

BE PREPARED for Martial Law This Week?

October 1, 2018

Jesus, you are not the Author of confusion. Please clarify all these variables if You can. Amen.

Well, Family, I just want to share with you that, there's been a lot of thoughts going through my head the last three days or so. But some of them conflicting and a little confusing.

That's why I picked that prayer. For two days in a row now, the Lord has played my song, Swift Away, which we had just posted. It's about the Rapture and being left behind. After that song, this morning... He played, Come Away with Me. And after that, He played Psalm 91. And after that--He played ANOTHER version of Psalm 91!

I confess to you, dear ones, I am really having trouble accepting the possibility of the Rapture now. Just like one of our Heartdwellers said, "I was really expecting, with the government arrests and reordering of things, I would have a chance to really do something for the Lord. I am disappointed and I don't get it."

Right. That is exactly where I am at, too. You're not alone... Busy with songs, finally, yet having to think it's all going to be over so soon? I cringe at the thought that I failed my mission with music. I really have songs from Heaven that need to be recorded and passed on to you--and I haven't done it yet.

However, it's happening. I mean, I put up three songs so far.

Then Ezekiel just had a dream about martial law in Cincinnati, Ohio. Everyone was staying in some kind of huge apartment shelter and couldn't go out after dark. They were little apartments with kitchen and bathrooms and so on the military had thrown together. But they were big buildings. Armed military people were hiding behind bushes and trees on alert. This was at dusk. And Ezekiel could not even go out of this place to get his medicine from the truck without an escort. It was ominous and a scary feeling.

Messages from the Oval Office continue to indicate a Red October, which has many meanings. One meaning is from the film that talks about a nuclear attack that was planned on America, but was thwarted. Coincidentally--if you can call it coincidence--another talks about the institution of the Soviet Union and the overthrow of Russia. The Russian monarchy in 1917.

Then there are the foreboding prophecies I've been given about war on our soil.

Deep down in my heart, I JUST CAN'T wrap my peace around it. It seems WAY off. Anyone else feeling this way??? Not having a peace about the Rapture at this point?

I almost suspected the Lord gave us these warnings to get people out of a deadly sleep--to wake them up to what's about to happen. To get me, too, to work on music day and night...which is what I'm doing.

Then Ezekiel was told by the Lord that he should write simple songs about what the Lord is saying to him. So, that will be posted after this message. It's only 3 minutes long and it's a rough... We are having some equipment issues with Ezekiel's equipment. We're having to transfer over to a new system. But you'll get the idea. The title of it is I Will Save You On That Day.

I can't ignore this or Carol's continued warnings in prayer. Forgive me, dear ones, I wish I could have total peace about this and clarity--but it just doesn't compute.

Then in prayer yesterday, after I spent a lot of time crying out before the Lord, I pulled one of my Rhema Cards and it said, "What would you like Me to do for you?"

And I thought, 'Oh boy...You're asking this? Oh, my gosh! Here I am, crying and begging for more time, more grace, more mercy and He's asking me what can He do for ME?!

He did tell us a long time ago that I would have a complete peace when it was about to happen. I do not have that peace! During the Rosary yesterday, Our Lady said to me, "There is but a small ray of hope...a very tiny ray of hope that it will be postponed. But more prayer is needed."

Wow.

I would like you to pray something after each decade of your rosary, please. Would you pray: "Father, grant us more time, more grace, more mercy." This very prayer was approved by St. Faustina herself at a prayer meeting in Florida, when she manifested in a vision and thanked me for the prayer. So, please consider this.

I just can't fathom that after the huge turn-around in the government, after all our prayers, that we won't get to be a part of the reconstruction of this nation. It really is, in a way, heart-breaking. So, please pray for clarity for me. And I can't share with you what I don't have answers to. I don't want you to be walking around just as confused as I am. I'm just being gut honest with you; this is a very confusing time. So, please do pray for me, to get the Lord's clarity, His heart and mind about this.

My dear family, there is no need for alarm, because the Lord is protecting us. But nonetheless, we must abide by the rules of order. We are getting confirmations that martial law may be declared during the time we are rounding up the Clay and Iron feet, which could happen as soon as this week or next week. I guess it hinges on a certain appointment being finalized. Our leader is about to take action, and justice is about to be meted out.

Here is what our intel advisor told us to be ready for in the next week or two:

He began, "Martial Law will be declared very soon/shortly. It will not last long, but it may be very violent as the Army and Marines round up the Clay Feet. The prudent will follow instructions and stay out of the way. If you see something erupting, go immediately in the opposite direction while you pray. Stay very close to home. Once these evil creatures are rounded up and their mind-numbed robots no longer riot, then life will resume as normal.

"Wherever you see violence, go away from it as fast as possible. During martial law, the army is encouraged to shoot first and ask later. For some, 'later' will be too late. I do mean to sound callous about it. I am not expressing my values. I am telling you what will happen to innocent bystanders if they get caught in the crossfire. A crossfire is the worst place to be, all you can do is play dead until the crossfire is over (if you are lucky--and I mean lucky).

This is not meant to scare, it's meant to prepare. It's coming, probably this week. Have what you need at home and stay close to home. Never go out after a curfew without a military escort."

And that is the end of his counsel to us.

So, right around this time, I'm looking in my inbox. I got a newsletter from someone that I'm not signed up to get a newsletter from. And it's amazing! Is it coincidence or what? Here we go:

"October is the month of the Holy Rosary."

Can you believe this??? I just got this, out of the blue. Here we are just learning about Mary, learning that she has been placed above the Capitol Rotunda with an assignment from God to restore this nation. Angels assigned to her were coming and going with their assignment. And this is the month of the Holy Rosary. Guys, we are right on target! We are doing the right thing.

Now, St. Faustina's feast day is also on the 5th of October. She is the author of the Divine Mercy Chaplet given her by Christ. Also in this month is the feast of St. Francis of Assisi on the 4th, and St. Therese of Lisieux on the 1st, who taught the "little way of love" to the Church.

Now, dear ones, these are legitimate Holy Spirit days of remembrance. These are not pagan holidays. These are remembering holy people and holy things, just like the Hebrews had different feast days. Because these people were sold out for Christ. It is known that in Heaven there are feast day celebrations, actual days of celebrating the goodness and mercy of God's grace working in a soul who fully, 100% corresponded to God's gifts to them.

Heidi Baker calls them laid-down lovers for Christ.

This is not a pagan practice. It comes from Heaven. And I have been there on such a feast day--and it's glorious! It is to encourage us who are still in the race to keep running, no matter how difficult it may seem in the moment. These are also days when special requests for intercession from these saints are made nine days before. (It's called a novena.) Nine days before their feast day, and culminate with many miracles on the 7th, 8th and 9th days of the Novena.

The individual saints in Heaven are commonly given gifts from God the Father on their feast days--not toys or fun things, but favors to souls who are struggling on Earth.

So, we are all a little late to start a novena. But I want to tell you, that when you pray a novena, asking for prayer from a saint, you get what I have come to call Novena weather...or a big storm during the first 6 days. Then, it breaks around the 7th or 8th day and something really wonderful happens. And that's the common pattern for novenas.

But getting back to the Rapture warnings...

Lord, have you anything to say?

"My dear, dear, Clare--and anxiously waiting Brides. I am coming for you! The timing has generated endless streams of calculation, supposition, expectation, and prognostication. Endless. It has led many to lose their confidence in Me and in the Faith. This is the enemy's doing.

"Let out a deep breath...

"I am not going to give you a date. But I am giving you a wake-up call.

"Wake up! Wake up! Wake up!!

"You are in a war for your souls and the soul of this nation. I am looking to you to make the difference with your vote. I am looking to you to make a difference with your prayers and offerings. I am looking to you. If I see you applying yourselves like never before, there truly may be a slim chance of delay.

"I am looking to you.

"If hearts are broken before Me, and prayers pour out from the deep recesses of your hearts--you may see stunning results.

"Please do not come to Me and tell Me of other prophets who say the Rapture is still years off. What I am doing with this Channel is assigning My hand-picked warriors to fight Goliath with their tears and supplications. This evil force has its tentacles into every area of life--regulations for the foods you eat, alterations to the medications you take, to your health care, your studies. Your entire life has been regulated from behind the scenes to fit into their agenda.

"Your children who have grown up under this generation of evil-doers have been subliminally programmed to go along with the program, no matter what. And Christians have been systematically repressed and targeted all along the way--especially in opening doors to sexual content that is abhorrent to Me. The tentacles are deep; the corruption is even deeper. And it is like a metastasized cancer in the body of this government. It is everywhere.

"There is going to be a turn-over, a revolution, that will free those captive to this system. I am setting prisoners free. I am going deep with My fire to rout out corruption and despicable practices in the government. The fight is going to be ferocious on many fronts. They will not go down easily, and when one goes down, another will pop up. It is a tremendous reconstruction which first needs a wrecking ball to level the diseased infrastructure.

"We are in that phase of the wrecking ball now. It is highly taxing on your President, and I wish for you to be lifting him up in prayer unceasingly, for it is way beyond his capacity to endure this kind of stress. Yet I am holding him up and standing with him; he will prevail.

"Your job is to pray for his strength, pray that traitors will be exposed, pray that those he chooses for certain positions will be approved and slide into office without such resistance.

"We are at the decisive battlefield now. What you are witnessing is truly a first in the history of this world and only extraordinary prayer launched by extraordinary effort from extraordinary souls will bring this to the desired conclusion.

"Pray for him and Melania. What incredible roles they have to fulfill and it is only with My grace and watchful care that it will be accomplished.

"I am counting on your prayers. I'm counting on your prayers.

"Please do not waste your time second guessing the Father on the Rapture. I have called you all to readiness for a very good reason. We were in this place before, in 2015. It was no joke, it was dead serious. We are here again.

"History is written with prayer. in other words, you are literally writing history every time you call out to the Father. Every time you pray, you turn a page in the history books of Heaven and have a decisive effect on Earth.

"Be aware that you are entering Satan's season of intense prayer and assignments against you and all that is good and beneficial. Yes, Satan is indeed a strategist and he is busy with the plans to make a death blow on your country.

"This shall not happen if you stand in the gap. You are here in this place right now because you prayed. Don't ask me about other channels that talk about this date or that date or dream or this prophecy--because I am doing My own thing on this Channel and it is not to be compared to others.

"Each of you have roles to play--and your role is to pray with conviction and seriousness, to live a holy life before all, and be ready to defend your faith with your support of those who will do what is right in office.

"For this you need to pray and act as you are led. Voting, disseminating information, praying, and giving My Father in Heaven no rest by knocking on Heaven's doors 24/7.

"This is a serious time and calls for committed prayer warriors to do their utmost to destroy this evil force. I am with you in every effort you make, and I will double the power of your prayers through My mother."

And I just want to add to that, it's true! It's the 'Marian multiplier'! When you pray with the Blessed Mother, she multiplies the force of your prayers. It really, really does work. And He just reminded me of that in this statement.

And I want to say, Lord, I know you are true and would never mislead us. Jesus, I trust in You. Forgive me, Lord, for questioning You.

Come on, guys. Let's get on our knees...

I Will Save You on That Day

October 2, 2018

I will save you on that Day
Oh, I'll save you on that Day
Yes, I'll save you on that Day
 (save us on that Day)
I will save you on that Day
Oh, I'll save you on that Day
(He will save us on that Day)
Oh, I'll save you on that Day
(He will save us on that Day)
Yes, I'll save you on that Day
I will save you on that Day
 He will save you

URGENT! Fast & Pray for Kavanaugh's Confirmation TODAY!

October 6, 2018

Lord Jesus, please receive our prayers for our President. And the extreme fatigue that I felt this week. I offer it to You, Lord, that our President will triumph over all our enemies and bring us to a new a bright era in the History of America. Amen.

Just to clarify about the timing on martial law, I wanted to say--I don't believe it will start until Judge Kavanaugh is sworn in and in office and active.

I have a couple of things, though, I want to share with you. The other night I pulled a card that said 2 Maccabees 15:8.

Now... Maccabees is one of the books the Protestants took out of the canon of the Scriptures during the Reformation. And it's a shame, really, because there are some wonderful stories in there.

I've been struggling all week with the news that the Rapture could happen soon and to my amazement, I've only been able to squeeze out some really deep gut prayer for one morning. I've been so ambivalent about this. I don't know what the cause is except that perhaps I'm tired? And underneath it all I really DO want to go home.

I thought perhaps I was depressed by my own personal goals not yet being fulfilled as yet. But really, guys, I can't put my finger on it. And I know it's an oppression. I know the enemy has something to do with it. But I'm trying to get to the very bottom of why the Lord is allowing it. Even now, I'm sitting here wanting so badly to communicate with you, but having trouble keeping my eyes open and holding thoughts together.

Well. Enough whining! I thank you for your prayers, 'cause you know when you don't hear from me for while you can know that prayer is good.

I've been very heavily burdened with Fibro and Fibro fog, and just thinking clearly. So I'm just decided to push through it. But I do feel like this when serious intercession is going on, sometimes the Lord will just lay me out. I mean, I won't be able to move or get out of bed. And I don't know exactly what it is I'm praying for, you know. It's just that my body is totally plastered to the bed, and there's no way of getting out of it. And that usually only goes on for one day. I think, back in 2015, when we were going through another phase of the Rapture happening soon, there was three days of that. So, I... I think that's probably part of what the issue is.

And I thought, 'Well. Maybe it's also discouragement.'

I asked the Lord, "Please, put some fire into me, you know I've lost heart even for the things that I can do before you take us."

Carol thinks it might be around Christmas, because Jesus keeps playing Christmas songs in her worship time. And... come to think of it, He's been doing that with me as well!

But anyway, Lord--I've lost heart. Even for the things that I can do before You take us. Please restore me.

"Those who wait upon the Lord will renew their strength. They will mount up on wings of eagles." And that's what I'm doing.

And that's another reason why you haven't heard from me. I have been waiting on Him.

In any case. I went to one of my card files and pulled a rhema card. It read 2 Maccabees 15:8, but the title before the paragraph in the Bible was Fresh Hope.

Wow, that's right what I need right now. And this is a wonderful story from one of those books that were taken out of the Canon.

Nicanor was sent by the king to kill Judas Maccabaeus who was a righteous man. This is 150BC in the Scriptures.

Nicanor's Arrogance. 1When Nicanor learned that Judas and his companions were in the territory of Samaria, he decided he could attack them in complete safety on the day of rest. 2The Jews who were forced to accompany him pleaded, "Do not massacre them so savagely and barbarously, but show respect for the day which the All-seeing has exalted with holiness above all other days."

3At this the thrice-accursed wretch asked if there was a ruler in heaven who prescribed the keeping of the Sabbath day. 4They replied, "It is the living Lord, the ruler in heaven, who commands the observance of the Sabbath day." 5Then he said, "I, the ruler on earth, command you to take up arms and carry out the king's business."

(Wow...! You don't want to get anywhere NEAR someone like that, in case the lightning strikes too close!)

Nevertheless, he did not succeed in carrying out his cruel plan. 6In his utter boastfulness and arrogance Nicanor had determined to erect a public victory monument (Huh! Before he even went to battle with him!) over Judas and his companions. 7But Maccabeus remained confident, fully convinced that he would receive help from the Lord. 8He urged his men not to fear the attack of the Gentiles, but mindful of the help they had received in the past from Heaven, to expect now the victory that would be given them by the Almighty.

9By encouraging them with words from the law and the prophets, and by reminding them of the battles they had already won, he filled them with fresh enthusiasm. 10Having stirred up their courage, he gave his orders and pointed out at the same time the treacherousness of the Gentiles and their violation of oaths.

11When he had armed each of them, not so much with the security of shield and spear as with the encouragement of noble words, he cheered them all by relating a dream, a kind of waking vision, worthy of belief.

12What he saw was this: Onias, the former high priest, a noble and good man, modest in bearing, gentle in manner, distinguished in speech, and trained from childhood in all that belongs to excellence, was praying with outstretched arms for the whole Jewish community. 13Then in the same way another man appeared, distinguished by his white hair and dignity, and with an air of wondrous and majestic authority.

14Onias then said of him, "This is a man who loves his fellow Jews and fervently prays for the people and the holy city--the prophet of God, Jeremiah." 15Stretching out his right hand, Jeremiah presented a gold sword to Judas. As he gave it to him he said, 16"Accept this holy sword as a gift from God; with it you shall shatter your adversaries."

And that was the end of the story.

Immediately, after I read that... Well, I thought a couple of things. But I definitely thought of the swords the Lord had just given us, and that I hadn't been really using mine. And made up my mind to really apply myself to using it.

This word about the sword was a really inspiration to me to have MORE faith in this amazing gift. Heartdwellers, the devils are trying to weaken our faith. Don't let them! Come against those spirits of Unbelief, to try to steal our weapons from God. Come against them, Family. Firmly. And if necessary, with shouting and pointing the finger. Be forceful when they are trying to steal from you.

The next thing that happened was that Ezekiel was suddenly beset by a fever. That was just the LAST STRAW. He's been flat on his back, praying, for the entire week. And when that fever hit, I took my sword and went after those demons, cutting every spiritual tie to him and taking off heads.

You asked how I used the swords. I'm just learning, myself. But I look at what's going on and think of how it's being engineered by the enemy. And I go after that. So, I usually use the sword around his body and underneath his body and in the air. But I especially pray in tongues. And when I swung the sword, and pointed to Ezekiel's body, and told those spirits of Infirmary and Fever--and the rest of them--in tongues to LEAVE. I could feel the anointing going out.

You see, right now our enemies are listening in to how we do things, so they can thwart us. But when Holy Spirit takes over our mouth and we speak in tongues, they can't understand a word of it. In that case, all they can do is try to undermine praying in tongues. So, don't let them!

Well, later, when I asked Ezekiel how he was feeling, he said he was much, much better and was able to eat and fall asleep. Thank the Lord!

And then, the whole idea of Fresh Hope, you know. Which was the heading on the chapter that I started to read, was beautiful! Fresh enthusiasm. He reminded them of battles they had already won. He filled them with fresh enthusiasm.

Lord, I need that so badly. And I suppose many of you Heartdwellers, in our little Heartdwellers Family, really need this, too. As we are under some heavy, heavy intercession right now. This week. And it may not come out in the way of prayers, but it may come out in the way of obstacles. Tedious things. Things getting lost. Things having to be done again and again and again. All kinds of things to wear you out, just to really wear you out. I believe the Lord is allowing those, because He's trying to turn the tides.

And this is a MONUMENTAL, MONUMENTAL undertaking. Because the Clay feet have done such a good job of getting their tentacles down deep, deep, deep into the nation. Into the little guys, and the middle guys, and the bigger middle guys, and the bigger guys. And the bigger and bigger guys. They're all lined up and they have to...there's gonna have to be thousands of arrests! Of people who have committed treasonous acts. So, it's a huge job, turning this thing around. And the Lord needs all of our prayers, dear ones.

So please. Do pray. Really pray for the Lord's Victory. For our victory with this.

Now, just as an aside, some of you have asked me about some holy books that I would recommend. Well, of course, the Scriptures. And I wanted to share some books with you that I have benefitted from.

There is an excellent book for guidance, and I use it for Rhemas, by St. Padre Pio had many amazing spiritual gifts from the Lord... He saved many a man in World War 2. And one pilot, his plane was going down. And he called out to Padre Pio to help him! And all of a sudden, Padre Pio appears at the right wing, holding that wing UP, guiding it in to that landing strip without any kind of an accident. And that plane was going DOWN. Just amazing.

And other things. So many people were healed and delivered with his prayers and he had the gift of reading souls. He was a Roman Catholic Priest, and a Franciscan Friar. Just a very, holy, holy man, with the stigmata bleeding from his hands, his feet and his side. And his head. For fifty years! And his spiritual counsels are priceless!

So, this is the book I recommend above all others of his, because he has quite a few that's been put out. Padre Pio's Spiritual Direction for Every Day by Gianluigi Pasquale.

Okay. Another Favorite book: The Imitation of Mary by Alexander de Rouville. There are two different books by that title, but only his really carries the signature of Our Lady. You can really feel her influence in that book. It is a very strong, healthy book that will only bring you closer to Jesus, which is what Mary is all about. Beautifully written in kind of a question and answer form, between the soul and the blessed Virgin.

Another favorite, Abandonment to Divine Providence by Jean-Pierre De Caussade. That is a wonderful book. One man said, "The book is a mystery of its own -- and is definitely not for Christians only." Rabbi Joshua Chasan "Abandonment to Divine Providence is a classic perhaps more necessary now than ever before." Absolutely.

There is also a shorter version. I mean, every single word on the page of that book is solid food. Absolute sirloin. And it really turns your head around from self-pity to trusting in God. Allowing Him to work in your life the way He needs to

And another one, very similar, shorter version: Trustful Surrender to Divine Providence: The Secret of Peace and... I'm not sure what else. And that's by Rev. Fr. Jean Baptiste Saint-Jure and ?St. Claude de la Colombiere. That's published in 1980. That's a very good book.

And then, I use our Rhema book all the time. It is available on Amazon, or we have copies here at no charge, if you want to send a letter, I'll send you one. Or you can get a free download off our Heartdwellers.org website, which is our website.

Now, several times you have asked me for good books to help guide you. And I'm just sharing with you. All of these are absolutely pure gold. And of course, they come after the Bible. After the Scriptures. They're wonderful...

Oh! The Divine Mercy in My Soul, by St. Faustina Kowalska. And that is a precious, precious book, where she dialogues back and forth with the Lord. And He explains so many things to her. She was a nun, a very holy nun. I believe the Sisters of Mercy. Her conversations with the Lord are just... they're just wonderful. I've lived in these books, they're so encouraging. And so able to put you on the right track, you know?

Well this is just a short message, dear ones, I hope for more tomorrow. I want to work on Our Lady's messages. Use your swords!!! And share with me the successes you have, please? Jesus gave us two because we NEED two. One for fighting with, and one for discernment. And crossing them for healing, because these times are treacherous.

Please pray for Ezekiel and I to have more strength to do the Lord's will, and also pray so very hard for our nation. And the world.

Thank you to those who have donated to the Channel. We were able to send Flutemaker Ministries a nice chunk of money today for the children and the handicaps in Nicaragua. So they can have a clean water supply and sanitation, latrines and medication--and all kinds of things.

And a single mom recovering from cancer. We were able to get her new tires for her truck, because she drives people around for a living.

And the wife of a disabled priest in Australia--we were able to help her with medicine, gas and food. And a family of 5 whose mother is very sick in the hospital, seriously ill. The husband works for the sanitation department, and at night, he drives all the way to Albuquerque--like, a hundred miles away--to see his wife. He's been low on gas money, so we took care of that, and some food for him. She's in ICU at the University of New Mexico.

And we helped them all because of your kindness towards us. There are many more that we've helped that I haven't mentioned, just to give you an idea of what we try to do every week, for those who we know are very needy. I just want to thank you for that.

We must pray with all our hearts, now, dear ones. The Lord needs our back-up, standing behind him. For many of you suffering is increasing and life is taking a very hard turn right now. Jesus NEEDS that. He needs our fast offerings and anything else that we can give Him.

He's allowing some of the things we hate the most now. For instance, I hate feeling like a zombie all week! Fighting fatigue every time I turn around. Forgetting within seconds what I came into the room for. Feeling disoriented and drifting. Not being able to find things that were important.

And then my equipment breaking down. I'm having to use Quick Time. It takes a monumental effort to work with this kind of mental and physical fog. And I hate it! I hate feeling numb and seeing time run through my fingers like sand, with nothing accomplished. It's my worst nightmare. And no amount of praying is changing it, 'cause Jesus needs our offerings right now. And He knows that's one of the things I hate the most.

So please, do what you can. I'm on a Daniel fast--no meat until the Judge is confirmed. And please pray for the Senator Daines on his return flight to Washington from Montana, for the vote tonight at 5:00 pm. Please, dear ones. Storm Heaven for this vote. Fast from food and water until 6:00 pm Washington time. Or until the vote is over. If you are physically able.

And when those men are in the Chambers. The Senate Chambers voting, wave your swords. Wave your swords all throughout the room. Wave your swords and chase those demons away. Those Democrat demons that are causing the problem. The Traitors. Wave 'em. Wave that sword. And especially wave that sword over the people who have the swing votes.

And send your angels to Washington. Pray and ask your angels to go to Washington and swing the vote. And especially pray the rosary and ask the Blessed Mother to please join you in praying and sending her angels to Washington to swing the vote. Let's do everything we possibly can to help this cause, dear ones. So much depends on this.

God bless you with your deepest dreams being accomplished with Jesus, Heartdwellers. And press in with prayer for our nation and the world. And I love your comments. I will definitely read and answer them. The Lord bless you. You're greatly loved.

Scripture Reveals Mary's Role in the Church 5 of 7 & Travailing Prayer

October 8, 2018

With all my heart, Jesus, I thank you for straightening my course and visiting me with Your Love.

Lord, what is on Your heart today?

"My dearest, you have been through some very turbulent waters this past week, and now I am calling for you to cling to Me with an ever-tightening grip. You have many enemies, but nothing that cannot be handled, especially if you are faithful with your prayers and worship.

"It costs Me dearly to see you drowning in the waters of confusion, unable to grab onto anything that makes any sense at all. This is a very great suffering, Clare, one that I reserve for My most dedicated. It is like driving in a blind fog as your mind drifts to and fro looking for some sense of security. Even in worship and the Word you have found yourself bereft of consolation. Thank you for bearing up under this trial, My love.

"And thank you for availing yourself of travailing prayer.

"My people, many of you--Clare included--do not go deep enough or passionately enough into your prayers for others. Sometimes I wait and gauge My response. When the usual prayers don't work, that is no time to give up! Another person's life may depend upon it. No, that is time to press in with passion and beg Me for the gift of travailing prayer. Laziness, and preoccupation with things not anywhere near as important, are often the cause. My People, you must break through."

As an aside, my dear ones, I just have been in the doldrums and blahs all last week, unable to do anything with conviction, passion, or purpose. No, I've felt like a wet dishrag left on the counter overnight. All sour and yucky. And disgusted???. Oh, my... I've been so disgusted with my lukewarmness and listlessness!

Finally, over one thing, I was graced with travailing prayer and I asked for a healing--and the Lord granted it! I was so grateful. But on a scale of 10 to 100... I think I would get a 15 grade for prayer and service this past week.

I do think one of my medications is building up to a level that is too high, and is causing this drowsiness. And so, I will go off that for a day and reduce it in half. Maybe that will solve the problem.

Right now, you know those little yellow pills that truckers take? Those good old caffeine pills? Well, I'm taking 1/2 of one every time I start to drift. And it is keeping me alert. But I'm not all tense and pushy, like I normally would be on caffeine. I'm just feeling normal. So, obviously something's out of whack. In the past, it would have made me a nervous wreck, but now it is just keeping me on an even keel.

So, please forgive me for being absent all last week. That was the last thing I wanted.

Jesus continued, "But now, Clare, you are in a better place, and I want you to just plow away at the untilled soil, break up your fallow ground, and plant seeds of salvation for Me, dearest.

"There is also much turmoil in the air, My People, because the infrastructure of your country is coming under massive reordering. Corruption is being flushed out and replaced by those who have a sincere heart for serving this country. This is also a very dark time of the year; a time when Satan puts out his best efforts to subvert all that is good.

"I thank you deeply for supporting Judge Kavanaugh. I thank you for your prayers and resistance to those who would subvert all that is good. This was a key battle that you, My people, have won. Now you must continue to lift him and his family up in prayer for protection. There is far more saber rattling going on, because the Clay feet are finding that the way is blocked for them to pull off some anticipated movements that would disturb the nation. This, too, is the result of your sincere prayers to hold back the violence.

"As for those of you who have taken My mother into your hearts, all I can say is that you have done Me a great honor in going against the lies and calumny of others who will someday deeply regret their pride in rejecting her. There is a certain predilection on holy souls that shines forth, those who accept her with childlike faith. In Heaven, it will be seen plainly that she has been influential in your lives, that you have turned to her for prayers, and followed her example of meekness and devotion.

"Remember, I did not have to come to Earth as a mere infant. I had no need of human intervention to come to you. I stooped to enter the doorway of the Virgin's womb. Should you not stoop, also, to honor and enlist her prayers? There is great humility reflected in your choice. Proud souls tend to reject her. It is the very little that soon feel the sweetness of her motherly care and cultivate this holy devotion to the woman My Father entrusted with His Son.

"Be of good courage, My Beautiful Brides. You have all passed through some very turbulent waters. Some have been sucked down into the very depths of an angry ocean in a whirl of opposition, with nothing to grasp onto but the memory of My faithfulness.

"Trust that this has been most painful for Me as well as for you. But now, I encourage you to continue to mount upwards into My arms where you will find your peace and security. I will not let you down. Cleave to Me with all your hearts, and continue to show yourselves faithful in prayers and sacrifice.

"Now we will talk about the painful separation My mother endured for three days. Yes, this separation was a sign to her that someday she will again have to release Me to the providence of My Father in Heaven. And a reminder that after three days she will indeed see Me once again.

"It is not mentioned in the Gospels that I met with her first, before all others after My resurrection. She did not tell it, because she didn't want any focus to come upon her as an exceptional soul deserving this privilege. Rather, she left that for the other women, whom she loved dearly.

"So many things, My people, happened in her life that were never told, because she thought it best to keep them hidden in her heart. She waited in silence for My resurrection, knowing it would come soon, but hardly did that comfort the agonies she suffered beholding My crucifixion. One of the things that sustained her in this deepest and darkest trial of her life was the preview given her when I was lost in the Temple.

"Did you not know that I would be in My Father's house?"

"Yes, this lesson gave her hope, beyond human understanding, that soon she would see Me again--and yet, she had no idea what I would look like. Would My hands and feet be scarred? Would I be wearing the grave clothes? Would My body look normal or would it be swollen and misshapen from all the torn skin? Oh, all these things made her shudder to consider. And finally, in her austere wisdom, she laid them to rest and just trusted like a little child that all would be well.

"Before she saw Me, she felt My presence in the room and looked up as her heart stopped--and her whole being was flushed with wonderment. The resurrected energy emanating from My person swept through her heart and body to repair the trauma she suffered at the foot of the Cross.

"Then came the wave of joy and unspeakable laughter. So much laughter. Oh, what a holy moment! All that was written had been accomplished, and now she beheld the Son of God shining on her being. And every tender moment she ever experienced with Me rushed with a flood back into her being, covering those tormenting memories of My suffering. What unspeakable joy, a moment unlike all others, never repeated in this world before, or ever again.

"Clare, she knew what My mission was and she was completely in agreement to meet all of My needs in carrying it out, including the cruel sufferings which nearly cost her own life, so intense was the pain of her heart."

And then after He mentioned Him being lost in the Temple, I decided to go back and read that section of the Gospel.

In Luke 2:41-52 Now His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. And when He became twelve, they went up there according to the custom of the Feast; and as they were returning, after spending the full number of days, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. But His parents were unaware of it; they supposed Him to be in the caravan, and went a day's journey; and then began looking for Him among their relatives and acquaintances.

When they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem looking for Him. Then, after three days, they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions. And all who heard Him were amazed at His understanding and His answers.

When they saw Him, they were astonished; and His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You treated us this way? Behold, Your father and I have been anxiously looking for You." And He said to them, "Why is it that you were looking for Me? Did you not know that I had to be in My Father's house?"

But they did not understand the statement which He had made to them. And He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and He continued in subjection to them; and His mother treasured all these things in her heart. And Jesus kept increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

And that's the end of that narrative.

Jesus continued, "Clare, I knew they would be concerned for Me. But this was a lesson that she had to learn, now, so that in that hour of her greatest torment, she could reflect on My faithfulness. It was right and fitting that I should be in the Temple, absorbed in My Father's business. And so priceless were those moments of sharing in the Law that I could scarcely keep track of the time. Nor could I pull Myself away to go looking for My parents. After all, they knew where My heart was, and it should never have entered their minds that I might be elsewhere.

"Nonetheless, it was not right for Me to leave them without any notice, and it did weigh on My heart that she would be distraught. Yet, I had a higher duty and calling to My Heavenly Father--and knew that it must be this way.

"When I spoke the words in Matthew 10, 'He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me,' the incident in the Temple was very much on My mind.

"So many things that have been written in Scripture have layers and layers of meanings, and only with the help of Holy Spirit will you discover them.

"In the end, I did defer to my parents, as a good son should, and we returned home. But I must tell you, My heart ached to share the law and precepts of God with men. Going home was the last thing I wanted to do. For Me, it was a great act of submission to the will of God to obey My parents.

"But for Me, it left an indelible imprint on My heart, and I longed with all that was within Me for the day I could return. It touched My mother and Joseph's hearts, as well. They pondered the connection I had with the Teachers of the Law, and realized there was a mystery and foreshadowing of things to come that had played out before their very eyes."

October 10, 2018

Jesus told Ezekiel this song reflects the spiritual state of My Church. This short piece, Left Behind, The Next Day, was given to him one day ago, October 9th, 2018.

It starts off somber and not well defined and becomes deeper and more emotional towards the end. Many people will come out of a state of panic and denial the day after the Rapture, and then the depth of what has happened to them will really come to life: their loved ones, whom they scorned and made fun of, have been taken to Heaven and they have been left behind to make a choice for Christ... or antiChrist.

I wish I could say there is another delay on the Rapture, but I have heard no such thing from the Lord. As far as I know it is still going to happen soon. Perhaps even by Christmas. This is NOT date setting it is SEASON acknowledging.

Testimonies from the Channel

October 10, 2018

Good Morning, dear Family. This is Carol. Clare has asked me to share some things with you today, in lieu of a message from Jesus.

Over the past few weeks, since the teachings about the Early Church and Mary have been started, we have received many varied comments from our Heartdweller Family about how these teachings have impacted your lives. So, we have chosen 7 in particular that seem to best represent all the Good Fruit of what Jesus has been telling us, to share with you all, now.

Some of these testimonies are about how Mary has touched a life with healing, or how thoughts have been changed and re-arranged concerning who she is--and just what place she has in the Kingdom of God. Some are about the power of the rosary or perhaps the Mercy Chaplet, and there is even testimony of visitations from Mary and Jesus.

We pray the Lord will bless you with these precious testimonies today as we continue to learn more and more about His Kingdom, and continue to grow together in one accord and in Love.

Here is the first testimony:

A few years back, my Grandmother passed away from cancer and my mother was the only one there with her in the hospital room when she passed. My mom told me all about it, it's quite amazing, very similar to the way Clare describes her mom's passing in the prologue to Chronicles of the Bride.

My grandmother was almost lifeless in her hospital bed for a few days before her passing. Then, the one night, my mother decided to pray the Rosary out loud to my grandmother. Not long after she had said it, my grandmother sprung up and sat up in bed with her eyes wide open staring out at something behind my mother, and then dropped back onto her bed and was gone.?

And now the second:

I am not Catholic, but I can say that Jesus has given me such a heart for His Mother over the last few years. For twenty-seven years I carried around dogma in my head regarding Mother Mary. Jesus has led me out of all of it, cleansing both my mind and my heart, giving me the truth about her and the proper perspective that I should have towards her.

Oh, how I have now come to love our Blessed Mother Mary! I am so overjoyed with what Jesus is sharing with us here on the Channel about her now! He has even led to me to creating and building my own Rosaries over the past year. Sometimes, I chuckle to myself about that! Who would have ever thought that I would be doing that, not me!

Really something, the transformation He has done in my heart for her. Something I could have never come to terms with thirty years ago when I gave my life to Christ. This singular transformation alone in my heart for Mother Mary testifies to the truth of what has been shared here on the Channel. My hope and prayer for us all here is that we all will come to a deep and profound love for our Blessed Mother Mary.

And now the third:

Heartdwellers, here's testimony about the rosary and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. My cousin last year of January, was about to die of a 4th stage rare cancer, and after I heard about it, I started praying the rosary two to three times a day--together with the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, for I didn't want her to pass away yet--she was only 21 at that time.

Then we checked our auntie about her health, within a month. She said that the cancer has all gone! Rosary prayer method and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy was the only prayer method I was using--and it got answered! My cousin is still alive 'til this day; it's a miracle from rosary method of prayer.

And a couple of years ago, I saw my first waking vision from Jesus--clear as day, like a big TV screen with soft edges, while I was reciting the rosary, then the Chaplet after that. It was in the middle of me praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy that I saw my few minutes' vision, just because I asked for a vision from Jesus before I prayed the rosary and the Chaplet.

I received healing and transcendent peace together with that vision on that very night in my room, and the peace has remained in me to this day. And the healing of the suffering, which was physical illness I had, went away for good together with that vision. I had carried that suffering for 16 years, and it's now gone for good.

All because of the teachings on this Channel, plus the rosary and the Chaplet that all those good things happened to me. It's not of the enemy--I've discerned it for 2 years now. And it's just too sweet, too loving and too peaceful to be from the enemy. The overwhelming love and the transcendent peace has lasted 'til now. I'm being honest here and Jesus knows I'm telling the truth. Much love and God bless you, my friends. I hope and pray that the scales in your eyes soon will fall.?

And the fourth:

I am Catholic and have prayed the rosary my entire life... But, I died unexpectedly, during labor. And remember when I was carried to Heaven and found myself in front of Jesus.

He was SOOOOO loving and kind!! No one can describe how amazing it feels to be in His presence!! He was NOT displeased or offended by my respect for His mother during my life, I can assure you! He showed me the times I had prayed to God the Father, and to Jesus, and how happy He was that I chose during my earthly 'test' to believe in His love for Me, and to trust Him.

His love was more than I can describe, and I still cry sometimes because of how much I miss Him there! He told me He was proud of me!! After our conversation, He sent me back here. I was quite sad to come back.

I still pray the rosary because I know it does NOT offend Jesus when we remember His life in that way. I also say the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, which I feel pleases Jesus very much, because of the graces and conversions it can attain for lost souls--all of whom He loves immensely! ?

The fifth:

Brothers and sisters, those of you who are having struggles with this word regarding using the rosary in prayer; I understand. I have spent my life in the protestant 'tradition', seriously believing that much of what happens in Catholic services was not much more than show; than tradition. I've never prayed the rosary in my life. I've never taken seriously the idea of 'praying' to Mary. For that matter, I had never prayed using the Divine Mercy Chaplet. To me all these things only represented the traditions of men. It wasn't until I started understanding the Lord's explanations, through His conversations with Clare, and really listening...

Especially listening with my heart. In teaching us about the Early Church, I began to understand how so much of what I thought of as tradition had its roots in truth, in Scripture. When Jesus said to the people that they must eat His flesh and drink His blood, and numbers of His disciples left, because they just couldn't make their way around that... my soul cried; 'Lord, I don't want to be that way. I give you my doctrinal doubts. Help me see past a lifetime of holding to my own dogmas. Help me to see your word'.

I'm learning a lot of new stuff, and that's great. I'm not just a little in awe of the Mary I never knew, and the mysteries that the Early Church believed that, to me, someone who has grown up in and trained for ministry in church, have had little comprehension of.

All this to say, take your uncertainties to the Lord. Don't be too quick to discredit something, just because it's not according to the way you were taught. Let's all make room for Him to correct and fill in the gaps in our understanding. ?

The sixth:

Meeting Mary, deep in the heart of Puerto Rico....

At the age of 16, my now brother-in law decided he and 4 other friends would go to their local Catholic Church and pray the Rosary, on a Friday night. They were sad to see their friends getting drunk, the partying and the ever-looming occult practices in the mountains.

They had been revisiting the Church every Friday night for some time and had grown to love one another and their time together.

One evening, at the end of their prayer, when all was quiet- suddenly appeared the Most Beautiful Lady they had ever seen. She was taller than average height and VERY beautiful. With arms outstretched, an exquisite scent of roses filled the very air they were breathing. She looked so lovingly at them, as to say, "Thank you." They were stunned and in awe! They knew their heavenly Mother and intercessor had come to visit them.

I, too, when I was 14 years old--when I started believing--knew that there was more than 'just praying' to Jesus. So, by the time I was maybe 22, I was so sick of everyone telling me NOT to pray to Jesus' mother. I asked Him, "PLEASE! Is Your Mother real??"

I was the next day at church, and I wanted SO badly to know the truth. I was sad, because I felt everyone was saying so many bad things about her that she didn't deserve. Then, she literally appeared to me. I didn't see her with my eyeballs, but I saw her shoot straight into my heart! She was wearing blue... such blue! She loved me so much. I was so blown away! I could barely walk in the church. I felt like I was wrapped in a sweet bubble of love. Just ask Jesus to show you, like I did! Jesus will do it!

And finally, the seventh one:

Wow, this is so interesting! You called Mary a prayer partner, because in seeking the Lord about this, that is how He broke it down to. She is like... a sister in the Lord, or a spiritual mother. Like say, if you had a sister in Christ that had a special prayer gifting, you'd go to her and ask her to pray for and with you for any particular thing.

The same thing with Mary. She doesn't want glory of her own, but she is like a gentle, guiding, supportive mother that points you toward Jesus and supports us in that.

While I was in prayer the other day at church, while trying to be open to this, I had a sense of Mary on my left and Jesus on my right. She was a supportive, encouraging presence, reminding me I wasn't alone in my struggles and that I don't have to feel alone. Jesus was there, being Jesus--but Mary played a supporting role, walking with me up and down the aisles in the church.

It was beautiful, and it helped me understand what I was so hesitant to. It's not weird at all. On Earth, as is in Heaven. If we live in the spirit, why wouldn't we be able to communicate in the spirit with our brothers and sisters (the Cloud of Witnesses) to achieve God's purposes if He desires?

This message was beautiful confirmation and a rhema I had, to confirm before I even listened to the message-- but was pondering these things in my heart. It said, "Hold to the thoughts you are having now, because they are so good and holy and healthy for your soul". (That was the rhema.)

God really is a good God. And He clears things up for us when we allow Him to, and when we're willing to put down our stubborn, carnal ways. It's so easy to stick with what we've always known, but I want to know what Jesus wants me to know.

Though, I am glad you waited on His timing to bring all this up... I can see how it could cause stumbling if it was done out of His timing. I, for one, would have had way more trouble accepting this if it had been spoken of before now. I would have probably been turned off from the whole Channel. But His timing is perfect.

I love Him and I love this Channel. Thank you so much for your patience with us.?

America the Great? or America the Godly

October 11, 2018

Lord, only with Your grace can we stay busy and not curious. Please help us to remember that satisfying our curiosity does nothing to keep our lamps full of oil for Your arrival. Amen

Well, I wish I had different news, my beloved Heartdwellers, but it still looks very much like the Rapture is in view.

I found a book that really bore witness in my spirit, and it really confirmed the sequence of events that would make sense for a Rapture scenario, very soon. Sooner than later, that is. I was hoping for another three years, to be honest with you.

Lord, would you please speak to me? No martial law--what's really going on? It is very discouraging.

Jesus began, "First of all, I want you to understand that your prayers are holding back a great deal. They have even affected the enemy's financial profile and ability to move in certain directions. This does have an impact, and certain maneuvers are being reconsidered for bigger events--but this should not come as a surprise, because you know I always answer your prayers."

"Are you not whining like Jonah right now?"

Uh...yeah... Yes, I guess I am.

"Don't worry, Clare. You are hearing from Me. You are not a false prophet. But when you have an army of 5,000 intercessors, all praying to hold back retaliation--you have to expect some kind of mercy from Heaven!"

"Part of what is happening through your prayers is a sense of defeat on the part of some of the globalists. It becomes very frustrating when every venue you're planning to use is disarmed or collapses out from under you."

But I am feeling such a heaviness, Lord...

"Because it IS heavy. The world is riding the cusp of transition from relative peace to war. Every day war tries to advance; every day peace prays it down. Every single day there are remarkable strides towards peace, but the opponent is so huge, it seems that so little is accomplished. But Clare--every victory counts."

Jesus continued, "What you are really wrestling with is still the Rapture, isn't it?"

Well... aside from looking stupid for speaking about martial law and seeing nothing happen. Yes. You could say that is heavy on my heart.

"What am I to do with you, My Love? I allow you to receive a little inside information, so you will pray, and when what you prayed against is not loosed--in YOUR timing--I am in trouble? Are you not just like Jonah?"

"Do you think I want to see innocent people caught in the crossfire? Do you think I want to see looting and rioting? My heart is that not one soul is injured. Of course, in this world that impossible--but I honor all your prayers, nonetheless."

"All I can tell you, Clare, is that your country is prepared for martial law, because they are aware of the plans of the enemy. And it is a race to block these assaults. Money being lost through the change of financial systems has had an impact. Many other scenarios and alternative events are being planned, but your prayer may be the very one that stops it."

"Please don't complain to Me. It is hurtful, My Love. Trust is what is needed."

"And I say--you are still upset with Me about the possibility of the Rapture occurring soon. You are struggling with this, and it is depressing you. But I am asking you to please, please, let go of your plans and expectations, and just follow what I ask you to do. And all will be well for you and so many others."

Jesus, I am too little to do that. Would You please help me?

"You know I cannot resist you when you ask in this manner. Yes, I will help you."

Lord, have you anything else to say?

Jesus began again, "My Beautiful Brides, you are all still very anxious about the upcoming events and timing. And I AM warning you. I AM calling you to prayer, and I am also mandating that you STAY BUSY with your given appointments. Yes, prayer is key right now; but also is it imperative that you stay occupied, doing as much good as you can until the very last moment."

"There are so many things you are all so compulsively curious about. Oh, this trait of curiosity in My children! It can be so wonderful--or so detrimental. Please don't try to second guess Me on timing. Just keep your nose out of the compulsive news and update mill; that will help you tremendously. Keep yourselves in prayer and watchful, on the lookout, and see to it that you are not caught unaware."

"You still can do much good if you stop wasting time on listening to this one and that one."

"Rather, I would have you apply your talents and gifts with greater perseverance and leave behind so many proofs of your love for mankind; so many proofs for your relatives: instructions, letters of tender advice, things useful to them."

"We do not know the hour, but "we" know the season is upon us--and therefore you should all be busy lighting your lamps and keeping extra oil. Do not be caught without oil in your lamp. Do not get caught in idle entertainments and gossip. Make every effort to plow through opposition and deliver the sweet fruits of your disciplines and talents.

"Pray, hope, and do not worry. Do what is necessary to your state in life. Pray and produce good fruit, whether that is in counseling the insecure and misinformed, in showing My love to those in need--this is so very important. And in worship, where your strength will be.

"I know you all vacillate between coming Home and doing more good. I know that for many of you that is an agonizing struggle. I know that every day you feel drained and exhausted by the world.

"Oh, do keep yourselves away from the world as much as you can! And do be aware that this need to know is an obsessive-compulsive demon wanting to waste your time, so you will never contribute all that you could, because you will give place to curiosity, and waste it on who has the most compelling timelines.

"Lay it all down, PLEASE, would you? Lay it all down. You don't have to know anything but faithfulness to Me and faithfulness to your state in life. If there is a need for preparations that you have not made, I will warn you. But if you choose to go off on your own, you will waste time.

"For many of you, I already know where your families and loved ones will be taken care of. I have already prepared for them all they need. It is yours, now, to be faithful to produce fruit for Me that will draw all men to My Heart of Love for them."

I wanted to share with you the insights I gathered from a book titled, Bible Prophecy & Trump by James Warden, Jr. When I had only scanned two pages, my mind suddenly began to process and get a grasp on the season we were in living in, according to Scripture, for the first time in two years. Warden talks about Daniel 8 and how our President fits the description of the great King from the West. And reading further, I began to have a peace about the Rapture.

At this point, I had to seek the Lord about whether or not to share it, because I didn't want to stimulate all of you into diving for details. This is what I understood Him to say, "I do not want you diving into searches for more information. What you have perceived is worth sharing, but I do not want it to become the focus. The focus must remain on your faithfulness to your missions."

So, sharing this with you, in Daniel 8, this author identifies America as the rough, aggressive goat with the big horn in the middle of its head. And that would be the choleric-natured Donald Trump, that utterly defeats Iran, which is a hot bed for ISIS and terrorism in the Mid-East. Shortly after that, this king comes into the height of his power and makes his nation great in the world. But then suddenly, the big horn is cut off.

The great nation represented by the goat is divided into 4 kingdoms, and in the midst of those four horns, the four kingdoms, a little horn arises--which I believe to be the antiChrist or Barack Hussein Obama.

When I read this, it made perfect sense. The author also stated that the Rapture could happen any time now. All I can say is that I had an inner witness in my heart about a possible sudden event that could change Trump's and America's destiny right at its zenith, causing it to become 4 kingdoms instead of one. And from those four kings would arise Obama as the antiChrist.

Could the Rapture be the event that changes everything? Or could it be nuclear war? Or a fatal attack on Washington? I don't know, and Daniel does not go into that any more, that I am aware of. But America would certainly be different overnight.

And I just want to mention, that I remember the Lord told me that He wanted to give America a fighting chance, because the people were so asleep and unaware of what had been done to them and what was coming. And that is why He extended the time, three years. Conditionally.

And during those two years, people have woken up to what was going on, to what Obama has done. What Hillary has done. They've really begun to see the Light. And now, all of those things are being changed. Have been changed by Donald Trump. Things that were very deadly to our nation are being reversed. The military is being built up instead of torn down.

Could it be that we are at the point where the Lord is going to pull the Christians out of the whole mess and let the Tribulation proceed? 'Cause surely, we're holding it back. We'll just have to wait and see. But the main thing was, the Lord wanted us to focus on our missions, not on timing. And not on curiosity. So, let's stay away from that.

In looking back at what I just said, something rings true--given what was just said about the prayers of 5,000--along with other Christians, holding back martial law and much of the evil planned by the globalists. Everything they've been plotting to do, we've found out about and we've foiled. And I believe it's because we're the restrainers spoken of in II Thessalonians 2. Not only us, but the Body of Christ.

"And now you know what is holding him back," the Scripture says. "...so that he may be revealed at the proper time. For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way."

Wow!!! That's US. We are the ones that are holding back the antiChrist from doing everything that is in his will to do. This makes so much sense. We know we have been holding back Obama and the things that he's planned; from wreaking any more havoc on America. We know he is the figurehead for the globalist agenda. And every one of his administrative decisions were made with disarming and weakening America's power in the forefront of his mind--even to the point of arming our enemies with uranium to be used in the destruction of Israel and the world.

But now that the he goat of 'a stubborn and rough nature' has donned the great horn of the Presidency of the United States, for now Obama is held back from doing any more harm. The great horn, Donald (which means great ruler) on the goat, America, must be cut off--or the little horn which grows up in its place will never come into power.

The verse that says, "the secret power of lawlessness is already at work;" refers to the Roman empire that was at work at that time. And of the globalists which is at work then and has continued to this day. The Iron legs that are now mingling with clay in the form of an influx of Third World peoples running from the corrupt governments and seeking sanctuary in the Iron legs. Which brings us to the ankles into view. Because now these Third World peoples--for America, it is the Mexican nationals; for Europe, it is the Arabic speaking people--both of these people groups are very clannish and will not mix with the Europeans, but maintain their own ethnicity, even while living in First World nations.

And BTW, this was James Warden's insight from his book Trump on Prophecy.

So, you see, my Heartdwellers, we are very, very close to the Rapture according to Daniel 8. Before Obama can go any further, the Body of Christ must be taken out of the way. This secret of lawlessness we know is already at work in the global elite take-down of America. It has been exposed, and so has Obama been exposed as the man of sin.

According to Scripture, when President Trump has been elected to a second term (I'm guessing on this). Because a second term election would be a great triumph for him. And would bring him to the top in his power. According to Scripture, when President Trump has been elected for the second term, and when Iran is utterly defeated, then he will be removed and the country turned into 4 nations. America cut into four nations. Which could be the globalist divisions of America, or could be the unique differences between Yankees and the deep South, California and the Midwest--all of whom have very differing value systems.

So, I'm going to read this version to you in its entirety, just in case I missed something that might be of interest to you.

So, this is 2 Thessalonians 2:1-8

Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers and sisters, not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by the teaching allegedly from us--whether by a prophecy or by word of mouth or by letter--asserting that the day of the Lord has already come. Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for that day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction. He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God."

I want to stop for a moment here and say, many have made the presumption that the Temple would have to be erected before the Rapture. So that the Man of Lawlessness could be revealed. But let's face it. We already know who this man is. That is not going to be any revelation to us--he's already been revealed to the Christians through the agency of the Holy Spirit. He's already shown us who that man is. So he HAS been revealed.

That doesn't necessarily mean that the third Temple has to be built and he has to sit on a throne. That WILL happen. But that doesn't mean that we'll be here when it happens. Because the Lord will take us out of the way, so that these things can progress. Because they're stymied now. He can't go any further.

Paul goes on to say, "Don't you remember that when I was with you I used to tell you these things? And now you know what is holding him back, so that he may be revealed at the proper time. For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so until he is taken out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with the breath of his mouth and destroy by the splendor of his coming."

Wow. So, the stage is set, dear ones. The stage is set. The great horn is in place and is taking down the ram. And he's gaining popularity. And he will be voted in again. And that's when we have to really be concerned. Because things could change overnight.

Now...whether we'll be here to see that or not? I don't know. But things are going to change very suddenly. And our nation will be divided in four. And after that, Obama will come up where the big horn was and take over the government of the United States.

So, let's be ready. We just don't know the hour when this will happen. But we are surely in the season. And I'm only guessing that it would happen after the second term of President Trump. I'm only guessing at that, because that would really exhale his position and prove that the American people wanted him as their President. And that would be a great triumph and a great victory, considering what the dark ones are doing. And the dark ones can't get any further until we are taken out of the way. Because our prayers are just too powerful. The whole Body of Christ has to be removed before they can go ahead with their agenda. And we've seen this, time and time again. We get warnings from our friend in Intel, and he tells us this is happening, and that's happening. Then he comes back and he tells us, 'Well, the ships were intercepted. And this was intercepted. And that was intercepted.' And it's like every time they try to make inroads and do something new - the Body of Christ rises up to pray and stops them!

So, in order for the antiChrist to really come out and take over, we have got to be removed. And that could happen at any moment.

I want to add this last word to the message. We do not know the hour or the day, but it is obviously the season. With that said, the Rapture could be two or three years away--depending on how the Lord counts President Trump's time in the White House as the pinnacle of success.

But I would still say that the total defeat of Iran should be a sign on the time-table for us. When that event happens, it will be clear that we are entering the near completion of his Presidency.

This is all conjecture on my part, dear ones. I am not a Bible scholar, far from it--I'm more like a high school dropout.

So, do not get upset with me if I come back and correct myself. I just felt it so strongly, like-- 'YES! this IS possible'--that I needed to share it with you.

But the Lord's focus is still on producing fruit. Let's all pray for one another, because this up and down cycle that happens when we get called into serious intercession is hard for all of us.

But let's not be like Jonah, who fell into self-pity and complaining if it drags on a bit. Rather, let's be grateful that there is enough repentance to give us more time.

To add a note here, Carol, in her prayer time, saw Jesus in agony in the Garden, praying for more time. Wow. That tells us something.

So, we shall see. Get busy, Heartdwellers, don't give up on doing good. He is still calling for that, like He did two years ago. He wants to see fruit. He wants us to be busy when He comes.

I think it is the condition of the people in the church that He is grieved over, so many are ignorant of what's going on before their very eyes and are still against President Trump.

Perhaps if we pray for the Church to wake up and be holy, we will be given more time. It is the hearts of the people that are so important to the Lord--their commitment to what is right and just. And remember, you and I-- "WE"--are the restraining force that is holding back the complete takeover by evil. We are the ones who must be Raptured before their evil plans can be fully implemented. So, it all lies in the hands of the Father, who sees into the depths of all men's hearts and administers justice.

We have a great President, one who wants America to be Godly and Great in prosperity. But one that may not understand being Godly is more difficult in times of prosperity than it is in when we have moderate and self-sustaining wealth. The moment the focus shifts from God to wealth, is the moment we go down.

Pray for holiness. Pray for great holiness in America in all her dealings with all her people and the world. God bless you, Heartdwellers.

Partnering With Heaven on Earth

October 15, 2018

Thank You, Lord, for the powerful insights into the workings of Heaven and Earth. Amen.

Lord, I want to be close with You, but I don't know how. If I get quiet, I fall asleep! Even now I feel pulled back to bed. Please, help me. I need Your love and I know You need Mine.

Jesus answered me, "That is an understatement, My dearest! I wait and wait for you, and then I see how things are being stolen from you. Oh, how I wish to speak with you for hours."

My Lord, there is nothing I would like better!

"Truly?"

Jesus, You know all things... You know that this is true.

"Clare. The Spirit is willing... but the flesh is weak. I would like to begin anew, right now, as though we had not been separated. Because I have seen that your desire is for Me continually and the World means less and less to you every day. Please thank My Mother for her prayers on your behalf; she truly has tamed the black panther in you."

And I want to tell you--she sure has! I have NO interest in the things of the World, except the basic necessities. I don't even go hunting for them. I just tell somebody else and they look for them. 'Cause I don't even want to go NEAR that stuff!

So, I said, "Dearest Mother, thank you for having tamed the black panther! Thank you so much for your prayers. I look back on my behavior now and I say, 'How foolish! How empty! That I desired these things and spent time looking for them on the internet. How foolish I have been.' But every since that day I saw the panther tamed sitting by your side and realized all I needed to do was ask for your assistance and it would be conquered. Wow! Ever since that day I have been relieved of this terrible compulsion. How amazing are your ways, dear Mother. Thank you, Blessed Mother, with all my heart I thank you.

And Mary answered me, "And that's not all. There are yet many victories ahead of you if you will only ask."

I am asking for your intercession with everything displeasing to your Son, in whatever order you would prefer. But please? Would you pray for my eating habits to change? Truly, I enjoy food way too much and it is a distraction. I know this is the time of the year when bears fatten up--but I'm not a bear! And so do most people in preparation for the cold weather. But still, I want to be free of my compulsions and foolish choices with food, and I would really love more guidance on what to eat. Could you please help me with that?

"Whatever you wish, Clare. But I do want you to know that I've already been working in that area with you. And there are several saints who also have been praying for you, such as Brother Bernard, St. Francis' companion. And Padre Pio.

"They are concerned for you, because you lose graces when you indulge in delicious foods on a regular basis. Those foods are meant for celebrations; they are not everyday foods. You are in a war, my daughter, and warriors must be fit and trim, not fat and lazy. These foods tend to laziness and an endless sense of guilt that you could be doing better with your appetites."

Which is true!

"Much of what causes you to turn to them is a drop in blood sugar, because of stress, and your body craves something to boost you back up. I have seen you make wise choices when that happens, such as Quinoa. So, you are not far from wisdom. Just a bit more self-control.

"You see, when you get hit with slime from demons of Futility & Hopelessness--you want to grab something for comfort and a fast pick-up. This comes from the vicious cycle of not getting enough prayer time, enough time loving and worshiping My Son, who fills you with faith and hope. He prepares you for these attacks, Clare, so that when they do happen you don't revert to old ways. Ways even from your childhood.

"It is important for all Heartdwellers to know that when you age, your mind also ages, and is not so ready to take on the challenges of life, but would prefer to slip back into a comfort zone. Fellowship with my Son changes that. He renews your strength like the eagle's.

"Is it not written?"

Yes, truly, Mother. It is.

"And so, you will notice more falls happen when you aren't getting the deep trusting time you need together. Also, as you age, memories from childhood have a way of coming up. Since you did not have a happy childhood and you struggled with food then, as you were growing up, that adds an additional stress to your mind."

Yes, I have noticed I am getting a flood of memories coming back from my past. My photography business in San Francisco, things that I did. Things that I did as a child that I don't want to remember; I want to stay in present time. Please, would you pray for me there, too? Lately, I've been barraged with these distracting thoughts which always end in condemnation.

"I will pray for you, sweet Clare. I do not wish for you to have to re-experience these things, either. But the enemy is very clever. He knows how to play back damning memories from the past to discourage you in the present. You have a flood of demons assailing you every day, Clare. You are very much hated by the dark side. And your brave choice to obey my Son in regards to spreading devotion to me has enlarged your circle of enemies.

"There will soon come a time when the eyes of those who have rejected the intercession of the saints, and the relationship with me--there will come a time when God will open their eyes. And then I will be loved and engaged in their lives, as I am with you."

Oh, Mother, that makes me cry. How could anyone not love you? How terrible! You are the sweetest and kindest person I've ever known, perhaps next to your Son. It pains me deeply that people reject you.

She replied, "My child, sloth is a deadly enemy. And when it comes to spiritual sloth, it is even more so to be feared. Because what proceeds from the Spirit determines the direction you will go in, work towards, and the fruit you will bear. There are many of my children--and I call them that, because Jesus gave them to me at the foot of the Cross. It was my only begotten Son that I willingly handed over to the executioners, so that Scripture could be fulfilled. I gave that gift for you and for all humanity, from the heart, for I wished for them to be liberated from the curse of Adam and Eve and subsequent generations.

"But where spiritual sloth is concerned, people only parrot what they've heard and take no time to delve more deeply into Scripture to find out if it is conflicting or confirming. When they do that, they alter the course of their destinies, because they don't get that help that they need. That is one reason why I'm so hated by the devil. Because my whole heart is wrapped around their destinies, praying and hoping they'll make the right choices. But when they turn away from me, there's no way for me to touch them with the wisdom that will lead them further into their destinies. And I must wait until a future time, when they will accept the wisdom I want to share with them as a Mother. But still, I do pray for them. I gave that gift for you and all humanity - and subsequent generations, which are passed down through the Blood.

Our Lady continued, "With all my heart, I wanted to see righteousness flourish. I wanted to see the prostitutes, the repentant soldiers, the crooked tax collectors, the witches and warlocks--redeemed. In fact, of all mankind struggling in sin to be redeemed. In no way did I want them to go to Hell! And I knew that I could participate in His sacrifice by giving my consent to His untimely death. My heart was one hundred percent united with His.

"And to this day, my heart is united to His, in the work of sanctification of souls and bringing the Gospel message to the most wretched of humanity to give them Hope. The hope of a totally new and born-again life in Christ. This has been my mission from the day I consented to His incarnation in my womb.

"And even in my youth, I realized I felt differently about life than my peers. I was not interested in the same things. Rather, as I walked the Temple precincts, I saw the way sin had twisted and ruined lives. I heard the cries of repentance and the longing for the Messiah, and my heart was very much in that same place.

"I saw the suffering Satan had brought into the world, and that truly there was a need for a Redeemer. I longed and prayed with all my heart for the coming of the Messiah.

"Oh, Clare, had you heard the wailing in the Temple you, too, would have been overwhelmed with pity for the state of mankind. You, too, would be crying out day and night for the advent of the Messiah. It was beyond anything you could imagine--and I heard the weeping and supplications day after day, year after year.

"So yes, my heart was caught up in the birth of the Messiah--not in making myself beautiful for a man.

"There are very few indeed who understand how God formed me into a woman of prayer and longing for Him. To most I am more like a young woman passing by that was conscripted into service.

"No, it wasn't like that at all. I, too, labored in prayer for His coming from an early age. I, too, wept and yearned for the freedom that would come with Him. I, too, had need for His redemption. And to me, at that time, the whole Earth cried out for their Redeemer, even as it does now. The trees, the plants, the wind--even the stars seemed to long for His coming.

"Every living creature was in some way united with the Divine Plan and longed to see it fulfilled in His coming, even just as it is today. If you could hear them, Clare! Oh, I wish you could hear them. They cry out! Yes, the trees cry out; the grasses of the field cry out; the deer in the forest cries out--even the dogs long for His return when all things will be set right.

"Little is understood by mankind how united they are to the Divine Plan. There is an awareness that most have that goes unrecognized in their souls, an awareness of the one-ness of all Creation.

"Just as you have seen mankind in the consecrated host. All the faces, even the animals. All are united and in oneness with Him as Holy Spirit is the life-generating force in the Universe. He is inseparable from Father and Son, and because of that, all of Creation is knitted together as one seamless garment worn by the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

"When one part of the garment is injured, the entire garment feels it. Yes, all of Creation responds to the pain of just one tiny part. And if you could see how the Earth has mourned and reeled back and forth over the unjust death of just one child, one abortion, over the slain by ISIS, over the ravaging of the buffalo herds by the soldiers. If you could see how the Earth reacts to such atrocities--you would pass out on the spot.

"There is a sensitivity that this planet has to everything that takes place on it. And yes, it is written, Clare. He has spoken it through His prophets. And they heard, but did not listen.

"Let us look together, my sweet daughter. Let us feed on the Word of God and receive the understanding He gave for us.

And I was led to Romans 8.

18 I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.

She continued, "This is why the Heartdwellers willingly offer to God every pain and loss and inconvenience. They have been taught the value of suffering."

19-20: For the Creation waits in eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. For the Creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the Creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the freedom and glory of the children of God.

She continued, "And God willed that all should be tied together by the power of the Spirit into one entity, the Creation, so that even mankind would be in harmony with his surroundings, and his body would be sound and flourishing, even as his environment flourished. Oh, the sad consequences of harming the environment, which has been stabilized and balanced to perfection by the Spirit, then given to Man. But sin brought disease and frightful mutations."

22-25: We know that the whole Creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption to sonship, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what they already have? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

"And as Creation groans," she continued. "We too groan for the Justice and Righteousness of God to rule the Earth."

26-27: In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God's people in accordance with the will of God.

"Clare, the Earth groans. Did you know that? The Earth has been groaning at the approach of the apocalyptic planet, Nibiru. Yes, these groans have been heard around the world. They come from an Earth that is destabilizing, because of sin and nuclear weapons and weapons far stronger than that. That are employed for tsunamis and other violent acts against humanity.

She continued, "Yes! The Spirit of God intercedes through all Creation; it is not just mankind that longs for the heavenly state and freedom. It is everything that lives and even the rocks that cry out! Is it not true that all things have their being in Him? If that be so, it is impossible to separate man from the sufferings of a planet laid waste by Satan."

She continued, "His Blood has redeemed even the Earth and all that dwells in it. But the waiting is painful, ever so painful as things tend to die off and lose their beauty. Because of the constant dripping of the stains of sin, it degenerates and loses its vitality. Through His Blood, He has reconciled all things. And it is through His blood that we each are empowered to do our part to bring mankind into His Heart of Love for them.

"And Satan hates this work and all that give their lives to it. And the more influence the soul has upon the hearts of man, working through the power of the Holy Spirit, the more they are hated.

"So, my mandate is to come and assist you. To come and help you overcome your weaknesses, through counsel and through prayer. I dote over you, Clare, I truly do. You have stirred my motherly love by your pitiful estate and weaknesses. I rejoice in those like you who have received the Love of my Son with such deep gratitude and they've allowed Him to change their lives.

"There is so much devastation coming to Earth soon, and we in Heaven are indeed anxious to be of service to those still on Earth. We long to be called on and recognized as fellow workers in the Vineyard. Our only difference is that we see the folly we lived in. We made SO many mistakes in our own lives that had to be overcome.

"We've travelled the same road you are on, Clare, and we wanted to help--because we know the way. We long to help, but so few reach out to us. It is our hope that your Channel will spread far and wide, and those who are willing to break with the establishment, will finally get it.

"So many refuse to even look, because they are not willing to be ostracized from the Christian communities around the world. They love their status and honor among peers and are not willing to be shunned for the Truth.

"Besides, they reason, 'Only Christ is necessary, we don't need the Cloud.' With that kind of reasoning, I would like them to consider what life would be like if they lived on an island with no other living being. Totally isolated; totally alone.

"You see, we have lived and conquered, through His power, the World. But those who rely on others who have not yet conquered, like peers that can maintain the status quo, those are relying on the arm of the flesh. Yes, God hears their prayers. BUT there is SO much more!!! So much more support and counsel and fellowship available.

"But with it comes persecution and rejection.

"Carol is one dear soul who threw herself on God's mercy and Truth--and did it, anyway. And look at the consolations she has had from the Lord's visitations and the saints that are so fond of her. Look at how encouraged she has become with Padre Pio, St. Francis and Faustina and others. THIS is the way God intended it. That no one should be separated in the spirit, but that the saints should stand by and help those still in the fight to do good, all the way to the end.

"And for that purpose did my Son stand on the Mount of Transfiguration to proclaim the unity between Heaven and Earth, and that we are forever one with all Creation, even as it is written.

"So, I give you these things to ponder, dear family. You are all adored by Heaven, and they long to be an active part of your life. Do not deny them access, but allow them to minister wisdom and prayer to your lives. And use the same measure of discernment on them that you do when you encounter my Son. In this way, you will have no part in familiar spirits, who long to replace the Cloud or keep you totally from the Cloud by intimating that they are devils.

"You will know them by their fruits, dear children. Cleave to my Son, but allow the Cloud to become a part of your daily lives. Remember that in Heaven, there are no limitations on time or space as it is in your world. So, they indeed are blessed with abilities to tend to the flocks, even as you shall be some day."

Jesus Has the Rapture on His Mind...

October 17, 2018

Lord. My deepest desire is that we fully become--and then stay--ready for You. Obedient to Your will until You come for us, whether that be in the next weeks. Months--or years. Help us stay in this position of 'ready', please? Amen.

Dear Heartdweller Family, while Clare is working on some other things right now, she's asked that I share my devotion time with Jesus that I had, with you, from yesterday morning.

First--let me explain something about how I currently 'see' Jesus.

Just over two years ago, in 2016, right after we knew we were NOT going Home in June that year, the Lord came to me and He asked if He could withhold my spiritual vision--for the sake of another who was having trouble 'seeing' clearly. Was I willing?

Now, this wasn't the first time He had asked me of this--it had happened before. Several times. And I had always agreed. (After all, who can say 'no' to Him? When Jesus looks at you with so great a Love, and asks if you would be willing to help Him, help someone else--who could refuse that? Well...I can't, anyway.)

Typically, when He had asked me this before, my spiritual sight would leave me for a period of days. It would go as it...behind a veil. Or maybe it would last weeks...but then be restored again.

Only this time... the days stretched into weeks. And then months. Clare would tell you this is a very heavy cross--and I would have to agree. But my God is always Kind to me. It's probably THE attribute of His that never fails to melt me and draw me closer to Him. To His Heart.

And so, around October that year, seeing the pain that it was causing me after so long, Papa came. And He told me He had a very special, very precious Gift to give me. He called it the Gift of Knowing.

Now, when He gives me a gift, His gift often comes wrapped in something that looks like a very delicately made, ornate Christmas ornament: gold filigree openwork formed into the shape of a ball that has a hinge on one side, and opens up like a jewelry gift-box that might hold a ring or maybe a necklace.

Well, I opened the box, and the Gift of Knowing lifted up from it, looking like a glowing, red ball--and as I watched, I could see it come towards me and enter my soul.

It's hard to explain the difference between seeing in the spirit as most describe it--and how this "knowing" works. Put simply, when I am in this period of 'darkness', the veil down, I don't actually 'see' like I have in the past, what is going on. I simply 'know' that it's happening... Infused knowledge, Clare would call it. Knowledge of what He or others of the Cloud are doing, somehow joined to the understanding that if I could just slip to the other side of that veil--THIS is what I would see... And the images somehow form in my mind, even so.

I thought maybe some of you who have not yet seen Him would appreciate understanding that there are MANY, many ways of 'seeing' Jesus. And hearing Him. Literally seeing Him and hearing Him speak is, of course! Perhaps the most desired. And beautiful. But if and when that is withheld--for whatever reason--He always provides dozens of other ways He can secure your trust in something. And then it becomes a very real source of communication between you.

For instance, He 'talks' to me with numbers, clearly and frequently, because a few years ago He and I 'assigned' certain meanings to certain numbers, just between He and I. And so, when I see them--I know exactly what they mean. To me. Personally--from Him. And I frankly trust those numbers more than some of the things I hear in the spirit. They can't be manipulated, so they can't deceive you, like a demon can.

I guess you could say that this trust that builds between you and Jesus is like... being married to someone for many, many years. My husband and I have been married for 39 years. After a while, you know what a person is thinking or wanting just by the tone of their voice. A quick look on their face. A gesture. Or just the sound of their voice on the phone. It immediately brings up images in your mind from past experiences with them--yet they are not in the room with you, nor can you actually 'see' what's going on, what we're talking about. But still, you know and you see clearly in your mind what they are communicating with you.

Jesus is the same way. The more we get to know Him, the easier these means of communication become, all sorts of them.

So. Getting back to yesterday morning.

I had been through a period of prayer and worship, and was sitting at my desk, journaling. I often leave my music playing on shuffle while I do this, even after spending time in worship--because this is one of the ways the Lord speaks to me, when He isn't choosing to use His actual voice. It is uncanny how He will break into my thinking and writing at THE perfect time, with THE perfect words from a song--even if the main thought of the song has nothing to do with where and how He used the words to 'interrupt' what I was pondering!

During the morning's worship (which had lasted about 2 hours so far), He had played me 5 Christmas songs, mingled in with others. He's been doing this for months now, increasingly. To put this into perspective, I have 101 albums on my phone--approximately 1,200 songs. Out of those 101 albums, only 4 of them are actual Christmas albums... Statistically, for 5 songs to 'pop up' randomly? Well, you all figure that one out.

Along with these Christmas songs, for weeks now, when I had pulled a random message from our website, Heartdwellers.com, (which I do daily in the mornings with Him) they were increasingly, openly Rapture or Tribulation messages, especially from the year 2015. Messages like 'Prepare Packages for the Left Behind.' And 'Jesus Speaks: What Will Come After the Rapture, Part...' Well, He gave me several from that series so far.

So, I began wondering... again. Were all these Christmas songs just a personal message to me? As a signal that He will be restoring my spiritual sight again? For He had once promised it to me this way, signaling the time of year for this release by playing me a single Christmas song, daily. That was last year, though. And for a period of time in the Spring this year, the songs had stopped. Lol... replaced with songs that were blatantly about the Dark Night of the Soul.

But now He was playing at least 5. Daily... For quite a while.

Was there more to it all than just for me, personally?

Just about then He spoke--and called me back into His arms to talk a bit. I literally left my desk and sat curled up on my bed, leaning up against several pillows and the headboard. I was listening to the music still, and this was a worship/praise song that was playing.

Right about then, my 'knowing' sense kicked in--and I realized I was laying up against His chest, my cheek laying over His heart. In the spirit, I reached up--and I didn't feel His typical robe--but a lapel.

'A lapel, Lord?' I thought. As I waited, I realized He was wearing a full tuxedo. Black, complete with a white shirt and all those tiny black buttons running down the front. And a white carnation in the buttonhole. As I was scribing this into my journal later, my curiosity prompted me to look up the meaning of the flower--because I know they all have separate meanings.

And I found: "White carnations represent pure love." That made me smile. He speaks through EVERYTHING He does!

Now--to explain this next part, I have a rather wide variety of music on my phone. And I don't separate my albums into playlists. If they are there, they are eligible to be chosen by Holy Spirit! He often calls me to prayer this way, because there is a musical version of the Divine Mercy Chaplet there, as well as all four of the rosaries.

Many years ago, my daughters and I found that one of my very favorite books as I was growing up, Jane Eyre, had been made into a musical. We were actually able to attend a production of it--and fell in love with the songs! God is woven ALL through them! And so, the music from the musical Jane Eyre is now on my phone...

In this production, one of the songs is sung by a woman who thinks she is going to marry Edward--the main male character. And this is the next song that began to play. It was such a random 'pick' I started to laugh, and said, 'Lord??'

"Listen," He said.

The music had advanced to a place where the woman was singing about all the lovely furniture and tasteful decorations that Edward had put in this fine mansion. And then she sings 'Edward! This house could use a wife!'

Jesus spoke to me again then. And He said, "I want My wife, too. Home. With Me."

That was very sobering to me. I began thinking something along these lines. 'Lord... We've been through the Rapture drills--and they were just that. Drills. I don't think, for any of them, I ever REALLY believed it would happen... I never fully 'let go'. And now? Well, it just feels 'safer' to think it's just another Drill. The thought that it really, really could be the end...is still too hard to process for me. There are still too many souls out there who are blind and confused. And so many young people who just. Don't. Get it.

And on top of that, it's so hurtful to think of it--to just 'let go'--and dream again. And then maybe be called back into the war after all...

Oh, be patient with us, Lord! You have trained us so well... But I never wanted to 'fight' in the first place. I hate war. I hate fighting. I have never struck another soul in my entire life! Not on purpose...'

Right at the end of these thoughts, the words of this song broke in:

"Yet I am still with you. You hold me by my right hand... and then You will take me into Glory..."

He leaned over and kissed me on the head...just in case I still wasn't 'getting it'... Another song broke in: "My heart and my flesh may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. Who have I in Heaven--but You?"

I looked down at myself in the spirit now--and I wasn't wearing a wedding dress... I was in a robe--a bathrobe. And my hair, though it's very short, was somehow up in curlers--as though I'd just been to a spa and was being primped and prepared to get ready for a Big Day.

Like a wedding.

"Not quite yet", He said. "Not quite yet...but soon."

Now His tux changed into His 'normal' robe--and the Crown of Thorns was on His head...

He is suffering so, Heartdwellers! The thought of actually having to take us away and leave this world to Satan's devices tears His heart apart.

I thought, 'Lord--I so wish there was a way to ease Your pain in this! I can only believe that You do take comfort from my very little heart--as You have said You do.'

I wondered what I was to be doing in the time yet we had to wait? And He told me that I could 'start' another book I've had in mind--the one titled Oh, The Love of Jesus! Because people need to know His Love!

But I had the distinct feeling was that I could start it. But I wouldn't be finishing it. Not here, anyway.

Another song broke in: "Save me, oh my God. The waters have come up to my neck. I sink in the depths where there is no foothold." And my thoughts immediately flew to those horrible events the prophets have been seeing so often--a tsunami destroying NYC. Or as we once had a vision from a Heartdweller--somewhere on the West Coast.

Just last week Clare, Ezekiel, Sherry and I had been in deep intercession for days to STOP such a thing happening in our country. I was beginning to be truly troubled at the prospect that this might be what He will allow...next.

And then... I don't know how HE does it. I can't shift my emotions quickly--not in the least. But He seems to do it all the time. I suddenly 'saw' Him now in a flowery Hawaiian shirt! I've always wanted to visit Hawaii...

He spoke once again, "The Islands Here are so beautiful." Which brought to mind a vision Ezekiel had had of me and Jesus together. A very precious vision, but that's another whole story.

I had the sense, now, it was time to go back to my journal and record all that had just happened. I have a pattern in my journaling. I 'click' for three rhemas from the website, copy and paste them in and then 'talk' to Him about them while I'm journaling. I write what I'm talking. I go for a random Scripture, then. And do the same. And finally, I go for a random message.

This was the time now to ask Holy Spirit to point me to that message. And this is the one that came up: Christmas Eve 2015, a message given to Clare on December 24th, 2015.

Let me play some of that message for you here as Clare recorded it, and you'll see why this struck me so hard when I heard it.

(Clare begins)

I wish I had a bright and shiny message for you this Christmas Eve, but I'm afraid the Lord is truly suffering and the message is far from being cheerful.

He was very present to me tonight in worship and we spent a long, long time together. As I had told you about a few days ago, I set my computer's music list on shuffle--that's allowing the Holy Spirit to lead as to which songs to play, when.

The Lord's love inflamed my heart, until I could hardly bear to be in His presence. And I know that when He strengthens me like that, it means there's a trial coming.

I noticed He was wearing black slacks, normal shoes and a white shirt with pleats, and a black bow-tie. Then I also saw Him in a full Tux.

I'll never be able to communicate the tenderness and glory that He imparted to me today. And I just want to tell you that anything the Lord does with me, is also for YOU. Because I am merely one of His thousands of Brides and Queens.

And He wants you to know the kind of treatment that you are going to get when He takes you into His Home in Heaven. So, He shares it with me. He gives me a glimpse of what's going to happen ahead of time, so I can tell you what to expect.

There's nothing special about me. The only thing special about me is the Lord. And He is with you, too. And that makes you just as special.

He gave me a beautiful red-velvet, royal cape with ermine trim, and we walked down this long aisle towards the Throne. He danced with me, holding me so tenderly. He was wearing His ermine-trimmed, red velvet cape and gold crown. And then He placed a gold crown on my head, also. A very ornate one and said, "A perfect fit!" And we lingered there together, forehead to forehead.

And now the Lord is sobbing.

He began, "Oh, how I dread what I must do. Oh, how I dread it! All of humanity will be in shock and totally disoriented. All but the most remote, to answer your unspoken thought, My love."

I was thinking of those who live in the wilderness and don't ever get any news, and they're far away from the influence of people.

He continued, "This moment that must come to pass. The glory of having you in My presence forever must first be preceded by this horrendous trial upon the Earth."

"No, it shall not come nigh your dwelling, but the terror and confusion all over the world will be inescapable. My sorrow and mourning for the lost--this will hang heavy upon the Earth, like a thick, dark mantle of agony. Tormented souls who cry out as their blood is shed will cover the Earth with their sobs, with no one to comfort them, as many descend into Hell."

"And My Bride? What shall she do? She shall behold the consequences of what has been done to ravage the Earth. But then she shall accompany Me into Glory, where every tear will be blotted out. Where we will celebrate her Homecoming."

"But before that moment, I must suffer My Passion, all over again, Clare. Remember in these moments in the Garden when all was revealed to Me, what I was about to suffer for. The physical suffering was and never could be comparable to the mental, emotional anguish of those screaming and crying out for mercy."

"Yet mercy will be denied them, because the hour of mercy has vanished. The time has come when My mercy must be swallowed up in judgment. And Oh, how bitter that is for Me!"

I wrapped my arms around the Lord and held Him tightly, hoping to bring Him comfort. Only a little drop in truly a vast ocean of misery. And He wept bitterly. My very little part was to hold Him, almost as if I were holding Him upright, because He was slumped over me in utter despondency.

"Yet I will have My way with this world." He continued. "Yes, suffering will abound, but Glory will follow. Once the Earth is purified, it will rise again out of the ashes. And those who inhabit it will be trained in the ways of holiness from sea to sea. Yet that kernel of evil must be forever purged from the Earth, and for that reason I will allow the Earth a time of rest."

Here He is referring to the 1,000-year reign.

"For those who are Hell-bent, I will give them time to rise up again until the Purification is complete."

Yes, this second time of purifying will bring forth the evil and corrupt seeds of Satan, once and for all, to be destroyed and stripped of their influence. And you shall stand by My side, and behold it with your own eyes, My Clare.

"Yes, the time is coming when evil shall no longer have a voice. Oh, the mysteries to be revealed! So many mysteries. And you will come to understand all things. No longer will you have any question. Rather you will be fully enlightened as to the 'why' of everything.

"Do not despair. You've been strengthened. Stand strong! This is your time of vindication. It is at hand. No longer will they say, 'Where is your God?' No, rather, 'THIS is YOUR God?? The Mighty and Powerful One? No wonder you love Him!' Yet, they will not understand My love.

"Be prepared. Be strengthened. It is coming."

So...is this all Coincidence? No... He has often told us on the Channel that as we join our hearts and minds to His, He is the one who orders the things that happen to us during our days, and especially during our quiet times with Him.

So. What does it all mean? I'm not completely sure. But it's consistent--and I can't just ignore it.

I would take it, at the least, as yet another reminder that we NEED to be ready. Always. Not slipping back into the world. Not even for a few days. Not even a few moments. And not losing hope. He's been telling us this for a while now--and this short talk with Him yesterday morning simply underscores what He's been telling Clare.

Oh, please be ready, Heartdwellers. Don't get 'too tired'. Don't be afraid, either. He's got us in His hands, as well as our families. That's a promise from another, recent Random Message draw. Just be close as possible to Him and all will be well.

He ended my Time with Him yesterday morning with one last song. It's based on a short message that comes from St. Therese of Avila.

Let nothing disturb you,

Let nothing frighten you,

All things are passing away:

But God never changes.

Patience obtains all things

Whoever has God lacks nothing;

God alone suffices.

It's becoming a daily song He plays for me. I think we would all do well to embrace it.

As an addendum to what happened in the morning, I'll share my evening time with Him, too. I go up to my room, normally, around 8:30 at night. I have pledged to Mary to pray at least one rosary a day--and this is how I prepare to go to bed. After the rosary, if it's not too late, I spend time in worship with Him again. Until He turns off my music, and that's the signal to go to bed.

The first song He played? A Christmas song... Within the 40 minutes that I stayed up from there, He played me three altogether. But the words of one of them sent me into travailing prayer over this world. This country.

I'll read them to you--and post a link to the song afterwards. It's from Casting Crowns, called "While You Were Sleeping"

Oh, little town of Bethlehem

Looks like another silent night

Above your deep and dreamless sleep

A giant star lights up the sky

And while you're lying in the dark

There shines an everlasting light

For the King has left his throne

And is sleeping in a manger tonight

Oh Bethlehem, what you have missed while you were sleeping!

For God became a man

And stepped into your world today

Oh Bethlehem, you will go down in history

As a city with no room for its King

While you were sleeping

While you were sleeping

Oh, little town of Jerusalem

Looks like another silent night

The Father gave his only Son

The Way, The Truth, the Life had come
But there was no room for Him in the world he came to save
Jerusalem, what you have missed while you were sleeping
The Savior of the world is dying on your cross today
Jerusalem, you will go down in history
As a city with no room for its King
While you were sleeping
While you were sleeping
United States of America
Looks like another silent night
As we're sung to sleep by philosophies
That save the trees and kill the children
And while we're lying in the dark
There's a shout heard 'cross the eastern sky
For the Bridegroom has returned
And has carried His Bride away in the night
America, what will we miss while we are sleeping?
Will Jesus come again
And leave us slumbering where we lay
America will we go down in history
As a nation with no room for its King
Will we be sleeping
Will we be sleeping

I Remain on My Knees Until You Return to Me

October 20, 2018

Jesus, You have revealed Your heart. Help us to embrace it with all our strength. Amen

Lord, I have missed you so much. And I've been so aware of my failures. Forgive me and give me the right mind not to fail You.

My head was down and I had just finished The Lord's Supper with all the prayers, the Divine Mercy Chaplet and the Rosary. And I just feel so low, so very low. There is not life in me anymore and I've been abandoned by God.

Jesus broke in, "But that's not so, Clare. And you know better. Do you understand? I want you all to understand: Heaven is weeping, Clare. It is not just you; it is all of Heaven and you are a part of that. Those intimately woven into My heart are weeping and carrying this profound sadness, because the time is winding down.

"And we have not yet heard from the Father.

"Do you know, Clare, more prayer is needed? Not just by you, but everyone. There needs to be a greater awareness; a deeper prayer. But things are going on as usual; people are 'marrying and being given in marriage'.

"Clare, this is not your imagination."

I was beginning to think it was, 'cause He never gives me a negative message like this.

"This is Me. And this is very important. Both for you to understand and for you to communicate.

"Marrying and given in marriage, buying houses, cars, lands, wells. Things. All are busy. Busy getting their degrees, improving their lot, taking care of family, striking out on new ventures. Movies are being made, songs are being written--and life proceeds like nothing is going to happen. Ever. And do you know for how long this has been going on?"

And I thought about it for a minute. And I thought, 'Well, I wasn't a Christian until later on. But maybe the 70's? I wasn't a Christian then.'

"No." He said. "Since the 20's--1920. Life has proceeded as if the world was never going to end. But then came the War. And do you know why this was allowed? Because men and women went from unchaste--to morally filthy and degraded. And My mother warned them, did she not? At Fatima, she told them that the 1st World War would shortly end, but that if men did not change, another, worse one, would begin. She told them that I was greatly offended by the manner of dress and lack of modesty.

"The point I am trying to make, My dearest, is that at some point in time Father must say, "Enough!" There have been so many close calls. In the 50's, the 60's, the 70's, and on and on. But each time, He raised His Holy Hand from Heaven and said, 'Stop! We will give it more time.' And each time, the results were very close to the same: everyone who knew how close we were, let out a deep sigh of relief.

"Then life went on... as usual."

"Now, I am not saying no one is praying. On the contrary, more are praying now than were before. But still, it is not enough. Each day, evil swells like a high tide coming in and only your prayers set up a sea wall to stop it.

"But now we are coming into the season of distractions and entertainment. Do you think Satan is stupid? He knows the best time to attack the Kingdom of God on Earth. He knows your mind is somewhere else, your attentions are somewhere else. Your guard is let down. There's merriment and distraction. Shopping. And trips to visit relatives. This is the least likely time in men's eyes for them to be thinking of tragedy and the Rapture. And what the most perfect time to strike?

"Because of the tension in the air over elections, because of that, there are still some at their post praying very seriously. What you are feeling is not isolated just to you. This is going on all over the world, and very few understand what they are dealing with. Rather, they medicate with entertainment, shopping, sex, and drugs.

"The Father has not decided yet. But understand: He has given Mercy so many times and things continue to decline...when will He draw the line?"

Right then after I finished that, Ezekiel called me to come and speak with Him. I could tell it was serious. When I walked into the room, he was pale and his face was disfigured by stress and anguish. And the Lord had spoken to him. He said, "Many are called, few are chosen, and even fewer respond." The Lord communicated His anguish to him and what His Father was going through. So many have been called to the Lord's side in prayer and travail, and so few show up. The world has gotten their attentions again.

Then I told Ezekiel what I had just heard from Jesus. And we both just sat there--sick to death of the world condition and what is looming.

Ezekiel said, "I feel it deeply, so very deeply in my soul. It must be like what a man feels when his spouse dies." And I realized: that is partly what I have been going through all week. It has been a numbing dryness in my spirit, as though I were separated from God, and plunged into darkness. But I was not. I was even more connected and feeling the anguish and darkness of His heart over each soul who has turned His invitation down, and gone their own way.

"Clare, My precious one. You know I have not for one moment deserted you. You have been so united with Me that you were sick at heart, thinking you had even done something wrong. Beloved, you have done nothing wrong. You have corresponded with all your heart to Me and the graces given--to the best of your ability. You were feeling My desolation of Spirit over the percentage of those who should be on their knees right now, but are out taking their ease and making shopping lists. To-do lists...that do not have prayer time on them. They are hastily making time for the pleasures of life--without realizing the season we are in and how very close to the edge we are."

Heartdwellers, I can't point the finger at anyone, because I have been so guilty of this, myself.

Jesus continued, "Yes, yes, I know full well--we have been here before... And nothing happened--so why worry now?"

"I will tell you why. Because you are running out of options. Of mercy. Of extensions of Time. Because you are not putting in the serious prayer, serious things are slipping by you, and will take you off guard."

"Some of you will lose your lives before you can blink an eye. Some of you will be so confounded by the suddenness of what takes place, that you won't even have time to panic; it will be all over for you in an instant."

"Are you ready, Children? Have you looked inside with Holy Spirit and repented for wasted time? Wasted money? For indifference to your brother's suffering? For hard-heartedness when you read the spiritual plight of a soul? Have you stepped in to minister to them--or walked away? Have you given all you could give to relieve others?"

"I weep, and Heaven weeps, because we see how very unprepared mankind is for the events soon come to pass. We see those of you who will not be taken to Heaven. We see those of you who didn't care for others and now have no one to care for you in your desperation."

"You are not ready. And I am praying for you. I am begging the Father for more time, more grace, and more mercy."

"But Father has given you more time, more grace, and mercy. He has, dozens of times, saved you from annihilation, Children. He has sent His best gardeners to dig around you and fertilize you, so you will be bursting with fruit at the appointed time. But still, so many of these trees in the orchard are barren of fruit. Or have a few scanty pieces. Or have rotten fruit, because their lives were taken up with criticizing others and scattering the flock."

"Yes, yes, I see all of that and more. Too much more to speak of... Yet I will still drop to My knees and beg for mercy. I still hold out hope that more of you will wake up. In spite of the viper's poison you drink in from mainstream media and spread. In spite of that, I hold out a ray of hope for you."

"Do you know why you are so ignorant of what has happened in your nation, why you are so ignorant of the truth? Because you floated along with the status quo. Not only in politics, but in church. Anything that was frowned upon, you suppressed. Anything that was praised, you praised. You did not go deeper, but rather stayed in your comfort zone."

"So, you have slandered the innocent, and remained in the dark about the true nature of those you elected to office."

"They were all actors, scripted and led around with a ring in their nose from shady world rulers. And because you have done this, you are supporting the evil-doers and slandering those My Father has put in office. And His indignation is brimming over and can hardly be contained."

"Yet I drop to My knees for you. 'Perhaps, just a little more time... and they will see, Father? Just a little" more time?'

"But time is running out, My people. Time is coming to a stand-still when the Abyss will be opened and the reins of power returned to the wicked. You have very little time to align yourselves with righteousness and denounce the wicked.

"Do you care? Do you wish to know the Truth? Do you have time for the Truth? Or will you go along blindly with those who are taking you to destruction?"

"I want you to see, My People. I want you to take responsibility. I want you to care... Please care. Please...Wake up and see--you and the world are on the precipice of disaster. Take My words to heart. Know that My Father will not contend any longer with your choice to be blind to what is going on around you. Satan has thrown the net, and you are swimming in it.

"Will you wake up in time? The net is closing in on you, My people! Will you escape?"

"I drop to My knees and pray for you. I do not wish for anyone to perish or go through what this world is headed for. I want to take you away with Me to Heaven. I do not wish to leave any behind. It is not My choice; it is your choice that will qualify or disqualify you for the Rapture. It is no longer up to Me.

"I remain on My knees until you return to Me."

Son, Behold Your Mother--Women's Roles According to Jesus--Mary #6

October 22, 2018

Lord, you have opened our hearts and eyes to Your mother's mission. Continue to teach us the hidden beauties of our faith; things that were taken away by men, but that you are restoring through Your grace. Amen.

Well, Dear Heartdwellers. There's a lot going on this week. A lot of prayer. a lot of new prayer. And I just have the deep, deep gut-sense that we MAY be given a little more time. Not three years. But possibly a little more time. The Lord has not spoken to me about that yet. It's just a certain 'settled' feeling I've had for two days. I'm sharing it with you, just so you're aware. We'll see what He has to say, but in no way should we cut back on our prayers and travail for this nation, because this is the critical point. We need to keep that up, and that's highly pleasing to Him. There are a lot of graces that come from traving prayer, that's for sure.

There's some new music I'm going to be writing that I think will really help us get very deep and close to the Lord.

So, I want to begin by looking into the duality of the Lord's messages, through His actions.

At the Last Supper, the Disciples were already half-way through the Passover meal when Jesus got up from the table, wrapped a towel around His waist, and began to wash His Disciples' feet.

Well, this is odd timing! Normally, when a guest arrives, their feet are washed immediately. So, why in the world would the Lord wait until the middle of the meal to wash their feet?

John 13:2-5 During supper, when the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going back to God, rose from supper. He laid aside his outer garments, and taking a towel, tied it around his waist. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

What is the obvious meaning of this act? Well, first of all, dirty feet? Coming to this special meal with dirty feet, possibly? A cleansing, even perhaps a spiritual cleansing could be assigned as a metaphor.

But what was the REAL reason He washed the disciple's feet? Were they that dirty? I don't think so.

In the next line, He reveals it. Continuing on in verse 6: He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?" Jesus answered him, "What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand." Peter said to him, "You shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!"

He was a piece of work...lol. Peter was a piece of work!

Jesus said to him, "The one who has bathed does not need to wash, except for his feet, but is completely clean. And you are clean, but not every one of you." For he knew who was to betray him; that was why he said, "Not all of you are clean." John 13:6-11

So, here He eludes to a spiritual cleansing. However, when he sits down, He teaches them the real intention of this humble act.

When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, "Do you understand what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. John 13:12-15

This was a bold proclamation of what it meant to occupy the office of an Apostle. Man's tendency is to lord it over others; Jesus was demonstrating the heart of one called to lead in the office of Apostle.

This calls to mind when the mother of Zebedee's sons requested that they sit on His right and left hand in the Kingdom.

When the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers. Jesus called them together and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave--just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." Matthew 20:24-28

This qualification was so vital for them that He gave them as a memorial, a living example, during His last day with them.

So, now the Lord reveals the true meaning of why He washed the Apostles' feet. These last narratives of the acts of Jesus, at the end of His life, are profoundly meaningful. There is a deeper meaning to each one.

Taking that into account, let's look at what Jesus did before He gave up His Spirit, in the 19th chapter of John:

Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to her, "Woman, behold your son," and to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that time on, this disciple took her into his home." John 19:25-27

We wonder why none of Jesus' so-called brothers and sisters were at the foot of the Cross? If He had so many brothers and sisters, why weren't they at the foot of the Cross? And why did Jesus have to make provision for His mother? If she had a big family, certainly she'd be provided for. Hadn't she given birth to numerous children, according to other reports? That He had brothers and sisters. Surely, they would take her into their homes.

But again, as in Jesus washing the Disciple's feet, there is a deeper meaning.

To John He said, "Here is your mother." John was the only representative of the Apostles at the foot of the Cross. And when Jesus spoke these words, the deeper meaning was that she would become the mother and protectress of the budding Church. This is also confirmed by her being named as present at Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit, who was her Spouse, descended upon all the Disciples and onlookers, and they spoke supernaturally in different tongues.

Don't we today have church mothers? Women who've been married to pastors, or their children are pastors. And they're highly respected in the church. People go to them for prayer.

So, I asked the Lord, "Do You have anything to add, Lord?"

Jesus began, "There are few on Earth that have the depth of understanding to comprehend who My mother is to them, to the world, and to the Church. The homosexual hierarchy that took over the governance of My Church is largely responsible for this, when they banned women from ministry. It was never My intention that ministry should be only for men. From the very beginning, I made it clear that this cultural taboo on women did not stand in My eyes. Rather, I went out of My way to demonstrate, through example, just how much women meant to Me--beginning with My mother.

"Speaking of which. I would prefer that those on this Channel called you Mother Clare. 'Cause you are no longer a sister; you are a Mother. And I would ask you to sign off as Mother Clare. Never mind the naysayers. I'm not a people pleaser--and you shouldn't be either.

"But going back to this taboo on women ministering. It reflected the culture of those times, where women were suppressed and treated as something owned; rather than as someone equal, but different in purpose. How very unfortunate for men in those days, who did not hearken to the wisdom of their wives!

"For instance, Nabal (whose name means 'Fool') was saved by his wife Abigail when David and his men were on their way to slaughter all the men of his house. She intervened by bringing ample supplies for David's army."

That's in I Samuel 25.

"Pilate was warned by his wife, (in Matthew 27:19). While Pilate was sitting on the judge's seat, his wife sent him this message: 'Don't have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him.' But in his foolishness, wanting to secure his position on Earth, he lost his position in Heaven.

"When I said 'it is not good for man to be alone; I will give him a helpmate', I was not just talking about bearing children and cooking meals. Very often, women have a higher sense of right and wrong, and are more spiritually attuned than men, because their surroundings are protected. Men must fight in the world and associate with all manner of corruption, so they don't always have the luxury of being spiritually attuned. Their lives are lived, for the most part, on a grosser level. Providing and defending.

"However, when they make the choice to separate from this morass of filth, and hearken to My Words, they are exceptionally receptive.

"But I knew all this from the beginning, and made the female to also be a confidant. A soft and tender heart to calm the day's chaos and comfort the stressed-out mind, and even offer wisdom from her heart. This has made them exceptionally well-suited to ministry, providing they never step away from the righteous husband's covering and wisdom.

"But the culture was still rather barbaric in those days, and women were not thought of as I think of them. This is why I made it a point to turn men's minds towards the wisdom of a righteous woman. If you want to see the demeaning attitude right up front, recall how the men reacted to Mary Magdalene when she told them she had seen Me. I sent her to tell them, but because of her gender, they looked down on her.

And this is from the Scripture: On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: "The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again."?" Then they remembered his words.

When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Luke 24:1-11

When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons. She went and told those who had been with him and who were mourning and weeping. When they heard that Jesus was alive and that she had seen him, they did not believe it. Mark 16:9-11

Jesus continued, "The testimony of women was considered weak and unreliable, and I saw this as something that had to be changed. So, I deliberately chose women for some of the most important messages, such as: I had risen from the dead. Such as: "I am the Messiah..." "I am he who you speak of..." to the Samaritan woman."

Well, at this point, I had been busy looking up Scriptures as the Lord would put an incident on my heart. And I would go and look up the Scriptures for it. So that it would be fleshed out for you.

But I want to share with you some notes that I ran across, from an article by a lady named Barbara Leonhard. Who is a Franciscan, from Franciscan Media.

LOL this one's really funny!

She says, "Jewish culture in the first century was decidedly patriarchal. The daily prayers of Jewish men included this prayer of thanksgiving: 'Praised be God that he has not created me a woman.'

I really got a kick out of that...!

"A woman's place was thought to be in the home. Women were responsible for bearing the children, rearing them and maintaining a hospitable home. Men were not to greet women in public, women should never leave the home except to go to the synagogue."

Or the well...

"Marrying young, a woman was almost always under the protection and authority of a man: her father, her husband or a male relative of her husband if she was a widow.

"Women had little access to property or inheritance, except through a male relative."

Well now, she says that. But I've heard a different story. Property was passed through the women. Well, I don't know.

"Any money a woman earned belonged to her husband. Men could legally divorce a woman for almost any reason, simply by handing her a writ of divorce. A woman, however, could not divorce her husband.

"In the area of religious practice, women were in many ways overlooked. Men were required to pray certain prayers daily, but women were not. While the study of Scripture was regarded as extremely important for men, women were not allowed to study the sacred texts.

"Rabbi Eliezer, a first-century teacher, is noted for saying, 'Rather should the word of the Torah be burned than entrusted to a woman.'"

How terrible! That's really terrible... And also, the other thing is, I know that Mary was acquainted with the Scriptures, because of the Temple, where she grew up. So, that's not altogether true.

"At the Temple in Jerusalem, women were restricted to an outer court, separated from the men and not permitted to read aloud. They were not allowed to bear witness in a religious court.

"But Jesus defies these expectations in at least four ways.

Jesus Speaks With Women in Public

"He refuses to treat women as inferior. He recognizes their dignity, their desires and their gifts.

He steps forward in a crowd of mourners to speak with the widow at Nain, and to call her son back to life (Luke 7:11-17).

"He cures a woman who had been crippled for 18 years, laying hands on her in the Temple and saying, 'Woman, you are set free of your infirmity' (Luke 13:12). When the leader of the synagogue becomes indignant that Jesus has healed a woman on the Sabbath, (oh boy...) Jesus uses a title of particular dignity for her, 'daughter of Abraham'. (Luke 13:16).

"While the expression 'son of Abraham' was often used to indicate that a male Jew was recognized as bound by covenant to God, women had never been called 'daughters of Abraham.' With this title, Jesus recognizes this woman as having equal worth.

"In John 4:4-42, Jesus ignores two codes of behavior. He initiates a conversation with a foreigner, a Samaritan. In addition, this foreigner is also a woman. Her surprise is included in the narrative: 'How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?' (John 4:9).

"Jesus not only speaks with her but also enters into a prolonged dialogue, a dialogue which recognizes and honors her thirst for religious truth. Ultimately, he reveals his identity as the Messiah."

Wow! He didn't do that with anyone until that time with Peter. When the Lord said, "Who do YOU say that I am?"

"When his disciples return, they are clearly uneasy with Jesus' behavior. John includes the questions they are afraid to verbalize: 'What are you looking for? Why are you talking with her?' (John 4:27).

"The Gospel writer does not hesitate to conclude the story with a comment that, although in Jewish thought a woman's testimony was not trustworthy, here the Samaritan woman's excited words are heard and acted upon. 'Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him because of the word of the woman who testified' on his behalf (John 4:39).

"Jesus refuses to view women as unclean or especially deserving of punishment. Women who were menstruating or persons who had any flow of blood were considered ritually unclean. In this condition, women were not allowed to participate in most religious rituals. Anything or anyone she touched was deemed unclean. A woman in this state who had a flow of blood for 12 years (Luke 8:43-48).

"The Lord, on the way to heal the synagogue official's daughter, this frightened, suffering woman, who has been ill and consequently isolated for years, touches Jesus cloak. Jesus turns his attention from the synagogue official to the woman. He wants to know who touched his garment. By religious norms, the woman's touch--even of his cloak--rendered Jesus unclean.

"If the woman expects him to be angry with her for approaching, she is greatly surprised. He says nothing of her ritual impurity, but instead addresses her as 'Daughter,' says that her faith has saved her and tells her to go in peace (8:48)."

Isn't that beautiful?

"Jesus recognizes the dignity of women in situations that seem by ritual law to demand judgment. For example, the sinful woman who anoints Jesus (Luke 7:36-50) and that of the woman caught in adultery (John 8:3-11).

"In both cases., He sees the person as someone deserving compassion. In Luke's narrative of the anointing woman, after Jesus is touched and anointed by a woman who is a recognized sinner, we hear the expected reaction from Simon, his host. This prominent religious leader, a Pharisee, is dismayed and says, 'If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, that she is a sinner.' (Luke 8:39).

"Not only does Jesus tell the woman that her sins are forgiven, but he also uses her actions and the love which prompted them to teach his offended host! Jesus' question is pointed: 'Do you see this woman?' (Luke 8:44).

And He lists the things that should have been done in greeting him at the door that they didn't do--like wash His feet. But that she now is making up for with her tears and oil.

"Jesus clearly teaches that the one who keeps all the rules is not necessarily the better person. 'Her many sins have been forgiven; hence, she has shown great love.' (Luke 8:47).

"Third, Jesus steps over expected boundaries between men and women by his acceptance of women as disciples. Unlike rabbis of his day, Jesus taught women about Scripture and his way of love. Matthew tells of Jesus' mother and brothers asking to speak to him. 'He said in reply..., "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers"' (Matthew 12:46-50). His use of both masculine and feminine words clearly indicates that some of his disciples were women.

"The familiar story of Martha and Mary in Luke 10:38-42 Jesus' acceptance and blessing of Mary's desire to learn. She is described as one who "sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak" (Luke 10:39). This is the typical position of the male disciple. To sit at the feet of a rabbi meant that a person was one of his disciples.

"Martha, on the other hand, takes the expected woman's role of providing hospitality. Perhaps she herself thinks it improper for Mary to act as a disciple. Regardless, Jesus will not deprive Mary of her opportunity. 'Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her.' (Luke 10:42).

"Of particular interest is the fact that Jesus not only taught women, but some women traveled with him and ministered to him. (Luke 8)

"Mark, too, says of the women present at Jesus' crucifixion, "These women had followed him when he was in Galilee and ministered to him" (15:41). This picture of women disciples is astounding, given that Jewish women at this time were not to learn the Scriptures or even to leave their households.

"Not only did Jesus have women disciples, but the Gospel writers also assure us that they were prominent recipients of Jesus' self-revelation. Jesus tells the Samaritan woman at the well that he is the Messiah.

"In all of the Gospels, women disciples are the first witnesses to the Resurrection. Mary Magdalene sees Jesus but is not believed (Mark 16:11). In John's account (20:11-18), she recognizes Jesus when she hears herself called by name, testifying to the close relationship they had. Jesus tells her to go to the other disciples and tell them, 'I have seen the Lord.'

lol. Oh, boy. I love the way that was done in "Jesus of Nazareth." Great actress delivered those lines. Very, very convincing.

So, I don't mean to belabor the point, but you have to understand that women were WAY looked down upon in that time.

Let me see, I'm going to - oh yes. There's one more point I want to make here. This is very interesting that she make this point.

"A now-familiar parable that Jesus told about a woman captures it best. 'The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of wheat flour until the whole batch was leavened' (Matthew 13:33). A woman, not a man, is mixing leaven with wheat until the whole batch is leavened and the Kingdom of Heaven is produced. How much clearer could the Lord be? We are Mothers in the Church, our roles are distinctly tempered by our gender, yet there should be nothing appropriate to caring for the flock that women be denied to have..."

...even such as the priesthood. I think that was my line...

Jesus continues, "In all of this, My people, understand I was bringing women up to the status of equals but with different assignments and missions in life. And I chose for My disciple, Mary of Nazareth. She is the model of discipleship from beginning to end. Her faith, stamina, and courage; her belief in what God was doing. Her belief in My mission and her cooperation. Her final sacrifice of giving Me into the hands of sinful men.

"Her life after My ascension into Heaven, her life in Heaven and her mission on Earth. For she was faithful with the talent given her; therefore, in Heaven, she is given much more. The offering of Me into the hands of evil-doers for the salvation of sinners brought her into a co-redemptive position with Me, just as I expect all of My Disciples on this Earth to also join their lives to Mine in seeking the salvation of the world."

And I just want to make a point here. JESUS is the One who redeemed us. And she acknowledges that Jesus is her Redeemer in a prophetic word, just after she'd become pregnant. But when we join our hands, our lives - everything that we have - to the Lord's work... We are co-redemptors. We are helping in that work of redemption. Jesus did the work and finished it. But someone's got to deliver it!

And then the Lord went on to say, "Who is My mother, My brother, My sister? Those who do the will of the Father. And they are your mothers and brothers and sisters, as well. But her mission, which she executed faithfully, was yet the most important of all: to give birth and raise the Father's only begotten Son. And that puts her in the unique position of also mothering the Church.

"That is why I said 'Woman' to her rather than 'Mother'--which is what I said to John, who was the only Apostle at the foot of the Cross. For truly, she had now become his mother, as well as the Church's mother.

"Eve was the physical mother of all mankind, but she lost the Kingdom through sin. Mary is the new Eve, who cooperated in redeeming sinful man by her obedience even to the end, making it possible for the Kingdom to be regained. Her heart is one with the Father's, and to this end, she has embraced her eternity and chosen to spend it bringing the Sons and Daughters of Abraham into the New Covenant and beyond--into the espousal relationship that is so very dear to Me.

"She has only My best interests at heart, as many of you have already discovered. She is a worthy and holy mother to the offspring of My Father. For it is written, 'No one is able to come to Me unless the Father, the One having sent Me, draws him. And I will raise him up in the last day.'

"The journey beginning when one comes to Me, and walking through life with Me to the end, is a long one. And it is her heart to accompany you on the way."

And that was the end of the Lord's message about that.

I would like to add that receiving and sharing messages every day with you, precious family, is a tremendous amount of work for me at 72, almost 73. But my heart is to seek His face every day and bring you fresh manna. With all my heart, I want to see you in the arms of our Beloved, and hearing Him clearly. Living for Him in His strength.

In doing this, it has become necessary to have 5 full-time employees. I very much appreciate any donation you send to us, and I want to let you know that what we need the most is monthly donors who are faithful to uphold this work and all it requires of us.

The Lord is very strict with us. And not many people would understand this. As soon as our bills and salaries are paid, we must give everything left over away to the poor. That's pretty amazing. We cannot have savings, we cannot tuck it away and save it for next week; we must live from week to week and give everything else to the poor.

Recently that meant purchasing jackets and boots for all the children on the Taos Indian Reservation. They have a rule there that no-one can wear used clothing. So, every year we need to buy them new clothes.

So, I am asking you, dear ones. If these messages have changed your life and brought you closer to the Lord, would you please consider our needs on a monthly basis?

He who gives to a servant of God, receives a servant of God's reward. And all that you have done to get Our Lord's words out and support us will result in your reward being the very same as mine. The reason being that I could never do what I do without your prayers. Never in a million years could I do this alone! And that is why you will receive a reward for being a part of this ministry. Your prayers, dear ones, have raised me up off the sick bed more times than you know. The attack here is ferocious, but the Lord triumphs especially when you gather together and pray for us.

One more thing I want to mention. Please be aware that Christmas has become a materialistic holiday that does very little to honor the Lord's birth. So, when you are planning for Christmas, please remember the Lord and the poor, and try not to make it an occasion of taking in everything the world has to offer. I have been so guilty of that. But make an offering to Him of your love by putting Him in the center of your celebrations, and even remembrance of the poor around the world.

I love and pray for you every day. Ezekiel and I both pray for you every day. And am so very blessed by your feedback. Thank you for staying with us. And may the Lord bless you through His words.

Rapture Update October 2018

October 25, 2018

Lord, Your Mercy, Graciousness and Generosity are beyond comprehension. Please help us correspond to this opportunity for Your Kingdom on Earth to grow. Amen.

My precious Heartdwellers, I want to give you an update of where I believe we are right now.

First of all, the Lord has heard your travailing prayers and even received from us our Simon's crosses. The Lord has removed Ezekiel's cross for the time being, and he is up and working on music and writing again.

And though He hasn't yet discussed it with me, my deep sense is that we have been given more time... But I do not believe it will be an easy time. Rather, I think we will continue to be called into prayer and to be on the alert.

And at this point, guys, I was thinking, 'You know? I'd love to hear from You right now, Lord.' So I asked Him, 'Jesus. Before I go any further, could You please speak to us?'

Jesus began, "You have discerned correctly; you have been given more time. But this is not a blanket of time like you had before. Rather, this is a very conditional time that requires constant vigilance and obedient responses to the call to pray. I will put a burden and grieving in your heart when I call you to prayer. Please be prompt in responding--that will be very important.

"And for those of you staying behind, this will be good training for you."

That is, I think He's talking about learning to respond to Him promptly when He puts a burden on your heart. It'll save your life in the future.

He continued, "You are being given this time to fulfill your tasks, My Brides. I am asking you, please do not waste it on the world and selfish desires. Rather, keep in mind the unsaved and My agenda at all times.

"I know many of you are very shy and have difficulty sharing in public. But you have ample opportunity to share on the Internet with a safe distance between you and another soul. I am asking you all to be on the lookout for hurting souls on the secular sites you visit.

"This is very important to Me, because very often you will be the one lifeline they need before they commit suicide. Your encouragement and the time you take with them could mean an eternity of difference for them. My Heart is with you. I grieve for these, because they look for comfort in all the wrong places... Yet, if you happen to be in that wrong place, I have deliberately arranged this for their salvation."

You know, this is interesting. Because yesterday I just... One of our prayer warriors sent me a link to a secular rock band. Because she kind of heard the Lord's voice in the verses they were singing. That's not unusual. There've been many songs that the Lord had given to secular groups that speak directly from the Lord's heart. And I don't think they even know what they're saying or doing.

But anyway. I went there and there were some people on that channel that were really hurting. This song was about hurting. And being confused and lost. I went in and I answered some of them and made an invitation for them to come to our site.

Now. I found out that they use a spam filter for links you put in, so I indirectly told them where to come.

And in addition to that, we are preparing a list for souls that are new to Christianity, so that they will have a playlist to listen to, to really get them started on this Channel. Because the teachings that are real important are way, way back. And everyday teachings are okay, but the foundational teachings on Discernment, on the Lord's love for them and wanting them to be with Him. All of those are mixed in a good two years, three years--four years--back.

So, we're putting together a playlist for them. So, when you see someone like that, find a way to direct them to that playlist without getting yourself blocked. Because it's a link. And I'm sure you all know how to do that.

Okay. I'm going back now to what the Lord was saying.

"Always be sensitive to their past. If they have had bad experiences in church, bring Me to them as their best friend, someone who understands and cares and has answers. And the power to do something about it!"

"It is a relationship, not a church. Not a religion that will make the difference. If they are going to church, but still do not have that relationship, please introduce it to them and tell them for Me: I am waiting for you to come to Me and you have nothing to fear. All the sin in the world would not stop Me from wanting to be with you, for I am a God of forgiveness and Mercy."

He goes on, "Some have had very hard life experiences. For them, draw the parallel in My life to the betrayals, torture and suffering I was put through before I died. Tell them to lay down on the Cross and let Me take the pain and torment from them, that they have carried for too long."

"Also, tell them that they have a very real enemy that wants them to believe they are to blame. This will most certainly be a lie, and I can clarify that for them if they will come to Me with their broken hearts. Do you understand, Heartdwellers?"

And a very good way to get someone started and hear from the Lord is to have them begin journaling. Journal your thoughts, speaking just directly to the Lord. And then listen. Tell them to just write down what they hear, and go back over it. They'll know if it's from the Lord. They'll feel it. They'll sense it. And you can be there to bear witness and help them.

"I am calling you to go out into the world and gather to Me the lost and broken to this Channel. Here they will experience My unconditional love and forgiveness, as well as the ease with which I long to communicate with them.

"They will also need to know that I forgive them and want to give them a brand-new start in life. That I am waiting for them, they have nothing to fear from Me and everything to rejoice over. They are coming home and getting a fresh new start.

"I also want them to dream of what they've always wanted, and to know that I make dreams come true. That I give dreams and help them fulfill them. They need also to know that I created them with dreams and talents to fulfill them. And when they give their lives to Me, I begin to lead them in the ways they need to go to find fulfillment.

"I write straight with crooked lines, and each and every person is an individual. Different. Unique from all others. And therefore, there is no canned assignment. I don't make cookie-cutter Christians--not at all! Each one of you are SO unique, and the missions I give are to fulfill their deepest needs and desires.

"Again, My Beloved Brides, please do not waste this time on yourselves or personal family pursuits, but put into action all I am calling you to do for others. Some of you who would not have been taken in the Rapture have just been given a second chance. Use it well, and your destiny will be recovered."

And I just want to add right here. You know, it's okay to have a little family holiday, a family weekend out or something like that. You want to maintain your family. But don't make it a huge job that takes up all your time, day and night, for weeks. Don't do that. Because you want to give more time to the Lord. And to call in the lost.

So, He finished speaking at that point, but I was still having a question. Probably the same one you have right now...

Lord, can you give us a timetable of how much time we have to invest in this?

He replied quickly, "Up to two years, depending very much on what you use your time for, your commitment to Me, and the intensity and regularity of your prayer lives. Up to, but possibly not exceeding, two years.

"I cannot make anything more definite. It so much depends on you, My Brides, as well as the world's response to this new evangelization I am releasing. So much depends on response--both yours and theirs.

"I will not contend with man forever."

And that was the end of His message.

Let's get busy, Brides. I'm thrilled. I've got songs I'm working on. Ezekiel's thrilled, 'cause he's got things he's working on. So, let's DO this! Let's get out there and really put our focus on using our time for the Kingdom of Heaven. And not selfish pursuits.

I want to take a moment to thank those of you who have been donating to the Channel, and keeping us going. We have so many wonderful things going on the Channel right now. And we just so appreciate the donations. And we're gonna make some very poor children very happy soon. In fact, we've already gotten them jackets and boots. But there's more to come for Christmas, for children. So, that's a beautiful thing. We thank you for that.

There's a new book coming out, the Healing book. Should be out pretty much within the next three weeks.

And ANY of you who want the book The Rapture WAS Real?! If you cannot afford to buy it, please, please send me a postcard or a note that you would like a few of those books. 'Cause I've got a ton of them. And I want to make sure that they're in place when the Rapture does come. So, please let me know.

The Lord bless you all, dear ones. And thank you so much for looking after our needs. The Lord will really bless you for that.

When You Are Troubled, I Am Troubled

October 26, 2018

Thank you, precious Jesus, for caring so much about those things that trouble us.

"Dear Clare, I know you are fighting against the woes in your body. May I say I am going to relieve you of these soon? You are getting glimpses of My replacements for those things that are hampering you and slowing you down. That inspiration to give up coconut milk is from Me, daughter. I know how miserable you are in your body--and you and I both know it is from the excess of sugar and coconut milk. May I change that, please?"

I wish you would, Lord. I wish you would.

"Well then, let's begin. You don't need all that fat and all those calories. What you are drinking now is the best thing in the world for you. Bar none."

And was a Naked Smoothie, actually. That's what they're called--that's the brand name: Naked.

"This weight problem is affecting your mission. Don't you want to feel better, Clare?"

I do.

"Does it always have to be about My business? Can't I sometimes speak about the things troubling your heart and mind? Don't you recognize that I am always concerned for you. And what troubles you, troubles Me? Do you think I am some kind of Master, driving you like a work horse and caring nothing for your trouble or issues?"

"See, I've exposed that in you, Dearest, because you don't want to pass that attitude on to others, do you? I care very much for the things that trouble you during the day."

"So, having said all that, I want to tell My Heartdwellers the very same thing. I am not so wrapped up in the world affairs that I am oblivious to the things that trouble you during the day. I want you to bring them up to Me for My solution. I want you to know I am right there by your side, concerned for your concerns and even making provision to extricate you from them."

"But you never ask Me! Now will you ask Me? Will you come to Me with the things you know are your fault that you are too embarrassed to bring up?"

"I am not going to chide you for them. The most I might say is, 'I know. That much coconut milk wasn't such a good idea after all, huh?'"

"And why am I so gentle with you? Because I already know how badly you feel and I certainly don't want to add to that. It would only make you seek out this bad habit even more--to get relief."

Okay... so here, I've got to make a confession, dear family. A good two or three years ago, the Lord warned me about my coconut milk consumption. Now, I'm not talking about the watery stuff. Oh, nooooo... There's a brand called Chacoa canned coconut milk which has been extracted from a whole coconut. It's been juiced right out of it. If you've ever had that brand of coconut milk, you will totally understand how addictive it is.

In any case, at that time--I don't remember if it was my angel, the Lord, or a saint from the Cloud... But I was pouring it out into the blender and thinking, 'That sure is a lot of calories... and cholesterol.'

And that thought was just hanging in the air when I heard a voice in front of me and to the right say, "Are you sure you want to keep doing this? You know you're gaining weight from it."

And contrary to all good sense and obedience, thinking I couldn't find a replacement anyway, I said, "YES." Rather firmly, I might add. With a touch of defiance. "Yes. Yes, I do."

I see that now: rebellion, self-will, and pride, right out in the open--along with gluttony.

So, knowing my sinful attitude, I have been reluctant to come to You, Jesus... Well also, I still like my drinks. But I don't like the fat. Thank You for bringing this up for resolution.

Jesus continued, "Children, children, you carry so much on your own shoulders you should have released to Me years ago. You should have come to Me, seeking a solution when the problem began. At that time, I would have worked with you. But you had developed a habit that was not good for you, but brought you some kind of relief. And you weren't willing to give it up. So it got worse and worse and worse.

"Now you are at the end of your rope. You desperately want a solution. I wish I could snap My fingers and make it all go away, but part of your learning and maturing process is tied up working through the solution. I want to see you stronger, and only hard work with My grace will cultivate that in you.

"So, for you, Clare. Clearly you are a good 50 pounds overweight, and I want to change that. And I will help you. So, let's begin today. No more coconut milk drinks, no more tasty sugary additives. We're going to do something new and different, going back to the old days when you were more sensible about eating and fasting.

"By the way, it is very hard to fast when you are overweight. You're lugging around 50 pounds of weight, which requires more calories to carry, so you get entrenched in a vicious cycle. I want you to listen to My voice in your conscience when I speak to you.

"And that Tiramisu in the freezer? Give it away. It is a huge temptation. You need to face off occasions of sin--like having it in the house to begin with.

"Do you know Satan delights in that? Oh yes, he is so happy to see you indulge yourself. It means a foothold for guilt... 'You're prayers aren't strong now--you've indulged' and 'Good! You're going to keep gaining weight. Oh, isn't that cake just out of this world? Doesn't it make you feel better? You worked so hard and suffered so long, you deserve it.'

"Then he will come back and say, 'You let the Lord down. Your prayers are weak and pitiful and you have so many counting on you--you should be ashamed of yourself. Look at how fat you are! How are you going to get rid of that?? You won't. You'll just keep wearing out your knees and be walking around bent-up like an old lady. And you defrauded the poor! They can't afford food like that--you've stolen from them!! You shouldn't be in ministry... you are fat, ugly and dishonest. Don't you know ministry is just for the beautiful people that have it altogether?'"

"And on and on. Clare, Satan will never stop the condemning thoughts, and that will make you want to run to high calories to make your plummeting blood sugar come back up.

"Self-control is one of the fruits of the Spirit, Dearest. You have managed most of your life with self-control; you can finish it that way as well, and especially because I am with you.

"Dear ones, to seek food as a source of satisfaction or entertainment is gluttony. Yes, let's call it what it is. That doesn't mean you can't celebrate once and a while. But to be preoccupied with such things is a very base way of living.

"Seek Me. Relish Me above all things. And when you find Me, you will be so filled with joy, food will cease to have any meaning to you except to keep your body fueled. This is the ideal state for you; it will bring you the most consolation.

"To try and replace Me with food will never bring good results. That God-shaped place inside of you is meant to be your only source of consolation on this Earth. But rarely do My people know this. Rather, they mix the pleasures of the world in with prayer and fellowship with Me, and thereby weaken the affects of intimate prayer--by diluting it with the pleasures of the flesh.

"Just like Nehemiah's men, you must keep your sword in one hand and work with the other. My Brides must enter the battle daily and the devils are highly skilled at teaching you to slough off and get soft. Pamper yourself. It is to their advantage that they make you soft.

"But I am teaching you a better way. Cleave to Me for consolations. Run to Me when you fall or someone trips you. I'm there with open arms, healing and helping you to overcome self-pity and self-indulgence. The enemy has created a vortex: self-pity causes you to draw things to yourself and get lost in them. But I teach you to stand back up, with a healed heart and continue in the game. So you see, it is much to their advantage to see you fall in this way.

"My dear ones; My beautiful Brides. Do you see? There is still a ways to go before I can take you to Heaven. So, I am coming to remedy some of the things that have burdened you and things that also take away from your happiness and satisfaction in a job well done. I want you all to call on Me, beginning today, to help you overcome the bad habits you have been struggling with.

"I am going to be with you in a new way to deliver you and put your feet back on the path. One that will also make you stronger and more capable in your missions. So many of you have felt defeated, because of a vice you have not been able to conquer. Well, today I want to turn that around for you. Come to Me. Repent for your laziness and ask for My help. I will surely give it to you.

"And for those of you who have discovered and loved the power of My mother's intercession, add that to your Rosary intentions.

"I am with you, to deliver you and prosper your soul for the good of the Kingdom."

Well, I just wanted to add something to this message that just came up, immediately after it. It was a Rhema from OurLadyLightoftheWoods.org, which is the site I started when I was a Catholic Franciscan sister. I have set my browser to the home page, so every time I open it I get a Rhema.

So, here goes. This is what popped up: "We must either mortify our passions, or suffer constant remorse and fear." WOW! What a perfectly right-on word for this message.

It reminds me very much of Jacob offering to give Esau a bowl of stew in exchange for his birthright and the right to be recognized as firstborn. And Esau agreed. He must have been pretty hungry! What tragedy resulted from this carnal decision!

Be strong, Heartdwelling family! Let the Lord guide you into freedom with His grace. And keep me in your prayers, too.

God bless you.
