

New Age Testimony

---

September 1, 2021

Hi to all the Heart Dwellers and listeners,

This is Brother David, here to share my testimony about a difficult time in my life, and how the Lord Jesus pulled me out of a trap that eventually led me to Him.

It was towards the end of my 20's that I realized this life was going to be much more difficult than I had imagined. Anxiety and depression had begun to manifest in serious ways. By the time I was 30 I was living in a permanent state of agonizing pain, mental anguish, and dark nights of the soul.

I had decided to leave San Diego and moved to Charlotte at that time, which happened to be during the economic downswing of 2008-2009. I had just acquired a Masters in Accounting and was studying to pass the CPA exams so I could begin a career in financial audit. I was job-searching in a sector that was undergoing massive lay-offs, and I found myself in a dead-end situation.

I guess during those days when I was totally aimless, without purpose, and running off fumes in my self-esteem tank, I realized I needed a serious life change. I can't explain this switch well I started to make, but I do remember once when I was driving, I paused at the Christian channel. I remarked to my sister how it was weird that the best music seemed to be coming from Christian artists. I thought they were a little bonkers for being so enthusiastic about their religion, but I couldn't deny that something was contagious about it.

Christmas 2009 came around, and for the first time in my life I had the luxury of a television in my bedroom. And just like the Christian music, I found myself stopping at the Christian television channels. Dr. Charles Stanley in particular, really caught my attention. He had an authority that was sincere. I began to wonder if Christianity could fix me. I began also to stop in at a local church with an unlocked backdoor, so that I could sneak into the quiet refuge of an empty church sanctuary. I would just sit there in the silence. It was very comforting. I didn't read the Bible or open a hymnal, but I would often stare at the stained-glass windows and knew I was experiencing some undercurrent of peace.

One night, or maybe early morning, I woke up with an incredible sadness, a strong emotion, and for some reason I decided to get down on the floor, on my knees, and pray to God. "If you're real I desperately need your help ... please. are you real God?" And so much sadness came up out of me and I cried for the longest time there on the floor, until I was an empty void. I didn't hear from God, but my spiritual seeking had earnestly begun.

Soon after this I would pass the 4th and final CPA exam. The temporary high of having accomplished this soon subsided, as I remained stuck in a tough economy. By the advice of my Dad, who had made his career in financial audit, I applied to a firm in France since I had already spent a few years going to school and working there, and could sell my resume as a bilingual auditor. To my surprise, I was offered an interview. Long story short, I was offered a job and found myself moving back to France for a third time, in June of 2010. This time I really didn't want to go back, but after a year of unemployment I didn't feel I had the choice.

Well, unfortunately, at my year-end review in 2011, both the employer and I came to a quick conclusion that it wasn't working out. I had chewed off too much in my ambition to risk such a job move, and inwardly I was falling down a dark abyss of misery. But honestly, I was also so relieved that I didn't have to go back to that job.

I've taken a lot of your time to paint the picture of my state in life because I hope to give a clearer picture of what happened to me in the aftermath. How it went from worse ... to worst.

I ended up taking a job at a Japanese restaurant in Paris. What?? An American, with a master's degree in accounting, is working at a sushi restaurant for a Japanese chef, in Paris? Did I lose my mind? Well, maybe, but I knew I was done with office jobs.

In the time leading up to this career change, I had begun to pursue the practice of meditation in the hopes that I could fix my anxiety. I had been spending many evenings in meditation and found the still darkness to be a welcome escape. Strange things happen in that place and it was quite amazing to see hours pass by in a flash while in a comatic state.

It was during one evening on a business trip in Paris when I was still with the firm that I stumbled across the Japanese restaurant in question. It was actually right across the street from my hotel, and I was a huge fan of Japanese food. I was the first in the door at 7pm when it opened. To my surprise the greeter was actually the chef. When he later brought me an appetizer, we had a chance to talk, and somehow it was shared that we both appreciated meditation.

The conversation was nice and the food was amazing, so each time I was in Paris I returned to dine there. One evening I was sitting at his chef's table, to chat while he cooked, and when a big group came in, he thrust a few menus into my hands and asked me to wait on the guests. And so, when I lost my job at the firm, he offered me one instead, as his apprentice and waiter.

So, I began working there, and it was usually just the two of us working as a team to serve on average 15 to 20 guests in this small restaurant. We would often stay late after the restaurant closed, to have a bite to eat and wind down. The co-owner would often stop by. The conversations would always turn to spiritual matters. Not having gone to church as an adult, I didn't know what spirituality was meant to look like. The sermons of Dr. Stanley were a long-gone memory. The co-owner, who I will call "Paul", asked me right away the date of my birth, and from that he calculated that I had a life path of 39, therefore I was called to be an artist. Paul would ask the chef what aura he thought so-and-so had, and the chef would reply, "white", or, "green", or "gold", etc. I was told my aura was really white, and that my life path was a special one! He was impressed by my French speaking skills and explained that I had ended up in a very spiritual place, that this wasn't just a restaurant.

"This was a place for the 12 to meet," he said. What's that? I asked? "A group of 12 individuals who would be guided by God to end up at this restaurant," and who would work together to usher in the new millennium. We were chosen souls, "very special", and I in fact, was told, we were the reincarnations of souls who had previously fulfilled a similar mission to us. We were ... the reincarnated apostles. And I was John. Jesus had chosen us, and I had made it to the "headquarters". The chef was elated.

As you process this part of the story, know that I didn't even know what an apostle was, or the millennium, but I knew I was suddenly someone very special, and I bought it, hook, line, and sinker. Things seemed to start making sense. Why was I seeing 11:11 on the clock all the time? What was the point of all the weird coincidences happening all the time?

I thought maybe this was the answer. The Japanese chef had far-out stories. He claimed to have been invited by an angelic being up into a spaceship when he was a young child, and when they were lifted up into the sky, he was shown the future - an apocalyptic scene of the world being hit by three nuclear bombs going off at the same time. His favorite story was that of being fetched by a horse that belonged to God, "Pegasus", who would whisk him away into a stellar ecstasy. He claimed to have even seen me in a vision and knew that one day we would meet.

But as my imagination was being fed, I was enduring the reality of a work environment that was traumatic to say the least. The co-owner "Paul" had a temper-fueled opinion that would put everyone in a terrified straight jacket. I was suffering from paralysis, and not knowing up from down anymore, I stayed. I was too ashamed to go back home to the States, and compelled enough to stay because I thought God wanted me there. I worked there through a couple of years of mental, emotional and psychological abuse. I submitted to the knowledge and opinion of others and treated it like God's doctrine.

The most confusing aspect of the New Age spirituality that I was drowning in during this time, was the talk of "Christ-Consciousness". We spoke of Jesus through this jargon - not the Jesus who is truly God who became man so He could die on the Cross to redeem us, but the Christ who was an ascended master. I fell for a counterfeit Jesus because in my pride I thought I could work my way to God, ascend to the heights of some spiritual mountain, get to God intellectually or with secret spiritual tricks and powers. All of this turned spiritual seekers into competitors with each other. We totally missed out on the fact that when Jesus rose from the grave and ascended into Heaven, the Holy Spirit descended. Instead we took Holy Spirit out of the picture and tried to do the spiritual stuff on our own so we could show off. I think this is the crux of my testimony concerning the New Age deception. That same person who thought he could become someone in this world through Masters degrees and impressive office jobs is the same person who boasted of spiritual things based on how much I knew, or how special I was, how exclusive my spiritual walk was compared to others. The focus was not on Jesus, but on me. I think that I found some redemption from getting fired and turning into a real burnout, by letting this reincarnation myth nurse a sorely wounded ego.

In the most bizarre turn of events in all of this mirage, because I thought that I was the reincarnation of St. John the Apostle, I started to read the Bible because I was interested in finding out more about who I was in my "past life". So, when a friend, also caught in this group of people at the restaurant, handed me the Gospel as depicted by Maria Valtorta, I learned who Jesus actually was, and the story of His Death and Resurrection finally entered into my understanding of God.

But there was still so much missing. The seeking within me did not go away. It wasn't until began watching near death experience testimonies on the internet that something really came alive in me. I was absolutely awestruck when people would describe their accounts of meeting Jesus in heaven. My heart was so moved by hearing the NDE survivors describe how wonderful it was to meet Jesus.

For the first time, I consciously acknowledged that Jesus was not only God, but also a person that I could interact with, and meet, and that in meeting Him all the desires of my heart would be met. Deep down you could say, I bore witness to the truth... the truth that carries its own anointing. I knew, that I knew, that I knew I had found what I was looking for. And I no longer wanted any special spiritual knowledge. I just wanted to be with Jesus.

And I would eventually get down on my knees and cry out to Jesus to come rescue me, to be My Savior, and He answered that prayer by leading me to the Heart Dwellers channel, the very next day He answered that prayer where I could learn how to be with Him - not in Heaven like in the NDE stories, but here - on earth!

Looking back, I am thankful that I wasn't aware of how dangerous those times were to me. I can recall those memories from the safety of Jesus' protective care for me. I can even find myself in the stories of the Gospel, and God helps me to understand what He was doing at that time in my life. In the Gospel of Luke there is a parable that says:

"What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing." Luke 15:4-5

Jesus seems to be saying, there is an urgency to finding a lost sheep; it is dangerous it is for a creature to be lost and alone, wandering outside of the fold. I sure can testify to the eagerness of Our Lord Jesus to search and rescue the one lone sheep.

And the sheep in this story might not only be a backslidden Christian finding its way back to God after difficult circumstances. It is anyone seeking the Truth. Someone following along a path that seems dark and confusing.

In my personal experience, the time between setting out as a "spiritual seeker", until the time I found Jesus, were absolutely the most dangerous and confusing times of my life. I was definitely the 100th sheep.

And it was that personal encounter with Jesus that brought me to safety. If you would like to learn more about how Jesus rescued me and the aftermath of my salvation moment, I suggest listening to my conversion story, title, "How the Lord made a Priest out of me".

And I do pray that everyone in this world will be blessed with a hunger to know the truth, and that God will guide them to meet the Truth - Jesus, He is the light of the world. God bless you all, all Heart Dwellers and listeners Godspeed to you. Amen.

Take My Hand I Want to Help

---

September 1, 2021

May the Lord increase us in bringing His comfort to the poor and sharing the good news of the Gospels. Amen.

Mother Clare began, I have been a bit overwhelmed lately and not praying as I need to. Our Lady was very gracious to come to us at this prayer meeting and offer her assistance. She also encouraged us that as a community we were pleasing to her.-- --

She began speaking, "Take my hand hold me close, and I will remind you to be praying more. Simply reach out for my hand because I long to take hold of your hand and help you focus on My Son. Really and truly I do mean this. I wish to assist you in the business of the day and even when you are at a loss as to what is next. Many times, the enemy tries to intercept our will for you and you have great difficulty knowing what to do next. I wish to relieve you of that burden Clare.

"There is much for you to do, there truly is, and it's not all about writing or music.-- -- -- You have some time to get things done. Not much, not much at all. But I don't want you to stop producing and just waiting. Rest in Him but do not be inactive.

"We wish to keep you from frantic work, that opens the door for the enemy when you rush. Rather, gently, humbly, pursue the next thing set before you and when that is completed, move to the next. Each day has its own assignments, and it is good for you to get them done.

"I want to help facilitate for you and keep you moving. As far as the community goes, each must be preparing their hearts and especially at night do a review of the day and repent for your failures. It is most important for you to be clean before the Lord when He comes. There are many things that slip right by you without you taking note of them. I will try to draw your attention to them, so that you can even improve day by day. As you become cleaner in your heart and mind, you will see and hear more clearly in the Spirit. I know you all long for this gift. It is there for the taking when you purify yourselves with the aid of Holy Spirit.

"This is such a beautiful, group. It truly is. And I find my joy in coming to you. I wish for the whole world to know how to prepare for what is coming, how to be clean before your Savior. If you pay attention to the movement of the Spirit in your heart you will feel gentle conviction. Then in that moment it is wise for you to step aside and repent for your actions. Stay clean my children, stay clean. He loves to dwell in a clean heart. Oh, how He loves the clean heart.

"The beauty of these moments with Holy Spirit is the intimacy you are building by faithfully repenting of those things that are not in the best interests of holiness. Soon you will become so very clean, and in the spirit you will indeed sparkle.

"How lovely is the garden dedicated strictly to Jesus. The flowers do not fade yet they give forth fragrances that are intoxicating even to the angels. It is quite a beautiful thing when a soul corresponds to the graces given and becomes more and more holy. The seeds are given and planted to enrich your garden, when you tend them with care, they come to blooming and fruition as you water them with good works and amendment of behavior in order to please Him.

"Oh, my dear ones, I am so excited for you. Heaven awaits all of you and what glory will fall upon you as you finish your earthly course which seems so mundane but is in truth a great work of holiness. Remember, as a religious (and that's a term for a consecrated soul living apart from world values, often in a monastery or as hermits). Remember, as a religious, your deeds are magnified over and over again. When you do something as insignificant as cleaning the floor, graces are released and especially to your loved ones and those who are most in need at the time. It is a wonder that accompanies the total commitment of your life to Christ.-- --

"Those who withhold their lives from complete devotion to His will are to be pitied because the treasures stored up for them in Heaven will be given to others who recognize the great opportunity and responded in complete obedience with great generosity."

Disposition of Your Heart

---

September 2, 2021

The peace and love of our Lord be with you all dear Heart Dwellers.

During the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary, Blessed Mother began, "My Son is concerned about the disposition of your hearts. You must ask Him to guard it at all times."

As it is written in Philippians 4:6-7, "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

Mother Mary continued, "Your faith wanes because you have not seen with your earthly eyes what is truly taking place behind the scenes. My children you must guard against this doubt and reject it, let it not take root, and cling to your Lord who will deliver you. Have faith and trust in Him and not in your own abilities or wisdom.

"The Lord greatly values imperishable qualities such as a gentle and quiet spirit. Let your adornment be the hidden person of the heart, it is who you truly are when no one else is looking. If you struggle with faithlessness and doubt, you must allow yourselves to be transformed from the inside out by God's spirit. Ask Him to help you with this transformation and stay steadfast in your resolve to work with Holy Spirit."

I was thinking about a hidden place to store food in case our reserve stock gets ransacked during times of famine. Our Lady responded to this thought, "Yes, this is a good idea, when food diminishes from store shelves and people start to get desperate, they will seek out every available option to satisfy their hunger. Do this on the mountain and in town. Now child turn your attention back on the mystery you were praying."

I said, "Yes, Mother." And because I have the attention span of a knat, my mind drifted to seeing President Trump in great distress as I was going to bed last night. The President was tired, exhausted and seemed entirely depleted of energy; physically, mentally and emotionally. I said to him, "Mr. President clearly you have reached a degree of exhaustion beyond measure, let us take it from here and lift you up continually and without ceasing in prayer. We will enlist all of heaven to pray for you. Rest now Mr. President, please rest in our Lord's presence and may His peace envelop you always."

Blessed Mother continued, "Pray for President Trump, he so needs your prayers during these difficult times children. Pray for his leadership and those around him to be filled with divine wisdom and understanding. Pray they will follow the counsel of God and not of man or demons. Pray they will have wisdom and knowledge of God and that they would only obtain direction and leading from God. Pray that the blessings and presence of My Son will be experienced by all people and that their hearts will thirst for Him in their lives. Pray my dear ones, pray."

When Graces Are Blocked

---

September 2, 2021

May the Lord grant you the grace to fully correspond with His Spirit, Amen.

During the second decade of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary, Blessed Mother Mary appeared and took a pure white mantle from around her shoulders and place it on each one of us, starting with Father Ezekiel, and then kissed the top of our heads. I said, "Thank you Blessed Mother, we love you." Her face lit up.

Mother Mary began, "There are many graces woven into these mantles, but my dear children you must cooperate fully with these graces for them to become effective. It is like yeast which activates when added to the dough, so it is with the Lord's graces, there must be full resignation on your part to receive and embrace His Will. Your hearts must be pure and your thoughts and intentions true. Ask the Lord for the graces and virtues you feel deficient in, you need to trust in His goodness to provide and equip you with all that you require to do His Will.

My Son wants to join His heart with yours and to give you the desires of your heart, even more than you ask and well beyond what you can imagine. This will take your full cooperation and further indwelling of the Holy Spirit. How do I accomplish this you ask? The best posture you can adopt is one of humility and prayer.

"You must believe and trust in my Son, now more than ever to withstand the coming events. Call on my intercession my children and I will help and instruct you." And that was the end of Blessed Mother's words.

The Lord began speaking, "You are right to praise and thank Me for Amber's miraculous healing, she and her Father are very dear to Me." Here Jesus is referring to Brother Mike's daughter Amber who was suffering from the effects of Covid and all our wonderful Heart Dwellers rallied and responded immediately to the call to pray for her. The Lord continued, "Your prayers and tears effectively move all of heaven to intercede for your petitions and requests. Keep praying and standing in the gap."

"You ask what causes your prayers to be blocked?"

Yes, Lord and what impedes your graces from being released?

Jesus continued, "Fear, doubt and an exaggerated anxiety, a lack of trust in My goodness. I desire to heap My graces upon you all, but when your trust lies with yourselves or you are so wrap up in the enemies lies and you give into the world's perception and desires, this hinders you from being receptive to My Spirit and receiving My gifts. How do you counteract this? Adopt the attitude of a helpless, little toddler capable of achieving nothing on your own and truly believe that you cannot do anything without Me, hold My hand and never let go. This childlike trust and innocent, faithful love produces a beautiful, sweet smelling fragrance that reaches up to the throne of God. This heavenly perfume has a profound effect and moves on the hearts of the communion of saints and My Mother and that is when the most impossible of situations in the natural undergoes a transformation into a miracle. You must believe my precious ones, your love and strong, steadfast belief will move mountains."

Littleness is the Best Posture

---

September 3, 2021

May we always stay little and humble in our own estimation, Amen.

Blessed Mother began, "I am here. Keep moving forward Beloved ones."--

Mother, you are so kind to us said Mother Clare.-- --

Mother Mary continued, "I know you all are trying, God is more concerned about your resolve and the posture of your heart than you executing everything perfectly. There is so much you do not understand precious ones about your mission and what has been entrusted to you. We have kept it hidden from you so that you would not try to help it along.

"Everything has to be done in a certain order, this is the Lord's strategies. Dear ones, He prefers you to know very little so you can stay very little and succeed without all the pressures and apprehensions that normally account for a soul's mission. You have had hints of it along the way, but it is so important that you focus on the present moment and what is in front of you than for you to be side tracked with needless anxieties.

"My children, I tell you this just to put your heart at ease, you are moving along in God's perfect will, keep moving forward.

Mother it sounds like it is going to take longer. With different things that have been said today I am almost tempted to put things off a little further than I have been feeling. Please advise me.

Blessed Mother continued, "Don't let appearances fool you, you are all truly walking on shaky ground and I mean that literally. The earth's crust is very unstable and much is happening on a daily curve of increase. I know you are feeling weak, but don't let that fool you, mighty events are soon to transpire.-- -- Prayer is the one thing that will dampen down the worst of the worst, and that is why you are all being instructed to press in.

"Clare, it is coming, prayer is needed. I know you understand that. I know that you are all tired, truly tired and it is our will for you to get rest today, so please do not put it off, because you know Sunday's are a major effort."

Is there something you want to tell me?

Very delicately she touched Clare's arm and said, "I love you and I trust you to cooperate with His will, that is why I am here. I want to encourage you all to keep going, last night took a lot out of you."

And here I am thinking it is all the Lord's energy.

Blessed Mother continued, "Well yes, it was but you cooperated in a major way, that's not to be overlooked. And the community has been faithful to offer prayers, that is why things are going so well. Many have taken up prayers for Ezekiel to help keep him out of major pain.

"I know you wanted this to be a message more about the world but it is important for you to know these things. The community is beginning to form a strong inner spiritual core, and much of that has to do with their dedication to pray for you.--There are certainly other communities praying that wish you all ill, so the hearts of these prayer warriors are very important for you and the community to be able to stand.

"Things come together little by little and soon you will look back and see how their obedience and yours have paid off so well. I know you are hurting about a certain soul, but you have to let him go. There will be more who will bring you joy. The Lord is not done yet. Just stand your ground, get lots of very good rest and keep moving forward children. We are with you and you should see the crowd gathered round you all to celebrate your faithfulness."

2012 Movie Very Accurate

---

September 3, 2021

May the Lord infuse us with wisdom, courage and resolve, Amen.-- --

Mother Clare began, times are changing dear ones. There are many who are not pretending that 2012 is just a movie. It is based on fact. We are being hit by waves and waves of radiation coming from deep outer space. As a matter of fact, we are now sustaining steady waves of energy. The earth's core is heating up.-- -- Nickel is coming to the surface from the Mariana Trench which is now a gaping crack with liquid nickel escaping from the core of the earth. This is no time to sit on the fence, everything that can be shaken in this world is being shaken and yet more is to come.-- --

What we have been praying against, for so many years, is now coming to fruition.-- -- We are slightly beyond "wars and rumors of wars." We are starting into the tribulation and the Rapture could happen at any moment. The wild storms circling the globe are evidence of God's judgment being released. Please beloved ones, take stock of your life and repent of any evil you have done. Make peace with those who have hurt you. Forgive as Jesus has forgiven you. This is not optional; this is a must. I seriously doubt that those who have not repented will go in the Rapture.

These times are so turbulent that Jesus asked us to watch 2012 again. The whole community was deeply impacted and are aware that time is very, very short.-- --

The Blessed Virgin began speaking, "I am pleased my children that you have taken this movie to heart. That is why my Son asked all of you to watch it, because tragedies such as these are coming upon the earth, and it should bring to life how very short life is going to be for so many.-- --

"One of the most painful things for my Son is the indifference of chosen souls. You have all been asked to pray because similar events such as these are about to take place around the world. You are praying ahead for them and investing in their salvation.-- --

'You have been chosen to be standing in the gap for the unsaved and your prayers mean all the world to my Son and so very many souls not yet Christians. You are truly at the hub of the wheel while those out in the field are on the rim. This has been instituted to make provision for them because all through their lives they have neglected their souls, even as some of you have done in the past.

"This is one very great offering of charity. You are for the most part hidden, so man cannot make a spectacle of you. One thing I can tell you is that this has so much more fruit than if you had gone to the rim of the wheel, that is, out into the world with hands on assistance. Remember this when you are tempted to run to the rim and help. You are touching so many more by your prayers, than you ever thought possible. Stand firm my children, stand firm."

Truth Series - 1 of 6 - Great Cloud Story

---

September 6, 2021

The Lord bless and keep you, family. May He guide you into all righteousness and truth. Amen.

Well, this is a short story that illustrates the absurdity of confusion over where and when we can pray and cannot pray. And it is part of this series establishing the doctrines that help us to see clearly what the Lord has given us, what

He has left behind for us to do and how He is calling us to live it in intercession in our lives. So, here is the story:

Your daughter is on the high school soccer team, and she is really a great player. You are on your way to the state runoff game to see which team will represent Louisiana in the national competitions. You get to the field and all the parents are anxiously waiting for the game to begin. The bleachers are filled to capacity looking forward nervously to this game. They are facing off a team that won the championship last year, and everyone is very tense. There have been a lot of good changes in your daughter's team and hopes are high.

The game begins. It's obvious that the opponents are tough and seasoned, but your team has done a lot of practicing to prepare for this. The game goes on for a good forty minutes and everyone breaks for half time.

Your daughter comes over to you and hugs you, "It is tough out there, but we are holding up." You look at her with great pride because you know she has been working hard to prepare for this game. Break is over the game starts up, and you can see that the other team's defense is strong. But the game is coming to a close and they are tied. You are growing more anxious by the moment and you start to pray, "Lord help her!" She breaks through the defense and scores the winning goal just as the buzzer goes off. And they won!!!!

Now let us change the scene. You have run your course on this Earth and now you are with the Lord in Heaven, and you are one of the Cloud of Witnesses looking in on your daughter who is in labor with her first child. It is a long painful labor, and the doctors are concerned because the baby's heartbeat is getting weaker and weaker. God has allowed you to be present at this event for a very special reason. You realize how serious the situation is and you begin to pray with all your heart, "Lord save her and the baby. Lord please step in and bring this baby out safely! Please!"

Now a soul standing nearby with you says, "Be quiet! you cannot pray for her, you are in Heaven!" You do not care you just keep praying and say, "Where does it say that in the Bible that I cannot pray in Heaven?" Look Jesus is praying too. He stands forever making intercession for the saints and He said pray without ceasing, and you are telling me I cannot? No way. You watch the doctors as the baby is finally delivered safe and sound and you say, "Thank You God. Thank You for saving my babies!"

And one last story for you, when Jesse Duplantis was taken to Heaven, physically, King David was his escort. When he was leaving, King David said to Jesse, "Jesse, I am praying for you." Wow! Imagine that King David praying for someone on Earth. When Jesse showed up for the service there was so much Shekinah glory on him that no one in the entire congregation said a word, he was like Moses coming down from the mountain. Then he told everyone what had happened to him. Truly we have saints in Heaven praying for us! They see the Lord praying and they join in praying for us.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that has been set before us. And that is Hebrews 12:1.

So, my dear ones, in Heaven we are going to be very busy, very busy indeed, praying for those on Earth.

The Lord bless you.

Beware Those in Authority

---

September 6, 2021

God bless you and keep you dear Heartdwellers. Brother Leo's Rhema this morning was, "A Superior's only Goal should be the love of God and the sanctification of souls entrusted to His care, which can best be accomplished by being humble, agreeable, and exemplary."

Father Ezekiel was suffering today for our nation and for abuse against and within the clergy. Not only for those who are being persecuted from outside the church but for those who are abusing their power and persecuting one another from the inside.

The Lord began, "Children those of you in authority need to be very careful not to abuse the office that I have placed you in for the good of My Church, for as was given to you it can easily be taken from you and you will be brought down. The abuse is rampant in the Church, the infighting and darkness in your hearts, tears at My heart. People view you as my servants, but your actions reveal that you are serving Satan. Turn away from this wickedness and back to Me. If you continue in hurting and causing damage to those around you and tearing into one another, you will be brought low and you will be reduced to nothingness. Humility and love is what you should adopt, not to lord your position over those who I have placed under you and in your care. Pray dear ones for all wounds against vows and regulations within the Orders, for the sick and the dying, for all holy priests and laymen and for the strengthening of Faith.

"As all these souls are very precious to me, I will remove you if your actions continue to damage others or turn them away from Me, the unity of My Church and away from brotherly love."

We have read that Pope Benedict was forced to shut down an entire congregation of nuns who were being abused by priests. There has been overwhelming evidence of sexual abuse of nuns, children and young men by the clergy, and in some cases, nuns have become modern day slaves. The women are viewed as second class according to case studies. The nuns have denounced the culture of silence and secrecy that has prevented them from speaking out in the past.

This horror that has been going on for decades can be mitigated by our prayers dear Heart Dwellers. Please pray for an end to the abuse in the Church and that the abusers will turn away from wickedness and unrighteousness and back to the Lord. That forgiveness will prevail in the hearts of those that have been abused and brotherly love and great love of our Lord God will reign.

When we started the Rosary, Brother David saw an image of a demon in the clouds near the Commons where we were praying. During the Rosary it dissipated. Jesus continued, "The community continues to be under curses and heavy attack. Your prayers are working and your enemies are weakening the more you pray. Keep praying and soon they will not be able to stand against the uniting of your prayers.

When you pray as a group this facilitates and unites prayers spoken all around the world." And that was the end of His message.

God bless you dear Heart Dwellers and may God's merciful love turn hearts of stone into hearts of flesh.

Truth Series - 2 of 6 - Can We Pray From Heaven

---

September 7, 2021

Lord Jesus, please lead us into all truth, soften hearts and minds to receive your Word and all it says, give us understanding beyond any denomination or You Tube preacher, that we might have the whole truth without compromise or error. Amen.

Well precious family there is a great question in the Body of Christ-there's many, as many denominations as there are-Since there are hundreds of denominations, there are also hundreds of opinions on different parts of the Scriptures. So, the Lord is calling us to a deeper understanding, going much deeper than a particular teacher we like. When there is controversy, only the Scriptures with the Holy Spirit's help, will stand before the God of all truth.

We have a choice to make, we can stick with what is familiar and what most people agree on as being the final word, or we can think out of the box and search out the foundational truth from the Word of God, to see if it agrees with popular opinion. In all things we must be aware of spiritual sloth, staying on the surface, agreeing with our peers, for the sake of convenience or acceptance.

Here is the question: Are the saints in Heaven aware of our trials here on Earth?

If they are, what do they do with their time in Heaven?

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. And what do sons of God do? Work in His vineyard of course!

I would like to begin by stating that I believe in the Holy Trinity of God and sometimes liken it to the way He created us. We have a Spirit, a Soul and Body, which are three distinct parts but still only one person, and I believe we are not always united in what these three parts think and do. The Spirit and the flesh have ongoing battles in us humans. But not in God, the Three are in complete agreement and work in total union.

In Colossians 1:15, Scripture says about Jesus, He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. 16. for by Him all things were created, both in the Heavens and on Earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or rulers, or authorities--all things have been created through Him and for Him.

17.He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. 18.He is also the head of the body, the church, and He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will come to have first place in everything.

So, what are ALL THINGS? Well, Earth, space, oceans, trees, flowers, animals and of course the masterpiece made in His image, human beings. In Him all things hold together, so we humans relate to one another, we even read the thoughts of people we know well, and we sometimes feel called to pray for someone and later find out they were in an accident. I believe the Holy Spirit quickened us to pray.

Since the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are all one, united in the same, He always knows our thoughts, and since we are all interconnected by the Spirit of God living in us, I believe when Holy Spirit is aware of something, He can make anyone else aware of it as well and in doing that have several people praying for an emergency. So especially in prayer, the third Person of the Holy Trinity, the Holy Spirit can alert anyone in whom the Spirit dwells if they are sensitive to Him. The knowledge of all things is in the Holy Spirit of God, so anyone who dwells in the Spirit can receive wisdom and understanding beyond the scope of this dimension we live in here on the Earth, as well as impressions and call to prayer.

I believe it works this way on Earth as we are spirit animated beings, when we have an emergency, Holy Spirit already knows it and spreads it around to those related to you. What if one of those people happens to be their grandmother, but she is in Heaven. She just heard you were in a very serious accident, and you may not make it, but it is not your time yet.

In this very same way, if we are only held together through Him, as the Scripture states there is no isolation from information except by God's permission. This Body of Christ is ONE, jointly fit together by God's design.

In Ephesians 4:4 There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. And I take that to mean those on Earth and in Heaven since there is only one Head, Jesus Christ.

Hebrews 1:14. Then we will no longer be infants, tossed about by the waves and carried around by every wind of teaching by clever cunning of men in their deceitful scheming. 15. Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into Christ Himself, who is the head. 16. From Him the whole body, fitted and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love through the work of each individual part. And here I add the parts on Earth and the parts in Heaven. In many testimonies about Heaven people have said how busy the angels and the saints are running to and fro serving the Lord for the salvation of souls on the Earth. That has been my experience when I was in Heaven as well. Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?

Building on this Scripture, there is only one Head, that means that all parts of Christ's body are connected. Those in Heaven with those on Earth, those who suffer with those who rejoice, we are after all, One Body in Christ. Even as Jesus told us, I tell you there is joy in the presence of God's angels over one sinner who repents. That is Luke 15:10 So how do the angels know of that sinner who repented? He who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. Romans 8.

In Romans we are told, In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weaknesses. For we do not know how we ought to pray, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groans too deep for words. That is Romans 8.

So, if the Spirit of God dwells in us and we are alert to Him, we can know things happening far away. In addition, Hebrews 12:1 tells us, we are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off every encumbrance and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with endurance the race set out for us. 16.

Pray in the Spirit at all times, with every kind of petition and prayer. To this end, stay alert with all perseverance in your prayers for all the saints. Ephesians 6:18

And going back to Romans 8-Christ Jesus is the one who died -- more than that, who was raised and who is now at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.

So, the question is, if we are God's children and we see Jesus interceding for those still on the Earth, shouldn't we also drop what we are doing and pray with Him? Did He not say Pray without ceasing in First Thessalonians 5:17?

And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint. Luke 18.
So, what does always mean? Always means all the time!

Tell me, does this make sense, you have come to Heaven, you see that Jesus is praying, but you do not know if you can pray from Heaven, so you just sit and watch Him?

One of the most foolish arguments I have ever heard is that Jesus is our Great Intercessor, so only He can pray in Heaven. Are we not told to pray for one another? If you believe that argument, why do you ask your friends or evangelists to pray for you? Why do we have intercessory prayer groups? Are we not all called to intercede without ceasing? I still cannot find one Scripture that says, "You cannot pray from Heaven for those on Earth." Quite the contrary, all of Scripture supports continuous prayer, whether we are here in the Body or in Heaven with the Lord.

It seems very unlikely that the saints in Heaven do not know what happens on Earth, when the angels do know. Hebrew 12:1 says that we are surrounded by a 'great cloud of witnesses'

In Revelation 6:10 martyrs are praying that God will judge the earth.

Why would they stop once they are in the presence of God? I would like to share with you The Great Cloud story that just came to me to really illustrate the absurdity of not being able to pray from Heaven.

Ok. Let us say your daughter is on the high school soccer team, and she is a really great player. You are on your way to the state runoff game to see which team will represent Louisiana in the national competitions. You get to the field and all the parents are anxiously waiting for the game to begin. The bleachers are filled looking forward nervously to this game. They are facing off a team that won the championship last year, and everyone is very tense. There have been a lot of good changes in your daughter's team and hopes are running high.

The game begins. It is obvious that the opponents are tough and seasoned, but your team has done a lot of practicing to prepare for this. The game goes on for a good forty minutes and everyone breaks for half time.

She comes running over to you and hugs you, "It is tough out there, it is really tough, but we are holding up." You look at her with great pride because you know she has been working hard to prepare for this game. Break is over and the game starts again. You can see that the other team's defense is strong. But the game is ending, and they are at a tie. You are growing more anxious by the moment, and you start to pray, "Lord help her!" She breaks through the defense and scores the winning goal just as the buzzer goes off. They won!!!!

Now let us change the scene. You are with the Lord in Heaven, and you are one of the Cloud of Witnesses looking in on your daughter who is in labor with her first child. It is a long painful labor, and the doctors are concerned because the baby's heartbeat is getting weaker and weaker. God has allowed you to be present at this event, from Heaven, for a very special reason. You realize how serious the situation is and you begin to pray with all your heart, "Lord save her and the baby. Lord, please step in and bring this baby out safely! Please!"

A soul standing with you says, "Be quiet! you cannot pray for her, you are in Heaven!" You do not care you keep praying and say, "Where does it say in the Bible that I cannot pray in Heaven?" Look Jesus is praying too. He stands forever making intercession for the saints and He said pray without ceasing, and you are telling me I cannot? No way. You watch the doctors as the baby is finally delivered safe and sound and you say, "Thank You God. Thank You for saving my babies!"

One last story for you, when Jesse du Plantis was taken to Heaven, physically, King David was his escort. When he was leaving Heaven, coming back to Earth, King David said to Jesse, "Jesse, I am praying for you." Wow! Imagine that King David praying for someone on Earth. When Jesse showed up for the service there was so much glory on him that no one in the entire congregation could say a word, he was like Moses coming down from the mountain. Then he told everyone what had happened to him. Truly we have saints in Heaven, and relatives, praying for us!

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run the race that has been set before us with endurance.
Hebrews 12:1

And let us have all faith and encouragement that the Body is one, both in Heaven and on Earth with one Head, Jesus Christ, who is constantly making intercession for us, and has asked us to do the same.

God bless you; I hope this helps you understand the dynamics of those who pray for us from Heaven.

Saint Michael Saves Marine

September 7, 2021

Dear Heart Dwellers, this is the true story of a Marine wounded in Korea in 1950. Writing to his mother, he told her of a fascinating encounter he experienced in the war. Father Walter Muldy, a U.S. Navy chaplain who spoke to the young Marine and his mother as well as to the outfit commander, always affirmed the veracity of this narrative.

We heard it from somebody who read the original letter and retell the story here in all its details and in the first person to better convey some of the impact it must have had when first told by the son to his mother. Here is the letter from the young Marine to his Mother.

Dear Mom,

I am writing to you from a hospital bed. Don't worry, Mom I am okay. I was wounded, but the doctor says that I will be up in no time. But that's not what I have to tell you, Mom. Something happened to me that I don't dare tell anyone else for fear of their disbelief. But I have to tell you, the one person I can confide in, though even you may find it hard to believe.

You remember the prayer to Saint Michael that you taught me to pray when I was little? "Michael, Michael of the morning, fresh chord of Heaven adorning, keep me safe today, and in time of temptation, drive the devil away. Amen." Before I left home for Korea, you urged me to remember this prayer before any confrontation with the enemy. But you really didn't have to remind me, Mom. I have always prayed it, and when I got to Korea, I sometimes said it a couple of times a day while marching or resting.

Well, one day, we were told to move forward to scout for Commies. It was a really cold day. As I was walking along, I perceived another fellow walking beside me, and I looked to see who it was. He was a big fellow, a Marine about 6'4" and built proportionally. Funny, but I didn't know him, and I thought I knew everyone in my unit. I was glad to have the company and broke the silence between us. "Chilly today isn't it?" Then I chuckled because suddenly it seemed absurd to talk about the weather when we were advancing to meet the enemy. He chuckled, too.

"I thought I knew everyone in my outfit," I continued, "But I have never seen you before." "No," he agreed, "I have just joined. The name is Michael." "Really?! That's mine, too." "I know," the Marine said, "Michael, Michael of the morning."

Mom, I was really surprised that he knew about my prayer, but I had taught it to many of the other guys, so I supposed that the newcomer must have picked it up from someone else. As a matter of fact, it had gotten around to the extent that some of the fellows were calling me "Saint Michael." Then, out of the blue, Michael said, "There's going to be trouble ahead."

I wondered how he could know that. I was breathing hard from the march and my breath hit the cold air like dense clouds of fog. Michael seemed to be in top shape because I couldn't see his breath at all. Just then, it started to snow heavily and soon it became so dense I could no longer hear or see the rest of my outfit. I got a little scared and yelled, "Michael!" Then I felt his strong hand on my shoulder and heard his voice in my ear, "It's going to clear up soon." It did clear up suddenly. And then, just a short distance ahead of us, like so many dreadful realities, were seven Commies, looking rather comical in the funny hats. But there was nothing funny about them now; their guns were steady and pointed straight in our direction.

"Down, Michael!!!" I yelled as I dove for cover. Even as I was hitting the ground, I looked up and saw Michael still standing, as if paralyzed by fear or so I thought at the time. Bullets were spurting all over the place, and Mom, there was no way those Commies could have missed at that short distance. I jumped up to pull him down and then I was hit. The pain was like a hot fire in my chest and as I fell, my head swooned and I remember thinking, "I must be dying...." Someone was laying me down, strong arms were holding me and laying me gently on the snow. Through the daze, I opened my eyes and the sun seemed to blaze in my eyes. Michael was standing still and there was a splendor in his face. Suddenly, he seemed to glow, like the sun, the splendor increasing intensely around him like the wings of an angel. As I slipped into unconsciousness, I saw that Michael held a sword in his hand and it flashed like a million lights.

Later on, when I woke up, the rest of the guys came to see me with the sergeant. "How did you do it, son?" he asked me. "Where's Michael?" I asked in reply. "Michael who?" The sergeant seemed puzzled. "Michael, the big Marine walking with me, right up to the last moment. I saw him there as I fell." "Son," the sergeant said gravely, "You're the only Michael in my unit. I hand-picked all you fellows, and there's only one Michael. You. And son, you weren't walking with anyone. I watched you because you were too far off from us and I was worried."

"Now tell me son," he repeated, "how did you do it?" It was the second time he had asked me that and I found it irritating. "How did I do what?" "How did you kill those seven Commies? There wasn't a single bullet fired from your rifle." "What?" "Come on son. They were strewn all around you, each one killed by a sword stroke."

And that, Mom, is the end of my story. It may have been the pain or the blazing sun, or the chilling cold. I don't know, Mom, but there is one thing I am sure about. It happened.

Love your son, Michael

Family, let's pray the Michael, Michael of the morning prayer daily and pass it on to others for their protection as well.

God bless you dear ones.

Truth Series - 3 of 6 - We Do Not Pray To Mary

---

September 8, 2021

Heavenly Father, you are not a God of confusion, yet in the Body of Christ, there is much murmuring and confusion over certain beliefs. Please give us the grace of clear thinking in union with You, that we are not deprived of the good You have given us. Amen

I want to begin by asking this question: Do you believe that the Bible is the true word of God?

And that is the crux of the issue. The Bible is put in second place after the opinions of men, and church doctrines. I say that because much is ignored and refuted by Protestants non-Denominational and Evangelical churches in the Scriptures.

And I am going to start out by giving you two blatant examples:

Only God forgives sins. (That is the Pharisees famous line) Yet in John 20:23 Jesus exclaims to the apostles, whose so ever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose so ever sins ye retain, they are retained. Or, whoever's sins you forgive, they have forgiven them. Whoever's sins you retain, they have been retained. Now this is just as clear as day, but the presbyters can forgive sins, yet none of the non-traditional churches have presbyters or pastors who hear confessions and absolve sins, as Jesus directed in the Scriptures. That is example number one.

Number 2. Five times in one paragraph from John 6:51-56, Jesus told the crowd that unless you eat My flesh and drink My blood you have no life in you. So, here are the Scripture verses.

Verse 6 :51. I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world.

The second verse 6: 53. Then Jesus said to them, most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you.

6:54, the third example. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

The fourth example, 6 verse 55. For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is drink indeed.

And the fifth example is John 6 :56. He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him.

It is interesting here that He says it five times because of the five wounds, traditionally, five wounds on His body from the Crucifixion, the crown of thorns, the spear, the nail through both of His feet, the nails in His hands.

So, to complete our understanding: Christians believe in a real spiritual presence of Christ in the wafer and wine. This is common to all mainline denominations except for the Liturgical churches but the Liturgical churches believe that the consecrated host and wine are truly the real physical Body and Blood of Jesus, under the appearance of bread and wine. To substantiate that truth, there are many miracles on record where the consecrated host turned to heart tissue and bled, proving the true presence of Jesus' Body and Blood, which conforms to what is written in the Scriptures, and it is always the same blood type. It is also the same blood type on the Shroud of Turin. And for this reason, Communion is treated with great respect, that is why the churches are ornate, because of the belief of the true presence of the Lord's body in front of the church kept in reserve in the Tabernacle, and of course they never throw leftovers out to the birds. It is not bread; it is His Body.

But do you see? So many people put those churches down and contradict what Scripture says about the true presence of His Body and Blood. He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. That is what the Lord said, but because of social norms in the churches, whatever denomination or non-denomination you profess, certain norms are adhered to lest you be ridiculed for disagreeing or accused of idol worship, or even more disgusting, alchemy. There is nothing of alchemy in the transubstantiation of the bread into the Body of Christ, because it is performed by the descent of the Holy Spirit. He is the one who changes the bread and wine to the Body and Blood of Jesus.

This is much more an issue of peer survival than it is faith in the word of God to be without error. For those who do not agree with everything, this is a white martyrdom for adhering to the word of God. If you believe that, you are not really considered a Christian, there is just something wrong with you, and yet it is stated clearly in the Scriptures.

And I am going to skip ahead now to the Rosary that we prayed on July the thirty-first.

Our Lady appeared and offered everyone a white rose. Mother Elisabeth saw that. She began to speak, "Each one of you here are very, very precious, you have chosen to purify yourselves from this world, and the opinions of men in order to follow My son. You are to be pure examples of God's love, and brotherly love, you are to shine in this world. I am commending each of you for choosing the way of purity. Though you have not shed your blood, you have all stood strong in the face of ridicule and opposition. You have chosen the very narrow path, excluding all else, even unto the loss of family and life. I commend you precious ones for choosing to follow the Lamb and refusing to buckle under the opinions of men. Truly you are blessed beyond measure and true children of mine. You have broken free from the constraints of religious spirits which plague The Body of Christ. You have chosen to adhere to the words of the Bible, rather than to your social group. By thus doing you have flung yourselves into the arms of my Son, to be His and His alone.

"This is one of the biggest bones of contention in the Body of Christ. It is a serious dividing force between believers. You have been called to repair this breach and restore the ruined homesteads of the first century. (That is Isaiah 58:12) You will encounter this problem everywhere, therefore it is important for you to have a good answer that cannot be refuted. Is it about the perfection of truth, or the protection of conformity to denominational doctrines? Those who want to live only by the truth are seeking after perfection and will continue in this way faithfully, no matter what the cost. This is a long hard row to hoe beloved, keep plowing, keep plowing. The Lord is with you as He was with me. This is no small task He has appointed you to."

The Jesus began to speak to me, "You are hearing Me through My mother dear one. I would like people to understand that she was the intermediary My Father used to bring me into this world, and she is also the intermediary that will assist in bringing you out of the world with its many errors to Me, the gate of the sheepfold. The way is long and fraught with many deceptions and traps. Many have been lied to, there is nothing more effective than using a truth and putting a twist I n it to confuse people, then it becomes a lie, a half- truth. Choosing her as an intercessor has been perverted and handed to the Christian community as idol worship. People don't pray to statues of her, they use the statues as sacramental to help them concentrate on her presence, which of course is in the spirit world, is in Heaven and part of the Great Cloud of Witnesses.

"Do you accuse your friends of idol worship when they call you to ask for prayer? Certainly not. This is absurd. But those who have not gone deeper in their understanding of the Bible, but have leaned on the opinions of others, never get to the truth, rather they listen to those who are most popular and conformed to the doctrine of their church or social group. To see and believe something radically different in the Scriptures, would endanger their standing, their survival in the church and with their peer group. What they don't realize is when they see it, and understand it, then deliberately condemn it, they have lost their standing with Me. It is amazing what one will do to continue to be prosperous and accepted in this world.

"This is the work of the enemy who has sown tares in My field. But it is possible to overcome him with the truth, presented simply, without rancor, and this is what I wish to do. This is so important to Me, Clare. So important. You know the truth and my heart longs for them to also know it. They have been very cleverly lied to and ones that are uninformed have used the Marian doctrine to turn people off, without studying her role from the Scriptures. There is a Religious Spirit that seeks to divide the Body, even as there was in My day, with the Pharisees, when I forgave the paralytic, and they have been quite successful by ignoring My mother's role, even though I laid it out clearly for them in the Scriptures.

"Why, you say? Satan in his lethal pride cannot stand the fact that he was so easily conquered by a woman. He hates her to the rotten core of his being. Not only that, but her prayers are powerful and have won many souls graces out of season, such as the wine in Cana. This is why.

"But I say to you, "My sheep know my voice and another they will not follow." You recognized My voice in this vessel when you first heard the teachings but now you are confronted with a vastly differing opinion about My mother's role, and you do not know who or what to believe. May I suggest that you go deeper into the Scriptures? I am offering you the friendship of My very own mother, who brought Me into this world, whose heart is united with Mine fully, for all mankind to be saved, and who prays continually for that to happen. She guides many in the world on the straight and narrow path, because I have given her the graces, she needs to do it. Can you find one error in her teachings? Show it to Me. I want to see it. If not, consider that you have been deprived of the most powerful intercessor and mother in the whole world, because Satan has succeeded in dividing My Church.

"I am not suggesting you worship her, no, worship is Mine alone, I am suggesting that you treat her as a dear friend and ask her to pray for you, and listen to her messages, and authentic appearances and miracles from around the world. She speaks for Me, and her messages are timely.

"My dear ones, you are missing out on great graces I have offered to you. You have turned to internet Bible teachers when I have put one in front of you who is competent in your life, one who you once recognized My voice through. You were running so well, who confused you? Please return to the living waters I have offered you through this vessel, you have lost much and stand to lose more. My love is watching over you and guarding you as the apple of My eye, but please remember this, you will obtain great miracles in a time of extreme danger when you ask for My mother's intercession. I will hear her prayer".

And here I want to add, do not pray to Mary.

Let me begin by saying that this resistance to Mary's role is mostly an issue of misunderstanding and language. In Webster's dictionary there are two distinctly different meanings to the word, pray: definition number one, to make a request in a humble manner, to ask. This is what we mean when we say we pray to Mary...it is not really prayer, it is requesting her intercession with great respect for her the dignity of her person and office, as it is written in the Scriptures, as the mother of the Christ. All men shall call her blessed.

Pray: definition number two, to address God with adoration, confession, supplication, and thanksgiving. For me that means an intimate conversation with God, especially Jesus, where I communicate my love, worship, awe and devotion to Him, and I also pray to Him.

So, to be clear, in the first example we are asking for intercession from the Mother of Jesus. She in turn may reveal some faults we need to correct in our love of God and neighbor, before she petitions Him, or she may just ask a favor of Him. To be sure, Mary is extremely proprietary, and if she sees an attitude of heart in us that she knows will offend her Son, she will inspire us to make changes and repent, before asking Him for anything.

I am learning that most people, especially Bible believing Fundamentalists and Evangelicals believe that those who "pray" to Mary, make her a replacement for God, or believe that they cannot go to God directly so they go to Mary. That is a huge misunderstanding. For instance, here at the Refuge, we spend four to five hours with Jesus, Holy Spirit, Father God, and the Scriptures, first thing in the morning. Then in the evening after dinner we spend forty-five minutes praying a family Rosary and especially discussing world events and asking her intercession for the world and perhaps for some personal issues.

But the truth is, that we humbly request that SHE prays for US. Dear Christians, Mary was faithful with her duties on Earth, so the Lord has given her greater duties in Heaven that concern the WHOLE family of God, the very Body of Christ. Jesus often taught with metaphors. The very night at the Passover supper He stooped to wash the disciple's feet. Did He do that because they did not follow the custom of washing their own feet when they came into dinner? Of course not. He was illustrating to them that they should stoop to wash one another's feet in true humility, serving, not lording it over one another, or quarreling over who was more important.

In the very same spirit, when Jesus said to her, as He was dying, "Behold your son." and to John, "Behold your mother." He was declaring her role in the church. Remember Scripture says there were many brothers and sisters in Jesus' family, obviously He was talking about more than just providing housing for her. He was in essence saying, "You, John are representative of My disciples, my church, because you are the only apostle present at My death, therefore, behold, I am assigning her the mission of mothering My newly born church, and you the mission of respecting her as My very own mother in her role."

A mother does not supplant the role of the father of the family, she supports the role of the father and instructs her children. And that is precisely what the Blessed Mother has done throughout the centuries in her appearances, which were mandated by God to inform the Body. She even prophesied that Rome would lose the faith, as well as the end of the first world war, and why it was allowed by God, and why a more terrible war would come after it because of growing immorality. What we do is to request of Mary that she pray for us.

Not only did she prophesy, but God performed signs, wonders, and miracles to attest to the validity of her appearances. But the greatest miracles of all were the repentance and return to the church of thousands of souls, along with healing miracles, not to mention the miraculous spring that appeared out of nowhere in the rock cove at Lourdes. At Fatima, the very day she said she would appear, the weather was turbulent with torrential rains and muddy roads. The very moment she appeared to the visionaries, it stopped raining, the sun came out and everyone and everything in the crowd was perfectly dry including the roads in less than a minute's time.

When people kneel to ask for her prayers, it is much like a peasant would kneel before a king and ask a favor. And yes, we do venerate her as "blessed among women," but worship? No. Worship is reserved for God alone. Guys, Mary is no replacement for God. She is a 'highly favored daughter' of the Most High God, a creature created by His will, one that would carry the Christ in her womb. That is the bottom line about this devotion.

The prayer that is addressed to Mary most commonly is from the Scriptures, and it reads: "Hail Mary full of grace, the Lord is with you. That is the angelic salutation. Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. And part two is: Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death." This prayer is said slowly, while meditating on the divine mysteries of our Savior's life and the miracles that accompanied them. In this way it is ALL about Jesus and what He did. In no way is it about Mary.

Now, when you get to the Glorious Mysteries which talk about the end of Mary's life, people could misconstrue her crowning as some kind of event making her equal to God. No way, all the mysteries that Mary is directly involved in from Jesus' life, are an illustration of what a believer in Christ can expect if he or she is faithful to the end. Even in Scriptures, talks about us receiving a crown for our faithfulness.

She raised Jesus to adulthood and even taught Him many things as a child which she learned having been raised in the temple. (which is first century tradition) She made the ultimate sacrifice in cooperating with His death for sinners, she died having fulfilled her mission, she was laid to rest in her tomb and Jesus Raptured her, giving her the same reward, we will all have if we are faithful. In addition to this, she obtained a glorified body and a crown. These are all, every single one, the fulfillment of the promises made to every faithful Christian when they come to Heaven. Mary was the first and most faithful Christian.

War is Coming

---

September 8, 2021

May the Lord grant us the grace of prayer and supplication, Amen.

Blessed Mother began speaking, "Thank you daughter for being obedient to My Son's directive. This example of miraculous protection is from continued prayer and belief in what you are praying, trusting that you will be covered in times of trouble." And here Mother Mary is referring to getting out the message of the true story of a U.S. Marine who prayed daily and sometimes two and three times a day since he was a child, a prayer to Saint Michael which is, "Michael, Michael of the morning, fresh chord of Heaven adorning, keep me safe today, and in times of trouble, drive the devil away. Amen."

The Marine, named Michael, was stationed in Korea in 1950 and had experienced while facing sure death seven Communists firing shots at point blank range and he was isolated from his outfit. Saint Michael the Archangel showed up and with his sword took out all seven of them. Only one bullet hit Michael and he went down, but just before blacking out, he recalls that he was lifted up by Saint Michael and was carried to safety. Michael's commanding officer saw the whole confrontation from a distance and was in shock as to how Michael was, not only alive, but not one bullet was fired from his rifle and all seven Communists were killed by a sword.

Blessed Mother continued, "War will soon come upon you and this powerful prayer of protection needs to go out to soldiers and civilians alike. My children, when you truly believe and trust in the words you are praying, that is when the effectiveness of the prayer ignites with Divine light and miracles occur and inhabitants of Heaven rush to intercede. Please avoid the routine of robotic prayers and pray from the heart allowing your emotions, tears and travails to spill forth.

"Continuous prayer is what I am calling all my children to do. Pray for the conversion of all lost sheep, pray for hearts to be healed for those who have been traumatized as children and pray for those who have caused others to stray from my Son and have grown cold in their faith.

"Visualize what you are praying for and be intentional when you pray. When you do this, your sighs, cries and intentions stir up the Great Cloud and then the multiplier effect activates.

"Pray my dear ones and prepare those for what is coming." And that was the end of Our Lady's message.

God bless you and keep you all dear Heart Dwellers.

Truth Series - 4 of 6 - She Prayed for ME

---

September 9, 2021

Father God, you have given us all a work to do, whether we are on Heaven or Earth, but there are many who do not believe in our role in the church, and it has been severely damaged by this. Please Father, clarify the truth and Holy Spirit I pray you will witness to the truth and convict those who reject God's Order. Amen.

Well, I had a situation where I was talking to a young man about the Blessed Mother's intervention, and I wrote a little metaphor for him and it did not turn out well, the understanding was not quite there I had to qualify it. But I am going to read you a little of the metaphor and then I am going to go into what the Lord had to say about the whole situation.

So, I am trying to get across the idea that the Blessed Mother is an intercessor, and she is an insider, she is part of the family that raised Jesus, the very mother that raised Him. So, she is an insider, and she has a way with her son knowing how to present petitions and knowing when things are right and when they are not right. Here is the little story:

You are on your way to work one morning, and you see a lady stranded on the side of the road changing a tire. You stop and ask if you can help. Sure enough she could not find the lug nut wrench and was having a real hard time removing the tire.

So, you pull out your tools and help her. As you are working you talk with her and she mentions she works in the office of Maverick Construction Company, in fact she is the boss's secretary. You know about that company because they have outstanding benefits for their employees, in fact you have put in applications, but they never call you back. They are well known in the business as having the best and most experienced crews. They only hire guys that have been around and have a reputation for being top notch.

It turns out this lady knows the family well; her kids play on the same soccer team, even have get togethers in the summer. You finish changing her tire and she thanks you, being very grateful and asks "What can I do for you?" And you tell her, "Well, as a matter of fact, yes, there is something you could do."

And she asks, "Please tell me."

And you answer, "I would love to sign on with that company, but they never call me back. If you could please put in a good word for me, I would sure appreciate it."

She answers, "No problem! I am having lunch with the boss's wife today; I am going to tell her how you went out of your way to help me and that you want to work for them. Give me your cell number."

So, you thank her, and give her your number and you are on your way. She waves at you with a big smile on her face as she is pulling out on the road.

You think to yourself, "Well, maybe, just maybe that will help." But you know how people forget and you really do not have much hope.

Two days later you get a call from the boss's secretary at Maverick, asking you to come for an interview, the boss likes what he heard about you. The interview is a success, and you get the job you have always wanted but could not even get a call back from them, before the intervention of the stranded woman.

So, what happened here? You had been trying to talk to them for a couple of years, but they never called you in for an interview. What changed??? As luck would have it your good deed brought you into contact with an insider, and not just ANY insider. This one was a friend of the owner.

And that is how it works with Mary, she is Jesus' mother, the word of God says that she is highly favored among women, chosen to be the mother of God's only son, and that all men will call her blessed. She is connected to Father God and the Son directly, as the woman chosen to carry Jesus, the woman impregnated by the seed sent from Heaven from God the Father. As such she is highly privileged and has special favor that no other woman on Earth has, or ever will have. She gets her prayers answered because she is an insider and more than that, she knows what pleases the Lord.

Well, when I read the story to my friend, he already had an answer, and that is just that he went directly to the boss to try and get the job, and I said "What if you could not get to the boss? What if you needed someone else to get to the boss for you?" And he looked a little puzzled and I said "Remember the Wedding at Cana. Do you think Jesus knew about the wine running out?" to be honest with you guys I think He set it up so that He could delineate her position in Heaven. Of course, He knew they were running out of wine, that was huge! He was not about to do any kind of miracle publicly because it was not His time yet, until his mother came to Him teary eyed and said "Son, they have no wine." And He could not resist the tears on her face because she was really hurting for the couple. It would be a terrible embarrassment that they ran out of wine, and He consented to do that miracle, a public miracle, His first public miracle, out of season, He consented to that because she was hurting.

So, we can pray and pray and pray and ask the Lord for gifts and for graces and if we are in right standing with Him and prepared to carry those graces faithfully there is a good chance, He will grant them to us. But if there is something a little bit out of order, we need an intercessor to step in and pray for us, and perhaps even illuminate our hearts as to what could possibly be in the way of a gift and a grace.

So, here is an example that I believe the Lord arranged at the very same time we were discussing the subject:

It is a wonderful testimony of the difference that Mary can make. A Heart Dweller told us that their daughter had COVID and a very erratic heartbeat, which is common, going from 200 to 20 without any warning. Heart damage and death are very common with this symptom, so it was critical, and she was the mother of three children. Well, she had just begun on the Ivermectin, but it was too late during the COVID, it was about the third week, in fact. We had been praying and praying for her because this was a very devout and helpful Heart Dwellers daughter.

We prayed for over a week and things took a turn for the worse. It looked like she was not going to make it, so they took her to the hospital, and she was on life support. Now we had prayed for her in the Rosary as well as independently and entered warfare for her as well. But nothing had made a dent in the progression of the illness. We were beside ourselves with worry.

Well, as it turns out we were praying the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary this day when we got the news of her being on life support and we asked our Lady to please intervene and save this young woman with three children. Well just then one of the core groups had a vision, the Blessed Mother took the pain from the scourging of the pillar meditation that we had just done, she took the pain from that and that incident in the life of the Lord, and she united it with the request for the woman's healing and offered it to the Father.

Within two days, there was a significant improvement, the doctors were amazed because this COVID symptom very often leads to death. Her heart rate began to stabilize, and she showed significant improvement and after being in ICU for 2 more days, they were getting ready to release her to go home. After I tell you this story, I really did not want to elaborate on it, I do not want to hear my own thoughts, I really wanted to hear what the Lord had to say so I asked Him:

Lord, I would rather You say something if you do not mind.

And Jesus began, He said "I allowed this situation, at this very time, to illustrate to you the power of My mother's petitions. She knows just how to present a petition so I cannot deny it. This is proven in the Scriptures as well when she came to me teary eyed because the groom had run out of wine. After all she had suffered and done for Me, to see her hurting so much for their embarrassing situation, I simply could not deny her. Those of you who are stubbornly refusing to enlist her are going to find yourselves in dire situations where you have prayed to Me repeatedly and I do not change the situation. But when I see you humbly submitting to the role I assigned to My Mother, I will indeed respond. With some of you it is a matter of pride, "I don't need an intercessor in Heaven I go directly to Jesus." And yet you will call your friends to pray for you? Do you realize when you do that how you are insulting Me? Do you realize that I offered you the most powerful medicine I had for you, but you chose instead a friend on Earth to intercede? That is why in certain situations, I will not respond to you, because you did not respond to the gift of My Mother.

"There are others among you who are thinking they heard My voice telling them to stay away from this devotion, but I assure you it was not My voice you heard, it was a demon playing you. And because you already were blind and had a prejudice, I allowed the demon to deceive you. The bottom line in both cases is simply, pride. "I go directly to God, I don't need her prayers", and yet you will call your buddies to pray for you. If you reject her, you do not deserve to have your prayer answered, it is just that simple.

"Because she is in Heaven and because she knows Me so well, she knows how to adorn the prayer in such a way that I cannot resist. I resist the proud but give grace to the humble. Search your hearts My children, look deeper into your motives and check your discernment to be sure you are not one of those who has bucked up and rejected her, opening the door on a false Jesus to tell you to have nothing to do with her. There is one person I know that will tell that to anyone, "Have nothing to do with that idolatrous devotion, go directly to God." His name is Satan.

"I have brought you to this channel to help you grow. You have recognized My voice in Mother Clare, you have seen the fruit in your lives and the lives of others. I have taught you from the beginning, the rules of discernment. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and yet you are so convinced that calling upon My own mother, who I called upon many times to pray for Me, is not Scriptural. You are misguided and in error. I do resist the proud but give grace to the humble. This grace has been offered to you, I recommend you rebuke the lying demon posing as Me, repent for your pride, and ask Me to position you in right standing with the very woman who gave birth to Me and prayed for Me in every situation. You have nothing to lose, but much to gain, by double checking your discernment with a strong suspicion that you did not hear My voice.

"To put it plainly, my children, I would NEVER tell a soul not to seek My Mother's intercession. Never. And why is that? Because that is her assignment in Heaven as the mother of the Bride and Mother of the Church. This was not an honor she took upon herself. She does not take honors upon herself. She never did in the Scriptures, and she would never do it in Heaven. But I will defend her honor, because she is worthy of honor, respect, and reverential awe. You simply have no idea of who you are rejecting, and the glory bestowed upon her by the Father, just as in Heaven, someday you will have glory bestowed upon you. But it will not be your glory as it is not her glory, but it is My glory that will shine forth from the faithful.

"Consider this: On the long journey to Bethlehem, she prayed for Me.

When the robbers stopped us in the pass, she prayed for Me.

In Egypt when I mingled with the Egyptians, she prayed for Me.

When I had a fever, she prayed for Me.

When I fell and scraped My knee, she prayed for Me.

When I was lost for three days, she prayed for Me.

When I went on the road, she prayed for Me, nor did she cease praying.

And now I offer her to you, for she will pray for you faithfully, just as she did for Me."

Pray From The Heart

---

September 9, 2021

Through surrender, service and prayer, may we all seek a closer union with our Lord, Amen. Mother Clare began, "Mother, I am so in need of your assistance, please be merciful to me, I know I am not worthy."

Blessed Mother replied, "Every thought as you pray, counts. Not even one of the littlest intentions is ignored. You are used to making a big production out of prayer, but understand, when prayer comes from the heart and is silent, it has an impact more than you can comprehend. In this way, prayer is not so difficult and yet it is multiplied without you even understanding how it occurs."

"Yes, formal prayer is important, but this cannot be done 24/7, so we encourage you to lift up your intentions all throughout the day and I promise you, they have depth and hit the mark. When prayers originate in the form of a sigh coming from your hearts, they touch the Father who in turn touches the petition. Do not ever condemn yourselves because it seems like your prayers are weak. You have to start somewhere and as you learn to practice fidelity in little prayers, greater ones will be given."

"Continue in the practice of engaging others in prayer, which is very powerful and brings one another closer in holy things. Man, judges from the exterior things, God judges from the heart. My dear ones, I need you to all linger in His Heart when you receive these graces. Allow Him to receive the beautiful touches from your tender hearts. In such times as these, His edification is quite important.-- --"

"He does not allow you to see all that is going on, lest you lose heart and become discouraged. That is why we reveal these things to you very slowly, frequently correcting any infidelity that you might receive, not fully understanding the circumstances."

"All over the world countries will be taking turns suffering. Above all we should be eager to comfort those who have lost much. What is not understood is that things are allowed to be lost, because you do not need them. Much effort has gone into moving people from California because of the lethal quakes that are coming. This is also true of the fires. But more than any other thing, the Lord is trying to get you all to recognize the shortness of life and how quickly these things can grow wings and fly away. For this reason, He wants you to cultivate more focus on spiritual things."

"Mother, please where is all this fatigue coming from?"

Blessed Mother continued, "Can you not guess? Truly you are carrying a burden for intercession. You will be released from this when He chooses others to take your place, but for now, please carry it with dignity, truly it is a suffering. I know you are trying Clare, lean more on Jesus daughter, and all my children, lean more on Him."

Truth Series - 5 of 6 - Are We Deceived

---

September 10, 2021

Holy Spirit, enlighten our minds and please pull away any veil of deception that lingers over us. Amen

Well, sometimes we can be blinded by our own zeal. That brings to mind Shmuel in the Chosen series about Jesus, when he was talking with Nicodemus, insisting that Jesus was a heretic, and boldly proclaiming "THIS IS GOD" as he slammed his hands down on the Torah.

In the next scene Shmuel and Nicodemus were witnessing the miracle of the man who could not walk, the paralytic, whom Jesus prayed for, forgave his sins, and who immediately stood to his feet, picked up his mat and walked home, right in front of the Pharisees.

Shmuel's response to this was a new dedication and fire to expose Jesus as a false prophet, as he hollered out to the Romans, "This man is an enemy of the State!" And pandemonium broke loose, and Jesus escaped.

My dear ones, there is a difference between blind self-righteousness and standing for truth. So, how can you tell which one you are in?

Jesus demonstrated the power of God to back up His words, and Shmuel still could not accept it.

Nicodemus reasoned with him to step outside of his fossilized little cubicle and consider that there might just be more than the Torah to testify to God at work among His people.

You can tell that you are being controlled by a spirit of Deceit and /or Self Righteousness when you sit down with someone who explains to you a truth that matches every one of your objections to a certain subject, through the Scriptures, and yet you persist in rejecting what was presented. Here are some arguments I have recently tried to answer with Scripture for those who refuse the intercession of the Blessed Mother.

Number one: We agree that Holy Spirit is everywhere, in Heaven and on Earth and that it is possible for those in Heaven to hear the petitions of those on Earth through the Holy Spirit. Just like the times when you have been quickened to pray for a friend although you did not know why and later you found out they had been in an accident. So, we agreed that they could pray from Heaven, just as Jesus was praying from Heaven. And in this series, I do bring up something that happened to Jesse Duplantis when he was physically transported to Heaven on a Sunday and came back with the Shekinah of Moses all over him, escorted around by King David, and on his way out of Heaven, King David said to him, "Jesse, I am praying for you." There is one Evangelical that was not afraid to share what he saw in Heaven. But moving on.

We also agreed that it is right and proper for us to ask prayers of our friends and that Jesus continually makes intercession for us, as our great High Priest, and so do those in Heaven, the Great Cloud of Witnesses, who are made aware that we need prayer, through the Holy Spirit, or even see Jesus praying and join Him with their prayers.

We agreed that the Blessed Mother obtained an answer to prayer that the married couple could not obtain, without her intercession, when they ran out of wine. (The Wedding in Cana) Jesus knew full well they were going to run out, but as much as He loved the couple, it was not His time to perform a public miracle, so He did nothing. Nothing that is, until Mary came to Him with tears in her eyes. She obtained the answer to prayer and Jesus against His desire to wait, did His first public miracle.

Number four: We agreed that those who are faithful on Earth will receive more responsibility in Heaven, and that it is possible for Mary to be assigned to mother the faithful.

Number five: I explained that the petition we use to Mary is totally Scriptural. Hail Mary full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. And when we do that, we also meditate on the life of Jesus with each decade.

Number six: I explained that Mary was the first Christian and they agreed. As the first Christian the events of her life parallel the events of ours. She was faithful, she died, and the tomb was found empty, she was Raptured and received a crown. Just as all of us will be raptured and receive a crown as it is written in Scripture.

I explained that we spend the first four to five hours of each day with Jesus, Holy Spirit and Father God, we do not worship Mary nor ask her on her own to help us. Rather we ask her to pray to God for us that these things be accomplished. And out of our total devotional time during the day, four to five hours, she gets a Rosary that takes thirty to forty minutes to pray. So, our devotion and worship are first to God, but we honor her as a dear friend and a very powerful and holy intercessor. We bring many petitions from around the world to her, during the family Rosary after dinner.

And finally, there are many who have a devotion to the Blessed Virgin, but they go overboard. They do not fully understand the role given her from Heaven so their devotion to her eclipses their devotion to Jesus. This is most certainly error on their part. But we should never condemn truth because someone distorted it into error. We must always cleave to the Lord and the Scriptures and not be led astray by others who might lack understanding.

Be As Angels Walking Among Men

September 10, 2021

Hello Brothers and Sisters, I hope you guys are doing well. May the peace and joy of the Lord be with you. The Lord is really adamant about addressing the need for humility within His creatures and those He has called to serve Him. And this day He gave me a message about it and He asked to address it. So, I sat with Jesus today after Holy communion and asked Him, "Jesus do you have a message for us today?"

He began speaking, "I want to address the need for humility in My Church. It is littleness blessed ones the wins My favors and My heart. I am a God of meekness, tenderness, love, and humility. Ironic that even a God can be humble you say, but I say to you My ways are not your ways. I want My people to see themselves as they truly are without Me, naked, blind, weak, and incapable of nothing! I want them to accept the truth of their condition. Ask Me to reveal this to you, I will indeed honor this prayer.

"Humility is your greatest protection! I come running to those who place their hope in Me. Little children expect all from their parents, why then do you not hope in Me? Rid yourselves of this pride. I lift up the lowly but despise the proud. Why? It was the same sin that caused Satan, a mere creature and archangel, to fall. It ruined Adam and Eve. It made My enemies crucify Me! It the source of all evil! I humbled Myself for you and took the form of a slave. Even to the cross I humbled Myself to show you the glory of humility.

"Find a man humble of heart and you will find an angel walking among men. I do not judge those of you according to your sins, why then do you judge another? Why do you act harshly with your brothers and sisters? Truly, you are not walking according to My ways. Take My Hand and walk with Me and I will show you the way of greatness in the Kingdom of Heaven. Ask My Mother to pray for you for she was the littlest of all. Those who resemble her resemble Me. And those who resemble Me are dear to My Father. My Mother should be a model for all to follow. I gave her to you to be a companion, Mother, and guide to holiness. She is but a mere creature, yet her humility obtained for her the greatest dignity of all on earth and in heaven. Though she is Mother Superior of My Church, her heart is meek and kind, full of love and humility. She never forces Me on anyone, yet she knows what pleases Me most and makes tender suggestions from Me to the souls entrusted to her. She always seeks the glory and Will of God in every circumstance. Never will you hear her glorifying herself, but instead she leads souls directly to Me.

"Compare this to superiors who flaunt their authority over others, who make harsh demands that they themselves would not even commit to, who, rather than edify and serve, judge and condemn. Do you honestly believe you are representing Me? You who scatter My sheep and increase their wounds? Those who show mercy shall themselves be shown mercy. Reap therefore fruits of kindness, brotherly love, gentleness of heart and meekness.

"If you wish to serve Me and represent Me, then learn of Me, for I am meek and lowly in Heart." And that's in Matthew 11. "I did not call My church to legalism but to love. Love the unlovable, kindly instruct the ignorant, bless those who curse you, serve the poor and needy and the orphan, and above all Love the Lord your God. Then you shall see Me on that day and to those who do these things I shall say, "Come you who are blessed by My Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world".

Nibiru and the Cleansing of the Earth

---

The Lord, steady our hearts, dear Heart Dwellers, as we investigate the future and what is coming. May He bless you with His peace and the ability to stay focused on Him.

Well, it has been a couple of weeks since I have heard from Him and it has been a little frustrating, so today, when I was crying and broke down like a little kid that could not find her mommy or daddy, He came to me very sweetly and began speaking. And I know that this absence has been an offering so that other souls may find Him. And a lot of you, if you are going through the same thing, that is what it is about, a time of conversion for other souls. It sometimes is necessary for the Lord to have those who will sacrifice their intimacy with Him to give to those who do not know Him and bringing them into the Kingdom. The Lord came to me so sweetly. He said,

"Can we Talk?"

Then I said, I am here, Lord.

He continued, "You have no idea of how taxing these past weeks have been. Some of it has been from your curiosity, some of it has been just trying to keep up. Sweet Clare, I will never abandon you. But I do appreciate the offerings you have made of yourself. There has never quite been a time such as this in the history of the world. Do not get tired of hearing that because it is true. From the dawn of civilization until now, never has there been a time so intense.

"I am coming to free the world of sin, once and for all. I have done this before, but not for once and for all. We are in the final countdown of the times of the end of sin. This will be a glorious planet to live on when I am done, and you will have a right to live here because you have fought the good fight.

"There are so many exhausting influences in the world now, not to mention the waves of energy that are deteriorating your overall health, not to mention the proximity of evil, as the bastion of Satanism approaches and all dark ones rejoice in what they believe is coming to them. Yes, I have told you before about Nibiru and that it is the habitation of demons, that is why it wreaks havoc.

"You see I have placed it far to the outside for it is a prison planet of sorts for the demonic realm, I could say it better, it is the universal capitol belonging to the dark ones who rebelled against Me taking one-third of the angels with them. They have had their millenniums to work their evil and I have proven the just ones oppressed by them throughout recorded and unrecorded time.

"This planet is bringing with it the ultimate darkness in preparation for the final battle when such as these will be confined and destroyed in the lake of fire. Yes, there have been multitudes of civilizations in which they played a role, a major role. In all truth, even as the Almighty, I have grown weary unto sorrow over the evil conceived by these. I am all together at the point where I only want the righteous ones to rule and reign bringing justice to the Earth, that all men might live the life I fashioned for them in Heaven.

"Oh, what beautiful things I have made for My Beloved ones. What creativity, charity, joy and glory I have designed for My Children. But with each civilization, Satan infiltrated and raised up the wicked, perverting men and women to act in blind greed and selfishness. You could not stand to bear one moment of sorrow from what I have seen mankind destroy with wicked intentions to desecrate the earth and cause eternal suffering.

"You long to have the time and freedom to sing and play, I long to have a world where one such as yourself has infinite access to all you desire to glorify Me and console My Children. All the things that you have lacked in your life Clare, including twisted behaviors in your nature that are not yet fully healed, all such conditions exist in all My Children and how I long to have a world where healing drops like ripe fruit from the trees. Where healing infuses the soul with one glance, one inhaling of the sweet nectar from this healing fruit of Heaven.

"Yes, and I shall have it, and you will partake of it and be fully healed, and healing others through the anointing you will have. No more weariness Clare, no more pain, no more limitation on the time you can spend rejoicing in life, no more closed doors, no more isolation. No, all My Children will intermingle and find healing joy in one another.

"But this is not quite the season. The house cleaning and major repairs must first be performed and that every vestige of corruption is finally purged. Sweet Clare now is not yet the season, what lies ahead is massive destruction and reconstruction of this world into a just and holy world that I shall reign over with My faithful ones. Freedom and providence will be as the air you breathe, for it will prevail over all other energies and be the fertile ground for endless expansion of love and expression bringing others into the Kingdom of Heaven.

"Yes, now we must clear the decks of all the impediments to this wonderful new world I will construct for you and my faithful ones who have suffered beyond imagining, because they refused to align themselves with the fallen ones. Yes, in the end there will be a new Heaven and a new Earth, for all vestiges of evil will be no more.

"But for now, My Bride, I want you to be brave and strong. You are My blessed ones, and all these things shall be yours because you obeyed. I say to you, do not fret over your weakness, it only adds to the splendor and glory that will one day shine forth from you. That you undertook to continue to serve Me in these weakened circumstances is part of the mystery of faith in operation. Indeed, you shall have the faith of Abraham and Mary, My Bride.

"So now I admonish you, do not be thrown down by the situations around you, even those things that affect your service to Me. Do not allow them to stop you Clare, for I am with you pumping My very own life's blood into yours, that you might carry on and finish that which has been appointed to you. When He talks about me, He is also talking about everyone else who is connected to Him. Rest when you must. Do not be hampered by guilt, the forces you are operating in are dark and heavy, and not prone to encouragement. So just keep going, one step at a time, not looking back nor too far forward, for one day at a time. And even one hour at a time when necessary. I will send you consolations when you need them. And I am touched how very frail you are without sensing My presence. I have great pity for you, in your helplessness, which is that of an infant in the crib, it draws down My unconditional love...with no limits. So, don't let the blasphemers lies settle in your heart and mind.

"I am wholly pleased with you, and I know you are doing your best with My grace to continue moving forward. I will hold you in My arms, forever My Bride, come get lost in My love, it is an ocean without beginning or end. Come, swim with Me".

Then I got silly and said, I want to float with You Jesus...

Then He said, "Then floating it shall be"

That was the end of His message.

Nibiru's Affect on Our World

---

September 11, 2021

The Lord bless us Heart Dwellers with His peace as we keep our eyes on Him. Amen

My precious family, have you noticed the severity of the fires and flooding all around the world? Well, there is a very good reason for it. The ninth mystery planet named Nibiru by some, is wreaking havoc with the energies that stabilize our solar system.

And here I would like to refer you to a YouTube channel called The Two Preachers, please take the time to see what they are reporting on. It is very, very startling and illuminating as to the degree of events occurring simultaneously all around the world. On their channel they collect events from the world that show the extreme changes in climate, flooding and fire. I mean, the things they are showing are unbelievable! These changes are nothing short of apocalyptic. Forest fires all over Europe and Russia, the U.S. Canada, Australia, and flooding like you have never seen before.

In Germany and different countries in Europe, the flooding is just unbelievable. It comes through houses, it sweeps through houses and goes through their bathrooms and some of the toilets are bubbling over and spewing out water because the sewers cannot hold it, and the water is like three or four feet deep in their houses. It is unbelievable! There has never been anything like this. This is different.

Others are finding that they are the result of the incoming debris from the ninth planet. These meteors and asteroids are preceding Nibiru, and they are like incoming firebombs that have been landing all over the world, setting cities and forests on fire. The Lord has been telling us that fire will fall from Heaven, even as it is written in the Scriptures. Truly we are living in the days of Revelation dear ones, and I believe we are soon to start into the days of the Great Tribulation very soon.

One of the other things that we will be seeing will be the Northern lights. The Northern lights are going to be seen in Florida, and they are a manifestation of these incoming waves of energy that are coming from the ninth planet so there are going to be some spectacular light shows for people who are even in the Southern part of the United States. Some have seen Nibiru, which I believe they said is a dark star. Some have seen the sun disk, the powers that have launched to obscure the approach of this planet, and that is what the cover photo for this message is, it is a sun disk slightly off conjunction with Nibiru so you can see the planet and the sun disk separately.

While Mike from Around the World on Sound Cloud and sometimes with Paul Begley, has not been given the understanding of Mary's role according to Scripture, he is a man of science with dreams and visions, that are given by God and accurate. Just last night, September sixth, around midnight, he introduced us to information that he is privy to, it describes coming events that will completely change the face of the Earth forever. And I want to add here, unless God intervenes because we all prayed, what he describes corresponds to what Ezekiel dreamt about and the Rapture several years ago. He and I were in a convertible automobile speeding westward trying to get away from an ominous black cloud that was closing in on us very quickly. It almost caught up to us, when the convertible began to ascend into the clouds. We were being Raptured. As we were ascending, the Lord and His armies were descending upon the Earth to bring a tremendous war and we were taken out just ahead of it. Firebombs were dropping all over the Earth and you could see them exploding from outer space.

Now I want to mention here quickly that Ezekiel had a vision last night when he was in travail and it was of the Lord on a black horse with a sword extended, pointed at the United States and He was riding furiously towards the United States with this sword pointed at our nation. It had to do with famine, and the judgment that was being brought down on our country.

So, going back to where we left off, the firebombs were dropping all over the Earth and you could see them explode from outer space.

Because of the electromagnetic pulses from the ninth planet, we are going to see our computers doing very strange things. The way Mike explained it, was that the bits of information that run cars, planes, computers of every kind are going to be affected by random flipping or changing their numbers. This will cause malfunction of everything around the world that relies on this type of data. I experienced it even this morning when I opened my browser and all my files were temporarily missing from the tool bar, until I rebooted, and then they came back. Imagine what this could do to our nuclear plants. These waves are increasing, and reboots will only work for a while.

And some other tidbits from Mike's channel: Many more pulses are coming in, affecting our immune systems and food as well. He said that just two days ago, an elevator was stuck, and the cause was due to a bit-flip. He also said that this is just the beginning, so we are forewarned to keep our eyes on Jesus and not let this flip our own bits if you know what I mean. So, we are forewarned to keep our eyes on Jesus.

My precious family, as demonic manifestations increase, because of Nibiru's proximity, use the blood of Jesus, the Holy Name of Jesus of Nazareth, and the binding prayers we have taught you, to draw a line they cannot cross. The Lord has also taught us to call upon St. Michael and the warring angels to defend us in battle, and the Scapular and blessed metals. Please take what Mike says with a grain of salt, about Sacramentals and the power invested in them by God. A blessed relic of a saint has the same impact as the saint praying for you in the room. If he had studied that subject with all the same fever and depth that he has pursued science, he would not be talking them down.

When I came into the Rosary with our little group, truly Mother, I do not know what to say, except Jesus, I trust in You. Other than that, I have no words.

She replied, "And that is the best possible place you can be."

She continued, "Our greatest wish is for man to convert and turn to the Lord. These forthcoming events will turn the tide on many conversions, yet others will curse Him. All of this has been spoken of to get souls ready is in fact God's mercy to bring about conversions. It is all written in Revelation Clare, all of it is there.

"We did not want to concern you with all the details. We did not want you going deeper and deeper into what is to happen. Such digging can lead to unbelief. What is most important for you and the community is to live a Godly life and focus on souls coming to My Son.

"The simplicity of the lessons my Son has given you will touch the simplest people and give them hope. Your songs will give comfort. As these things begin to break, while you are still here, use this gift to bring comfort. There is so much people do not understand, God is love, that is the heart of the Gospel and love one another and God with all your heart is the simple truth message that all can embrace. Going into eternity with these things as absolutes will bring great peace. "

Mother how long will we be here?

"Not long, for you were not appointed for wrath, rest assured, He is not leaving you behind, no matter how unworthy you feel, His mercy covers it all. There will be mitigations depending on prayer. Those who pray are doing the most necessary work. Every prayer is being heard. But there is a requirement of all men and women, repentance. Even those who are His chosen, have much to repent of and it will go well with them if they do.

"Every day, Beloved ones, take time to review what you have thought, said, and done, and ask forgiveness of God and make a firm purpose of amendment to change. Watch yourselves Beloved ones. Encourage others to also come clean before the Lord. Truly those who have repented will have the advantage over those who feel they have no need of repentance. Your good example will inspire many, but still, many must hope against hope in God's Mercy. Cling to Jesus and make Him your faithful companion.

"Things will be much worse in areas where repentance is lacking or nonexistent. When people want to know why this is happening, you may tell them, this is the end of the world as you have known it. This now is the time of purification where all evils committed will be removed by fire, to make ready for the new Heavens and Earth and the rule of Christ.

"Encourage them Clare to repent and forgive, to prepare their hearts and make ready for His coming. But first the time of cleansing must come. Tell them to make little fuss over the body but to take very great care over their spirits and eternal destination. Death is quick, a transition into eternity, that should be your foremost goal, your destination in eternity. Do what is right, moment to moment, not for your comforts but for the edification of others, bringing them closer to God.

A brother just brought up the reality of near-death experiences, NDE's when people die, they do not even know they are dead until they realize they do not hurt anymore, and no one can hear or see them.

The Blessed Mother continued, "This is so true, for the most part, death comes as shock when you realize you are no longer in an earthly body, and yet you are alive, even without pain. So my dearest children, know that death is just the beginning of a new life. One that is chained in the tortures of Hell, or one that is in the freedom and bliss of Heaven. Choose wisely, do not despair, for the sincerely contrite heart Jesus is all Mercy. Amen."

Truth Series - 6 of 6 - What Does Intercession With Mary Look Like

September 13, 2021

As an Evangelical, my dear family, I was under the impression that those who had a devotion to Mary were idolaters. That changed when I found out the truth about the devotion, it is scriptural. I had to repent for falsely accusing my brothers and sisters. So, I wanted to share with you what this devotion to Mary looks like and what role she plays in the Body of Christ.

So, let us look at the first part of the Rosary prayer. "Hail Mary full of grace" This comes from Luke 1:28: And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favored, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women. And so, Gabriel, an angel of God appeared to Mary and spoke these words. So, this salutation to the Blessed Mother and the Hail Mary's is pure Scripture.

Part two, when I first heard it, it offended me as a Spirit filled Evangelical. How could God have a mother? That seemed really off base to me, so I put the question to an elder. He told me that it is a declaration of Jesus being the second person of the Holy Trinity, and as such, God. So, in the second part of the prayer, "Holy Mary, Mother of God pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death". That was the reason Mother of God is her title because Jesus, her son, is God. Obviously, Mary is created, she is a creature, she is not God.

Well, in addition to this prayer, we announce a mystery from the life of Jesus and for each of the ten beads, meditate upon it as we say the Hail Mary. So, for instance, for the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary, we meditate on ten Scriptures that came from His passion. The First Sorrowful Mystery: The Agony in the Garden:

Meditation for the first bead: Imagine the Garden of Gethsemane, a favorite place of prayer for Jesus and the Apostles. And then we say the Hail Mary.

Meditation for the second bead: The Agony in the Garden. This is where He suffered intense pain of mind and body, as well as a violent struggle and contest. Jesus' agony was an emotional suffering, as well as spiritual. Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.

Ok, the third meditation: For the third bead of the Rosary: "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass me by." Jesus asks the Father. As a human, Jesus dreaded the suffering as much as we do. Hail Mary, full of grace, and we do the next Hail Mary.

Meditation on the fourth bead: Jesus surrenders to the Father's will even though He knows full well what He will suffer. "My Father, if this cannot pass me by without my drinking it, your will be done!" Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee, and the rest of the Hail Mary.

And then meditation on the fifth bead: Three times, Jesus asks for the cup to be taken away and each time again surrenders to the Father's will. An angel then came to strengthen Him. Hail Mary.

Meditation on the sixth bead: Jesus was let down by His three closest friends. He needed their company and wanted them to pray with Him. Three times He asked them. They gave in to sleep instead. They did not know what lay ahead. Nor do we, at any point in our lives. That is why we must always try to do what the Lord may be asking. Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.

Meditation on the seventh bead: In His anguish He prayed with all the greater intensity, and His sweat became like drops of blood falling to the ground. This is a very rare medical condition caused by extreme stress. Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.

And then the meditation on the eighth bead: The soldiers arrive, and Jesus says, "Sleep on now. Enjoy your rest!" The Apostles receive this well-deserved sarcasm. Hail Mary, full of grace.

Meditation on the ninth bead: Jesus is betrayed with a kiss by one of His very own, with whom He had just sat at table and celebrated Passover. Let us not forget that Jesus loved Judas. This was a painful betrayal of friendship. Hail Mary, full of grace.

And the meditation on the tenth bead: One of the Apostles grabs his sword and slashes off the ear of the High Priest's servant. Jesus answers, "Enough!" Then He touches the man's ear and heals him. The soldiers witness a miracle before their very eyes, yet they continue to arrest Him. How often do we, too, ignore the miracles in our lives? Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death.

So, you see, you say the entire Hail Mary with each meditation, but for the sake of brevity I only said the first of a few words. So, as you can see, all these meditations are centered around Jesus' life. They glorify God and do nothing for Mary. She is only there in a supportive role. All the rest of the mysteries of the Rosary are also taken from Scripture so that as we slowly contemplate the Lord in each mystery's ten beads, we are being saturated in His life, while offering our petitions to Mary who will in turn present them to the Father. By the way the meditations were taken from Holy Cross Family Ministries.

Within praying the Rosary, we are hearing, seeing, touching and meditating. We are requesting her prayers for our intentions, and she is presenting them as prayer to the Father.

But before she presents them, she adorns them by reminding The Father of how His Son suffered and it is by His blood and His sacrifice, that she asks this miracle be done. And you will notice also in the Rosary, you will notice also that at the end of the Rosary we ask for prayers at the hour of our death, because this is the decisive moment that determines our eternity, so we especially focus on her intercession at the hour of our death.

Well, we all need as much prayer we can get dear ones, and the more influential the prayer warrior the better. Many will say, "Here is the Christ...there is the Christ." And many will be deceived, but one thing is for sure, Mary knows her Son and she will never allow you to go astray and worship the anti-Christ. We are the elect and she is the Mother of the Elect. Consider that God the Father, with the Holy Spirit planted the Holy Seed within her womb. This most certainly points to her as Mother of the faithful.

For amber waves of love to die.

America, America, when will you turn your eyes to Him,

To Him who longs to heal their pain.

Oh, beautiful for pilgrim's pride, the way across the wilderness.

What once was found is all but lost, and now our faults we must confess.

America, America, when will you turn your eyes to Him?

To Him who longs to heal their pain.

Oh, Beautiful for patriot's dream, and still we seek such nobleness.

For alabaster cities gleam to crown our hearts will false success.

America, America, God shed His grace on thee. Prepare your blood with brotherhood with Him who longs to heal their pain, who longs to heal their pain.

The Lord Will Unify

---

September 14, 2021

"How happy I am to come to you now during this time. It is truly special for me as well. Do you understand what a great thing the Lord has done for you?"

And I answered to her, I do not think I really do, Mother.

She continued, "It is a rare privilege and I know it puts great demands on you, but the fruit is copious, and you will never regret it. These messages we are giving you are so very precious and vital for the Body of Christ. I want them circulated far and wide. This is a movement that I never wish to end. Yes, the image of the Divine Heart is very important. Do not overlook this. There is a very good reason this has been given, and it will be the impetus for the Orthodox and Latin churches to come together, as well as drawing in the separated brethren.

"Yes, I am here precious Bride. And truly it is the time of the Divine Heart to manifest."

Now just to clarify this, the Divine Mercy is a Catholic devotion, and the Divine Heart is the Orthodox devotion.

And there is a combination here that God has brought forth, I think to make a statement about the unity of the church.

She continued, "Not just for the unity of the churches, but for the whole world to embrace His mercy, the mercy we all have come from. His inexhaustible well of mercy for mankind and sinners.

The churches are to unite. The Orthodox and Catholics are called to unity by the Divine Heart.

"The walls of separation between the churches should never have been put into place. Both have beautiful and rich traditions that lead others to personal holiness. But the deprecation that has been leveled at them both has caused souls to lose confidence and make them confused...in order not to come under all this vitriol between the two factions the Lord has sent many miracles and messages to both sides that they must resolve their differences.

"This painting is a step in that direction."

She continued, "The Divine Mercy image, the Divine Heart and the mother of Mercy image, these are timely images, so much has been given and we want it spread abroad."

And I said to her, Lord they do not have anything to do with us because we are not part of the establishment.

And she replied, "Clare, it is the people who will embrace you, do not concern yourself with clergy. This devotion is very timely and important for the world, so many of the Orthodox need this inspiration. The image and devotion, the teachings, all of this is significant, the challenge is spreading these devotions and getting them into the hands of the people. Once they take root within the grass roots, the battle is won. They will spread like wildfire. It is important that they be translated into different languages since this is to be a universal devotion, not just local northern New Mexico.

"I am with you, holding your hand in this, and the time has come for this devotion to be spread around the world. It is my Son's intention that the one holy, Apostolic church should be a huge umbrella that covers all the different traditions of the nations, so that all legitimate devotions are honored by everyone. There is tremendous richness in these traditions of the world which brings all souls together in a very special way, a familial way, even as it is in Heaven, may it be so on this Earth.

"One of the unique aspects of this ministry is in its brotherly love and respect for all aspects of the church which Holy Spirit has raised up from the hearts of the people. It is no mistake that you are called Heart Dwellers because that circumvents those who will object to you on doctrinal issues. This is not an intellectual movement, it is a movement from within God's heart, to unify all expressions of Christianity. That does not negate the truth, eventually others will go deeper and layer into the one true holy and Apostolic church, and this will be done when my Son returns.

"But these devotions will prepare the way, this is your calling, to prepare the way, build up ruined homesteads, repair the breach. These devotions have been hand picked to fulfil that role. So, you see, you have not failed in your mission, it is only beginning."

How am I to do this, Mother?

She continued, "I will send you helpers, those who know how to spread the word. Your job is to keep the messages flowing, along with the art and prayers. Many prayers have sprung forth during this season which will endure and continue after you are gone. Keep it pure, daughter, keep it coming, and just wait and see what we will do with these wonderful resources from Heaven. It is much too wonderful for you to comprehend at this early stage. It will grow and spread, because all men can relate to the Lord's Heart of Love.

"Heart Dwellers, Mother of Mercy, Divine Heart, it is the safe place for all believers. It is a community where people are allowed to blossom into what God has created them to be and are not forced into any denominational straitjacket. Truth will find its own level; the Lord puts the desire in their hearts for truth and so they seek it until they find it."

Woe to Scoffers and Mockers

---

September 14, 2021

During the Rosary Jesus began speaking, "I know that email you received earlier today is on your mind, do not be moved by what others' write, say or think if it does not align with My Will. You need to remain steadfast and only be moved by My Spirit. Your actions must reflect My nature and character, one of love, peace and wisdom. You wanted to quickly answer back to that email in an attitude not pleasing to Me. So, I delayed your response, allowing Me to work through you. As a result, the response will be received in a favorable light and will touch the heart of the recipient.

The Lord continued, "My precious ones, when you are confronted with harsh and attacking words, this is a tactic of the enemy to ensnare you into striking back in retaliation. Do not give into these fleshly desires to respond in like manner. I have chosen you all and set you apart from these worldly thoughts and man's way of thinking and reactions. If you ask Me dear ones, I will grant you the grace to resist the devil, the flesh and the world and to extinguish in you all worldly desires.

"Ask for Holy Spirit to control your thoughts and for Me to govern your heart and mind. Strengthen your resolve to wait upon your Lord in all circumstances and I will guide you. There are times when I prefer all of you not to answer back when confronted with an unpleasant situation or to not speak and remain in silence. Whoever among you walk with the wise shall become wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm.

"Those of you who are persecuting and mocking My messengers will one day have to answer for your actions. I say to you, beware of your words against your Creator and against My servants, they are the instruments I work through to instruct all of you in righteous, love and compassion and to draw you closer to My heart.

"If you are ridiculing those who believe in Me and you oppose My Word and say in your hearts, "There is no God", and make it your ambition to denounce those who do follow their God, I say to you, you are headed down the path of destruction and death."

It is written in Psalm 1:1, "Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on His law, he meditates day and night."

Jesus continued, "Do not entertain the company of those who actively ridicule your faith or you risk having that faith tested and destroyed. Did I not tell my disciples, "If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first? If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you." And that's in John 15:18-19.

The Lord continued, "My children you should always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks to give the reason for the hope that you have. Do not waiver in ceasing to be the influencer or you may become the influenced and will stray from My teachings." And that was the end of our Lord's message.

In II Peter 3:3, we are warned that "in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires." We know from Scripture that scoffing will only increase as we near the time for Jesus' return. We already see it happening with the blanket acceptance of evolutionary theory that excludes a Creator, the rapid expansion of false religions that deny the deity of Christ and the numeric explosion of those who identify themselves as agnostics and atheists.

Scoffers have always been and will always be present in the world. But there is coming a promised day when "at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in Heaven and on Earth and under the Earth, and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father and that is found in Philippians 2:10-11. On that day there will no longer be any scoffers. They will at last accept the truth, and their scoffing will be forever silenced.

Dear Family, let us include these scoffers and mockers of our one true God in our prayers that they will be awoken to the truth about their Creator and will be converted and discover the love of Jesus before it's too late. May God bless you and give you His peace.

The Dehumanization of War

---

September 15, 2021

Well dear family, the Lord nudge me to pray ahead against the devastating physical and psychological effects of war and the inhuman treatment of what captors do to those in captivity. Jesus began, "What My children do to one another is dehumanizing, when you deprive someone of their dignity and degrade them in treatment and conditions. I am familiar with this type of treatment."

"War is here and full-scale world war is coming soon and this instills in people impersonal violence and large-scale suffering. Dehumanization becomes prevalent in war times. The hate that intensifies among soldiers at war is a strong human tendency to respond to the dehumanization of others. I tell you not to hate My dear ones, but to love. Yes, love your enemies and let them see Me through you."

"During World War II, My love was demonstrated through My servants, who showed kindness, compassion and yes, even respect to those who were persecuting them. They shared My life and love for them, even to the extent that they laid down their lives for another." And this reminds me of Saint Maximilian Kolbe.

Maximilian Mary Kolbe was a Polish priest and Franciscan friar who volunteered to die in place of a stranger in the German death camp of Auschwitz, located in German-occupied Poland during World War II. He had been active in promoting the veneration of the Immaculate Virgin Mary, founding a monastery near Warsaw, operating a radio station and running several other organizations and publications.

As a boy, he turned to the Mother of God, asking her, "What will become of me?" In reply the Virgin Mother appeared to him holding in her hands, two crowns, one white and one red. She looked at him with love and asked him if I would like to have them. The white meant that he would remain pure and red that he would be a martyr. He answered "Yes" he wanted them both. Then the Virgin looked at him tenderly and disappeared.

When Poland was overrun by Nazi forces in 1939, he was arrested under general suspicion on September 13th, but was released after three months. When first arrested he said: "Courage, my sons. Don't you see that we are leaving on a mission? The thing to do now is to pray well in order to win as many souls as possible. Let us, then, tell the Blessed Virgin that we are content, and that she can do with us anything she wishes.

"No one in the world can change Truth. What we can do and should do is to seek truth and to serve it when we have found it. The real conflict is the inner conflict. Beyond armies of occupation and extermination camps, there are two irreconcilable enemies in the depth of every soul: good and evil, sin and love. And what use are the victories on the battlefield if we ourselves are defeated in our innermost personal selves?"

Kolbe's monastery continued to house Polish refugees and on February 17th, 1941, the monastery was shut down by the German authorities and that day Kolbe and four others were arrested by the Gestapo and transferred to Auschwitz as prisoner #16670.

Continuing to act as a priest, Kolbe was subjected to violent harassment, including beatings and lashings. Once he was smuggled to a prison hospital by friendly inmates. In July of 1941, one prisoner escaped from camp, prompting the deputy camp commander to pick ten men to be starved to death in an underground bunker to deter further escape attempts. When one of the selected men, cried out, "My wife! My children!", Kolbe volunteered to take his place. According to an eyewitness, who was an assistant janitor at that time, in his prison cell Kolbe led the prisoners in prayer. Each time the guards checked on him, he was standing or kneeling in the middle of the cell and looking calmly at those who entered. After they had been starved and deprived of water for two weeks, only Kolbe remained alive. The guards wanted the bunker emptied, so they gave Kolbe a lethal injection of carbolic acid. His remains were cremated on August 15th, the feast day of the Assumption of Mary. He is known as the Saint of Auschwitz.

The Lord continued, "You can reach others through compassion by listening to their life experiences and what they have been through and how it has shaped them into who they are presently. Do not be quick to judge them or be critical because of the circumstances and unpleasant living conditions you suddenly find yourselves in, be the light and hope in dark and dire situations. The destructiveness of war is devastating; and can come down to a pivotal moment for a soul's final destination, in that people can either turn to Me or away from Me, your witness of Me may be the last words they hear before dying." And that was the end of our Lord's message.

It is written in John 15:13, "Greater love has no one than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" or in Saint Maximilian Kolbe's case, for a stranger. Let us always choose to be the light dear ones.

Where Love is Lacking So Is Obedience

---

September 15, 2021

The Lord bless and keep you, precious Heart Dwellers.

This urgent message came forth during prayer, from the mother of Jesus.

She began, "Your nation is in very great peril from many different sources. Prayer is essential right now, because, my children-Please my children devote your minds to prayer, not to the things of this world. Beautiful are the plans that have been made for you all if you will cooperate. I call you to cooperate my dear ones. You have nothing to lose but everything to gain. Clutching your life, your will and your way, close to your heart will cause you to shrink spiritually, and miss out on all the great gifts He wishes to give you for your hand-picked mission.

"There is so much to do, you have no idea how much depends on your cooperation, or how great your reward in Heaven will be even though that should never be your motive. My children, fall more in love with Jesus and everything will become so very easy. Where love is lacking, so is obedience. Truly this is the time to respond to the littlest desire of His heart, this kind of obedience will lead you straight to your destiny, for when He looks at you, He sees you completed in your work and His thoughts at that time are about your destiny. You will pick up on this when you go deeper and deeper, totally abandoning yourself into His arms.

"You have never lived through war on your own soil in this recent past. You cannot even imagine how devastating it is. You lose everything you have ever acquired and are stripped of your human dignity, becoming a wanderer with no place of your own to lay your head. Therefore, prayer for repentance is so very important for the survival of your nation, what little will be left of it.

"I am telling you these things to bring home to you how very necessary prayer and repentance are in these moments. Much will depend on how much prayer is offered to preserve your nation and even those things you hold dear.

"Cling to Jesus my dear ones. Cling to Jesus and pray with your whole heart for those who are unprepared for death. You cannot even imagine what is coming".

Oh mother, must it be bad.

"According to the iniquity of those who should have known better Clare. The slaughter of innocents, the heinous things done to children, you have no idea. It is more terrible than you can ever imagine. For these reasons, judgements must come. But the prayers of the righteous will avail much, and there will be an abundance of mercy for the sincerely repentant. Pray and repent, and encourage others to pray and repent, for time is surely very short.

"I pray that God will bless you now my children with the desire for deep prayer and the courage to speak out boldly and warn others."

Prayer For The World - My Blood Kills Covid

---

September 16, 2021

Beloved Heart Dwellers, may you embrace this message with faith and put it into action faithfully. Amen

The Lord began to speak to me. He said,

"So, you have enquired of Me about what is on My Heart and Mind, and you know so well what it is deep down in the pit of your soul. Yes, it is about this war that will soon begin and the souls that might be lost to Me forever. That is what My heart grieves for. Clare, I am pulling out all the stops to cause My People, called by My Name, to pray for the nations. Your nation and others around the world as well. The twenty-one days of prayer that were asked for on 9/11 are critical. Apply your heart to these and bring home to the community how very critical they are. Do this for Me, please?"

And I answered, Holy Spirit, would You please help me with the right words? You know after a while it gets old, pray for your country, pray for the nation, pray for the world, but when you think of the alternatives, and what could happen if we did not pray, it is not good.

Jesus continued, "What is not registering is the gravity of the situation, what you have never lived through. The evil ones are seeking to begin a world war, President Trump knows well the casualties and is trying with all his ability to avoid a world war. China is hell bent on destroying America, Clare. They have a solid foothold, there are so many factors that could cause it to start, but I too have placed My hand between the trigger and the target, in hopes that mankind will find another way.

"What I am making war on is the evil infrastructure that still remains in this world. I wish to shield the innocent while taking down the evil".

Lord do you mean that there is hope for America, that we will not have war?

He continued, "Much remains to be seen if prayer is multiplied. I am not trying to be evasive; I am giving you a glimmer of hope. You have understood that I am causing the worst of the effects of Nibiru to be held in place for the time being. The very finger holding it in place is prayer. All over the world, pressure is being released to prevent some of the greater catastrophes from happening. Therefore, scientists are puzzled that nothing has happened yet. I told you before that Yellowstone would be released slowly over a vast area. And this was to prevent the explosion of a super volcano and demise of your country.

"However, New York is another story, there will come a time that it will be used to swallow and bury the iniquities of the past, turning it even into molten lava, deep within the bowels of the Earth. I have much disgust for what has been going on there, especially New York City. None of you really understand the degree to which I am withholding the dissolution of America because of those who fast and pray and take Me seriously. Every time people gather in Washington, DC or other capitals, the hand of destruction that is ticking on the clock is pushed back significantly in proportion to the repentance and fervor of their prayers.

"There are many prayer warriors in your nation that no one knows about. And their gift for true intercession and fasting as well as declaring life where death should be, has a substantial effect on postponing what will eventually take place. But for now, you in your littleness with your little ones, are doing your part. If I did show to you that you have gained for your nation, it would surprise you to no end. So, keep up the good work and the solid prayers, especially when you can devote your heart to it between more demanding tasks. Lying in bed and praying with all your heart before you fall asleep is also effective prayer.

"There is a constant effort being exerted in your community to cause little disputes and irritations that can be exploited by the demons to cause a big division. Be on guard for these. Truly it is the little foxes that spoil the vine. Continue to share this with them so they will be on their guard and see to it that they have no part in such things.

Yeah, the enemy is always trying to cause misunderstandings or quirks of language, or I say one thing, they hear another thing. And we have really gotten smart to that so, we do not get our hackles up because we know the enemy is in there trying to stir them up, but we still must keep a close watch on that. An interim happens is you might say something in total innocence and the other person receives it with a sucker punch to the gut, because the enemy hits them hard and steps on an old wound, an old button, and so they kind of freak out over it. They might not show it immediately, but you can sense that you laid an egg. Later we can talk about it and come to understand the enemy was twisting and distorting and putting emphasis on things that I never meant to say. Now this happens with all human beings, not just between the mother of a community, it happens with everyone.

Jesus continued, "I cannot tell you for certain, when things will break loose, but you will know by world events. Many are going to die from the COVID vaccine, and it will demoralize the country. Not everyone received the vaccine, there were many who received saline injection. Therefore, it makes it harder for others to recognize how lethal these injections are. They have deliberately timed this so that many more would be vaccinated, not knowing the dangers.

Lord, is there any way to save those who are seriously damaged from COVID?

Jesus continued, "It depends very much on the state of grace they are in and what they have agreed to before coming to earth. Some souls made very heroic offerings of themselves to turn humanity around. Others are oblivious. I will say this much, none of these deadly organisms can survive in My Blood. If you truly believe and saturate that soul's body in My blood, they can be healed, depending on other factors, like their state of grace, and previous agreements before being sent to Earth. But in any case, there is no harm in trying, while expecting My intervention. I will intervene in some way because of your prayers.

"Nothing evil can survive in My Blood. Remember that.

"You have asked for Me to tell you what is going on, and now I have done so. I would like you to release this on all your channels. Prayer for the world and My Blood for this plague. If you truly have faith and believe, you can say to this mountain," be thou removed!" and it will surely be cast into the sea.

"I love you all, my faithful ones, and I thank you for your prayers, and the times when you have visited Me to bring comfort. Oh, how I cherish those who comfort Me. I will always be a comfort to them. Apply your hearts now, my dear ones, to serious prayer for the nations, because truly you are holding back the tide of evil with your prayers and saturate your loved ones in My Blood.

"I bless you now with perseverance and courage, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of Holy Spirit, Amen."

And that was the end of His message, dear Heart Dwellers.

And I just wanted to mention to you that we are coming into the fall and winter season now and there are a lot of people living out on the Mesa that do not have firewood, so besides feeding the hungry mouths here we need to take care of them, so I am asking if any of you would like to donate to purchase wood for them, your donation for that and whatever you can do to sustain the community here is greatly appreciated. And we pray for you every single day, special blessings on those who support the ministry covering them so the enemy cannot steal finances away from them.

Thank you so much for your faithfulness you are loved, very loved, by all of us.

Who You Become When You Pray

---

September 16, 2021

Dear Lord, help us to remain steadfast, transform our hearts into Your heart and persevere in prayer and the work You have for us. Amen. Blessed Mother began speaking to Mother Clare, "Make straight the way of the Lord. We are moving forward, we are laying the groundwork, this is the direction we must proceed in.

But it is also necessary that prayer be kept in the foremost, at every opportunity my precious children, think of others and lift them up."-- --

I just happened to pick up a book in my library by Henri Nouwen, and I opened to praying for others.-- --

"Do you want to have a heart like Christ's? This is a beautiful path to that end.

That is a beautiful explanation of prayer. Those who pray are at the highest stations in Heaven. They have concerned themselves what is not of any particular good to them, they have invested their lives and their hearts on behalf of strangers. They have done as my Son does, looking out for others. If you lack this gift, you may ask for it. It is a gift of the greatest wisdom.

"As you invest your lives in the concerns of others, you are daily transformed more and more into the image of my Son. There is no higher good than to devote your life to the mission Jesus has invested you with.-- --

"As you spend more and more time praying with faith, for others, your gifts will also increase, because God entrusts His greatest gifts into the hands of those who care for others. You will also mature in the very same way, resembling my Son more and more. Your heart will be transformed into a glowing dancing flame that will shed His light upon all, and even deliverance.

"I tell you these things my children because it is so opposite to the ways of the world where all desire to be in the lime light, all desire to receive, all desire to be the most important. But in the Kingdom of Heaven it is the opposite. All desire to be hidden, lowly servants that accomplish only God's will every day, and all desire to be overtaken in the fires of charity as they pour out their petitions for the lowly and suffering. Seek after these, the greatest gifts my Beloved ones. Seek only to edify and build up others in the way they should go. Accompany them on this great and perilous journey. Never become jealous of their progress, always celebrate the emergence of their gifts and talents. Encourage them and make a way for them to be used to influence others. So many hunger and thirst to grow deeper in the Lord and in their gifts that will eventually touch others without inspiring vain glory or competition.

"There is nothing sadder in a growing church than to see political posturing, those who court favor and want to dominate while those with talent and anointing are blocked from using their gifts. This is a great travesty and abuse--of the gifts. Be a friend to the little ones and help them come to completion in their gifts to be used to convert souls."

Children Under Instruction

September 17, 2021

Thank You Lord for the grace to be flexible and help us with holy love and humility. Amen. Ouch.

Mother Mary began, "Do not be concerned with these little glitches, these too will pass."-- --

I'm sorry Mother, I keep messing up.

"You are learning Clare."

What is on your heart?

Blessed Mother continued, "Maintaining brotherly love in the midst of changes which must take place. My very dear little ones, all of you are too sensitive to things that do not matter. Try to be flexible and work with changes that must be made. No one has things their way on this earth, all suffer indignities at one time or another. The sign of a Christian is that they focus on the important things and do not let the little things trouble them or cause strife.

"Living together is not always easy, but when it does work, it is like Heaven itself. I know you all suffer scruples when you do things badly, but try not to linger on those mistakes that everyone makes. After all you are still children under instruction and maturing into the fullness of Jesus.

"There will always be things that seem major but when looked at with the light of wisdom are still very, very insignificant. You are all called to live with these inconveniences without complaint, yet celebrating the presence of one another. You know when one leaves it is always painful, so appreciate the gift of one another while you have each other.

"This is true Christian fellowship that proves you are the disciples of my Son. Hold each other tenderly in your heart and rather than nurse resentment for their actions, remember we are all working together to form His Body and be here for one another, each with the most precious gifts you have been entrusted with.-- -- Appreciate and love one another, because each of you are rare flowers picked from the garden of the Lord to be established together.

"Recognize the gifts in one another and celebrate them. In this way you will never fall into grumbling and ingratitude which is so very displeasing to the Lord. You each are a gift to one another, therefore honor one another and see them as better than yourselves. This is holy love and holy humility.-- --

"As you honor these things blessed ones you become a most fragrant bouquet of love to my Son, and bring great consolation to His aching heart. Truly your brotherly love and concord consoles and brings joy to Him even in these moments. Persevere in brotherly love and casting down the temptations to complain and find fault with one another. Amen."

Do Whatever He Says

September 17, 2021

The Lord give you His Peace, Heart Dwellers. Mother Clare began, these have been stressful weeks for all of us, but we are beginning to feel there is a breakthrough coming. Lately we have been feeling God's mercy at work, a sense of prayers being answered. Our greatest hope is that we avoid a world war, and get our real president back in office along with more and more souls turning to God. Lately a few of us here on the refuge have been feeling a bit of reprieve. As we prayed the Rosary together, Our Lady began to speak to us:

"The hand of grace has been moving, your feeling is right. There are some very good things going on right now. Prayers are being heard Clare. There are things which surely will come to pass, but with continuing prayer they are lessened. This is the secret of the Kingdom of Heaven, prayer changes things. Continue to apply your hearts to prayer, for these are the most powerful. The prayer of the heart is so very powerful. When all souls in a rosary group, ask for My prayers, with intentionality and from the heart, it is far more powerful, when I present them to the Father.

"It is indeed time for people to leave the world and prepare for the future promised to those who watch and wait. While you have this time of peace apply yourselves to the work you have begun. Do not slack off on the instructions given. I know that all things do not connect with you, but you will see the fruit of your labors of obedience and understand the wisdom was given from Heaven.

"We are calling you to a sometimes-blind obedience where you do not feel connected to what is given. This is to be an example to all. "Do whatever He says" through the one who is responsible because the Lord works through those in legitimate authority, whether they are less endowed with wisdom than you are, or not. When one is appointed in authority to a task they may not have the experience to dispense with perfect wisdom, because of their office, God gives what is lacking, because it comes with the office. In this way none of you will be subjected to the emotional turmoil that sometimes enters in when you don't feel connected.-- --

"I wish for all of you to abandon yourselves into the arms of Divine Providence, and blind obedience. This will protect you from the many snares of human reasoning, pride and emotional walls that can be devised against you. Of course, you never must obey anything that seriously violates your conscience. But you must make a distinction between self-will and "knowing better" and real concerns in your conscience. Beloved ones, this is a great step forward in your sanctity.

"When you are truly meek and teachable, you do not react with objections and reasoning that obscures the obedience being asked of you. Self-will and the human intellect will often rise up and argue against what is asked for many different reasons. One of them is indeed sloth and inconvenience the extra effort that comes with that obedience.

"When something seems 'off' pray for the one who is responsible, and if they are off course even just a little bit, we will adjust their thinking, and you will have a pleasant surprise that they made amendments to the original request. Neutrality and objectivity are marks of humility, which is the foremost virtue. I am leading you all along the way of holiness. I am with you now more than ever to support what God is doing in your midst. I am your Mother of Mercy, and I love you tenderly as only a mother can. Remember, throughout my life I prayed for Jesus, do not be ashamed to ask for my prayers as well." That was the end of her message.

Mother Clare continued, Dear ones, I want to share with you some of the wonderful things that have been going on lately. I have found myself less and less interested in food and eating, less and less interested in having anything beyond necessity, and more and more at ease being real, which at times can be embarrassing when I haven't even brushed my hair since I woke up.

I'm feeling more and more desire to take care of the really important things, such as messages and music, and less and less interested in keeping my space perfectly organized. I'm learning to let go of my preoccupation with neatness. In reverse of these former habits, I am longing more and more for Jesus. I am feeling His heart longing for me as well and I can't wait to get into prayer. There is such a sweetness, when I come before Him with the desire to just be there for Him. I feel like my heart has been sweetened and softened towards Him and all that is holy. It's a beautiful feeling like my early days, the honeymoon days when we were together in a pure and spiritual way. Jesus is becoming my everything again.

I know what has brought this change about. Mary has a sweet, loving, mother's heart, and spending time with her asking for her intercession has brought on a sweeter and more intimate fellowship with Jesus. I'm not so much all business, I am more drawn to just being in His presence and appreciating Him. I know this is the work of the Holy Spirit through His spouse's, Mary's intercession.

I was a hard-core fundamentalist for seven years. It was like being in a single parent family, where the only parent was Dad. Now, I know the sweetness of having a mother too, and her instruction is so very gentle and motherly, everything about her is feminine yet thoroughly in love with God. They say that you become like those you spend time with, and I have to say, spending time in her presence has had an invisible effect on me. I didn't realize until lately, how precious and gentle her presence is and how it has erased that hard-fundamentalist edge and given me instead, a mother's love for Jesus, a tender love, a love that no words can describe. It isn't so intellectual anymore, it is much more like family being in a family where everyone loves and appreciates one another, but most of all they are in love with God and seek only His will and pleasure for their lives. Glory to God, it is a wonder!-- --

I know some of you are really still caught in the praying to Mary, Goddess lie, but please take a moment and ask her to make her presence felt, even with Jesus present so you know it isn't a lying spirit. That's what I first did when I discovered her role, and she has brought me closer to Jesus than I ever thought possible.-- -- You have nothing to fear from her as she is filled with the Holy Spirit and her thoughts are His thoughts. She just has a sweet motherly way of presenting them.

God bless you precious ones, I want to thank you for remembering our mission, it's that time of the year where we try to buy several cords of wood for the poor living on the Mesa. Resources are a bit stretched right now, and we would greatly appreciate your help with our mission and the needs of the Refuge. Your prayers mean everything to us. I love you and thank God for you. May the blessing of our sweet Jesus cover and fill you with His peace and love, Amen.

From My Heart to Yours

---

September 18, 2021

Thank you, Jesus, for the beautiful family You have given me in these listeners. I will never stop counting my blessings through all of you who have been with me and been so supportive through thick and thin.

The Lord and I were looking back on all the years I have been with you. We have certainly gone through a lot of changes together ... and some of you have stuck around because you believed that Jesus was truly giving me instruction, not just for me, but for you as well. He has led me out of some very hard places through the years and I have had to do my best to be honest with you. In my earlier message you heard how tender and loving He is with me and how we even danced together...as we still do. I hope any barriers of shame or guilt that you have had over the sins you have repented of, I hope it has all been washed away by seeing how wonderful He is with me.

Well, the Lord has asked me to share my heart with you.

We have been through so much since 2014, and my mission has remained the same but moving forward and training others to hear from the Lord and embrace all the graces He offers us to live a life of holiness. I cannot boast of having accomplished that, but I can boast of God's patience and forgiveness towards me. At least I know what He is asking of us in personal holiness, and I can share that with you.

When I began on You Tube, the Lord asked me to come to you as a secular person, and not share my life as a Franciscan sister with you. That was hard for me, but I could see the wisdom in it. So, after many years of just sharing with you what the Lord was saying and doing to raise me up, I believe many of you came to trust that I truly was hearing from God.

You see I was a Spirit filled, Bible believing evangelical for seven years and was very disillusioned that the Jesus in the Scriptures, was not the same Jesus being taught in churches. I was too caught up in materialism, selfish ambition and worldliness. I knew I was not walking in holiness. All that changed when I spent some time in the Catholic Church, very much in love with Jesus through the example of St. Francis of Assisi, which was introduced to me by John Michael Talbot's music, which really captured my heart and my dream about being a Christian.

His music talked about humility, simplicity, making do with less and not being caught up in the world forever wanting and never being satisfied. His music witnessed to my soul, that there was a way to live like the real Jesus, even in this twenty-first century. My heart longed for that, I hated my materialistic and shallow ways. I wanted the real raw first century Christianity. I wanted to stop being so self-serving, constantly looking to better my life but with the things of the world, not Jesus.

At that time, I determined that if life without the preoccupations of the world would set me free for Jesus and His agenda to be my all, I would truly be happy. So, I set out to break away from the vanities of the world and be only occupied with Him. And how wonderful and amazing and liberating was that decision.

I could see that the contemporary Catholic institution was too bound up in the world, so I began to research the Early Church in Jerusalem and Antioch, the first century, and came to the decision that I would do my best to go back to that simplicity without all the institutional trappings and posturing.

So, I lived as a Third Order Franciscan mother with four children, as best I could, running around in a gray habit, and taking care of my four little blessings. I lost many, many things including the father of my children, but the liberation I felt was beyond wonderful and I never regretted leaving the world. Now, during that time, I learned about St. Francis and the extraordinary humility, and miracles that were done through his prayers. I saw the image of Jesus in the way he lived and I wanted that with all my heart. Nothing of the world remained in St. Francis of Assisi, he came from nobility and abandoned it all for the holiness of Heaven and living as closely as possible to the example, to the example of Jesus, and even St. Paul.

Now I remembered a point where I said, "Well, what about Mary and the Catholic Church? How does that figure into this way of life?" And I discovered, by the grace of God that Francis was able to live this extreme holiness because of his relationship with the Blessed Virgin, not in spite of it. So, I applied myself to discover who she was, and it was soon brought home to me that she was merely a mother who loved the people of the world enough to offer her only son for them, and to consistently teach everyone, do whatever He tells you. That is from John 2:2, at the Wedding of Cana.

Dear family, it was her prayers that made the difference for me. Her intercession helped me get over the raging avarice I had. Her example of lowliness also helped me to see the futility in being well thought of, highly regarded, or honored by man. It totally reinforced the way Jesus handled the world and people of the world that were constantly posturing and seeking to get higher. Worldly ambition became my enemy, and childlike simplicity became my model.

So, when the Lord told me to begin to share His messages on You Tube, I was excited and spent the first few lessons on the abuses in the churches, all denominations, which I called 'Wounding Waters', because churches are meant to be a place of healing waters, but so many walk away wounded.

I really longed to tell you about my journey and how it changed me, but I knew I would turn you off, so I just continued to post the Lord's lessons to us and gave it time so that you could come to trust that it truly is Jesus speaking to me. After many years, many of you dear ones, came to trust in the messages. And when it was His time, He told me to introduce His mother to you.

At that time a lady by the name of Jackie, who spoke German, copied one our titles, Love Letters to My Bride, and began presenting the messages in her own voice, but editing out the highly controversial Blessed Mother teachings from our Lord. Please be careful, the teachings of Jacob Lorber are not Scriptural. She has also used our registered trade name, Heartdwellers on YouTube channel, to present heretical teachers. Please do not be confused dear ones, our website is Heartdwellers.org, and I cannot vouch for any other name.

In any case, I introduced His mother's role in as delicate a way as possible, totally from Scripture, and lost half my following. Well, probably two-thirds. I knew that would happen, but I did not care, I was there to preach the truth does not court the favor of man so I could have donations and subscribers and whatever. It was very hard seeing so many leave. It reminds me very much of when Jesus' disciples left because He talked about His flesh being true food, His blood being true drink. Well, we were up to 20,000 viewers, which dropped down to maybe four or five thousand. Then we were kicked off YouTube, overnight. That was another trauma, but we managed to find and stay on Vimeo. Now we are on Rumble, Bit Chute, Brighteon, and You Tube as well. If you look for us on You Tube, you will find us under Heart underscore Dwellers. Current videos are not on Vimeo, only these other venues.

Always the truth as I know it, as it has been given to me. What inspired me to leave the New Age was truth. I knew that I was not walking in truth. With all my heart I wanted truth. My greatest desire in the beginning was that you would not follow the New Age. That is why I was so blunt in my presentations. Now the New Age has come into its season and is leading so many astray, and several people are upset with me because Jesus taught us that reincarnation is not truth. Quoting the Scriptures, it is appointed unto men once to die, and after this judgment. That is Paul writing in Hebrews 9:27 And as a result I have lost many in Eastern European countries, but better to lose them than to live a lie and teach a lie. I used to believe in reincarnation whole heartedly, so I understand their passion, but because I believed, I aborted a precious child thinking he would come back when I was ready to have children. There are so many serious things that go wrong with reincarnation.

Dear ones, I have very good reasons for insisting on teaching the truth as I have been shown by Jesus and not mix any New Age practices. Please if you are doing that, please forsake them. Those who have a prophetic call on their lives are prone to be lured into the New Age, especially if they do not feel comfortable in main line Christianity, but if they would abandon these lies, God would call them to a much higher purpose.

Dear family, I knew that the Blessed Mother and the Eucharist or Communion, had transformed my life. I knew that I never could pull away from the world by staying in a worldly church. All I wanted was to fulfill the vision I had when I first became a Christian, leading a very raw, evangelical poverty way of life and ministering with Jesus along the dusty roads of life.

Most ministers are taught to hide their vices and failures, but I had to boast in the grace of God that was saving and transforming me. In order to do that, you just had to know how bad I really was. And that is why I have been gut honest with you.

Now I am going to let you in on a little secret. Jesus is coming back to rule and reign on this Earth, and He is bringing His mother, His saints and His angels with Him. There will be no more slander of His mother. All will plainly see what her role is, and they will honor her. "All generations shall call me blessed." That is what is written in the Scriptures. This will happen during the millennium. However, Jesus is giving you a head start in understanding who she is because YOU NEED HER INTERCESSION.

Times are tragic and volatile, and the forces of Satan are more now than they have ever been, Nibiru is home to many of them and it is approaching Earth as the destroying planet. You need the strength of the real Body and Blood of Jesus, and you need His mother's prayers for you. These are the controversial things I have been given to share with you and if you know that the Lord speaks to me, you also need to seriously put down hundreds of years of lies and prejudices against the early church practices of asking for intercession from the Great Cloud, and receiving the real Body and Blood of Jesus, for strength every day.

So, you see my very dear ones, I have been commissioned to bring you the whole truth about your Christian faith, leaving nothing out, so you may be fully equipped. You are far ahead of most Christians when you examine Mary in the Scriptures and realize the role she plays legitimately, at the appointment of God.

There is a very good reason why people turn to Mary's intercession, she has a proven track record. They have come to her when things seemed hopeless and God has not answered their prayers, so they ask her to ask Him. Is that not any different than you going to a well-known evangelist and asking for his prayers for you?

Of course not, but Satan being the slime ball he is, found a slippery way to turn you off to Mary. He accused you of worshipping idols and statues. How absurd, in Exodus we are told not to worship idols, but where does it say that you cannot have a statue or work of art to adorn the temple. In fact, immediately after giving that command God, commands them to adorn the temple.

In Exodus 36 Moses is instructed to have images of cherubim woven into the curtains of the tabernacle.

And in 37 statues of cherubim were constructed and overlaid with gold on the mercy seat.

Then in First Kings 7 They made a Sea of water holding cleansing waters that stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three west, three south, and three east. The Sea rested on them, with all their hindquarters toward the center.

And the bronze stands had lions, and cherubim and palm trees engraved upon them.

So, you see, the Lord did not prohibit decorations in the form of animals and angels and trees, no he condemned the likenesses of demons and the idols they represented. And worshipping these images, made them worship idols.

So, a statue of the Blessed Mother is not an idol, it is a remembrance of her in the form of a statue, which is never worshipped. Don't you keep photos of your family on the wall? Do you worship them? Of course not, they are only reminders of who your precious family members are, and statues of people like George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, do we worship those? No, they remind us of the way God worked through those souls, and the founding of our country.

But this is how Satan deceived men into condemning Mary. It had nothing to do with worship, it was only her honor as an intercessor they attacked. The very same intercessor Jesus Christ had as a child.

Good grief, if Jesus allowed her to pray for Him, why should we turn her away? This is just a big messy soup of lies that people repeat because they are parroting teachers who were in error.

So, you go to Sunday school and they tell you Catholics are idol worshippers. You believe that for the rest of your life without looking into the Scriptures or the teachings of the church. As a result of that, you lose the intercession of Jesus' own mother. I just finished a five-part teaching on this subject, and there is another older one, with seven parts, coming totally from Scripture. You can always go to heartdwellers.org and use the search engine and it will bring them all up. Soon we hope to have playlists on our venue so you can find the topics that interest you.

Well, now I have brought you up to speed. But I want to say this, if God has called you to truth, sooner or later you will discover the role of the Great Cloud of Witnesses, and Mary's intercession. The Lord has called me to present her to you so that you can embrace this wonderful friend and receive her well placed influence with Jesus. Did He not say, Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come. That is John 2:4, when they ran out of wine at the wedding feast in Cana. Dear family, have you run out of wine in your life?

Are things not as they used to be between you and Jesus? Are you longing to go deeper into His Heart and live a life on fire just for Him? I know what that feels like, I have been there, and it was her intercession that helped me leave myself behind and embrace Him with all my heart. Holy Spirit is her spouse, He will get the message to her. Just ask, "Mother of Jesus, would you pray for me, and ask Jesus to turn my water into wine?"

Now I have brought all of this up to you to share the perspective of the past seven years in public ministry. I respect and value all of you and I know that there have been many attacks against the teachings the Lord has given me, so I just wanted to take a minute and share the bottom line with you. I hope and pray that you will measure everything I have shared with you against the living Word of God. I do not want you to follow me, I want you to follow Jesus, and in this climate of the end times it is becoming more and more challenging to do just that.

So, I have shared with you the two secrets of my life in being able to leave the world behind and count it as nothing. A mother's heart for her son, Jesus, has formed my heart as well ...after all we do not live in a single parent family...she has all the tenderness of her spouse, the Holy Spirit, yet is only a human being created by God, just as we are, but she has tremendous understanding of what her Son requires, and has great influence as well.

As a fundamentalist, I was kind of hard core- I would embarrass you, for sure-You know, the Bible on the desk between me and anyone who was inquiring about Jesus? Mary taught me to embrace Him with my heart, and not just my intellect, and how to love others as Jesus commanded us to...namely being unconditional in our love for others. I did not have that as a fundamentalist, it only came when I got to know Jesus' mother, and the whole tone of my walk with the Lord changed from being hard and insistent, to being gentle and caring and leaving the conversion of souls up to the Holy Spirit.

So here we are together, following the way, the truth and the life with Jesus and the entire family of God. And I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your encouragement, and I pray that we can continue to grow and walk in the grace of our Lord, understanding the times, the pitfalls and the lies of the enemy and breaking through them through the word of God. Amen

Is Your Country Worth Two Weeks of Travail

---

September 20, 2021

Hello brothers and sisters and Heartdwellers family.

Today before we began our rosary, Mother Magdalene randomly pulled a Rhema message from Heartdwellers website to get a personal word from the Lord. However, the title of the message was very telling, and it said, "Is your country worth two weeks of travail". I then told her to read it out loud so we could know what's on the Lord's mind.

For those who are new to the channel, we are an extension of Still Small Voice Channel that used to be on YouTube led by Mother Clare. If you go to the main Heartdwellers website and click on the button Rhema, you get the option to get a Rhema word, which is a Holy Spirit anointed word from God to you, picked out of a file of over 1,500 prophetic words written on cards Mother Clare has compiled through her relationship with the Lord that is now available for you to use to get an answer from the Lord. Then there is another button you can click called Random Rhema Message where all the 1,600 messages she has received from Jesus [are] randomly chosen providing you a fresh manna the Lord uses to share his heart with you. So please get a Rhema from the Lord every day. We recommend 3 Rhema Words and a Rhema Message a day so you can get tremendous clarity on the Lord's will and heart for you.

So back to this message. It was very eye-opening and really stirred us into action and the seriousness of the state of our nation. Although this message was given to Mother Clare in January 2019 when President Trump was still in office, I know this is a now word for us all. That is why I wanted to share it with you so you all can join us these next two weeks in fasting and traving prayer for our nation.

I believe the Holy Spirit gave it to us because Jesus is wanting us to spend the next two weeks in fasting and serious prayer not only for the protection of President Trump but for the Mercy of our nation to not go into WW3 as Biden and His administration would like to. We must pray that although President Trump is still in waiting to be re-instated, he wouldn't continue forward in overconfidence, but he moves forward by prayer. And needs to be covered in much prayer, so he is not taken out before he returns back in office because he still has a major influence in this nation, and they hate that. And the Alligator in this message is clearly the deep state and the Satanic Agenda that is still trying to swallow him up entirely, but the Lord won't allow it, Heartdwellers family, if we fast and pray. Please.

I know many of you are tired and weary. Seeing Donald Trump publicly announced as the loser in the election completely shook your faith and discouraged you in the area of prayer, because I know that's what it did to me. But we must stand on God's word, not one word will return back void. He will do what he promised, and Donald Trump will be re-instated as the rightful President of the United States if we pray and have faith in Jesus' words to us, that Absalom, President Biden, will not last long nor will his administration. And the Lord allowed all of this to wake the nation and the world up from their slumber. So will you stand with us in prayer? Arise, intercessors, prayer warriors--and let's bombard heaven again for Mercy for President Trump, Mercy for our nation and Mercy for the world.

We are doing St. Padre Pio Novena which ends in 5 days, and St Michael Novena starts on the 22nd, and St. Therese Novena, which will end on October 1st, which will take us right up to the two weeks. So we are offering all of these Novenas for the intentions Jesus mentions in this message. Let's stop everything and focus all our energy in prayer these next two weeks for our Nation. Here is the message From Jesus to Mother Clare.

January 19, 2019

My dearest Heartdwellers, we have faced many challenges in the past months, and I continue to hold out great hope. The Lord has restored my ability to work with music and I'm making progress. And it brings me so much joy! But this is so important for Him. And I long with all my heart to finish my appointed course before the trumpet sounds.

He has given me a heart to sing again, and I rejoice in His faithfulness. Are there things He has been restoring in you? Some of you have very unique gifts and long to give them expression. And this He will do, if you continue to press in and call on His talent and endurance to run the race to its completion.

Each day we are faced with choices! And many of us are excited about our work and have been restored by His grace. We see our children maturing; we enjoy our grandchildren and pray with high hopes for them. For some, our families bring us great comfort. For others, a bitter challenge.

Each day we move forward doing something towards the goals God has given us, and it's exciting. So exciting, sometimes that I can't wait to get to the keyboard and make progress. I can't wait to finish the painting of God the Father.

For some, you're learning a new skill and growing--and so looking forward to doing great things for the Lord, under His anointing.

For others, your devotion to your family and meeting their needs occupies your minds each day. For others still, your work is expanding, and you've been given raises and new territory from your employer. For some, you're about to purchase a house, and you've found one that perfectly suits your needs. Others are embarking on a journey and going to new lands with the Gospel.

Every one of us, somewhere inside, have dreams. Even if they failed there is still a spark of hope that the future will give us another opportunity.

For me, it's about 30 songs I really want to finish, and albums I want to put together. As well as more messages. I really want to see an increase in my faith. You know, the kind of faith that goes to the airport, and steps into a booth in the bathroom. Waits while the Lord says, "Wait". And then the Lord says, "Okay, go out." And you go out... and you're in Trinidad! With my dear ones, helping them come to America. I have great hopes for them, because they are very, very special in God.

But here I must tell you. What if you and I are at the end of our 'tomorrows'? What if you wake up to WWII? What if there is no more food at the store; no more medicines you depend on daily to live and function? What if there is no more gasoline at the pump, because it's been shut down? What if you have a dire medical need and there is no hospital to go to??

I am asking you to put yourself in these scenarios. Why? Because our days are taken up with these things. Our time is lavished on these things. Your thoughts like a merry-go-round are constantly riding on all these duties, hopes, and dreams.

Think about this and put yourself there:

You wake up in the morning to uncanny silence. The alarm didn't go off. There's no light. You go to pick up your phone, and it is dead. Your computer battery just ran out, and there is no electricity. You go to use the restroom and there is no water. Your refrigerator is warm and things in your freezer are melting. Things are strangely quiet outside. No laughter from children, no traffic--even the birds are quiet.

You go to call your daughter and the phone is useless. You go to send her an e-mail and your server is down. And then you hear it: Marshall law has been declared; we are at war. One of our cities has been destroyed. Commerce has stopped, trucks have stopped, people are unable to go anywhere because gasoline is only for the military.

Why am I painting such a dark picture against the backdrop of your dreams and new anointings???

I am telling you this, because the President has been taken out of office and now wicked people are in control calling the shots. People who want you dead have taken over and done all they could to see to it that America is completely destroyed--with as many as possible dead.

Now, this has NOT happened. Yet. But I am telling you this, because this is what would happen if the President is taken out of office.

You haven't gone shopping for the week, so you are low on food...but the stores have been overrun, trashed and are closed and locked up. You go to your kitchen and try to calculate how long you can live on what you've got. And if you aren't armed, what you do have will soon belong to thugs who go from door to door to get what you so diligently saved.

You grab your bug-out bag, but woefully, you don't have the gas to get away to the mountains. And the roads are all closed and barricaded. The army has closed off your access to exit town.

And ALL of this happens... overnight.

What was your life, all your possessions...? My keyboard and recording equipment; my family photo album and precious things--are going to be looted and sacked by desperately hungry people and criminals. Computers are useless without electricity, without a server.

All of a sudden, your priorities are to stay alive and get away from your home. And it's winter, and brutal outside. But all you can think of is how to find something to eat and a place to hide from the chaos.

Do you think I am being far-fetched by sharing this with you???

I am telling you, dear ones, if you do not change your priorities to praying for the President, and give that the lion's share of your time and attention, you are looking at your tomorrow.

A prophet by the name of Jeremiah Johnson had a dream yesterday. And I sought the Lord about it, and I got 'Holy Spirit'. His dream was that our President was going deeper into the swamp in a boat, feeling very victorious over all opposition. He was happy, but he wasn't paying attention to the crocodiles that were being sent to bite through the boat and sink it. The deeper he got into the swamp, feeling so self-assured, the bigger the beasts got and he never noticed them!

Until they took a section of the boat out and it started to sink. Then he was devoured by them. WHY? WHY? WHY did this happen? We are praying for him, right???

Yes, we are praying and God answers prayer. But not all are praying. Not all have turned their gaze from the dreams in their lives to dedicate time to prayer and fasting. Some of the most capable among us are very busy with our ministries and jobs. And not taking these dangers seriously enough to make their life stop going 'round and 'round and get on their knees.

So, I finished the song? Nowhere to play it. No venue, the Internet is shut down. It would have been much wiser for me to give the lion's share to prayer for Trump until we were out of danger. Now I finished my song, but for what?

You were given a raise...but no food in the stores, and the banks are shut. It is falling apart... Your hard work at your company is useless, because it's been shut down.

Don't you see, Heartdwellers???? Don't you see? You have no tomorrow if this man goes down. Your dreams that were dependent on the fabric of society are all for nothing. Your ministries, schooling, projects to help others, all come to nothing because all your energies are spent on securing the next meal, where it will come from. How will I defend my loved ones from looters?

At Pearl Harbor they were having a leisurely day, family fun, looking forward to the harvest. Building their homes, decorating, taking scenic trips and hanging out with family and friends. And suddenly it came to them: the unthinkable happened. Japan attacked and destroyed substantial military assets. Killed hundreds and changed the fate of thousands of lives in a mere hour.

We've been warned, over and over again. We know much has to come to pass in Revelation, but we've also been given another window of time--conditionally--that we would build a secure hedge of prayer around our President.

Are we fasting? Are we praying? Not just a few prayers, and then off to the keyboard or school or whatever, but gut-wrenching intercession, fasting, and putting our all into it. We have to ask for it. "Lord, please give us a spirit of travail for our nation. Lord, give us the grace and willingness to fast. Lord make it real to us! If we lose this President, we lose it all!"

Now, I have not substantiated this, but there are rumors that the enemy is going to overthrow the government and impeach the President. To put Trump in handcuffs on CNN live, in front of the nation, charging him with lies and falsehoods. Could that be all the crocodiles starting to take bites out of the boat? Could that be? I don't know.

I'm telling you all, only travailing prayer is going to build that wall around him. He's concerned for the wall in Mexico, but he is the one in the greatest danger. He is the one who needs the wall. And where are the Christians who are supposedly building that wall with their fasts, tears and supplications???

Well, some are at church. Others at the movies. Some at work; others in school. And some just too tired after a full day's work to do anything but lay on the couch and watch news.

This cancer that we're dealing with in the world is so much bigger and more established than anyone ever imagined. Certainly, our President under-estimated the depth, breadth, and stranglehold of this cursed disease that has entrenched itself on the Earth. Because in this dream, he was in his Make America Great Again hat and laughing as he forged deeper into the swamp. A new Christian easily falls to over-confidence and presumption. His wins have been because of the prayer behind him. I don't think he fully understands how impotent he is in the face of this world's consuming cancer.

Yes, he is a genius. But what gives power to his bite... is prayer. So far so good--he's still alive. The almost daily assassination attempts have failed. But as he goes deeper into the swamp, the creatures get much bigger than he imagined, and his boat gets more flimsy with every approaching beast.

His success depends on YOUR prayers, and this is a new level of warfare, Heartdwellers. We are in deeper than ever before and the fight is fierce. If we don't increase our sacrifices and prayers, we will wake up one morning with nothing. Our precious plans for the future? Totally crushed.

Lord, I have run out of words... Have I been too harsh? Jesus began, "You have nailed it. Right on target. The plans being made now to take him down are more vicious than anything he has encountered in his administration.

"Do not tell me about this prophet and that prophet that talked about his second term. Those prophecies were given on the basis of a praying America. An America that falls to its knees and cries out to Me for justice. When complacency sets in and people drop out of serious prayer, because they think it's all covered--that is the death knell for America."

Forgive me, Lord, but I thought there were huge prayer meetings and movements all over the nation to protect him?

Jesus continued, "What is needed is the prayer of the Ninevites. And you are nowhere near that." But I thought we had another two years from the Father? "Two years of crushing defeat and survival of the fittest? Or two years of glorious moving forward?"

"Clare, you have shaken some people up by this message. But I tell you the truth. Unless it is fully embraced and put into motion, there is little hope for Donald. He is without sufficient protection for this next move of the enemy. He is wide open, and only a huge movement of travailing prayer will save your nation.

"Why do you think I keep playing 'In the Storm' for you?"

For those of you who don't know, "In the Storm" is about an attack on American city and World War III.

"Every morning, sometimes two or three times. I have been trying to get your attention. Why do you think you have been with Me in your wedding dress, dancing? We are so very close. And if things continue the way they have been, there is no hope of turning it around.

"Have you ever wondered why I tell some prophets about the glorious plans I have for this nation. And others like yourself are called upon to get into the trenches and fight?"

Yes, Jesus. All the time I wonder. But then I remember what You told me that each group has a different calling, and You are depending on the diligent prayers of the faithful to fulfill the good prophecies.

He continued, "I am projecting what is possible if diligence is maintained. But when people are drawn out of the trenches into civilian affairs and leave their post wide open to the enemy, My words cannot be fulfilled. If Nineveh had not repented, it would have been destroyed as it was later.

"What is needed here is major repentance and a turning to Me, with pet projects and dreams in second place to serious intercession. The kind that wipes you out. I am not calling for this indefinitely, but I am calling for it NOW. If all of you take this to heart and act in obedience, there will be a time when the tables are turned. But right now, you are in the midst of grave danger.

"Your piano, your songs, your messages are all a waste of time unless you've gotten into substantial traveling prayer, first. That is how serious this is. Don't waste your time doing anything for Me if you have not beaten down the gates of Heaven with tears, fasting, and supplication for your nation."

Lord, some of us cannot fast.

"I know that, and I have spoken into the conscience of all to do what is best suited for them. As a general rule, sweet and pleasant foods should be avoided and offered up. But it is better if you don't make it obvious to others Stay humble and hide it, unless you are all together on the self-denials.

"The hour you spend on video games, which are not healthy for you, you should give up and mow an elderly person's yard for them. Give up gourmet food for plain food. For instance, pizza--for a simple meal of meat and potatoes, or cereal. Quinoa, is a very good fast for you, Clare.

"Abstain from meat on Fridays and Wednesdays. Wednesday corresponds to the key events in My life that paved the way for My arrest Thursday night. But Friday is sufficient.

"Tell Me, My people, what are you willing to give up to save your nation?"

"Remember, this is critical in timing. I will not ask this of you every day, unless you wanted to offer it to Me. And there is nothing you can give Me that I will not return to your hearts, a thousand-fold, My great love for you in a sensible way.

"Clare, can you go without cinnamon in your coffee in the morning?"

Little things?

"Yes, very little things count for much. Do not fast so severely that you are too weak to pray. Do not fast if you are sick or pregnant or have undergone surgery. But you can deny yourselves treat foods.

"Do not deny your body water. Meat is a good offering, but not if it makes you so weak you cannot pray.

"Offer Me every little irritation, delay, opposition, accident, trial, inconvenience. Offer these things in a spirit of meekness and thanksgiving that you have something to offer.

"Do not announce that you are fasting. Do not attempt outrageous fasts, which come from Pride. To take great pleasure in fasting when others don't; to see yourself as a spiritual person because you are fasting and they are not, is very detrimental to your soul. You are opening the door to pride and the invasion of the enemy, which will cost you much--as well as making your sacrifice of no account.

"Go out of your way for others. Deny yourself and do for others.

"I am asking this of you right now, during this time. This will not last long. But it is going to be a very hard two weeks. You will not always have access to, or know, what is going on. That is another suffering. Just know that no gift of yours falls to the ground without first bearing much fruit.

"Please embrace this prayer, fasting and self-denial as if you were trying to prevent My crucifixion. Because I tell you truly, the pain I will suffer if we lose this battle will be like My crucifixion all over again.

"Will you stand--for Me? Will you deny yourself--for Me? "Remember: this will not go on forever. But the next two weeks are critical.

"I would also ask you to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet and the Rosary, if possible. I never force anything on anyone. But My mother's tender heart is standing with all of us in this assault against your government.

"If you are not willing, please pray, 'Lord I am willing to be made willing.' And I will make your sacrifices sweeter than you could have ever imagined.

"Plead the Blood over his staff and protection, that no traitor would be given access to him. Pray for supernatural sensitivity for all of them. Pray Psalm 91 over them.

"And trust that no word of Mine will return void, but it will accomplish what I have sent it for. If enough of you do these things, embracing them with your whole heart, we will have a victory."

Pushing Back The Darkness

---

September 21, 2021

Lord, grant us the grace to fight darkness with our heavenly weapons, using divine power to demolish strongholds and tear down the works of the enemy, Amen.

Blessed Mother began speaking to Mother Clare, "I am here with you. I haven't gone away. Continue to prepare, do not let up on your plans. Keep moving forward, there is so little time left to you all. Each day I want you to make steady progress forward. Do not hold back, do not allow sickness to prevent you from the messages. You have only to ask me and I will help you.-- --

"I know it seems like a lot, more than you can handle, but things get done in layers, one after another so do not stop. I am with them in a very special way. Truly they are chosen, it is in their hands the level in which they want to participate. They have many relatives to consider as well. Possibly even an end times community for them. There are many options open to them and being here gives them an idea of what it is like. And yet there are many suffering homeless that will have no place to go. As I said, they have many options. They should seriously seek the Lord about what to do, according to His will. There are decisions to make.

"These are two very special souls Clare, very special and to the degree they will cooperate, is the degree over the flesh and temptations of this world. Still the priority is on praying for those who will die without preparation to meet the Lord. I am asking all of you to focus on these souls. They are the most vulnerable and it breaks my Son's heart to know that their souls are in great jeopardy.

"Indeed, praying for these is the most productive prayer you can make. My Son longs to gather them all together and see to it that they make it to Heaven or at the very least purgatory. Remember the Divine Mercy Prayer is the most powerful towards this end.-- --

"It is late in the game to begin a refuge, the ones my Son has already established have a solid foundation. You know from experience how long it takes to sort out people, who belongs and who doesn't. There are pre-established communities all around the world, they could choose to align themselves with, however, they know you and that is half the battle."-- --

Mother you know what I am thinking.-- --

Blessed Mother continued, "Patience, you will be rewarded for moving forward and for patience. You have not been misled so far, and you will not be misled the rest of the way. At least have confidence that thus far you have heard from Us. Be confident especially when you see things moving forward, that we are behind every decision. This should give you the confidence to move forward.-- --

"You are preparing many for their roles and that will become clearer as things begin to fall into place. Sweet Clare, we want you to move forward with the messages and trust that we are in everything you are doing. You have a very mature group of souls around you, and they are very balanced and dedicated. It is safe for you to move forward."

Mother, please restore my mind, I am still very much feeling cross currents.

Our Lady continued, "And that is because you are suffering for what is going on. It will not be long now. Just do what you can every day, be faithful to care for your husband and community. Speak as the Spirit brings things up and continue to prepare. We are with you; you will not fail. You are loved, cherished and carefully guarded, rest assured angels surround you and the mountain and they are presenting a formidable challenge to the dark ones. As you step up and pray, citadels and strongholds fall. Your prayers believe it or not are very powerful.-- --"

Remember, you are working on the side of righteousness which the angels love and regard highly. Those who hate you will weaken."

Mother, I pray also they convert and realize they are dealing with the deceiver.

Blessed Mother responded, "Your prayers help in this endeavor. Keep praying my children and your prayers will push back the darkness."

The Sorrow of Inductees to Taliban

---

September 22, 2021

God bless you dear Heart Dwellers. Blessed Mother began speaking to Mother Clare, "I am so glad you are focusing on the salvation of these little ones. In your culture you have not had any experience with the kind of repression they undergo as children growing up in these families that are hell bent on violence. A family where violence and force are glorified and women have no voice or they are beaten. It is extremely oppressive Clare. That is why we are asking for prayers because they do not have a free will choice in anything. They are treated with an iron fist.

"The way of violence and brutality are lauded and those who display the most force are dominant. Because of this repression, they do not have properly formed consciences, because love is not stressed and glorified. Rather brutality is considered the norm.-- --

"You cannot imagine the sorrow a mother feels when her children are conscripted into the Taliban. They make excuses, but their entire goal is to control and demoralize others. They threaten the young ones with murdering their family if they do not go along with the program. And a mother may never see her son again.-- --

"They are ruled by fear from birth to death and this is why we want you to pray for them, that in the very moment when they are approaching death their eyes might be opened to my Son.-- It is a great work of Mercy for you who are far removed from the battle field and culture, for you to bend the knee and pray for those who will most surely perish without your prayers.

"I know you cannot see them, nor can you feel them, or hear their cries, but your blind obedience praying for them none the less is so very powerful and my Son rushes to show mercy. There are many things you do not understand about the dynamics of their faith. How very great is the mercy of God through the faith of Abraham.-- --

"For it is yet possible for them to be saved and enter through the sheep gate.-- -- The ways of the Father's glory are wrapped in sublime mystery but are unequivocally just. This is why I wish for you all to believe that your prayers are truly having an effect in the saving of souls. This should encourage you to press in, knowing full well that no sacrifice or prayer is wasted by the Father.

"About ordination, the church has gotten so far away from the original intentions of the Father. You in your littlest ways are being instrumental in restoring the priesthood to what it once was meant to be. Do not doubt little one. Do not doubt. Pray for restoration.

Mother it is good for me to keep silent and not say anything.

"Indeed. But this will pass. You are good friends after all and no evil was meant by it. You are moving forward. Fear nothing, my Father's plans for you are unending and pregnant with possibilities. Do not fear, your goodwill is noted and brings much joy. Oh yes, I love for you to feel His joy. You need this force in your personal life my love. Let the joy of the Lord be your strength, truly He has much joy over you. Believe it, live it and let it touch the lives of others.-- --

"The pain is nothing, it is the conscience that brings conviction, healing and deep peace, this you have, fear nothing and dwell on these words of admonition, truly He wanted you to receive them." And that was the end of Our Lady's message.

Please continue to pray my family for those who are inducted into a life of fear and violence.

Is The Lord Avoiding You

---

September 22, 2021

Lord, thank you that Your love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things, thank you that Your love never fails. Amen.

Mother Clare began, Lord, I love You. I love You. I love You. Beloved spouse of my heart forgive my lapses and ingratitude.

I am so sorry that I am sometimes irritated. Oh, forgive me dear Lord, I am forever grateful for all Your kindness.

I miss going to Heaven with you. Can we please do that some more? I miss writing music. I miss Your sweet face oh love of my life. Please let me look upon it and tenderly kiss it. Forgive me Lord for the thoughts and dreams I have that are not edifying. Please wash me white as snow and remove these stains from my mind and heart. Please make me brave and thankful when adversity besets us. You have done for me all that I could have ever asked for and far beyond.-- --

Please help me to worship You in spirit and in truth.-- -- Help me to write songs that will touch hearts and draw all men to You.-- -- Lord, I know I have been impatient and curious...rather than seeking You and waiting on You, I have turned to the news that man puts out.

I regret my weakness but am weak and starved for knowing what is going on. Only you can change that. Please satisfy my need to know or take it away. Most of all create a pure heart in me that prays deeply and from the heart for others.

Thank you so very much for the beautiful men and women you have surrounded me with, and this loving community. Thank You for Your mother who has again made such a difference in my life. Help me please to use the time you have given me for Your Holy Will, not for my recreation or for idols. Jesus, I love You, I love You, I do. I worship, I love You, I thank You, forever and ever be glorified in my heart as I reach out to others.

The Lord began, "Clare, I have waited long and hard to hear those words from you. I know in truth how much you love Me and how your weaknesses disgust you. There will soon come a day when all these defects will exist no more. How I look forward to that day. But I want you to know that I see past these things and know that your heart is burning for Me. It gives Me endless pleasure and satisfaction to see that Beloved. I know how you have waited patiently enduring all the trials, I know how you have guarded your faith and longed for My coming. Oh, My Beloved I shall not disappoint you. I come soon, amidst great glory and conviction.

"I think it is a wise idea to write a heart to heart letter to the channel. It would be a good time to get them caught up on this current perspective. Clare, they really love you. You are so much like all of them and their hearts are very inspired by your example. It would do them good."

I received the Lord before I went to bed and I felt like, I've been growing distant from Him again, and He's probably not real happy with me, so, ho hum...I guess I'll just make do until I get myself out of the dog house.

A moment after I thought that, just then, I felt His presence and saw Him to my right. He said, "Please don't say that about Me, or think for one moment that I am not here. I am not avoiding you My little, little Clare. I am so happy you received Me and are spending some time with Me. I wish I could convince you that I wait all day just to be with you. Then you presume I am upset and shy away from perceiving My presence.

"That's why I am talking to you right now, so this lie can be stopped and ended. It means so much to Me when you stay a while with Me and long for My company. How do I convince you? Well you're doing a pretty good job right now.

"Yes, I am God and far beyond your natural state of understanding, but I still desire fellowship with My Bride. That's what we're doing right now, being together?" He lifted His eye brows in a gesture of questioning...almost to say, "But do you want to be with Me."-- --

You know I do Jesus.-- --

The Lord continued, "Yes, well the urgency of the day surely wiped you out, but I still enjoy your company, even now when you are beginning to dream, your eyes so heavy with sleep. I just wanted you to know, Sweet Clare, you are working very hard for Me and I deeply appreciate it."-- --

Seeking God's Counsel First

September 22, 2021

Lord Jesus, please open our hearts to hear wisdom and increase in virtue. Your mother prayed for you constantly and you have asked us to learn of her Scriptural role, please help us to witness to truth, Holy Spirit please lead us in understanding the great cloud of witnesses according to the Bible. Amen.

Mother Clare began, Dear ones, we are not abandoning the Lord, rather He is teaching us about how Father God moves through His holy instruments. We do not replace our devotion to Jesus with His Mother. Never. Rather we cling to our Heavenly spouse, we comfort Him in all He must see on the earth and we follow Him in complete obedience. Just like in a corporation, many people are assigned tasks, so is it in Heaven and Mary is assigned to be the Mother of the Bride, teaching us what is pleasing to her Son, who is God.

In today's Rosary, we experienced a very special grace. Today Our Lady was teaching on humility and with a demonstration that surprised us all. Our youngest community member (the littlest in the eyes of the world) was leading the Rosary and half way through the first decade, I felt the presence of the Blessed Mother very strongly.

I could hear the young man sobbing and wondered what was going on. Later I asked him and he told me. "Mother, when I was praying the Rosary, I felt honored to lead it, but realized there was some contamination in my motive, namely to be approved, accepted, feel important, etc. And I recognized this in the middle of the Rosary as I was praying and saw my sin of Pride, yet felt the gentle conviction of the Holy Spirit, that my motive was not pure.-- --

"I couldn't help but weep because I was so ashamed of wanting some kind of recognition or approval from man, when I should have had my heart and mind on the precious grace, we have received of having a visitation of the Blessed Mother, every day at the Rosary. I was so deeply convicted, yet I felt God's forgiveness wash over me."-- --

When he prayed a very sweet peace and hush fell over everyone in the meeting.-- -- Then Our Lady began to teach us about humility. Little did I know she was already teaching the lad about it through his own example.

Our Lady began, "The first shall be last and the last shall be first. My dear family, if each of you knew the power of humility, none of you would ever again seek to be first and the authority. Any time you would be in the limelight, or recognized, you would blush and seek to lower yourself.

"The world of men is surely one of primacy in influence. The world of Heaven literally melts when they perceive profound humility in any soul. There is no way for you to gauge this truth while you are in this world. But soon, in Heaven, you will see with new eyes this profound truth.

"Those who are fortunate enough to recognize this and live it while on the earth are a blessed wonder in the eyes of the Great King. Yes, you should seek this great state of grace with all your hearts. Understand that a soul such as this is highly favored when they pray. Rather than seeking to know, seek to know only God. Rather than seeking to teach, seek to learn every day from the many lessons the Lord arranges for you. Rather than speaking up, seek only to hear the voice of the Holy Spirit through your brothers and sisters. Rather than seeking to be the authority, seek to hear His Spirit in every moment of every circumstance in your lives, and to execute His Will. Always submit your ideas to the Holy Spirit, and seek Him as the authority.

"My children, there is no greater wisdom or ability to lead than to make Him your authority and conform to His council, in everything. To act independently on your own, is the epitome of pride and Ignorance, because the thinking of this world is not the thinking of God and man is easily lead astray by thinking he is wise and acting without seeking the approval of God.

"The Hallmark of the meek soul is to humbly seek out wisdom, seeing yourselves as less qualified than others. In all thing's dear ones, from the littlest projects to the biggest, submit all to God and cheerfully carry out what you are shown to be approved of God." And that was the end of Our Lady's message.

Mother Clare continued, how many times I have failed to do that and spent hours doing the wrong things with my time. Had I sought the simplicity of inquiring of God first, I cannot even compute how much better my life would have been. But because of self will and many times carnal appetites, I instead, forged ahead acting on my passion and not seeking God's approval. I know I have lost many graces entrusted to me because I wanted what I wanted and justified doing it by my own wisdom.

The difference between Mary and I is that she never lost the graces entrusted to her, she protected them hidden in her heart. But Mary treasured up "all these things and pondered them in her heart." Luke 2:19

Dear Lord, please teach us to respond in this very same way, spurning our own will and own opinions as the destructive and worthless actions that they truly are.-- -- Amen.

Steward of Grace

---

September 25, 2021

Lord help us to be good and faithful stewards with all that you have entrusted to us. Let us be ever mindful that You will return at any time and we are to be busy about Your business. Amen.

Lord, my heart is troubled. Jesus began speaking, "Have peace and do not be anxious, do as you have been asked. I will bring My truth to light and not allow the enemy to gain entry." I had been tossing and turning over a conversation earlier in the evening and after He said that, I fell into a deep, peaceful sleep. Of course, the next morning upon waking, I'm bombarded with thoughts from the night before. I asked Holy Spirit to control my thoughts and instantly I began thinking about Blessed Mother and how she was so very faithful to God in everything she did, from the seemingly insignificant to those obedient actions of great note. Just then the parable of the talents found in Matthew 25 flew into my head and I knew the Lord was revealing to us the qualities of a good steward.

Jesus continued, "I put My wise and faithful managers in charge of My servants to feed them at the proper time. Elisabeth, you must follow in order to lead, even when it doesn't make sense to you. My precious ones, your work is to do My work. Your reward will not be given to you by man, but by Me. All of you need to work on being faithful in the small things, before you are given greater tasks to accomplish for My glory. My people, resemble the servant who knows he will be held accountable for his care of others."

My mind went back to the parable of the talents and in the story, three stewards each receive an allotment of money to manage on behalf of the owner. The first two stewards invest their talents and they each give the owner back double what they were given. And to each the owner replies, "Well done good and faithful servant." The third steward fearfully digs a hole and goes about his own life. He disregards his job to properly care for the owner's money. When the owner returns, the steward digs up the talent and gives back only the amount given to him. The owner said, "You wicked and slothful servant" and took away the talent and gave it to the good steward and the bad steward was thrown out.

Jesus continued, "I want all of you to build up and increase what I have given you. You are being called to invest in, build up and increase My Kingdom. You have been entrusted with the treasures of the gospel, faith and authority in the spiritual realm. Do you use these treasures or do you bury them? A good steward remembers that He works for Me. I am the owner of earth and everything in it. You are caretakers of God's Kingdom. Be wise and kind and build up My Church." And that was the end of His message.

We read in 1 Peter 4:10-11, "As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good managers of the grace of God in its various forms. If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of God. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen."

Heartdwellers, we are called to be "good managers" of the grace of God. As believers, our actions reap eternal consequences. The way we live and what we say should honor God. Being a steward of grace means using whatever gift God have given us to perform acts of kindness towards others and to invest in souls and help bring them into the sheepfold of God's Kingdom.

Formula For Salvation

September 27, 2021

Lord, thank you for your mercy on the sick, the dying, the unsaved and the unprepared for death, and that not one soul will pass away without knowing your merciful love and inviting you into their heart. Amen. Mother Clare began, "Blessed mother, please speak to us tonight, please."

"Just believe my children. I have brought you all together here in faith, shall I then abandon you? Do not fear what man fears precious children, for God has your best interests at heart and is not slack in protecting you and your families. Yes, men's hearts will fail them, but your heart will be secure in the Lord. There is nothing on this earth that can happen that will separate you from Him. He has seen to that. And many of the things that man fears the Lord has total control over.-- --

"The Blood of Jesus is so powerful and those prayers are powerful. My blessed ones, the closer you are to the Lord in His passion the greater the rewards of intimacy. Therefore, many who are sick and bed bound have enviable relationships with Him. They were willing to give up all else to have this.-- --

"It is so important that you teach heart dwellers to abide in the Vine, to rest in His merciful provision, to cleave to Him and use His Blood to deliver you from evil. Especially these end time plagues. Your provision, your safety, your security is totally in Him, no matter what man fears, when you cleave to Him in this way, nothing can separate you.

"Do not look at death as a tragedy, it is a reward for the Christian, it is homecoming time. Does it not say the living will envy the dead? Indeed, this is true, it is a release from earthly bonds to be taken to Heaven. What is most necessary is prayer for those who do not know Him. These are the tragedies and this is why the Lord has you praying for them now, keep your eyes open for the unsaved and pray for them, these will be the ones He is most concerned about, the ones that break His Heart.-- --

"A true and loving Bride is always solicitous for her Groom and all the ways she can bring Him happiness. You have it in your possession to bring Him this happiness by praying for the ones who do not know Him and haven't been open to accepting Him.

"You needn't be stressed over your condition because death can only bring you eternal happiness, but those around you, living in the darkness have even a more horrible darkness to overcome them if they do not say "Yes" to Jesus. Make this your priority at those times. This will also be a tremendous witness that you KNOW your destiny and trust in Him even in your last moments on Earth.

"Now, about these events written in Revelation, they are to come about especially for the punishment of the wicked and the salvation of souls who will turn to God. You are given the task of bringing God to others and giving them reassurance that they are loved by their creator, but because of the terrible crimes of some and their proliferation on Earth, all of this is necessary.

"Convinced of His love for them, they will die in peace. Assist those at the hour of their death by asking them to forgive those who have injured them, explain to them that God will forgive all of their sins if they have forgiven others who have sinned against them. This is a formula for salvation, confession of sin, releasing others from their sins, believing in the death and resurrection of Jesus, that He is God and giving their lives into His hands, simply stating, "Lord I am sorry for my sins, please forgive me, come into my heart, I give you my life."-- --

"This is a good message for the channel so that others may know how to care for those who are dying. But of course, dear ones, see to it that you also forgive all sins against you."

Earthquake Dream, City Sized Sink Holes Ready to Fall

---

September 28, 2021

The Lord bless you my dear ones with courage and understanding, and the ability to cleave to the Lord under all circumstances. Amen.

I had a dream last night and it was a terrible earthquake. It happened in California, the big one, right along the San Andreas fault, the one everyone is dreading. I was standing on the East side of the San Andreas fault in Southern California. The earth was crumbling, first twenty feet, then ten feet, then three feet in front of me, and I kept stepping backwards to try and avoid being swallowed into this hole, this great abyss that was opening. And the ground was shaking violently, and huge crumbled sections broke off and fell into the abyss and I woke up. It was very, very real.

When I awoke, the Lord confirmed that it was a warning dream for California, especially for the Heart Dwellers who live in that very area. Our friends have known for years that they had to leave but had not decided where to go yet. Well I have to say, just about anywhere is better than where they are now!

Just to give you an idea of what we may be facing...depending on how much intercession is devoted to it, Mike from Around the World, who works for the government and has been given permission to share many potential events with us, things he has hard knowledge about, has been informing his listeners of converging circumstances that we are facing right now.

The most immediate, and threatening to California, is an incoming cluster of powerful pulses that have been increasingly hitting the Earth, and other planets in our solar system. The ones that happened during this past week were responsible for the great upsurge of earthquakes and volcanos. But the pulses that are coming now are 500 to 2500 times stronger, and I have never seen anything like the frequency and strength of these earthquakes and numerous volcanos that are popping up in different locations.

And I want to make mention here that there have been a couple of times that nine-point something earthquakes have registered and then were immediately downgraded and then immediately disappeared. So, I do not think we are getting all the facts. No one seems to know where these pulses are coming from, or if they know they are not talking about it. In any case, everything in our solar system is getting super-heated, including the core of our planet.

And the movie 2012, the Lord told me, was very accurate of what was about to happen. Now the earth and all the planets get hotter and hotter by the day, and every planet has seen an increase in heat. The earth itself is extremely restless, the molten core of nickel is now escaping into the crust of the earth. There are literally fires beneath New York state area, and gasses that are burning beneath the surface I think in mining areas like Pennsylvania and New York, I am not too sure about the exact location, these fires have been burning for a very long time, no one has been talking about them. There are even spontaneous fires igniting underground without any provocation in different places around the world. And just recently we heard there is a volcano underneath New York City.

In California there are city sized sink holes forming. Can you imagine that, a whole city sinking into the earth before our very eyes? It is truly unimaginable.

We know that there are incoming meteors and a mass of space debris that have been hitting the earth starting forest fires for the last few months all around the world. If you watch The Two Preachers channel, they have a lot of videos about things that have been happening around the world that were very strange. Fires in places that just never had fires before, fires at the North Pole, or smoke at the North Pole, I should say, and these pulses are igniting chemicals in the atmosphere. Just recently in China there was a mammoth explosion at a PVC factory. As it turns out, the elements for making PVC are highly volatile at a certain stage of manufacturing, and China experienced a devastating explosion that was thought to be a nuclear attack at first. And other PVC plants were also exploding around the world, all because of these pulses.

In addition, there is a thousand-mile-long area of land that is rising from under the Atlantic Ocean, displacing water to the point where it is calculated to be two feet higher all the way around the world.

My dear family, we are facing some very challenging times. There are many trials coming upon the world, and how much we pray will be weighted in the balance and prevent many catastrophes. The Lord is most concerned with souls being saved, His whole heart and mind are upon those who may perish in the many events approaching our world. What He is asking of you, is prayer for the unsaved. He will always cover for you if you are about His business.

Then as I was pondering all this and praying, a very special Saint of God began speaking to my heart:

"Now you are beginning to get the picture of the cataclysmic events that are coming. The scope of destruction is beyond your ability to imagine. So many things will be affected, and people will be beside themselves in fright.

"Your job, Clare, is to keep them focused on Jesus and turning to Him when they are frightened. Prepare them Clare, prepare them to keep vigils to fast and pray, especially asking them to be ready to stand before the Lord. He is longing to extend salvation to so many, but because they do not really know His character, they do not trust Him.

"Instruct them to look at His goodness and care for them. He created this beautiful earth just for them and has visited them with many graces throughout their lives. When they see a giggle manifest on a baby's face, that is His goodness touching them in their hearts.

"All the earth and everything in it were created from love to shower upon mankind beauty and blessings. Even when they sin, He still loves them and looks with compassion upon their misgivings of gain from doing what is wrong. He is a good Father, and has created so much in this world for people to enjoy. It is not His fault that things are abused, taken advantage of and destroyed by Satan out of jealousy and hatred for human beings.

"Try to appeal to their knowledge of God's tenderness, how He took so much time to form the petals on each flower and how tastefully he arranged the stamens with pollen to feed the bees and pollinate future generations of flowers. So much forethought went into the delicate shades of pink that fade to lavender and white, in each flower petal. He did that for your enjoyment Clare. This priceless bouquet of flowers you have picked was thought of long before you were even born and its purpose was decided, to bring you joy in a time of darkness. Do you see mankind, how incredibly attentive He is to even the littlest of our joys?

"This is truly the Father, He is truly your Creator, and never can you comprehend how concerned He is for your welfare especially in trials. Many times, you miss His little gifts, perhaps it is a word on a license plate or a billboard, or a deer trotting through a forest, or the wonder of married love, in all things His glory shows forth, it is only the abuse and misuse of Satan and his fallen angels, that is responsible for the destruction, the brokenness and the woes of mankind. Father God had nothing to do with that, all the pain, death and dying you experience in your world is the result of the fallen angels and their hatred of you and God."

You see, I want to add here, the devils cannot get to the Lord, but he can cause His creation to suffer.

"You must convince them "they continued, "that God did not want this judgement to befall the Earth but the suffering of innocent children, the injustice of corrupt judges, and aggressive Godless nations has got to be extinguished from the face of the earth so that Jesus may come in His Glory to rebuild the kingdom."

And that was the end of their message.

Heart Dwellers, this is a time like no other in history. The entire world is about to go through a most painful cleansing fire. Jesus is going to take His church up and out of the way, yet some who are chosen will stay behind to help and guide, knowing they will be martyred. All of us must find our hearts on our knees and pray for the precious souls who have never met Jesus, that they will come to the loving arms of their Savior in the very last moments.

And for you who live in California, I highly recommend you pack up your precious memories and get to high ground in the Southwestern United States, or the Northwestern, but stay away from the Coast and the Cascades. We have a map that was generated by the government that shows the areas that are going to suffer flooding from the changes that are coming. I am going to make sure that that map is at the very end of this video so you can look at it and copy it.

If I were in your circumstance and I knew these pulses were coming this coming week or possibly as early as Wednesday, maybe even Tuesday, these pulses are incoming 500 times to 2,500 times more powerful than the one that set off all these other volcanoes and I have been watching quake feed, and that entire fault from Alaska down to the Sandwich Islands is extremely active right now. That little buzzer goes off every few minutes to show there has been another earthquake. They are not major, they are very small, four point five, five point five, six in some places, but they are, in theory, precise places will impact directly the San Andreas fault.

But if I were in your shoes and I knew this was going to happen and I could do it I would pack up my things that are really important to me and get out of that area for at least two or three weeks until the danger has passed then maybe come back and get your things but I would be very careful to follow the Lord in prayer and to know that He has given you His permission for you to go back and to stay gone as long as the Holy Spirit tells you to stay gone. Better that you should lose all your possessions than your lives.

And I also want to mention that check your own discernment about leaving the area you are in. Check with the Lord, use the Bible Promises and even the Scriptures, and check with Him to make sure that He wants you to leave. Excuse all the rain in the background.

Anyway, the Lord bless you dear Heart Dwellers and thank you for supporting the mission. Thank you so much, we are spreading out all over the world. Different people are coming into their anointings, and we are spreading the word all over the world, Russia, Japan, China, South America, Australia, I mean everywhere. People are responding to His messages, and I thank you so much for your continued support. The enemy hates us and is constantly attacking us, but we continue to bind him and to pray and the Lord delivers us, thanks be to God.

God bless you dear ones, and I just want this last word to be on your heart and minds. Our prayers can lessen the degree of these events, our prayers touch the heart of the Father, and He showers mercy down upon His children. So much can be prevented because of your prayers, so do not stop praying. Pray especially for those who do not know Him.

A Little Add-on below that Clare asked me to add to this message from Mike from Around the World - Mike F.

Were about to change abruptly geologically. Our position is about to change also. (in the Solar System)

Everybody's going to look dusty and red. That I promise. Winds will increase, and this winter will be something!!! Frigid cold out of the blue. Ca in parts has now sunk and they are working to try to postpone this.

They have a new mandate, and by December 12th, they are releasing many truths of what they know is coming. (This is about demonic beings being visible Worldwide soon) Nephilim books are now in some schools from 12yrs old to 18. They are leaking new truth subtly, but they are real truths!

There are news agency's all over now reporting shortages in Food, Medicine and other Supply's.

PRAY, PRAY, PRAY all you can HeartDwellers! We are changing more then we think we are through Prayer! God Bless all of you!

UFO Filmed over the refuge

---

September 29, 2021

Hello brothers and sisters and Heartdwellers Family. May you all be blessed. (This video has no sound, just 3 pictures then a movie.)

This past week, as we were Praying the Rosary at Mother Clare's house, I (Mike Fisher) was outside and as it got dark during Prayer, I found myself looking up at the sky.

We can see many stars up here, and they are quite pronounced, so I like to see them most nights and usually contemplate on the specific Prayer we are doing at that time.

A few nights ago, I noticed a bright light in the Southern sky, and to my surprise, it started moving quickly, from the South to the North. I watched it until it went below the tree line, and grabbed my camera just in case I saw more of these.

Well, as soon as I got the camera ready, I saw another one appear in the same place the first had become visible. This time, I was able to film it as it moved again from the Southern sky to the North. This is the video posted.

It was a pulsing light, and was moving faster than any airplane I have seen, so I knew this was a UFO! You will see once the video starts, (After the pictures) that it fly's past a star that is not moving.

We are very close to a Sipapu Ski Resort. Sipapu, which loosely means the "gateway to hell" is just North of our Refuge, and the Lord told us some time back that it is no coincidence that we are close to that portal. We believe it to be a gateway to hell, just as it is named, and the Lord confirmed it.

These things flew directly over our heads, and I had a check in my Spirit that told me what they were, demons.

Clare asked me to post this, and since it was so short, I would not have fit the text within the videos time, so I wrote this out to explain.

UFO sightings are becoming more and more frequent as we move forward in Prophecy, and sightings of actual demons are as well.

Please, all of you, do your best to prepare your minds and hearts to see these things soon. I do not know how much we will see, or how long we will be here but I am quite sure that most of us will be seeing demonic beings soon enough.

I believe that I was led to see this, and film in, to bring it up as a subject for a message, and Clare asked me last night to post this.

God Bless all of you, and stay focused on the Lord. My last Rhema today was "Comfort me", so I delayed work I had planned to do to spend more time with Jesus.
