and I know you're going to use this message against us. But I want you to know that we still bless you. And we pray for you. And we hope someday to see you converted and with the Lord, in a place where we can all rejoice together.

God bless you.

Pray Against Suicides and Use the Rosary

August 27, 2018

Lord, please give us your heart for these under prosecution, that we may pray with fervor for them. Amen.

Heartdwellers, I want to share with you the Lord's heart this day, and continuing on, until our nation has been fully cleansed.

But right now, it is of the utmost importance that the suicides stop. This past week, John McCain died. And we believe it was suicide and not a natural death, because Carol had been led to pray against a spirit of suicide for him all week.

There are so many that would rather die than be exposed and prosecuted. They think their lives are over and now they should go to their reward with Satan. But as you and I all know, there IS no reward with him, only eternal torment.

And what this first group does will influence how all the others handle their situations. God wants to give them new life. He wants them to repent and turn to Him for forgiveness before they die, so He can give them a place in Heaven. So, the many under indictment that are watching how their higher-ups are handling their situations will follow suit--and this is the worst thing that can happen.

The Lord wants them to turn back to Him. He wants them in Heaven with Him, returned to the Father. He wants them to face what they did and repent before the nation, and He will receive them into the everlasting abode of Heaven.

So, He is calling us to pray for them. And to this end, He has sent His best intercessor to work with these souls as they plot their course.

During prayer this morning, I had a vision of the Mother of Jesus--Mary-- hovering above the capitol rotunda. She was surrounded by angels. And there were other angels, coming and going with great activity. It was a very busy time.

So, I asked, "Lord, who are these angels, and what are they doing?"

Jesus began, "I have sent My Mother, the one with the most tender heart among mankind, with My angels. I have asked her to help these men and women see what they have done and repent, bringing forth public apologies and turning to Me for forgiveness."

"They will receive the message much better from her than from a man, because most of them have had horrible relationships with their fathers and have formed an image of Me in their minds that is totally false."

"So, I have sent her as My Ambassador of Repentance, through the power of the Holy Spirit, that these might at least be spared the fires of Eternal torment. And the way in which the first ones go has a strong effect on what the others will do.

"Clare, she is My Ambassador of Mercy to these men under indictment.

"I wish for all of you to pray for them, and even ask My Mother to pray for them, because her prayers are still the most powerful among creation. She who formed Me in her womb, brought Me forth, and suffered the prophecies of how I would be given up to die. She who faithfully stood by My side and offered the dearest thing in her life for sinners. And she who has moved the heart of the Father countless times when there was no other hope.

"Just as at the wedding at Cana, so even now, it is her footsteps in the Throne Room that bring My Father to tears--and He simply cannot deny her heart's desire.

"And that is why Satan hates her so vehemently. He knows that if she steps in at the last moment, he will lose that soul that he worked so hard to bring to Hell. On this account, he has twisted and perverted her role to all Christians, so they would shun her and not enlist her prayers.

"Satan has a counterfeit for everything--even a wicked queen of Heaven, who he invented to bring My Mother to shame among the nations.

"But nothing shall defile this pure vessel. No man can do this, he only defiles himself.

"So, I am indeed asking you to request her intercession for those who are going to be arrested. I have given this task into her jurisdiction.

"And as far as prayer goes, not only her. But I am asking you to notify all your intercessors and prayer warriors, that thousands of souls are at stake right now, because of what is about to take place.

"Heartdwellers, I want you to handle this differently, so you are not in your flesh. Rather than gloating over these, as if you were free of sin, I want you to be weeping over these and begging My Father for mercy."

Lord, how should we ask for your mother's intercession?

"The same way you would call a friend and ask them to pray. She has the gift of hearing simultaneous requests, through her union with the Holy Spirit, as many in Heaven do.

"For others of you, I would like you to learn the Rosary, because it is a declaration of Scripture, as well as a meditation on the events of My life coupled with a petition for prayer. Any time you incorporate Scripture into your prayers, they become much more powerful. There are other factors which make it a perfect prayer. It engages the senses of touch, speech, hearing. And engages a soul in such a way that brings the entire person into heart-felt petition."

Lord, what about the repetitions? Doesn't the Bible say not to pray with vain repetitions?

"There is nothing vain about praying the Scriptures, Clare. And as far as repetition goes, how many times do you say 'holy, holy, holy, Lord'?"

"The Pagans used mantras to all of their gods and made a great show of that. This is entirely different. In the Rosary, you are meditating on the mysteries of My life and even applying them to your own situation, while declaring Scripture and asking for prayer.

"But there is a correct way to pray the Rosary. Slowly, with great focus on a mystery from My life. Repeating the angelic salutation to My Mother is a constant reminder of her lofty stature among all of My Creation. 'Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death.'

"Just to be clear, she is not the Creator--she is a creation. But I cannot be separated from My Spirit or My Father, so being called the Mother of God is not a reference to her as the Creator, but a reflection on the oneness of the Trinity, and the fact that I am fully man--and fully God.

"In any case, whether you ask My Mother for her prayers, or your friends for prayers, or you go it alone--pray for these who are contemplating taking their lives.

"And to those of you who think suicide is your way out of punishment: think again. I know your deeds, the depth of your wickedness and betrayals, the clean face you present-- which has only been a mask to hide the intrigues and deceits, cruel and deadly to the millions who put their trust in you. Nevertheless, I still love you, and do not wish for you to go the way of your predecessors--down to the bowels of Hell.

"I am pleading with you to repent for your deeds. I have always loved you from the beginning, but you have believed lies about Me and chosen the evil ways of man. Yet, My heart longs to have compassion on you.

"Suicide is not your answer, it is the sealing of your fate in the lake of fire with Satan. It is the example you set for your children, the path of a coward, rather than be exposed and forgiven.

"While there is yet life in you, I am sending My Mother, an Ambassador of tenderness, to help you come to terms with your sin and stand before the people and accept your punishment.

"Much good can come from your confession of wrong-doing; your breakdown before those you have offended can save your soul. Do not choose the path of suicide, it is a dead end. Rather, see what you have done and be sorry for your sins. I do not wish for you to go to Hell, even though you have made life a living hell for so many. Rather, I wish for you to repent.

"Come back to Me, let Me lead you into a new life.

"Yes, there is new life for you; all is not ended and hopeless. There is new life--but it is not in Hell. Satan has done to you what you have done to others. He has taught you to lie, and you've spent your entire life lying to cover over what you were really doing.

"Do you really think... I mean honestly--with all due intelligence. Do you really think Satan is capable of anything but evil? Any truth he has told you was only to keep you working for him. He is full of destruction and deceit and he will do it to you, just as you have done to others.

"You still have the breath of life in you. It is not too late. Acknowledge your sins, weep and wail, ask for forgiveness and it will be given. And if your punishment is to die, you will at least have the opportunity for a new life in Heaven.

"Don't be fooled. Satan has nothing stored up for you but torment. All he has shown you and promised you was a vapor. No such things exist in Hell. Nothing but hatred, violence, bitterness and torment exist in Hell. How can there be anything delightful in Hell?

"Your reward is torment, fire, ice, and layers of skin burnt and ripped again and again, only to grow back and be done again. This is the Utopia he has promised you. Even his demons are now licking their chops in anticipation of your arrival.

"I will forgive and give you eternal life. And he will give you eternal torment. Choose wisely. Reconsider. Can anything good come from this master of torment and deceit?

"Come back to Me before it is too late."

The Fate of a Traitor

August 28, 2018

Lord, Your ways are inscrutable. Help us to pray for those who refuse to repent for their crimes against our nation, that they don't end in hell.

Dear ones, I was just given a bit of information I thought would help you understand the things which are seemingly hidden. We've been waiting for conviction and prosecution of the traitors. Yet it is with a heavy heart that we let them go their own ways.

In actuality, I believe we are praying for them to repent before execution. And I want to read a story to you of a war hero from Hitler's Germany.

Erwin Rommel was a highly decorated officer in World War I, and was decorated for his actions on the Italian front. In 1937, he published his classic book on military tactics, Infantry Tactics, drawing on his experiences from WWI. In WWII, he distinguished himself as the Commander of the 7th Panzer Division during the 1940 invasion of France. His leadership of German and Italian forces in North Africa established his reputation as one of the most able tank Commanders of the War. And it earned him the nickname 'The Desert Fox'.

Among his British adversaries, he earned a strong reputation for chivalry, and the North African Campaign is often called A War Without Hate. He later commanded the German forces opposing the Allied cross-channel invasion of Normandy in June of 1944.

Rommel supported the Nazi seizure of power and Adolf Hitler, although his reluctant stance towards anti-Semitism, Nazi ideology, and level of knowledge of the Holocaust remain a matter of debate amongst scholars.

It was discovered that he was part of a plot to kill Hitler, but the secret tribunal under which he was prosecuted and found guilty was hidden from people, because of the possible public outcry. So, he was given a choice. Suicide--or be exposed. Executed and stripped of all benefits for his family.

He chose suicide in the form of a lethal dose of cyanide. After his death, he was hailed as a hero, given a state funeral, and his family was fully supported.

The story was circulated that he had succumbed to injuries in the battlefield.

This week, Q posted a hint that there were going to be suicides. I'll leave the rest to your own intelligence to consider what this might have meant. We need to pray with all our hearts that those who are coming under conviction will repent of their sins. And be added to the Kingdom of God before it is too late.

Pray, pray, pray for those who stand to be convicted.

Kim Clement's Prophecy About Blessed Mother & America

August 28, 2018

Thank you, Lord, for the confirmation of Your mother's role in restoring America. Help us, please, to set aside our knee-jerk reactions and be open to the workings of Heaven on Earth. Amen.

This is REALLY exciting, Heartdwellers. Really exciting. I didn't expect to get any kind of a confirmation on this from the Lord. And I'm just delighted to see it!

One of our intercessors brought forth a Kim Clement prophecy that talks about the Mother of Jesus being instrumental in turning the government around. She brought this up, because I saw Mary sitting on a throne over the Capitol Rotunda.

Please! Let's not get upset about thrones... I believe all the faithful in Heaven have some sort of throne to correspond to their crowns!

Anyway, she was very busy, surrounded by angels coming and going on assignment from her. Then Jesus told me that she had been given jurisdiction over this process of restoring America.

And she'd also been entrusted with graces and angels to help her in this work. So, here is the Kim Clement prophecy of Blessed Mary and Trump on 3/25/11.

So, this is The Feast of the Annunciation that Kim was given this prophecy. And this feast day is celebrated by the Eastern Christians, the Orthodox, and the Roman Catholics.

And this is a little snippet from the Scriptures.

And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

And the angel came in unto her, and said, "Hail, thou that are highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women."

(That's the Rosary prayer, by the way.)

And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said unto her, "Fear not, Mary: for you have found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus.

"He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end."

Then said Mary unto the angel, "How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?"

And the angel answered and said unto her, "The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God."

And Mary said, "Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word." And the angel departed from her. Luke 1:26-38 The first Chapter

Kim begins here,

And just like Esther interceded for her people, so will Our Lady for her children of America. The Restoration of America. I see a president that shall come, and this is not to speak bad about this one. "THERE IS A PRESIDENT WHO WILL COME. AND GOD SAYS, 'HE WILL HAVE ABSOLUTELY NO FEAR - ABSOLUTELY NO FEAR. HE WILL BE DECISIVE, HE WILL MAKE DECISIONS.

And then in the middle of the restoration of America--rapidly--because of a source of energy that shall come quickly, and because of medical breakthroughs, and because of agreements between nations (specifically China), God said, "They shall say, 'We never dreamed this would happen. They said that 'this in Japan would never happen.'"

God says, "Listen to Me. As the beginning of the restoration, as it begins, THERE SHALL BE A WOMAN THAT SHALL RISE UP--A WOMAN THAT SHALL BE STRONG IN FAITH; VIRTUOUS. BEAUTIFUL IN EYES. Her eyes shall be so beautiful. Her eyes shall be round and big. I have crowned her," says the Lord, "as I crowned Esther. And the people shall receive her. She shall have the oil of gladness for the pain and the mourning that has taken place, and she shall pour out the oil."

(Is there some oil here, please?, he asked.) "She shall pour out the oil on this nation. And," God says, "healing shall begin, and then it shall flow rapidly. Schools will be free from potential damage and danger, shootings and murder, drug addiction. Cartels shall be afraid of a woman--a woman anointed by God; a woman set aside."

And God says, "They will say, 'WE HATED HER, BUT NOW WE LOVE HER.' For she shall take the oil of healing and she shall pour it upon the scars of those left and those right and of the new party that has come forth and emerged, where they shall say, 'Christ will reign and we shall not implement socialism at all.' Where they have said, 'We will make history without God.'

"No, you will not. No, you will not," says the Lord. "For I chose this nation before it was founded; before anybody came here, I chose this entire nation--all fifty states, every one of them, to send My Gospel to the entire Earth. Do you think I have changed My mind? Therefore, the healing that is necessary for this nation shall come at a time in the middle of the presidency."

"There shall be a woman that shall come, and," God said, "there shall be oil that shall be poured upon the nation, and they shall suddenly feel the healing, and they shall say, 'It is well with my soul, it is well with our soul.' For the soul of America has been corrupted; the soul of this nation has been corrupted with bitterness and anger."

And God said, "She shall say, 'No more bitterness, no more anger, no more division,' and she'll pour the oil that shall come from the Spirit of the Lord Himself."

If you as a nation believe, if you as a nation want this, lift your voice and shout one more time and say, "Yes! Yes, to Esther! Yes, to Esther! Yes, to Esther!"

Wow! That is just amazing!! What an amazing prophecy!

And he even calls her Our Lady! Nobody else has that title. That is her title. How very beautiful.

And on the Rotunda, where she was sitting on the throne, and the Lord had told me before that He had armed her with graces. And angels. To bring forth His will on Earth. It's beautiful, just beautiful.

So, there's a confirmation. She has been crowned by the Holy Trinity because she has been faithful with littler things. And so, she's been given great things.

And you might want to pay attention to what's going on in Africa and Viet Nam and different places where she is manifesting. And there are healings and conversions.

To share with you, when we were in the Roman Catholic Church, before we left, we had a rosary group that we prayed, and she would manifest herself during the group. I would see her. Several other people would see her. And in fact, we wrote a book. I finished it the very night of 9/11, before 9/11 happened. I finished the book HOURS before 9/11 happened. And it's called A Hope in Winter Comes. I have not published it yet. But I will, and make it available to you if you're interested.

She opens... She opens in the visions--the first vision--she's holding the Scriptures and is fanning through them, and golden light is coming off of them. And she's talking about the majesty and the beauty of the Scriptures, and that they are God's promises to His people. Beautiful. It's beautiful, the lessons that came forth from her.

So. I came to the Lord after all this talking on the Internet, trying to explain to people exactly what I was saying. What the Lord meant. And I was weary. I was really weary. And I told Him, "Lord, I just don't know what else to say? I've defended what You've given me the best as I know how. And there's still others that don't get it."

And Jesus began, "When you meet with resistance, kindly and gently inform, and leave the rest to Me and My Holy Spirit. Clare, you are not alone in this venture. It truly is a great task you've been given to introduce Christian souls to the order of Heaven and how it interfaces with the Earth."

And I want to stop here for a moment and tell you. As a Fundamentalist. Evangelical, Spirit-Filled Fundamentalist. Of course, I had all the attitudes that I'd picked up in that faith. But I always had this Bible in front of me. I would always see Jesus sitting at a desk with this Bible in front of Him. And my relationship to Him was very much...very intellectual. And very much of the Word.

When I came into the Catholic Church, became a Franciscan sister, I was kneeling before a statue. And the statue was NOT an idol! A statue is a reminder of someone who's not present in the room!

And I was praying my rosary, which is basically asking her to pray for ME. And all of a sudden, the statue manifested and came alive. And she looked at me very sweetly and smiled. Then...poof! She was gone! And there was Jesus.

And He came to me, and He held me. And that was the first time that I really experienced the deep, deep, intimacy that I've been trying to teach you on the Channel. And I've wanted to share that with you, but I knew that the Lord had His timing, and He wouldn't allow it.

And believe me, I ached to be able to share with you the difference that she made in my life with intercession and bringing me into deeper intimacy with the Lord. The deepest intimacy I've ever had with Jesus. It all began because of her prayers for me.

And on that note, the book that--if you care to be interested. There's a book called The Imitation of Mary. And it's very well written. It's by Alexander De Rouville. There are two Imitations of Mary, but this is the one that's really anointed. And in that, he has conversations with Our Lady about the Faith. And the things that she says about her Son are so beautiful. The way that she presents Him. The way that she speaks to the Believer--that they should yield up their whole lives to Jesus--is so beautiful. It's just remarkable.

And I had all my prejudices about Mary, believe me! And someone handed me this book when I knew that I was going to become Catholic. They handed me this book. And I sat down to read it, and I was stunned by the gentleness. By the sincerity. By the intimacy. By the sweetness. By the clarity of this writing! And the dialogue this priest had written with Mary. I was just stunned.

I said, 'THIS isn't 'idolatry'! This woman is acting as the Mother to a Believer. She is forming the Believer tenderly, like a mother. Wow! We have a Father in Heaven and we have Jesus. And now I have a spiritual Mother. Someone I can truly look up to that knows the ways of her Son intimately. And knows what pleases Him, and what doesn't please Him. And she's forming us in this love for Him. How amazing is that?'

And the desk disappeared. And the Bible stayed there, hovering in the air! But there was no longer any impediment to me embracing Jesus. It was a whole different relationship. A softness. A gentleness. It wasn't the hard edge of Fundamentalism that I'd been used to. It was something... like a family. Familial. It was beautiful.

And I've longed to share that with you, Heartdwellers. I truly have.

This woman is defending Jesus, and is putting forth the things about Jesus that He loves and the things that He doesn't like. She's preparing His Bride! That's what she's doing.

And as I got to know her more and more through these visions. And she was appearing to us... Well, basically, non-stop for several months. And she still occasionally. I see her clearly. I'm going to put a rosary CD up that I had written during this time when she was appearing. And you can feel the change in my voice when she comes into the room. You can actually feel the difference between the Hail Mary's while I'm saying them.

So, anyway. Getting back to the point. He's talking here... He's talking about interfacing with Heaven. He wants you to know how Heaven interacts with Earth. He wants you to understand the dynamics. And especially for those of you who are really stuck in your spiritual life. Her intercession on your behalf can make all the difference in the world.

So. The Lord continued here.

He said, "You asked Me earlier, what Kim Clement is doing? He is a very happy and busy man, going about My business and working behind the scenes with My Body. He was faithful to Me and I have rewarded him with greater influence in Heaven, which will affect his work on Earth.

"As it is written in The Parable of the Talents.

"It will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them. To one he gave five bags of gold, to another two bags, and to another one bag, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey.

"The man who had received five bags of gold went at once and put his money to work and gained five bags more. So also, the one with two bags of gold gained two more. But the man who had received one bag went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

"After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The man who had received five bags of gold brought the other five. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have gained five more.'

"His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!' Matthew 25:14-21

Jesus continued, "Clare, everyone in Heaven is working for those still on Earth. This is the time of the great wrap-up, and all eyes are on Earth doing what they can to save souls. They are given responsibilities and angels to assist them in carrying them out.

"Many times, they are allowed to appear in a dream as you have experienced, and give a word. Other times, they appear in apparitions and visions, and draw people to Me. Everyone in Heaven has a job to do, and it's all about saving souls.

"Do not be dismayed about the reaction to My mother. Satan has erected an iron wall around her in the minds of people who cannot think clearly for themselves, but tend to follow a leader.

"More and more in these end times, I will reveal her role in the Church--and that wall will fall, just as the iron curtain fell. You are in the front lines of this movement and you can expect opposition at every turn. But you are not alone. There are many ministers who now recognize her role, but will not say it publicly, for fear of being ostracized and losing people from their ministries.

"I know that you knew nothing of Kim Clement's prophecy. It was a special surprise for you, just to confirm that you are on the right track in exposing these things.

"It is time for her to be recognized for her work on Earth, and someone has to explain it in the Early Church context, not the present-day, Roman context. The treasures of the Early Church have been lost, Clare. I want them restored, I have chosen you to be a part of this work.

"And I caution you not to be influenced by those who are set in their ways. I had to deal with the very same spirit, a religious spirit, with the Pharisees. They would not search the Scriptures for themselves, or they would've had plenty of evidence. But then, they would have to stand up to ridicule by others in the Sanhedrin who knew they would not agree that I had fulfilled prophecy.

"You are in the same dilemma I was. The Scriptures are clear, but popular religion has chosen to overlook the deeper meaning. Anyone who does bring this forth will get what you got--and worse.

"I have many plans to unveil this in ways that will be accepted, but I know your heart is to help those who have stalled in their pursuit of intimacy with Me. You can tell them for Me that I stooped to enter the virgin's womb, and I reward those who will stoop in abject humility to ask for her prayers.

"Remember, dear ones, I did not produce wine for the married couple. Think about it? Was I uninformed they had run out of wine? Was I so busy having a good time I didn't see that happen? Did I not care that they would be embarrassed?

"What did I answer My mother when she noted to Me that they were out of wine? It was not My time to be revealed, that is why I would not produce wine for them. Easily, in the blessing of the meal, I could have done this and no one would have known they were going to run short.

"I allowed this to demonstrate My mother's heart, and her sway over Mine. I also wanted to demonstrate to you that she knew the way to My heart when she told the servants, 'Do whatever He tells you to do.' Never in her life was she in it for herself. Her sole concern was to see the Kingdom of God come to Earth, and to this end, she spared herself no suffering--including offering Me up to savage Roman soldiers.

"It is your choice, people. You can either consider the Scriptures and what is written. Or you can continue on with a stubborn party line.

"But I promise that those of you who are humble enough to receive her role will be greatly blessed by her intercession.

"The choice is yours."

Contemplative Rosary (full version found on the Music Channel)

August 30, 2018

The introduction:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, it is now and ever shall be, world without end.

The decades:

1st decade:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, it is now and ever shall be, world without end.

2nd decade:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, it is now and ever shall be, world without end.

3rd decade:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, it is now and ever shall be, world without end.

4th decade:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, it is now and ever shall be, world without end.

5th decade:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee (you). Blessed art thou (are you) among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy (your) womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, it is now and ever shall be, world without end.

My Heart Aches For the Loss of This Soul

August 30, 2018

Lord, please forgive us of our hardness of heart and soften our hearts to be like Yours. Amen.

Dear ones, this morning the Lord allowed me to feel a very tiny grain of sorrow. The sorrow that He felt over a soul that recently died. And refused to repent--and rejected Jesus. He played the Lonely Garden, and I became aware of the deep, deep sorrow He was experiencing over this man's failure to repent.

It was a very tragic and sick feeling. All the times Jesus waited for this man in the Garden, hoping the invitations would be answered. And at the very last... still no response to God's pleadings with Him.

We do not realize the hardness of men's hearts, only God knows. But we hope, we pray, even when it is a struggle to think good, because of the evil that's been exposed. I finally was able to connect with the Lord, over what He was experiencing with this soul.

Jesus began, "My Beloved Ones, I do not look at a man or woman the way you do. I do not focus on their sins. If I did, I would cease trying to call them to Myself."

"I see what I created with Love and long to have fellowship with that creature. When they repeatedly commit sin, without repenting, their souls grow darker and darker until they are nearly black. They sink lower and lower into atrocities, without any tinge of guilt in their conscience, because it has been frozen over by the pride of human reasoning and justifications."

"With each sin, My heart breaks a little more over the direction they have chosen, despite all My best efforts to pull them away from evil."

"Now you have experienced a little of the void and sorrow I feel when I walk in the Garden that used to be theirs, and see the monstrous creatures they invited in to destroy the heavenly flowers of grace."

"Writhing, growling leviathans, creeping poisonous creatures, blackened plants dripping with blood and slime. You would not believe what horrors are in the hearts of those who choose Satan over Me and thoroughly enjoy torturing others."

"There is nothing Disney could produce to replicate the monstrosities that lodge in those hearts. This is the most tragic moment of My existence--when a soul defiantly chooses Satan over Me. It is truly a sword in My Heart."

Well, Lord, are You against the death penalty?

"I am. But I must tell you some souls are so dead, that if they sat in jail for 80 years, they would still choose the same fate. Man cannot see into the hearts of these, so they do not choose what I would choose. Nonetheless, they have been given the power and authority to end a life.

"I would prefer they would not have this authority. Since I am the Author of Life, I should also be the only One who chooses the end of life. Aside from the innocent ones on death row, there is still hope for so many souls to repent if they are given more time, and the death penalty denies Me the opportunity to bring them to repentance.

"Dear ones, put your scruples about My Blessed Mother aside and pray for these men. So many are going to meet the very same fate, because they have been hardened in sin. But I will take the graces that others reject and give them to those who still have a flicker of life in their souls. So, don't give up praying for them. Lay aside your prejudices on how to pray for just a moment, and return to My aching need to see these souls restored to Me in their final moments.

"This has been a moment of great tragedy for Me. And oh, how it hurts, My Bride! It hurts Me so very badly. And I see the lineup of souls who will meet with this very same fate and choose to die for Satan. He is laughing them to scorn, and Hell is celebrating My loss--because Satan's agenda to kill, steal, and destroy everything that's dear to Me.

"This soul was dear to Me. And the next one in line is dear to Me... and on and on. Pray for them, My Bride, and keep Me company--for My heart aches."

The Annunciation

August 30, 2018

It was a cool Spring night in Nazareth. Moonlight bathed the sloping valley where freshly plowed fields and orchards waiting in quiet repose for the first morning sunlight.

A nearby sheepfold encircled newborn lambs, peacefully asleep beside their mothers. A pair of sheepdogs lay nearby. One asleep, and the other alert, with ears pricked up towards the distant plane, where wild dogs were barking.

Midnight stars twinkled above the world with beams of moonlight, dancing through the almond trees in full bloom. A gentle breeze spread their sweet fragrance through the narrow, stone streets of Nazareth, until it came upon and adobe house set into a hillside. There, lamplight glimmered faintly from a small window set high upon a wall.

In this room, a virgin named Mary, who was betrothed to Joseph, a carpenter had retired hours earlier to pray.

Your Kingdom come.

At the tender age of 14, her heart was on fire with love for God. And she longed for the day the Promised Messiah would deliver her people. As she knelt at her tiny altar, her heart was caught up into the sweet Presence of the Almighty God.

The light that had faintly glimmered from her window was overcome with silvery brilliance that flooded every corner of the room. And Mary became aware of a heavenly visitor, who began speaking to her in a regal, yet gentle, voice.

"Hail, full of grace. The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women."

This greeting startled her, but he continued.

"Fear not, Mary. For you have found grace with God. Behold, you shall conceive and bring forth a son. And will call him Jesus."

He spoke many wonderful promises about this son, for she was to be given the greatest privilege of all. Mary had been chosen by God to be his mother.

But she was puzzled as to how this would be accomplished, since she had been espoused as a virgin, to a young man who wished also to remain a virgin after their marriage.

The angel answered her, "The Holy Ghost will come upon you. And the power of the Most High shall overshadow you. Therefore, the Holy One which shall be born of you, shall be called the Son of God."

Profoundly humbled, she replied, "Behold. The handmaid of the Lord. Be it done to me according to your word."

Let us pray.

"Mary, most holy. Chosen to be the mother of God's only begotten Son. Pray for us, that we, too, may live our lives in complete faith. And that we may always respond as you did, in total trust and abandonment to His holy will. Through life's every circumstance, pray for us. That we will always respond from the heart, "Lord. Be it unto me, according to thy word."

Heart Dwellers

<http://heartdwellers.org/>

<https://www.bitchute.com/channel/still-small-voice/>